from my experience, black ppl are some of the nicest ppl you'll ever meet and it so sad that they get treat like crap...but if u reverse the racism toward white...ull see more black coming to the aid of that white person...and faster. the whites in the pub were shying away from confrontation and in all honesty just wanted the situation to go away...they didn't really jump to hlp that black man. This is why I'm proud to be of English descent. British people will always defend one another regardless of race gender and age . Here in America, everyone is prejudice against men, African Americans, and Latinos. Not all black people are bad, not all white people are good, not all Hispanics are illegal, and men are not objects. America sees them as objects while Britain doesn't	African, Age, Black, Gender, Race	Age - General, Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General, Gender - General	5/65	7.692
This was kinda weird at the end. I am American black and I have hope and will never give up. I hold doors for all men women and children and I teach my children to do the same. I was born in the 70's and I am working with that mentality 2019. Each one teach one. I went to Pennsylvania one time, out in the country and I held the door for a white man and his family. He said to me: Where are you from man because people around here don't do that. I said, I always hold the door for people because it is the right thing to do man. He smiled. The problem with this video is that racism is far more subtle. The behaviors in this video are so extreme that the average racist (black or white) would feel compelled to publicly disagree. Real racism is like when my white co-workers complain about Jews 'having everything' and expecting me to agree. Or my black co-workers complaining that the white bosses will never give them a 'real opportunity'. And when the Spanish person that just gave you an unenthusiastic 'good morning' then sees any random Spanish speaking person then all of a sudden they sound like they've won the lottery like 'hola! Como estas! '. Then carries on a 10 minute conversation in Spanish with someone they just met. And they barely talk to you after working together for years. I'm delighted to see that there are really decent human beings out there, I'm native Irish and on Tuesday the 22nd of October 2017 a neighbour racially abused me and two days later, her and her son got on top of me on the living room floor to my home and they butchered my head, face and left hand with shards of glass from a broken fruit bowl and both incidents happened in front of my physically disabled partner and we brought both complaints which included a video recording of the assault to a member of An Garda Siochana (Irish Police Force) and he failed to investigate both complaints, racism is alive an kicking in the republic of Ireland and the authorities in this case played a role in covering it up. Racism is practically avoidable unless you grow up poor. I live in a predominantly white, upper class town in Indiana and I know several black kids at my school who are just like everyone else. No one makes fun of them, they aren't discriminated against or anything. Mind you, this is in a town that's probably at least 80 white and in the middle of corn fields. The more we talk about racism and try to make a big deal out of it, the longer it prospers. Racism isn't the elephant in the room, rather the small crack in the wall. The civil rights moment is over. We're all equal, so let's stop trying to make a fuss over nothing and lets start making real connections with people. Not making these sterile, strange social experiments that solve nothing and only leave people confused. Yes, there's more work to be done when it comes to race relations, but there's bigger fish to fry and things will get better just by staying more open minded and peaceful. Let's just chill out, goddamn.	Black, Nothing, Race, Racism	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	7/180	3.889

We claim racism is being perpetrated on the TV screens. In reality, the news media love to distort every story they can into their narrative. When in reality, racism is frowned upon everywhere you go and is not tolerated. In reality, people don't burn down their neighborhoods and kill cops and other people to retaliate. A majority of the time, you will find people know what they need to do at the end of the day, and that is to love one another. The stuff you see on TV is the 1 of the time. The news media take that and magnify it to seem like it's 99.	Racism	Ethnicity - General	2/108	1.852

On June 17 2013 Dylann Roof walked into a midweek Bible study, he sat and prayed with the church members before pulling out his gun killing most and allowing one to live, after the incident he was found and arrested, peacefully. When Dylann Roof killed nine innocent Black People, we did not questioned his God, he wore flags of apartheid Africa, we did not questioned his allegiance, he committed the crime alone, we did not questioned his people. When Adam Lanza shot a classroom full of first graders at Sandy Hook Elementary, we did not ask him to leave the country. When Timothy McVeigh killed 168 people in Oklahoma, we did not called this a crime against every American. When the KKK killed thousands of Black People while swank to hold Christian morality, we did not asked them to remove their robed, we do not call all Christians bigots. Do you see it? How we don't label all white men based on the sins of the few?Do you see it? How we don't have to condemn a whole class of people based on the actions of the some. Do you see it? How all the names are different, all the faces are different, how all the people are different, therefore we should not condemn all the Muslims for the radicalism of the group. If you want to persecute ISIS go ahead, but to persecute ISIS is to persecute those who gave them power, to persecute those who gave them power is to prosecute the US Government. Do your research, Islam is not synonymous with terror, its literally submission, it is devotion, it is peace and terrorism actually is forbidden and Jihad does not mean Holy war, it means struggle, it means survival, it means standing face-to-face with everything that wants to put you on the ground and choosing to be alive. Do your research, stop listening to CNN, stop sharing humanity for hypocrisy, stop staring at Muslims at the airport, stop letting your fear drive your ignorance, stop supporting Billionaire Republicans who wants to scare you to murder innocents and stop supporting leaders who speak peace in native tongue. Its not the burning down the mosque, burn down the walls around the post muscles in your chest, and realise that we all have one and lastly as a customary greeting goes. smokey Roche bushcraft Racism is the belief that one's race is superior to another. There are very few people that actually think that so I'm sorry but I don't believe you at all. Everyone likes to call people racist and say that they experienced racism but it's just not true. Just because someone is saying hateful things in the moment does not mean that person is a racist . You're just a typical leftard that WANTS people to be racist because you love being a victim. You lefties seem to be playing the victim Olympics and it's just sad and pathetic.	Leftard, Race, Racism, Racist	Ideological and Political Identity - General, Ethnicity - General	7/100	7.0
