Racism does not exists when all you believe is that it is only your race that experiences it. How about a Black man walk in a Native man's moccasins? Black men have never faced genocide, except from their own race . Native men have experienced genocide from their own race , but faced far worse when the European Hispanics came to the Western Hemisphere. Native men, women and children have been slaughtered, wholesale, by the Hispanics up to the mid to late 19th century by the Mexican government who had a blood bounty on the Apache. How about that 14th Amendment that gave all Blacks in America US Citizenship, has been Liberally contorted to provide false citizenship to children born to non-citizens, yet it did not grant US Citizenship to the Native Peoples of this Land till a special Act of Congress in 1924. How about the abject racism against the "sub human" Irish? It was not 20,000 plus sub-Saharan Black African slaves that perished hand digging a canal through a snake, gator, disease filled hot and humid swamp from Lake Pontchartrain to New Orleans in the 1830s. It was Irish men and able body boys that suffered that fate. Where is the outcry for that racism , that complete injustice of humanity? It did not even receive a footnote in history. The question at the end, "If this (supposedly the contents of the video) isn't racism what is?" shows—given the substance of that content—how forced the whole racism thing is today. There are reasonable, logical answers for most of the alleged " racism " examples given but this isn't the venue. Might be time for this old white dude to make a 'dear black people' video answering the superficiality of the charges of racism with logic, common sense and in as factual a response as can be mustered. Racism is a horrible and disgusting disease that has to be stopped. Racism is real. It's also a business and political currency. Does racism keep minorities from success—NO. Do progressives inflate the racial divide to further their agenda—YES. The facts are that America's founders, and those who want to conserve those founding ideas, always believed in liberty for everyone. "All men are created equal". There were not a bunch of slave owners in Americas history. The fact is 100 of them were democrat and most owned plantations in the south. In the 1960's the democratic party changed their platform and realized that they were losing the race argument. Instead they focused on getting votes using welfare programs and talking about justice. In this way, the democrat still own slaves and republicans are still fighting for their freedom.	Race, Racism	Ethnicity - General	3/125	2.4
Slavery reparations? That sounds pretty racist to me. Racism doesn't only slide one way.	Racism, Racist	Ethnicity - General	2/14	14.286
What's racist about paying for crimes against humanity?	Racist	Ethnicity - General	1/8	12.5
Oskar Ware I'm white myself but I think it is certainly necessary to pay reparations to black people after all the disgusting and horrible things white people have done and what's even worse, still keep doing today! It's wrong to say that what happened 100 years ago doesn't concern us. If the roles would be reversed then I'm sure all white people would be demanding reparations every day. Black people deserve justice and it's time for us whites to stop being racist bigots and accept responsibility.	Black, Racist	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	3/86	3.488

ProximityX In no way am I saying that slavery was a good thing, it's terrible, but if someone hasn't owned a slave, they can't be prosecuted. It's as simple as that. And even if the roles were reversed, I would understand that black people in the present day could not help their past, so I would just get over it. We will never get anywhere by focusing on something that happened hundreds of years ago. And even so, what about the Arabic slave trade, where white Europeans where taken, sold and tortured. That was horrible, but I'm not demanding reparations! Black people were involved in that as well, their not demanding reparations from Muslims. If we're working of the logic that you imply, then people in modern day Germany will have to pay reparations to Jewish people, because some of their relatives may have worked in concentration camps.I'm British but I'm not demanding reparations from Nordic people and Italian people, seeing as the Vikings and the Romans invaded us.We should fight against racism , I'm not denying that, however demanding money from innocent people because of their race , because of their past (something that cannot be changed) is ridiculous. For crying out loud, it happened almost 200 years ago, around 6-7 generations ago, and it wasn't good, but we don't have to prosecute innocent white people for something that they didn't actually do. It's like a kids father robbing a bank, his father dies and the kid gets the blame. It's wrong.	Black, Race, Racism	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	4/253	1.581
Oskar Ware But wouldn't it be great to do something good and nice for the black people? They deserve it so much after all the suffering and unfair treatment. It could drastically improve race relations if we whites just apologize and try to make amends. Racism has to end and I believe paying reparations to black people would be a good way to start. While I agree that racism happens – and that people are generally stupid, and therefore often make decisions off of irrelevant and absurd factors (like race ) – I think the general thesis of this video is somewhat is somewhat absurd. You cannot prove racism with statistics; in other words, disparities don't prove discrimination. So to answer the question, "If this isn't Racism , then what is?", .... " Racism is racism . That's it."However, I do appreciate that this video is better quality than many out there. In a country full of outrage right now, this video presents its message (true or not) in a generally peaceful, nonviolent, and reasonable manner. Thank you. [ and yes, there are points that I agree on too, so I appreciate that also. For example, I totally agree that the best and only true way to counter racism is by peacefully correcting the thinking at its core, not with outrage, violence, or government action.]	Race, Racism	Ethnicity - General	7/157	4.459

