I used to work at this one place where hardly anybody was over the age of 28. Reaching age 30 was like a death sentence. My old boss, who lost hearing on one of his ears due to childhood fever, wouldn't dare to wear a hearing aid because he was already 40 and pressure was mounting against him.During the meetings, all of my ideas and inputs went totally ignored, until younger associates just repeated what I had just said and were congratulated by the group.When that started happening all the time, I decided to leave them and take my 'brilliant ideas' to their competitor. Luckily, my new workplace values actual diversity of race , religion, body types, age , thinking, etc.My old workplace just pretended that they're diverse — in early 2010s they finally started to use nonwhite models in ads, and now they even claim to support diversity. BUT only if you're below age 26, tall, skinny , and Q2 personality type. (Yes, I had to take a training course on how everybody there is only Q2.)Thank goodness I left them. When I interviewed for a prestigious PhD program, I was told that there was only one other person my age who was applying, and that I was in "direct competition" with her, rather than with the entire group of applicants.	Age	Age - General	1/40	2.5

We need to have a million person march on Washington to protest against ageism . The squeegee kids are only young black men. They discriminate against old people, against white people, against women, against very young people, against anybody who is not like them. That's racism at its worst. That's bigotry. The worst kind of groupism.	Ageism, Black, Old, Racism	Age - General, Age - Over 65s, Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	4/55	7.273
Age has no baring on who you are and what you are capable of in life,Our greatest leaders and finest inventors were over 65..Many today are young in older bodies ,meaning they don't stagnate or wrinkle,their brains have fast processors and good long term and short term memory.. Age is not who they are,they are the exceptional transparent driven, who have no barriers and move right through the stigma and the social rule book because they can and they will out last and out perform the set ignorant needing approval from the two headed hears..of the oxy proxy morons..The next time you hear someones age remember you don't know them nor have you met them..DNA,how you abused yourself and intake mind body and spirit determines what you will be like..Your resilience ,pliability and love ..will set you apart from the old people))! Nobody admits ageism is racism ...They just think it's a funny joke to discriminate against people of age ...They don't know we're their future...and they should take good care of their future...We all age we all see our best years behind us.....If you reject age ..you are denying yourself a future...What I realized isWomen get old ...they look weird ..Men get old ...they look weak....Just another bad old people joke ...Better to age gracefully ..than to die painfully... this is so real I am out of work now, 55 and after 45 I was out of work for 4 years! that was spoken about at work one day as I experienced others in the same boat, that it was "supposed to happen" 4 5 years out of the job market does two things, 1 - it makes you desperate, and you will take a lower paying job just to eat, 2 lets the job market weed out the less qualified. but it does so mu harm to you, In my state, as a white woman who owned a house and a car I was told to let my house go into foreclosure and sell my can and they would help me with Medicaid - how does that help??? the governments are the purveyors of ageism of us all	Ageism, Woman	Age - General, Gender - General	2/140	1.429
That mention of public policies that should be good for all, made me think of my 80 year old mom who couldn't get into public housing because they gave first consideration to people with kids....even if those people weren't citizens. THAT pisses me off no emd.! We have American citizens who are elderly .. veterans .. down on their luck ... Citizens that are pushed aside for something that should be theirs FIRST simply because someone is here with children? No, I'm not that caring about the children of other countries when we have children here that are impacted by the hardships placed on our other citizens. Take your damn kids and go back to your home country. Figure out how to make your country better and stop milking mine. Of course part of the problem are the bleeding heart liberals that live in a bubble. They are traitors to our country and should be ridden out of town on a rail.	Elderly, Old	Age - Over 65s	2/162	1.235
Memphis is the worst city for ageism.	Ageism	Age - General	1/7	14.286
How about this? Let's put a proposal on a ballot in one of these states to initiate the concept from the movie Logan's Run. When someone grows above the age 35, just take the man or woman out and put them out of their so called misery. I am being sarcastic and not serious but I just want to put that in case someone takes my post too seriously. Age discrimination kind of feels like the professional and business worlds version of Logan's Run. It's wrong and just because someone gets to a magical age they are retired and put out to pasture.	Age, Woman	Age - General, Gender - General	4/103	3.883
Ageism is disgusting. One would think that wisdom can come with age. Rejecting, not 'disrespecting' someone of a job because of age? People who do this type of injustice should be put to death on the grounds of not having a soul.	Age, Ageism	Age - General	3/42	7.143
I wouldn't let the fact that he's older bother him to the point of being emotional. There's nothing anyone can do about aging. If you've got valuable skills it's good to market them in the best way to put you in a role that will balance your lifestyle, and work ethics. I realize I might not be in my direct field of work, but I know something more mature, and not too stressful will do just fine.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/77	1.299

