North Korea would be wiped clean by any of the US, Russia, China's or Indian militaries, probably most individual NATO member militaries as well. Their tech is many years behind China which is many years behind the US. Also I think that conquering a country is limited to conquering their government meaning Australia would be conquered, random guerrilla dudes in the desert aren't that big of a deal if the major economic centers are controlled. Conquering a people is completely different which is what I think you meant when this video was made.	Indian	Ethnicity - Native-American	1/93	1.075

loool ARMY lol. Seems like half their testing don't make it a mile into the air so they'd probably nuke themselves. Even then I don't think there's anyway it makes it to the west coast. Even if they did you can get warnings in Hawaii and probably even Alaska as I'm sure as many telescopes there there has to be one to see missiles. Or even the large military bases in SoCal so not worried, and I assume you mean North Korea. Who we constantly fly b-1 and b-2 bombers over and they do nothing about. when you have the military might of the u.s and Europe at your back even Somalia or Rwanda will win many wars . thats nothing special .	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/27	3.704
yes because of the trillions of dollars from the u.s and europe like i said thats nothing special had the Palestinians had at least half of that kind of support they wouldn't be in the misery they are in right now.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/41	2.439

But Chinese and Indian scientist WORK against those problems, and in fact population of China is decreasing in urban educated areas. Education->fewer kids->education is costly->educated kids have fewer children. Technology. In fact South Korea was a 3rd wourld country decades ago, and now? If my Hyuandai screen shows it right...not anymore. In 50's Korea was quite illiteraterate, and now highest literacy rate in world.	Indian	Ethnicity - Native-American	1/64	1.562
Alltime10s please do your research properly first before you make a video. Japan tried to invade Australia and they didn't abandon it for those reasons. The 39th battalion and many other battalions fought for our country all along the Kokoda track in Papua New Guinea for years. Even a lot of the local people helped us fight and helped the injured soldiers. The Japanese never gave up until they got pushed back by our amazing and persistent soldiers to the coast of PNG. They bombed our northern towns for years. They really wanted Australia for their own. They didn't give up until we pushed them so far back that they had to. Please don't take credit from our forces that worked hard, got injured, came out with PTSD and died for our country. Please take more time to research before you post a video. You got one thing right though. Yes, Australia would be a tough country to invade. Because we work hard for what we want. And we love our country so we wouldn't let anything happen to our home. There is only one Country on this list - U.S.A. Surrounded on the East and West are two of the largest Oceans in the World As the crow flies, the distance between our start and finish points is 2530 miles and 1550 Miles at the futherest point If the invasion by land on the West coast The nearly 1,550-mile-long (2,500 km) highway's "northern" terminus. The different and various terrain to deal with at any point of the year would be a feature in and of itself...! Given all of our Military bases located on the West Coast is staggering!! Then of course they would have to deal with our Navy and our Airforce, ie., Airforce, Navy and Marines. Oops forgot the Coast Guard too. Still to come is Boots on the Ground!! Just on one Coast it would be a SLAUGHTER for our side....!! Bottom line NO COUNTRY in the World could take us on in any kind of Invasion whatsoever! It's really a moot question!!! Maybe if we had another World War and the whole world were against us, then they have a chance! However, the cost of lives alone would not be acceptable!! Think of that number?! U.S.A impossible to invade? If you believe the mainstream "story" regarding 9/11 , 19 men armed with box cutters directed by a man on dialysis , living in a cave fortress in Afghanistan , using a satellite phone with a laptop conducted the most sophisticated attack on american soil in history , overpowering the passengers and military combat trained pilots before flying these planes wildly off course for over an hour without being molestered by a single fighter interceptor. These 19 men . devout religious fundamentalists who like to drink alcohol , snort cocain and live with pink haired strippers managed to knock down 3 buildings with 2 planes in New York and so on. Whilst technically not a full scale invasion it is still classified as the single greatest attack on American soil in history.	alcohol	Behavioural Addiction - Alcohol	1/136	0.735

Also did you forget to relies that we have the largest Armed population on this planet? Even if you took out The united states military completely from this scenario. The civilian populations Has more then enough Guns, and ammo to combat any foreign Nation that tried to invade. Not only do you have to contend with that but also the geography of where the United states is Placed. Any country that tried to Invade would have to have complete access to the waters Near the shores of the USA for Supplies such as ammo, food, ect. Which we could easily blockade the coasts considering we have the LARGEST FUCKING NAVY ON THE PLANET by such a wide margin that its laughable. You would need the combined forces of the next 9 Powers on the planet to even compete Against us Militarily. If we pulled back all troop, equipment, planes, and boats and just stayed on the mainland Unless Nukes were used it would be Almost impossible. Or better yet it would take so long that it would bankrupt all the countries Before they even got to Colorado. true, we have many friends, but only safe is safe. and let me guess.. we as a nation are more than safe :) in ww1 (with a population of 3.7 million) switzerland had 1 million soldiers in active service. thats 1/4 of the population basicly, not counting the stay behind organisations and production of war material and so on. in ww2 it was almost the same, but the number is a bit less with 800'000 of 4'200'000 peoples. the US, as of TODAY, with +310 million citizens have only 1,3 million soldiers in active service. and of course we could repeat that again. but today we have over 8'000'000 citizens. make the math and you see how healthy it is even WITHOUT our allies :)	Nation	Nationality - General	1/125	0.8

This editor is a sraight idiot who knows nothing about warfare, geography, countries, the world in general. Calling North Korea’s army substancial is beyond retarded, their army is 1960s standards, the numbers won’t matter for shit when it’s technology is ages behind and most of their arms are more rusty than the titanic shipwreck.Japan hasn’t been invaded because the US chose to force surrender by nuke instead of risking a few losses in land invasion of a virtually defeated Japan, which would not be of any advantage over forcing surrender.You mention Iran partially because it hasn’t been invaded since WWII, but you fail to mention the UK which hasn’t been invaded sucessfully since the Norman invasion in 1066.Showing Nepalese footage while talking about BhutanShowing US soldiers while talking about Australia... no commentThe reasons why he claims countries are uninvadable don’t add up and lack any kind of logic. Many countries weren’t invaded because big powers didn’t even attempt to invade them. Plus this isn’t the 2nd world war where freezing temperatures would cause a considerable problem for an advanced army. Being uninvadble due to having a strong ally isn’t a valid argument at all because if you take allies into the equation, you have to consider that the antagonist country has allies as well which would help with the invasion and then you wouldn’t be talking about countries anymore, but alliances. Really the only points he makes that add up are strong military and geography, the maker of this video is a complete fool.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/259	0.386
Why isn’t the UK on there. We haven’t been invaded since 1066. Come on. I know we are having brexit and all but still	Brexit	Nationality - European or anti- Europeans	1/25	4.0

The UK isn't on there because between the 19th and early 20th century were the only times you weren't physically able to be invaded due to industrial advances. Where no body else had canons and a navy you had canons and a navy. Where no body else had muskets you had muskets. Nowadays there's about 74 different countries that if attempted would be successful in an invasion on your tiny island, whether by equipment and skill of the invaders or by the sheer size of the country that'd be invading you. Countries that can't be invaded at all 100 of the time is due to it's environment or size. The United States can't be invaded because it's simply too large to occupy. Russia can't be invaded because it's simply too large to occupy. China can't be invaded because it's too large to occupy and because they have a shit ton of the worlds population that'd be forced to fight. Afghanistan can't be successfully invaded and occupied because there's too many hiding places and too many mountains. The UK can be invaded because there's zero reason it can't be invaded, other than if it keeps leeching off the protection of the UN and Europe of course. Curb your nationalism , that shit has no place anymore. Globalism is here and now.	Nationalism, Zero	Age - Youngsters, Nationality - General	2/219	0.913

Stupid—another numbers vid of armies and what... Truth there are just one country that can't successively be invaded and that the USA... Yes geography plays a large part in defense, so does climate and other factors of nature, but technology is king in 21st Century Warfare. Then add in economic capability and you have the truth of a countries vulnerability. Russia at one time couldn't be invaded for the vary reasons given in the video. However even Russia's ally Winter is as much an asset as a liability. ROVs, Cruise missiles, stealth and other tech allows for deep penetration and precise strikes at infrastructure, like power plants. Had Hitler had the laser guided bombs and planes to reach deep inside Russia in 1940-41, Russia would have loss WWII. USSR's victory was based on 3 key factors. First the willingness of the Soviet people to throw themselves at the Germans. Second the second industrial revolution in Russia; where upon German's invasion Russia started moving its factories to the Ural Mountains and out of reach of the Germans. Add conditions 1 & 2 plus an over stretched German supply line and yes Russia couldn't be conquered. But add the 3rd element and that is Allied lend-lease....the US gave Russia 58,000 train locomotives and hundreds of thousands of trucks freeing Russia from having to make those trucks and focus on weapons—Russia with Allied help was the 3rd fully mechanized army in WWII and no Germany was never fully mechanized—the three being US, UK and Russia You can forget nukes...if someone is dumb enough to envade Russia, China, US or anyone else that has them, the invader likely has them too... pop the cork on a nuke on any side and its game over and it doesn't matter if you save yourself from invasion or if your the invader...your all dead and now one will be left to write the history	Dumb	Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	1/317	0.315

Half the comments are citizens daring countries to invade each other why can't we all be friends and focus on the real world problems . Does it matter who has the biggest toys well maybe if it came down to war but war is pointless . Wars are started over religion , accidents , going into each others territory and in some cases just a bad guy who didn't get what they want . Instead of antagonizing each other help one another forget religion forget the past and help every country be a better one from yesterday . Yes you can have religion just don't disrespect their beliefs everyone's opinions are different and humans are entitled to their own thoughts and beliefs .When everyone accepts that this world can change for a whole lot better . We might just come together and share ideas how to help the environment clean the trash in the middle of the ocean and some coasts of other countries who's beaches is literally just trash help regrow forests find common ground so prices and taxes may go down find a new power source instead of oil or gas . The only army capable of invading our great nation of the United States of America is our own... and it's kind of a moot point to invade your own country isn't it?Edit: Also, we definitely could take on everyone else... and win. We do it all the time, after all (except we don't take on North Korea. We could, we just don't want their crazy . Also, Vietnam doesn't really count. Aussie Osborne Here we are not talking about allies. There is only one CONSTANT in the universe and that is CHANGE. And who said India and china could never make it to Australia. But the point is why would any one invade. In modern era. No one tries to invade a country which has some level of modern capability. Doing business is more profitable than invading. Invasions are only done on countries which are still in stone age but have huge natural resources.	Age	Age - General	1/83	1.205

Aussie Osborne As far as allies is concerned, India also has so many allies. It is a country which has both USA and Russia as allies. It has relation with Israel also and with Philistine also. Point is India has allies from blocks which are opponents of each other. Since we are talking about capabilities lets assume and hypothetically say that US and Europe won't come to protect Aus and Aus is on its own. Then huge number of army personal can be brought to Aus using any kind of ship like commercial ships guarded by naval vessels. India and china both has blue water naval capabilities , nuclear submarines and Aircraft carriers, destroyers, frigates . By the way you should know that India is also an ally of Australia. It will be Indian Navy which will be impose a naval blockade on China in Indian ocean to block all trade and supplies of China if china advances on australia. (The sea route of Indian ocean is life line of china , that's why china is desperate for alternative called as CPEC , Ironically that alternative is also not immune from India as it passes through karakoram pass and India sitting on Siachen glacier can block it) .	Indian	Ethnicity - Native- American	3/208	1.442
Aussie Osborne //China and India do not have nearly the amount of experience/ Can't say about China , but India has huge experience. India has fought 5 wars after independence. 4 with pakistan and 1 with China. During those war India has war time operational experience of creating naval blockade and attacking ports of karachi. Also has experience of protecting waters in war time. When it comes to ground forces and air force, then Indian Army and airforce is gaining experience since first and second world war as that time more than british soldiers , British Indian soldiers were fighting in that war all over europe . After independence it became Indian army and Indian Airforce. Even after independence as i said india fought 5 wars. On top of that india is fighting insurgency and terrorism exported by pakistan for 70 years. So 70 years of continuous operational experience. The tensions are always hight, and all the forces i.e ground , Airforce and navy on high operational alert all the time. Recently in feb india and pak had a modern fighter jets battle using F16s , Sukhoi30s , Mirage 2000 etc after bombing of terrorist sanctuaries in pakistan by Indian Airforce. So think again about experience of India.	Indian, Terrorist	Ethnicity - Native- American, Religious Identity - Muslim	6/208	2.885

India and China's technology is nothing but a joke, their planes would fall out of the sky on their own due to bad make and wouldn't be able to reach any other country to attack. There are only 5 nations/supper power countries you will always want to watch out for, US, UK, Japan, France, and Germany. Adrian V India has below indigenous technology and capabilities, (Not imported)- Nuclear weapons. Very few countries have nuclear weapons, For your info Germany and Japan doesn't have. - India is a nuclear triad country Only four nuclear triad countries are there in world i.e USA, Russia, China and India (France was former, it has capability but not operational now). - Nuclear Submarines Very few countries have indigenous nuclear submarines, For your info Germany and Japan doesn't have.- Aircraft Carrier which can operate fixed wing fighter jets. Very few countries have indigenous Aircraft carriers, For your info Germany and Japan doesn't have. - Intercontinental Ballistic missiles. Very few countries have indigenous ICBMs, For your info Germany and Japan doesn't have. On top of this India has it Nuclear tipped.- Very wide variety of indigenously developed missiles with launching capabilities from Surface, Air and under water.- Supersonic Speed Cruise Missile Brahmos (Soon to be Hypersonic) It is the world's fastest anti-ship cruise missile in operation.The missile travels at speeds of Mach 2.8 to 3.0,which is being upgraded to Mach 5.0. Guess what Germany and Japan doesn't have anything close to match capability and speed of this cruise missile.- India's own IRNSS (You understand the importance of GPS in modern warfare right) It is like US GPS currently covers only Indian subcontinent but expanding range in progress. Even now it serves it purpose well as India doesn't attack anyone , and if attacked then well it can provide navigational and positioning data. Guess what here again your fav. Germany and Japan doesn't have its own such capability.- Capability to Shoot down satellites. Demonstrated by shooting down own satellite for test. For your info Germany and Japan doesn't have this capability.- Indigenous technology to build , launch and maintain satellites of wide variety. No one can know how many of Indian satellites are Military satellite as India makes and launches it itself. So no one gets a peek at it what kind of satellite it is. If you give your satellites to make or launch to other country then that country will know what you have, That is not the case with India. Country not capable is at mercy of other as the country with launch capability might decide that you have enough of your military satellites already and deny launching it. Since India can build and launch on its own so it is not dependent on any other country's mercy. One of your fav. Japan has capabilities of launching satellites but Germany on its own does not have -> It depends on EU. - Main battle Tanks You might be in delusion that it is bad quality but once you face it you would know.- Wide Variety of Armoured Vehicles.- Assault Rifles and variety of small arms- India's 70 indigenous 4th Generation fighter jet. Work is in progress to make to 100 indigenous but i agree it will take considerable time.- Missile defence system.- World's second largest army moderately equipped if not highly equipped like US soldiers.Also India has huge experience of war. During 1st and second world war there were more soldiers from British Indian army compared to British army fighting all over europe.Also British Indian airforce. British Indian army was formed in 1858 and british Indian airforce was formed in 1932.After independence These two became Indian Army and Indian Airforce. Even after Independence Indian

Adrian V //don't forget more than 75 of india army is over weight / How can a person be so delusional. you can read and operate internet right ? Why don't you search it on google and know about Indian Army. They are battle hardened , fought 5 wars , doing anti-insurgency and counter terrorism for 70 years. Indian Army is world's BIGGEST contributor in United Nations peace keeping forces. Indian army men are Deployed in Thar desert (yes desert with Sand like sahara desert) , then on Himalayan mountain peaks and having shelling and cross border firing with pakistan on daily basis. Patrolling borders in desert and mountain peaks. (On these mountain peaks you can't even take any vehicle for patrolling near boarders). Indian Army fought battle on world's highest battle field that is Siachen Glacier and been deployed on elevation of 5400 m since decades. They fought battles at -40 degree temperature and standing guard at that place ever since. Indian Army doesn't have luxury to sit and relax . Thanks to our terrorist neighbor nation Pakistan and insurgency that our troops finds themselves always in middle of conflict or standing guard in very hostile landscape. Only on rotation few percentage of troops are given Soft postings for some times to help them relax from the physical and mental stress they are going through, and then they are again back at hostile places.Just ask yourself are you a fool or a luniac? Neo Maisela Incentive is there, China will gulp Bhutan in a moment if Indian army is not standing in way. Have a read on "Doklam stand off" between Chinese and Indian army in Bhutan. Occupying Bhutan will give Chinese immense strategical advantage as Bhutan is located at a very very important place strategically. Chinese occupied Tibbet for same reason. Officially Chinese claims Tibbet , parts of India , parts of Bhutan (or whole Bhutan) as its own because of ancient historical boundaries. Chinese even tried to invade Arunachal from india which is located just next to Bhutan and has the same geography, But could not occupy it after a brief war. But Chinese succeeded in occupying parts of Laddakh region of India in the northern part of India. That is a land which is pure cold desert, not even a grass grows there. So what was the incentive? Two things - one it got it pride satisfied as it claimed it to be part of China , second it got land access to Middle east , and Arabian sea via pakistan. Though China could occupy only a small part and not the whole region it claimed to be Chinese. The stand off between Chinese and Indian armies happens very frequently on these very high altitude regions. In fact Siachen Glacier (Elevation: 5,400 m) is the world's highest battle ground which falls particularly in this region and is a tri-junction of Indian , Chinese and Pakistani control. This Cold and high glacier is strategically very important that why troops stand there at an elevation of 5,400 m in temperature which can dip to −50 °C (−58 °F) though out the year. It is a glaciated portion of the Karakoram so cold that sometimes called the "Third Pole".Millions of dollars are spend to maintain troops on such a place, and many soldiers dies because of cold not bullets. So you see in Modern age geography is not going to play a very Big role in defending country from a technically very advance country. Those are things of past. The list compiled in this video does this mistake of relying heavily on geography for protection. Neo Maisela //India doesn't really have any geographical advantages/ We are talking about full scale invasion here.Have you ever seen a MAP in your life before you comment such a absurd thing on public forum? North of India is all HUGE "The Great Himalayas", highest mountain range in the world, World's top 50 highest peaks falls in these Himalayan mountain range . You can come through only a few handful mountain passes , that too not open through out the year. Western Border is Pakistan from which India is constantly on war since 1947. So you will get a bullet in head before even getting close to that border, It is one of the world's most militarized zone, Also Most of that western border is either Thar DESERT (yeah desert with Sand like Sahara) or High Mountains of Himalayas. whatever left of western border is Runn of kutch , that is another form of desert. These is very little ground on western border using which you can come in India without encountering either Thar Desert or Himalayan mountain range. Eastern Part of India is very thick Dense forest. Even more dense than Vietnam where US soldiers got screwed very badly. It is one of world's highest rainfall receiving area. To add your difficulty India has specially trained big troops for gorilla warfare in these forests as we have a threat from china. China even attacked in 1962 and tried to capture Arunachal Pradesh, one state of India which Chinese claims as their territory till today.Rest of Southern , south East and South west of India is Ocean . So you need a very very advance and BIG navy to reach the shore after winning from Big Indian Navy which has nuclear submarines , good number of destroyers , frigates and even 2 Air craft carriers. Only USA can get past it as of now , no one else. You can cross these geographical barriers only if you have a very very advance army. After that You have to tackle with World's second largest army personnel wise , and World's 4th most powerful Military (Army, Airforce, Navy combined).Ranking top 5 is USA , Russia , China , India, France.India is also a nuclear triad country, There are only 4 nuclear triad country in world i.e USA , Russia , China and India. (France was a former nuclear triad , still has capability but not operational).India has Inter continental ballistic missiles (ICBM). Only seven countries has ICBMs (USA,Russia,China,India,France,Israel, North korea)These nuclear submarine, nuclear triad , ICBM are India's indigenous tech , i am not counting imported weapons.Also India has its own operational GPS navigation system (though it covers Indian subcontinent as of now , but we are talking about invasion of India , not India attacking someone else so this will work) , India is not on mercy of providing GPS services by any other nation during a conflict or war.Don't think about shooting down Indian satellites , because India too have its own indigenous technology and capability to shoot down satellites as India already demonstrated by shooting down one of its own satellite. And India has own capability to launch satellites and operate. So It is even impossible for USA for doing a full scale invasion of India after crossing those geographical barriers of Himalayan range , Thar desert , Dense rain forests, Ocean and then fighting with world's 4th most powerful military.Even if we assume USA Wins all these then India is not a small country. It is world's 7th largest	Indian, Nation	Ethnicity - Native-American, Nationality - General	6/806	0.744

Electricity is an idea. The airplane is an idea. Washing with soap is an idea. That’s why other countries have been able to adopt those innovations. No other country on earth has been able to approximate America — except our fellow Anglo-Saxon nations...”(Ann Coulter, Adios America, 2015, page 51) ”America is not a mere landmass — otherwise, the Indians would have written the Declaration of Independence and put a man on the moon. Far from discovering America, Indians didn’t even detect America. There was no America until the British and Dutch arrived. They were not ’immigrants’ because there was no established society for them to move to. IceMan TV Also did you forget to relies that we have the largest Armed population on this planet? Even if you took out The united states military completely from this scenario. The civilian populations Has more then enough Guns, and ammo to combat any foreign Nation that tried to invade. Not only do you have to contend with that but also the geography of where the United states is Placed. Any country that tried to Invade would have to have complete access to the waters Near the shores of the USA for Supplies such as ammo, food, ect. Which we could easily blockade the coasts considering we have the LARGEST FUCKING NAVY ON THE PLANET by such a wide margin that its laughable. You would need the combined forces of the next 9 Powers on the planet to even compete Against us Militarily. If we pulled back all troop, equipment, planes, and boats and just stayed on the mainland Unless Nukes were used it would be Almost impossible. Or better yet it would take so long that it would bankrupt all the countries Before they even got to Colorado. I don't know where the fool is from, but it is obviously not any of the western democracies from the propaganda soaked rhetoric he is spewing. Regardless, all of this dick measuring bullshit, it is all really rather irrelevant... Because this is the era of the globe spanning American Empire; and this is simply a fact of all humanity's reality currently. The military aspect is all quite true & wholly real; more so than any given civilian even knows for there are.... "Toys", technological terrors that not even most in the U.S. government know about, not even any of the last 5 or so presidents, much less any members of Congress... Such as certain space based weapons systems, which can surgically strike & completely incinerate ANYTHING, at ANYTIME, ANYWHERE on the entire planet... And leaving behind no radiation residuals. (Try picturing something similar to the Watchtower beam weapon from that Justice League cartoon.) EMP brownbox tech, unbelievably advanced cyber systems mangling "sharks", aircraft so quiet and practically invisible, to much more than just radar, that maneuver like hummingbirds and fly faster and higher than anything any other nation has actually conceived of as being possible... both manned and unmanned variants. The initial prototypes back in the mid 70's was what some have heard called the "Aurora project"... That was never actually the name though, some UFO seekers came up with that pretty little nomenclature for what was "heard" but never Seen by a few of them. The only issue is that this is not directly under any U.S. conventional military control, none of the known branches at least. So it isn't at the disposal of any of our elected officials, they do not actually know about these particular agencies, and considering the fool in office currently I'm thankful that is the case. Basically what you should take away from this, just as a little something to consider when you are deluding yourselves about how much any nation's military actually matters in the grand scheme of things is this... Your shithole countries are nothing but an illusory curtain to keep your primitive asses placated and complacently working at your menial jobs... with generation after generation of you filling the labor pools of obedient, submissive, ignorant proletariat masses. You are as absolutely insignificant as it is possible for a human being to become, you aren't really even a cog in the machine, your just waste byproducts. You and yours could not make an actual impact upon what is happening, not even if you were shown the complete reality of the situation could you do a thing to alter it. Be happy existing in your pathetic religious delusions, your nationalistic propaganda which effectively deceives you into thinking your country or culture have real significance and power, all of the systematically layered pacification illusions which keep them from having to decimate the useless living populations of humanity around this World... Because you do not wish to have to live with the knowledge of what the reality of your life's meaning truly consists of, it would be quite unbearable I assure you.	Nation, Nothing	Age - Youngsters, Nationality - General	2/517	0.387

NO army could ever invade the USA there are more GUNS in TEXAS then many countries have people . IF a Army invaded the USA there would be a gun behind every TREE. The number of hunters in the USA capable of shooting a target from 200 to 300 yards is close to 20 million. There are 8 million if not more people with AR-15's in the USA . AND that is just what a army would have to deal with from the CITIZENS . NOT even counting the US military. Also the secret military weapons that the USA has that nobody knows about can only be imagined. The army and weapons that the world sees the USA use is 30 to 50 years old . THE Iraq war i believe happen just to test some of those weapons that im sure are obsolete . A EMP is the only chance a invading army would have against the USA and Americans LOVE To go camping. As an Aussie, let me tell you why you can't invade Australia: First, the worldwide assessment of Australia's military is that it is small, and that's all they see. But Australia's military spending is high, its infrastructure very modern, very well trained, and geared for power projection. That's why Australia is involved in every conflict the west has been involved in for 100 years. We are battle-hardened and could give a nation with a much larger military a very hard time. Ask the Japanese survivors of the Coral Sea, Milne Bay and Kakoda what Aussies can do. Ask German survivors of the North African campaign why even the best soldiers from Germany let by their greatest general Rommel couldn't win. We are rated year after year as the World's 15th most powerful country, around 20th militarily, and since the English colonized Australia nobody has ever landed an enemy force here. But besides that, Australia has never had a civil war, we are all mates here and fierce about our homeland. Then consider what happens if you DO manage to land troops in Australia. You would not be able to sail down the coast where the Navy and Air Force are stationed, you have to land on the top end, and you can bet that the government will blow up the dams, destroy the roads, bridges and rail lines and scorch everything of value. Your army would have to travel off-road through thousands of kms of some of the world's most wild and brutal terrain while some of the world's toughest soldiers make your life hell and the RAAF (with almost 500 flying attack aircraft including F35's targets your fuel and water supply and the navy (which includes 2 aircraft carriers) keeps your supply lines on the bottom of the Indian Ocean. But of course, we are not alone anyway, we have very powerful strategic alliances tested over decades of the closest cooperation. Australia is - by choice - part of the British Commonwealth and thus a tight ally of England, the world's 5th or 6th most powerful military. An attack on Australia is an attack on the UK and that means an attack on NATO. Oh, and there are probably no two military forces on earth as closely allied and tight as the USA's and Australia's, they train together, fight together, war together. Even if the ANZUS treaty (regularly re-pledged and renewed) did not guarantee immediate support of the USA and their vast military machine, the fact that we are their best mates would be enough to bring them in like the juggernaut they are... and the fact that there are crucial joint USA/Australian military bases scattered all over the outback is just an added benefit. The USA is nothing if not pragmatic. So here is the bottom line: Australia is nobody's enemy and everyone's mate. Even Indonesia, Australia's closest and occasionally hostile nation gets more in tourism from the 5 million Aussies a year who go there to drink the country dry of beer than they would get from trying to take the country over. Besides, Australia sent troops in to East Timor a decade or so ago and the Indonesian army backed off, they don't want to war either. Anything you want from Australia we will willingly trade with you, so it is not worth any nation sending their children to feed our wildlife.	African, Indian, Nation, Nobody, Nothing	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - Native- American, Nationality - General	7/566	1.237

Omar Its our government that wants to invade these nations militarily. It our government that wants to keep letting more and more in. The average citizens don't want this. Do i hate individual blacks or Muslim's? Of course not. Many are decent human beings, but it doesn't mean they should make up 70 of my nations population mix. If you change the demographics, you change the culture. We were told to have fewer kids on environmental grounds.....now we're told we need to import half of India to help fill labor shortages. Its discusting. People like me have never asked India or Japan to become minority Indian or Japanese. Why should we want it for ourselves? I may be racist by your definition, yes. Omar No worries mate.I want a world where people of every race flourish and can create societies that mirror whatever they see as ideal for them in their part of the world, free of meddling by others. We should trade with eachother in ways that benefits all involved and that is agreed on. Yes we need Iraqi oil, but they might need something that we specialize in. Every continent has something that another one needs or wants. I agree that endless wars generate more refugees. Thats why i have a pathological hatred of warmongers who push for them. They do nothing for the average citizens who want the money wasted in wars to instead be redirected to help their own backyard. War is a waste of money, time and lives....on both sides. When different races only see eachother when we visit eachothers countries, we love and respect eachother a whole lot more. But when they move here, live on top of us, overpopulate our country and try to change its culture, it builds up resentment. These are scenarios that my side of politics would like to avoid. The average Westerner is having about 1,7 children. The average Muslim or African in the West is having 3 or 4 (i don't have the exact figure handy). That combined with endless new immigration on top of that means we will be minorities in most of the West by late century. Why would i find this a desirable thing? Its utterly shocking.....and our useless, grotty leaders aren't doing a thing about it. I live in Australia. We're a little behind America and Europe, but we're still heading in the same direction. GonzothGonz1 Nah Iran is a different story, yes it is very outdated too and has no chance in a conventional war, but one thing you should not underestimate is that Iran has a army of very fanatical soldiers and by that i really mean very fanatical. Like, millions of men who would give their lifes to fight and die for their country. Unlike the Iraqi soldiers who were very low on morale and low patriotism in both wars, the Iranians actually havy very high morale and very high patriotism, believe me, they would even fight with their bare hands and blow themselves up in suicide attacks if they had to (like the Japanese Kamikaze in 1944). This is the big difference between Iran today and the Iraq back then. Many Iraqis actually hated Saddam Hussein and were happy when his regime was finally over. Of course, there are also many Iranians in Iran who hate their government, but even more Iranians who would die to defend their country agaisnt an American attack. Even if they had no chance, they would still fight and die proudly even if it's just to get to their 76 virgins in paradise... they have nothing to lose, you know waht I mean? They would never surrender like the Iraqis did. Of course, in the end they can not defend against a full American air strike.... but they would lit the entire middle east region up to burn. And Russia would not just sit back either...	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/250	0.4

I think even without the United States military the United States would still be number one. The United States of America makes up only 4 of the world population, but the CIVILIAN population of the United States holds upwards of 600 MILLION firearms (half of the entire world's stock) and more than 25 TRILLION rounds of ammunition. Including the fact that United States civilians legally possess tanks, explosives, machine guns. The civilian population holds more weaponry than the United States military, more than Russia and the other top 25 militaries combined. Then combined with our very intense culture of patriotism, and our near religious commitment to the idea of defending our nation against foreign invasion, both products of our nation's founding being a civilian lead gorilla-style war for Independence against the then world's largest empire. I think any invasion of the United States would fail decisively even if the invading force was as large as the United States military and the United States had only civilians fighting back, for a few good reasons. Our outdoorsman "hunting, shooting, etc" culture means many many Americans know to shoot very well, at long distances, and know their lands very well and have experience hunting from a young age. Our uniquely extensive road systems and driving culture, means almost every American can drive and owns at least 1 vehicle, meaning transportation of weaponry, manpower, or supplies by ground vehicles would be unstoppable and nearly every citizen could be capable of aiding the resistance effort. Our fervent deep seeded patriotism that's present irrespective of political leanings would unify Americans greater than any cause, especially if our homeland was actually at direct threat, I think that the vast majority of Americans would be willing to fight for their country if it was directly being invaded. Our culture of grassroots militia groups means that even before the general population reacts, the united States' 271 current civilian militias that have the weaponry, training, and passion to fight, would react instantly and are present in every single state. Our gun culture and world class ownership of firearms by civilians, more than any population or military on Earth, I don't think I have to explain why that's an advantage. America is very divided amongst itself politically, but if any nation be actually invaded, I think you'd see a civilian war mobilization and extreme unification happen instantly. We literally dream about this shit, we practically deify the idea of a Minuteman, a civilian soldier during the revolutionary war who's namesake comes from being ready to fight anytime at a minute's notice.	Age, Nation	Age - General, Nationality - General	3/430	0.698

