Women want us to know about sexism ?? Oh come on we go through it to don't act like it's a one sided thing anyone is welcomed to try and prove me wrong emphasis on the word TRY Sexism is ridiculous men don't have it better then women idk why they think we do	Sexism	Gender - General	2/53	3.774
Boys shouldn't shower together in gym class. It makes them bond more than women bc girls shower separately in gym class. This is the beginning of structural sexism .	Sexism	Gender - General	1/28	3.571

Stop saying men what to do... For the love of God I am sick of women telling me to man up or how to be a man. Sexism , hetero sexism , masculism... when will you run out of isms to teach us about? How about victimhood(ism) ? You change one ism o another and it changes nothing .	Nothing, Sexism	Age - Youngsters, Gender - General	3/56	5.357
As a woman myself. I find this talk unfair. If i want to dress modest, i dress modest. I believe we all have a choice in that. Because we do live in a fairly free society. Woman can pose how they choose. Fashion Magazines are for women not men.	Woman	Gender - General	2/49	4.082
Settlerkin stop being sexist of course theirs sexism against men	Sexism	Gender - General	1/10	10.0

Moneybag Mar800 Settlerking wasn't being sexist, they were asking a question. Where in that comment sounds sexist? And yes, men do experience sexism , there are many wonderful women who have done speeches about men's issues.	Sexism	Gender - General	1/35	2.857
She's talking like sexism is not an everyone issue. People out here trying to help women. which is good. but no one really tries to help men so there is still a lot of sexist against men.	Sexism	Gender - General	1/37	2.703
Because men are "supposed" to be a certain way, do a certain thing for himself and his family. Being a provider...I've been seeing a lot of women building up and men bashing. Because men build the world and the woman is future.	Woman	Gender - General	1/42	2.381
I get it and i think the same way, but if you loon at the big picture, really every women has experienced sexist situations, no exceptions and it is a regular thing, a lot of men has experience this too, but it doesnt happens on the regular or not to every men.I hope i am not making less the sexism against boys, i am trying to get you to understand the need to make men and women aware of the everyday sexism , specially towards girls, just because of the frecueny that this occurs to us.	Sexism	Gender - General	2/96	2.083
That is true sexism can happen to anyone.	Sexism	Gender - General	1/8	12.5

Everyone of the first 3 points can be reveresed and the exact same thing and the hypocrites exposed . But , Hypocrites dont care, they lack that fundamental logic and reasoning. Personally i never open a door for a Woman , or stand when she sits, or anything else that she can do herself. She mows the lawn also as she should and changes her own oil. Its her csr so i realy cou,d care less what she does with it, not my desicion to make. In fsct, i make her pay her billsbecause i believe it puts her in a better position. Its working out well. At Hewlett Packard, just raising your voice at a woman would get you kicked out the front door.	Woman	Gender - General	1/18	5.556
this is why women should not be allowed in mixed company. if someone man or woman can't even handle a raised voice that means that they are not ready to be an employee. Trying to change male society to meet the "dainty" standards of female society is not a winning strategy in the long run. But go tell yourself differently, tell yourself that women shouldn't try to be as tough as men (even verbally!) . Go for it. I know you will.	Woman	Gender - General	1/82	1.22
She is completely wrong. A man must be strong or be dominated, not because of masculinity, but because of competition. Its all about competition for resources.A man does not want to lose to a man any less than losing to a woman .Complete idiocy.	Woman	Gender - General	1/43	2.326
I would like to add to this presentation, that worship of the female form and her gifts of nurturing and pleasure is embedded in our subconscious since infancy by both genders. Owning that and not shaming it is part of ending gender wars.	Gender	Gender - General	1/43	2.326
That's not true. Women desire the male body, and enjoy seeing it's form both as nuturing and for pleasure just as well as Men see Womens body that way. We have a constant narrative that is centered around what Men would like to see, and even with this Bias, in my field of work, I experience a constant and high demand of Women that enjoy seeing Men and the male body sexualised. In fact, this is such a neglected Buisness branche that some of my friends have built independent Buisnesses around it, that are highly successfull without even having a mentionable reach. I, by the way, do believe this also goes both ways. It's not hard to admit to as a woman , but I can identify it in my male friends when I see them swooning over their friends bodily achievments (in the gym) for example, or joking to each other about it. I guess we would have to start owning up to the fact that most of our desires aren't centered around us being male or female, but being human, and we have to treat each other as humans first.	Woman	Gender - General	1/191	0.524
As far as infancy goes, perhaps this just means we should have higher expectations of men in the realm of nurturing babies... ill breastfeed it; you carry the dang thing around the rest of the time and change all its diapers. Seriously. There's no reason a man can't be just as nurturing or more nurturing than a woman .	Woman	Gender - General	1/58	1.724

