What??? These people ain't " Indian " nor are they " Indian American"!!! For one thing, where are their war bonnet feathered headgear? Where are their nemesis - the cowboys? Hmm?? Nowhere to be seen, am I right!!! Where are the speeches about land rights and being overthrown by your ancestors all being killed by the British white monsters? THERE IS NONE OF THESE THINGS THEREFORE THESE PEOPLE ARE NOT INDIAN AMERICANS WHATSOEVER!!! Maybe Arabs of some shade, certainly, but not Indians!!!	Indian	Ethnicity - Native-American	3/79	3.797

I agree with the comic, mostly. He's very funny. Racial stereotypes exist because certain behaviors are repeated consistently. It's not a crime or " racist " to observe that and joke to your friends of different ethnicities about it. It just shows how comfortable you are with eachother to tease one another like that	Racist	Ethnicity - General	1/52	1.923

Racism is stupid and people who perpetuate or are entertained by racist behavior are also stupid. Additionally, this video does not represent the American perspective of Indians in America - AT ALL! Indians in America can say whatever they like because they have no sway in America. No one cares what they say or think because they are inconsequential in terms of American culture. Indians are not trend-setters in America and there are very few Indians leading in any major industry of the US, other than in IT and some areas of science and/or medicine. Additionally, Americans do not see Indians as the "in the middle" race in the US. Most Americans see Latinos as the "in the middle" race of America. Indians have designated themselves as "brown people", but Americans refer to Indians as Indian . When Americans use the term "brown people", they are referring to ALL people of color . . Black , Hispanic, Indian , Middle-Eastern, etc. - this term is typically used by Americans in conversations about diversity, to cover all people of color. I felt the need to clarify these points, but the bottom line is that viewing racism as funny is IGNORANT! Grow up, people!! News flash... you're not allowed to be racist . Where I live, a vast majority of individuals from that country aren't as racist as they are to not be accepting of other's cultures. White people have a bad wrap for what they did in the past...which all cultures also did in the past. It's not like the Persian Empire was built upon the hard work of unpaid volunteers.... nah man they were all slaves. Where multicultural people include others into their cultures, others do what they can to not include them via not hiring them, not trying to acculturate to the country that you live in and consistently not attempting in any way recognize that racism is among all races...not just white people. Comedians are simply telling jokes and jokes are jokes and shouldn't really get to anyone if you pay to go see it so what this guy is doing isn't an issue... but reality is that Indians and all other races are capable of racism and need to be prosecuted for doing so. These two don't know what they're talking about. Indian comedians are only MILDLY RACIST when they're doing racial jokes (they dare not go too far because they'd be fired just like that) on stage. The real nasty racist comments come from White and Black/other comedians speaking against Indian /Desi and especially Muslims (whether they be Desi or Middle-Eastern). Like for instance, at the comedy central roast of James Franco, Natasha Leggero let's Aziz Ansari have it. It always amuses me when African Americans go on about whites being racist land grabbers when they almost exclusively come from the Bantu ethnic group. The Bantu have been legendary for hacking their way through other ethnic groups in Africa and it's still going on today. Their treatment of the San, pygmies, Somalians today is extremely racist . There isn't a country in Africa where they have not masacred the indigenous people and they are still doing it to this day. The funny thing is when they are not even aware of this part of their history.	African, Ethnic, Racist	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	5/96	5.208

Graham Thomas Well those black Americans are wrong. There are also many white Americans that say that black people are the most racist people. Both groups are stupid in my opinion. As someone that has traveled extensively I don't think that either is. The level of racism in the middle east and Asia is staggering mostly against each other based on nationality and also against people with dark skin. imnotblackimoj I grew up in Africa and I have witnessed the hostility of peoples based on tribe or ethnicity . Its all wrong in my opinion to.	Ethnicity	Ethnicity - General	1/26	3.846
imnotblackimoj I don't agree with racism . However putting loads of people together from different ethnicities does have its difficulties and makes for a more violent society in practice. These problems become more pronounced as the people who where once a majority slowly become the minority. Minorities are often pushed out altogether especially if the majority resent the ethnicity of the minority and it would be safe to say that Black Americans have many reasons to feel resentful and these reasons will never go away. Giving up ones majority status on this planet has usually ended badly but maybe this time will be different. I am sure people could be trained over time to not identify with their particular ethnic group but it would take some doing as humans struggle to cope without some sense of identity to something. Everytime you judge a person based purely on ethnic or racial attributes, you are, by definition racist . It may not be the same institutionalized racism African Americans and other ethnic minorities experience, but racism comes in many forms and manifests is various ways. Tribalism is ultimately to fault for this: it creates "otherness" and division, often being used ot justify subjugation of entire peoples. But it all starts the same with someone thinking their culture and traditions and people are superior or better than someone else's. Indians are very apt at that. They view non Indians mostly as uncultured, promiscuous , superficial and let's not even talk about what they think of blacks and asians. It's actually not racism because of colour lol.In every family we have every colour.My grandmother is black and i mean of African descent . My grandfather had pink like skin.My father is brown. My mother is white .I have golden complexion and had light to dark brown hairs but now they are all black . My own little brother is black and he looks literally looks like African American. My sister has dusky skin .Most indian families are like that.It's actually people make fun of people of other states not race lol.India has 29 states divided on language basis and accents that's how all fun starts lol So yea it's pretty normal here.Someone born white is named bhoora (whitey)Born black is named kallu (blacky)So when white people or Africans come here they think that's racism but everyone has nicknames in India.I have like 4 nicknames lol.They can depend on your looks to your habits or whatever. 1) because people only want to hate heterosexual white men because of jealousy of perceived success.2) people who are perceived as poor or lower class are allowed to be as hypocritical smug and racist as they want.3) no one really cares about Indians4) because able bodied lazy people who sit around on programs like welfare, section 8, disability, and food stamps subconsciously see themselves as over privileged, and they feel they need to falsely accuse others of over privilege to make sure they aren't accused of it. I personally have had nothing but horrible encounters with East Indians I know it's not all but two bosses East Indian ripped me off my land lord also East Indian is a slum lord, in stores they push me and others around, on the street they cut everyone off I miss Canada the way it was before. They pool their money to buy properties where in Canada we are individualists we don't share money it takes a long time to purchase which sucks because they end up buying one selling for more then buying 2 selling 2 buying 4 selling 4 buying 8 selling 8 buying 16 and on and on. They are proud of being greedy and cheap. I can't get away so how can I at least stop hating them?	Indian, Nothing	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Native-American	3/132	2.273

For all the idiots talking about caste system in India, let me explain what it is to you. Caste system was basically made to make people take certain responsibilities in development of the nation which means a man born in warrior caste will learn to become warrior since he was born, and leader caste guy will practise how to become leader since he was born. This was very effective and built the nation good but on the other side they felt the lower caste was being cheated here and also not all warrior caste men wanted to become warriors and not all leaders wanted to become leaders. So basically caste system affected one's career dreams, is that racism ?? But in 1950 they banned it all. Now anyone can become anything, what they dream of. If caste system still existed in India PM Modi wouldn't have become leader in the first place because he comes from lower caste, which according to caste system he should be doing labour and not leader. But it's all gone now.	Nation, Racism	Ethnicity - General, Nationality - General	3/175	1.714