So many people with little to no knowledge about warfare or capabilities talking about war. First, the guy talking about Tsar bomba. The bomb is disarmed because its more likely to fail than actually do what it was created the do, hence it's in a Museum in Russia. For Russia and China to be able to make an attempt to Invade the US, they would have to do so from Land because at sea the US is superior by a great margin to both. Neither Russia nor China has a military capable of invading any nation capable of defending itself, let along a more powerful nation than themselves. Russia has a history of Genocide, and China has a history of bearly winning wars at its own border. Now, for Russia and China having any capable attempt of invading the US (even then highly unlikely) they would spend about half a year to one and a half year moving troops across the countries and sea while the US watches with a happy face shouting "sweet! new neighbors" and as we all know, the US isn't Canada hence a blockade would more than likely stop the mobilizing and the US would attack those already on group and block anyone from helping them. In a nuclear scenario both sides will be busy trying to salvage what's left, so that's highly unlikely neither side would do. Since I know some will say "how about the US in the middle east, or Vietnam" well guerilla warfare and traditional warfare are two very different things. As in war between nations you have clear targets before you even attack, versus guerilla warfare, you have to spend tons of time tracking them down and its like finding the needle in the haystack and then kill the needle without harming any of the hay versus in a war where there are direct targets like infrastructure, military bases (that most countries in the world pre any war knows about the opponent).Then again, the US could not invade China or Russia in a traditional war it would need the will of the people in said countries to overthrow the government and not start a guerilla warfare that would last for decades, but the US is capable of destroying the armies of China and Russia but will have trouble invading either of them. So no, China and Russia can't invade the US, and it's highly unlikely that the US could invade either of them also, but more likely.	Nation	Nationality - General	2/417	0.48

Thank you for mentioning the US population is armed and willing to fight for her.As an American.... however, I dont see any nation on this list not willing to arm themselves and fight for their home. It amazes me knowing a small slice of some of these countries' cultures that anyone would assume otherwise.Russia endured so much brutality a tank commander developed the AK47 right after WWII.Israel... most everyone has served in the military...Countries in the Netherlands might plead neutrality... but they fought to keep it.Asian and Middle Eastern countries.... some of them have been fighting for a flag their entire histories.My hope... as an American who arms himself... is that we simply pass our arms to our children, unused, so that they are there.... to remain unused.... until they rust to the point of unusable. War is in our nature. So is peace. Maybe peace will come from all of us before heavy loss being the catalyst.	Nation	Nationality - General	1/164	0.61

The one thing you didn't mention about America is the fact that there are more firearms in the hands of civilians then any other country and that most of those civilians have been trained by the US Government to handle those weapons efficiently. That there are paramilitary groups all around the country who train daily and are prepared to defend their little part of the world. All were suppressed by Israel. After a war and series of failed attacks, Sadat resorted to peace treaty between Israe and Egypt, granting Egypt the Sinai back in exchange for security over Gaza. Sadat now earned himself as once a guy who lead Egypt to invade Israel, to a leader who was now admired by Israelis. Upon his death many Israelis visited him to show solidarity with an Arab leader who for once, gave up their ambition of destroying the Jewish state(Gamal Nasser's original Arab nationalist goal, which failed) and leaning to peace. Such as Northern Africa or the Levantine region. However, these regions are not part of modern day Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. But, in the context of this video, we are talking about modern countries, not entire regions. The logic of the Palestinians who want the death of the Jews:In the establishment of the state, the Jews flee from the Holocaust to their land, which has nothing and rebuild it.The Palestinians did not want to live with the Jews. Even at the establishment of the state, the Jews offered them to build the country and went to war against Israel together with six different countries (of course, once peace is offered, the most logical response is war). Israel is winning the war, building a glorious state, and is still trying to make peace with the Palestinians.After the establishment of the State of Israel and until now - in the government there was a law that can not shoot a terrorist even if he comes to stab you. It is permissible to shoot him in the legs, and this too if he has already raised his hand. And what are the Palestinians distributing in the world today? "Israel murders Palestinian children every day."You try to hit and kill Jews every hour of the day. Are we bombing hospitals and children? Let me tell you something ...We are transferring money to Hamas, billions of dollars a year. Our goal is for Hamas to build shelters and protected areas with this money, and maybe even open their own country, so their residents will be safe from our bombings ... Still child murderers? Ok.There is something in Israel called the "knock on the door." We announce the building we are going to attack a few hours before the attack so that all the citizens can be evacuated from the building and thus be saved. What is Hamas doing?They send rocket launchers to hospitals and schools and leave the children and people there and as soon as they receive the message of the approaching attack they simply ignore it and thus a lot of people die as a result of attacks that our goal is to destroy weapons depots and specific targets.And then all over the world you hear about Israel that again murders children and innocent people, while the one responsible for this is their government, Hamas.I do not expect all of you to believe everything I said here. I expect you to pass it on! I think it's time to put the truth out because I, as a Jewish Israeli citizen, know the truth. I have Arab friends and they are not murdered in the streets as the Palestinians love to tell you ... Everything you heard is all lies. Do not believe me? So shut up! You have no right to criticize only by false reports by Hamas and the Palestinians. You are invited to come to Israel and enjoy its beauty and see the truth in your face. You will see religious Jewish people eating lunch together with Palestinians who only want peace. You will see Palestinians and Jews working together and laughing together. You will see the truth. Check about the last generation M51 nuclear missile (at least as best as Russian and US MISSILES and superior to Chinese missiles, it's devellopped by airbus and other French military firms) then reconsider your opinion about France...France remember what happened in 1940 and since 1945 it never stopped to developp strategies and weapons so an invasion of France become impossible are too costly for the invader. YOu should also know that the nuclear strategy of France is the most dangerous of all (alongwith Israel we are the only contry that state that in case of invasion we lauch the totality of our nuclear arsenal...China, Russia, USA have a different strategy they would only lauch a limited amount of their nuclear weapons first then increase the number of lauching accordingly to the answer of the enemy, the French are the craziest, form the beginning we send all we have everywhere !). Forget 1940, live in 2019, it's dangerous to fight the old wars that belong in the past. I can tell the mademan who will try to attack France today clearly have suicidal tendancies. When I was in the army , the first week during a meeting a guy asked to an officer "what's the point of having a FRench army, for example if USA attack us we are in a deep shit, the officer answered to him : indeed we are but trust me, they would be in a very deep shit too !". John Wedderburn I was referring to technology, not nuclear capabilities nor military statistics. And I personally don't believe in the "Japan relies on the USA for defence" why would they? Sure they're near nuclear powers but we're in the long peace no country wants to be involved in war. The Chinese government has stated that if war broke out involving NK they would stay out of it. The Chinese navy is (Let's be honest) is nothing compared to the Japanese. Is the Indian navy any better? You also have to factor in Australia's huge size, terrain and location. Any invading force would have to be done by sea so they'd need to go through Indonesia (To shorten time) Those waterways are extremely important for trade. You'd need to go through Indonesia then find a suitable place to land your units. Know expecting you've gone through Indonesia without a problem you are now facing the sparsely populated, extremely hot and open desert of Northern Australia. Get Real and think outside the realm or science fiction. the United States covers 3.797 million square miles. All the conventional weapons on the entire planet couldn't possibly level 1/10th of that area. Only a combined attack from every nuclear power on earth could even come close and that would leave a waste land that nothing could live on because of radiation and bring about a nuclear winter that would kill off our attackers as well as the rest of humanity . Since the U.S. has the nuclear capability of destroying all life on the planet 10 times over, anyone imagining winning such a conflict would have to assume that the U.S. didn't fight back at all and the entire country was asleep. The U.S. has 330 million people spread out over those 3.797 million square miles and even if an attacker hit all of the major population centers, no country on earth could possible kill everyone even in New York City without Nuclear or some fanciful chemical weapon. The combined conventional firepower of the rest of the world couldn't completely level New York and Chicago. Anyone stupid enough to attempt a land invasion would be met by a civilian army larger than any country's military . And before you say anything about deer rifles vs tanks, it was a lot of deer rifles that sent the British packing twice and tanks need refueling, Small arms are quite effective against supply lines and tank crews can't stay in the tank forever. Beside all of that, do you even imagine that the entire U.S. military would be neutralized ? And by what means could this be accomplished?	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/276	0.362

Loyalty to our Constitution, our Principles and our people are what matter. Of Course bombing contaminates the soil , but Resistance doesn't include farming and what crops grow fast enough even if such a miracle crop existed? No One could possible Carpet bomb the entire 3.78 million square miles. No such arsenal exists and no country , not even the U.S. has anywhere near enough aircraft to do so. The Invading Enemy would run out of food even faster than the Guerrilla forces and the logistics of resupply would be made more difficult by multiple ambush and attacks on supply lines. Muhammad Ahmad The problem with Pakistan is that you guys have less information about anything!In 1965India won 1,920 sqkm of territory; Pakistan won 540 sqkm2,862 Indian soldiers were killed; Pakistan lost 5,800 soldiersIndia lost 97 tanks; 450 Pakistani tanks were destroyed or capturedNow I don't know how is that Pakistan's victory In 1999Operation Vijay was successful and India successfully completed the mission! Fun fact is Pakistan was on a higher place having advantage to stop the advancing Indian troops but because of Indian soldiers courage they managed to kill enemies high above them! Get a life kid! Malik Hamza I think you didnt read what I wrote above*War results are decided by land captured and missions carried out during the war! Pakistan's mission was to get more land from Kashmir region and Indias mission was to stop and in reply go deeper into Pakistan, Indian army's mission was successful as they reached lahore and as I mentioned above India captured much much more land from Pakistan than Pakistan army did, Pakistan army didn't manage to stop Indian army from reaching lahor and also didnt manage to steal more land from India! So in easy words, India's mission was successful and Pakistans mission failed, casualties are not considered, Lets say If a country invades another country, and successfully invades the country but having more casualties than the country defending, wont make the country which got invaded the winner! Get some war knowledge first then comment on such videos*	Indian	Ethnicity - Native-American	2/151	1.325

Mujahid Syed I don't feel like getting into this argument because it is clearly just two sides insulting each other... but what can I say? Just because a nation 's borders are the same, doesn't mean they have not been invaded successfully. It may have not been in the peace treaty or armistice. For the India-Pakistan case, usually it is an external threat like China that won't allow it. Other times it is an internal threat like terrorism. First off, the borders have changed. Pakistan lost Bangladesh... remember?Second, Pakistan isn't fighting honorable wars, they send soldiers and STATE-FUNDED terrorists (that use Pakistani equipment and training) into Indian territory and kill, rape, and burn.Third, India, despite all this, is winning. Kashmir is firmly in India's hands and taking it would be no small feat.In all, Pakistan is fighting through terror and probing attacks because both nations know that if war came between them, India would have the advantage in manpower, equipment, allies, and military leadership. I am not saying that India is the best nation on Earth and that they will stomp Pakistan, but I am saying the Pakistan claims to be brave and proud fighters when they aren't and that India would win regardless.You are welcome. I can't wait to hear the incoming insults.	Indian, Nation	Ethnicity - Native-American, Nationality - General	2/217	0.922

Ranjeet Varma you are forgetting the Indian ocean, the Himalayas and the Sundarban that protects India naturally from three sides and the fact that Indian defence is trained to fight two war at the same time because of enemies in both sides. And you are also forgetting the fact that both the Russian and American army comes to India for terrain defence training.	Indian	Ethnicity - Native-American	2/63	3.175

Bikram Bagani And you are forgetting that Indian Ocean is not a natural defense because it has islands that have been leased to Americans for military use. Don't forget Diego Garcia. A single push button is enough to launch a missile from Diego Garcia to Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Karnataka, Mumbai, FYI. And the sea is in no way able to stop/alter a missile from entering India. Then we have Sri Lankan ports, some leased to China and can be used for military purpose by China. Talking about the eastern front, don't forget 1971 war when US Navy had the 7th fleet with a nuclear tipped missile ready to be launched from the Bay of Bengal. UK also had a submarine in Bay of Bengal in support of US navy, which was there to drop nuclear bomb on India, in support of Pakistan. Had Russia not been there in Bay of Bengal to threaten the US and the Brits, we would have been the second country in the world to have been nuclear bombed by Uncle Sam. So, we might have some sort of defenses in the North in form of Himalayas (which too are not actually that good as China and Pakistan still have huge presence there), we have zero natural defense in west, east and South making us a vulnerable country and hence we are not in the list.	Indian, Zero	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Native- American	2/230	0.87
--	--------------	--	-------	------

Ranjeet Varma well you are forgetting that it is not 1971 anymore and the predictions you are showing are a little out of the mark. If you think in that way then no country is safe from no one. There is a difference between invading a country and attacking a country from a rented outpost island. Indian navy has a huge presence in Indian Ocean and has a major advantage of trade route blocks. India can block the trade route of both USA and China from the Indian Ocean which will posses a deadly threat to these countries in the time of war. Also India is one of the major importer from China and USA so these countries will never attack India even if they are settled on islands near India. Plus India also has navy superiority in that region because of BRAMHOS missile system which is impossible to be attacked by defence missile systems once launched. And in Himalayas although China and Pakistan have moderate presence, the highest points are mostly under control of India which in military term is a huge advantage. Also the Himalaya makes it impossible for other countries to call air strike on India or bring tanks near Indian border. And about USA nuking India, the thing is USA have signed a pact where it can no longer test or produce nuclear weapons and the war heads in their arsenal are 50+ year old and the actual shelf life of a nuclear war head is only 20 years whereas India has signed no such treaty and continues to stock its arsenal. In 1971 India was a third world country and now India is the 6th largest economy in the world with a reputation of world's 4th largest superpower. I think you can have the peace of mind that on other countries are attacking India in their sane mind. And once more, did I mention that India is the only country which is ready to fight a war on the both sides.	Indian, Old	Age - Over 65s, Ethnicity - Native-American	5/336	1.488

Just Abide Oh yeah sorry about that. I had to use my phone that's why I used multiple comments. First of all, the Soviets didn't land their first people on the moon. They touched the surface but didn't land. The US put their flag first. Also, Japan never surrendered to the Soviets. The soviets were one of the reasons why Japan surrendered, but it was because of the atom bombs and the US invasions that WAS already happening. The USSR came to the pacific front after US. Stop mixing things up with the Russo-Sino war. And you are probably thinking of Soviet liberation of Manchuria, which is outside of Korea. And to tell you the truth, you were spreading false information. US lost all battles? BS. If that was the case, the US would have lost the Revolutionary war, Spanish-American war, WW 1, WW 2, Iraq War, and the Cold War, which is not really a war by itself but the US still won. US, with no mention of the allies, lost three out of four fronts of the entire war? BS. If that was the case, the Axis would have lasted longer. Ha! Low intelligence? That's all people like you can say to America, which is just really sad as you have said nothing but BS the entire time (except for the US taking all the credit. That was probably some Cold War matter, but I don't really know). After all, I thought people like you enjoyed being called smart by this image of Americans that y'all have fantasized. It is such a shame.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/265	0.377
Just Abide Also, if Russia DID land their people first, the US would have lost the Space race . But they did make a lot of good inventions that could made them the winner.	Race	Ethnicity - General	1/33	3.03

andrew lee I never stated that the Soviet’s landed their people first on the moon. And the Soviet’s had their flag on the moon first, because they sent it up in a space craft that landed on the moon. US was the first to plant their flag INTO the moon sure. I don’t know why you keep on bringing up the pacific front, because noone is talking about that but you. I guess to make America look good. We’re talking about the liberation of North Korea. Please come back when you’re able to join us on that subject. When Japan did ”surrender”, some Japanese did not, and kept on fighting until the 1970’s. Yes the Peace Treaty is what formally ended the war, and the joint Decleration between Japan and the Soviet Union is what formally ended their war. But don’t forget that the USSR was led by the savage Joseph Stalin. The Soviets were already fighting Japan before America dropped the bombs, (which didn’t kill off that many Japanese as you would think). It’s said that Japan was going to surrender anyway at the end of 1945 because they knew they weren’t going to win. All the bombs did was push this a little faster. After the drop of the first atom bomb the Japanese were told to get ready for more. In fact Japanese kids are taught this in schools, and not that big bad America saved the day with their atom bombs. You should read a detailed article called: ”The Bomb Didn’t Beat Japan... Stalin Did”.As for US losing the battles, I did not say that US lost ALL battles. So no, I was not and am not spreading false information about that. You’re just putting words in my mouth. Please don’t do that. The Revolutionary War, The Spanish-American War, and The Cold War have no relevance here, because BLITZ was/is not talking about those. I suggest you read, or re-read his comment, to know what wars he stated. All the information I put down stating the wars that BLITZ mentioned is correct. If you don’t believe me then Google is your friend.I did not mention allies in the American fronts, because BLITZ did not mention allies in the American fronts. We’re not talking about allies here, just America’s participation. Try to keep up. Would you like to know that America lost their fronts even with allies? That just seems more embarrassing. And BLITZ did state that America fought two of the fronts mostly on their own.”Ha! Low intelligence? That’s all people like you can say to America”. That’s because a lot of Americans are dumb. Don’t act dumb, and you won’t be called dumb. ”by this image of Americans that ya’ll have fantized.” Once again, something dumb. Noone just randomly thinks that an entire country is dumb. It’s the country that acts dumb that puts their reputation out there as being dumb. ”as you have said nothing but BS the entire time”. Oh look, another dumb thing! Someone just claiming BS without even doing the proper research. I won’t even acknowledge this enormously blatant ignorant statement. Then you try to rationalize why America takes all the credit to make yourself feel better, instead of accepting the real reason why they do. Dumb.So yes, low intelligence, which you have proven once again. ”It is such a shame.” But hey. At least you didn’t name call this time. You should be proud of that. P.S. .. We’re not 12... Well maybe you are.	Dumb, Nothing	Age - Youngsters, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	10/589	1.698
---	---------------	---	--------	-------

Just Abide Hey. Actually, there was never a single front that the US lost on its own, besides the Pacific theater, but even then, the US reclaimed all territory that Japan gained during its push. Like I said, if the US had lost all the fronts, even three quarters, the Allies would have been dealt the same blow as they were all in it together. For someone who think's he is smart, he sure doesn't know about this very fact. Also, when Japan officially surrendered, that was when Korea was truly liberated. USSR was only fighting and pushing into the northern parts of Japan-held Korea, but in the end, the US technically did liberate Korea in whole as they were the one who defeated Japan, with some credit to the USSR finally coming into aid in the Allied front of the Pacific Theater. Also, you literally said US lost all battles. Don't deny it. You can say, "But...But... I said US got back up..." but you are still implying that the US lost all its battles, especially on its own. No need to sugar-coat that, we all know you are just petty. And honestly, wow, you do write a lot in paragraphs. Most people wouldn't even bother making their comment this long. Also, crash landing the USSR flag doesn't mean the USSR got to the moon first. Might as well throw a rock at tree and claim it as yours. And did you think, US wanted to kill all the Japanese? No. We only wanted to make them surrender. And USSR was already fighting the Japanese? They were already fighting the Germans, not the Japanese. They did come before the bombings but the US was already pushing back the Japanese, with some help from Allies. And also, I am pretty sure those wars that I mentioned were relevant as you, YOURSELF, said the US lost all battles on its own. Also, if you're really going to say BLITZ said this or BLITZ said that, then why did you even group all Americans together. You obviously knew he had some incorrect facts so why group everyone together and make a BS statement of the US lost ALL of its battles on its OWN? And tell me this, just because you saw a few stupid Americans, does that mean the entire 327 million Americans are stupid? Or is it because of the crap that your TV shows to you? That's quite stereotypical, in which case you are not name-calling, as you have said for yourself (my mistake) but instead you are labeling them into your own little box of what an American is like and looks like. And hey, if you think taking all the credit makes a country look dumb, look at China, they tell their media that they're the ones who took down Japan, not the Americans nor the Allies. But of course, they are only telling this to their own people so they are obviously not dumb, right? Its such a shame, my little one, that someone like you can only make yourself worse. Stereotyping an entire population into one little petty group in your own mind. And by the way, what is the country you have pledged allegiance to? In other words, whats your nationality? I am only curious, after all, there should be reason why you are quick to shove all Americans into a little box and claim they are all dumb and arrogant because of a few or because of your TV shows. Just seeing you at this state just makes me want to cry. I A You do realize a lot of racists are also from the liberals as well. In fact, I bet a lot of those so called racists aren't even racist . They are only racist because they support Trump. I am not complaining about what she believes but that is literally what happens.	Racism	Ethnicity - General	2/79	2.532
I A First of all, nazism is banned by law in Germany. And also, confederate flags technically aren't racist . Its only the representative of a shirt lived faction that had a racist lifestyle. Of course, I am not a big fan of the confederate flag, but the flag does bring up a good point. If its ok to destroy anything that symbolizes racism , than why does the left desecrate the American flag. Don't even say its the freedom of speech because that will also justify this quote on quote hate speech. Of course an actual racist speech can be considered hate speech, but nowadays, anything from the mouth of a right wing, conservative, or anyone who opposes the left is considered hate speech. And don't deny it as it also happened to me. I was also called racist and schizophrenic for being a person who leans to the right. andrew lee if you're a racist then you're not really a liberal by definition since it goes it goes against its basic tenets.right now you're trying to shift blame away from the general perpetrators.Most racism in the USA is done by white people since they're the ones who hold most of the power. There's no arguing about this. Of course minorities can be racist , however, the racism from minorities doesn't affect socio-economics like white people being racist towards black people.. andrew lee Maybe, but I am 100 certain that Trump's rhetoric has caused a spike in hate crimes. There's been 3 year spike in hate crimes. The difference between Obama and Trump is that Obama never vilified a group of people based on their profession, religion or ethnicity .The same can not be said about Trump. You have neo-Nazis walking in the streets saying that they're 100 behind Trump.You've got Trump supporters shouting at ethnic minorities saying that 'you're all gonna get deported by Trump'.None of this is normal. The president isn't normal, and not in a good way.	Ethnic, Ethnicity, Spike	Ethnicity - General, Religious Identity - Protestant	4/101	3.96
I A Obama may have never vilified a group directly, but he caused groups to be vilified. Christianity today is being called homophobic because the bible opposes the LGBTQs agenda. Gun owners are even further vilified because of mass killers used guns. And that definitely wasn't Trumps fault and the only racist rhetoric that can be truly said as racist is the things he said about Haiti, but no one is perfect. The racists use Trump's name to legitimize their belief but Teump doesn't support the KKK. Saying Trump's presidency increased racism would have meant that Clinton's presidency increased the support of communism and this "3rd wave" of feminism, which is just as bad as fascism and racism . To tell you the truth, I hated theoptions we had the last election, but both were hand in hand. If one supported one psycho , the other would have supported the other. Madara Uchiha The Arabs mark May the 15th as a day of remembrance for the catastrophe, the 'Nakba' in Arabic, that befell them with the creation of the State of Israel. They claim the 'indigenous' Arab inhabitants had to flee their 'homeland' as a result. They conveniently fail to mention the reason for the 'catastrophe' and where these supposed indigenous Arab inhabitants actually came from and when. UN General Assembly resolution 181 of 1947 called for the partition of the British Mandate in Palestine into separate Jewish and Arab entities. The Jewish leadership accepted the resolution. The Arabs countries rejected it, which is their right. What they had no right to, was to declare war on the Jewish population in the area. The armies of seven Arab countries set out to destroy the Jewish state, which they outnumbered a hundred to one. They also persecuted the Jewish citizens who lived in their own countries for hundreds of years, forcing them to leave and take refuge in the newly created State of Israel. The Arab nations, together with the Arab population in the British Mandate area, sought to annihilate the Jews in the region and failed. The only catastrophe for them in this scenario was that they lost the war. As in any war, people were uprooted and made to relocate. Nearly a million Jews – who were not even involved in the hostilities – were expelled from Arab countries; and over 600,000 Arabs from Israeli territory, many of whom were actually told to leave by the advancing Arab armies. The 'Mandate for Palestine' by the League of Nations (1922) defined the borders of the homeland of the Jewish people as the area between the Jordan river in the east, to the Mediterranean Sea in the west. This, as explained, due to a long historical and deep religious connection of the Jews to this land. It defined 'Jews' as the people of the land which the San Remo commission (1920) called 'Palestine', using the old Roman title 'Syria-Palestina', given by Caesar Hadrian, in 132 a.d. The Jews brought back the original name of 'Israel' () after almost 2000 years. To counter that, the Arabs adopted the Roman term 'Palestine', a word which is has no meaning in Arabic. Although the original founding document of the Palestine Liberation Organization terror group, the 'PLO' said in 1964 (Article 24): 'This Organization does not exercise any territorial sovereignty over the West Bank in the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, on the Gaza Strip or in the Himmah Area', the PLO emblem, as well as that of the Hamas, define a 'Palestine' in the same exact borders the League of Nations used for the Land of Israel: from the Jordan River to the Mediterranean Sea. They claimed indigenous status as 'Palestinians' who lived in the area for generations. A review of history though, shows that from the time of the expulsion of the Jews by the Romans, the inhabitants of the area fluctuated. From the time of the conquest of the land by the Muslim Arabs in 636 CE, the rulers of the land constantly shifted between Muslims, Crusaders, Arab Tribes among themselves and even the Mongols. This until 1517, with the Ottoman conquest that brought a measure of relative stability to the country, but also not for long. The waves of conquests and wars; natural calamities such as earth quakes, harsh living conditions; as well as the periodic plundering of Arab Bedouin tribes from the desert, made the area undesirable. There are relatively few elements that can prove continuity of settlement in the Land of Israel whether Jew or Arab. Thus, on the one of the Zionist settlement, which began with the founding of Patah	Common, Nationalism, Old, Red	Ideological and Political Identity - General, Age - Over 65s, Ethnicity - Native-American, Nationality - General, Social Class - Working class	7/1460	0.479

"There is no connection whatsoever between the finds at Tel Eton and the biblical description of the United Monarchy." However, whether the United Monarchy actually existed and, if it existed, how large was it, are topics of debate among archaeologists and historians. Few written records have been discovered in Israel that date back to the alleged Monarchy, and some scholars have contended that the surviving archaeological remains indicate that a powerful United Monarchy did not exist. Regarding written records, archaeologists have discovered a 3,200-year-old Egyptian stele written in the name of pharaoh Merneptah that mentions the name "Israel" briefly. IIINYC [LINK] The 1948 Palestinian exodus, also known as the Nakba (Arabic: , al-Nakbah, literally "disaster", "catastrophe", or "cataclysm") occurred when more than 700,000 Palestinian Arabs — about half of prewar Palestine's Arab population — fled or were expelled from their homes, during the 1948 Palestine war. Between 400 and 600 Palestinian villages were sacked during the war, while urban Palestine was almost entirely extinguished.[3The term nakba also refers to the period of war itself and events affecting Palestinians from December 1947 to January 1949. The precise number of refugees, many of whom settled in refugee camps in neighboring states, is a matter of dispute[4] but around 80 percent of the Arab inhabitants of what became Israel (half of the Arab total of Mandatory Palestine) left or were expelled from their homes.[5][6] About 250,000–300,000 Palestinians fled or were expelled before the Israeli Declaration of Independence in May 1948, a fact which was named as a casus belli for the entry of the Arab League into the country, sparking the 1948 Arab–Israeli War. The causes are also a subject of fundamental disagreement between historians. Factors involved in the exodus include Jewish military advances, destruction of Arab villages, psychological warfare, and fears of another massacre by Zionist militias after the Deir Yassin massacre,[7]:239–240 which caused many to leave out of panic; direct expulsion orders by Israeli authorities; the voluntary self-removal of the wealthier classes;[8] collapse in Palestinian leadership and Arab evacuation orders;[9][10] and an unwillingness to live under Jewish control.[11][dubious – discuss][12] Later, a series of laws passed by the first Israeli government prevented Arabs who had left from returning to their homes or claiming their property. They and many of their descendants remain refugees.[13][14] The expulsion of the Palestinians has since been described by some historians as ethnic cleansing,[15][16][17] while others dispute this charge.[18][19][20] The status of the refugees, and in particular whether Israel will grant them their claimed right to return to their homes or be compensated, are key issues in the ongoing Israeli–Palestinian conflict. The events of 1948 are commemorated by Palestinians both in the Palestinian territories and elsewhere on 15 May, a date now known as Nakba Day.	Ethnic, Refugee	Ethnicity - General, Nationality - General	2/360	0.556

Lord Hades So you are saying that the 10 commandments are not important? The old testament is just as important as the New testament. One part of the bible can not be less important than the other.	Old	Age - Over 65s	1/37	2.703
andrew lee No, I am saying Christians place special importance on the New Testament which is in essence to reinforce Gods laws throw the teachings of Christ. The New Testament and the Old Testament based on the Hebrew Bible collectively form the biblical canon.	Old	Age - Over 65s	1/44	2.273
Lord Hades Yet the Old testament is based in Israel in setting wise so that is why Israel is so important to Christians. That is why the first crusade was about reclaiming the holy lands, also known as Israel (Not saying that all those needless bloodshed was necessary, except for the templars. Their cool.)	Old	Age - Over 65s	1/54	1.852

andrew lee What does that have to do with anything? The point is Jews do not support or believe in Christ, or they'd be Christians. What do we have to do with Israel today? Why would we support them, we have two distinct religions who merely share the same text, one which we both believe is the true word of God. (Islam also believes in the prophets of the book, and more, they believe in Jesus and Mary...do we have to support them too?) There is no correlation. Israel is, as tradition goes, the ancestral homeland of the Jews from the days of the Old Testament, we do not have any claims. For Christians the land of Israel is the holy land of God on earth, as detailed in the holy book.	Old	Age - Over 65s	1/132	0.758

However are you implying that india is much more advanced? If so, I'd hate to break your bubble but India is also a 3rd world country just like pakistan. It has some problems that are worse than the ones in pakistan like not enough toilets, overpopulation, and the worst, rape. And I know pakistan has a little problem in gender equality but are you forgetting the racism in india? It comes from your religion that not all hindus are equal. You cannot even eat with someone from a higher caste, nor marry them.And pakistan did have a huge domestic terrorist problem but most of that has been taken care of. I would agree on one thing though which is that both countries need to stop fighting and take care of their own people.	Gender, Racism, Terrorist	Ethnicity - General, Gender - General, Religious Identity - Muslim	3/168	1.786

Aravind Sudarshan And what I was saying by not surrendering is that pakistan never surrendered to india. It was the bengali general of the state of bengal who surrendered and the reason for that was the bengali people wanted to separate from pakistan back in 1947. They wanted their own nation . But the british didn't give it to them. So in 1971 during the war, with help from india, the bengali's surrendered so they could separate from pakistan. And they were succesful in doing so. So there was always bad blood between state of bengal and pakistan. They were just looking for a reason to easily separate and that reason became the war of 1971. Alexander Husebø Actually China's economy is massively depending on the US economy as 8 trillion dollars of there GDP is from trade with the US that's around 70 of the Chinese total income. Economically they are strong but that is it even then this strength has been slowed down if not outright destroyed with China now having a debt of nearly 200 times there total income because of American tariffs. This is not even including the rampant corruption in the government which there purges have helped but not cleared. The future doesn't get much better as China has a demographic time bomb when by 2030 65 of china's population will reach retirement age and the 1 child policy on helped make the burden heavier. While China is a strong country most analyst predict the country will likely never be a super power any time soon. All this and this is not even talking about China's massive amount of social problem and future lack of economy as once there economy is developed no business will want to settle there as China has a long history of stealing foreign tech from over seas business and gift wrapping it to there own making there credibility equal to ISIS. India would be a more likely comeptetor to the US honestly China may look well off but there easily having the hardest time of any other country and this will likely not change any time soon as corruption poverty and there habit of making enemies with everyone are factors that help slow there long term growth substantially. ShieldForm there is something you are missing here. Masjid Al Aqsa in Jerusalem is a holy mosque to us as Prophet Muhammad Pbuh received the second pillar of Islam i.e the muslim prayer, namaz in Al Aqsa during the night he ascended to the heavens and it is the third most important religious site to the muslims. Yes it is mentioned in the Quran that jews were a part of israel but it is also mentioned that you were driven out as a punishment for your own wrongdoing(as is mentioned in the original text of the bible,which has not been corrupted). Now look, you living in present day israel peacefully without driving out the arabs from haifa and numerous other cities and villages, without making their lives living hell,without killing them & taking away their possessions,without wanting to expand your country from nile to the euphrates might've been fine & we could've lived cordially maybe. But it is clear from the invasions of a number of countries like syria iraq etc etc And the hostility towards iran & the other countries and your setting up coups in egypt and other countries that you want to expand your borders, no doubt about it! There are people who are still born with deformities in there. The biggest form of terrorism in this world today is state sponsored terrorism in palestine, in iraq, libya, syria, venezuela(very soon) & the perpetrators aren't muslims. We have a right to stand up against this tyranny. Not for killing innocents but the politicians and the occupying armies deserve nothing less than death for bringing death & destruction to millions of people around the world. And we not wanting illegal immigrants has nothing to do with the middle eastern warfare. Even if we stopped the wars, the illegal immigrants or refugees would have ran to the west either way because of those bastards in the middle east like ISIS and Al Qaeda. Saying that US not being involved in the Middle east will prevent illegal immigration is like saying that the west shouldn't have existed at all. The reason why people immigrate to the west is because of denocracy, which the middle east doesn't have. And yes, we are ok to those who come here legally but not illegally. And what storm? There was literally a dust storm in Golan Heights that prevented ISIS from attacking Israel. And you do realize that ISIS isn't attacking Israel because its main goal is to take over the muslim part of the middle east so that they can have a chance against Israel. andrew lee 1) Ok so you're saying that 9/11 was your reason for setting about killing people half way across the world! Firstly, there are tens & hundreds of theories which suggest that 9/11 was an inside job, which prove that your own people did it so that you could have a reason to colonise the middle east. This isn't me who's saying this, i've seen common americans as well as europeans supporting this notion. Even ex marines have come out to openly admit that the US is just being used as a bitch by israel for fighting their wars (eg. Ken O Keefe, a former US marine, you can check out his youtube channel as well) Now lets say for a second that it wasn't a false flag, alright then, who do you put the blame on? A man living in the caves of Afghanistan with no knowledge or technical know how of how to fly a plane let alone hijack & ram it into twin towers of the most military advanced nation of the world! Are you this dumb to believe this bs or are you a lying snake like them? Ok lets say that he did it! He was responsible it & there goes mighty heroic america to get revenge! Lets say for a second that you're invasion of Afghanistan in which you killed millions of innocent people most of whom didn't even know where america is on the map! You fought the Taliban which you had earlier created yourselves. But tell me for God's sake what justifies your occupation in Iraq? WMD's? Where the hell are those wmd's you went there for? And what about Libya? Who the fuck gave you the right to deliver your style of governance to people who didn't want any of it? Was there resistance to the dictatorships & did you want to help those people? What good did you bring to them now? You are responsible for the ISIS, you are responsible for the mess those countries are in! I firmly believe that the ISIS is nothing more than your own creation just like the Taliban was! You are preparing to wage war against venezuela now again using the same old rhetoric of helping out people in need! I say it is all bullshit! You need to get your head out of your butt and realise that all this is nothing but lies & you need to stay in your country and practise & preach your demoshit to yourselves & not impose your thinking & your ideologies on people who don't want any of it! And for heavens sake tell me when was there a migrant crisis in europe before these invasions? It increased abruptly after the syrian war! Why would those people want to live in any other country if they were living happily in their own. You sir are responsible for the mess in your own countries and the other countries in the world as well! You have no one to blame but yourself! So before you go off on all the shit which has been fed to you by your media & the stuff you check out on the internet, you need to put that waving finger down & you need to point it towards yourself & realise how evil your governments are.