Brent Waits maybe you believe that you are superior? You threw the first insult at me but yet you are telling me to grow up? Racism is when a person makes a statement that insinuates they believe one race to be superior or inferior to another. Example: making intellectual comparisons or athletic capabilities between races, which happens often. "you lefties" what's that all about? I'm straight down the middle Brent boy.	Race, Racism	Ethnicity - General	2/71	2.817
smokey Roche bushcraft You're doing exactly what I predicted. I know all of your views because of the ideology you subscribe to. Someone can say racist things in the moment without actually being a racist . People will say the worst most offensive things they can think of when they're in an altercation. I don't know anyone that's "straight down the middle" that likes playing a victim or that wants to call everyone a racist . Obviously, you are a leftard . Brandon Ingram >There is only one human species.>Certain ethnicities.According to your logic dogs do not have species and it's only one breed.Racial realism is real. You are trying to decline this but unintentionally proving vice versa. Yes environment has a major impact on "certain ethnicities", in other words they have advantage on their own soil (where they were born and and raised and where their ancestors lived). Also we aren't equal either whether it is genetically, intellectually or phenotypically. Every race has its own pros and cons, and every race has advantage on their own soil. Forcing them to interbreed just worsens everything.	Race	Ethnicity - General	2/106	1.887

Its a good experiment but not a true reflection on UK society . I stood watching the England's first world cup game , some dude was putting on some shit west indian accent whenever Sterling got the ball , i thought to myself what a dickhead , then he started calling him a nigger . Probably ten white people where we were and me , no white person said shit. I started cussing this guy , who started apologising and no-one backed me up. It depends on where you are in the uk , what groups you are surrounded by. The most racist or prejudiced people are those that do not come into contact with those that they are racist or prejudice about. By being around each other people are less racist or prejudice because they realise stereotypes are not real and that all people share far more in common than they have differences. It's no surprise that the white working class stood up for the black guy, because they are more likely to know black guys. People fear the unknown, it's natural, and some people are closed minded. White people hardly stood up for him just gave him lip service. Black guys in barbershop got up and tried physically to get the lad to stay while kicking the racist black guy out, now that's how it's done.	Black, Racist	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	3/39	7.692

Plus the other commenter was right they hardly rallied round and told the white racist he wasn't welcome and bought the black geezer a drink but that could be put down to the fact it's London and a fair few of the patrons are a bit older and being London it's probably a mix of a few older working class locals who've always drank there and some middle class people who've invaded a few years ago, that's what it always seemed like to me if I had a pint in a lot of areas in west or north and middle class Londoners are borderline autistic when it comes to any kind of public interaction in my experience. The barber shop reaction was much better but again that coulda been to do with not wanting to harm the business, but the best comments came from the customers there anyway so yeah I'd say much better reaction. I think for the most part people were probably more confused that someone was voicing prejudices out loud in a place where it's normally just joked or spoken about casually between friends than offended and also both geezers were kicking off it could've been totally unrelated to race and people would've got up and split it up the same. quite funny way to end it though	Black, Race, Racist	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	3/221	1.357

LengPeng mate where are you from where you think the geezer that came out from behind the bar his age is an "employee" that would've been the landlord and he basically said that language isn't welcome in here if you want to do that take it outside. It has nothing to do with colour it's the area and the particular pub. No all the black people in the barbers weren't staff were they what are you basing that on the staff had african accents and were dressed in them african man dresses the rest of them had london accents and said things like he's a human as well etc. It's not a colour thing it's the places they chose to do it in but you obviously have a hard time accepting that blacks come off better in this. It's a silly video really it's a stupid concept that kind of open racism doesn't happen in London I think that's why the pub in particular are a bit bewildered but it's a laugh at the end so just take that	African, Age, Black, Nothing, Racism	Age - General, Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	6/179	3.352

I'm from the UK mate, I know he was a landlord or manager. And the black people who were standing up for him were very clearly staff, not because of their accents, but because of the blatant orange uniforms lol! I agree that it has nothing to do with colour, and everything to do with where they did it. I also completely agree that the guys in the pub were shocked as that kind of open racism is not common in the UK. I have never seen someone act like that in my whole life! "You obviously have a hard time accepting that blacks come off better in this" not really I was just explaining WHY they came better off in this, and you clearly agree.. I was only taking issue with the dipshit saying "whites hardly stood up for him" originally, implying that white people are more likely to condone racism , which simply isn't true in my experience. I'm so fucking proud of Great Britain, I'm so fucking proud of the true hard working 2nd and 3rd generation "immigrants" who fought hard to carve themselves a place, an identity, in our homeland. I have black mates, white mates and a few in between.. Regardless of what agenda the news tries to push, black guys have best white mates, white guys have best black mates.. Shit has moved on so far, blood has been spilled on every level.. Everyone of every colour, religion, (or whatever label you wish to use) has one common enemy.. Terror and terrorists..Terrorism, ie a bomb on a tube, a bus, a train, doesn't give a fuck if your Mrs and kid are black , white, Sikh, Christian or whatever .. They are the only minority we should hate.. The terrorists.. Cowards, hate filled and weak.. It's why they use weapons.. We have all moved on a long way, we need to make sure it's not been a wasted effort.. My problem is the fucking far left, bloody libtard apologists.. Racism wouldn't be an issue if we just dropped the whole conversation. If we just stopped talking about it and dealt with it quickly and severely when it did happen it would go away. I will be a racist for saying this but I will anyway. The