The only reason why there's more marijuana incarcerations for black people is the cultural differences in use.white people sit and smoke in their house black people smoke in their car .even how both smoke marijuana is shaped differently take for example white people usually use a stationary object such as a bong . black people on the other hand are usually smoking a blunt a very mobile and concealable method of smoking. My black friends always are joking that white people are always smoking from some apparatus.	Black, Bong	Ethnicity - Aboriginal, Ethnicity - Black	5/86	5.814
You gonna provide any empirical data to back that up? Even if you don't, your claim still misses a crucial point - even if the white smoker and the black smoker is caught, the black smoker is more likely to be incarcerated for it. And that is even when controlling for relevant factors.	Black	Ethnicity - Black	2/53	3.774

Videos like these are ignorant (root word ignore) First of all it is an individuals right to discriminate. Discrimination is simply the ability to make wise decision (wise meaning based on some factual information) If an employer does not wish to hire blacks, perhaps there is a factual reason that his experience has taught him such as theft and a hostile demeanor. If a realtor dies not want to sell a black family into a specific neighborhood, perhaps they do not want to initiate white flight, because white families begin to experience thefts, rude inconsiderate behavior. Sexual deviance, drugs and traffic. Bad yard and house maintenance. The list goes on and on. But to acknowledge these facts make one a bad person. Ignorant video.	Black, Sexual	Ethnicity - Black, Gender - General	2/124	1.613

I will state first that racism is alive in the USA but your stats in the video dont prove anything without further examination. Statistically, a black person gets sentenced longer for the same crime as a white person, even when controlling for all relevant factors (such as prior charges or location).You missed the point of the very claim you're trying to disprove. It's not about who gets policed more, it's about who the cops decide to pull over more. Meaning that a cop could see a white person break a traffic law and turn a blind eye, then go down the next street and pull over a black person for some shit like not using a blinker. The problem with these experiments which purported to find systemic racism , is that they had no controls. That would cause any other research of this nature, to be rejected out of hand as unscientific. When it appears to support the contentions of a politically progressive SJW cause however, it just gets waved through, and quoted from as though it were authoritative. Contrary evidence, as does exist in relation to these findings, also just gets ignored.	Racism	Ethnicity - General	1/75	1.333
I'm not saying that cops don't have a racial bias but reality is that racial profiling doesn't stem out of nowhere.I wish we were all made equal under the sun but reality is that melanin is not the only thing that make black people differ from other ethnicity .Even in South Africa were black Africans make up 90 of the population, the crime is rate of blacks is still higher per capita. Of course racism is not over. It never will be. Some people will always hate other groups not matter what. Where? I am looking for the studies they are using for the statistics in the video. As a paranoid person living in an age where misinformation is spread from one outlet to another, not sourcing studies is asking not to be taken as a reliable source of statistics by the viewer. Not only this, showing the perceptions of the employers' viewpoints on Dante vs David does not proof they are racist , it just means they do not like the name Dante because it might sound less professional to them. Racism does exist, just this video is fricking stupid at proving it. I have had personal experience with this. Very recently a friend and I applied for the same two jobs. I have more education, I have more experience, and specifically, more direct experience with the jobs we applied for, and my resume is impeccable. However, it was she who was offered both jobs. I never even got a reply, "Thanks, but no thanks."—not a peep. Why would this happen? I've come to the conclusion that in my particular case, it obviously couldn't have been the color of my skin, since these people never actually saw me. So all I can attribute it to is my name. She has a very typical American name. I have a very Spanish name, first and last. They probably shredded or deleted my resume the moment the saw it on the page. It doesn't mean a person has a problem just because their racist it just means there loyal unto their own kind, bloodline, biology, DNA and all. It means by providence a racist person is inclined or insist to mix with their own kind only and that is most beautiful thing. So the next time you hear someone say "That jerk has a racism problem" you just tell them racism isn't a problem it just that racist are genetically and bloodline dignified and they have providence of breeding which is a hell of a lot more than I can say for non- racist and their filthy crummy race mixing. Racism is relative, and "white privilege" doesn't apply to all situations. I'm a white man who lived in Los