Lil Mystique No one said that. I hint at the mainstream and shock tabloid media's push for shaming the majority. Encouraging the want for censorship, within an egotistic social media boosted pc culture in an attempt to satisfy all. It's a catch 22 situation and solves nothing when it comes to division. Those that are racist , will be racist regardless, no different to those that are easily offended. Two sides of the same coin. Something will eventually set either of them off, no matter what you do or say. Whether it's asking for people to be level headed, open-minded or non- racist . We can censor all we like on mass media, but only education changes opinion. To hear everyone's opinion and level of reasoning without ignorance. Without that, hate goes underground, logic goes out the window and divisions remain. Worse still, everything becomes much harder to monitor when it's out of sight and a potential ticking timebomb. Once upon a time we would encourage all reasoning, but today everyone is just yelling over each other to claim only their opinion can be right and to shut up ;)	Nothing, Racist	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - General	3/187	1.604

Akmal Ahmad that is total BS and you know it. If the caste system isn't practiced anymore how do you explain the treatment of a group like the siddi in India. The untouchables etc. There have been more than 3 incidents of racism against Africans in India. I don't know what planet you are on but your denials would be funny if they weren't so disingenuous. Many black people and people of all races are aware of how racist Indians are and how you never want to integrate into any society that you move to.	Black, Racism, Racist	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	3/95	3.158
imnotblackimojIt's because they're African not because of their skin colour. All across Asia, African are discriminated whether it's Thailand, Malaysia, China, Korea, India. African have a bad rep in Asia in general.Secondly groups like the Siddis are protected by the government and they're receiving aid. Even Indians living in slums don't receive aid.Third, Indian are the best integrator in any country. They don't sacrifice their culture because others like their culture. Just like Chinese and Japanese, why would these people sacrifice their rich culture. Any country these people go they are successful academically and economically and they cause less crime. They become the top 1 relatively easy. That's what integration suppose to be not like African American that still commit crime and form ghettos in US at a high rate.	African, Indian	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - Native- American	5/133	3.759

Akmal Ahmad Africans or black people face nothing like the same level of discrimination in other countries in Asia (admittedly a continent with high levels of colorism and racism) like they do in India. I never heard of Africans being beaten in China for example where they are way more of them living than in India. As for integration I don't think so, I know that many Indian families would disown their children if they dated outside their race. How is that integration? Economically yes many Indians do well but I notice that you couldn't help but put down African Americans at the end of your point. You know if it wasn't for their struggle for civil rights in 1960's virtually alone no other non white immigrant groups including Indians that have recently arrived in America would have even have been allowed to come in. Look down on black people if you want, I know most of your people do that anyway, just don't lie like that as people can easily correct you on internet.	African, Black, Immigrant, Indian, Nothing, Race, Racism	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General, Ethnicity - Native-American, Nationality - General	8/175	4.571

imnotblackimojSo the fact that a Uganda minister was beaten up by Chinese labourers is less worst? A high ranking minister of a country is beaten up by Chinese labourers.It's your opinion that Indian are more racist because in reality all Asian countries have problems with African people.Secondly black in the West are the poorest form of integration. It's used as a cautionary tale to not let immigrants in because blacks cause 50 of US crime. This is based on FBI and US DOJ data under Obama rule mind you.Yes Indian don't let their children to marry out but it really show the sign of respect they have for themselves. innotblackimojI hope you realise the hypocrisy of your statement of integration. So it's ok to assume most Indian are racist but when we assume most African are criminals we're wrong?The race card is why black never progressed. Even Martin Luther movement was inspired after Gandhi as racist as he is. Nobody talk how racist Muhammad Ali was or Malcolm X because black apparently can't be racist	African, Black, Indian, Nobody, Race, Racist	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General, Ethnicity - Native-American	10/68	14.706
Aslan Ekhwan Blacks in the west are the poorest integrated but they intermarry with other cultures, support other cultures economically and even let other cultures like Indians into their communities to open up their businesses really? You gave one example of a Ugandan minister beaten up by Chinese labourers that is terrible but statistically its worse to have black skin in India than any other country in Asia. You say that all Asian countries have problems with African people that is your opinion. I stated earlier that all Asian countries are to some extent colourist and racist and that the caste system in India makes it worst there. If people have so much respect for Asian specifically Indian culture, why are Indians treated like dirt in Arab countries? I went to Dubai and saw Indians labouring in boiling hot sun being slaved out by arabs, many of them dying from overwork. Also I have seen Indians are being killed by Austrailian racists in videos that you can find allover youtube, so much respect there right? Indians have it good in African countries but with globalization and this kind of thing going on I don't think for much longer. To address your point about crime from black immigrants in western countries. You need to stop reading white supremacist propaganda, black people get harsher sentences for any crime committed than any other racial group most crimes are for drugs use a legacy of the police and organizations like the CIA flooding black communities with drugs and firearms in the 1980's. To sum up it doesn't matter what I say I am just a stupid "kalia" to you right? I have heard all kinds of racist slurs from Indians against black people even in western countries so don't deflect with the its just against Africans nonsense. Everyone knows how racist Indians are.	African, Black, Indian, Racist	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General, Ethnicity - Native-American	11/309	3.56

Avan Tennant Good for you, Black people along with native Americans have gone through more trauma then any other non white group in the United States. Indians never came into the United States in significant numbers until after the civil rights movement so for them to look down on blacks despite the fact they never went though what black people int he US went through is just insulting.	Black	Ethnicity - Black	2/68	2.941
imnotblackimoj Black aren't the only one to gone through trauma lol. They all went through colonialism and genocide in their own respective countries.You're so good at making excuses but fail to succeed.You do know that Martin Luther King movement was inspired by Gandhi and he knew that Gandhi was racist in the beginning. He also knew everyone including black are prejudice among others as well especially Orientals at that time. His vision was everybody be treated equally regardless of their skin.To make such statement as majority of this 1.4 billion race to be racist is absurd.	Black, Race, Racist	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	5/98	5.102

imnotblackimoj All I'm hearing is excuses after more excuses instead of taking responsibility. You need to stop reading about pro black websites because the CIA drug conspiracy is a myth.The only sentence where black and white have different sentences are cocaine and that's only because powdered cocaine used by blacks is more easily distribute than solid cocaine.Also those harsh sentences were proposed by black judges in the inner city because they thought making the sentences harsher would save the black community from these drugs but it didn't work of course. Support other culture?Did black support Chinese when they founded the biggest tech companies in US including Yahoo,Nvidia,Sandisk,Twitch,Youtube.Just because you're the customer it doesn't mean you help them because Asian American success is attributed to their hardwork and academic performance. caste system in India makes it worst there The richest Indians are dark skin. Caste system has nothing to do with dark skin otherwise Muslim which are fair skin wouldn't be treated even worst. Iso google the Billionaires in Dubai. 80 of those billionaires are Indian.The hospital,hotels,tech companies in Dubai are owned by other Indians.In fact most of those Indian/Pakistani/Bangaldeshi labourers are mistreated by companies owned by other Indians. So the mistreatment is not a racial issue but a human rights issue in general. There wouldn't be a Dubai without Indians and this isn't an exaggeration. Also I have seen Indians are being killed by Austrailian racists in videos that you can find allover youtube, so much respect there right? Of course racism exist even towards Korean and Chinese.The whole point is none of them ever sulk and just wait for other races to give them what they want.It's also worth mentioning in all these countries you mentioned,Indian or Asians became the 1 despite the hardship you listed.Asian don't sulk about the racism like blacks and use the race card.If anything you made my argument.	Black, Indian, Nothing, Race, Racism	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General, Ethnicity - Native-American	11/314	3.503
imnotblackimojYou do know that Indian basically built Dubai right? Healthcare companies, Real estate, tech companies are mostly owned by Indian. About 80 of expat billionaires are Indians so while you look down on Indians in Dubai know that the hotel you stay, hospital you visited, malls you shop are probably owned by Indians. In fact UAE don't give out citizenship to expat but they selectively chose several Indians because they've been there since the 70s before Dubai became the city it is today.	Indian	Ethnicity - Native-American	2/84	2.381