main reason racism is an issue is because Black people are using it for a excuse to gain advantages over Whites. This will never stop until Black people accept that they do now have EQUAL rights and that they are not going to get an advantage simply because they are Black . I know I know "thats racist ". No it is not. It is fact. Blacks have equal rights. If a Black person is denied a job it is automatically because of racism . If a White person is denied a job and they claim racism it is laughable. The Black persons qualifications and abilities are never called into question. It is automatically racism . There is all kinds of advantages given to Black people that White people cannot leverage. They have a much easier time with college acceptance and grades. They have Affirmative action. Black people have more than "EQUAL" rights and just need to drop the race baiting bullshit. And so far given the stunning ignorance and foolishness of people in general it has been childs play to manipulate people into these destructive life altering false principals that people instictively know are false which is why they must be instituted by force upon the people against their democratic will to choose. This will inevitably lead to bloodshed but this too serves our enemies interests. But the fools never see this and wont until its too late because of their self richeous sactimonious arrogant attitude they have been carefully cultivated to assume so they can believe themselves smuggly morally superior to those that reject these false principals of morality. joe mama its based on the fact that white people oppressed black people and brown people for centuries through colonialism and politics. It's been an inbuilt problem in society caused by white man, granted their ancestors but modern day society is built upon that legacy and there's no real attempt to acknowledge the past and change that legacy. I'm not condoning racism but it just looks worse on white people because they started any racial conflict whereas with other races it's more of a retaliation. You no the thing to me about black people and the reparations and the mind set to have color shame. I grew up in a black neighborhood and around them. My take on the whole thing is blacks have been punishing whites in america for nearly a century. They live on the system, create violence, and just make America worse. The United States bringing blacks over in slavery was the worst thing ever. Now we have violence, unemployment, and have to listen to ignorance. I am not speaking about racism I'm speaking facts. Look at the Africa nations where the country is ran by blacks they kill each other in genocides, and there country is a fourth world country. You look at prodominetly black neighborhoods in America and you kill violence black on black violence poverty and a horrible community. Anytime there is a white community the violence is next to none, the education level is high and the property values are high. Then black people move into the neighborhood and the price of real estate plummet. Its no a coincidence. Its sad black people one day need to stop think every race white,Latino,Asian, and so on want to avoid living in a black neighborhood they continue to move away from the city and branch out into white communities. The schools are another example white schools education level very high,violence very low,and a group togetherness very high. Black schools education low,violence high, and violence against one another very high. I personally don't no why its like this but I would love to see a change one way or another. And for the black activists spewing stuff saying they are still owed for there great great great grandparents. Do some research you will find slaves owners were obviously deep south and there were less than 00.1percent of the south. Many white families come from immigrants who at the time of slavery were not in this country. Me for example both grandparents came from Germany so I do not have any family that were in the United States during slavery. And that's goes for the majority of Americans. You also have northern people who died in the civil war to help free the slaves. But the only thing black people say is they want reperation. I have one thing the United States can offer. If a black person traces there family tree and there family were slaves they should be offered a, plane ticket to Africa and the US can work out where they would get instant citizenship . they would get a plane ticket,citizenship, and a small amount of money as a start up.once that person leaves there citizenship to the United States becomes null in void. I like my plan. I am not racist I looked up the statistics before I wrote this its literally the facts.	Black, Race, Racism, Racist	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	15/477	3.145

night on the tiles here you go numbskull, etymology of "slave"From Middle English, from Old French sclave, from Medieval Latin sclāvus ('slave'), from Late LatinSclāvus ('Slav'), because Slavs were often forced into slavery in the Middle Ages,[2][3][4][1] from Byzantine Greek (sklábos), from Old Church Slavonic (sloveninŭ), possibly from (slovo, 'word'), from Proto-Indo-European *kléwos ('fame'), from the root *klew- ('to hear'), from *kel- ('to incline').Clearly it's you who needs to educate themselves but this is the sort of ignorance and arrogance you'll encounter when you discuss race relations with most whites. FOR THOSE WHITE PEOPLE WHO DON'T BELIEVE RACISM, RACIAL PREJUDICE, WHITE PRIVILEGE & HATRED AGAINST BLACKS & NON-WHITES DOES NOT EXIST... Please try this simple experiment... Dye your hair black, wear brown or black or dark contact lenses on your eyes, wear lots of brown or dark tanning cream over your entire body including your face... then go and walk around a 'majority white' neighbourhood or shopping centre or mall - and see how white people - white strangers - treat you in general. Find out exactly how white people talk to you, interact with you, and treat you - imagining that you are actually non-white, or not Caucasian. (Even if you have a pointy nose, with dark skin and black hair, you might look like an Asian-Indian, but that is close enough to looking 'black') Please try this and see how most white people treat you. Perhaps talk with an African, Jamaican, or Black-American accent to make your disguise even more convincing... and find out what dark skinned non-white people actually experience almost EVERY DAY when they interact with white people, white strangers (those who are not Caucasian)... You may be very surprised !!!! Maintain good behaviour, avoid being rude or aggressive, avoid trying to start a fight, avoid irritating or insulting other white people... just be your normal polite self... Find out how most white people will treat you (while appearing to be non-white)... even though you had done nothing wrong... PLEASE try to run this kind of social experiment, and post your honest results on YouTube!! Document all the results with hidden cameras, or voice recordings...	African, Black, Nothing, Racism	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	6/270	2.222