Angeles for a number of years and was often treated horribly by the predominantly Hispanic and Armenian populations that were in the area where I lived. This included being treated rudely in stores by clerks and other customers as well as working in environments where people refused to speak English around me to intentionally exclude me from conversations. This just goes to show that racism comes in many forms and isn't always just of a white person discriminating against a black person. To insinuate that white people are always the ones who are racist and mistreating minorities is in itself racist . Interracial crime is extremely rare. Black on White or White on Black . Interracial crime is not really an issue when people talk about racism because, regardless of the race of the assailant, they will legally prosecuted. Your claim that a hate crime is an accomplish in the black community is HIGHLY dubious claim. How do you know this? Have you actually spent much time in Black neighborhoods?Saying that someone has privilege is not an example of privilege. I have able0body privilege because I am healthy and am not wheel chair bound. If someone points out this privilege, it does not mean they hate me lol. All White privilege means is that Whites in America benefit from being the racial majority. This means that White people have more representation in the media, White skincare and haircare products are easier to find than it is for other ethnic groups, and that the vast majority of White people never have to worry about being discriminated against becasue of their race because most Whites rarely have much interactions with minorities anyway. As long as "they" are permitted in church places, synagogues, and mosques, to teach people " racism " ( eugenics ), claiming bloodlines determine who belongs to what group, I do not see the problem going away. Who is, or will be, counted as a son of God, is determined by whether or not His Word abides in them, or not. And some are born, it is written, with the Law already written upon their hearts, their conscience baring witness. Some strive to know Him, and are chosen, brought near, whilst others are chosen, and so strive to know Him. .. I have never forgiveness for what are called racists, but ought to be called eugenicists, so as not to confuse them with athletes who compete in races. They may say to defend their actions on the day of judgement that they thought the bible told them to be eugenicists - but misinterpreting scripture is not a valid excuse. A wicked man may look to scripture for a hope of salvation, but if the correct interpretation is withheld from him, it simply means that he is doomed, unable to discover how to love others, to do good, and not evil. Racism exists on all sides. Why can't we just accept that? Why do we have to perpetuate the divide? Why don't we all just do what we can in our communities to make life equal for everyone? That's all we can do. By putting out videos that vilify people of any color, it changes the perception of others on that color. It enhances animosity. We should be enforcing love and acceptance, not picking one race to place all the blame. I am of mixed race....People of both my descendants races, I don't belong. But in most eyes, I am human and accepted. By vilifying one race, it just enhances hate. So how about we all accept that there are some huge changes that need to be made and focus on those changes instead of blaming everyone of a certain color. It's silly. This is how violence and hate breeds. We don't need this, the media does enough of this. We should love each other I don't understand videos like this.... The disparity is known, I'd like to instead hear about what people are doing to make things better rather than encouraging the hate and racism. :( I cry for our inability to love each other all the same. People of every race can get lost in our differences rather than embrace them, we can try to change them, but it's likely unsuccessful. That is why our voices of unity and equality must scream louder than their voices of hate. They and their children will survive, and they will return.Zephaniah 3:19 And I will deal severely with all who have oppressed you. I will save the weak and helpless ones; I will bring together those who were chased away. Recently in the last few months, a lot black people were going around and chanting slogans against mexicans thinking they are an exception. I am laughing at these blacks today. How are you feeling now? today you remember you are black & will always be disliked as much as us. You been fooled again. Neo nazis & skinheads do not like colored people of all kinds. Even you are a race one shade close to white they'll still do not like you. I have been labeled a rapist wanna be by blacks since I look mexican. By the way I have a clean record, I am over 30 years old & USA citizen. Black people are dump asses. They believed whatever info thrown at them as long as you do not include them in it. You were fooled into slavery for 400 and more years. Blacks you the dumbest race of all earth I have ever dealt with. The first and most crucial step in fighting " racism " is to acknowledge and educate others about the fact that THERE IS NO SUCH FUCKING THING AS " RACE "; crack open a biology text book and find me the scientific classification of " race "...I'd wait but you'll be at it for a while; Nowhere in taxonomy do you find the classification of " race ": Kingdom, Phylum, Class, Order, Family, Genus, Species...FULL STOP. We are all the same species: Homo-Sapiens Sapiens and within that species we only have ethnic and religious denominations. The more people keep using the term race as if it's something that exists outside of divisive Imperialist ignorance the more we tacitly drill into people's minds that