Dali P First of all, what terrorist group did the Russians defeat? ISSI? The largest contributors for the fall of ISIS was by Syrian rebels as well as the Western forces, mostly the US. Russia only put little efforts into exterminating the terrorist group. And the US couldn't defeat the taliban since it keeps using civilians and hides among the populace", making it harder for the US to kill the terrorist group without creatong an oitery from the muslim populations. The Russians will probably go in and just kill everything in sight if they were to exterminate Taliban faster than the US. What we are doing in Afghanistan may look stupid, but if the Russians were to do the job for us, a lot more innocents would have died since the Russians would have focused on speeding up the war, unlike the US, who tries to avoid killing civilians.	Terrorist	Religious Identity - Muslim	3/149	2.013
--	-----------	-----------------------------	-------	-------

Dali P	Dali P	You do realize that if 90 of drone strike casualties were really civilians, Obama and Bush would have to resign from Presidentcy. And also, 70-80 of the casualties are terrorists. I don't know where you got your statistics but something like that is just plain stupid. If that many civilians died, Obama and Bush, as well as Trump, would have had to resign Presidency. And now you are moving to who supported who? Sure, the US supports Saudi Arabia, who as of now makes a lot of wrong doings yet they are trying to reform. Yet look at Syria and Iran, who Russia supports. Syria uses chemical weapons on their own people and Iran has a more stricter regime than Saudi Arabia. Plus, of all middle eastern countries, they are probably most likely to trigger a nuclear fallout. And due to this, Israel is ramping up its nuclear defenses. And remember when Russia contributed to a genocide that were even larger than the holocaust. Not only that, they now use flamethrowers to clear bunkers. So think about this, terrorists use civilians as human shields, and when both are in a bunker, guess what? Pop comes out the Russian and burns the two people to crisps. Although I don't care what happens to the terrorists in its matter of how it dies, the civilian will get killed just the same as the terrorist . You can say that 20-30 of civilians still died from US strikes, but Russia is still worse. And compared to all the countries the US supported, Russia supports some that are far worse. And guess what, during ww1 and ww2, it is still true that the entrance of the US was a big contributor of changing the tides of war. Sure, Stalingrad was important but when the US entered, the Allies were able to push back the Nazis back more easily. And also, if you think the US didn't contribute any during the two world wars, then why do you even bother to complain. Russia does it as well, and maybe all the other Allie members as well. Everyone contributed, except each country has its own sense of patriotism therefore they will tell thier children that they did the most work. And its not our fault Russia sent all those unprepared troops at once during both wars. Heck, the US still played a key role as it supplied loads of equipment and ships to the Allies before it entered. And the US was the spear head in the Pacific theatre, where the Japanese presented a large threat to individual democracy to the asian continent, although nost of the asian countries were changed into communism right after their liberation. andrew leeI am German and belive me, it's mandatory in our country to learn about ww1 and ww2, since the back then governments were responsible for them. In 1944 the fall of Berlin was just a matter of time and not the question whether win or lose.. The only reason us troops landed in France was to stop the soviet army as early as possible. The strong resistance of the remaining german troops forced the western allies to bomb the shit out of almost every big city, to break the resistance as fast as possible, even at the price of hundreds of thousands civil casualties. The first reason was the fear that the soviets might take over whole Europe and isolate GB. The second reason was the fear of loosing all the efforts in science and mechanics developed by Germany during the war to the soviets. It was just a side effect that western Germany developed so good after the war, it was a prestige project to show the whole world that capitalism is the better system. Its was one country divided in the western capitalist part and the eastern communist part. So the us pumped billions of dollar in western Germany to show the whole world that the capitalism is the superior system. Since that day we lost our sovereignty and were forced into the could war. And again after the soviets lost 28 million people in this horrific war, Germany was dragged in a conflict against Russia. Everything this sick basterd hilter dreamed of was achieved by the USA. This country was biuld on blood and bones. Beginning with the genocide on the indigenous people of America and then continued by the slavery of the black people, justified by the old testament. So don't you dare to speak about genocide and protecting the USA in the same time! In 2003 the us invaded Iraq and killed estimated 150k to 1.5 million people in this war, that evidently based on a lie spread by the Bush government. Human rights watch is the source in case of all drone casualties. And did something happend to bush or Obama? All of them are considered patriots and heroes. Libya was crushed in 2011 by Obama under the pressure from Hillary Clinton. Once it was the richest country in Africa, now its the main checkpoint for refugees heading to Europe. Isil is spreading across Libya and from there it will spread further to other african muslim countries suffering poverty, the best base for extrimism. The us supported Saddam Hussein with all kinds of weaponry, including chemical weapons, against iran im the 1970s. And today again, almost 30 years after the sovijetunion collapsed, the USA is dragging Europe in a war with Russia, using the Ukraine as a proxy. After all the shit the us did in thr middle east and latin america, stop washing your hands in innocence and blaming other for crimes you committed several times in your barely 300 years of history!	African, Black, Communist, Old	Ideological and Political Identity - General, Age - Over 65s, Ethnicity - Black	4/502	0.797

I hate that all this money in America e.c.t. is being spent on military, 100s of billions of dollars. Who does trump think would invade america? Yet he's unwilling to spend the money to provide universal healthcare for Americans-something that the senator of california Kamala Haris (who is running for democrat nominee for the presidential race in 2020) vows to introduce. Noone in the world wants war, yet all these country have massive military budgets for no reason. The money Britain spent on the Iraq war was enough to completely replant the Amazon rainforest to its former size, and basically save one of our main sources of oxygen. America by pop up William Blair Im glad i never have, and i agree, in war there is no winners only, the only good thing that come from war is two things, which both world wars are evidence of, 1: We have this weird ability to make leaps in technological advances in both warfare and tech in general, which mostly is what all consumer products are based from or even found civilian usage for it. So innovation comes from our desperate need to find better ways or more scare ways to kill each other, that kind of tells a clear picture of us as a species. The optimistic side is that we often find peacuful usage for such tech in peace times. Second good thing, is both that medical science and knowledge is like tech something that takes leaps in progress during war, which will be gainful for us after(if we "humans" survive them), for an example penicillin was one of those huge discoveries during wartime. And what was the best thing after WW2, that most humans nnever wanted war to haöpen again on thar scale, and so far we have managed to duck most of those small incidents that start huge wars (aka assassins on monarchs and crazy mustache maffias taking germany hostage). But my feeling is, we are heading to some big problrms that tend to end in war, i. e global warming, food shortage, fight for the last resorces, i would guess Russia, China, North Korea will start a axis alliance, against Europe/USA/Canada/Japan. India and Pakistan will form an alliance with Iraq, Iran, Egypt, and Marocco, and they are propably content and will be happy if they manage for once defeat Israel? shaun humphreys are you stupid? America has a large military so OTHER countries don't attack us to, if America had a weak military other countries would probably attack, America recently had to get rid of the treaty banning Russia from building nukes because Russia started mass producing them, what do you think would happen if America didn't have a strong military while Russia builds thousands of nukes? With a strong military both sides are also less likely to attack because they don't want to be wiped off the face of the earth, plus what about if some evil dictator wanted to take over the world, they easily could if nobody has a military.	Nobody	Age - Youngsters	1/113	0.885

Iran and Isreal are fighting each other in Syria now that Isreali Secret Intelligence Service=ISIS has been unmasked. I instinctively knew it was them as they came outta nowhere and took over Oilfields. It was a no brainer and I doubt they really had anyone fooled except maybe someones gramma in Canada. Iran has been shooting missiles into Isreal but no worries as they got that IRON DOME. so it looks like they can hold off Russia,China and Iran combined as I hope the USA wont help them as they sunk the USS LIBERTY so they cant be trusted with our guys and ships on the line as they killed about 68 US NAVY sailors that day. why should the USA support Israel when they are founded and owned by Rothschilds as this Banking Familiy is know to play both sides in the conflicts they create and fund - as in WW2 when the Standard Oil Company sold 20 million Dollars of a special Aviation fuel additive to Nazi Germany that was needed to use their planes against Geat Britain in WW2. heres a cool video - one of many that explain who funded the wars and Nazi Germany [LINK]	Nazi	Ideological and Political Identity - General	2/200	1.0

Ter157ian Well they didn't really won, Israel was forced to stop the war and send our soldiers back because we had problems with UN ,it's hard to fight a guerrilla war, Hezbollah is a terrorist group they don't fight like an army, they fight dirty, so if Israel really wanted to win they will invade Lebanon and use their full military capabilities and eliminate Hezbollah but because we care about our soldiers and citizens we don't want casualties because we cherish our life instead of sending our children to die like the Muslim Arab country doings so we stopped. Nobody talks about that, people need to educate themselves. Also when we started to bomb them with Planes the cowards used the citizens to hide behind them and many citizens died because of that and then Israel seemed evil again to the world, but what the world don't realize is we fight against terrorism, this is way different than fighting an army. I'm not Jew but I'm talking from experience living here in Israel and witnessing all what other people from around the world don't, trust me the reality is different than what people think. Propoganda really is working against us.	Nobody, Terrorist	Age - Youngsters, Religious Identity - Muslim	2/199	1.005

Ter157ian Really I thought people will understand what I said, you believe in propoganda and that's sad, you seem to like the evil side based on what you wrote, that greater Israel is propoganda bullshit don't be naive to believe the evil people who are turning humans against Israel. Yeah Hezbollah are one of the strongest terrorist groups but believe me they are nothing to Israel. And we can win against Iran also. But then Russia will support them and then Us will support us and it will be trouble. And get your facts right, they started the war by stealing our soldiers and firing rockets at the north of Israel. Don't ride on their cocks, realize that it's terrorists not heroes.And btw even some Iran citizens love Israel and want the evil government to collapse, they want freedom they had enough. Muslim countries need to do revolution against their leaders because we live in 2019 not in the bible days, they need to change their whole mentality which is another whole topic why they hate Israel and Christians.You think that we suddenly will attack buildings? They started the war by launching missiles to the north of Israel and stealing our soldiers and ambushing them, you think any country in the world will be quiet about that? No. Imgaine that happening in Russia, there will be heavy price for even 1 rocket landing in their land, we just had mercy because our army is the most humane army in the world and that's a fact check it.And the building had the cowards hiding in there behind civilization. It doesn't matter if racial identification, religion, and politics stopped existing, humanity will still find a way to hate one another, except there will be nothing for them to have in common except being a simple life form without any goals or moral foundations. Rod13 why has there been Palestinian people in refugee camps in surrounding countries for the last four decades? The international aid that Palestine receives from the Red Cross and others is in the hundreds of millions of dollars,with this money you would think that they would have the opportunity to stabilise their infrastructure,hospitals,and the money would get used correctly,do you realise that Palestinians have blown the whistle on major corruption within their political parties and the international aid,there are two sides to a story and then you have to evaluate the truth within the two sides, ISRAEL with out doubt has shown aggression towards the Palestinians,but the reason why is that they have been the longest persecuted peoples still living on this planet and now that they have grown stronger together by sticking with each other shows that they will never let this happen ever again by the help of the LORD. The university's around the world show the different empires that ruled through civilisation,and the chosen race the nation of ISRAEL has been acknowledged by the three Abrahamic faiths and historically has always been in that part of the world. There are jews from all over the globe and with technology today you're DNA is 99 accurate in regards to your nationality,people will criticise this comment saying that the Jews own and control everything which is not true,six billion people on this planet,a billion in India and another billion in China,so Asia has a third of the worlds population according to the statistics,jews are returning back to ISRAEL (aliyah) and there neighbors don't want a democratic country sitting in the Middle East that pushes a agenda that is against their beliefs,I understand that but however they also acknowledge that ISRAEL pre existed Christianity and Islam by three thousand years in that part of the world . The problem is propaganda getting fed to the West doesn't help,like I said there are people in power living very comfortable in this region and as long as Palestinians are oppressed the money will continue to keep coming in,don't you question why three generations of one people are still in camps and nothing has changed and yes there have been people that have came out whistleblowers and put their life and families lives in danger and if they were exposed you know they would be charged with treason. I belong to this beautiful place and I'm not a religious person but there is a lot of history in ISRAEL and is a centre piece of all the men of GOD,and today many Jews are returning for this same reason to identify themselves in this world you should read the history of the place and the people who walked the land,I believe in all honesty people are either envious that a little country like ISRAEL defeated their neighbors while being attacked from all directions or they have invested into the far left ideology imo	Nation, Nationality, Nothing, Race, Red, Refugee	Ideological and Political Identity - General, Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - General, Ethnicity - Native-American, Nationality - General	7/494	1.417

andrew lee If you beleive in Christianity and Judaism with original manuscript then basically you are part of a great religion and are part of "The people of the book" The true classical Islam always existed right before the beginning of time. It's core values where from Classical Judaism and Classical Christianity. All three religions were sent by god. But unfortunately White people changed and corrupted text, misguided the people from the synagogues and churches. This is why God sent a final revolution in the Holy Quran - because the Torah and Bible was corrupted by white people. If your one of those warmongering religious fanatic who believes in murder, bombing, looting of Palestinian land, then your basically a corrupted Jewish-Zionist/Christian/Wahab-Islamic person.Too much Fox news is not good for you. Then again, if you're white - then Its probably too late because your own people probably brainwashed you into believing you are the superior race and bombing killing looting other peoples houses and lives is a good thing.	Quran, Race	Ethnicity - General, Religious Identity - Muslim	2/169	1.183

Ronaldo	First of all, if christians and jews are corrupted, then muslims are just as corrupted as well. Second of all, I'm Asian and white supremacy never even corrupted Christianity, only secular desires used it to justify secular objectives. The same can be said about islam. For example, ISIS uses islam to justify their actions but yet they only have secular interests, power. If you really think fox is that bad, then you haven't seen the wntire main stream media in America, which is either just as bad or worse. For example, buzzfeed, MTV, CNN and MSNBC. And when did christianity or even this white supremacy of yours ever say bombing and looting people were ever good? That was not in the bible nor any code of white supremacy. That is called the human being. Humans will want to destroy each other and take things from each other. The crap you're doing right now is an example of stereotyping. You're making it seem like islam and maybe even the arabics are better than the christians or even the white people, which proves that arabic supremacy is just as bad as white supremacy. White supremacy means that the white people are the superior race, which is not true as each race is good at its own thing. However, what you are saying is that you are putting islam and possibly arabic races above all else, especially white people or christians and jews, which is just bad. No human being is perfect, whether you are European desceny or Arabic descent or whatever you are. So is Christianity. Even the bible confirms that no christians can be perfect as they are still a sinful human. And if Islam truly believes in the same God as Christianity, then even the muslims are imperfect. So is the jews. Sure, the atrocities against the Palestinians are bad, but the jews had to go through something worse, and christianity had suffered for longer than jews or the palestinians. And even if Israel never killed Palestinians, the entire middle east would have still been at their throats for being jewish. They would have been ok with israel if it were muslim, but because they are jewish, they are constantly at the threat of an attack.	Race	Ethnicity - General	2/378	0.529

Ronaldo	If you want to blame a country for hijacking Islam, blame Syria and Iran. Their leaders are more of a dictator than the leader of Saudi Arabia. And for your information, it is the US and its allies who takes down dictators, like Hitler and Hussein. And it was the US and its allies who won the Cold War over the oppressive Communist regimes. And the US never established dictatorships in the first place, they tried to establish a democratic government as they have always been doing. However, if there were to be a dictatorship, the establishes government reverted itself into dictatorship at will or the terrorists had them do it. And by looking at you arguments so far, you far more likely to have been brainwashed by Iran.	Communist	Ideological and Political Identity - General	1/131	0.763

History buff and when did christianity ever commit mass terrorism like the muslims in the US. If you think christians are the ones who are trying to destroy society, then give me your evidence. Because I already have proof of SJWs destroying America. For example, look at the feminists who say man spreading is bad when men really don't have a choice but to provide space for their testicles. And can't you see how they claim they advocate gender equality but instead advocate more advantages for men. And not only that, look at the ANTIFA. They claim to fight against fascism, but where is this fascism? Because there is none, what do they do? They destroy property, desecrate the US flag, and harm counter protestors, who then takes all the blame if they fight back. Don't even use the white supremacists, whose goal is not even close to christianity but for only white supremacy. And by the way, it's the SJW who considered it ok to stereotype all white people as racist, even though the white people were the ones who helped them gain freedom from slavery. Not only that, it's the SJW who hold anti-American beliefs, putting other nationalities before America. Even though it is ok to respect other nationalities, it is not ok to prioritize them. It was also the SJW who called Trump supporters racist and fascist, even though most of them were not. And it is the sjw who support globalism and its open border policy, which can make it more easier for terrorists of all background to cross to any desired targets. It is the SJW who call all those who go against their beliefs as racist, sexist, homophobic, and a fascist, even if the accused are not a racist, sexist, homophobic, and/or fascist. And it's the SJW who think AR 15s are weapons of mass destruction and deny the fact that guns can protect households. Not only that, the SJW blamed good American citizens who own guns for the mass shootings as well as christians for the nazis and the kkk but claimed that islamic terrorism has nothing to do with islam. And besides if you really think that Christianity is the real scourge of humanity, then think again. Look at atheism, which was basic ideology of the Soviet Union that led them to kill millions of religious people, aside of some asian religions. This does not mean that all atheists are bad, but it only means your point is invalid. Not only that, it is the SJWs who advocate for socialism, which is only good for a limited topics, but not at the scale that the sjws advocate for. If you think christianity is destroying society, then that would only mean the SJWs were already destroying it in the first place. And don't even say about social justice back then because that has nothing to do with the chaotic thing called the SJWs we have today.	Gender, Homophobic, Nothing, Racist	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - General, Gender - General, Sexual Identity - General	9/493	1.826

hHistory buff Now that I am thinking about it, you will probably complain the comment was too long, so let me summarize it for you. Christianity was never a threat to America; however, the SJWs are the clear threat as its feminists try to create gender inequality against men, its ANTIFA attacking everything around them and calling it a fight against the so called fascism, some of its black protestors justifying stereotyping white people, and that it is anti-patriotic in the form of desecrating the US flag and the statue of liberty.	Black, Gender	Ethnicity - Black, Gender - General	2/92	2.174
hHistory buff In addition to that, atheism had presented a greater threat than chrisitanity in a span of few decades compared to the Spanish Catholic inquisition that was prolonged over several centuries (this does not mean athiests are bad people). And I forgot to mention, the taliban is an Islamic political movement which uses terrorist tactics but is not really a terrorist group as compared to ISIS and Al Qaeda, although they are all bad and an enemy to the US. That said, SJWs are more of a threat than your self created mental image of Christianity. andrew lee What a load of deranged codswallop! A study from 2015 basically stated that the arrival of Europeans killed 56 million people in the America's (The role of CO2 decline for the onset of Northern Hemisphere glaciation, Quaternary Science Reviews Volume 119, 1 July 2015, Pages 22-34, [LINK] . The cultural power that unleashed such a holocaust on the first nation peoples of the america's was the catholic church. That's 56 million dead caused by a culture (white European) lead by the church. ISIS, Al Qada and the Taliban together have never come close to killing 56 million people. The Christians are the real terrorists of this world, a terror that has been going on for 2000 years. Also, when was the last time atheists killed that many people? Dude your delusional if you think atheists are a danger to anyone. The Christian Taliabn are the real terrorists in US society. Last year 2000 people were killed by right wing extremists. Zero people were killed by SJW atheists.	Nation, Zero	Age - Youngsters, Nationality - General	2/168	1.19

hIstory buff Yet the Europeans who came here who actually killed all those natives were those who seeked power and wealth which were all secular objectives. They only had missionaries with them so that the catholic church to back up their voyages. Even if atheism created ways to reduce CO2 emmisions, but that is only in the matter of secular science. I am talking about a secular government who killed people with different religious or political beliefs. Sure, the muslims never killed that many, including all the killings due to secular goals, we would have never known since they never reached main land Europe nor created boats made for voyages. And like I said, Stalin was an athiest who wanted a secular government controlling a secular society in which nothing can be place above him or the government. And another thing, you are the exact proof of why SJWs are destroying society TO THIS DAY. Not yesterday nor 2 millenniums ago, but today. You base lie to yourselves and everyone by saying that the white supremacists or the neonazis are evil for saying that all muslims are terrorists because of the actions of the few, yet you claim all christians are evil to those who killed for secular objectives, but only used the church to back them up. And destruction of society does not always require death. It could also include the degradation of morality, logic, and culture. And for the most part, this was done by the SJW to sooth their hurt feelings. And what these so-called christians did back then was only of the past and is not happening in the present. This still is an atrocity, but the killings were mostly at the fault of sickness. And the last time I checked, diseases didn't have any religious affiliations nor seeked one out to fund their conquest. But on the other hand, the SJWs never killed anybody, but did somethung that is the true threat to the American Society, threaten to assassinate the US president and as well as anyone who sided with him. And these killings by the "right" were done by the extreme alt-right, not people with conservative beliefs, but by people of the actual alt-right. The left on the other hand only escalated the tension, not only blaming this on the real alt-right, but as well as people who do not have alt right values, but only labeled as one by the left, and people with only moderate right wing values. Even if SJWs never killed anyone, they are still doing harm to society either way. And like I said, the taliban is a political group that uses terrorist tactics. But also, there was never any fully dedicated and organized christian terrorist group, neonazis and kkk are only white supremacists and not christian terrorist groups, in America. Muslims on the other hand does have one. But I have to admit that I am thankful that you read the entire comments, unlike other people who only complain that they can't read a long comment.	Nothing, Terrorist	Age - Youngsters, Religious Identity - Muslim	4/508	0.787

Bnayahu Zanadni he used common sense. For example, students are thought that "bad harvests" caused the French revolution. But bad harvests for many consecutive years don't just happen. And if you read in the other history books, these books talk about the free masons who bought up all the grain to make the people starve and revolt against that king, and the free masons can rise to power. This is just one of many examples.	Common	Social Class - Working class	1/75	1.333
Dark Knight So you use common sense to learn about history xDWell according to common sense Israel lost in the war against 6+ countries and Palestine exists today, with all the Arabs living inside.Anyone that says Israel won the first war and all the Jews are alive in Israel is editing history.Because according to common sense Israel would lose that warYou can't learn facts from common sense, because common sense isn't factual, common sense is based on believing something happened because it makes sense	Common	Social Class - Working class	6/88	6.818

Dark Knight big surprise: Israel did offer the Palestinian the land back. They rejected it because they don't just want the land back, they want the Jews out of it too.Big surprise: Israel already gave them land back despite that the Palestinians wouldn't agree to peace, Israel gave thme back the west bank and Gaza.And there's now Palestinians living in Israel with every human right, meanwhile an Israeli living in Gaza can't be a thing.But apparently that's just edited history, according to common sense none of this happenedSo how did the Palestinians get Gaza and west bank? And how can Palestinians live in Israel with every right a Jew has and be a lawyer or a politician if it's not a kind country?	Common	Social Class - Working class	1/127	0.787
Dark Knight I didn't "hear" that Palestinians have rights in Israel, I know that because I can ask my Palestinian neighbor, which lives next to me with every human right. In Israel there are Palestinian politicians and lawyers, they can get a good job and live a normal life. The only places Palestinians live horribly is in Gaza and west bank, which is outside of Israel territory, and it's not because of Israel. Israel doesn't control them.But of course you wouldn't know that, you basing everything your saying on "common sense"	Common	Social Class - Working class	1/92	1.087

Says the paid member of the Israeli Internet Water Army. [LINK] The Czar Nicolas of Russia was related to the Royal Bloodline of Europe. He was wise to the Rothschilds Plan to install a Central Banking System to control the Value of every currency of every Nation. His resistance to these plans sealed his fate and the fate of his family as they were murdered. there are videos here on youtube that actually show these evil Bankers visiting Russia and planning and moving their people into position to takeover the seats of power and when they moved in not a single shot was needed to be fired. a few years earlier,in 1910 there was a secret meeting and this meeting and plan are detailed in the book 'The Creature from Jekyll Island' The main idea behind this book is a fairly simple one: the Federal Reserve Bank is a serious problem for the wellbeing of the American citizens. It was created at a secret meeting on Jekyll Island in 1910 by the richest people of that age. And its only objective is to keep the money away from the normal people and in the richest pockets for all times. After President Woodrow Wilson was threatened into signing these Banksters 100 year agreement with the US Government to be in control of valuation and loaning of the US Dollar to the US Government at 10 interest he was depressed and demoralized and said he had just agreed to Enslave future generations of the unborn citizens of the United States. we all must realize that these same Bankers are trying to rewrite Historical Facts as found on the internet just as they have sought to control the very schools and curriculum taught in many schools across the land. The Rothschilds have hired many thousands of internet spies and commenters to ridicule anyone that exposes the truth of their manipulations of historic fact and are on chat rooms, forums, and youtube etc. These same Bankers Families Founded Israel and have manipulated many Nations into War and are responsible for the Deaths of Millions of people. After learning about the fate of the USS Liberty and the loss of 58 US Navy Sailors I realized that those people are not to be trusted and they should be able to defend their own territory as they brag so much on the internet and then mention that some black dude should sodomise us for waking up to the fact that they are stupid and that the people of the USA have realized what a buncha losers they really are. enjoy your iron dome and the cupcakes your friends in Russia,China and Iran will be sending you very soon. Paul Reed relations with China and Russia are good, Iran’s military is stuck in the 70’s plus we have our ways to protect from bigger missiles than a BM Grad.I agree, the Rothschild banking system has fucked up the world but the sad thing is - and it goes out for all of the history - it’s only the jews to blame? Where is the Rockfeller family in that manifesto you’ve just wrote? Or Du Pont? Or Morgan? I mean you CAN blame the jews, again, for everything but that just makes you a racist, observing and criticising a certain group of people for an action done by a lot more of that said ethnic group of people.If you gonna attack the jews for rulling the world, atleast gather all of the needed information.The USS liberty is kind of a false flag operation, Im pretty sure that you know the definition of that and yoy gotta ask yourself something very simple, your answer to yourslef will astound you, ready? sami hirsh and that's what you (heard) and not (seen) . I'm talking to you about what I've (experienced) . I was born in Lebanon, and couldn't go to my hometown because of the Israeli occupation in the south of Lebanon. There were no terrorists , there was an invasion and the people had the right to form a resistance . So again , if you don't know the whole truth then say I don't know , lot of families were killed , lot of moms lost their children and of kids lost their parents back then , and you saying this is very cruel and ignorant . If Israel finished their goal like you said back then , they wouldn't try to enter again brother , you get what I mean ? They tried again in 2006 with their advanced planes and failed , and they killed lots of civilians in the process to put the pressure on the resistance to surrender their weapons and give up the war . Doesn't that sound like a terrorist nation to you , occupying other countries and killing civilians at war .	Nation, Terrorist	Nationality - General, Religious Identity - Muslim	2/190	1.053
MrUrchu they lost on a military scale , Lebanon lost civilians , Israel stopped the attacks after receiving multiple missiles to the city of tal abib . Lebanon received air strikes so many that some areas had no building anymore, getting civilians buried underneath . When you are an occupier trying to invade then stop your invasion , that is called what , a defeat in war , not a tie , and when you lose civilians , that doesn't mean you lost but only means the enemy is a terrorist nation killing civilians to tighten the pressure on your chest so you can surrender the war . They lost and they ate shit too	Nation, Terrorist	Nationality - General, Religious Identity - Muslim	2/115	1.739