You reap what you sow... Because whites have treated blacks so poorly and so badly, that is why they behave the way they do towards whites... their anger and contempt towards whites is just a mirror reflection of how your kind have treated their kind! Had previous generations of whites treated non-whites with more fairness and equality (allowing blacks the same respect and privileges in society that other whites enjoy, like being able to drink from the same water fountain, or sit at the front of the bus, or attend a top University, or become part of the leadership of a company, etc.)... treating blacks and non-whites like human beings... then they would likewise be kind and polite towards you! Watch this... and explain WHY whites b0mbed black towns that were doing well... in the 1930's... [LINK] also, ask yourself... "What countries have been engaging in unnecessary wars and doing most of the invading and occupation of middle-east countries since the 1980's ?" Are the aggressors mostly blacks, asians, or arabs? With dark skin (brown tanning lotion), brown contact lenses, and black hair (dyed black), even a white man can look like an 'Asian Indian', or a white woman can look like an 'Asian Indian' (also, speak with a convincing 'Indian' or 'Pakistani' accent...) and see how you are treated... Seriously, you will never know nor fully appreciate how white people treat non-whites, until you actually EXPERIENCE how non-whites are treated, where you are believed to be non-white - or until you are actually 'in their shoes' or imagined by whites to be 'one of them'... Don't be scared to find out what really goes on! Try it... document your encounters with hidden cameras and microphones, and count up, or record the percentage of whites who treat you badly, refuse to serve you, or openly insult you without any good reason, even though you had done nothing wrong. DON'T BE AFRAID OF THE RESULTS... COME TO AUSTRALIA AND SEE HOW THE WHITES TREAT YOU!! e.g. Get on a train, late at night, and see how you are treated! Try to apply for jobs, and compete with other whites who have the same qualifications! Work beside white people and see how they treat you, if they believe you are not white! Honestly I think we would all be better off if we would just give each other the benefit of the doubt. We are so quick to call each other out for being racist or sexist. So quick to put down movements (like feminism) and instead of looking at where it originated or the context behind the comment, we go into attack mode. The truth is most of these comments that are being called " racist " did not come from a place of hate. Sure the message was poorly conveyed, but that's why we should look to educate people rather than attacking them. Most people who say dumb shit aren't trying to offend, they are just coming from a place of ignorance. So teach them. And if someone is letting you know you were wrong, learn from it and grow. Racism still exists in the uk, last week for instance my elderly mother was pushed and had food thrown at her as she tried to go to her local shop with the attack shouting that she was not welcome and to go back to her own country. I have experienced racism in pubs where I have been totally ignored by the bar staff despite the bar being near empty. Followed around by store detectives in shopping malls. when I was a teenager being stopped and searched 9 times in the space of 2 hours by the police on the way home. if I was with my white friends and we got stopped ether walking or diving by the police they would not get asked to empty there pockets. I think the points you have raised are some very interesting ones Orin, I'm not going to say you are necessarily right, neither am I going to say you are necessarily wrong, however, the things you have said are certainly food for thought, because often, things that might seem like a "good thing" on the surface, once you begin to chip away, they are not the good thing they seemed to be, I have no doubt that Trollstation had good intentions with this, as well as the fact that they are entertainers at the end of the day, I get all of that but I certainly do question some of the things they do in the name of "social experiments" and "entertainment" etc, of course, they are a very controversial entertainment group, it's part of their appeal I guess, so I fear we have to expect crazy stuff from them that sometimes won't have had any deep thought put into it, many thanks. John Cashin you make a very good point!! I didn't think about that as I saw the video as something positive in the end but by keep pointing out 'white vs blacks' everywhere - no matter the agenda of the video/article - positive or negative - it is still perpetuating the segregation! And Im a firm believer that this is the wrong way to go! I wouldn't want to be segregated From other colours of people or cultures or races etc... I live in a predominantly Asian (Indian , Pakistani etc) neighbourhood and I'm white! I moved here because I mainly love the food of this culture/race (or whatever term you would like to use) of people and the activity on the streets - shops open later - families socialising out later in restaurants due to cultural background etc. I would be bored out of my mind in an all white neighbourhood - couldn't think of anything worse! and I can't actually think of an all white neighbourhood where I live :) thank goodness!!! There is still social segregation when it comes to African American people but that isn't really a big hard to solve problem. In-fact African Americans segregate themselves in most social environment. Do you know the word " nigga "? its very common in African American culture and they say only Black people can say it. +Shane Keelinghamm No problem - truth be told I love black people, and I greatly respect & admire their culture, so no hard feelings.Hell my ex was mostly African American, but also: Native American, German, and Spanish. Talk about a beautiful mix. I got along well with her family, and she got along well with mine.We seemed to get the most hate from the older generations, and (surprisingly for me, but not her) many younger African American men also showed their distaste for our relationship.It just bothers me so deeply when I see people seek to destroy any positive light shone towards Caucasian people because of their own unfortunate experiences.This is the culture that raised me to love everyone equally regardless of their skin color - has it had its hiccups in the past? Yes, but so has every race , and demonizing us isn't the answer, as we know that there's good in our culture just as there is bad.We've all experienced it, even if you (the reader; not you personally Shane) refuse to call it racism , then it's still heavy prejudice, and that's still very wrong.To quote the movie Contact in regard to Humanity:"You're an interesting species. An interesting mix. You're capable of such beautiful dreams, and such horrible nightmares. You feel so lost, so cut off, so alone, only you're not. See, in all our searching, the only thing we've found that makes the emptiness bearable, is each other."	African, Black, Race, Racism	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	5/248	2.016