it's a real thing. As soon as one starts believing that " race " is a real distinction among human being then one becomes a " racist " and loses all perspective that the real problems facing humanity stem from dogmatic adherence to culture or religion or materialism to the exclusion of all else; arrogance is our real enemy, let's start using it's name. I'm curious as to exactly where they get all these statistics from? How reliable are they? The older I get, the more I question random statistics that show no hard fact to back them up. I guess my comment has nothing to do with this commercial in particular because I know that racism is alive and well in these things do really happening sadly, but I hate when they say it's now 10 of people do this 40 of people do that, how do we know? Today Blacks are creating and energizing racism they are feeding the beast. See how quick to anger these groups are when protesting. They lack humility! They feel their voice is more important. I have ton's of questions for the racist black groups figuratively speaking. I wonder if anybody has every watched the youtube clip about racism in Africa. The clip is provide by "Big Debate South Africa". Interestingly there are not just 2 different thoughts but 3 and maybe a 4 if you add the Chinese( groups of people being black, colored , and white). Fact is racism has been present since as far back as we have records and it is not skin color related according to the dictionary. I wished somebody would compare Africa to South America. Did you know in South America there is a tribe of people that are protect from the entire rest of the world? A whole race of people will die if anybody in the outside world of their would cause illness that there bodies may not be able to deal with. Did you know that there is about 7 billion people on the planet and 1,382,323,332, are Chinese,1,342,512,706 in India, and only 326,474,013 in America? Did you know slavery is still going on today? I wonder how many Americans hate other Americans? I have seen plenty of racist white, black , and Mexican people just to through out some labels. No skin color is immune to treating others poor according to differences. Have read stories of black people hating other black people because they were not black enough or that they may have had a white, Mexican, Chinese , Brazilian father or mother. It was that stupid. Pointing out differences and shaming others for those differences never made the world a better place. Its crazy how history shows things are going to get worse if society doesn't decide to change. I doubt society will decide to change. Pride and stubbornness is glorified. Wanting what others have instead of being grateful for what one is currently in possession of is an increasing issue(coveting). The love for violence has increase also and justification for that violence has been excepted. Fear is another huge issue and is what is causing so much contention, but not as much contention as pride is causing. A black girl sitting at her desk was violently removed from class. What I left out: a black girl disrupting class throwing paper at the teacher, refuses to leave class, and is forcefully removed. These stats are correct, but you leave out half the story. Here is one example. Blacks are more likely to be arrested for drug use. What you left out: blacks are more likely to be repeat offenders, and to be dealing drugs illegally as well as consuming. Anyone who has volunteered at a charity or thought they would change the world teaching inner city blacks can tell you the black community is damaged. Am I the only person bored with and tired of the narrative that tries to create white guilt?The next time someone tries to foist this false narrative upon you, or reflects this upon themselves, remind them that.....it was white people who created laws to end black slavery, it was white people people who died to end black slavery in the American civil war, it was black people who helped facilitate slavery through inter tribal warfare in Africa, it was Arabs who committed the largest, longest and most brutal form of black slavery, it is white countries that take in refugees from many races and tries to help them integrate and it is non-white countries today who are guilty for modern slavery towards other races and 'lower casts'.Is it not ironic, really, to call white people racist ? I have one valid argument against racism , and so does every living person on the face of the Earth: The human heart. You may not want to admit it, but I am right. Back in 2015, I was diagnosed with extreme anemia and sent to the ER. I was sickly and had I waited much longer, I wouldn't be sitting here at my computer, telling you this, I'd be in an urn. The blood I got, I'm not sure who it came from or what their race was, but I do know this: It was a compatible blood-type, and the heart didn't care that the person was black , white, or any color in-between. It had a job to do, and with that blood, it did that job, thus saving my life. The only reason I want to know who the blood came from is so I know who to thank. This isnt racism its subconscious bias. I have seen the effects of racism in history of South Africa where legislators consciously made decisions to legally penalise people of colour and go so far as to move portions of the population into ghetto like areas in order to essentially ethnically cleanse an area. The solution to subconscious bias like this is a different solution to the true racism of byegone eras. We now need to inspire people with black and female heroes who embody the opposite of the inherent biases in our culture.	Black, Racism	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	4/92	4.348