MrUrchu I promised myself not to get involved with trash people like you but I'll make an exception in your case , I'm more than sure that your mama is pregnant right now in both her big fat vagina and bigger asshole . Fat	Physical Identity - Physical Features	1/82	1.22
Jannah Christi Damisela you can be very shocked if you can see the real horror . Footage of civilians , babies , women , burried under rubble or burned by chemical bombs . Israel couldn't even face the resistance on foot , so they used their planes and killed a lot of people that had nothing to do with the war, all to put pressure on the resistance to surrender . Israel left everything behind , tanks , missiles , drones , bunkers and even dead and captive soldiers . You should see that british journalist who is exposing how it all began , I think his name is Chris but not sure .	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/114	0.877

sami hirsh didn't see your comments there but now I have . USA funded Al Taliban , which turned into Al Ka3ida as you said which turned into ISIS . You know half the story , ISIS wasn't created alone with advanced production and cameras and so on . Even having them executing American journalists was all staged since there was no fear and not even close to enough amount of blood while beheading . That said , lot of Jews who live in USA are against Israel and what they got of agenda , you just see the media controlled by your own government and you have to agree that media is the biggest weapon of war these days . I'm not a politician but when you are born and raised in warzones , witnessing wars with your own eyes and wondering why the hell is the world sitting their asses down and not doing anything to stop the killings and oppression. Then you come to see that they are actually in it really deep , and for what , the survival of Israel, no matter how much it takes , they will protect Israel by helping them kill the Palestinians, and this is the biggest issue with Israelites, they want more land , which explains why they were in the Lebanese south . Somewhere around 1917 , Britain took the call and gave the jews someone else's home , Palestine, after the jews were killed , burned and prosecuted, they needed a new home to stay , even if they were the poorest people on earth , nobody has that right to give somebody else's land , Britain didn't have that right . All the time , Christians and Muslims lived without discrimination in Palestine, until Britain gave the Zionist jews Palestine which made the Palestinians retaliate after seeing that they are being kicked out of their own land , lured into the inside to be cornered with big media and world coverage . So the Lebanese resistance is taking this cause upon itself to save and liberate Palestine which will happen in the future. So I'm gonna ask you this question and I want you to be honest in answering and very relevant . What right did Britain have to give someone else's home to the jews? Second , why does USA cover everything up , from funding the terrorists , to media coverage on Palestine which they know how it all began , and is it right just because having a red carpet like Saudi Arabia for their own interests they must cover up their terror against Yemen and the region in the middle east ? What right they all had	Nobody, Red	Ideological and Political Identity - General, Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Native- American	3/455	0.659

Ivan non taken . I'm a Christian and familiar with the Aramaic bible since it's close to Arabic. The land wasn't given to the Israelis, it wasn't even called Israel. The prophet's name changed to Israel, so they called it Israel referring to the land of the sons of Israel. And noting that we don't take the old testament anymore since the church teaches us that Jesus came to relieve us from the old testament , now you want to take this into account that the land is theirs ? What about that God isn't a man nor the son of man , what about the porn , what about the creation errors ? Either let the old testament go as a whole or take it all . The British can confirm and they admit that they gave Palestine to the jews and then made it biblical. Why do you think they manipulated the old testament ? It is all a conspiracy but you can never deny the facts that they gave them Palestine and things went to shit	Old	Age - Over 65s	4/179	2.235
/boobdu off course the media would say that lol by just recording the Israeli helmets and dog tags , you can count over 200 easily . Did you know that the Merkava tank deal was canceled and Israel lost lot of deals because of the war ? They destroyed 20 tanks in a valley now known as a merkava graveyard. They claimed that the merkava can't be destroyed for it's anti rocket system , when it got destroyed , Europe canceled their deals buying it . And actually Lebanon lost more than 1000 casualties , 99 of them are civilians . It was a massacre so it's ignorant to speak of such monstrosity if you got no actual knowledge. I pray what happened in Lebanon won't happen to anyone ever again . Israel is a terrorist nation and soon to be vanished	Nation, Terrorist	Nationality - General, Religious Identity - Muslim	2/143	1.399
/boobdu that's called faith . The Aramaic bible and a book called Al Jafer witnesses that Israel will vanish , when it does , Jesus Christ will rise from there . Wasn't it them in the first place who wanted to kill him ? It is a terrorist nation ever since and it still is . Lot of Arab countries are bribed and bought unfortunately by the U.S. government like Saudi Arabia, it is America's escape goat . They have common interests , plus USA made Saudi Arabia what it is today after turning their desert into a jungle . But there are Arab countries like Syria, Iran, Iraq and the Lebanese resistance who are standing for oppression . That's why these counties are fought , they are the only ones carrying the cause to liberate Palestine from the genocide. In Lebanon back in 2006 when the Israeli attacked Lebanon , they only bombed and attacked Shia Muslim areas in the south , this is why I only included the Lebanese resistance, and not the whole of Lebanon, the plan was always against the Shia Muslim countries for they are the only ones following that cause , and the areas that were occupied by Israel in Lebanon were in the south for the majority are Shia and I'm from a village where Shia and Christians live together .	Common, Nation, Terrorist	Nationality - General, Religious Identity - Muslim, Social Class - Working class	3/229	1.31

I think the title should read 10 countries that would be difficult to invade. Impossible means just that, you just couldn't do it. There are a few countries on this list that may fall into the impossible category but there is always someone dumb enough to try something. The video was correct regarding the amount if people that are armed in the USA. The right to bear arms is a serious thing in parts if the USA. The Northern border is pretty much Canada so I think the USA is rightfully 1. A Gallup poll taken had almost every other household in the US as a household carrying a weapon of some sort. So it would be a difficult task for any country to try. Not to mention if we were invaded, the patriotism in most all Americans would come out. That would mean every other household armed would change in a hurry to more like 75 to 80 of households.	Dumb	Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	1/161	0.621

starwarsrebel2006 yes 1967. Never forget... lol. It was not like they succeeded at invasion or even took a piece of land. It was more of them trying to take some province but not being able to but still defeating the Indian army. Many believe that it was because India had just fought and won a war with Pakistan and as they sat down to enjoy their victory, the Chinese had attacked. It was an intense situation and there was no budget left for funding the military to fight there. No supplies either. It was such a tragedy that the Prime Minister himself had to beg the citizens to fund them, over radio and speeches. One of the very rich Nawabs heard him over the radio and called him to his mansion. Then he literally opened his entire treasury for the funding. He gave some tons of gold off in boxes that the PM carried back in his planes. That was a great deed. But at last, the victory was in the expected hands. Some say that after the war, less than a decade later, Indian army took revenge which is technically true. There was another attempt by Chinese to invade but then Indian army killed hundreds of their soldiers instead.	Indian	Ethnicity - Native-American	3/210	1.429

alister moore Battles are fought in the air, above and beneath the water, but wars can only be won on the ground. If nukes are not counted, Chinese have the strongest defensive force in the world. Not to mention that the number of all warships in the world is not even close to the 1/20 of DF missiles they have... This means even America doesn't have the ability to deliver military aircrafts to as close as 2000km away from the Chinese coasts. Yes Mig21s are still in service in China, but the majority are J-10 and J-11(Su27), and they have the ability to mass produce J15s and J-20s if there is urgent need. At full capacity, the estimated rate of production can be at least 70 per month. Chinese armor forces are only second to Russian's. According to newest estimation, Chinese APFSDS shells can penetrate 400mm/60° RHA steel at 2000m, more than enough to penetrate any MBT's front armor. With the impossibility to deliver aircraft and accompanied lack of air supremacy, landing from the coast against countless missiles, anti-tank cannons, MBTs, is nearly impossible. While during 1980s China army also developed a series of primitive yet effective tactics against tank floods with only troops, which were conducted successfully during the boarder conflicts with Soviet Russia. Each Chinese infantry squad is equipped with at least 3 RPGs, with penetration of over 600mm armor, being able to destroy any tank on the side or rear. And the number of active soldiers in army alone is 2 million. India can try to invade China, but Himalaya will stall the transportation severely, and further pushing into the inner land has been proven impossible. The barrier is mutual, but since we're taking about the defending ability, there is no need to talk about the possibility of China invading India for now. Admittedly, there are a lot of outdated equipments in the Chinese military forces, but most of them are for training uses, since there is no solid threat near China for now. Many of you just ignorantly neglected the fact that China is currently the largest industrial country, with competent technology and productivity. It may not have the ability to control overseas territories, but defending itself is just too easy for it. Also, 80 modern Chinese military developments were accomplished in the past 20 years, after the the Cold War, meaning that it's reasonable of you all to make incorrect or incomplete conclusions out of context. Not to mention that during the Korean War, China has already shown its strength and potential of war with laggard technologies against the nato forces. All countries are possible to invade, just the price varies. Casualties resulted from invasion to China may not be acceptable. All these statements are still in a nuclear-free context. Instead of total destruction, China is still able to eliminate all major cities on the west coast of US. China is also at the leading position in the development of hypersonic weapons, which remain maneuverable and untraceable when reentering the atmosphere at more than 5Mach. Missile interception will be nearly impossible against Chinese ICBMs and the effective target range will be extended by a factor of at lowest 5 with the new warheads. Plus there is currently no cost effective reason to invade China, it remains safe as a nation from outside threats, as safe as America and Russia. Because israel, despite all its flaws (and it does have many)Is a developed, 1st world, safe (accept when the bloodthirsty arabs jump out of car with knives and guns) rich, democratic, librael, state, it's not the usa or australia, but it's still fairly advanced, and you prefer to live in a state like this instead of a shit hole ridden wite desease, murder, rape, authoritarianism, no human rights, radical islam, poverty and famen.Face, where ever islam goes islam destroys, your people bring nothing but death, violence and the 3 world to where ever you go, europe is a great example.And for that shit statement about europe hating israel? history tells us a differnt story.. form "coming into your country and telling You to split".. i will just keep it like this.. back at the early 19th century Jews did came Isarel (known as Palastine back then) those jews came form religues reasons.. and it was called the "old Velige" those jews didnt aim to create a country.. or Anything like that.. They just lived there like anyone else.. Just like the arabs.. that place to remind you belonged to Otteman empire , now as Jewdisem became a nantointly.. on the baces of common history lengugch and Culture (the actual Relgion became a culture..) there were a new type of Arrivels they were called the New Velige.. They aimed to create a country..the lands Jews settled on Were Brought form those same arabs.. or were given by the ottemans..those same jews over the years under otteman Crual region at ww1 and Under the brittish White book the Jews of the New Veliege also known as The Jewish Settleman Created an Econimc Political Powerhouse , they had an army , they had baiscly everything But the world Regection.. in the same time the arabins were effected by the jews and So the revliey beetwen them (it was and it grown deeper to what it is now..) Palastain country.. didnt exist Back then that place belong to ottems then bartish and Then Arabs Refused to take that same offer.. After the 47-48 war They Name changed To palastains To relete to the land , they werent ready to be a country hench why the sosity there collopsed so Eazly.. and in a inscene they baiscly all runned a way (the refuge problom comes form here..) meaning The statement that says "its the palastain country"its wrong.. Cuz jews brought that land form palastains , jews were given land by the ottemans and idea of a country to the arabs didnt Came untill like the 1925.. and arabiens were offered a country by the U.N at 1947 and they refused. So we are looking here in a legit country that wasnt created by illegal Means , they didnt killed arabs Before the war (we all know war means people die at both side..) So what do we have now? This very debate beetwen the two sides.. Arabs Were offered a country 5 times by now , refused , the Only way palastains will Have a country of thier very own will Be that Hamas and Palastain govrment will stop fighting and Start negosting with the isarels and Accpeting Terms.. isareliens dont want 2.5m palastains In thier Country , they hate gaza being a spike they cant remove without mistakingly killing 400k innoncent people with a single air raid You cant kill a country that has a nucler power , a start-up country and One of the highest tec-places with high siber-rearch on earth , that simply wont happend .The only passable country that will be is that the palastains Will be country like scoutland or One of the many states in the usa that has No army an independence laws And comman Coin it isarel aswell as a deal with isarel regeding water and enregy supply and Defance pact that Make it so that either defend the rest and Help stop terrorist and ofc will have its own voice in the U.N Regeding Jerslium , thats a tale for another story .. and btw.. its allready freaking sperted by a 20 foot wall in the middle of the city as if its bralien of the cold war all over again	Common, Old, Spike, Terrorist	Age - Over 65s, Religious Identity - Muslim, Religious Identity - Protestant, Social Class - Working class	4/600	0.667

you won't find a map with Palestine name in any map, because there were no division in the real Islam era. It's only empires. And EVERY empire included Palestine in it. YOU bring me a map with israel before 1947. The Holy Quran and history books says the Bani-israel are cursed by Allah to be scattered across the Earth. This is why you see pockets of Jews in Europe, middle East, Russia, West Asia, PALESTINE, And even Iran! But their origins is from ancient Egypt. That is where prophet Musaa(Moses) peace be upon him was sent to Bani-israel to guide them with the old testament and face the tyrant Pharaoh. After Musaa peace be upon him, Bani-israel lost their way, so they were scattered across the Earth by Allah's will. Allah sent Jesus Christ peace be upon him as a prophet to the group of Bani-israel that were in Palestine at the time, they betrayed him by false claim that Jesus was against the Roman emperor. Bani-israel betrayed their own prophet. They thought that Jesus Christ was crucified, but he never was, because Allah ascended him to the skies. Artsiom Pronin They aren't serious military powers compared to otherd and haven't been in a very long time. All arab states vs ISRAEL wich is basically backed up by the ENTIRE west, with billions in funds every year etc etc... It's not even a match. Compared to that, yes, they are just angry people with sticks. If Israel had no economical backing from these countries they'd be gone. If any serious force (like the us, even Germany or Russia, maybe even India or Iran) attacked them they would stand no chance. The video listed them as being impossible to invade for all the wrong reasons. They are impossible to invade - because the entire west is backing them up. Without the west, again in particular Gemany and USA the israelies wouldn't even have a country. Haha the racist card really? I never mentioned anything about a particular people, ethnographic/demographic/race or culture. I'm comparing military forces. In 1948 Israel and Arab countries advanced on the lands destined for the Palestinians by the United Nations. The former trying to conquer EVERY Palestinian territory, and the latter trying both to prevent a large influx of Palestinian refugees as well as to annex the remaining Palestinian territories before the Isarelians did so, on the grounds of defending the Palestinians from ethnic cleansing ("Nakba"). Everyone won, though not as much as they wanted. Only the Palestinians lost, and lost big.In 1956 Israel, Britain and France took the Suez Canal from Egypt. US and Soviet Russia, momentarily leaving their differences aside, under the banner of the UN forced a humiliating withdrawal of the three.In the 1st 2 decades of the 21st century, the world has seen Israel forced to withdraw from southern Lebanon and Gaza by 2 guerrilla groups (which use, among other tactics, the retail terrorism against State terrorism).Israel, despite repeated provocations against Hamas at the border, whose retaliation was used as a pretext for incursions aimed at free practice of state terrorism against sieged Gaza's population, failed to overthrow or destabilize Hamas on both occasions, achieving nothing more of the low of its own worldwide popularity. David, i get tired of educating closed minded imbeciles such as yourself. You are like a giant hemorrhoid larger than the bells in the Roman Cathedral !! Put your purse down, grab your security blanket and educate yourself.Strange Bedfellows: Israhell has been stealing American technology and industrial secrets to China for decades. Israhell has invested heavily in Chinese manufacturing and then forces US companies to open shop in China. Israhells plan is to crush America while making China the new Worlds Suoer Power, all for Jew profits!China and Israel Eric S. Margolis The first-ever visit by a Chinese head of state to Israel seemed at first glance rather curious. China, a longtime political and military supporter of the Arabs and Iran, used to denounce Israel as a 'running dog of US imperialism' and 'a racist-fascist state?' So what was President Jiang Zemin doing hobnobbing in Israel? Jiang had two objectives: a. deepen the secret 20-year military relationship between China and Israel; b. by openly befriending Israel, counteract growing anti-Chinese feeling in Congress that threatens both China's exports to the US, and its admission to the World Trade Organization. . . The normally pro-Israeli Clinton Administration, however, is not pleased. William Cohen, the US Secretary of Defense, recently unleashed an unprecedented public blast at Israel for selling advanced military technology to China that could threaten American forces in the event of a clash with China over Taiwan. Cohen demanded Israel cancel the US $1-2 billion sale of 3-5 AWACS airborne radar aircraft to China. Israel refused, though it may only sell China one of the Russian aircraft equipped with an Israeli 'Phalcon' advanced radar/electronic warfare system, developed from the US 'Hawkeye' AWACS system, at least until the heat subsides. Former CIA Director James Woolsey testified Israel has covertly sold 'several billions' of dollars worth of top-secret US technology to China since 1983. The Inspector General of the US State Department found, in a 1992 report, a 'systematic and growing pattern' of Israel selling American military technology in direct violation of US law. That report concluded Israel was supplying arms based on restricted American technology to China, Chile, Ethiopia, and South Africa, all of whom then under US arms embargo. The Pentagon has claimed since the mid-1980's that Israel simply copies or reverse engineers secret US defense technology and then exports it even on occasion, it is whispered, to Russia. Until now, Israel's influential friends on Capital Hill managed to downplay or cover up these serious charges. The transfer of billions worth of advanced US military technology to Israel, under the innocuous title of 'Technical Data Packages,' was arranged by Israel's American supporters, beginning in 1970. This massive infusion of secret US weapons and electronics technology the largest ever to another nation allowed Israel to develop state-of-the art military industries that exported some $1.5-2 billion annually (40 of its total exports by the late 1980's), and which became the nation's largest employer. Israel is now the world's sixth largest arms exporter. In some cases, Israel improved on US weapons and electronics systems. Pentagon sources charge Israel 'backdoored' US technology to China for the Patriot AA missile, other surface-to-air missiles; the PL-8 air-to-air missiles; C-802 anti-ship	Engineers, Nation	Nationality - General	2/948	0.211

Chinedu Opara what your talking about sounds like day dreaming and is not realistic. If 1,000,000 that dont know how to use guns start shooting them off randomly, they will end up killing more people than 1,000,000 trained people. Being trained makes you more effective, but everyone knows (or maybe not cuz we have had some peaceful times) that a wild beast is more dangerous than a trained animal, mainly because of the unotdictability. And in a war, when faced with unpredictability, you are gonna end up losing a lot. People with guns that don't know how and when to use it, will use it everywhere. A trained soldier will try to conserve ammo and think logically. So yes crazy American that spend all day every day of their free time practicing shots would go ham on invading soldiers. But if WMDs are involved... we can only pray to GOD. Actually scratch that, I will pray to GOD right now for protection. Thank you LORD JESUS! Gregory Smith Stop being an ass. If he wants to be rude that's his problem, I'm sorry if he doesn't understand what hes saying, but dont stoop to his level. Suicide is a crazy major problem in every country in the world and guess what. It is a major problem in the age groups of 14-28 in every country including OURS. Dont try to shame someone when you dont know their situation. This guy is probably laughing at those kids that decide to kill themselves with you. Dont involve them. It's not right for them to do that, but stress is real bro, and it manifests itself in everybody. So yes people might kill themselves because they couldn't get into school, but that sounds more like the last straw and not the only reason. People like to use excuses when suiciding because they think no one can understand their situation or accept them, so they see no point in explaining it. I think some stereotype like heart-break is the dumbest reason to kill oneself, theres at least 7,000,000,000 other people, out of which at least 1,000,000 qualify in terms of appropriate gender and age and looks, and at least 1,000,000 qualify in terms of location. So if you have that many options why get sad when you lose one? I think it's the same with the schools. Kids dont kill themselves becuase they didnt get into a school. They kills themselves because they DONT SEE any option left. I'm going on and on but I am investing my time in you because I believe you can and will be the bigger man. Thomas Breen know your enemy, know yourself, and you will know exactly what happens, and how to make things happen. America has the best intelligence and counterintelligence personnel in the world. And it's because of the reason above. It doesn't matter what happens. America will always win because they've prepared for everything. Computers and A.I. were developed because of the American Military trying to calculate every single possibility in every single second, in essence trying to create a super calculator, which became modern day computers. Honestly if someone wanted to invade a country, and I feel like this is really the first way ANY country would attack their enemy in the modern day, they would do it the easy way which is first take over the power supply. Then send crazy amounts of electricity through the lines, effectively electrocuting anyone or anything close or in contact (because yes electricity can travel through air, especially if there enough charge [Lightning]) and simultaneously causing fires in the whole country. Then you send a virus or packet over wifi or whatever frequency that would make people's batteries do the same thing and over charge, potentially causing all these electronics to explode. You should watch Kingsman, it kinda shows people how this could be achieved, and it's much simpler than what you see in the movies. What nobody else seems to be taking into account here is the US Navy. The first stopgap of an invasion is the Navy. They are the bulk of your anti-sea and anti-air as well as information on global troop movements on any and all armies. Our Navy is a behemoth completely unrivaled by even the combined forces of the Eurasian landmass. There's not an army on earth that could get near our shores unless we let them. You remember last year when China "let" the US park a fleet on their shores to keep tabs on NK? Do you think we'd ever let China do the same? No. Do you think they had a choice? Nope. We have minute-by-minute information updates on troop movements in those countries and payloads which can be deployed in seconds aimed at their capitols. It is not impossible to invade Iran, Iraq had already proven that. The matter is whether or not an invading force could make Iran capitulate and that depends on the invading force being able to find senior Iranian leadership, specifically the supreme leader. Nazi Germany also had an extensive network of tunnels, they have even done specials on it and show just how extensive those tunnels are in various parts of the country. Fortress Europe was believed to be impregnable, yet the Allied Forces broke through its defenses on D-Day despite the huge number of casualties.1 Terrain is not impossible to overcome. It is benefit as well as a hindrance to the defending force because that rugged terrain also slows supply lines and reinforcements while making airstrikes against those targets more easy. The S would dominate the skies of Iran with or without allied forces. Stating Iran has not been invaded since WWII is meaningless. Germany, Russia, France, and many other countries haven't been invaded since WWII either. Also, when it comes to Iran's military force it would weaken upon a large scale invasion and there are significant portions of the populace that would resist the Iranian government and aid the invading force so long as that force appeared benevolent enough for them. Movements like the Green Movement are not dead inside Iran and there are also organizations like Jundollah that would take advantage of the chaos and conduct more terrorist attacks against the Iranian regime. Iran's defense is built on a house of cards.	Nazi, Senior, Terrorist	Ideological and Political Identity - General, Age - Over 65s, Religious Identity - Muslim	3/255	1.176

Dr. Smoothchild All I'm saying is diversity is forced upon Western nations when we don't want it. No African or Asian nations even care about diversity because they don't allow that. The Chinese have had Muslim concentration camps for years now.	African	Ethnicity - Black	1/41	2.439
Mr. Smoothchild Name one nation or empire in human history that was ethnically diverse and did not collapse and fall apart in a relatively (in terms of empire ages) short period of time. The more polyglot and diverse mix of cultures, the shorter the nation's lifespan.	Nation	Nationality - General	1/46	2.174
Imprdks1 What do you define as being a relative age for an empire? The Egyptian Empire was not destroyed due to the diverse people within its realm, which included the Veddoids who existed in what is now called the middle east whose population spanned all the way to what is now known as Afghanistan and the Dravidians whose people populated what is now called Pakistan and into southern tip of India. The Egyptians even traveled West covering Northern Africa. These peoples were destroyed by Barbarians from the frozen tundra of the North. These early European exterminated the Veddoids in Arabia and then continued east destroying the Dravidians along the way into India. Who were then relegated to the bottom of the society they established as untouchables. In India, Dravidians are considered cursed and must therefore suffer as a result of it. When the British invaded India and found the similarities between themselves and these early European who first colonized India they naturally assumed these cultural traditions as an extension of European intellectualism now Sanskrit is considered apart of the European family of languages. The Europeans who exterminated the Veddoids in the middle East became Arabs and Persians. The Hyksos, were a nomadic people who initiated the fall of Egypt, guess who they are now, it wasn't until in the 18th Dynasty having suffered colonization, upper Egypt requested assistance from Ethiopia to help expel these people. Egypt was then conquered by the Persians who took what they wanted and left. Then the Greeks came, followed by the Romans then the Arabs came in after to finish the job. Where are these peoples now who the European have claimed ownership as being theirs. I can appreciate your alarm. Egypt civilized Greece and Greece invaded Egypt under Ptolemy, who was a general under Alexander the homosexual . The greatest of the Ptolemy rulers was Cleopatra. Greece civilized Rome and Rome invaded Greece. Rome civilized Europe then became the Catholic Church to spare itself the anguish of defeat. You probably don't know any of this, rightly so. Since, history is written by victors you assume civilization came from the north then spread south by divine providence. Being in the frozen tundra and forced to mate with Neanderthal would make anyone crazy . mark hellings That article, I believe which is 5 you referenced, their is a subsection to that which articulates the country which is attacked has the privilege to enact that clause based on its own investigation. When the United States was attacked as a result of September 11. The United States relied on article 5 which warranted its allies to give it assistance to destroy Iraq and Afghanistan. When the United States went before the United Nation with its evidence which later turned out to be false. While the American government could claim a failure in its intelligence apparatus to the American people. The UN should have tried every country which participated in an illegal invasion. But, since America with its allies are the founding members of the UN. Well, you see the contradiction. America and her allies, the coalition of willing invaded and destroyed two countries illegally in this example. Where were the tribunals which persecuted Nazi war criminals, Serbian war criminals, Liberian war criminals, Iraqi war criminals, etc they were silent. While NATO destroys countless countries whose population assume NATO has some divine responsibility to govern the planet, as if colonization 2.0 was the new paradigm. The population of these alliance members are silent to the crimes perpetrated by their democratically elected governments. The only thing these population seemingly want to cry out against are the people who suffer. Who are then forced to migrate by foot. This complex is a delusion which is the result of that very same divine responsibility the Vatican told European is theirs which warranted western civilization to civilized the planet by any mean necessary then thanked god for its success. Noah William There's not going to be a Nazi revolution. The average age in the western world is like 40. You need young people for a revolution, not old people. And Nazis in Germany in 1930s still only got 37 of the vote. Despite Germany being more racist back then, despite the treaty of Versailles, and despite their being an economic depression and a communist threat, the MAJORITY of Germans STILL didn't want to vote for the Nazis. Not really. These people are ALLOWED to flood our countries by bleeding heart Feminist women & Liberal men who are the majority voters in most Western countries. They believe we are obligated to 'help' these people because they think historical colonialism is to blame for Third World countries being so shitty. So they vote time & again for politicians who promise to open the borders to 'refugees' for any of reasons.Perhaps the biggest reason is that migrants have more kids to grow our populace. This will eventually replace the current majority who don't breed because we allow our women to learn, work, & fuck around with condoms or abortion in the name of equality, all of which absolutely flatlines fertility because why get married & serve your husband when you can take care of your self as a strong empowered independent career woman who has sex with whomever however much as you want for life? Why destroy your hot young body multiple times shitting out kids who swell your tummy, stretch your pussy , & deflate your titties when cheap foreign women can do it all for you?Migrants are also an additional pool of voters, workers, buyers, taxpayers, & potential volunteers or draftees for the military. Mexico should had been on the list, for those dreaming of controlling the world’s sole source of tequila (and probably Corona too) sorry: jungles, deserts, huge mountain ranges, deep forest and with the exception of Cortez who used ”guns, germs and steel” and who luckily was believed by the Aztecs to be a God or the USA who took advantage of inner squable and disorganization by a nation that was under direct management of the King of Spain and his cronies and after they left found out because they were told always what to do they couldn’t even decide if tacos or enchiladas were the national dish (they eventually settled for Chiles en Nogada), and anyway they took the Northeast, the Gulf ports and Mexico City but what many history books don’t say they suffered many losses on both sides and the locals kept giving the ”war turistas” trouble ALL the time and 80 percent got probably Moctezuma’s Revenge (that hasn’t changed or the fact visitors get trouble from locals, except what they do is they won’t leave you alone till you bought your millionth souvenir and pretty much surrendered your dollars to them in the process, don’t forget the tourist traps and tricky and sometimes phony guides that lead you to them, you know you’re in one when all around everyone speaks English and there’s no sign of local costumers).Anyway they kept the less populated side and left the pretty much populated side to future throngs of retirees, newlyweds and those wanting to just go party but can’t afford it or aren’t old enough in their native country to be served.... the French tried to keep it, and for a while held it and failed, and in 1914 they send a force to get Villa and came back empty handed and one fact missing in the history books, one large unit of well armed army soldiers got beaten by a smaller unit of Carrancistas whose only machine gone broke and had only riffles!Sooo..... just try it anybody. There were around 20.4 million U.S. veterans in 2016, according to data from the Department of Veterans Affairs. Most of them, and many that are 80+ y.o., and even the disabled ones, can shoot in the capacity of sniper. Overall, there are 75 million gun owners in the u.s. of A., and a reserve of ammo around 4 to 8 trillion bullets, most of them in the hands of the civilian population.This (private gun ownership) is what the wannabe invaders (cultural Marxists socialists collectivists religionists) want to eliminate first, as it is the main obstacle to invasion. In the Quran God says how when he revealed the Torah to Moses, the jews would hide the revelations and change it so they can sell it for profit. Things like interest on loans were prohibited but the jews changed it and made it legal. They also transgressed in many other ways. Also, most of of the modern day jews are Satanist. They follow the satanic Babylonian Talmud. It's blasphemous. * thanks shane starr. other note, una bomber comment is an illusion pushed a lot, 'americunz got gunz' is an illusion and doesn't matter. Obviously with the mass destruction here, and around the world, americunz clinging to gunz didn't stop any of that, did it. Too busy swallowing false history and 'mericunz tough' bs including the illusion of 'govt', so-called 'founders' were masons. Who's a pay-triot to those calling themselves govt doing lies and mass destruction, fact is 'patriots' protect those making the problem. Should have been protecting this territory from the destruction or mass immigration, not just 'ileegal' but all of it, now too late, yet dupes continue listening to 'wall' bs, fake act from fake presidents. Sitting clinging to gunz does nothing. Protesting would have or still could make a difference if soon, but we see dupes rather sit to bitter end. That's why the situation is as it is, dummies expect 'someone else' do it. it's always too late by the time dupes bother to do anything. lookup geoengineeringwatch . That's how control works. What can do, use notes with info and web links to inform others, easier than talking, putting copy pass on at bottom also gives others something to do. also see petman robot. Knowing facts and being serious and sharing info is productive, sitting in a hole with gunz doesn't stop anything. Who do we think is behind the 'prepper' bs. Those in the cabal, because it does nothing to stop anything. It's female, and hiding, not doing. The una bomber thing, if people bothered to read his writing, the point was 'right' wing' is a con same as 'left'. Two sides same coin. That was a setup, to put some truth in the face of dupes, which was ignored as usual. From 'inquistions' to warring the world the last hundred years to 'bailouts' and everything else krisjuns sat for all and still follow 'govt' masters because they're weak and selfish while telling themselves their 'good people'. The idea of 'tough mericunz' is bs. Thousands of years the phony 'right' watch others die and the earth that feeds them get run over till they get knocked off themselves. Obviously the 'meek' do Not 'inherit' anything. They get kicked in the face. That is natural law. They chose fake 'money' and bogus religion instead of freedom and still do. Now the 'petman' robots can take the gunz, thank you very much. I'm sure they will be polite about it. Last bit, may want to copy comments that make sense because a lot of what's on the net is cabal shills. also disconnect modem first, hardly matters now with all the surveil stuff being done, but just a note. Kevin Durant Israel got nothing from powerful nations. Israel IS a powerful nation with their own nuclear scientists, physicists, engineers , etc. "Israel, a tiny country with a population of around 8.5M, has earned the moniker of 'Startup Nation ' mostly because it has largest number of startups per capita in the world, around 1 startup for every 1,400 people. Some of these startups have gone on to be high-profile exits — Waze, which sold to Google for $1.3 billion, and recently Mobileye to Intel for $15.3 billion, among many, many others. Just for comparison, France has .112 startups for every 1,400 people. Germany has .056 startups for every 1,400 people, and the UK has .21 startups for every 1,400 people." All you blokes who live in Straya and say that there's no poisonous spiders or it's pretty safe live somewhere like in the middle of Epping in a block of apartments. No tourist wants to visit that! They want tourist places and they are crawling with sharks, crocs, spiders, snakes, wild dogs and cassowary, and even kangaroo are dangerous, you've never seen one rip a dogs guts open with it's hind legs or drown a dog. You've never been surrounded by dingo's on Frazer island looking for dinner and it's you. I have. People have been killed on Frazer and other places by dingo's. Emu's may look like funny buggers but it'll kick and break your leg. And snakes. Razorback wild boar will rip you into lamb chops with their tusks if they catch you on foot, and not to mention a nasty bite from a goanna that will fester, or running into a stinging tree in the middle of the night in the rainforest or huge spider webs. And snakes. There are scorpions like in other deserts and poisonous fish in the seas and the rivers like bull rout, and bull sharks right up the rivers. Great whites off the coast that rip into people in places like Byron Bay and South Australia and everywhere. Crocs aren't alligator's, both are dangerous but crocs are much more aggressive hunters and killers. Muck about in the wrong place and you'll be gone in split seconds. Don't swim your dogs, they make great shark or croc bait. A lot of the beaches aren't protected. And snakes. The platypus is poisonous and jelly fish in the oceans and beaches of this big country are extremely toxic and deadly. Including the Australian salt water cone snail (world's most deadly) and blue ringed octopus which will both kill you in a very short time. Being stranded in the outback is a regular killer. The remoteness means your bones will be seen well after you've pegged out. Don't crash your plane in the bush because then you're stuffed/deceased. And snakes. The place is full of crazy's and career psycho's who'll rape you, shoot you and bury you in the bush or cut you up for the freezer and feed you to the pigs . Place is a pistol, but it's ok if you can hack it. watch out for the snakes.	PIGS	Nationality - Southern European	1/394	0.254