Freaky Facts what a nice read. Great points too. From what I've seen people who react to racism generally seek it. I had a black friend (I've had tons but this one was different) who I hung out with a lot during my senior year of high school. I never treated him with disrespect. One day he started talking about these fights he got into (he was 6'5 and played highschool basketball and wanted to make a career out of it) he kept telling me all these incidents of people being racist towards him and he made me believe people were really just racist . He seemed proud of it but I thought it was because he was standing up for himself cause that's how he told it. But one time I was on the phone while driving. Some guy cut me off on the freeway and me being a senior who thought that was some high status (idk why I thought that) I said pretty silently "this nigga " which triggered my friend. He stopped what he was doing and drove 40 min to my house to kick my ass. (I convinced him not too by acting stupid) Well let's just say I stopped talking to him. I found out he was very racist and he was most likely the one picking all those fights he talked about. Blacks are so ashamed of being black and being hated worldwide that every black person is "part indian " now. It's total BS but yes, go ahead and tell me that also. There was a time say, back in the 1950's when whites were about 20 racist . I was glad to see racism in all cultures disappearing until about 2008 when Obama was given the Affirmative Action position of president. The entire country help their breath in anxiety as everyone knew Obama was only chosen because of his skin pigment. As was feared, he pushed the gimmine gimme race card and America became more divided then ever and now everyone is owed something by the taxpayer of today. Obama, like all socialists, wants people to be in that state of mind because it makes them much more dependent on the government, and it creates a much stronger position for the government. The confederate flag was dying out, the dumb ass KKK was weakening, and the racists like The Nation of Islam, The New Black Panthers, and BLM (although wasn't truly created until later), were on the membership outs. Obama revived and enriched racism and now, nearly every white person is much more racially conscious than ever, and most blacks are full-blown racists. It is sickening. I hate when some asian woman want to date only white men. Yeah, it's just that the media will put a racist person all over it. And that will some how reflect an entire race . I think 95 percent of people are not racist . That's between all races too. There's about 300 million people living in America. That means we got about 15 million racists out of 300 million. 15 million is a big number. Some are bound to do dumb things but it doesn't reflect an entire race of people. I don't think people are racist like you think. Its quite common amongst the English. They always say that they lost their job to another race or europeans. One time I overheard an English white guy saying that polish people are taking his job. He doesnt even have any qualifications, got kicked out of school and he's on benefits. Surely, if he had tge proper skills and qualifications he will be the first to get the job because he's fluent in English. But people like this need to realise it does not come down to race or ethnicity , if you dont have the proper qualifications, experience or motivation, don't expect to get a job anyway. MLK had to flee for his life from a "protest" he led because it turned into a riot. But the biggest riot in American history was done by 3rd class citizens who almost all were descendants of white slaves(or as you probably know, indentured servants) because they felt ousted cause nobody cared they were in ghettos or taking the jobs with the highest mortality rates. Racism today talks about the illusion of white privilege which cant be defined properly due to it's non-existence. Black privilege is prominent however, since black people are a minority but they get more assistance than all white people. The black panthers can open carry in a manner to cause terror to the people since they are holding the guns like African soldiers but Oath Keepers was harassed for doing the same to protect themselves and others at a Black Lives Matter riot. There are major problems that are not exclusive to any one color. What happened to us all being Americans who wanted to be happy and not just survive, but thrive? The only difference you could perhaps draw upon is that this particular group of black people were slightly more vocal in their defence of the victim than that particular group of white people - but you could just as well put this down to the fact that they were mostly all staff at the barber shop and therefore knew each other, as opposed to strangers in a bar. Just an interesting point to add to this thread, regarding slavery, black slavery in america and europe is the only slavery people ever seem to bang on about... the fact is slavery has existed for thousands and thousands of years literally between ALL races and the funniest thing about all the hype, is that we SOLD our own races to each other, whites used to tie up whites and ship them over to blacks and blacks used to tie up blacks and ship them over to whites. :-)	Black	Ethnicity - Black	1/88	1.136
+StankyFace you are kinda right but you got the general gist. Every race has suffered slavery. 3rd class people in the colonies and early US were slaves including white people. This consisted of the Irish, Dutch, Germans, Greeks, Italians, ect. The only difference is, we later called them indentured servants because the government feeds off of civil unrest. It's like a smoke grenade to hide what they want to do next. They save civil unrest for the major things because everyone is too pissed off at each other to think about why they feel this way. All I would say is if anybody feels restricted by the colour of their skin in the year 2016, then maybe they need to approach what they were born with, with a different attitude, maybe a victimless attitude, because life is what you make it and if you think like a victim, you'll act like a victim without even knowing it and people will notice and respect you less for it and as a result you'll become a victim because people only like forward thinking people. Detach yourself from the past of which you are no longer a part, embrace the present, live for today, work for tomorrow. In 2016 blacks shouldn't feel pissed off about their past, whites shouldn't feel guilty about it either, get a life and LIVE because the past changes nothing in that you can achieve almost anything if you put your mind to it. Adam Al-Sharif - Hey man, I wouldn't hate you cause your a Muslim and I'm white, neither would many of my friends, guess its where I've grown up though. It must be said though, Muslim isn't a race , it's a belief system of which you have chosen to believe in or more commonly raised to "choose". I will always respect you though, so long as you respect everybody who doesn't believe and their right to challenge the things you regard to be truth. For example if somebody were to say to you "If the things Muslims believed could be proven as indisputable facts, pretty sure we'd all be Muslim right now and youtube wouldn't exist, let alone the internet." it would be an accepted challenge, rather than a reason to pull out the race card right? Australia is the most laid back racist people in the world. They smile at you and be friendly to you but when the time comes their actual feelings come out. I bet at least 