No , you aren't understanding. The methods that you collect information is either scientific , or not. If it's not scientific, then your results are open to the bias of the researcher, or susceptible to confirmation bias. Yes in fact there is a way to scientifically testing it. You would simply have multiple researchers put out resumes with " black sounding names" vs "white sounding names", and then measure the responses in a non bias way. The entire concept of deciding what names were black sounding , and which ones were not would be very much opinion. So maybe they should randomly take REAL peoples names of either black or white skinned people and then measure the results. That's how you scientifically test something. If we start with a black African IQ of 67 and add that 12.1 IQ points, that gives us a black American IQ of 79. In addition, the superior nutrition and healthcare in the US might boost that by 5 IQ points to 84. That turns out to be an over-estimation of the actual black American IQ of 78 (Rushton & Jensen 2010). - the above has the dumbed down math, i can give u the harder math and even plug in the newer values as per 23andme DNA data as to white admixture to blacks in USA... so the miscegenation is going upwards, revisions are needed in a dynamic freeDUMB loving america that promotes what u do (evil)... thus the Mark Shriver genetic data of 17-18 white genetic material in "blacks" in USA has been updated, as i'm sure he has updated his data, i'm just remembering his data from many years ago....Richard Lynn was criticized for having a rather high looking 25, seemingly arbitrary and rounded up, not so much anymore! 24 is a quoted figure (may not be representative and proper population sampling as per the source, 23andme (mixed race people may want to know more than people like me who KNOW their background so well (i do have my aunt's DNA results, no surprise, more irish than i wanted to be ;)if whites are around 100 and black africans around 70 where do u think the mixtures will on average arrive as to IQ? the answer is in the 80s, just as u would largely suspect as to even just basic averaging in a distribution...regression to the mean happens more sharply at the top, somewhat upward from the bottom...our collective IQ has been dropping for a long time now... i remember years ago the global average was 90 or so, now dropping below 88... i can site the link for this... do u not realize dumber people have more kids?we have been selective with our INDIA indians and as such 109-112 is the given range for our USA india indians... this WILL be hard to keep up unless they continue breeding with an influx of vetted immigrants of similar IQ or cross breed with native americans (and i don't mean indians... oh god, i just made this confusing... lets say cross breed with higher IQ whites and others...so as to regression to the mean u need to realize that 120+ IQ people of the black race regress more sharply as to their kids... u understand this? when your average starts 30 IQ points lower as a group its MUCH harder to maintain the 120+ in breeding... jews do this the best so far... 112-115 IQ (Ashkenazis...your link is dead wrong, a lie... "may" is a word the left wants to countenance for their PC agenda, it has little basis in scientific methodology other than in a hypothesis... i gave u some raw data, there is much more...diversity is NOT a benefit in the human race... black africans have the widest swath of DNA, it is because of bottlenecking DNA for whites/asians that they passed through selection pressures under evolutionary law - as such whites/asians have larger brains, more complex brains, higher IQ... do i REALLY need to outline this for u? do u REALLY need a lecture in biological determinism to outline the VERY CLEAR racial differences raceandcrime You sound paranoid. Anyway, stop trying to talk about Asians like they are on your side or something. By your own standards Asians are superior to you. Same thing with Jewish Americans. The Japanese are very proud of their own race I hear. Why do you expect them to accept you, white male/female? Also I honestly don't understand what you're trying to say in your comment. raceandcrime This is what I'm talking about, your badly written comments. Is english your first language? It doesn't sound like it. You're also accusing me of not reading what you wrote and being ignorant of it when the opposite is true. I never said anything that should make you believe that, however you were not really responding to what I said. You continue to go on with all these random facts no one ever said anything about. I don't even know what your motive is in doing so, and I didn't come here to debate, just to tell you to stop talking like Asians are on the white mans side. In truth you would like to believe that as a racist the facts are on your side when they really or not. You'd probably believe anything just because someone said it's a fact. Knowing a few statistics doesn't make you smart. Also, you talk about racism as if it's a good thing. I doubt you'd want to live in a society of white people oppressed by Asians. XD Lol, bringing up the fact that I play minecraft? That's how I know you that you realize you are wrong and are an amatuer in debate. Fyqcraft ... as to asians oppressing whites, it is more likely than the reverse.. whites and their political development affords asians more freedom than they do for themselves... so its an interesting idea... San Fran might be the next real test of this in a democratic republic like our own, asians are taking over that city!i was just mentioning to my dad during my vacation that u can't do this in Singapore: i then spit on the street... u can be caned for it... $100 fine in NYC for dog poop, in Singapore MUCH WORSE... in fact they have dog asshole bags attached to their dogs so that the poop never hits the ground! LOL...China has over 50 ways of capital punishment, i should say 50 laws, most of which have to do with forms of theft... then u die... the list was over 60 for awhile...Japan is a conforming uptight nation ... not as free yet they have adopted LOADS of western freedom... so i do believe the highest IQ people should rule, they just happen to be mostly white! read any IQ list... white over-representation all the time... no worries as to asian control and leadership in the world according to smarts, they borrow and steal from whites all the time, they owe us	Nation	Nationality - General	1/218	0.459