Akmal Ahmad I don't look down on Indians, as I have pointed out in my previous statements it's the opposite way around. Most Indians look down on blacks. I mentioned the caste system because it's at the root cause of this which again is what I have stated before. The fact is even given what we have gone through black majority countries are still the most accommodating in the world in Africa arabs predominantly Lebanese, Indians, whites and now Chinese live as opposed to how black people are treated in some of these countries.	Black	Ethnicity - Black	2/94	2.128
Aslan Ekhwan I haven't made an excuse for anything, the drugs issue is a statement of historical record and nothing to do with reading any pro black website. I merely pointed out that Indians never made any contribution to the civil rights movement in the 1960's and therefore it's insulting for them to come into the United States after that being beneficiaries of the struggles that black people went through and look down on black people like they do. I guess you think that I am making it my experience about Indians who have racially insulted me and made all kinds of obscene racial comments about black people openly. Just be weary about promoting the "we are the model minority" card. Jews in Germany were a model minority and look what happened there, almost all of them were wiped out. So were the Japanese in the United States, things can change quickly especially under the current US president and no other non white groups can expect any solidarity with black people then. There are many black people doing well in the US and actually the Africans that you seem to hate so much do very well, Nigerians for example have one of the highest average income levels for any immigrant groups in the US. I guess I am making that up to because I am a stupid "Kalia" right? You know what, since we agree on very little how about you encourage your people to stop being so discriminatory to other groups and I will encourage my people to stop playing up to the stereotypes that others have of us. Avan Tennant I don't make excuses I am just commenting on a video to say I agree with the proposition put forward by two Indians in the video themselves to say that I agree and I find a majority of Indians to be very racist . That is just my view. Not one you share obviously but one I do. As for your point about Martin Luther King it is a fair point and I am curious myself as to why he followed Gandhi. My best guess is that he wanted to separate Gandhi the racist from his teaching of non violent resistance which he thought useful in the United States at the time.	Racist	Ethnicity - General	2/113	1.77

Aslan Ekhwan I don't think that they are bragging. I just brought up the point because you seemed intent on lumping all black people together which is silly. I have not put all Asians in one category. For example I have friends from Pakistan who have many cultural similarities with Indian but I don't find even nearly as racist , it goes back to my point about the caste system. I like the way that you have deflected off the topic of racism and towards income and education between different groups. I give Indians, Jews, Africans, Hispanics, Arabs etc all the credit in the world for their educational achievements but that doesn't negate my original point about intense racism from Indians towards predominantly black people outlined in the video we are both commenting on and how it manifests itself. Jenny Park I don't know where to start with your nonsense. Firstly yes I said the majority of Indians that I have met are discriminatory and ask most black people that you know and they would say the same. I never said all so that is you trying to put words in my mouth. Actually you should learn to read properly and not make false accusations. I didn't know that calling out discrimination is discrimination itself. You are so full of crap seriously. Also you mentioned that there are many mixed Indian and black relationships, well that is just a lie (Indian people prefer to marry within there own community) nothing wrong with that but even if they did I think that marrying a black person would be their last option as they would be disowned by their parents and be ostracized in their community. Indian people themselves had said this to me as well as my non racist Indian friends have told me about the level of anti black racism in their community which again you can find very many videos of here on YouTube. Reality Check True people of Punjab and those in Pakistan have a lot in common , language, culture and history.By the way, it was Marathas under Raghunath Rao, who freed Punjab from Mughal rule.Marathas drove away afghans from Punjab and Arabs from Sindh.Punjab was under continuous Muslim rule for almost 1000 years until freed by Maratha federation. Punjab was considered a backyard of Afghanistan by Afghan rulers. Ahmed Shah Abdali went to war against Maratha Empire after afghans were driven out of Punjab. 'Why are Indians allowed to be racists' interesting title to the video. Indians are delusional, first of all, the guy is black skin and so is the hostess. Anybody can be racists. As far as I'm concerned the only difference in the appearance between Indians and blacks is hair texture. I guess they bleach their skin too, they appear to hate their skin color. Self hate? Pathetic. Blacks come in all different shades just like the Indians. I believe both groups bleach their skin. Dear Indians, You are NOT white and you never will be. Example: my sister liked an Indian guy and my parents did not approve. Dad said he did not want black grandkids, They sent her away to boarding school to break up their relationship, it worked. Sanil Jadhav there is so much wrong with what you just said that I don't know where to begin. Perhaps I can begin with your first statement, that I'm "another immigrant ." First of all, I'm not an immigrant . I was born and raised here in America. In other words, I'm 110 American. 2nd of all, I never said they can't communicate well in English. What I was saying that they don't know how to approach women properly and respectfully, like us Westerners. 3rd of all, now that you mention it, they don't have the best English in the world either, yet they pride themselves on being able to speak it with 100 fluency. Varun Chandra Now let me explain to you how much do you stereotype , first of all I am sorry that i assumed you to be an immigrant , now second thing , there is this thing in India called JIO which provides internet at cheap cost due to which many uneducated Indians get access to Facebook and whatnot. Hence , the birth of bob vagene memes.What makes you think all Indians are unable to approach women properly ? Just by seeing some internet texts that too written by uneducated people , you think all the population goes around saying bob and vagene ? Boy , talk about stereotyping.And now the thing about fluency , by this time you should have understood that I can speak fluent English without any funny accent (Yeah , the accent goes off If you are taught English from a young age , like 4 or 5). Plus , many Indians have accent because , unlike you guys they are fluent in many languages not just English , I am myself fluent in Hindi , Marathi , English and Korean .There you go :)	Age, Immigrant	Age - General, Nationality - General	2/193	1.036