60 of the non white Australians living in Australia has so what been confronted by a white Australian that says to them "go back to where you came from" first it was the aisiains, then comes the Indians, now the Arabs, the European get their share of racism to but since they are white also they are not targeted as much until they start talking and you can hear the accent. Lol funny how that works. Now there are African people coming in and they too now get their share of racism . A story once in news a group of African students was in a excursion in the city and they visited the Apple Store and they got kicked out for being there because they were a group of black kids. Nikita You know what? You are totally entitled to your opinion. But I find just as much racism in other ethnicities as I do whites. IT'S A HATE PROBLEM, NOT A COLOR PROBLEM. People hate that which they fear, they fear that which they don't understand, and they don't understand that which is different from them. And blacks, Asians, Koreans, Saudi Arabians, Indians, Pakistani, Africans, Europeans, Italians, Southern Americans, Eskimos, EVERYBODY - is guilty of this. Do NOT go trying to point blame. Remember that when you do, just how many fingers are pointed back at you. You don't want to SOLVE the problem, you are PROPAGATING it. YOU behave with a divisive mindset, an "us" vs. "them" mindset, and you'll have this division in people. I personally can't stand people being racist and being unable to see past color - ALL color. "Multiculturalism" is a politically correct term for people who are too afraid to call the problem what it is: HATE. FEAR. DIVISION. Don't even GO there. So the next time you want to blame all white people for your problems, or say they're the only ones racist , make sure you look at the whole picture. u race baiting wanker. here in america we have racism but its blacks that hates the whites. seriously. for every white attacking a black theres 100 attacks by blacks attacking whites. our media has some sort of strange satanic agenda. our polititions are even worse. the biggest myth in the USA is black victimization.blacks attacking whites is off the charts. blacks dont discriminate when it comes to violence. the kill and beat everykind of whites. old ,young, homeless, wealthy, females , police, store cerks, priest , students ect ect. vicious people that victimize other blacks worse then the slave masters ever did. its insane and partly due to videos like this one. yes im calling u out for the ignorant propagandayou commit in your pea size brain. only the stupid will see your video as something educational. yes its true. also this.... cops body cameras are the american black mans worse nightmare thats gonna end up exposing the truth. u see, thats how out of touch our media, polititions white libs and blacks are. they acually dont realize police cams will figure much better for the law enforcers narrative. i cant wait for there explanation even thou i already know their explanation.... ITS THE F$!ING WHITE MANS FAULT because thats always their explanation. they lie as much as our polititions and perhaps why they love each other so much, common ground. You obviously don't care to learn more about natutal selection and artificial selection.The only thing to blame here is man made religions. It is truly shameful so many people tag so called racism to individual bias and pronounce universal discrimination. It is through scientific evidence and studies such claims are generally due to insecurities of the individual or group claiming such inequalities. Today's technology has no room for racism nor claims of the same. It is a waste of resources to entertain alleged entitlements. Grow up, get a job, and live in the present. "He who dwells in the past lives an eternal unbliss." Quoted by me 33 years ago as a high school student and from a bi-racial family in a multi-racial environment. Claims of racism is a crutch used by those who fail in the process of contributing to society and choose to live off of society. They choose to wear a cloak of deception and lies tailored by ancestral antiquity they just can't let go of. Woe is me because of what happened to people before me I cannot even identify with now, but I'll claim it because it gives me benefits without doing work. Leila Zarmie why are you still crying about slavery though? I could understand it was a horrible thing for people to do but it was 150 years ago. get over it, how can you treat white people with such disrespect like if they were the ones that had slaves? white people now had nothing to do with that. also why is it that you aren't grateful about the Civil Rights Act of 1964? you know a group of white men pushed that act to be passed right? it ended racial segregation. you wouldn't be alive without them doing that or if you were born you'd either be white (which is the race you hate remember that) or black and the black people were treated like shit, the white people back than gave you a reason to hate them. you'll be living in a fucked up home, worse than how Mexicans live today yet you still bitch because white people put black people in chains 150 years ago grow up and move on. Leila Zarmie alright I could see why you have such hate for white people I would be mad too if my father spoke like that to my mother but not all white people are like that.. yes the white people you described are racist but you calling me racist names, or you hating white people, you're acting just like the white people you described.. you're basically falling into a "white man's" path even though you say Mexicans are. You say whites have a history of violence but actually all races have a history of violence.. that's just humans as a whole. your dad calls your mom racist names yet there's videos of any race calling another race by racist remarks, it's not just white people. I'm not standing for whites nor blacks, not even Mexicans because they're Mexicans out there that are racist and I don't fuck with them. White people you describe are racist and you are too, that's what you have in common with them, you're acting like them. stop dividing racist people into an entire race . divide people that are racist and not racist and you'll see how kind white people or any other race could be. maybe in your area white people are rude to blacks but don't think all white people are like that. I have white friends, I have black friends, and of course Mexican friends and no one is racist to each other. stop thinking of races with racism and start thinking of racist and non racist people. because how you think is exactly how a racist person thinks and it's sad. I don't hate whites, blacks, or Mexicans, I don't care about the color, it's about how they feel with another race , if they hate them and spit on any other race besides there own makes them really pathetic and that's why I hate racism , you can't try to defend your own race when even some black people out there would treat you like shit, anybody would because it's not about race , it's about who they are as a person. I can not say am not a racist . I believe, the cultures are not to be mixed, there should not be such a thing that happens in Europe now – Islam takes over and does it in a very aggressive and bold way. I am not against races. I am standing for purity of the culture. For such a thing as a dominant culture. Germans have to be a dominant culture in Germany, not islamic refugees, Islam takes rapidly over France and Great Britain. That I find really not good. But races? Nah. So please tell me, help me find happiness... tell me: What fhe fuck are those white privileges you are talking about?!!!"White people can see Aliens, Bigfoot, the loch ness Monster, and Ghosts, but can't see racism , oppression or white privilege." - yet black peoples are not better either. Black, Racism	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	4/129	3.101