Explain where privilege exists for the Asian who has to score 275 points higher than a black to attend the same college? Where is the privilege in a white having to score higher than a black to attend college? Where is the privilege in being blamed for everyone else's problems? Dennis Walker Explain the privilege? Here's the thing, no other racial group in the US has experienced such institutional discrimination like the Native Americans and blacks for almost the entirety of this country's existence. Because of that, Native Americans and blacks suffer from disadvantages set forth by previous generations. Things are getting better now, but, I'll give you one example, it's anecdotal but it's one example, I'm a pilot, soon to be an airline pilot. The first black airline pilot wasn't until 1964. Even to this day, in America, there are only less than 2 black pilots, even less for women pilots. Now, last February, I was blasted by someone saying that it's people like myself (blacks) and women, as the reason why white men like himself couldn't get an airline job in the 1980s...Even though he has had the OPPORTUNITY since the beginning of aviation... Blacks and others minorities have only had the opportunities for a few decades, as opposed to everyone else. Which goes to a bigger institutional point. Yes, personal responsibility is very important, but it's rather ignorant to deny that some individuals due to institutional oppression that has lasted up until the last 50 years, didn't have affect on these said group's ability to succeed and excel. There's still reports of racial bias in several locations throughout the country that disproportionately target people of color over others. It's hard to move forward, when you have people still trying to hold you back.	Black	Ethnicity - Black	2/247	0.81
+ERAUPRCWA You still have not answered any of my questions. And we are talking today , not history. Why since 1960 has the birth rate for unwed mothers in the black community risen from 20 to 75 . White birth rates for unwed mothers increased from around 12 to 35 in the same time frame. Why is this , could it have something to do with the welfare state ?	Black	Ethnicity - Black	1/72	1.389
Dennis Walker Today is a reflection of history, you can't know where you're going until you know where you've been.History is totally relevant in the discussion of race and racism in American culture, as only less than 50 years ago, many rights were granted to a specific group that didn't have rights in this country for over 200 years of it's 240 year existence. The welfare state is a big problem, though black people don't benefit from it as much as white people. With that being said, there's a larger problem that must be discussed with said issue, I agree, it is a problem. However, unwed motherhood is pretty common with many groups now-a-days, as in the 1950s, it was almost a requirement to have a husband, in order to have a baby. Today, people are more open to not being married before having children. it's not as stigmatized. Same is said about the number of women in the workforce, which is up, compared to 50 years ago... Societal changes is the cause.	Black, Common, Race, Racism	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General, Social Class - Working class	4/174	2.299

+ERAUPRCWA White poor people do not receive any greater benifet from welfare than blacks . Whites have a different culture . History does have its uses , but the black community uses history as an excuse for their antisocial behavior today . Because maby your ancestors were slaves 150 years ago is not a valid argument concerning anything today . And anyone claiming that today needs to have proof their family did not arrive after slavery was abolished and proof their ancestors weren't free blacks who owned slaves . Prove that and I might be more inclined to soften my stance on the issue . Today a black married couple who have graduated college and both work , earn more money than a white couple in the exact same circumstances. The black community needs to quit whining, grow up, accept personal responsibility as a culture , and realize that they aren't children needing big brother handing out money and food stamps and paying their rent , while telling them how mistreated they are . And convincing them they aren't able to care for themselves and need big brother to watch out for them .	Black	Ethnicity - Black	3/194	1.546