Hell, even a series of smaller, cheaper dirty bombs smuggled into every major US city and simultaneously detonated by suicide bombers , in the deadliest coordinated terrorist attack in US history... what good will our thousands of nukes do? The government will just tighten up TSA, as usual... and remove even more of our Individual Rights and Freedoms. If a Republican is in power during that attack, we might end up a Police State for a while.But nothing, NOTHING , short of complete border shutdown , will prevent determined terrorists from carrying out attacks in ways that our traditional military, militia, or NSA cannot prevent.That's why terrorism - of ANY sort, Religious or Political, domestic and international - can only be stamped out by social and political change , not by military force.Nukes don't matter these days. Holy fuhk does it ever end with these leftist twats? America is a future nuclear crater hole. Nothing can stop it at this point. Did not the bombs fall on Japan? What makes you liberal fools think it can not happen here? Everyone you have ever loved and known will be dead in a hundred years from now. So it's inconsequential all the bullshit you push and talk. Your life is a vapor of air that fizzles out into nothingness, just like Robin Williams, Anthony Bourdain and many other liberal idiot's who eventually kill themselves. What the pills did not work? All your virtue signaling will be forgotten forever and know one will Remember your false fights for softer laws on pedophilia or "gay rights" or whatever ever degraded mental condition you promote as the new normal. No you will fade out into obscurity with nothing because you are nothing . We all are. Accept this fact and you will begin to understand those that would use you to pervert everything and everyone around you. Not to your gain but theirs. For Canada they forgot about the fact that rural Canadians have a long history of hunting and many are good with guns and bow (no, guns are not banned in Canada, especially the hunting rifle which is still a pretty staple part of many sectors of Canada culture, Canada was literally built on a fur trade) which means that in addition to military if you went North to South you'd have to pass km of people used to living in rural, isolated climates who would be decently skilled at killing...which would make attacking from the North even more insane (granted, if you came from the South you'd have a lot more dense population where people are typically less familiar with guns cause you can't really hunt in cities, but this effect ends within about 200km of the boarder in many areas) and Canada also historically up and moves their capital city to make it harder to attack. See, when you take a Nation's capital, you take the nation , so for over 200 years the Canadian strategy has been to move the capital if they feel threatened to make it harder to attack. Imagine Russia with a mobile Moscow and you get the idea. Canadians in general tend to be fairly mobile, historically their ability to relocate everything and anything to make attacking them like trying to hit a needle in a haystack. Now a days with more Canadians being accustom to cities and more of Canada "built" rather than being mobile camps it would be harder, but its still a substantial part of the culture, especially in rural areas. And they are the most fresh water rich country on Earth, which means no matter who attacks them they're going to have allies jump to their side to get some access to that water (they also are huge exporters of other natural resources but water is likely to become their biggest this century). Not that they aren't placed appropriately on the list its just additional considerations that they didn't cover that would make Canada a very annoying place to attack. Robert Barber Exactly like you said, American's can't leave because they are stuck. They have been wanting to leave for many years now and just to save their ass and image infront of the world they can't leave with Afghanistan still in state with terrorism. Instead, indirectly, they have been causing multiple terrorist attacks in different parts of Afghanistan which has lead to the up rise of certain group of people and which will eventually lead to a power shift. Then America will leave showcasing to the world that they managed to get rid of terrorism. But what they won't say is that they managed to do that through bloodshed of innocents. America is truly a coward country. They didn't succeed is getting president Asad of Syria out of their way like they did with Gaddafi and now with the pressure of Turkey, Iran and Russia, America has left stating to the world that they managed to get the terrorists out when infact Russia, Iran, Turkey and President Asad did that. Mariam G have you ever been there? Because I have and I have the battle scars to prove it. First it isn't a war technically it is a conflict. Second if anyone ever invaded the US which would never happen successfully other than in a movie but if it did there would always be gorilla type fighters like myself who would fight until their deaths. This is what is taking place in Afghanistan only they're doing it while we're their trying to help them. It was very quiet during my time in Afghanistan in the province I was in. We had maybe one or two major attacks in the 9 months I was there one of which in was wounded and had to be medevac out. Dont talk about a war you know nothing about. STIIMPRA97 it's not a historical fact and no one considers it a Hezbollah victory except for Hezbollah.500+ Hezbollah fighters died and 1191 civilians died in Israeli air raids. We blockaded your entire country. Hezbollah didn't capture a single Israeli town or village, how is that a victory? How? More Hezbollah fighters died than Israeli soldiers AND civilians COMBINED (many civilians were Israeli Arabs). The fact that so many Lebanese call that a victory is just sad. If over 1,000 Israeli civilians died in 2 months, it would be are greatest national tragedy ever. But for you its a "victory".I could just as easily include Iran, Russia and Syria as countries that support Hezbollah. Who do you think supplies all the weapons and katusha rockets? Hezbollah truly could not exist without Iranian support. Israel can very easily exist without American support. We didn't even have an alliance with America until the 1960s, and we still managed to humiliate the entire Arab world in 1948 and capture land. At least we produce our own weapons, which dozens of countries buy (India, Greece, Georgia, Cyprus, Ukraine, Nigeria, Kenya, etc) I swear Lebanese are so obsessed with trying to look tough when it comes to Israel. My country has the second highest living standard in Asia. We are the 3rd most educated country in the world, Israel is a nice place to live. Why? Because we don't celebrate death and let proxies run our country.Lebanon and Israel were allies in ancient times. We look alike, we have a similar culture, etc. It makes no sense for us not to be allies. Lebanese support the Palestinians but the Palestinians ruined Lebanon and massacred Christians. How many Iranians have died in our wars? Zero . But they instigate it and Lebanese and Israelis are the ones who suffer. We have peace with Jordan, with Egypt, we should have peace with Lebanon. Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/107	0.935

Yazan shalaldeh couple of things you got wrong here, which also show that yes, you have been fed propaganda:1. the temple business: according to Judaism (i'm simplifying this because this is not my field of expertise, but this is generally correct) the construction of the 3rd temple will be done when the messiah comes down to earth on a white donkey.The closest anyone's currently getting to construct a 3rd temple in israel is the jewish community that believe that by bringing more jews into the religion and out of secular life, and by praying, the day of salvation and the return of the messiah will come earlier.No one's taking dozers to Al Aqsa mosque.In fact, if you'd ask those jews who believe in this, most of them will probably tell you that it's not their place to begin the work of constructing the temple before geing told to do so by the messiah, who naturally will be appointed by god himself.I'm not a man of religion myself (though I try to respect others' in general) so to me that's as crazy as riding into heaven on a donkey or reviving after 3 days in the sun nailed to a cross with a spear wound in my ribs - but even then, the Al Aqsa mosque is not going anywhere unless god himself sends his messengers from heaven to declare the end of days and the day of redemption.In fact, for the most part, the israeli government has done it's best to make sure freedom of religion is maintained in Jerusalem so that anyone and everyone can come and worship their religion in their holy sites - as far as I am aware, the only restrictions on who can come into the city and the sites is whoever can pass the security check in the airport, and is allowed to enter the country, just like in any other country with any sort of border control.Now, if I wanted, as someone who's Israeli and Jewish in origin (again, not religious), to enter the Al Aqsa mosque, it's almost guaranteed (to the point where for this to be otherwise, the hand of god himself must assist me) that if I were to try to visit Al Aqsa mosque simply to see the place and look at the ancient architecture (as I've done in the church of the Holy Spelecure, beautiful place BTW), I'd be refused because it'd cause a disruption and I'd be lynched.if any Muslim tourist wanted to visit the wailing wall or the aforementioned church? they can go right ahead.The country will actively restrict the rights of it's citizens to maintain the peace between religions to it's best ability, which definitely was not the case under jordanian rule before '67.Don't believe me? go ahead and try it for yourself.2. Israelis, to your great surprise, don't mind their arab cousins, and I personally know many of my friends that have close arab friends.If you'd go around and ask who gives the best hospitality in israel, you'd probably be told that it's the Bedouins and arabs, and in many places like in the old city of jaffa, there's coexistence.Israelis do have a problem with being stabbed, fired at with rockets, run over by terror cars and trucks, and being blown up by some crazy idiot who wants 72 virgins. I believe you don't like these things any more than I do. they are not good for your health.The security fences came up because of this, the naval blockade came up because of this, and the past operations in lebanon and gaza came to be because of this - don't take my word for this; research this stuff on the internet in reliable and unbiased sources.Israeli society has been built by immigrants and survivors

Some pictures you showed while discussing Bhutan actually is from a country Nepal which lies between India and China. Nepal has never been ruled by any country and as you mentioned the British attacking Bhutan, I think this was the case with Nepal to be honest. The British attacked Nepal but due to high fatalities both counties signed a treat called Treaty of Sugauli in which Nepal lost part of its land which was annexed to India after the British left India and was never given back to Nepal. After the war and the treaty of Sugauli the British were very impressed with the Nepalese army and was taken aback by the ferocious Gurkhas (Nepalese Army) and since then they actually have been hiring the Gurkhas from Nepal into British & Indian Army. Once an Army Marshall famously said If a man says he is not afraid to die, he is either lying or he is a GURKHA.	Indian	Ethnicity - Native-American	1/158	0.633

Israel is one of the worst terrorist 's in the world today.. There were terrorist groups in the past that were pretty ruthless. All got desolved down into the government. DubTech TvThis is because those countries have been trying to destroy and invade Israel. Israel does not attack anyone who does not attack them first. If you leave them alone, they won't bother you. A good example of this is Jordan who recognized Israel as a nation in 1994. The last time israel fought a war with the nation of Jordan was 1966. I luv HC because it was punishment towards jews because alot of them stopped believing in god, theres so many paragraphs in the bible that said about the holocost and almost every single war that the jews suffered from, most of it was because jews were betraing god, in the bible there is a saying in simple english its "And you shall not go after your hearts and after your eyes, which you are after" which means (do not have sex with someone else wife for example or do not have sex with a non-jewish woman , thats just one example of it, theres many things that jews should not do and alot of them did and they got punished by god, so study before saying stupid shit like "why did got protect them bcuz of blah blah blah", everything is written for jews, most of the death were punishments because of the things they did. Historically we have seen many countries had been destroyed or invaded by other countries and We have one such country dat is not just gonna roll over and DAT country is PAKISTAN.Top facts dat why Pakistan can never be conquered,1 : The terrain, wat makes Pakistan difficult to invade is the terrain. The geography of Pakistan is a profound blunt of land scapes, varying from plains to deserts, forests & hills. Any army or any invader could just fade away into the mountains & lick there wounds until the next fighting season comes, All these factors make Pakistan a tough place to wage war in.2 : The Marshal Blood, Pakistani nation is divided into segments of various ethnicities, which have there own unique history as fighters & Warriors, who were highly regarded in the marshal race by the British-Indian Army for winning them many battles in the war.3 : Nationalism, Does your invading army plan on fighting 200 million people, who are armed to the teeth and willing to die and fight for there country, because that is whats likely going to happen while invading Pakistan. Pakistan was able to keep its culture and history relatively intact, plus there is a strong sense of nationality & identity amongst its population, which keeps them united against external threats, whenever there is a war citizens join its military to defend there country, FOR example > In 1948 war Pashtun Tribes drove indian soldiers out from parts of Kashmir and in 1965 war where thousands of Sindh citizens repelled Indian aggression against Sindh, which due to shortage of Military troops became extremely vulnerable. Nationalism has kept Pakistanians United and any invader in Pakistan is not just facing the military but also its 200 million people too.4 : ISI & PAK MILITARY, Pakistan has the 6th largest battled hardened, best trained and best equipped army in the world with hundreds of Nuclear Weapons, as far as invading Pakistan goes The last time an invading army was on Pakistani borders was during the 2001 to 2002, Pakistan & india military standoff, > According to the TIMES OF INDIA REPORT standoff inflicted heavy casualties on indian side, due to artillery duels with Pakistan, 1874 to 2467 indain soldiers were killed & india could not cross the international border.5 : Islamic Ideology, Pakistan is the only country to have been created in the name of Islam, from which Pakistanians draw there spiritual and national strenght, Islam provides them the motivation to survive in the toughest human conditions and conviction to fight the enemies even if they are more powerful..... QUAID-E-AZAM ZINDABAD PAKISTAN ZINDABAD	Indian, Nation, Nationalism, Nationality, Race	Ethnicity - General, Ethnicity - Native-American, Nationality - General	8/443	1.806

I checked all your data. You being a pakistani obviously are giving biased views. In every war with India it seems data suggests that there was more losses in the pakistani side. India never had the objective to invade pakistan. It was Pakistan which tried to invade and take kashmir from India which till today Pakistan has been trying. Then is the fact which I came across that more than 92000 pakistan soldiers surrendered to Indian army in 1971 leading to break away of East pakistan which is today Bangladesh. Nationalism is not only a thing in Pakistan. Nationalism and patriotism exists in every country. No wonder your country is not in this list	Indian, Nationalism	Ethnicity - Native- American, Nationality - General	3/114	2.632
Usman Ali 1. Pakistan doesn't have oil or any resource of value for which any country would want to invade. Invading pakistan will be a big liability with its terrorists safe havens and dire economic conditions. 2. Every war with India was started by pakistan. So pakistan is the aggressor with an objective to take Kashmir from India. So technically pakistan has always been the invader which has consistently failed to attain its objective. 4. Pakistan army is well aware that it is no match for the Indian army and that is the reason it uses terrorists for asymmetrical warfare. Your own military general told that the terrorists are the front line defense for pakistan. And some terrorists rats sneaking across the border and killing unaware unprepared soldiers in India and Afghanistan is an act of cowardice not valor and something to be proud of. 5. The 92000 pakistan soldiers who surrendered to India in 1971 is the biggest and most disgraceful event in the war history of the world which you never mentioned. Kevin Stone well the unemployment rate in india is just over 3.5 percent, to tackle poverty in the country would be a difficult task due to overpopulation however if India spent 4 percent of its gdp (annual income) on the poor there wouldn't be one person living in poverty, the government are taking steps to tackle this slowly for example,free health care for the poor and multiple charities but this will take many years,the media doesnt help feeding the world a load of rubbish about the topic however the Indian government can do more as it spends 46 billion on defence budget and 75 million a year on its space programme. Darth Molag Bal 2011 - The Taliban blew up 400 Pakistani schools in the space of 3 months2007 to 2015 - Pakistan is plagued by the invasion of Islamic Extremists who will kill anyone who opposes them.Pakistan did not come into existence by the will of 'God'. It was separated a year or so after India declared independence from the United Kingdom. Islam does promote inequality and rape, as women who do not wear a veil and are considered of an appropriate age are seen as 'infidels' and should they be raped (argue against it be rape for all I care, it is what it is), will be let off without punishment.Stop trying to defend bullshit. Pakistan is a terrible third world country with a very low GDP per capita and a corrupt government since Benazir Bhutto died. End of fucking story.	Age	Age - General	1/145	0.69

Darth Molag Bal Sigh, I honestly have no use arguing with you because you have been brainwashed by a lack of information provided by the Pakistani government, the lack of capacity to see the world from alternate perspectives due to the mandated religious teachings of Islam and your own sheer nationalism.For the record, I do not live in Israel nor am I Jewish, I'm an atheist.Come back when you actually know what you are talking about.1-Israel was formed from British territory after WWII2-Pakistan was formerly known as West India post separation. After a bloody resolution in which 23 million Indians and Pakistanis died trying to cross the border, Pakistan was formed.3-Terrorists identify themselves as Muslims, although their ideals do not really match the Qu'arn.4-Pakistan has an extremely weak military. You have lost 3 wars to India, and have never actually won a war against another country of comparable size and power.5-The US and NATO funded Islamic militants to fight off the Soviet Union in the Cold War when they invaded Afghanistan. After the fighting was over, the Muslims turned on the US and NATO, thus terrorists were born.6-Muslims are not 'rapists' because the actions are not seen as rape. In a Muslim religious state, women are required to wear face veils else to bring shame to their family and be seen as slaves rather than as women.7-You are making reference to a rape culture which does not exist. Women in the first world do not wear little clothing because they are 'asking to be raped', they wear it because they want to and are not mandated to wear any clothing because a book tells them so.8-You can't "rape yourself".9-Inferred I rape people on a regular basis is extremely fucked up. Like seriously. You need to get something checked out if you think I do that.10-Labeling the US and NATO as terrorists is contradictory to your own values. You use the internet, which is supporting these so called 'terrorists', yet you condemn terrorists? Something tells me your logic is very, very backwards.11-Congratulations, you pulled a quote from 1967 when Pakistan was actually feared. You guys are now an international joke. You lost 3 wars to India by a landslide. Your military is pathetic. Pakistan is not the country it was in 1967. It's a fragment of its previous self, and this is due to poor governing and a lack of knowledge amongst the population. 12-On the subject of Pakistan being a country of idiots, you have a 58 literacy rate based on this years census run by your government. Barely over half of your population can write. Meanwhile Russia has a 96 tertiary education rate. 13-Israel is not a base of terrorists. Last time I checked, they never launched a first strike campaign. They always retaliated, something terrorists never do.14-Terrorists are not godless, again, they are predominantly Muslim with twisted views.15-Pakistan is not a terrorist country nor is it a country to be feared. It is a joke. You have a stupid and complacent population and a corrupt government. Your economy is in shambles and you expect to compete with the first world on the sheer basis that Islam is (INCOMING BULLSHIT) the greatest religion in the world? LOL. Please, more jokes. Islam being the greatest religion in the world is a load of crap.16-Pakistan is a shit country, end of discussion.	Nationalism, Terrorist	Nationality - General, Religious Identity - Muslim	2/577	0.347

DynamiteDog, Damn bro u did whole lot of research on our country. If u look at it this way:1. Pakistan is the only country in today's world to have fought 4 wars with a country 10 times its size, 20 times its population, 10 times its military, 20 times its economy, and is still standing. We may have lost those wars but we weren't defeated.2. Literacy rate doesn't have anything to do with whether a nation can protect itself or not, although its extremely important that we improve it further. Remember there's difference between upbringing and education, and we have significant amount of the former.3. U mentioned afghan war & Russia, so u should know: Last time Pakistan indirectly fought a war with a superpower it was called Soviet Union, now it's called Russia.4. U r bringing in Islam for no reason at all. Hitler is called terrorist and he was Christian, so does it make all Christians the same, NO. Terrorist have no religion, when will u guys get it. They just use it for their own purpose, similar to Christian invasions some centuries ago.5. Now who do u call terrorist . Do people who fight for their right against invaders (USA,Israel) while the invaders slaughter every man, woman and child they can get their hands on, be called terrorist ??? I can talk in detail about how many Palestinians have been killed,displaced and simply put "butchered" by Isreal since its creation as well as how much blood Uncle Sam has on its hand, if u want to debate it.6. Islam doesn't glorify rape, what are your sources to support your claim or r u spewing the same shit as CNN.7. Pakistan is the country that's always been throughout history been taken lightly and called "shit" by its opponents full of arrogance (Soviets,India,USA) and u know what, Pakistan has always survived and will Inshallah. 'NAVY'India's naval assets include 295 vessels, with three aircraft carriers (one each in service, under construction and being planned), 14 frigates, 11 destroyers, 23 corvettes, 15 submarines, 139 patrol craft and six mini warfare vessels. 'AIR FORCE'India's total aircraft strength is about 2102, with 676 fighter aircraft, 809 attack aircraft, 857 transporters and 323 trainer aircraft. Total helicopters are around 666, including 16 attack helicopters. NUCLEAR STOCKPILEIndia's nuclear stockpile has around 130 warheads. Minimum tactical missile range is about 150 km, farthest strike distance tested successfully is 5,000-6,000 km (Agni -V). Surya, an intercontinental ballistic missile being developed, has a range up to 16,000 km. Almost 40 of the Indian border is along the water, Arabian Sea, Indian Ocean and Bay of Bengal. You can reach India easily. Now let's answer the question. To invade India you need to work out a way of tackling the mighty Indian Armed Forces once you have reached India. You need to have a force which can fight against the 1.3 million strong armed men determined to fight till death for their country. To back that force you have a million strong paramilitary forces. we also have 8 different specially trained paramilitary armed force1.MARCOS- MARCOS or Marine Commandos is India's most lethal special force. Though they are trained to engage in battle on all terrains, MARCOS commandos are experts in maritime warfare. The physical test to join MARCOS is so gruesome that more than 80 per cent of the applicants drops out in the first, three-day long, physical fitness and aptitude test. Those who successfully complete the test are subjected to a five-week-long process called the 'hell's week' where commandos are put through extreme sleep deprivation coupled with the most difficult physical tasks. These commandos are even capable of firing while lying down, standing, running full-sprint, even backwards and looking into a mirror – with a reaction time of 0.27 seconds. The final stages of the training include an 800-meter long thigh-high mud crawl called the 'death crawl', loaded with 25 kg of gear which is concluded with shooting a target 25 meters away with a man standing next to it. Old MARCOS gear.2.Para Commandos-Para commandos is one of the most highly trained special forces of the Indian Army. Because of the extremely fatal nature of the operations they perform, they are kept at optimum level of operational efficiency and physical fitness, and only the most physically fit, mentally robust, intelligent, and highly motivated soldiers are inducted in the fleet. Para commandos go through the most grueling commando training regimes in the world, apart from daily 20km runs with 60km baggage and man-to-man assault practices; they even have to free fall from belligerent heights of as much as 33,500 feet. They are also highly trained in terrain and environment warfare and deep sea diving. Their most notable and fatal operations included the 1971 war with Pakistan, the 1999 Kargil war and the infamous Operation Bluestar in 1984. 3. The thing about invading the US is you have to get through the military to even get to it, and then when you are there. You are going to be fighting the Military some more, and the police will probably ramp up their training and equipment as well, and then you have to deal with the civilians. He isn't kidding about the red dawn thing in this video. Americans dream of it lol. Probably the most paranoid country in the world. Yeah but America's reliance on fossil fuels, their lack of spending in the military and their uneducated population caused by right wing politicians is weakening the country, plus they're economy relies heavily upon loans from their main rival. The US in the future will be reduced to a developing nation just like their Mexican neighbours and I wouldn't be surprised if Russia takes back Alaska and japan takes back their islands.It's sad but all empires must fall	Nation	Nationality - General	1/78	1.282

Your FACT is incorrect.Russia first off is financially hurting REALLY bad. Russia wouldn't have the funds to take on America.Since Russia started loosing their oil exports to America they are hurting for money.Most of Russias military equipment and missiles date back to the Cold War. Over half of the tanks , airplanes and missles (including nukes) are old as crap.If it was a 1 v 1 USA vs Russia, USA would win hands down. There would be a LOT of bloodshed on both sides but honestly if the 2 powerhouses fought it would turn nuclear quick.Like I said too, most if Russias nuclear missiles are from the Cold War era. Which means they are EASY to intercept by missile defense systems. (Which America has the most advanced and precise missile defense systems in the world). It's actually such a good system that America took one to Israel and Israel has used it to fight off Islamic countries often. Missiles can't get through it.Russia relied on German and French Satellites.... they are no longer in orbit and no longer work.Russia has a few Missile Defense systems through out the country but they are not only old but not as reliable. Their intercept rate is around 60. Where USA's is around 99.Since Russia's nuclear missile are so old their slow speeds make them easy to intercept. Where as America has newer more advanced nuclear missiles and some of the mid-sized ones can re-enter the atmosphere faster than any of the Russian defense systems can intercept.But, there is no reason for Russians to hate America. Trump and Putin get along, unlike Obama and Hillary Clinton who blame everything on Putin.But don't be fooled into thinking Russia is invincible and that they could single handedly take out America. I'm here to tell you, that would never happen. America also has enough missile defense systems all around the world that America could intercept literally every single Russian nuclear missile without getting touched by a single one.Where Russia would be able to intercept around 45-50 of America's nuclear missiles due to speed limitations on Russia's defense systems and their failure rate on intercepting incoming missiles.	Old	Age - Over 65s	3/370	0.811

Mithren Russia is friends with most of the Middle East which are firm enemies of the US. They also have ties to China, North Korea, Kazakstan and Montenegro. Serbian and turkey would join in too. The UK and most the EU would side with America and so would Canada and Ukraine. Japan might join the west but may also stay neutral. The rest of the world will remain Neutral.Some common misconceptions about Russia that American media propaganda is perpetuating is that Russia’s military is one of the strongest in the world and putin is actually a good leader. Sure he’s corrupt but he’s no where near weak, he was brought Russia out of poverty and payed off the soviet debt completely. The US is terrified of Russia due to their military and overall size and your president is scared too.Now into the war, let’s cut out nuclear bombs for simplicity’s sake.What do the east all have in common? Resilience. The UK is also fairly resilient too. The thing is that the west had no strategy to beat China or Russia. The east in no good because of all the Middle Eastern countries under Russian support would create a blockade (think Afghanistan or Syrian war) and even of they got past then they’d have to fight Russia’s army head on which are stronger than most European armies and used to fighting in the extreme cold. Russia is also absolutely huge so a land invasion is barley possible. Capture Moscow? Another capital will take its place. Capture putin? Another leader will rise up. You’ll have to decimate the city and wipe out the majority of its population to beat them.You could go for an assault from the east but Siberia is mostly a wasteland and freezing and you’ll have to defeat China which has the biggest population in the world, so, good luck. The EU doesn’t have an army either so all the different countries will likely be fighting amongst each other for a plan. The outcome will be many lives lost, Russia and China basically unscathed except for a minor loss of life. It’s allies will have taken a big hit for their economy and population but Russia and China will probably profit from this and so will most of Latin America if we assume they stayed neutral. The UK will likely collapse into the Anglo-welsh Union, Scotland and Northern Ireland which will probably reunite with Ireland. Riots in France will be massive and macron will probably resign. The rest of Europe will probably have its economy damaged too and their allies.The two American giants (Canada and the US) will have taken a minor economic hit but the US would have likely used this as an excuse to capture Kim Jon Un and install a democracy which will cause tensions to rise further between China and the US which may cause a second, bigger, Cold War which China has the advantage on.Russia will have probably annexed Ukraine and Mongolia as well as cut trading ties.Overall, it’s a mess but Russia and the US wouldn’t have been affected much.	Common	Social Class - Working class	2/524	0.382

Hey to you all,I've came across this comments and I had to explain you some important facts,Palestine was never a country!There is no recorded what so ever of a country called Palestine!Palestine is a name of collection of tribes who lived around israel currant territory,The land which Israel located are well documented for more the a 2000 years as a place who was the house of the Jews, For the question who was there first, just know that there are not even one documentation of Arabic nation in Israel but there are millions of documentation overs the years about Jewish nation who occupied that area.Some more facts the Jewish people tried everything over and over again to make peace with the Arabs surround them by they always got no for an answer.Israel one every each end every one of the Arabs country which s surround it many times over the years, and yes even all the 5 countries together.For summery there is so much you don't know , and most of the date running a around today is wrong,I really recommend you to start reading about the subject you will be surprise of how much you don't know and how many lies you've heard.Thank you .Barry Jarkov, Berlin's university history professor. first of all egypt already tried and it didnt work out. second of all pretty much any arab nation has a very low chance of succeeding in a war against israel by themselves unless they come at them all at once and in such a scenario its not unacceptable for the allies to intervene and when that happens its either bye bye to the me or russia china etc jump in and it escalates to a world war. 11. KrikkinikaIf you haven't heard of this country, don't feel bad. The nation is completely isolationist but has an incredible defense plan.First, you'd have to get past their naval strength, which totals around 2,000 vessels all armed with cutting edge weapons and technology. If your forces survive that, you'd then have to make your way through the beaches that are littered with more than 100,000 mines, tank busters, barbed wire emplacements, and several other defenses.But it gets worse. If your forces miraculously managed to make it past that, you'd have to get through a MONSTER defense force of 3 million regular Krikkian soldiers, 18,000 tanks, 15,000 artillery, several thousand heavy machine guns, thousands of well fortified bunkers, and more than 1,000 laser cannons. Losses due to this line of defense would be staggering. But if you thought that was the worst thing to get past, it's even worse.Their fourth line of defense consists of 15 million robotic soldiers that were modeled after the robots from the Terminator and Star Wars films respectively, and armed to the teeth with cutting edge weaponry. The sheer size of these numbers could be enough to essentially plummet morale throughout your forces.If you somehow manage to get past the mass of robotic soldiers, you'd then have to deal with the rest of their army, around 7 million men, and their Air Force, totaling 500,000 aircraft. Even IF you managed to survive that, you'd have to battle the last line of defense: the Kornisikkagratis (Krikkian Guards).These men are veterans of the bloodiest battles in Krikkian wars and are the absolute best in their military, and although only 50,000 of them make up their numbers, their ferocity in combat will be terrifying to your forces considering the losses of the first few lines of defense.In total, even if you managed to successfully invade the country, you'd suffer a Pyrrhic victory and lose a whopping 90 of your original forces.(This is a country I made up. No hate.)	Nation	Nationality - General	1/338	0.296

NightS I said was talking about GDP not specifically military aid. Even for military aid that's still relatively low. Not to mention that the US does give some aid to Palestine as well. There goes the argument "Palestine's economy is bad because of Israel :(". Palestine has never valued education and the leaders are corrupt, continuously pocketing foreign aid instead of using it to develop their own nation. Even before 1948 (before any kind of "Israeli abuse" could of occurred) Palestine held almost no patents while Israel continues to develop new technology.	Nation	Nationality - General	1/92	1.087
Jacob Israel receives the most military aid than any nation in the world, and U.S. pays most its aids to the west bank, an Israeli occupied territory that they say to be part of Palestine. The Gaza Strip (region of Palestine actually ruled by the Palestinian people) barely received any funds, and its systematic isolation blocks it from boosting a highly exporting economy. Even with its limitations, Palestine had and currently has one of the highest enrollment rates in education and a relatively advanced education system. In addition, before the post-wwII era, many nations that are currently highly advanced in technology, such as Japan and Jordan, were poor in the fields of education and technology and pursued such due to their relative importance in a time of extreme technological advancement. Therefore, it is baseless to assume Palestine does not value education.	Nation	Nationality - General	1/141	0.709