oluwafemi Odukoya More than half of those are the: "rich white privileges" . Better schools cost money, lots of them, so does health... and those good paying jobs depend on the education, which like I said cost. i don't understand the Goverment argument trough. the police, yeah I know, there is some well known racism there... trough, the situation regarding this is more complex.Basically, even if trough absurd those privileges exist, most of the (white) peoples won't be able to enjoy them as they are expensive... so doesn't that make them irrelevant?And they are discutable anyway. I mean: "access to better jobs" - last time when I checked, black peoples had graduation rate of under 50... doesn't that explain a little the thing with the job access?	Black, Racism	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	2/129	1.55

oluwafemi OdukoyaBecause he's judging a whole race of billions of people. That in itself is illogical and irrational.	Race	Ethnicity - General	1/19	5.263
oluwafemi Odukoya You have strict families if you are from immigrant families... with few exceptions, of some patriachal christian families that can have the same set of values. But look at US. Most of black peoples live in suburbs... they would rather make a child for welfare, or work in a fastfood than bothering to finish school... there is also a category that goes towards crime, or follow dreams like: basket, rap career, etc. whitout having a plan B in case they fail (which happens most of the time)... The thing with 50 graduation rate is not my personal judgement like Homo said, is the official statistics.	Black, Immigrant	Ethnicity - Black, Nationality - General	2/107	1.869
Y0utubeIsFuckingHomo There is a huge difference between "true stereotypes" and "racist stereotypes". Most of the ones you presented are simply racist stereotypes, oppinions that non-white from non-white regions have about the "tyranical and deadly white person" and they are simply ridiculous: pedofilia for example is in West is ilegal, yet in many of those cultures of non-whites, child marriage is a comon thing - so we talk about hyposcrrsy. On the other hand, I can understand where the racist one comes from, looking at our not so far away history. The thing is, that you can't can't really put sterotypes on whites, like you put them and Afro-Americans or Mexicans... I mean a Afro-American from Washington, and a AA from Los Angeles or Texas is pretty much the same thing, they are similar... while when it comes too white peoples Americans and Europeans are quite different from each other... And in Europe, there is variety too. So the steretypes unsually need to have a direct target: the way in which the American and Frech see the world is different, even trough they are both white. A good white sterotype? Well, regarding White Americans: Shitty Tourist's. While there are decent american tourists, there are some relly bad ones that made americans notorious in Europe. Another one can be regarding the rampant obesity. Other example: Germans - hard working; obviously there are lazy peoples in Germany too, but is comonly accepted, that Germans are extremly hard working peoples... is true, but is a stereotype. On the other hand we have Greeks, which are well know as: extremly lazy peoples. Again, is a stereotype, and there are hard working Greeks, but is also true that many of them are extremly lazy and ignorant, that why they are in their actual situation.	Racist	Ethnicity - General	2/298	0.671

That's why black athletes dominate sprints and most jumping sports, whilst higher muscle mass and bone density is not advantageous in say swimming, where they don't perform as well. I'm prepared to accept your assertions without personally familiarising myself with the documentation... because I'm not doing a Phd here and because it sounds like you've done your homework. ("If you're lucky enough to be Irish, you're lucky enough.") Many black Americans have a lot of, let's say, 'anglo', blood in them. If 'blackness' was the key ingredient, wouldn't Africans be the best jumpers and sprinters? At the last world track and field champs... and admittedly, I'm going on memory here, 15 of the final 16 competitors were white. It wasn't just one freak occurrence. Good is only to dedicate to GOD=Jesus yourselves.Aryans had lived to far east Asia. Mongol and Manjuria, Uygur, China, Korean peninsula from bronze age . But there are no pure Aryans. Because their blood mixed with northern Asians. But northern Asians are the descendants of the southern Asians as a result of DNA researches. And southern Asians had come from east Africans.So our northern Asians can't boast ourselves. but you too.Europeans were sex slaves for Mongolians for about 2 thousands years according to China and Mongol historic writings and ancient paintings.Once Aryan fighters had attacked east asian people up to centrel china and centrel Mongol deeply, soon China and Mongolia defeated them and made Aryans as their sex slaves. Because they seemed Aryans beautiful. So Mongolians have hunt Aryans for making their wives after meeting Aryans for thousands years.This pattern had been repeating since Yin dynasty of China in ancient history books. I read the same pattern contents repeatedly so boarded many times. Because this pattern appeared many times in east history.Scythians had been the strongest fighters in the west. But they became weak people and nations in the east which had dedicated women and gold, silver to Mongolians after losing the many wars with Mongolia and China. Northern east asians called Scythians as Sogdians and had been often taken their women and havings.After them Persian then Horasm then Aryan islam nations had dedicated instead of Scythians to Northern east asian nomads.Especially when Russia was reigned under Mongolia for hundreds. Including TaTar, many Mongol tribes have changed into European's appearance different from the ancient historic writings of Greek and Rome, China. They originally were rounded faces and have very low and wide noses and very sharp and small eyes, short limbs according to Rome and China writings. You can confirm above history from Russia history.If you see the stone cave murals and Orhon stone writings bar in the middle east which Turkeys are worshiping, You will know that Turkeys originally were not Europeans blooded but pure Asians. They are the result of blood mixing above.As a result, even Hittler of German worshiped Northern east asian nomad knights.Do not boast your bodies. +rawrrockiegurl I'm a Black American so I think I'm justified in my opinion to say you have no idea what you are talking about. Most people in general are not racist but are only subject to their environment. The only people who are interpersonally racist