+Critical Geek Diversity in ideas has nothing to do with skin color . Affermative action is black privilege. And college should be more concerned with ideas and learning than skin color . Affermative action in the work place is black privilege. And really you claim that the white man who is accused of being the basis of everyone’s problems , who is racist because of being a white male , sexist for being a white male , homophobic because of being a straight white male , transphobic for being a straight white male , responsible for every war or police action of the military for being a white male , responsible for holding blacks down for being a white male , sounds like being a white male is really privileged doesn’t it . And all this happened because the majority of white males had the audacity to graduate high school , go to work , and not have kids out of wedlock. That is why white men are the root of all evil. Damn I guess we need to change our culture to that of the black man’s . Obviously they aren’t going to change their culture . So to keep from being the root of all the problems of the black community we need to drop our culture to match theirs , quit graduating school get white women to start dropping kids without getting married , enroll in welfare , start some gangs , and pretend we are in Chicago and commence shooting each other and and complaining about which ever race is left because they are holding us down and receive the same mythical privilege we supposedly once had . Dennis Walker Then you know about the depravity of human beings when given the worst circumstances. 240 years of American history, 204 of them blacks had no rights. +ERAUPRCWA Ok why do blacks from other countries when they immigrate out preform American blacks , I mean systemic racism toward blacks includes all blacks doesn't it ? The Brookings institute found out that to not live poor your whole life all you have to do is, graduate high school, go to work and don't have kids out of wedlock. Three simple rules . So you believe it's not all the blacks fault they are where they are today . Where are the white men forcing black women to have sex with black men and get pregnant and then forcing the black men to drop their responsibilities. Where are the white men forcing young blacks to drop out of school ? They are nonexistent . It's black culture . And until black culture changes things are going to get worse. As long as the black community accepts personal responsibility for your actions and decisions things will never change . And the findings of the Brookings institute was across all racial lines , whites and Latinos who behaved the same way were poor also . And it has been proven that until black culture changes , it doesn't matter how much money you throw at the problem , it will not make any difference. Critical Geek I'm 60 , I'm guessing you are between 25 and 35 ., my statistics come from the FBI crime statistics office, the census Bureau, and other government agencies. And if black culture is modeled after slavery of 150 years ago , don't you think it might need to be updated ? And as far as slavery goes , why is it always blamed on white people , when free black people also owned slaves ? And only 5 of whites one owned slaves. Also whites did not go to Africa or anywhere else and capture slaves , they were bought from Arabic slavers, and other blacks who had already enslaved them .Why aren't blacks protesting the government's who still practice slavery ? Guess those facts don't fit into the culture or agenda of American blacks wanting everything handed to them without working for it . I also find it amazing that out of all the races subjected to slavery in America, only the blacks are still stuck in that mentality. Are they not capable of living in the present time ? American Indian natives, Irish , Scottish , Arabic, and Puerto Rican , races were all slaves among others . +ERAUPRCWA How is indentured servitude different than slavery ? And there were Irish and Scottish slaves not just the ones being forced into indentured servitude. And just how many more centuries are we going to have to listen to excuses for antisocial behavior, because in the 1800s your ancestors were slaves . Yeah it happened , yeah it was bad , but get over it and quit blaming every white for the transgressions of 5 , that is very very childish .Quit making excuses , graduate high school, get a job and do not have children out of wedlock. That is all anyone in this country, regardless of race , has to do to not be poor .Why is it so hard for black Americans to understand this ? Could it be black culture holding them down and nothing else, except their refusal to grow up , or their instance on moaning about the past and not applying themselves today . I think it's constant indoctrination from birth about how victimized they are today because some of them have ancestors that were slaves and they will never be successful because all whites conspire to keep them down because years ago 5 of whites owned slaves and the entire race needs to be punished, even the ones who owned no slaves , fought to free them and fought to pass laws and get an amendment to the constitution to ensure equal treatment. None of that matters , they all need to be punished because they,are white . Sorry we have heard this bs so long and done everything possible to present opportunity to you and it does no good . Racism	Ethnicity - General	1/55	1.818
+Critical Geek A very very liberal origination the Brookings institute, did a study , because they just knew racism was the cause of so much poverty in the black community. What they found was , regardless of race , if you did not want to be poor in America today, all you had to do was graduate high school, get a job and don't have children out of wedlock. With no father in the home , children are 5 times as likely to quit school , and 20 times more likely to go to prison . So until black culture changes to where these practices are condemned instead of being the norm , it will not matter what anyone does , it will not accomplish anything .I would add one more requirement, if you can not afford to have children without government assistance, don't have them. Read this HUGE post if you are not racist . tl;dr this video isn't helping anyone, it just helps some people believe that they are helping solve racism here are all the flaws of this video.1. They could have just given the black resumes to harder to obtain jobs when compared to the white resumes. They don't specify that they were given to the same employer, and if they did give