The problem is young people are calling themselves old at 30. This is the mentality that is driving people to spend more time focused on what your age is over your production, or value to a business. Some older people are a lot more beneficial to a business than someone young that might leave or has a lot of time to move on in life.	Age, Old	Age - General, Age - Over 65s	2/65	3.077
Liberals are always looking for a new evil to point out. Masculinity, Sexism , Colourism.. Now AGEISM ?	Ageism, Sexism	Age - General, Gender - General	2/18	11.111
over 60 years old , 20 years of IT experience, 10 years of Advertising, 10 years experience in Finance...laid off 2 years 6 months, still can't find a job, can't even get hired for level jobs way below my current level...this is the reality of ageismthe reality that age trumps experience. Bring it on. I'm prepared. Are you ? Age is beautiful.	Age	Age - General	1/11	9.091
Another thing. Sexual assault isn't taken as seriously once you're over the age of 18.I understand that there are more legal charges with child rapists as it's another illegal action added, but let's pretend paedophilia isn't illegal. Assault is assault & it affects everyone just as badly no matter the age . So it should be taken as seriously instead of just fanning around. Even other people who aren't police don't take you seriously when you're 18+ because "you might be lying".	Age, Sexual	Age - General, Gender - General	3/82	3.659
You don't have to worry about sexual assault, since you're not attractive enough anyway.	Sexual	Gender - General	1/14	7.143
Thank you for posting this. While underage sexual assault is important, I also believe that sexual assault is just as damaging at any age and should be paid attention to no matter what age ! Please ignore the dude who apparently has nothing better to do than be rude.	Age, Nothing, Sexual	Age - General, Age - Youngsters, Gender - General	4/48	8.333

There are younger people who know the value of age because we have been exposed to it and know that we will be older soon. But? The rest have not been exposed to death and age . They are scared shitless about their future. I think the key to bridging a gap between the old and young requires flexibility and better communication on both sides. Me? I'm doing it from the inside and I'm loud about it. I want this to be a normal way of thinking and doing. I have no problems with hiring young and older people who are flexible and can blend into the work culture. If you want less of this bullshit, put your money and influence into this. I keep hearing older people talk about the youth...the future but they don't talk about the progress of their peers. Your peers are still the future too. They are growing, learning and getting better. We need more immersive programs in adapting to new technology. Keeping up with new skills courses. Scholarships for people over 50 who want to continue their education(when i have more money and influence I will do this. Actual? I will set up a small scholarship asap to get me going). Conferences/organizations that tackle this problem. Lastly, for those younger people who don't care about this? Let me appeal to your selfish side. One day you will be in this same position bitching about ageism and waiting for acceptance. Think of this as planting seeds for self preservation. See to it that you have a seat when that time comes.	Age, Ageism, Old	Age - General, Age - Over 65s	4/265	1.509
Not especially towards old people it's actually the complete opposite. Men and women in their twenties get called "kids" all the time, and are treated unfairly all the time. Ageism isn't directed only towards old people it is for young people as well.	Ageism, Old	Age - General, Age - Over 65s	3/43	6.977
I won't be a victim to these self entitled creeps and their attitudes to older people. I'm opening a business soon and I am only hiring people of my age and I shall be using the same tactics that just about every company in every country currently uses only this time to my advantage.I have suffered ageism for the past 5 years. Now it's my turn.Don't try to understand them as they are selfish narrow minded little shits, so now it's just survival of the fittest the rest is bull shit.Fight fire with fire.	Age, Ageism	Age - General	2/97	2.062
Horacio Blue Bottle Dude? Think smarter, not bitterness dipped in exclusivity. Have blended teams within your "business". Building a business out of revenge is foolish. Change the way of thinking from the inside so that you can prosper better. Only hire like minded people who don't care about ageism .	Ageism	Age - General	1/49	2.041

This is what happens when you raise an entire culture day by day with people who are only born within 12 months of each other and tell them "older people are bad". What should we expect? It's getting so bad these people are growing up thinking "They should be neglected and isolated". We need to reconnect communities with everyone in them instead of just "people their own age " or "people from their own neighborhood" or, "people from their grade".	Age	Age - General	1/79	1.266
First Last Age discrimination is not about age . It's about money. Older workers are supposedly more expensive. They cost more and are therefore too much of a burden.	Age	Age - General	2/28	7.143
Don't tell the Democratic Party establishment. They are determined to stop unbought Bernie Sanders from becoming president because he'll change the corrupt status-quo and their main tactic is to use his age against him. Even though he'll have a young VP like Tulsi Gabbard and Bernie himself has the energy of someone half his age .	Age	Age - General	2/55	3.636
ScootMagoot46 Isn't it ironic the president whether you hate or love him is 70 plus. Hillary Clinton was a grand mother and also 70 plus. Bernie is 70 plus. Biden is more than 65. Obama himself wouldn't fit into any of these so called hip offices since he himself is 50 plus. I remember watching a movie called Logan's Run from the 1970s of a society that killed people over a certain age . Logan himself was a police officer who when he aged out had gone on the run with a woman who also aged out and they escaped into the ruins of the ancient civilization. There they found a man above the age of 60. He was active and smart and wasn't senile. Seems like art is imitating life.	Age, Woman	Age - General, Gender - General	3/130	2.308
Bernie is a Communist and should have been jailed for his propaganda. Not because he's old , but because he is a bad choice for the USA.	Communist, Old	Ideological and Political Identity - General, Age - Over 65s	2/26	7.692