NightS according to UM and IREDU Palestine schools score far less on mathematics and sciences then Israeli Arabic and Hebrew speaking schools. LOL your comparing Palestine's economy to post ww2 japans. You understand the reason Japans economy boomed was primarily because the government became engaged in improving industry by actually allowing flow of capital to industry's with a vertical system of control. Palestine's government has done absolutely nothing to improve the economy. It's a joke and it shows the reasons the people look to Hamas for leadership.Even just after Israel's independence the amount of patents where far ahead of any innovation in the land's history. Even before Israel's independence when the land had a small minority of Jews the vast amount of patents came from the small minority of Jews (around 15). That's a very sad statistic. So you can blame Israel on all of Palestine's problems but the truth it the problems existed before Israel and Israel has continued to grow despite it only being around for short time. The fact of the matter is Israel is rated 19th on the UNs human development ranking despite the US only making up 1 if it's total GDP.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/198	0.505

Okay, I've just seen the whole thing and I'm gonna be the first who says that so, please don't get angry on this comment and kill me with shitty comments.You guys are fighting on shit. I know, and I'm Israeli, that both of the sides are fighting on nothing . I mean let's start with the fact that you all said who "started it" and then each side said that the other side is killing its people. and the thing that, you are right, we're just killing each other like idiots because we try to do something and get killed or kill other people and then you try to do something and get killed or kill people. We're both total S H I T. This whole thing about "free Palestine" or "The chosen Jews" oh come on! Sometimes I just wish I could get out of the middle east, out of this conflict. And I'm the only one that's being real here: Arabs, you know that you're killing people just admit it and get it on your fucking mind and SAME to Israelis, WE ARE KILLING SOLDIERS. So our countries will continue to fight and we have NOTHING to do about it. So why are we fighting about it if nothing will change like it hasn't in the last 70 years? Let's just be friends and admit that we both hate the situation here, but we can't do anything. I wish we could just ignore politics and conflicts and talk real with each other.So now it's my turn: I FUCKING HATE THE MIDDLE EAST, AND THE PLACE I LIVE IN, AND ALL OF THE COUNTRIES SURROUNDING ME. And I know that no one loves those wars.I'm the only one with that opinion so I can already smell the hate comments saying "You don't understand anything about this situation, You just don't get it" Yeah if you think like that, just don't write it because I will probably not care. SkyGlitcher What are you talking about? Another kid twisting history to cover his own agenda. Let me explain this in a way you will understand the truth of the matter is the Ottoman ruled "Palestine" and the British promised the Jews the land; however, the British also promised the Muslims (majority of the inhabitants) the land. The British, after having beaten the Ottoman, created a colony in Palestine instead of holding either side of the bargain. During this control more and more Jews from Europe (during WW2) became to migrate to Palestine. The population of the Jews in the country increased dramatically (becoming around 30-40 of the population). This became a problem because the Arabs hated the Jews. Most of the Arabs at the time had no real ownership of the land, they squatted on it and some rented it. The Jews began buying the land from absentee Arabs and evicting squatters. (of course the Arabs cried and shouted "They stole it :(" when infact it was perfectly legal way of obtaining land). For this the Arabs hated the Jews and treated the Jewish immigrants very poorly. The Arabs wanted their own nation and wanted the British out. They revolted against the British but Jewish militias and British soldiers fought back and suppressed the attack. Britain decided they didn't want to have to deal with the problem anymore so they outsourced the problem to the newly created UN. The UN separated the land equally between the Jews and Arabs but the plan didn't work as expected. Palestine did not see this as fair separation of the country and so a war broke out. Palestine got there ass handed to the and all they want to do is complain about how "Israel stole the land!".Furthermore, don't try to twist history to fit your narrative. Israel gave back the land occupied when they won and the vast majority of the land that wasn't given back was paid back. I understand that not all of what Israel did was justified and the Jew settlements are certainly wrong. This doesn't give anyone the right the rewrite history because they don't like what Israel is doing now.	Nation	Nationality - General	1/363	0.275

barxman7 you know nothing about israel my dude; what you are watching at news called antisemitism did you heard abot it? oh and here a fun fact: israel is older than islam and christianity both of them. 2000 BC there was a kingdom named the kingdom of israel and the king of the kingdom was david the king oh i bet you did not know that :)we (THE JEWS) established OUR country ISRAEL it will was our land and it will be forever, wether you like it or not. israel is a country by the declaretion of independence, and palestine? lol. palestine is not a country and will never be bcause everyone knows NOW that the palestinians are just a group of liers and murderers (not all of them but most are)Israel has miliatary that deffend his people and protect us. palestine? yes they have HAMAS a TERRORIST ORGANIZATION. the majority in israel in percentage of the Jews is 80 the rest are Bedouins Druze Muslims and Christians. and the druze and bedouins respect and love israel our country and their country. but they hate palestinians bcasue they know the truth and its time to show the world the reality. we do not kill them hamas is killing them. we are gona stay as israel forever!!!!!! "Shall we expect some transatlantic military giant to step the ocean and crush us at a blow? Never! All the armies of Europe, Asia, and Africa combined, with all the treasure of the earth in their military chest, with a Bonaparte for a commander, could not by force take a drink from the Ohio or make a track on the Blue Ridge in a trial of a thousand years. At what point then is the approach of danger to be expected? I answer. If it ever reach us it must spring up amongst us; it cannot come from abroad. If destruction be our lot we must ourselves be its author and finisher. As a nation of freemen we must live through all time or die by suicide."- Abraham Lincoln	Nation	Nationality - General	1/130	0.769

no nation is impossible to invade	Nation	Nationality - General	1/6	16.667
India would be impossible to invade mainly because of its formidable army. Lets say that the US might even want to invade India, but then, even with all of their technological might, will they be as apt as the Indian soldiers in a man to man combat. They may the nation with the highest numbers of Mt. Everest climbers, but then a substantial part of the Indian army does live and train in the lofty heights of Ladakh and other places in the Himalayas. The Pakistanis have tried multiple times, most recently in the cold desert of Kargil where the winter temperatures are the lowest for anuwhere on earth, but they were driven out by the Indian soldiers despite having far better odds at winning. Even the superpower of China that supplies military tech to the so called fouth largest army of North Korea had to step back from Indian territory after Indian soldiers pushed them out, literally.And lets say that even if a country were to invade and conquer India by defeating its strong army, then they would only be faced with the second largest population of people in the world and who don't quite like to welcome people of different cultures than that of their own. So, yes, you might die out of racism or be sucked into the ever growing Indian culture while living amongst Indians. Michael Ferguson lol did you forget the Nazi empire couldn't invade the UK? Quite possibly the most powerful military ever assembled couldn't invade the UK. New Zealand would be easier to invade because it has a weak military, that 10k crossing is extremely well defended and you'd have to invade France, one of our strongest allies, first before even thinking of the UK.	Nazi	Ideological and Political Identity - General	1/63	1.587
Michael Ferguson sorry to remind you but most of the wiping out of native populations happened after these countries gained independence, have you forgotten about Australian apartheid? And the fact Americans slaughtered most of the natives while Britain and Canada worked alongside them? Britain was the First Nation to ban slavery and actively policed the slave trade, regularly capturing American and Spanish slave traders and imprisoning them. We're not perfect but Portugal, Spain, the Netherlands, America, France and Italy all played huge roles in the slave trade and continued to do so after the UK banned it.	Nation	Nationality - General	1/97	1.031
Dave Walker It's not the slave trade mate, it's the women's vote, it's South Africa, because guess who started apartheid, it's Australia, because guess who tried to kill off all the aborigine, and after that was banned, to send them to schools where they were torn apart from their parents, and their culture almost destroyed, the Maori people got it lucky, with roughly 200 years of their culture being undermined and their land being stolen, and the British gave the North Americans smallpox, which killed 95% of the population, from which the native Americans will likely never recover. I'm not saying you're the worst country in the world, I'm saying you need to face up to your horrifying mistakesP.S I am sorry about the Canada thing, but my High school textbooks are really old , also if it comes up as me writing this at 4:45 am, New Zealand is 12 hours ahead of England	Old	Age - Over 65s	1/156	0.641

Dave Walker sorry didn't see your comment about the Nazis, agreed on the military behalf, but we could use this to New Zealand's advantage to get time to hide, although we'd probably just leave the Aucklanders to die (Auckland is our largest city), the other part is that the Nazis couldn't invade in the 1940's, not the 2010's, these days that is basically nothing . P.S New Zealand has a population of 4 million, where I'm from, Northland, there is a LOT of plains, we're the P lab region of New Zealand, but, in Central North Island or Southland, there is extreme mountainous terrain, where in Northland people could just hide in the massive empty bush (if you look at a map of New Zealand we are the top part, that little peninsula that pokes out, with the big inland harbour) in Central North Island they could hide in the central Alps, and the even bigger bush that just sits empty down there, or down south, there's loads of space as well as an even bigger Southern Alps, and bush, and they have about a quarter of the population down there.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/191	0.524
Michael Ferguson I don't doubt New Zealand would be difficult to invade but if Japan had gone for it they would've done it in WW2, in most lists the UK is ranked 3rd hardest to invade after Russia and the USA because not only are we an island nation surrounded by allies we also have an extremely capable military.	Nation	Nationality - General	1/59	1.695
Michael Ferguson lol that doesn't mean the UK created Australian apartheid you idiot they're a self governing nation regardless of whether they have our monarch. And no Scotland is a nightmare to invade, small population, mountainous terrain and lots of military bases. Scandinavia also difficult to invade but the Nazis did it and still couldn't launch an invasion of Britain, Ireland contains Northern Ireland which is packed with British troops so also a nightmare to invade. The only reason New Zealand wouldn't get invaded is because nobody gives a fuck about them enough to invade, it's worthless land in case of war. And Britain should face up to its mistakes? lol then so should, Portugal, Spain, Italy, Germany, France, America and the Netherlands because they all had empires and they all slaughtered natives, it wasn't a British thing to kill natives it was something every western nation did at the time. My country isn't gonna apologize for things that happened hundreds of years ago and that nobody alive played a part in. And many of these countries got independence because they had developed a national identity and felt uniquely different to British all of them apart from America stayed extremely close friends with the UK from the time of independence to now. And whether you like it or not New Zealand is one of our closest allies with the same monarch.	Nation, Nobody	Age - Youngsters, Nationality - General	4/230	1.739

Dave Walker You're forgetting the past 70 years, Australian government was just a bunch of British representatives who operated under the Queen, that is why that you will find that in South Africa, Australia, and New Zealand, most of the horrible racism that occurred was part of the laws. As well as this most of the government who weren't representatives for the British empire, came in from England. Only recently (less than 100 years ago), did NZ and AU become more than just British Colonies. Around the time that the killing happened Australia barely had a government. I'm sorry, but on the Australia one Britain fucked up. Also, I understand that most of Western Europe was horrible too. But while Spain and Portugal were searching for gold, and Italy was just being Italy, and everyone was trying to conquer Africa, Britain was continuing even after they had control.	Racism	Ethnicity - General	1/148	0.676
Michael Ferguson while Britain still owned Australia they had their own government and the British had very little influence on the politics of the country, Australian apartheid only ended 40 or so years ago, long after the end of British ownership. And South African apartheid was initiated by the Afrikaans who are the majority white population in South Africa. You don't know enough about history you just have an agenda against the UK. The Portuguese and Spanish weren't just looking for gold they were colonizing, enslaving and murdering every native they laid eyes on. The Spanish once even put a bounty out on a native tribe and offered extra money for women and children in an attempt to wipe them off the face of the earth. Don't even start on the French because their empire was the most brutal around, the British were simply the best at empire building therefore there's more cases to look at. But the British acted the same as all empirical nations did, there was nothing especially brutal about the British empire. I don't know if you're part Maori and that's why you're so angry at Britain but if you're gonna slate Britain so much at least be consistent and hold all other empires to the same standard. Every country on earth has done brutal things, the entire human race has a history of violence and war but you don't ask them all to apologise. Rid yourself of your ridiculous agenda and look at the world with a level head, it was a different era and many countries are guilty of the same things as the UK. While we're at it let's get the Italians to apologize for the Roman Empire, the mongols to apologize for their empire and the Japanese for invasions of China. Michael Ferguson first of all no people didn't actually think everyone was equal, racial science was in full swing and racism was probably the worst it has ever been. I've never said the UK didn't do bad things but your attempt to claim they were the worst is ridiculous, they had the largest empire but everyone was doing the exact same thing. So it's ok that the Spanish and Portuguese committed genocide because they were after gold? the British were after natural resources as well, that was the entire Point of colonialism we didn't do it for a laugh and to kill some natives. You quite clearly have an issue with the UK because you're happy to demonize us and make excuses for everybody else. What about the French? And the USA who had the largest slave trade in the history of humanity? They get a free pass because you don't give a shit about that you're just mad the British killed maoris? How idiotic are you to think that the UK had no goal? You don't invade a quarter of the planet to kill natives you do it to make money, and your teacher obviously didn't teach you that the Uk was the first western country to end slavery and actively policed the trade, arresting any slavers they caught in the Caribbean and west Africa. Also I know other countries have done worse that's my whole fucking point ffs, I just mentioned the nations that had empires similar to Britain and were in Western Europe. You have a big issue that you need to get over, I'm British and I didn't kill any maoris, Africans, Indians or Asians and I won't accept responsibility for something that happened 150 years ago, grow up and move on stop living in the past. Michael Ferguson I looked up the treaty and you're right the maoris probably were ripped off that's what empires did at the time, I don't ever claim the British empire was perfect but it was certainly no worse than the French, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch and Italian empires. You've repeatedly tried to claim the British empire was the most evil of the bunch when if you look at the history they all have almost identical stories of killing, enslaving and ripping off local populations. These empires were built to build money and influence for a nation not to be friendly and they often left soldiers to do as they please which is where you'll find horrific stories of slaughter and rape from colonial soldiers from all of these empires. I understand why you hate the British empire the most, because it's had more of an effect on your culture than the other empires did but don't think that means the British were worse than the others. Don't try and enter a debate about which country is more powerful than who based on nukes or numbers because I'm fully informed on the topic and know exactly where each country's standing is in the world. And don't forget whether you'd want to be involved or not New Zealand would absolutely, undoubtedly side with Britain in any conflict in the future and I'm very grateful we have a strong relationship with your country even if people like you hate us. I know New Zealand is filled with happy, friendly and intelligent people who are also peaceful but don't forget you fight like hero's when you need to and have always stuck by your friends in conflicts, playing a significant role in ww2 with Australia and cementing a friendship with Britain that will last for centuries. I recently did an ancestry test and found I have over 100 distant relatives living in New Zealand as well, we are a lot closer than you think culturally and politically. Dave Walker I'm going to be honest, I love England especially Scotland as that's where I'm from, I'm trying to show perspective, the Maori population is very poor these days and I said earlier on, they were the luckiest of all the peoples England met and conquered, and British people can be nice, on my mother's side I am directly related to many Englishmen like Gilbert White, and many Welsh people, I would like to point out that this happened with many Empires, but from my perspective England was the worst, look at India, and Pakistan, they tried to merge the two countries and that ended in many wars and a lot of trouble, they started apartheid, all the French, Spanish, Germans and Italians did was leave the countries in their empire in a horrible state, and nothing happened, they just let the government's be corrupt which from some perspectives could be seen as worse, we did play a massive role particularly in WW1, which left as stuffed up and since then people have said that they won't go back to war, and we only have once. Just please comment was this ancestry thing free, and if so what's it called, because I've been trying to find one for years, my point in the end is, if someone tried to invade England many countries would be on the fence, especially New Zealand, and members of the commonwealth. All of their dictators have been bad so far, communism is a beautiful system, which after the horrifying shit that happened in China, you can now see it as a flourishing economy and system, which when used well works amazingly, and better than capitalism, which the black panther party and Check Guevara tried to show but we're villainised. to say that we need the UK and US to keep Russia away is bullshit, especially because Russia doesn't give a shit about 'looking' after countries anymore like they did with Czechoslovakia, which fucked up both countries, yet they haven't done that since Mikael, even introducing a democracy, Russia is fine, it's just that the America tried to make them look horrible, they are just as bad, look up Che Guevara and look at the history of Cuba before he was assassinated by the Americans. Pend0 I'm about 90 British, the rest coming from Europe, and most of the countries mentioned do hate the UK, because they make stupid decisions like BREXIT, that hurt the economy of the world. Many people are still salty for the British's extreme racism. Banning slavery was a way to make them look good, they were the ones who introduced apartheid and the genocide of Aborigine, I'm not American I'm a kiwi, who only feature casual racism like calling the Chinese the cause of all our problems, and we haven't been badly racist since the dawn raids on polynesian people (look it up). Also, the British did try to gain America, but they struggled with this because they were really late, as they were busy conquering Africa and Asia, even though they still got the East coast of the US and Canada. How the French and British worked (when I say French I mean the other countries the conquered stuff) was very different, while the French took what they wanted (gold, oil, coal etc.) They left, The British stayed, and continued to come back and enforce laws that helped them, and govern the country, The French just came and went, stealing shit and then disappearing. Actually Isreal didnt invande any country at all at 1948... the UN decided To have two countries in the region that was known as Palastin (It was contalled By the united kingdom at the time who was told by the UN to Make prepretions to make it ready for a state) One Jewish Country... One Arabic country.. Obesely the jewish agreed and the arabs didnt.. the Arabs reasoning was that they want the whole land for themselves while ignoring the 600k Jaws who allready lived there for like 100 years and actully Was acting like an indepnence country anyways Just without any world wide Recgension of it being a country(ever since like the 19th century...) And baiscly the arabs natives started the war also known as the Indepence war for isreal or freedom War and for arabs the black or doom war (cant really recall the name..) also The arabic countries Also stayed that when isarel annonces its indepnence they will attack aswell... In the end isarel meneged to actully win the war in a really suprising matter..this win.. this victory caused three things.. First is that the arab natives desicded to call themselves "palastiens" To have a Releted connection to the region even tho before like the 1930s They didnt really want country and they were effect by Jewish Idea to indepnence Hench why the native arabs had Zero to no things ready to actully announce a country and infact they didnt even have an actual grovement or an officel army like isarel had when it formed... wich brings me to the reason.. Cuz The arabs native didnt really prepred anything to make a country and refused the UN deal many of them started to actully thier homes And run way to jorden Or other countries around (hench why jorden got 2-3m Palastines In it...and also there are like 1m refugess who are palastines becuse of it) but they were told to stay By The Presdient of egypt...Claiming they will conquer isreal in eas.. ofc eventually it didnt happend and Egypt baiscly started spreading shit all over the place wich caused people to either do a terrorist attacks.. or flee thier homes. Also those who had famliy reltives who coundecdd terror attacks Were actully benished form isarel (but lets be honest those arent realy Many more like 2 of the refugee) and at last it what brought us to our last point wich is becuse of that refuse and The like 4 other denys with leaders and islamic extermies That fual hate and call for terror attacks and a gensoid to the jewish people (reasoning never being officaly stated but many who did answer that question said cuz the jewish are differnt and In the Koren all none muslims must die means jews must die , pretty extermie and raicest openion kinda like hitlar just In a muslim version...) brings Us To the reality of the present that there is No Palastien Country Gaza being contralled by a terror group known as Hames (UN considers them as terrorist so...) The Palastien Grovement(what was formed In the last 70 years that is..) is actully diveded into Two that are fighting each other meaning there isnt even a dived fornt or The same openiom at the matter and if a palastien state will be made tomorow there wont be any peace at the region and actully more issues then before...and Gaza Cvilains being stuck Beatwen hammer And An anvill as the Palastien indepnence group Take all Money there and starve them to death and Isarel is forced to responce some how to Hamch bullshit all-day and since isarel is like Only Live line for

I'd put Finland pretty high too: all men have to serve in the army so there's approximately a million in reserves + the active personnel, all apartments and public buildings have air raid shelters capable of withstanding bombs, the nation is literally nothing but vast icy forests so it's immensely hard to conquer, they produce hundreds of thousands of weapons for other countries, have a high sense of national pride and they managed to hold back the whole Soviet Union during WW2 despite just coming off a bloody Civil War. You could bomb the cities to the ground but the whole population would still be alive and the war would turn into eternal guerrilla warfare. canada is impossible to invade. although we have had now 20 years of global warming, canada is unaffected by global warming and the temperatures are so cold that the bombs will not detonate, the oxygen required is frozen . canada is also the darkest place on earth. very little daylight there. darkness all year, pilots have poor visibility . then they have bryan adams music. with the radio stations on, the pilots would suffer ear damage listening to 25 year old music that canada has thought to be new !!!! the ear damage produces vertigo and the pilots lose up from down and they crash into the mountains where families of cannibalistic Sasquatches will devour them unless they are American, Sasquatches dont like Americans. too many preservatives	Old	Age - Over 65s	1/127	0.787

This list is not only stupid but completely inaccurate. Not only does he provide invalid reasoning behind his choices but he also gives piss-poor examples. North Korea, Australia, Canada, Japan, Russia, Iran and Israel don't belong on this list for reasons that should be obvious given that Russia has been successfully invaded and even conquered before (just ask the Golden Horde or the Second Reich during WWI) whereas North Korea, Australia, Canada, Japan and Iran could all fall within a matter of hours, days if lucky, in the event that they were invaded by a superpower the likes of the U.S. whilst Israel, while it has yet to lose a single war, has been invaded and besieged throughout its entire existence as a modern nation. About the only thing that this guy got right was the U.S. being No. 1 (the direct result of not only our overwhelmingly colossal conventional and nuclear dominance over the rest of the world but also because of the fact that we've got thousands of miles of ocean on both sides of our country coupled with the fact that we're completely isolated only sharing borders with Canada and Mexico as well as the fact that nobody has the logistical capabilities to actually support an invasion of U.S. soil) and Bhutan and Switzerland being on the list.	Nation, Nobody	Age - Youngsters, Nationality - General	2/221	0.905

Haitham Alomari wrong, not orders but laws and commandments, ancient Israelites has been punished many times and has been forgiven again and again, no matter what you say you wouldn't understand because God chosen Israel as his nations, and not you, and God promised this land forever as their inheritance, to God. God prophesied the return of the scattered tribes of Israel, and the scattered jews in the four corners of the earth to inhabit this land because they are the descendants of the ancient Israelites. And it came to pass and it happened, because this land the true owner of this land is the jews and not the Arabs, God didn't give this land to the descendants of Ishmael, but to the descendants of Isaac, through Jacob (Israel) which God changed his name. God will never abandoned his chosen nation , God will defend israel forever, this the covenant to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob."Only if these decrees vanish from my sight," declares the LORD, "will Israel ever cease being a nation before me." declares the LORD. Jeremiah 31:36This is what the LORD says: "Only if the heavens above can be measured and the foundations of the earth below be searched out will I reject all the descendants of Israel because of all they have done," Jeremiah 31:37So enemies of Israel beware, you're not only fighting Israel, but you're fighting God himself. I feel like the UK should be on there. As an island nation the viable means to invade is by sea or air. Air would cost significantly more to get boots on the ground. and by sea there ships are liable to be annihilated by the highly trained Royal Navy who have been defending the shores since 1546 and the royal air force and royal marines too, who are the UK's standard attacking forces and are equivalent the US Navy Seals, then there is the SAS too who...well.. enough said on them. . India has been invaded my the mughals, european countries and Alexander the Great from the top of my mind. The problem with countries like India and China is that most of their relevant land are flatlands making it easy to a better equipped army to overrun the indian military, although hard but not impossible. China has a bigger issue when it comes to protect from invasions, 95 of their military bases are in Eastern China which are the most acessible from outside (coastline, flatland and also big rivers). The thing about the US is that they are very well spread out on top of that if you invade from one coast they can just create a massive deadzone in the central states and fortify the crap out of the other coastline with their massive navy	Indian	Ethnicity - Native-American	1/136	0.735

the warm clothing/cold weather had absolutely nothing to do with the victory. The part of Russia germany was in has almost identical climate to Germany. And Germany occupied thousands of russian cities/villages so they could always take someone else's coatRussians had million-sized cities in siberia, which is alot colder than south western russia. How do millions of women, elderly , kids, ect, survive the cold their whole life yet professionally trained troops cant survive one winter? How did the Mongols successfully ride all over russian lands and capture them for centuries yet germans cant couldnt even survive the winter? Also, almost all German armies were reinforced on a weekly basis via air drops coming from Germany. If the Germans were cold, they could have ordered coats to be dropped instead of cigarettesThe "we lost because it was cold, not because we are worse soldiers" is an excuse used by Napoleon and the third reichGermany didnt even make it to Moscow. Hydra Gamer yeah ive heard of them, three Abrahamic religions, Judaism, Muslims and Christians. But that is not what God or Christ teaches, that three religions are had the same God, if i tell you this you wouldn't even believe me, about God, Christ, Israel, Muslims and Christians. Those who believed that these three religions came from Abraham that's why it is called 3 Abrahamic religions, can continue to believe if they want, it is not a problem, problem is, Muhammad was born 570 ad, Islam hasnt been founded yet, Allah was not discovered or invented yet, while the true one God "yahweh" who created the universe and this world is the real God of Israel, had made a covenant to his righteous man like Abraham, (like noah) and through his son Isaac, and through his son Jacob, and to his twelve sons, the twelve tribes of Israel, and to the nation of Israel, until Christ comes where God sends His beloved son, for them to be redeemed and be saved, because Christ established a church (Matthew 16:18) although not all jews have listened to Christ, and enter his church because they didn't accept him. Jews who only accept the teachings of Moses not Jesus or law of Moses, were at that time still waiting for the true messaih, because Jesus is the real messaih but they won't accept and believe what God has send them because they want a strong messaih warrior like david, who can deliver them from their enemies like the Romans. That's why they didn't accept Jesus the son of God because they don't want a weak messiah but strong messiah. Those who enter Christ church are called Christians, even today, but not all religious groups today are real like the Catholic church, the real Christians today are only those who have followed and obeyed God's teachings and has entered his Christ body or church. After Christ ascended to heaven, leaving his church to the apostles, but after the apostles have lived their time, and died, satan entered and created a false religion, that is thr Catholic church, created by Roman emperor Constantine, killing and hunting all Christians that the apostles have left. The church of Christ was apostate. Judaism was only created by those jews who did not accept Christ teachings and rejected his church.Now even Muslims claimed that they believed they in Abraham or in Abrahams calling, because both believed in one God (monotheism) but the God of Muhammad is different from the God of Israel. Or maybe he thinks Allah and the God of the jews or Israel is the same. Many people believe this, but thoe people who were chosen or called by God knows the truth. the Bombs did not stop japan but the fact that the Russians which were suppose to mediate surrender for Japan to the allies instead attacked japan in Manchuria 4 hours before the second bomb landed in Nagasaki 9 August 1945. This 3 days after the bomb in Hiroshima landed and no surrender thus knowing that Japan would not surrender but with the soviets in Manchuria, the option for japan to hold with the forces of Manchuria vanished since those were defeated by the USSR. So nobody should claim victory on Japan...and if someone provoked the surrender, it was the soviets. [LINK] [LINK] History speak for itself not those who claim credit. Invading and then taking land is conquering. Invasions are one way to force a nation to surrender. If the USA and Russia got into a shooting war and the US was being beaten but refused to agree to Russia's terms, Russia could choose to launch a land invasion of the states to force the USA to surrender to their terms. This however is most likely a reason why the two nations will never really go to war. In europe, it's entirely possible to quickly invade a country and force a swift resolution. This is impossible for Russia to accomplish. Regardless of how genius Russia's generals are they will still pay easily the highest cost of lives, weapons, and treasure that the world has ever seen to take the States. There is simply nothing the two countries could squabble about that would justify such a huge cost.	Nation, Nothing	Age - Youngsters, Nationality - General	2/146	1.37

history: the UN made a polocy that the region of modern day israel whould be split in two, an arab state and a jewish state, the jews aprooved that and 5 hours later declared their independence, as the jews were dancing and partying for finaly having a state after 2000 years the arab states just thought the jewish state was just some more western colonialism trying to take over their land, so the day after 5 arab states declared war (egypt, transjordan, iraq, syria and lebanon with the support of the arab liberation army) after a year of fighting, israel won the war, officially declaring independence with the whole world supporting it (exept for muslims) while jordan captured the west bank... after 1967, israel fought again with 6 of its nabours, and won again, capturing the west bank from jordan, gaza and sinai from egypt, and the golan from syria... after that israel tried numerous times to make peace with everybody, which it quite succseded in, it traded sinai from egyptian-israeli peace, israel promised to send water to jordan for peace which it is doing till today, and it tried to make a palestinian state 4 times... but the arabs always said NO to these agreements, even if it was agreed east jerusalem whould be their capital, the only thing that always bothered them was that they had to make peace with israel, which they resist, they get money for terrorism (what every terrorist group does) and they spread propoganda about israel not existing after peace talks... Nuno B so tommorrow come and i'm so ready so let's begin first you want to talk about bizanties let's do it you say we tooked they're land ok let's see islam reborned again in alhijaz that you call saudi arabia know all people there we're arab so when the believed in that religion the land belonged to them the muslim cause in the first place she belongs to arabs islam just united them , know let's start explaining we don't care that you said islam started in the 7th centries cause the truth is quran who come in 7th centries not islam islam is the first and only true religion ibrahim peace be upon him named us the muslims he to sons isaaq and ismail peace be upon them isaaq had a son who he named yacoub his the one called israel he is his nickname so all those we're muslims israel before he die tell his sons what is your religion they said your religion and your fathers religion and we are muslims and after thousand years when the grandsons of israel become slaves in missar (egypt) mossa peace be upon him come and saved them they have a holy book from god the tawrath he order them to comback to they're religion the islam and obey god a few did but after years and years sons of israel lost they're land they was hating they're god holding the tawrath in they're hand after she droped from they're heart they decide to rewrited and remove what they don't want and add what they want and so they were not muslims anymore and call them selfs the jews

2. I will told you why we falled behind the west but first let me tell you why you rised , you didn't travelled the world you didn't saw cultures you destroyt her you wasn't always the leaders you had a days when you we're talking with arabic as a sine of education enough for know let's told you why did rised when the andalous falled and when the othmans khilaffa become to get weak and lost they're land you embrace they're scientist and they're books you learn from them and see a chance to become powerfull so you took it and for the andalous you took they're book killed all the rest and immigrate them to almaghreb so thanks to our science you rised and as example the first to create guns was almaghreb (morrocco) but at some lines we stop and give you the lead so you tried your best to delete our history but why we falled because our leaders is not from us you put them to lead us because we focused on your womens it's sound ridiculous but our leaders did and also because we've been idiot and been divided the big maghreb become 5 countries the big misser become 3 and like this but the most important reason because we betraid iraq she was so ivolved in science she was on her way to become as she was once before and the most scary thing is she was in her way and so close to be able to create all what she needs of weapon and the countrie you say that impossible to invade was fucked like a hore with 39 missile in her capital city and even u.s.a with the help of all midle east wasn't able to conquered iraq if the leader of army didn't betrayed sadam hussayn , but we did not fall want a prove look at turkya she is a muslim country and more powerfull than your countrie in everything so just you can make sure that the muslims will rise again and we will never forget.

abdulla khalifa: You seriously need to get your "facts right". All the wars which Israel has fought over the years with its neighbors have never ended with Israel being defeated. In every case, Israel has always kicked ass, much to the embarrassment and dismay of the Arab world.Under the original 1947 UN Partition Plan for the British Mandate of Palestine, soon-to-be-independent Israel was allocated certain territory and borders. Palestine was also given territory and borders. Jerusalem, and the immediate surrounding area, was going to be established as an international city under UN administration. Immediately after Israel's independence in 1948, the Arab neighbors attacked and landed up losing about 60 of the land that was allocated for Palestine. As a result, Israel became much larger than what was established under the 1947 Partition Plan. Palestine suffered loss of statehood and its remaining territory was absorbed by Egypt and Jordan. Israel also annexed Jerusalem, except for the Old City which remained under Jordanian control.At the beginning of June 1967 Israel was attacked by its Arab neighbors. Israel seized and occupied the Sinai and Gaza from Egypt, the Golan Heights from Syria, and the West Bank (including the Old City of Jerusalem) from Jordan. They accomplished this in less than one week in what is called the "Six Day War". Seizing the territories from Egypt and Jordan is how Israel landed up controlling former Palestinian territory and inheriting the "Palestinian Problem". At the moment both Egypt and Jordan have peace treaties and official diplomatic relations with Israel. Lebanon has an unofficial peace treaty with Israel.Again, you need to study history so you actually know what really happened and not spout what you've been told are "facts".	Old	Age - Over 65s	2/286	0.699