to the same employer then the employer would have noticed it. Bad experiment integrity.2. Nowhere do they state that the same car is bought, or that the same dealer was used, or that the car was paid in full vs paid over time with interest accrued. Trash correlations.3. Of course black drivers are more likely to be pulled over, and here is why. First of all, think about what type of neighborhood you would most likely find a black driver. that's right, poor neighborhoods and that is also where crime happens the most. So logically you would find more pull overs near poor neighborhoods, and they just happen to be black . confounding variables everywhere.4. Remember 3, black people are poorer (its not their fault, its just a result of recovery from slavery+unfairlaws that takes time to heal). So they would immediately have less options based on their budget. It is never stated that the clients studied had the same budget ranges.5. Black people would be more likely arrested for weed because they are more likely to be pulled over or questioned because of the reasons I stated on 3. again, invalid correlation6.poor people are jailed more, that's known, again its not their fault blah blah blah.7. Better health care comes from more money, that easily explains that. again the same black people are poorer scenario.8. Black people would be less likely to contact WHITE legislators, this one is really easy to see the flaw in. This entire study is basically saying, "poor people get less benefits, what a surprise right?" it just happens to be that a lot of black people are poor, to solve this you don't go around making videos telling people that racism exists. To help in the cause you try to improve the USA economy so that poverty levels are reduced on all fronts.	Black, Racism, Racist	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	12/386	3.109
read the study showed nothing about how they paid or each persons credit score there are more variables to take into account than those as well. This is a BS study and shouldn't be cited.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/35	2.857
You fight racism by ignoring them. That takes away what little power they think they have. Anything else is a waste of time. In other words, if you don't want race to be an issue. then don't make it one.	Race, Racism	Ethnicity - General	2/40	5.0
The two have nothing in common . Also global warming is a myth.	Common, Nothing	Age - Youngsters, Social Class - Working class	2/12	16.667

You can not eliminate racism ! Racism is an expression of free speech! There is not a single person sitting in any jail or prison convicted of racism ! Racist have no more or less power than we give them! Racist 's have the same right to exist as anyone else!	Racism, Racist	Ethnicity - General	3/48	6.25
Racism is non-consistent view, that hold no benefits for any race , that creates the situation you see now. Racism isn't a person. While Mexicans immigrants are deemed as criminals, rapist, and terrorist , I want you to think to yourself what are some things that can always counteract opinionated types such as yourself. If you're looking for a beat down and robbery, walk your white ass thru ANY predominately black neighborhood at night. Works both ways.	Black	Ethnicity - Black	1/23	4.348
if you dig the subject a little more, you will find that the roots of evil and racism is animal exploitation. you teach a child to respect his brother his cats be nice with animals, and then, some of them,, no - you can just enslave them kill them make money out of them. what's the matter it is a tradition, a sick one, we've been transmitting to the next generation just to avoid admitting that it is a crime plain and simple. (if you think you are an omnivore, go in the forest, naked, and see how long you last without eating fruits and plants.)	Racism	Ethnicity - General	1/106	0.943
Yes the statistic that blacks are more likely to be pulled over than whites that's because there are racist cops, doesn't mean that it apply to all white people.	Racist	Ethnicity - General	1/29	3.448
This video is a load of shit. If your trying to say that racism is like this then at least give the background supporting what you're saying.	Racism	Ethnicity - General	1/27	3.704
The car loan and home loan segment is a little misleading, considering that whites tend to have better credit scores, so it makes sense that they would pay less and qualify for more. That's how it works, it's not racism .	Racism	Ethnicity - General	1/40	2.5

Racism and prejudice are very obviously real (Though often incorrectly used interchangeably), progress is ever-steady yet still slow. All of them appear valid points, but many of them pretty blatantly leave out other contributing aspects that also factor in with race and create very obvious arguing points (Police more often than not cannot see someone's race before they pull them over, equal marijuana use but what led to each person getting caught, etc.). You've already convinced the people who agree with you, but using one-sided arguments isn't going to convince people who don't. Presenting the whole argument of each topic with a brief synopsis, and acknowledging the other talking points while still emphasizing what can't be explained by anything other than race is what's going to convince rational people. Irrational people won't be convinced regardless. Sometimes people just have never had the full facts and statistics clearly presented to them and it's all they needed, but incomplete arguments aren't going to do that. Anyways just my thoughts. What this omits is the fact that Dante is seen as a working class black name. A real test of racism would've sent out resumes for Dante Williams and Joe-Bob Williams.	Black, Racism	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	2/31	6.452