No Indians are not racism but definitely not aware of themselves. The DNA of India is the Eastern Civilizations Arabs, Persia, Egypt, Israel. The beginning was Egypt, which had nothing to do with the Europeans, Africans, or Orientals. The Pharaoh's belief system was 'the Lotus Flower'(the Indian Prince Buddha)The Eastern Civilizations in Egypt went corrupt(Babel) and were scattered which created The Middle East, Israel, India. The darker skinned people in South India were African slaves brought over by the Portuguese. The Eastern Civilizations are a very, very dysfunctional family. China, Russia, India are the main Asia Powers the rest is Indo-China. India was a Empire during the Indian Prince Buddha's time. Buddhism and Indian architecture(Ankor Wat, etc..)Food it's energy spread. In America Farrukh Bulsara(Freddie Mercury)is Iranian- Indian and the biggest rock group 'QUEEN' in the world. Ben Kingsley is Jewish- Indian , etc... India gave America the 'The Love Generation' 'TM Meditation -the Beatles -Looking back America will remember the 50's/60's as a time of the most freedom - India is a energy, the original energy from the beginning of creation -it is India that is related to all religions. The Avatars Buddha, Jesus (real Jewish name(Yeshua/Yeshiva), etc.. of the Eastern Civilizations never wanted man to create religion. The knowledge of the Avatars is a science of the body, mind and soul(eg Yoga) and Indians need to reconnect with that science - the science of Knowledge, clear, honest, clean, humble, higher thinking... don't ask for riches, gold ask for knowledge and then everything else will come. I already told you the beginning of the Eastern Civilizations was Egypt. The Pharaohs' belief system was rebirth, "the Lotus Flower" (Buddhism) We were all a family, a very very dysfunctional family but corrupt Babel separated us and created Israel, Egypt, Arabs, Persia, India. That is why it is India that is created to all the Avatars Yeshua/Yeshiva, Buddha etc.. .Religions is created by man for power/greed the avatars created only knowledge of the mind,body and soul and they never never wanted women to be treated like slaves. Remember it was the Indian Queen Buddha's mother that God spoke to first, before Jesus's mother to say she would bring enlightenment to this planet. The Indian Queen was the first blessed virgin birth .. so shame! shame! where are the blessed statues to honor her, like God honored her. Instead of the military statue it should be her because her womb has colonized Asia and under Buddhism there was no Pakistan, Afghanistan was under India and it was a time of Peace which also paved the way for Yeshua/Yeshiva(Jesus' birth) and this is planet Earth. Question to Indians. Among Indian immigrants in the US, are there any Dalits or Siddis? If yes, what is the interaction between them and other Indian from higher caste? In general, do Indians abroad transpose the hierarchical structure they would have in India.	Indian	Ethnicity - Native-American	2/43	4.651
"do Indians abroad transpose the hierarchical structure they would have in India." This is a loaded question. In urban India, caste holds little importance (as opposed to rural villages). Capitalism has largely uprooted the old caste system in urban India, and most Indian immigrants come from these metro areas. BUT and this is a big but, caste does play a role for Indian marriages in the US. My personal theory is not so much that it's caste at play perse, but the fear is that the elders in the family will not disapprove of intercaste marriage, and if you know anything about Indian families, elders basically dictate everything. But this is also changing. Intercaste marriages are taking place like never before in India, so its all just a matter of time.	Indian, Old	Age - Over 65s, Ethnicity - Native-American	4/131	3.053

sorry but i find that the asian culture intrinsically believes that to be lighter is to be more beautiful and just generally better (please dispute me on that if i'm wrong), this alone means that racism exists even within asian communities. In turn meaning that anyone from any other race is looked down upon, especially black people (please try and dispute me on this). On top of all this, as said in the video, no one condemns asians for it because in mainstream western history, asians are exempt from the whole race conflict. They're not black or white,they're in between, so somehow, in society we now have what i like to call the ' Race card' which is used freely by not just indians but by asians in general. From my own experience living in a heavily indian area, i find that a lot of the racism is ignorance and subconscious - which to some may be forgivable but for me is demeaning and 100 patronising. Its true, many brown people view fair skinned as superior to being dark skinned. Bollywood is a good example that illustrates this. Unfortunately, this mindset is fairly prevalent throughout the entire world. Racism sucks, I know because I've experienced it myself from whites, blacks, Asians, etc. I wouldn't say (from my experience) that Indians have any kind of monopoly on being racist, in fact the opposite is true in that Indians are too often the victims of racism, and many have even lost their lives to hate crimes. Sorry but playing the race card is an apt description of what many black people do. Many blacks have been openly racist to me and my friends, and when we call them out on it, we get called "racist". do you see the irony in that? I have worked with some awesome African Americans though, so I assume they were just some bad apples. IndianPrince04 King Bee what? 'Black invented the race card?' 'black who pioneered the use of the race card for political gain?' what? i am speechless as to the amount of ignorance you show in these statements. Black people's use of the 'race card' is in fact black activists fighting for the lives of their fellow brothers and sisters. Al sharpston and jesse jackson are black rights activists - for you to refer to the fight for black lives as the 'race card' is derogatory and disrespectful. Indian people or Asian people in general ride on the back of these movements, they are not directly victims of these modern day brutalities and yet they still gain from progress and success of black activists such jesse jackson. This part of the problem, and that is why, as shown in the video, asians and indians can joke and laugh about it and still get away with it. Unfortunately, black people don't have that luxury, simply can't afford it.	Black, Indian, Race	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General, Ethnicity - Native- American	9/165	5.455

Thara LawsonFirst of all, there is no "modern day brutality" in America, and anyone that claims that he's fighting for the lives of their fellow brothers and sisters is a snakeoil salesman. The only people who beleive this outrageous claim are low information voters, and the crooked politicians pandering to them for votes.You're now claiming that these "civil rights" quacks have helped Asians? They have done nothing even for the black community, much less Asians rofl.I chuckled a bit when you called them "civil rights leaders" in a serious tone. That label is reserved for them nowadays only in a joking/pejorative manner, you have just shown how utterly clueless you are on this topic rofl.Maybe you should ask actual black Americans on how they feel about these quacks. Please do some actual research this topic, instead of copy pasting out-of-context information, probably from the first page of Google search.Yes, comedians joke and laugh about serious issues. That's their job. I grew up watching Def Comedy Jam, which looking back now had some of the most racist black comedians I'd ever seen. Dave Chapelle's done many skits on the backwardness in poor black communities, eg. the "3am In the Ghetto" skit.Remember when Chris Rock, while denigrating the Oscars for lack of diversity and complaining about slavery, made racial stereotypes about east Asians being nerdy, and consumers of child labor?No outrage over any of that??Sorry hun, but no one here is gonna apologize to you or give you preferential treatment due to your race.. so feel free to take your faux outrage elsewhere :)	Black, Hun, Nothing, Race, Racist	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General, Nationality - German	8/270	2.963

You can 'chuckle' at me all you want. But don't speak to me like i'm not a part of the black community. You can point our Black comedians to make your point stronger, but that's exactly it - they're black comedians making jokes about their own struggle in their own community. My criticism is of the indian or asian people/comedians/whoever making jokes of a struggle they don't understand. i'm gonna take your shot at my response as 'googled' a compliment.	Black, Indian	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - Native- American	4/110	3.636