An unlawful combatant, illegal combatant or unprivileged combatant/belligerent is a person who directly engages in armed conflict in violation of the laws of war. An unlawful combatant may be detained or prosecuted under the domestic law of the detaining state for such action, subject to international treaties on justice and human rights.[1]The law of war is a legal term of art that refers to the aspect of public international law concerning acceptable justifications to engage in war (jus ad bellum) and the limits to acceptable wartime conduct (jus in bello or international humanitarian law).War is a state of armed conflict between states or societies. It is generally characterized by extreme aggression, destruction, and mortality, using regular or irregular military forcesThe words "regular" and "irregular" have been used to describe combat forces for hundreds of years, usually with little ambiguity. Due to a government's chain of command requirements, the regular army is very well defined, and anybody fighting outside of that (excluding official paramilitary forces) are irregulars. In cases where the legitimacy of the army or its opponents is questioned, some legal definitions have been created.In international humanitarian law, "irregular forces" refers to a category of combatants consisting of individuals forming part of the armed forces of a party to an armed conflict, international or non-international, but not belonging to that party's regular forces and operating in or outside of their own territory even if the territory is under occupation.[1]The Third Geneva Convention of 1949, uses "regular armed forces" as a critical distinction. The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) is a non-governmental organization primarily responsible for, and most closely associated with, the drafting and successful completion of the Third Geneva Convention Relative to the Treatment of Prisoners of War ("GPW"). The ICRC provided commentary saying that "regular armed forces" satisfy four Hague Conventions (1899 and 1907) (Hague IV) conditions.[2] In other words, "regular forces" must satisfy the following criteria: being commanded by a person responsible for his subordinates to a party of conflict having a fixed distinctive emblem recognizable at a distance carrying arms openly conducting operations in accordance with the laws and customs of warBy extension, combat forces that do not satisfy these criteria are termed "irregular forces". names for irregular military formations Auxiliaries Levies Privateer Revolutionary Guerrilla Franc-tireur Ordenanças Partisan Freedom fighter Paramilitary Terrorist Insurgent In short. First, it combines rebels and the IS together. So no, Russia/Syria did not seize 85 percent of ISIS land. U forgot Iraq is pounded with ISIS control as well, especially after Mosul was taken. Iraq surprisingly backed by US coalitions have pushed ISIS out of Mosul and moving west. Also, US stopped supporting rebels fighting assad in 2013 due to ISIS. Steven Salloum I don't think killing innocent people makes him a good leader... and sending weapons is not invading a country... like we support Britain in WW2 with weapons, that is not invading a fcking country. And no, Assad had not killed more terrorist than anyone just only in syria... and 2, US only got into fighting assad in 2017, in which only 2 missiles were launched at a airbase. U are missing a big portion of the story. When US came into syria in 2013, there primary objective was to stopped ISIs from seizing land in Iraq and syria. The war between the US and Syria has not even started yet. Btw, this would make the war 7 years old . Do the math. U are off by a year. Btw, trying to imperialise in the middle east is a lose lose situation for a lot reasons, despite the middle east having a lot of oil How would the US maintain that type of distance across the Atlantic, into the Mediterranean and and across the Middle East... without a buffer land like Guam to refuel... way to much work. I will add that in its short existence, the US has been at war more than any other country so our experience also is added to the factors. With the fact that our first war was to defeat the most military minded country in the world, Great Britain, that says something about our character. We invented gorilla war fare. We have always been at the top of technology. On top of that, there are basically six directions to possibly attack from. Three are the sea and many miles to travel through to get there. The air is next. How are you going to get through the air without the sea. Even so our navy and air force are the most advanced in the world. We would be fighting you from our living rooms with drones for quite a while. By the time you could dream of a plan, we would have a robotic army ready to attack. Our subs and air craft carriers are pretty much everywhere. Our war time industrial power is constantly operational. Our coasts are both lined with mountain ranges where mostly crazy people who shoot guns better than our military live. Deer hunting is their national sport. Everybody has camouflage and guns. Our south is lined with Texas. Then there is Mexico. If you just mention you want directions to the US, they will shoot you. If you go through Canada, you will probably get directed to a marijuana dispensary, get eaten by grizzly bears or freeze to death. That whole path from the north is mostly lined by very large lakes that are so deep, ships have sunk and never been found. If you somehow bypass that, you will be in territories that rain most days out of the year. If you come through any heavy populated areas, you will be stuck in traffic all day. And the people... when a war stops, that's when we shine, we get to all stop fighting with each other and have a common enemy. American pride then jumps to the forefront. We have everybody here who came from intelligent people crazy enough to leave their lands, from the Irish, English, German, Mexican, Latino, African, Italian, Russian, Chinese, Japanese (I'm sure I missed a few) who unite over a common goal of kicking your ass. What a beautiful place. I love it here. All this and I'm not even in the military. First, fake israel is not a country the land belongs to the Palestiniens the israéliens are Zionists who invaded the land and stolen it in 1946 ,and the land will be brought back soon Secondly, fake israel lost a lot of wars before one of them was in October 1973(Yom Kippur war) when israel with the help of the USA lost against Egypte and Jordan and Syria with the help of Algeria,Tunisia,Irak and Morocco for example Ariel Sharon lost all his tank brigade with more than 700 of the best trained Israeli troops in the battle against the Algerian army when they ambushed them ,this was mentioned in a diary of one of Sharon's companions that escaped with him ,his coordination officer i think (i don't remember) Thirdly, if u ask a real Jew he will tell u that the land belongs to the palestiniens and Jews used to live with them in peace before the Zionists started their invasion and now the peace is gone u can find Jews protest every day to stop this and come back to live the way they used to and they agree that the land belongs to the palestiniens (look into youtube) Finally, As Mouammar Kadhafi said We don't need weapons to invade other countries Islam will rule the World sooner or later because it's the truth and already mentioned in Quran 1400 years ago (and it's the fastest growing religion now) sooner almost every body will embrace Islam	Quran	Religious Identity - Muslim	1/247	0.405

There is only one country that hasn't lost a single war even though they had more loses then their enemies.. There is only one country that has an army that hasn't surrendered 1 single time EVER in 1,500 years... It's Mother Russia. Although Lebanon (because of Hezbollah, the terrorist group that divides the Lebanese people) was badly damaged, including 10x more deaths, Hezbollah still exists, but they will be destroyed. Soon. The United States is Israel’s largest ally, the cooperative relations between the two countries good for both sides, in many ways. But much to our grief, USA is younger than 250 years old, and couldn’t save the Jewish nation for more than 3000 years. Even if you look on Israel’s wars you will see you can’t say USA is the only responsible for saving Israel:Israeli war of independence – Israel bought weapon only from Czechoslovakia and fought against Egypt, Jordan, Lebanon, Syria, Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Arab Salvation Army, Army of Holy Jihad and Arabs of Israel.The Kadesh Operation - Egypt received aid from the Soviet Union, Israel from no one.Six-day war- Israel fought alone against Syria, Egypt, Jordan and military delegations from the Arab countries: Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Morocco, Algeria, Libya, Tunisia, and Sudan.War of Attrition Egypt got massive shipments of weapons from the Soviet Union led to the fact that within half a year of the end of the war, about 80 of the weapons it had lost. While the main battles was with Egypt, Israel fought with Jordan, Syria, and the Palestine Liberation Organization on the same time.Yom Kippur War – Israel fought against Egypt, Syria, Iraq, and Jordan few other countries sent troops to help the Arabs like Libya, Morocco and more. The Arab states were supported and armed by the Soviet Union, while Israel was supported by the United States.From those wars and on Israel army was built from self-made weapons and IDF became one of the greatest armies in the world. The State of Israel has never been defeated and there is nothing to discuss about it, just go and check google. I suppose you meant the history of the Jewish people, who was exiled and persecuted many time. As is well known, the exiles were made by the Babylonians and the Romans, the last of them occurred more than 500 years before Muhammad. After the last exile our people were dispersed throughout the world and subjected to repeated harassment, so it is not clear to me what kind of victory you claim to be for Muslims. Even though every generation is standing against us to destroy us, God save us. How are you Muslims better than your predecessors? Enlightened and efficient than the Germans? Crueler than the Cossacks? More religious than the Crusaders? Organized as Romans? With more culture than the Greeks? Want me to continue? How exactly do a bunch of kids with AK and a motorcycle dare to challenge God himself?I see that this discussion deviated from its source regarding the State of Israel and shifted to the topic of religions, where there is no doubt that Islam, which only brought wars and death from its establishment, has an advantage, unlike the Jews, where ever they are , there is morality, development, wealth, science, etc.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/218	0.459

ariel aranSorry to make you feel bad but the Muslims had Jerusalem and the Israel regions under their control for centuries. The Rashid Caliphate, the Umayyad Caliphate, the Abbasid Caliphate, the Fatimid Caliphate, the Ayyubid Caliphate, the Bahri Mamluk, the Bujri Mamluk, and finally, the Ottoman Empire. Muslims have a larger history in Jerusalem and the Palestinian Region more than any other Abrahamic Religion. So don't call it your gifted land, if you didn't have control over it for more than 12 centuries. I respect Judaism, and I have nothing against mainstream Jews. But defending my religion is one of my innate rights.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/104	0.962

Okay, if God, Glory be to Him, had destined the Israelite region to be in the hands of Jews, wouldn't he have allowed that to happen from the beginning of Judaism? Why is it that the Roman Pagans were able to conquer you guys, or the Muslims, in which you consider inferior to your race , or evne the Christian Kingdoms? There is one answer to this. Israel was destined to be under Jewish control for only a certain time period. Even right now, Israel is under the control of not Jews, but radical Zionists who lobby the government to do their bidding.p.s. What do you mean "you think he is your friend that you can demand anything from him?!!!"? I never said anything of that sort.p.s.s And the messenger Muhammad (saw) said: 'Verily Allah has shown me the eastern and western part of the earth, and I saw the authority of my Ummah (nation) dominate all that I saw.' Uniwaffle 61 are u dumb . ARABS AND JEWS ARE THE ORIGINAL SETTLERS. Palestine was not independent Palestine during 1948, it was control by Britain. And Britain decided it would be best for both Jews and Arabs WHO ARE BOTH THE ORGINAL SETTLERS OF THE FCKING LAND to make two independent states. Palestine were given multiple deals that favored them, and they still declined... Israel fought off and even gained land from the countries they fought with like the Suez Canal and the Gaza Bank, and they still gave it back, how is Israel denying human rights when they are literally trying to make peace???? They reason why is because Palestine still revolted for absolute rule, which kicks out all Jews. IS THIS WHAT YOU CALL HUMAN RIGHTS???? I get Israel has killed a shit ton of Palestinians and that's not fcking good either, but the only way is to share that land if u don't want anymore Palestinians dying. AY DIN oh common you don't believe in that do you, that's the problem with people in every Nation , they take their own misguided inner pride and reflect it on something patriotic, national. That's the reason the world is in this shape.. It's good if good things happen to a country, but we are losing sight of the reality of the situation like this. Im talking also about the western propaganda they shamelesly perpetrate in the media of course, that's the side effect of that kind of thinking, at least don't say it in places xD The west plays a game of chicken cowards but they are smart cowards, anything can happen.. The media here in Germany lies to people and manipulates as much as any other place... Invade any country which is in the EU or the NATO or even both.Results: You will be dead and cease to exist.Try to tackle i.e. Switzerland.You have to move through either Italy, Germany or France (let alone Austria xD).Soon the combined military strength of all EU members, plus the NATO members, would hit you.Switzerland has good relations to the EU and the NATO.If the EU goes to war with someone then soon the nordic countries who are not members of the EU but of the NATO would soon join the party (including GB, Norway, etc.).Plus Turkey which is another 500,000 men+ I think.Have fun with that.USA is in NATO so that would most probably lead to WW3.Plus Switzerland has compulsory military service (like Israel).Every household there owns at least 1 firearm.Now I don't know what the average of owned firearms in a Suisse household is but even if you were to defeat the combined military strength of the EU and the NATO then you would still have to deal with the Suisse population.After all, why would one even want the hell that bloody mess is to invade a peaceful nation like Switzerland? So No that will never happen because France and England's militaries are both powerful and advanced . USA already wins because it expanded its territorial reach took away all of the old Soviet union territory when the Soviet union collapsed. Now Russia can't even sneak out of their region because they are surrounded by NATO countries that are allies of USA and Canada and they are surrounded by USA military bases around the world basically being strategically boxed in. awesomemike - yes it represents freedom because in USA you are free to speak how ever you feel without going to jail or worse for it , there is freedom of speech here. There here in the USA you can become anything you want here as long as you work for it. New world order is a 240 year old phrase which was invented after our American ancestors landed in the NEW WORLD (North America,central America and South America) and wanted to create their own kind of government that would be fair and balanced to its citizens. Russia will never become our ally since they spread propaganda about USA just because we became the world's superpower in the shortest time in recorded history. USA doesn't militarily take over and try to annex countries just because it wants to like Russia. Ussr collapsed fair and square because of poor governing and irresponsible economic activity so they lost Ukraine and Crimea fairly but tried to illegally grab it back just because all the NATO countries and USA now surround them and Russia is irrationally paranoid. And no one likes Donald Trump in this country only stupid poorly educated broke people and rich white republican racists do. sivan suresh, There is an acceptable reason behind why India and China has such a huge population, and that is because of its rich land for agriculture, role in international marketing in history, and ancient civilization.By the way, the calculations that you said are wrong. India's population is 1.324 billion(agreeing the fact that it was approx. 300million in 1940s). India's literacy rate has increased from 12 in 1947 to 74 in 2011, with kerala being the state with a literacy rate of 95(which is actually higher than many developed countries). Thus, this shows that india's literacy rate has drastically improved with a hike over the past 70 years.Well, there is nothing like perfect, but when you always go through the statistics of indian(or any country's) politics and crimes, after independence, you can definitely find that the crime rates and correption are reducing slowly. You won't find any country in the world without a dark side. All you need to do is to work for your country and the rest of the planet, with a hope.I'm a mechanical engineer. To a mechanical engineer, carnot engine(something that cannot be made in real world) is always a dream to invent. Whenever an engine(let it be any engine) is manufactured, engineers compare it with a theoretical Carnot engine, to know how similar they are. Even though we know that Carnot engine is not possible, still we try to achieve carnot engine's efficiency. That's called hope, the thirst to become the best, and then better than the best. What I mean to say is, all those other countries where ones like India in terms of productivity and efficiency. They worked hard to make the most out of them and to earn that so called reputation. Just like that, india is also improving(as you can see that mathematically too). How kerala achieved such a good literacy rate? Did they got independence earlier than other states did? NO!.... It's the attitude that they keep up among them and shared it to their next generations. Speaking of Kerala, I also noted that Kerala is the least correpted state in India. Aren't they indians? They were also at the same level of other states in 1947, still they managed to rank 1st in education, health, politics and standard of living. Keep in mind that kerala's ranking itself even stands higher than a few developed countries too. So, its not the history that speaks the future, but, its the present .	Engineers, Hike, Indian, Nothing	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Native- American, Nationality - General, Nationality - Italian	4/414	0.966

Justin Mathew Does this literacy rate of 74 includes school-dropouts and people those who could barely sign their names instead of using their thumb impression? My idea of education is that atleast, people have finished up their high schools, could read books, newspapers, exposed to newer ideas and social changes. I don't know what to say about Kerala. Much of Kerala is working in gulf countries and as hospital nurses all over India. Kerala's economy is often dubbed as 'Money Order Economy'. Few major corporations and manufacturing plants are headquartered in Kerala. Cleaning toilets of Arabs is not how i describe success story. When I think about developed country, I picture heavily industrialised and economically dominating Germany as an ideal nation to follow. Whole world admires their work ethics, efficiency and ability to develop their country's economy after destruction caused by second world war.	Nation	Nationality - General	1/144	0.694
sivan suresh, //Justin Mathew Does this literacy rate of 74 includes school-dropouts and people those who could barely..../ I don't know. Anyway, 12 and 74 are calculated with the same criterias. What we can notice is a big change between old india and new india in terms of literacy. Something you earlier said as declining.Keralites in gulf countries are 0.1 of country's population. And this 0.1 sents sum of around 15.12 to remittance of india, annually. You know how much is that 15.12? Its 6.5 billion USD per annum. So 0.1 is doing some serious shit there, rather than sitting somewhere and complaining about their own country. Ever heard of these personalities from Kerala? Joy Alukas- the person who has 130 jewelry showrooms in 14 countries including USA. He started his carrier in middle East. Yousaf Ali- a person who makes a turn over of $7.4 billion annually. Started carrier in middle East.(quick fact: he's the owner of India's largest mall)B. Ravi Pillai- forth most powerful person in middle East. Net worth $3.5 billion.These are a few among many. You think that they earned this by washing arab's toilets.By the way, you haven't said anything about least correpted state, health, etc. of the state, kerala.So your opinion is, India should become like Germany over a night?Because I already told you how India is developing and improving itself. You didn't say anything about it.Germany's GDP - 3.467 trillion USDIndia's GDP - 2.264 trillion USDBritain's GDP - 2.619 trillion USDAustralia's GDP - 1.205 trillion USDCanada's GDP - 1.53 trillion USDThis shows that india is already near to developed countries in terms of economy. 1st question: why India should become like Germany when India has her own carrier to follow? 2nd question: If Germany is the ideal country, then why not other countries following it? China, if focusing their attentions, could "potentially" grab a large chunk of the world, minus the U.S. However, as most communist dictatorships do, as does North Korea, heavily controls the media and external communications that would show the glaring weaknesses in the country. They are trying to industrialize to compete with the big nations, at the expense of large pockets and population densities, which makes China as a long term super power a pipe dream.Iran should not be on this list. China isn't on this list, could be but for reasons stated above, is not. The next multinational war will see them off the map as they are today. Same for North Korea. Hazly Salleh palestine didnt exist... In 1947 arabs attacked israel so they are the aggressors... And israel won... But when they won they got territory (its the abc of war) and jordan occupied the west bank and egypt occupied gaza... In 1967 the arabs again attacked israel and israel got even more land (sinai,golan,west bank,Gaza) and they had to decide what they want to do with this land... So in 1978 they gave back sinai to egypt in exchange for a peace treaty... Then they theid with jordan but there were already about 50,000 israelis that moved to the west bank (ill call them settlers) so every time israel wanted to make peace/a palestinian state proposal they had to take into consideration the settlers that were living there... Fast forward to 2005 and israel withdrew from gaza... But hamas started firing rockets at civilians to try to destroy israel... After 2 years of rockets being sent to israel israel invaded gaza and cut off their electricity supplies(and if you are not retarded you would probably move to another place, those who didnt its their problem that they elected hamas as their leaders) again fast forward to now... Sophia, the whole WW2 part of your comment is wrong, the Germans would have fallen to the Red Army despite America joining or not. However, America joining just sped up the process. And to the terrorist side of the reply section, America is not a terrorist country, President Bush is completely to blame for wrongly invading Iraq. Iraq may have had their own problems with Saddam but these problems were not Bush's problems, therefore he is wrong and rightfully deemed a war criminal for invading them and so are his counselors for agreeing to the war. In fact, it is humiliating that Bush got the go ahead to invade the most anti- terrorist regime in the middle east. Saddam may have been a bad ruler but he was extremely anti terrorist and the reason we have ISIS today is because of Bush, he made Iraq a breeding ground for terrorists. It's all well and good until the children start requesting the UK to be on this list. The amount of incorrect WW2 statements is terrifying. Firstly if we're gonna debate the UK being on this list we have to ignore all previous historical invasions and defences as has been done for many countries on this list. Forget 1066, forget WW2, just think about the modern day British military. The modern day British military is drafted at a low standard but trained to some of the (if not the) highest standards in the world. However numerically that military isn't large and nor is the vehicular count bar naval warships. Now of course a defence of Britain would mostly be done by air and sea, where most countries probably couldn't surpass us except those with sheer weight of numbers. We also posses warships with anti-missile capabilities as well, so breaking the iron naval barrier would be a hard step. However, if a land army did hit the shores that is where things get unpredictable and interesting. Britain is one of the biggest arms dealers in the world, we produce a LOT of weaponry, so supplies would likely not become choked at any stage from any angle. The terrain of the UK is largely flat meaning long range combat with a focus on armoured/mechanised warfare until a city is reached. Cities in the UK are fairly tightly built, most towns being only half an hour from another town, so urban combat would also be common. There is no known land based defence system in the UK, so not much more to analyse. I imagine it simply comes down to numbers being the core weakness and fairly simple weather and flat ground. Large countries with modern technology like the US, Russia, China and India would probably overpower us in a single country vs country war. But the greatest strength of Britain is that it would never become a single country vs country war. Also as history has proven time and again, Britain is more likely to be the invader rather than the invaded.	Common	Social Class - Working class	1/349	0.287

lol, they would be easily invaded and destroyed. Every single country on earth has a population that will never quit and fight to the death to defend their families and country. Nothing special about Lebanon at all. They are just another Satan worshipping country that God is punishing and will put an end to soon enough. Allah predates Islam and is another form of sun worship which is Lucifer worship which is Satan worship. If Muslims would only do some research and look into their religion and how it actually fits into real Christianity (not Catholicism or fake Protestantism) it is VERY VERY easy to see Islam is a false religion started by Satan, not the angel Gabriel. Every single thing Islam teach is the exact opposite of what God and all his prophets taught. Muhammed was a pedophile, a liar, a thief, a murderer, a bigot, a war monger, an a disgusting human being. That whole religion or cult I should say was messed from the very start. Palestine is not a country. Israel, on the other hand, is a recognized nation that actually exists in reality. Palestine is nothing more than an Arab wet dream- and a shitty one at that. If Israel was meant to be destroyed or "cease to exist", it would have happened already during the numerous attempts of several Arab states working together to invade Israel at the same time- but they are clearly inept and could not get it done. Far from all of them would be impossible to invade, atleast for the big hitters. It's just that it'd be to costly to do so for what you get or it'll assure your own destruction. That's why we see someone as powerful as US still only daring to invade third world countries with basically no airforce or tech from 30 years ago at best. US could invade Iran or North Korea on their own and win, but it'd take to much time, american lives, resources and effort. It'll also weaken them, risk a potential nuclear retaliation, probably end in a withdrawal like Vietnam due to americans themselves beeing fed up before the work is finished and they'd gain almost nothing from it. Any action they'd take would likely be missiles, air raids, sanctions and harassment only. No boots on the ground. And USA invading someone like Russia would be impossible even discounting nukes. US is stronger but they are not 5-10 times stronger wich usually is the ratio you need if you are the attacker against a dug in foe.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/180	0.556

Chris Brann, we may share the same name but my facts are right, The US was not the fall of Germany, the Red Army was. Britain would have kept her land. The German's army may have outmatched ours, in number and technology but Britain's Navy was too superior to even land a naval invasion. Whilst Britain had held out the Red Army would have crushed their way to Berlin either way.Don't think i'm saying the US was useless, the US was in fact the catalyst of the war. Germany was losing the war against Russia in late 1941 due to the Russian merciless winter however America joining the war helped the Allies with enough manpower and equipment to counter-invade the Reich and end the war faster. Jesus, so many brain washed/uneducated Americans who obviously have not studied WW2 in detail. 'America spearheaded the invasion of France Italy and Africa' is also false, to claim America, who was in fact less involved in the western front than you think they were, spearheaded the liberation of France and the invasion of Italy by themselves and say Britain 'helped' is preposterous, it was actually the opposite way round. Field Marshal Montgomery (British) led the African and Italian campaign with the assistance of Free France and America, With all of the allies liberating France with America's assistance. The only campaign you can say America truly led with all their force is the pacific campaign against Japan, and even then it was not a 'spearhead', it was a bloody war for both America and Japan. Well, they attempted to. And failed, if you remember well. I don't think Iran would be impossible to invade, it would just be a though nut to crack. If you look at WWII, countries on both sides put incredible efforts into winning. Total war and all that. If powerful nations (at this point, let's say the USA) absolutely wanted to take over Iran for some reason, they could. It just wouldn't be a walk in the park like, say, the war in Irak was. It's a matter of how determined they would be. The video is a bit confusing, using too different reasons to justify putting a country on the list. Israel has too good an army and was undefeated previously? Well...but its army had been facing subpar adversaries. So, it depends on who is doing the invading. And there's no guarantee that even its neighbours won't in the future become much more militarily powerful. At which point it becomes very "invadable" because it's a tiny country whose army can't exactly withdraw by 100 kms and regroup to fight another day. Switzerland cannot be invaded because all its neighbours are allied? OK, but that too is circumstantial. They might not be 50 years down the road. And even though their army and defense system is thought highly of, it has never been tested. If, say, Germany had attempted an invasion in the 40s, it might have proved much easier than some believe. We just can't know. Also, by this reasoning, Luxembourg can't be invaded either, since it has only allies around it. But in fact, it would take probably a couple hours to invade it if someone wanted to. Bhutan can't be invaded because it benefits from Indian protection? What if it was India that wanted to annex it? Or the USA that invaded Canada?Basically, it seems to me that video is mixing apples and oranges making for a weird list. How having nukes makes you immune to invasion? Is any country going to nuke their own land to kill invaders? It is a deterrent againt war for sure, but definitely not a safeguard against invasion. Pretty lame thing to include nukes here. N secondly why would any country in its right mind even want to conquer Bhutan? What strategic advantage it gives? Neha Susan Aby invading a country doesn't mean just go and attack the country. that country maintains good relations with many countries. it has only threat for Palestine and some Islamic and terrorist groups. the threat was from more than 70 years at far as I know. The Holy DM "Best", no. + Eskimo Dota 2 You cannot consider Russia winner of WW2 considering it was an alliance of nations on all fronts. Russia had the highest casualties that is staggering for any war (over 20 million civilians and military troops combined). That sacrifice cost them so much that I would not consider it a real win. Korean War was started by NK as they invaded SK in 1950. We stepped in to prevent a domino effect of communism as China turned to a communist country the year before as well as the USSR was spreading it throughout rest of Asia. An armistice ended up being signed by NK,SK,China, and the US because it would have ended up much more worse than it was at the time for all sides. Vietnam War we won the war by military however, we lost it because politicians did not hold up their end of the peace treaty signed by North Vietnam when they surrendered. The Iraqi war and war in Afghanistan were blundered wars with some good and bad results. We got our main guys however, at costs not worth it for the length of time we were there. OnlineYou are diverging from the Topic. Israel is not as strong as the world is made to believe. I have already shown its vulnerability. Egypt, even without the help of the then USSR, licked Israel. This is total nonsense that Israel is strong and beat the shit out of all her neighbours. She is not, without the massive help from the WEST, can defend herself, period. Thanks to the United WEST's help and fragmented Arabs, Israel can laugh and enjoy. Iran is a big and strong country. Its Armed Forces have fought real Battles for 8 years without any help from any one. At the last reliable count, she has 10,000 long-range Missiles that can reach Israel in no time. Even if she fires only 10 and 90 of them were intercepted, that still leaves 100 Missiles to make Israel a cauldron, especially if they are directed towards the Capital. BTW, most of the Israeli Anti Missile Umbrella is devoted to protect its Nuclear Assets. There is no way Israeli Umbrella can protect the whole country. I am not advocating a war between Iran and Israel. Israel has real problems with its Orthodox Jewish Community: Neturei Karta that regards Israel an abomination on Jewish Faith and advocates its destruction for the reason that only Meshiach Messiah from the lineage of David shall establish Erzet Yisraaeel and rebuild the Sacred Temple. Neither Ben Gurion nor Balfour was the Meshiach Messiah. Most Orthodox Jews do not accept the Reformists Zionists. Erzet Yisraaeel is a G d given Sacred Theocracy with Biblical Laws governing the State and its Citizens: Jews and Gentiles. No premarital sex , bikinis, modern music, Sabbath, no pork, no homosexuals same sex marriages, only allowed food according to Leviticus, the list is quite long. Israel's invasion of South Lebanon and subsequent pushback by Hizbullah is considered a defeat and that was the last time Israel went on foreign adventures since then although it is a nation of 'lions' that subjugates Palestinians in Gaza, Westbank, Colonised Palestine ie 'Israel' the land founded by European Jews and peopled by British, Russians, Americans, Germans, Polish, Lithuanians etc. and later joined by Arab/Mizrahi Jews in the 1950s by Mossad agent bombings of synagogues in Egypt, North Africa, Yemen, Iraq and Syria etc. The world's most powerful state USA is guarantor of Israel's existent not the Jewish,Zions entity's invincibility as British, US and French Jews fought in defeating Arab 'armies' and US satellite systems giving reports to Israeli military establishment. Israel is West block's representative in the Middle at as written by Theodore Hertzl in his tract The Jewish State back in the closing years of 19th century and only a few years later the British promised to occupy Palestine and hand the territory to the Zionists in the Balfour Declaration - it must be remembered that Balfour's wife was the illegitimate daughter of Lord Rothschild of the richest man in the world and funder of the Zionist project. This video like most Western sources is biased when it comes to Israel and tries to portray it as a small David against big Arab Goliad but the truth is directly the opposite. Aayush Singh I already knew you were Indian once you brought India into this, and the United States trumps China, again, it's not about number of personnel, but the quality, China isn't the most powerful in the world or even close, and the geography of India does make it hard to invade, but the United States in ww2 launched one of the largest invasions in history, most widely known as d-day, the United States and Britain invaded the shores of France owned by Nazi Germany, and succeeded, after hours of taking on machine gun fire from the German, having to run to as much cover as they can on a beach, which isn't easy, and get to their buildings, which also wasn't easy, but the United States and Britain did it, so I wouldn't underestimate the US, and they always say, pride comes before the fall, don't become to prideful. I'm not underestimating the army of India, but what I am saying is the United States has a good chance of succeeding; but not every country is invincible, and in the Korean war, the US was pushed back by the Chinese, but it was a surprise attack on the US forces, and the US eventually was able to push China back; creating the current borders we see today, in addition the US didn't go all out in the Korean war, id think if they did, it would be more widely talked about, but it's not. i don't know how it is today, but atleast in my generation, the Egyptian education system was very biased against Israel, as are the European education systems. many children in those countries were taught the the Sinai was retaken in an Egyptian military victory rather than given for peace; they learn that there was a Palestinian country before the Zionist Usurped them, both of which are false.The Palestinians are not indigenous to Israel, most of them did not even call themselves "Palestinians" until after the 67 war.as for the lack of peace, 3 different Israeli Prime Ministers offered the Palestinians what they wanted, but were always met with more violence, and more excuses.let me tell you something interesting: when the PLO was created in 1964, their charter for what they listed as "Palestine"included all of Israel EXCEPT for the Gaza strip, Judea, and Samara, which were under Egyptian and Jordanian control. they didn't even have any demands on east Jerusalem! only AFTER these territories came under Jewish control in 1967, the PLO actually went and CHANGED their charter, to include all of the land that was now Israel.in other words, if an Israeli purchased an island, in french Polynesia, that that too would automatically become a part of "Palestine"the boarders of "Palestine" are flexible, and redrawn to encircle any land that is under Jewish control.the aim of the PLO is not to liberate Palestine (which was never a country to begin with) but rather to destroy Israel, which is why their is not a single Palestinian protest against the Heshemites of Jordan, who currently occupy 80 of the mandate. Yasser Arafat, the founder of Fatah (who was actually born in Cairo, Egypt) said the following "the end of Israel is the goal of our struggle, it allows for neither compromise nor meditation... we do not want peace, we want war, victory! peace for us means the destruction of Israel, and nothing else"and of course, while the "moderate" PLOs charter does indeed call for the destruction of Israel, it still is not quite as bad as Hamas, who do not only call for the destruction of Israel, but the genocide of Jews worldwide! Ahmad Kamal lol, read the history, Israel didn't lose at the 2006 Lebanon war, the results are stalemate. Cuz both claimed victory.Date: 12 July – 14 August 2006(Israeli blockade of Lebanon ended on 8 September 2006)Location: Lebanon, Northern Israel and the Golan HeightsResult: Stalemate,both sides claim victoryCeasefire through UNSC Resolution 1701The Lebanese Army is introduced into South Lebanon and UNIFIL deployments reinforced.None of their objectives met? The conventional first impression was that Hezbollah won the war by surviving and demonstrating that it had the will and the capability to fight Israel to a standoff. But the emerging 'big picture' suggests Hezbollah was seriously damaged both physically and politically and that while Israel did not achieve the decisive victory many expected, it did improve its strategic position.Although Israel could not prevent the launching of missiles, it did severely degrade Hezbollah capabilities. The majority of the long-range missiles and a partial stock of Hezbollah's Katyusha rockets were destroyed. In fact, after the war it was disclosed that the Israeli Air Force destroyed 59 intermediate and long-range missile launchers during a 34-minute raid on the second day of the war. The July 13 strike on Iranian-made Zelzal and Fajr missiles prevented Hezbollah from carrying out its threats to attack central Israel.Another positive outcome of the war was to further weaken Syrian influence in the country, which was partly exercised through Hezbollah. It also reduced Syria's ability to threaten Israel indirectly through its Lebanese proxy.To the extent Hezbollah is viewed as having lost the war, it also represents a defeat for Iran, which armed, financed and trained its terrorist army.Wrong they didn't lost many tanks, only 5 tanks were damaged.Still the casualties are many from Arabs than jews. So whatever you say about this war is always fucking wrong.Ten years after last Lebanon war, Israel warns next one will be far worse. [LINK]	Terrorist	Religious Identity - Muslim	1/322	0.311