are those who were taught since birth to discriminate, and those are usually very small percentages of people who come from places where the opportunity of education is not there. Institutional racism is a problem in our country that needs to be solved, but there are no specific white individuals orchestrating the issue. It's only an issue because of our countries history. You may not be racist towards white people, but you should be ashamed of yourself b/c you are discriminating based on culture now. Americans are all about progression and solving this problem, though some may act in counterproductive ways. I don't think you need your ass beat even though you're promoting the same kind of hate, you've just never been told any different. You're just another product of your environment just like anyone else.But where I come from you are disgraceful, and would have to get that ass beat because the niggas here are problem solvers, unlike you. I know it isn't all blacks but I get told I'm different there because "I sound white" . "I don't listen to rap." "I act white" "I don't care about black American celebs" . So obviously if your black and you like things that isn't typical with blacks over there you are considered white and different. If I'm being called white because I act like a normal, nice, hard working person then obviously most blacks over there must not act proper.	Black	Ethnicity - Black	2/102	1.961
The sociopath thug/gangster culture that is glorified in the US is what continues to ruin the african american community. Europe does not have that. You cannot be light skinned and walk into some areas of NYC witout the possibility of facing problems, you cannot be fair skinned and walk into a barbershop in south east jamaica queens ny with your girlfriend in hand without having men giving some problems or plotting on you. I know this because i live here.	African	Ethnicity - Black	1/80	1.25
+Louyien Miyamoto this "sociopath thug/gangster culture that is glorified in the US," as you call it is appropriation of Hip-Hop/ Black Culture, which started because of the monopolizing tendencies of business to put stakes in whatever is most attention grabbing. And America has this love-hate relationship with Black people. I understand this "culture" you speak of, but it is not represented the way speak of it. To me it's Black culture in black -face. And in my opinion, it hurts all communities. I've seen youth of every race try to act like they should be on TV or need to drop an album asap because they have no positive role models in media, they can't think of an other type of person to look up besides celebrities. and I don't think "sociopath" is the right word to use. I've never seen such antisocial behaviors glorified anywhere, no wants to act like a damn serial killer or something. And where you live is another example of where interpersonal racism is active b/c of the lack of liberal thinkers and traditions of older generations passing on there misconstrued ideals of social relationships of those who are different. It's just tight-nit when it comes to culture.	Black, Race, Racism	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	4/201	1.99

Pandemonium Doom it seems you and the other guy don't know what sociopath means. Sociopaths are people with antisocial personality disorder, they don't care about anything, they don't show a conscious moral decisions. Serial killers, serial rapists, school shooters, those are sociopaths.They don't justify their actions because they don't give a fuck. People who live crime as a lifestyle and or career usually feel they don't have a choice, opportunity in anything else, or that they'll never succeed at anything else. I've lived my whole life around some people who are the latter, so who are you to judge because you don't understand someone else's mental frame? You don't think they take responsibility for their actions? Do you think someone who sits in prison for the rest of their life, or at least a portion of it doesn't think they made a mistake, while the people who love them and the people they love struggle to cope with their problems on the outside where they can't help? It seems all of the people who've disagreed with me have trouble understanding that they don't understand, and won't, but still continue to think they're the only ones with the right answer.	Mental	Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	1/199	0.503

But they replaced earlier words, racialism (1871) and racialist (1917), both often used early 20c. in a British or South African context. I dont think we ever get passed racism 100, but I think its positive to see people reacting with condemnation towards bullying or harassment. Me, myself, I experienced bullying countless times when I was young, I think its stupid no matter what. I dont think Britain is as racist as they say it is(Im not from there), atleast London is very multi-ethnic. Some people over-estimates racism , imo, but no doubt racism is still a problem in some places. Not all cultures, for instance, is, imo, equal, but I dont think one should deprive people of their humanity for having a different skin colour or different roots. RmaxGenactivePUA Mgtow That’s incorrect. Nobody can claim an entire country for themselves. BUT WAIT! theres more! Lmaoo black ppl dont "choose thug cultrue" That is simpilu what holloywood refelects of us. In reality, its about a 50/50 spread if your talking about how many blacks are in poverty. But if ur talking about who lives in poor areas its more like 70 percent black . And athletes from poor areas tend to put in the most effort into sports becuase in many cases that is the only way out of that area, with no parental guidance or influence because the family structre is broken. This is not just a black issue but in poor families in general this seems to be the case. Its just that the media displays the "hood life" becuase thats how they refelect on us, and most good porfessional sports players are black because of what i just said. Who do kids look up to? I'd say this is all fairly predictable. These days, unless the establishment is owned and populated by the NF, any random group of white people would react as they did in the pub. The simple truth is that there are some white people who have an issue with skin colour, and the same goes for some black people.Years ago, we moved into an area of east London. I was warned by an elderly white resident that, for whites, it wasn't safe to go outside in the evening. The first evening I went to the corner shop a gang of black guys followed us in and threatened us for being in their area. On another occasion, I was beaten almost to death by a mixed asian- black gang for being white in the wrong place. Some time ago, a black guy actually suggested I deserved it because they must have sensed my inherent racism ! No, I was jumped as I quietly made my way home from work. They didn't know anything about me, other than I was white. " Racism " cuts both ways. I had several more enlightened black friends when I lived there but there are still some blacks and some whites stupid enough to focus on skin colour.The word " racist " is often misused though. These days, it is persistently used against people who dare question our insane immigration policy and the consequent burden on UK services.