Thara LawsonRemember when "civil rights leaders" headed to St Louis to protest against the killing of Michael Brown? Well during that same weekend, 26 blacks were killed by other blacks in Chicago.. but not a peep about that from these civil rights prostitutes.I do give some credit to Sharpton who brought up black on black crime in Ferguson, while addressing the blacks looters who were destroying black businesses. Alas, the black protesters booed Sharpton and Jesse offstage, and ran them out of town when they began panhandling for political donations lol.The comedian in this video never makes bigoted jokes about blacks or black struggles, so I donno what you're crying about. I've seen lots of standup, and never seen that.There's only one Indian comedian who pushed the boundary, while confronting a rowdy black female heckler. See "Akaash Singh Destroys Heckler for 5 Minutes".But as I mentioned before, black comedians routinely make these types of jokes against Mexicans, Muslims, Arabs, Indians, Chinese, Jews, so blacks can also enjoy their own medicine.When you regurgitate out-of-context statements, you have exposed yourself to be a know-nothing. Oh yea, this is a huge compliment.Everytime you make these bizarre posts about " black brutality" in America, or imaginary racist Indian comedians, you look like a delusional person playing the race card.. +Rae Neumann Yes and No. I said "yes" because there is preference for lighter skin in some areas like movies and modelling and may be during partner selection in "arranged" marriages. Love is still color blind though! Also, if every Indian wants to marry a light skinned person, then more than half of Indians will never get married ha ha :)And "No" because there is no discrimination in everyday life, as in school, jobs, treatment by the police or govt policy. Caste is a bigger thing there. And interestingly there are all colors in all Castes. Very few Indian 's are really white like Europeans, some can be very light though but still not European looking, unless you are referring to Anglo-Indians who are descendants of Indo-English marriages during British times. May be a few million of them at the most. If your question meant are we racist ? then "yes" especially if you go by the loosely defined term that gets thrown around all the time. All these Indians who complain about the British plundering their country must know that the rulers of India before British that is Mughals, and the feudal lords even before them had been plundering India and this phenomenon had prevailed for ages by the generations of feudal lords. It was basically the Indian version of feudal system of power and control through oppression and exploitation. What British merely did was wrested the top of that chain to get most of the goodies. Under the British hegemony, the former Indian feudal overlords served and helped the British in this process. In other words, feudal Indians were complicit in looting other Indians and they had no moral qualms about it because they had been doing it for ages. So Indians must shut up and before demonizing British must have a good look in the mirror. But the British presence was not bad for India. I think most of the Indians must thank the British because it was because of their presence, they got educated. While India was still lingering in middle ages, it is through the British they learned some lessons on civility and modernism. It is through the British the feudal minds of India became familiar with the modern concepts like democracy. British were not in India to civilize the natives. They had their own business interests but it was with the British presence they learned a lot of things their feudal minds could not have dreamed. Gandhi and some of contemporaries got educated from London to lead India's struggle of independence. Without this education and resulting mental refinement, the Indians would have remained as rustic country bumpkins. Though British taught Indians English to make them useful as clerks, yet had they not done so, India would have remained in dark age. To recapitulate, the British were not worse than the Indian feudal lords, second, the Indians were hand-in-glove with British to plunder India, and third some really good things also happened to India because of British. +Liam L whether u like it or not, world was different back then n it allowed the British to plunder the world with greed violence n hatred. The world is more open now. It is allowing immigrants from Asia to move freely across the world without violence, hatred or greed . You really cannot seriously do anything about it unless it is ethically wrong. N this thing about ruining culture is funny. It is upto the English to keep up with their culture. Nobody is forcing them to abandon it. If you think it is getting ruined probably there is a lack of integrity on the side of the English. Asians most of the time don't even realize that the English have a culture of their own. Lil Mystique actually most of the online racism i get is like the above, being accused of being white, or being a '5 dollar Indian' (Uncle Tom for Natives).But the racism from black people and hispanic people has come from my every day life.I used to be a nurse, and frankly, the way i would be treated black patients was appalling.Had they been white they would have been escorted out of the building, or had security placed in their room if they were too ill or injured to be sent packing.Hispanic people tend to fall into two main types.the ones who think i am a hispanic person as well.And the ones who for some reason think i owe them my servitude.That being said, in high school a good friend of mine, the grandson of a first generation Mexican immigrant , is now basically my brother/cousin, after his family (mostly his grandmother, the family matriarch) decreed i was family.I also have a pretty large (considering the ethno-diversity of my area) number of black friends, who i get along with easily, and there are no issues.People are people, skin color doesnt play a role in the kind of person you are.But skin coor affects how you are treated, and in some cases, people with darker skin end up with this idea that their bad behavior isnt their fault, its the fault of someone else. IndianPrince04, how does that justify the attack of Africans by Indians. Would you tolerate or accept Americans killing Indians because they don't wish their sons or daughter to be in a relationship with an India? After all, practice honor killings. This was one the weakest argument in defense of of racism .I guess the English could have used the same argument.. going like this. Indians already practice the Caste system among themselves, so it is completely justifiable to dominate them and consider them less than human.To Indian posters who are trying to justify and turn a blind eye on Indian racism against black Africans, you must know that Indians have been living peacefully, for several generations, in several African countries.On the other hand, the Africans going to India is relatively recent development, and most go there to study., taking advantage of bilateral accords signed between India and various African countries. +JayArfa He was saying that Indian Americans aren’t always upper caste. The most common Indian -American surnames are Patel and Singh, which are non-Brahmin and tend to be middle caste. Gupta, Shah, Reddy, Agrawal, and Kumar are also pretty common . None of those is Brahmin either. Maybe 15-25 of the Indian Americans are in the Brahmin category. Indian Americans are wealthy due to lots of doctors, engineers , IT guys, and people with Master’s degrees. But even less educated Indians tend to prosper as motel, gas station, restaurant, or convenience store owners.So yes, the Hindu migration to the US is selective. This is true, but the Hindu and Sikh migrants to the UK are not that selective. Sikh migration is especially non-selective, as many of the Sikhs came from rural villages and about 1/4th of UK Sikhs are even untouchables. Yet, if you take a look at the stats, both Hindus and Sikhs are doing really well. Sikhs are almost as socioeconomically successful as whites and the Hindus, mainly Gujaratis, are even more successful. Today Indian kids in the UK, mainly Sikhs and Hindus, are outperforming the whites economically and very much so academically. Jay ArfaYes in the US, "Asian" is colloquially used to refer to East Asians. But that's not how the US Census works. The Census gives you the option to pick between white/ black /hispanic/Asian. Do Indian Americans choose white, black or hispanic?Clearly you're not from the US, as you have never filled one of these forms. So not only are Indians part of the "Asian" category, but surveys show that Indians outearn all other Asian groups, and that's why if you were to remove Indians ($100k income) from the Asian group ($72k income), the median income of Asians decreases considerably. This is such a non issue. A few handful of Indians being racist is of no consequence and hence sort of funny. OTOH Indians were and are victims of racism from all other races. I will tell you why Indians are racist . First of all, India has like 100s of religions, I am not even kidding. Even though these people are living peacefully and rightfully together, but there is always some kind of cultural hostility among everyone. And second reason being, Indians have like literally every person of every colours. In North we have white people, whiter than the Irish itself, On east have squint eyes people, On west we have a freaking desert nomadic area,and In south we have black majority. I am not making any of this, but being among so much different people and humans, Indians can't draw a line, like where is racism and where is not. +Kumar Exclusive +Armando Piña FOR CRYING OUT LOUD!!!!!!!!!!!!!! IT IS NOT A INDIAS CASTE SYSTEM. SHOCK? YES FFS IT IS NOT INDIAS CASTE SYSTEM. THE WORD CASTE IS FROM PORTUGUESE. INDIA HAD THE VARNA SYSTEM, IT IS DESCRIBED IN ALMOST ALL DHARMIC RELIGION BOOKS (GRANTH SAHIB, BUDDHIST TEXTS, RIG VEDA) AND IS DESCRIBED TO BE BASED ON YOUR SPECIALISED SKILL OR PROFESSION. THAT WAY WE HAD A ORGANISED SOCIETY AND EVERYONE UPTO THE POINT THEY FIND A PERSONS STRENGTH IS EQUAL. SUPPOSE YOU ARE BEST AS AN ARCHER AT THE AGE OF 20, YOU BECOME A KSHATRIYA, IF AT STUDIES, YOU BECOME BRAHMIN. NOW THE PORTUGUESE CAME AND MADE THIS A FIXED SYSTEM. THIS DIDNT WORK ENTIRELY BUT WHEN THE BRITISHERS CAME THEY HAD TO BURN DOWN ALL GURUKALS, SHAKHAS, TEMPLES, AND BRIBE BRAHMINS TO NOT PREACH TO ANYONE BUT THEIR CHILDREN MAKING THEIR CHILDREN THE ONLY BRAHMINS, NO MATTER THEIR OFFSPRINGS POTENTIAL. BRITISHERS ALSO BRIBED KSHATRIYAS WHO WERE ALSO KINGS TO BECOME THEIR SUBJECTS AND FIGHT FOR THEM. ULTIMATELY, CASTE SYSTEM IS A CREATION OF PORTUGUESE AND SPREAD BY THEM + OTHER WESTERN FORCES.THEY DESTROYED INDIA!A QUOTE TO END WITH: "I have traveled across the length and breadth of India and I have not seen one person who is a beggar, who is a thief. Such wealth I have seen in this country, such high moral values, people of such calibre, that I do not think we would ever conquer this country, unless we break the very backbone of this nation , which is her spiritual and cultural heritage, and, therefore, I propose that we replace her old and ancient education system, her culture, for if the Indians think that all that is foreign and English is good and greater than their own, they will lose their self-esteem, their native self-culture and they will become what we want them, a truly dominated nation ." - LORD MACAULAYPLEASE RESEARCH BEFORE CRITICISING! I'm a little dark skinned person from south asia but no one has made fun of me over that. The macedonian invaded India, by Alexander the Great, the British came after for 100 - 120 years. Thats why the indian are sometimes lighter skin. Indians does not like to go in the sun, afraid to get darker. I know this culture very much, in fact the most racist nation I know is the Indian , they have casteism, and most of the higher class in the casteism rank, are lighter in skin, strange ! I know them very well , just because my great grand father was a french in the Comptoir des Indes, my mom is completely white, my dad ancestors is mixed south of India Pondichery and Africa Mozambic. A higher class in the casteism rank in India, will have more respect to a British or any white people than a Indian like himself in a lower class , strangely with a darker skin. I can confirm that the most raciste nation in the world are Indian. , I'm saying this with indian blood in my body.Have you ever seen a very black dark blue indian succeded at Bollywood. +Jean-Marc Selvon , I call B.S on this. The fair-tone guys in India are genetically closer to Russians than they are to Macedonians. Caste system is not based on race , as you have ponted out, MOST higher caste individuals are fair-skinned, not ALL. Maybe the oopsite is true. The lower caste families turned dark only to adapt to sunny conditions they worked in, and the higher caste was under the shade, so they kept their white skin. Stop saying "Indians HAVE caste system", like it's a cup of tea. Neither caste nor race determines one's economic success in India, but there are a few exceptions to this rule. If you are a politician, caste has a major role to play. And as you said, yes, Bollywood does not boast of a great number of dark-skinned people. But down South, dark-skinned male actors are in great numbers.	Race	Ethnicity - General	2/146	1.37