Here Kitty You're both right. It is true that men are less risk averse than women and it stands to reason that they're more likely to take risks, lose their money and become homeless. There's one thing that you seem to agree on which is that there are differences between the average man and woman which inherently changes what place they have in society and where they are in society. Whether or not ALBUMOF2008 is negative, sexist or misandrist does it matter? Look at the argument that they're making and criticize it if you disagree.	Woman	Gender - General	1/95	1.053
This woman doesn't have to worry about any men sexualizing her.	Woman	Gender - General	1/11	9.091
What men want women to know about sexism there making it worse and your feeding this hatred and giving it that power that you so desperately don't want it to have seriously if you wanna be a leader then be one and prove to us men that you can do it becuae unless you prove to us men then it will just replete	Sexism	Gender - General	1/63	1.587
Heterosexism... You mean homophobia ?	Homophobia	Sexual Identity - General	1/4	25.0
Women can be sexist. I have encountered countless women saying "Man up" And compressing my emotions just because i'm a male. Also, if you saw a man beating a women, what would you do? You would probably stop him! But if you saw a woman beating a man, what would you do? It's up for you to decide. Feminism is great! It's fighting for equal rights! But the people that just hate men and ignoring their problems is not okay.	Woman	Gender - General	1/80	1.25
When most people are talking about sexism , they are not referring to an individual talking to an individual, it's the same with racism - it's about these issues being systematic and institutionalized. If you listen to women who want real equality, they will tell you that telling a man to "man up" is also very wrong and gender stereotypes are wrong. They will tell you it's ok for a man to cry, to have feelings, show insecurity, be a stay at home spouse or dad, to make less than a woman , none of these things make you any less of man. We as a society are so tied up in these ridiculous definitions of what it is to be a man or woman that we are not being true to ourselves as human beings.	Gender, Racism, Sexism, Woman	Ethnicity - General, Gender - General	5/134	3.731

Dawn There is no invisible systematic and institutionalized patriarchy , is an invention, what we have now is a lot of affirmative action for women, that is draining their credibility as professionals; because is hard to take seriously somebody who get her job for a quota, and unless you get your position by hard work and effort, nobody would care, women need to "man up" and demonstrate their value, until then, they will keep fighting invisible ghosts in their minds	Nobody, Patriarchy	Age - Youngsters, Gender - General	2/79	2.532

I was actually disappointed that wasn't where it was going. It turned kinda into victim-blaming. Men do need men to call out sexism against women, but they need both men and women to change the dialogue about what it means to be a man, to help men feel confident and capable, even when they feel emasculated by a woman who beats them at something, and to know that doesn't diminish them as a person, or to stop men and women from belittling men who show natural emotions and express vulnerability. elenapelayo1 men are required by law to register for the draft in order to vote in elections. Failure to register for the draft is a federal crime whether or not you vote. Men have to be willing to risk their lives to vote. That is what he means, you don't have to earn the right to vote as a woman , men do.	Woman	Gender - General	1/62	1.613
You realize that conscription was passed into law in 1862 and that the first woman elected to Congress wasn't until 1922. Unless of course you're talking about the Selective Service Act of 1917. If you've been following along, 1917 comes before 1922.Women didn't make those rules. Men did. Quite frankly I think if you can't get enough people to sign up for your war of their own volition, you shouldn't go to war. But don't try and blame my entire gender for the rules and regulations that YOUR gender passed into law.	Gender, Woman	Gender - General	3/93	3.226
Amanda Ski Your gender votes people into office who send Men into War. Women are the majority of voter's, because they out number Men. These are the Politicians Women voted in. Equal rights come with equal responsibility. Women can serve in frontline combat units without restrictions now if they choose too. So that means they can register for seletive service now. Mekel Reen And women, historically, risked their lives to bring children into the world - men are not expected to risk their lives in peacetime - but if women were not willing to do so, the race would have died out. That is why, historically, men were expected to repay that dedication, by protecting women and children from harm.	Race	Ethnicity - General	1/59	1.695
Actually the generalizing and Saying that's what all men do is sexist against men. Saying every man does this and no women would ever do this is quite offensive. Trust us, we know everything about sexism , we are primary target of it.	Sexism	Gender - General	1/13	7.692
I actually agree with you the act of sexism doesn't change or get any better depending on who you are. Unfortunalty, she didn't talk about what men face the full extent, which is just as bad, and that leads to a problem; women feel more afraid, and men can't get help. I would note that most male rapists are also victims of paedophilia form older women. The fact of the matter is that women get so much more support though sexist harm and that is mainly because of mainstream feminism and talks like this. I am not saying that these talks should go, I am saying they need to take into account the full picture. I have a feeling most of us agree on this issue, but due to movements like 3rd wave Feminism and to less extent MGTOW we are held apart, you can't poison half a well. Why must we identify with a side here? I support gender equality. Feminism and MGTOW are not only not that, but they are actively are hurting equality.	Gender, Sexism	Gender - General	2/176	1.136