+stacylashana I never claimed to have gone to the Carribean. But I was responding to your comment, which was a response to American Patriot's comment about blacks in AMERICA. Your observaions about Carribean Indians may be correct, but in my experience they act very differently from real Indians, so you can't use them in your argument about real Indians anyway. Systemic racism does exist, but that doesn't help explain blacks' preference to remain subservient to white Europeans. Many blacks here will grab welfare as a way to stick it to the white man, and uses slavery to justify this. Slavery was absolutely horrible, but there is no excuse for blacks to act this way in a first world country with so much opportunity. We even have a black president LOL. Deekillumination Yes. However, most South Indian languages are influenced to some extent by Sanskrit. For instance, Malayalam was created by Namboodiri Brahmins who took Tamil grammar and Sanskrit vocabulary (I believe formal Malayalam has mostly Sanskrit vocabulary) and fused them to create a new language. Dravidian languages have been around on the Indian subcontinent longer than Indo-European languages. However, once Sanskrit and it's derivatives took precedence in India, they have had quite a bit of influence on the Dravidian languages (And it is also the same vice versa). As for being a different race , I don't think so bud :)	Indian, Race	Ethnicity - General, Ethnicity - Native-American	3/100	3.0

Saral Thakur Don't insult our diversity by making blanket statements. I am from the south and have blue eyes and pale skin, so much so people in the west also cannot make out that I'm not white. Yet, when I got my genes tested, it came back as completely associated with the Indian subcontinent with NO mixing with people from other countries whatsoever, for the past thousands of years. In spite of no mixing, my whole family is pale-skinned with blue, hazel, green and honey coloured eyes. Also, one of the earliest discoveries of the genetic mutation for blue eyes was found in present day Afghanistan(which was a part of Indian territory in ancient times, even before Ashoka). So, some Indians having pale-skin and light eyes is not due to mixing with outsiders, it is due to a genetic mutation which occurred in Afghanistan(which was part of our Indus Valley civilization) thousands of years ago. The youth are more liberal and less percentage of bigoted individuals but as a whole country and race I would put the majority as being bigoted or racist in some way or the other.. Probably 60/40.. As the Internet spreads across the country it will get better cuz ignorance is the root cause of bigotry and racism (right now only about 20 of the country is online which is a large number but a small percentage).. Mehul Jain Uneducated people usually mistake darker skinned Indo-Dravidians for African descendants, but they have no relation to them what so ever.. The Dravidians are the people from Indus Valley Civilization who migrated to east and then migrated deeper into peninsular India... mainly due to overpopulation, desertification and climate change.Indo-Aryan migrations from central Asia took place 500 years after that and they settled in northern plains.For millenniums two major ethnicities mixed, also with many new minor migrated ones as well.But there are micro communities in India that are more directly connected to Negroids, i.e. native populations on Andaman and Nikobar. It is found that few groups temporarily settled on mainland India but later migrated eastwards and further southwards and later became Australian aboriginals.	African	Ethnicity - Black	1/126	0.794

Aamir Khalifa Australoid is a race used a specific type of racial classification which is often contested. Also even if we do agree that Australoid is a race , they were still the first group to migrate out of Africa.Now let's just discuss this Australoid race through a logical point of view. Australoids have the same features as Negroids except with wavy hair. The Australoid race group originated in Africa, have the same features as Negroids, but are a different racial group because they have "wavy" hair? How much sense does that truly makes? It doesn't. Modern day South Asians migrated out of Africa and their hair texture changed due to the environment. South Asians became lighter due to mixing with the Caucasoid and Mongoloid race . If arabs are also a mixed race . How come no indian looks like an Arab?And tamilians. If arabs are mixed people who migrated to India, where do Tamilians fit in? Look up "siddi" tribe in India. And tribes of odisha, Andaman and nicobar. There are cannibals in A and Nicobar islands they resembles Africans and are not under indian government. I have seen every Africans that compares black and brown say this. Browns are black once, even darker. How could be Browns darker than Africans if they are also Africans? Lol the self hate is string with this one. Look how she's trying to highlight the darkness of skin "even darker". If Browns were black before mixing, then how come browns were more black then Africans before mixing? Logic fail much?. Indians also suffer from this self hatred due to Colonial rule. But you are being rabid here, as you hate your own black skin and know that Indians are conditioned to hate black skin, you impose black ancestry on Indians, while at the same time saying "you were even darker". If Indians =Africans, being a same race and still Indians can be darker,as you said in your original comment. Why can't south Indians =north Indians and southies be darker naturally. Without North people mixing with anyone else? And if every race evolved out of blacks, then how is white or mongoloid a distinct race ? Shouldn't everyone be black and just be affected by environment. If you classify humans into races then you only affirm with racists. And prove that blacks are inferior as they have civilization gains to back it up. Same on you	Black, Mongoloid, Race	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	12/215	5.581
You are a perfect example of racist . Do black people own black genes? Just because you were born black , does that mean you control heritage of everyone. If mongoloids and Caucasians can evolve then why can't Browns? What prove you have that Browns mixed out of whites and blacks? Color? White civilization evolved after brown civilization, so there is no possibility of mixing. Indians migrated first and then Europeans out of Africa. So unless there was a huge surge in migration of whites to India, no Indian could be white. No archelological study show any kind of migration of whites to India. Aryan invasion Theory is proved to be false. Browns after migrating from Africa developed their skin color on their own, no mixing was involved. You really think brown skin can't evolve from black akin without mixing with white skin? If that is so then how come white exists? Who did whites mix with to become white. Because all Caucasians were blacks? So how did they achieve their white color? Aliens? And if modern white people who started civilization and also migration much later than present day Browns, can evolve on their own why can't Browns? Who did original blacks mix with to become white and mongoloid ??? Indian’s were never black they were always brown dark or light and that is the original complexion except many scheduled tribes who lived in forest like primitive people till independence but even many of those were not black but dark brown or may be light skinned and some also look better and regarding Indian ancestry they came primarily from Dravidians where as africans came from negroid race’s and this were completely different races also the primitive schedule tribes of India came from australoid races not preferably from negroid race’s. The biggest difference between Indian races whether Dravidians or Indo aryans or semi mongoloids Or australoids and the African negroes is that the negroes has features such as thick lips and high and prominent philtrum and forehead as well as cheek bones as well as jaw bones and nostril are quite big and wide with not a defined nose or eye’s and in contrast if you look then majority of Indians do have well defined and clear facial features with thinner nose with full nose ridge and prominent petal shaped eyes and philtrum and chin as well as cheek bones are quite softer than all other three great races also jaw bones are smaller and softer features are there infact leaving a darker shade of skin color there is no similarity between African blacks and Indians they are world apart and even white Caucasoid or mongoloid race’s are different Indians are distinct race of their own yes if they have some similarity of features or way of thinking and working of brain then they are most similar in looks with north africans and Arabians just you can’t differentiate a Egyptian or mortician or Yemeni or omani from a Indian easily and same with people’s from southern Iran or Afghanistan or Pakistani and all of middleast only big difference between middleastern and Arabians and Indians is now religion middleast and Arabians now follow Islam as religion scince 2 to 3 thousand year’s and majority Indians are Hindus and just compare Indians with them generally you will get your answers Africans also have not done any great things or goodness to Indians for which Indians have to become like them who have nothing in common with us infact there were cases of attacks on Indian traders and businessman settled in in African countries resulting in their mass exodus at time’s and India was colonized because of infighting between Indian princes and chaos in the country due to absence of central power in each invasion and attack but Africa was colonized due to superior war technology of Europeans and very primitive technology of Africans infact Africans were never had regular armies for war like in Asia and look at both history you will know there is nothing as you think some Indian skin color may be dark but that doesn’t make them African’s.YES.....! I'm an Indian America and deny that Indian Americans ought to have special permission to engage in racism America. It's an elementary fact that consequential racism can only exist in the context of power. Have a look at the data: Hindu Americans are more educated and have higher incomes than ethnic/religious group except possibly Jews. They are not a discriminated minority that lacks power and money as do blacks and Hispanics. As a group, Indians happen to be the most racist and "colorist" culture in the world today, have been for centuries. Have a look at the caste system, which has a colorist component or look at any Indian dating ad where persons are described as "wheatish", "fair", ect and where one notes (without a hint of shame, indeed pride) one's caste in remarkable detail. Bet you can't find an Indian father who will initially be happy if he finds out that his daughter is dating an African American, despite living in a country with an African American president. Indians are far more racist than blacks, whites, Hispanics, and other Asians. Somehow they get away with but its not new. Have a look at what the most famous and celebrated Indian (Ghandhi) wrote openly in print about blacks he encountered in South Africa, quite shameful and disgraceful, most of his initial "civil rights" efforts in that colonized country were to achieve Indian (brown) segregation from African (blacks). He refused to give up his seat in the white South African first class section because he refused to suffer the indignity of having to sit with lowly indigenous black South Africans, no less racist than the American founders like George Washington and others who owned black slaves. Indians are technically black and caucasian. So much misinformation here I can't read it all. Indians are genetically related to aborginal australians and caucasian people (Europeans, caucasus & middle eastern). Genetic studies have showed that ALL indians are a combination of these 2 groups which are called ancestral south indian and ancestral north indian , respectively. Neither exist in their purest form but they have been mixed for thousands of years. You can find this information right here [LINK] The idea that Indians are purely caucasian was debunked decades ago as a new classification for australian aboriginals and pacific islanders was introduced (Australoid). THAT WAY WE HAD A ORGANISED SOCIETY AND EVERYONE UPTO THE POINT THEY FIND A PERSONS STRENGTH IS EQUAL. SUPPOSE YOU ARE BEST AS AN ARCHER AT THE AGE OF 20, YOU BECOME A KSHATRIYA, IF AT STUDIES, YOU BECOME BRAHMIN. NOW THE PORTUGESE CAME AND MADE THIS A FIXED SYSTEM. THIS DIDNT WORK ENTIRELY BUT WHEN THE BRITISHERS CAME THEY HAD TO BURN DOWN ALL GURUKALS, SHAKHAS, TEMPLES, AND BRIBE BRAHMINS TO NOT PREACH TO ANYONE BUT THEIR CHILDREN MAKING THEIR CHILDREN THE ONLY BRAHMINS, NO MATTER THEIR OFFSPRINGS POTENTIAL. BRITISHERS ALSO BRIBED KSHATRIYAS WHO WERE ALSO KINGS TO BECOME THEIR SUBJECTS AND FIGHT FOR THEM. ULTIMATELY, CASTE SYSTEM IS A CREATION OF PORTUGESE AND SPREAD BY THEM + OTHER WESTERN FORCES.THEY DESTROYED INDIA!A QUOTE TO END WITH: "I have traveled across the length and breadth of India and I have not seen one person who is a beggar, who is a thief. Such wealth I have seen in this country, such high moral values, people of such calibre, that I do not think we would ever conquer this country, unless we break the very backbone of this nation , which is her spiritual and cultural heritage, and, therefore, I propose that we replace her old and ancient education system, her culture, for if the Indians think that all that is foreign and English is good and greater than their own, they will lose their self-esteem, their native self-culture and they will become what we want them, a truly dominated nation ." - LORD MACAULAYPLEASE RESEARCH BEFORE CRITICISING! but you guys are the biggest racists on the planet so you should be called out on it. The reason why you shouldn't look down on black people is that India has a GDP per capita lower than many African countries also many Indians are living in Africa and are doing well so we are no where near as racist against you guys as you are against us, so if you want to talk about respect you should look up about it first. AsiA I. obviously you have never been to the Caribbean where the two major peoples are African and Indian .Also a significant amount of racial inter-mixing takes place. The offsprings of these relationships are referred to as "dougla".It is sometimes difficult to tell a person's actual race because there's no difference in skin colour. Does racism exist? Yes but will be detrimental to those who attempt to use it for whatever reason.There are bigots eyerywhere. Amar Channa Where do you want me to start? I should really start off with my own personal experience of being called all kinds of racial slurs by Indians throughout my life, at least I got to know racially offensive terms in Punjabi so I guess its not all bad right? Or maybe I can say that I have heard on more than one occasion Indian friends of mine say that their parents would disown them if they knew that they had non Indian friends or even dated or married someone who wasnt Indian. That is just my personal experience. You can find yourself the many videos on here of Africans living in India that say that they are beaten up or verbally abused on a regular basis. Even Indians living in Africa have the audacity to look down on black people and refuse to integrate there. Lets look at the caste system and general colourism in India and how the darker skinned you are and how it affects your prospects of marriage and how there is an intense dislike of people with dark skin. Mahatma Gandhi one of the patron saints of India was one of the biggest racists ever. I don't know why Martin Luther King looked up to him say black people as inferior even though he himself lived in South Africa. Look at the many Indian and South Asian in general celebrities that have made all kinds of derogatory statements against black people Esha Gupta or Sarfraz Ahmad. Look you may want to deny it but I can't. I have seen way to many cases of Indian racism against black people to assume that its just a few bad apples. Its definitely cultural and I don't know why you or the few people on this thread that I have had dialogue with would try to deny that but there it is.	Black, Indian, Racism	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General, Ethnicity - Native- American	10/315	3.175
If you want to connect why can't you connect as Indians instead of a colour? The gentleman in the video said that Indians are neither black nor brown. So I guess your assertion is not in agreement with his. That's what happen when people identify themselves as a colour. Black and brown are adjectives and don't say who you are. It doesn't even describe what you look like. When you say Indian, I know a lot about you. As for blacks, I prefer the term African Americans because that connects me to a history and a culture. Instead of defending this divisive and incomplete term, you should be more inclusive of all Indians regardless of skin tone. No wonder India and Africa have such a big problem with skin bleaching. You've all bought into skin colour lie that the lighter the better. Get rid of it!	African, Black, Indian	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - Native- American	4/146	2.74