OK for real now why every time there is a speech about sexism it is always about women being discriminated or not having being equally treated as men. Heidi Raitio We are not close to being the same and nobody should pretend so. We have different interests, buying habits, points of conversation and mental universe . We perceive the world in a collective sense completely differently. The vast of men reject the narrative of female oppression and now view this as an assault and slander. We very much see this as classic female narcissism and manipulation. How many times does the wage gap need to be debunked? When will voting rights not be used as a signifier of oppression when so many young men died in the trenches never have the vote? The way women behave as a hive mind and are willing to portray myth and slander is alien to men because we all think and discuss as individuals, no matter how wrong minded	Alien, Mental, Nobody	Age - Youngsters, Nationality - General, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	3/137	2.19

It's true that men and women differ in many ways, however, does that mean that we can't stand up for eachother? If you look at the history books isn't it true that it has been more male driven? You talk about women having a "hive mind". Do you mean that we tend to stick together more? Everybody finds safety in numbers, this is true for everybody and if you do not feel safe or heard (like women or minorities) all the more likely you'll stick to that group. If you look at the men's clubs that have been everywhere in society, wouldn't that also count as a "hive mind"? And isn't accusing a woman that she had those sexist comments (or worse) coming because of what she wore also slander?This speech is not an attack on men, she talks about sexism on both sides. Men are being discriminated against, just like women and that's why we need eachother in this fight. Because this fight is not against any of the sexes, this fight is for humanity. There is another TED talk that might be an interesting point of view that explains why it's important to stand up for women: violence against women—it's a men's issue: Jackson Katz at TEDxFiDiWomen	Sexism, Woman	Gender - General	2/210	0.952

Women are not more violent. And that can be easily seen in numbers. It is true that women are more likely to be violent towards children, but I think it is safe to say that this is the case because they spent a lot more time with them... mostly alone! Please try spending 2 weeks with a 2 year old ... they are pretty annoying and every body gets aggressive after a 4 hour "why game" (questioning everything with why).In Austria (europe) women spend 24 months after birth with the child before starting to work again. Men spend 1 month... that is the average. So more time with kids gives more opportunity to hurt them, right? It is just logical, which is supposed to be a "male ability"... Therefore you should understand it...	Old	Age - Over 65s	1/133	0.752
Honestly, the "walking home at night scary" this never gonna change. Crazy people will always exist, so we'll always have to be careful. Marissa Mayer and Ronda Rousey sexualized themselves, society did not sexual them they did it themselves. This is not men's fault this is women using there sexuality to there advantage and there is nothing wrong with that. I will never be an "ally" to someone who openly vilifies men and ignores there problems. Lets talk about female privileged, women have more rights then men, men are more likely to be the victims of violence then women are. Those are the actual facts. Because you as a women do not understand the things men have to deal with, you do not see the rampant sexism against men that speeches like yours are drenched with. Men are constantly having there basic sexual desires vilified all the time. Not only do homosexual men have it worse then homosexual women but heterosexual men get there sexuality vilified as much as any homosexual . Heterosexual men's sexuality gets blamed for nonsense like rape culture. You gave no evidence whatsoever that Ronda Rousey choosing to do a sexy photoshoot to advertise herself, is in anyway connected to rape. Of course men get angry when they loose, it does not matter if a women beats them or a man beats them, people do not like loosing. All of your research is biased because you did not examine the female aspect. You did not do a study that showed how women reacted when getting beaten by a man or women. Your studies were not scientific and probably did not lead to repeatable results. You are not a researcher you are a professional sexist.