You Indians are totally confused and delusional. India has some of the blackest people on the planet. You range in colour from blue black to near white; yet you call the whole group brown. So where does that leave those who are not brown? Same with Africans, they're called black no matter how light they are. It's time for people of colour to get away from colour and concentrate on ethnicity and nationality . Leave the confusing, racist terms to the Europeans. They created colour to keep people of colour under them as undesirables while whiteness is godliness and we just go along with it. It's stupid and sad. Africans are not the only black people on the planet and Indians are not the only brown people. So when we identify by a colour, we are being discriminatory to many in our own group. TheWonderfulKushites A lot of South Asian people I know proudly refer to themselves as "Brown" or "Brown people" even if their actual skin color doesn't fall into the various shades of brown. Brown people can be light or very dark. Likewise, Black people are proud to call themselves Black because there is a rich and deeply complex Black history and culture that they want to own, rather than disown or forget. It has little to do with actual skin color and more to do with identity and a way to connect a larger and multifaceted community. There is so much more to being Brown, or being Black , than skin color. There are complex and interesting histories, cultures, and identities behind it.Also, saying things like "You Indians" followed by some contemptuous and racist rant that generalizes a whole group probably isn't the best way to go.... Nicholas Newman Indians are not light due to the British. All Indians are a mix of caucasians from Georgia, Turkey, and Persia, and natives from the subcontinent of India. This mixing happened way back in ancient times. So if you go to India, you will find people of all skin tones ranging from light to dark skinned. But majority of all Indians have caucasian features due to this ancient period of heavy intermixing. It has nothing to do with the British.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/81	1.235

We Indians aren't confused it's white people who are confused mostly Christians. We. Know that us Indians have diverse skin colors ranging from dark to fair skins, form black to white..	Black	Ethnicity - Black	1/31	3.226
charles brace believe me not all Indians are dark skinned. There are lot of fair skinned Indians in every part of India. They are not white but neither they are dark skinned, they have shiny bodies. As for Indians in usa. Yes, they do tend to act like you people. They need to stop this I mean there are brown people from other countries as well. If I ever go to USA I would never change my accent. I think I am handsome enough to be with white girls so no need to change myself. But I think people make issue of race too much. Race means skin color. However it is a proof that religion is more sensitive than race . The reason we Indians don't assimilate that much into your cultures is because of our indian religions, it has nothing to do with our race or skin color. Our religions are more conservative. There are many Christians in India who are completely different from the rest of the Indians despite being the same race . The only reason Indians have lighter skin or coloured eyes... Colonization! How don't you get that. They are often describes as Caucasians (the light skinned ones) bec they have the same skeletal structure. I can't believe you believe Indians are white! Mixing of whites and aboriginal ancient Indians created the light skinned Indians. They were initially dark skinned. The only thing Indians share with whites are that they have Neanderthal ancestry! It's the same principle with blacks and whites. But when the child is born it's a black child. The end Do some research and see how the caste system developed.	Black, coloured	Ethnicity - Black	2/101	1.98
Kaminoneh... The only race that's not mixed with Neanderthals are Africans... Scientifically proven... Hence the reason Africans are the least hairy. I don't shave my legs nor do inhale hair on my arms. Research it. As ppl moved out of Africa they mixed with Neanderthals so of course DNA would prove to an extent that you share some attributes but u are not white. You are referred to as whites by some because of the skeletal structure.	Race	Ethnicity - General	1/77	1.299