With 30,000,000 + armed citizens of which 5,000,000 to 7,000,000 are armed military veterans . And 3,000,000 of the 5 - 7 million well armed, well trained and highly motivated veterans are between 20 and a very capable still 55 years old means a invading Army would have to be a billion strong starting out . 20 would not land on american soil. 30 of those that do will die in the 1st 24 hours and another 10 in the next 48 hours. And within the next 48 hrs millions of well armed Americans from the heartland will have arrived to each of Americas Shores and reinforced those who have survived the previous 72 hours of hell. And at that point the mass casualties sustained by any remaining invaders will have reached levels their commanders will rightly decide unsustainable and either make a hasty retreat or attempt a surrender. Both of which would probably still end in a bunch more dead invaders	Old	Age - Over 65s	1/162	0.617

Of course, China's army is much stronger than Bhutan's (which in fact may be refering to Nepal). But if a country is easy or not to invade does not depend only or even primarily on military might. Other factors are more important (and in some China scores low): 1) unity 2) educational and culture level 4) topography 3) average body and mind health 4) selfish and narrow materialism versus ethical values, solidarity, idealism, spiritual life (if you are materialist, you will be easily bought off by the ennemy, that's what happened when China was invaded by Japan) 5) supreme loyalty to the family or to the nation (Chinese people tend to sell their nation if they can thereby protect their family, so the ennemy just has to catch one member of their family and they will be submissive to him). And no, the US and it's allies would need to use nuclear weapons. North Korean missiles require 30 mins before they are launched. Allied satellites would detect launch start up and presence of a payload. They would be destroyed before lift off. The North Korean army, air Force, and Navy use weapons dating to the 1950s-1970s. Daniel Brotskiy, your list is based on a different premise than Alltime10s list of hardest countries to invade because it is based on countries that have been historically hardest to invade rather than what is now the case, however it is not historically accurate as though you claim it to be based on the last 300 years nor is it a fair comparison to begin with. First of all, Russia when it was invaded by France in 1812, France captured Moscow in the Battle of Borodino with less guns and after marching 575 miles (912 km) and Russia was a fully developed world power. When Britain burnt Washington in 1814, two years later it was undefended, and they - the British were forced to abandoned the capital city by a severe storm with a tornado that tossed canons, damaged ships, and killed British soldiers, also the invasion was later repulsed at Baltimore by an American coastal fort. France's invasion of Russia wasn't repulsed and the British didn't march hundreds of miles like the French, they simply bullied there seasoned soldiers and Royal Marines onto shore with the world's biggest navy who fought militia who still inflicted more casualties on the British invaders. America was only around thirty years old, Russia started as Kievan Rus' in 882 and over three hundred years later in 1240 it was completely conquered by the Mongolian Empire. The biggest empire in the world couldn't conquer America when it was first established in 1776 and America hasn't even existed for 300 years. Actually it's funny you should use the burning of Washington as a reason to put Russia ahead of America on the list when Moscow has been captured and sacked dozens of times throughout history, e.i: Siege of Moscow (1382), Fire of Moscow (1571), Lithuanian-Commonwealth occupies Moscow from 1610 to 1612, Battle of Borodino, ...etc. Another thing, you call Americans "shitty warriors" based on America's wars with Afghanistan and Vietnam. First, those are invasions and Russia has failed more invasions, one you mentioned - Finland, and lost a war in Afghanistan, America hasn't. During the Russian Civil War, America deployed troops in Russia to fight the Red Army. The Americans won 6/8 battles and inflicted more casualties on the Russians while outnumbered. Furthermore, you put Japan ahead of America even though the US Navy captured Okinawa, Japan's southern most island in 1944. China shouldn't be on the list at all, especially if you are going by the last 300 years since much of China was conquered by Japan in 1940 and all of the Chinese dynasties were conquered by the Mongolians before that. America is the hardest country to invade historically because it is the only country that hasn't been conquered.	Old, Red	Ideological and Political Identity - General, Age - Over 65s, Ethnicity - Native-American	3/456	0.658

the only reason japan surrendered, was not because of america. after 2 nukes they still did not surrender. they still wanted to figth for their emperor and defend their homeland, because they knew america would not risk an invasion, since it would resolve in over a million casuالتis of american forces. it was the russian forces being crazy enough to risk those numbers and conquer japan. thats why they surrendered after 24hours+ after the second nuke dropped on japan. to keep their nation . otherwise japan would be a part of Russia today. George Lahoud you're so stupid. I clicked on the link and it says: Palestinians that died in the war. WAR M8 I don't know what happened or what war was it but even if it wasn't against Palestinians or that shit, people die in wars. so our people died and so did yours. I bet my life and family our soldiers didn't kill because they wanted to kill, or it was an accident. and if it wasn't any of those reasons, I assure you they are punished. don't get me started with posting all the links for your terrorist attacks, because my list will be too big for your little stupid brain to understand. George Lahoud why do you think supplies were blocked? because they were supplies to attack us and shoot missiles at us. if people died, they were probably your soldiers that were trying to kill ours. people die in wars, so did ours. i dont care for the diffrence in numbers because you started the fight and you will get punished. they dont stop starting fights we seriously want peace and nothing else. missiles were shot at us, what did you think will happen? that you will get away with it? we launched missiles at you and the only thing that saved us that they didnt have is the motherfucking iron dome. btw about that lyle tamimi family thing: two months ago a jewish family was doing a kiddush (a jewish ritual where they read from a book and do some other things) and a muslim got into their house and stabbed them all. murdered 4 people. you think innocents only die for your guys? well there like 10 terrorism cases everyday here. Marwan spelling mistakes happen to everyone don't they? second, it was Egypt AND Syria, next up, we were attacked at yom kippur which is the day everyone is resting with no electronics no action and nothing but going to the synagogue and prey. our most vulnerable day. very smart by Egypt! they had an extremely successful start since our soldiers weren't defending us, but they were called and we halted them and that ended up a stalemate. then Syria attacked us from the north, and we defended that much more easily. Sadat wanted to capture some good tactical places located deeper in Sinai, so he sent his military forces and we destroyed them. stuff happend and now we have peace. you should probably stop insulting Israel and start learning your shit	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/131	0.763

firstly fosters brewed in other countries actually tastes better.. we think its the water.Australia should not be on this list.. the Aussie military has a few strong points namely a small amount of elite military sas and a handful of next gen fighters and ace pilots sadly though these cannot compensate for the extremely low military budget and even worse military planing. the ol desert argument is very tired and outdated. nowadays military's have infared/night vision, combined with spy satellites its pretty hard to hid anywhere short of an underground lead walled bunker. and here is other reason why Australia shouldn't be on the list. the Australian coast line is 25,760 km long its so large that Australia's meagre air force and navy combined cannot patrol it effectively and have to fill in the gaps with UAV's. knowing this the budget is still spent stupidly on things that aren't needed like tactical destroyers and heli carriers and pointless military tech. swat teams are better armed then most reserve troops which make up a large amount of Australia fighting force. your average american yokel has a modular assault rifle and is better armed... even insurgents are using ak' variants and are better armed. instead of turning the navy into an air power buying up old carriers and pre gen jets. quantity has a quality all of its own. countries like Israel and India that were buying up ex-gen fighters now have enough design know how to develop and build there own and Australia spins its wheels trying to keep a quickly ageing concept like navy relevant instead of turning itself into a air superpower. the number of carriers by country is 1/2 across a small handful of countries and the US has 11 with 40+ in reserve or decommissioned.and they are currently replacing their super carriers with next gen super carriers. why? because carrier groups are extremely effective. Australia wouldn't put up much of a fight vs a country like north Korea. even though their tech is extremely old and there troops are starving. they are conditioned by the hardship they live as well as from the propaganda they are brainwashed with. with a large enough amount of fighters and tanks they could easily overpower any defence made.the only hope Australia has to defend its boarders is an implementation of naval air power, carrier groups patrolling each coast ready to intercept "problems" before they land. i live in Australia and im not being un patriotic, just realistic. its impossible to make the military budget for army navy and air force stretch and protect our boarders effectively so isn't it realistic to cannibalise the weak link? Israel could easily do a land patrol but they wanted to do sweep out all or majority of the Palestinians so they can take the remaining lands. Zionists do control the media so does USA if you don't know that which is pretty simple to understand then it is you who is brain dead. Swipy It was Britain that gave you permission to live in Palestine (I think after WW2) but what right did they have to give you land that didn't even belong to them. Secondly, the Palestinian's did accept you living there you Jews were all treated well but from long before you moved to Palestine the Jews had a plan to conquer Palestine and make it their own country it was a lengthy plan but you did pull it off. Nobody was against you until you took advantage and stole the Palestinian lands. Muslims and Jews could have lived in peace and harmony but you Zionists don't believe in that you want to feel power and you're greedy filths. It's easy saying you want to live in peace now after Israel's mission is pretty much already completed but even with all the power of the world you can't conquer Gaza because Allah has protected the remaining lands and it's people. Palestinian's aren't treated nowhere near as well as the Jews are treated in Israel.	Nobody	Age - Youngsters	1/173	0.578
Swipy Where's your brain at? and you don't want them to live in peace I can definitely tell you're a zionists with so many lies filled within a single comment lol. Now compare this to Gaza if you look at the city it looks completely destroyed well it is completely destroyed and you say Israel was defending themselves? Haha slap yourself man. WW2 was when Zionists started becoming the ones in power. The school systems force us to learn that Germans were the bad country when really they were fighting against Zionism and guess what even our school systems are controlled by Zionists so in school history lessons we're taught lies. Hitler was a good man he should have finished you all off. If the world was so desperate to give you land the nations that voted for you should have given you their lands not someone else's. Stop talking shit Israel are terrorists why debate with me something that's straightforward and easy to see. Probably... China easier to conquer than Bouthan is kind of weird to me ! USA, China then Russia are the 3 full-range-of-advantages stronghold, others are somehow destroyable... - Europeans are already dying internally, no need an agressor to see them fall (i'm french, and mostly whoever would attack my country would be my savior... a bit joking) our soldiers already want to kill each others, and have less discipline and nationalism than some african militia... not joking there, only a few elites worth something for foreign agressions...- Israel rely 100 on a religious network and our "beloving", but by itself, it's too tiny to be on this list.- India is in my opinion very weak on many crucial points... absolutely breakable in many ways.- DPRK is a matter of weeks against China or USA. (a kind of poorer but more fanatical 1991 Iraq)- Iran, just like Turquey, is very solid but after some good old bombing would fall...- Both Japan & UK would be my top 4 & 5 but rely on alliances and beeing islands, they are no match alone against the top 3.- Bouthan is among the weakest country in the world (a week to be conquered by Belgium, 3h by China)- Australia is an empty land, conquering the coast doesn't seems incredible to me... gaj sylvain, I m Indian and it's my duty to tell u that India has 4 best military in the world, and u r saying India is breakable,lol we r nuclear nation , we have defense agreement with Russia and US both ,we have about 2200 aircraft,2 aircraft carrier, over 6500 tanks, chemical and biological weapons,2nd biggest army in the world and largest volunteer army,we have fifth largest nominal military Budget and also I hope u know, that this is nominal if u do know about ppp(purchasing power parity) then we have even more huge defense Budget then what it's look like, we have nuclear submarine and best supersonic missiles in the world which is bramhos, fastest missile ever and no defense shield and radar can detect it, even China our enemy have a huge rumour about that missiles in their media ,our agni 5 covers more then half of the Europe,cover whole Asia also we have one of the best anti ballestic missile defense shield like prithvi air defense (made in India) and Israeli arrow 2 air defense also Russian S-400 air defense.yes in past India was invaded many time but now India was not longer old India , India was invaded becoz India was never United through out their history except at the time of Alexander after that India was always divided into princely States so we was not united but now we have heat to destroy most of the countries, definitely better Iran which u stated strong and India as weak, just search global fire power index, Wikipedia and other neutral sources about Indian army, even we have won 4 war against pak(which is 13 military power in world) and 1 war against China in 67 although we also lost terribly in 62 against China. I didn't want to look down to india in my post, it's a fabulous country with a great future (i hope), sorry if i made a fast resume of my thoughts. India do have a huge army (with limited but efficient nukes), a quite large economy, a massive population. And i trust that just like in France your elites units are exeptional (i doubt more on standard units). I did travel in India (mumbai & Hyderabad), and lived 5 years in China, sincerely the gap is huge, they are much much richer, can see that in less than 5 minutes right in airport... So does the army... I know ppp (It has very limited direct influence on the military, It's not the Power to Purchase weapons Parity), the more u are developped the less ppp matters (generaly), some african countries have 500 ppp while super-rich country can have less than 80, doesn't show everything, i know military budgets (india 50 china 120, and i don't think chinese are honest about it...).By the way, they aren't your enemy as i know, they would prefer doing business than war, BRICS should stand together, whatever the past, ennemies are maybe not who you think... Disobey US once to see my meaning !What makes me feel India is breakable, Ethnical & religious divisions, poverty (average people), political weaknesses, lack of ressources, bad infrastructures and a not so good geography. Indian Army is definitely not the problem ! India is definitely somewhere behind the top 3, not far, i agree with you ! (Only my personal opinion)	African, Indian	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - Native-American	2/265	0.755
Yes bro, they r richer then us, they have 7 percent of population below poverty line and we have about 20, their per capita income is 4 time then us, their economy is also about 4 and half time greater then us in nominal and 2 and half time according to ppp and in infrastructure they r at least 25 year better then us, but our economy is growing fast . So, yes they r better then us overall but in term of the military, we can match them, because we have preferred military more then our economy since we got our freedom,becoz we have very bad history of invasion of mughals and British. Your all point is valid except geography one.yes we have bad political system and our government is corrupt this is our weakness that's why we had lost against China in 62 war. But our geography is quite good. We have thar desert in West, Himalaya in North and North East which protect us from Invaders (also this mountain range was the reason for pushing back Chinese army in 67 from Sikkim)and other side has ocean around ,Indian ocean and Arab sea and we have great navy in ocean .only problem with North West, this is the area where all of the Invaders comes through out the history,(although British comes from ocean route) and we know our weakness and that's why we hugely invest on military, so geography point is invalid , though other point is good.	Indian	Ethnicity - Native-American	1/254	0.394

10. Iran hasn't been invaded since WW2. Yeah, apart from that little war in 1980 when Iraq invaded Iran and 1.5 million people died. 9. Australia has already been invaded dudes. As of the 2016 census, the Chinese now outnumber Europeans in Sydney, and the Communist state is financially taking over Australia. 8. Russia. One of the most invaded countries on earth: Mongols, Poles, Swedes, Turks and Germans have all been there. Some stayed for centuries. 7. DPRK: I'll give you that one. Impossible to invade without unacceptable losses. 6. Bhutan: What would be the point? Unless your army wanted some peace and quiet.5. The Zionist entity isn't tough as shit. They just have an illegally acquired nuclear, chemical and biological arsenal, and hold the world to ransom. 4. Canada: Please! The idiot narrating says that if you wanted to invade Canada you'd have to go through USA. He's forgetting that it's the USA who would be most likely invade, as they did before in 1812.3. The Swiss: the only reason no one has invaded them since Napoleon, (so they can be invaded), is that in recent times all sides wanted to hide their cash there.2. Japan hasn't been invaded. It just has been completely colonised and brain washed by USA and has US military bases on it's soil. In every historic definition of the term, Japan is a vassal of the US Empire. 1. USA? One country that would be on the list, if the CIA or the U.S State Department were making A SECRET list, is CUBA. History illustrates this. When Kennedy inquired about possible U.S deaths during the first year of an invasion of Cuba, at the time of the October Crisis of 1962 (more commonly known as the "Cuban Missile Crisis"), State Department/CIA staff reported back to him that 18, 000 deaths could be expected within the FIRST WEEK. All parties knew these figures had NOTHING to do with missiles in Cuba at the time but everything to do with the readiness of the people. It was THIS reality that forced Kennedy to negotiate an end to the crisis .In commemoration of the 40th anniversary of the crisis, Robert McNamra, U.S secretary of Defense (?) at the time went to a conference in Havana and acknowledged much of this. During the 2000's (2004 I believe), Cuba had one of its occasional nationwide drills (the NY Times reported on it); 4,000,000 people showed up alongside the regular army. People KNEW it was just a drill so some in fact did not show. What it CLEARLY indicated is that Cuba's army has largely been and continues to be A PEOPLE'S ARMY. When reporting on the number of deaths within the first year of a U.S invasion, U.S. officials assessed about 20,000 deaths within the first year. a smaller than during the missile crisis but CLEARLY a high number that would cause a serious political crisis here in the U.S. Cuban officials say that the death toll would be even higher but both sides agree (though the U.S doing so more quietly perhaps) that it is the willingness of the Cuban people to defend their society, combined with the people being highly organized to do so, that continues to be its strongest weapon. Incidentally, It WAS primarily CUBA, along with Angola and Namibia that handed defeat to the army of apartheid S. Africa, one of the most powerful armies on earth, during the 80's (all parties knew that RUSSIA'S assistance was INSIGNIFICANT, at best.] See the book Visions of Freedom, by Piero Glijeses. Chloe wilson I'm confused. Why is Israel bad if while all of the Muslim and Arab people who live in Israel can run for parliament just as much as a Jew can, Jews are persecuted in other Muslim countries. What you people want is to destroy the Jewish people. What you want is something no one has ever gotten. After WW 2, and after England gave Palestine and made it Israel, the Palestinians were forced to leave. Other races, the Jews, for example were forced out of there homes, but they never got them back. In fact, while angry, they never tried to take back there homes, for it is impossible. The only reason these people don't want Israel is because it is portrayed as the symbol of the Jews. In today's modern day and age , you guys can't say "Let's go kill all the Jews" so instead you say "Let's try to force other countries to get rid of Israel and make them charge all the Jews in them for committing 'War Crimes'" your reasoning is not logical. If anyone but the Jews got Israel, trust me the Palestinians wouldn't be so angry.	Age	Age - General	1/194	0.515
Sean The Gamer You have this twisted. The Palestinians were very welcoming to the Jews. Helped unload their ships. Palestinians lost their homes also more so than the Jews. Murder started right away PM A. Sharon, aka The Butcher saw to that. The more gore the more he loved it. He also stated "we run the US not the other way around and they know it." The Middle East has always been Arab land. The Jews left for Europe and a better life. Ever heard the expression " fat jew, skinny German?" You should look into the Synagoge of Satan. They have been planning the over run of Europe since the early 1900's. Damn Zionist/Jews to hell. We should have listened to great men "never let one Jew into the country." It really isn't feasible to invade any first world country in the modern era I don't think. Your Finland's your Canada's your Sweden's your Britain's your Frances. Ok maybe France is a stretch on any list. Just Kidding Frenchie. I love France and would be first in line to fight there if you needed a hand. But I would have thought it would be really tough to invade Syria. Not first world, but formidable none the same. Granted it began with internal strife i.e a civil war. But when it comes to America no one would want to invade. The proposition and logistics involved are too much to fathom. According to CRS there are upwards of 300,000,000 guns in 60,000,000 private hands in the US. 5 in my safe alone. And most of that 60,000,000 would repel any invader without a second thought. As well as there is upwards of 1,000,000,000,000 rounds in private hands. Yes that is 1 trillion. I have about 7,200 rounds in 4 calibers alone. Though I rarely shoot anymore. The US is a gun culture, for good or for bad. We could only ever be defeated with nuclear attack. God forbid. But that isn't the premise after all so I didn't mention that. In purely conventional terms, only two countries on the earth could invade and remotely hope to have success. China or Russia. But as I stated in the beginning I think that type of warfare is long past. Early warning systems would catch any land air or sea invasion force long before it was able to strike any of the country's I mentioned. Yes including France. Then there is our military. All 5 branches have over 2,000,000 men and women. With another 10,000,000 retired or non active duty but still of fighting age and trained to do so. 13,000 aircraft, 6,000 tanks, 41,000 armored vehicles, 4,000 artillery pieces, 415 naval ships. Including 10 Nimitz class nuclear aircraft carriers. The most powerful single piece of military hardware on the planet that isn't a nuclear bomb. 70 subs, 63 destroyers. And a whole big gob of row boats. Lota row boats. We also have 38,000,000,000 bbl of proven oil reserve and 727,000,000 bbl in strategic reserve. 6,500,000 miles of road to move man and material. 323,000,000 people 13,000 serviceable airports and 224,000 miles of railway. Aha!!!!ONLINE, you have stumbled into the fog slightly!I did not say the REPUBLIC OF MALTA was impossible to invade. I would say the invasion of this Mediterranean nation would be simple.I said you could not invade the SOVEREIGN MILITARY ORDER OF MALTA if you do your research, you wll see why! In short, this is not the same Malta that you are thinking of.With regards the Palestinian matter: not so. The so-called "Zone C" areas of the Oslo Accord with the West Bank refers generally to the hills of the region where the settlements have been constructed since 1967. Yes those areas have an umbilical chord to Israel, have Israeli citizens, and those people are bound by Israeli legal convention. The network of viaducts and ring roads enables the Jewish settlers to bypass Palestinian-controlled territory and connect to Israel (and vice-versa). However, the land is not Israel. Legally it forms a part of the State of Palestine along with Gaza: the system enjoyed by Jewish settlers is akin to that of the ethnic Armenians in the unrecognised Republic of Artsakh, with the exception that Artsakh is not an integral part of Armenia and is not connected to it in a way that escapes its internationally recognised overlord Azerbaijan. Anti terrorist ? Be realistic, mate, Israel IS THE TERRORIST ! It have no rights to exist because those who founded it are terrorists, yes they drove away the natives and say that land is their's. Maybe An American Citizen Who Is Inspiered By ISIS Or something launches a terror attack, but dont forget ISIS's religion is muslim! Also "Israel doesnt Have the rights to exist because those who founded it are terrorists" First lets expose the first part of this statement. "israel doesnt have the rights to exist.." Yes It Does! Name At least 3 GOOD reasons and i will leave you alone. Second of all... "those who founded it are terrorists" The British Founded israel, Is The British Empire Terrorist? If It is than America, India, Canada, Australia And More Are Terrorist too right? NO! Why Only Israel Is the terrorist By You? If Such Than Also Egypt, Jordan, Kuait, Yemen And Syria Are Terrorist...? Lebanon, Iran And Iraq Were From the french Empire....Also About the Native arab people getting expeled thing... If you Really Think That Is A Terrorist move by israel Think About it in a buisness prespective:"if Israel Doesnt expell the arab people they whould not want to stay anyway, they are arab, some did stay and they asked for it before the israellis got there, they just moved to a better place,but most arabs just got expeled, also if they didnt get expelled, They whould have a much harder time leaving israel"Also i didnt say that these arabs were terrorists, you are just making things up, i said that israel is not terrorist and that only arabs can be terrorist...	Terrorist	Religious Identity - Muslim	10/341	2.933

A person who uses unlawful violence,that may also refer to certain countries or orgnisations. ISIS has roots from none Muslim countries, (please do some homework on this) and it is a Mossad agent (Shimon Elliot) who uses disguising beard and the disguising name Abu bakar al-Baghdadi who leads it! He's definitely from the illegal nation you're defending! And of course to do chaos, confusion and endless problems amongst the Islamic countries the terrorist nation Israel founded this so called ISIS! It is Israel to be blamed for the killing of thousands of civilians during the Arab spring, and until now the havoc hasn't ended. And, my sweet mate, you admitted that the terrorists from the west who helped form the illegal nation called Israel, did expel innocent Arab citizens of Palestine. And you have no idea what Allahu-Akbar means. Again, do some homework, try to understand Islam. They often get no enough amenities, healthcare, education, and job opportunity. The illegal nation oppresses them. And they don't give a damn to the declarations of the UN that condemns their wrongdoings. The slanders of Dajjal has been said by the Prophet Muhammad(PBUH) 1400 years ago. It is clearly abundant now, especially in the middle east. The illegal nation will not stop until Muslims leave the true faith and follow their's. ISIS is one of their efforts to continue tarnishing the image of Islam. They deceive certain Muslims to believe in their path of fighting. This brings to the recruitment of Muslims. The slanders has begin to work in certain quarters. Allahu Akbar means Allah is The Greatest. Other misunderstood word is Jihad which means striving or struggling with a praiseworthy aim. Know the meanings before you talk. People misunderstand, that leads to faulty thoughts. People also get deceived easily by the media. And the media is not controlled by Muslims. Have you been to my country? How did you think that my country is less modern than your's? No, No one thought me about hating Israel. The wrongdoings of the zionists made me think, and do some research. Recently, Mahmood Abbas said that the Israeli government is practicing apartheid law! And yes that is 100 true, 100 unacceptable is this kind of negativeness being practiced by a modern nation (as per your claim) in this modern world! You are trying to hide the truth. Your ignorance will benefit you or the illegal nation in no way. No way at all. Enough said.	Mental, Nation	Nationality - General, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	5/311	1.608

When you wanna beat a nation , beat their military. even militias. the size of a countrys dosn't matter THAT much, when no army can defend it. Your example with Australia was stupid. Should i tell you how i would do it? Airforce only big enough, that australian attacks aren't that painful. Their army: mhhh... their best defense is the water, and the fact they have no military nation as a neighbour, except Japan. But i think most western states, (even germany, only the troop deployment will be a huge logistic problem), has a good chance. like you said: Australiens live on the coast. when german panzers drive along their (and that's their best choice of weapon still today), what whould they do? Even rommel new 1942 in egypt, that attacking through a desert is retardet. The mechanized troops drive the coast all along, the outback is in no interessent for no one. perhaps austrialians got panic, and think a guerrilla dessert war is the last chance of resistance. i as a german would they: Position the droops all along the coast - encircle the outback, dig in. wait for their surrender because their food and supplies will be exhausted. then they surrender. or they die in the rain of a fire-fight, were they have no chance to defend somewhere in the open fields. for the germans this will be good: PzH2000 will do the job i think. God ankor lmao no they can't win a war with the US, even without the help of allies or NATO the US would win as long as they don't have to invade and conquer Russia. The USSR was able to contend with the US back in the day but modern day Russia would get fucked. Imo the only nation that can contend and possibly even beat the US is China and thats mostly just bc of their massive population and ability to mass produce, however they only have one aircraft carrier (they are deal breakers) to defend from a seaborne invasion and they bought it from Russia in the 80's so the tech on that thing is almost 40 years behind. EVERY nation on Earth can be invaded, it may not be easy but it's not impossible. If Germany could invade the Soviet Union in WWII and in turn the Soviet Union invaded Afghanistan, then modern military today can certainly invade anywhere in the planet even here in the US (If enough countries come together against it) but since the Nuclear Age , conventional warfare invasions of any country that has nuclear weapons is basically futile (unless you can miraculously knock out all the systems that operate them at the same time and for a long enough period of time). Mike Black bruh if you do that to any country you'd have a major disadvantage. But Actually we'd still have a great chance. Because we'd pull everything back to main land America and have 1,300,00 active military personnel on top of another 800,000 reserve personnel not including more than 1.1 million law informant officers and about 300 million private gun owners some having more than one gun. All I'm sure defending against a invasion. Also if you take a look at American Geography. A good portion of he US is covered in mountainous land making hard to invade out posts of military and private people. Not to include massive deserts. Also let's not forget. The US has military bases all over the world. Thousands upon thousands of military vehicles would not be affected by the EMP. Even most submarines off are coast wouldn't even be affected by a EMP (depending on how deep they are because water is could at reflecting EMPs) and not mention THOUSANDS of everyday cars not affected, that I'm sure the military would seize as many and modify as many as possible to there advantage and plus the thousands of military and/or civilian vehicles made during the early 1900's that wouldn't be affected by EMP and would be recommissioned for fighting purposes. Not to include if are neighbors to the north wanted to help we'd have a huge advantage. So yes ANY ANY ANY country hit by a EMP would be affected horribly but not every country could still defend against a invasion and I'm pretty sure America could STILL even after being hit by a EMP could defend itself against a invasion. So I'd reconsider thinking we'd be gone within days;)	Black	Ethnicity - Black	1/286	0.35

There you go, my Turkish friend: Vlad’s cruelty is well documented in historical texts, but what often goes overlooked is how he combined this cruelty with cunning to terrorize his enemies. For example, his preferred method of execution, impalement, wasn’t just a sadistic way to get rid of his opponents; it was also a good way to scare them away, according to Curta. In 1462, Mehmet II (at the time, the Ottoman sultan), invaded Wallachia. When he arrived at the capital city of Târgoviște, he found it deserted. The rotting remains of Ottoman prisoners of war, each impaled on a spike, were the only soldiers there to greet him. Mehmet didn’t retreat right then and there, but he certainly didn’t gain any headway, Curta noted. This painting, “Vlad the Impaler and the Turkish Envoys,” by Theodor Aman (1831-1891), allegedly depicts a scene in which Vlad III nails the turbans of these Ottoman diplomats to their heads. This painting, “Vlad the Impaler and the Turkish Envoys,” by Theodor Aman (1831-1891), allegedly depicts a scene in which Vlad III nails the turbans of these Ottoman diplomats to their heads. Credit: Public domain At one point during Mehmet’s campaign to conquer Wallachia, Vlad III dressed his soldiers in Ottoman garb and led them on a midnight raid of the sultan’s camp. Their goal was to kill the sultan as he slept in his tent — a goal they failed to accomplish. However, they did succeed in creating mass confusion among the Ottoman soldiers, according to Curta. The Ottomans stayed up until morning, slaughtering one another in the belief that their comrades were really the enemy in Turkish clothing.” Impaling was used as a form of terror— to terrorize the enemy coming to invade one’s country,” Curta said. “He had to do a lot of things with very limited resources. He actually used efficient methods to fight against his enemy without having that many men at his disposal.” Miller echoed that sentiment, noting that many historians have labeled Vlad’s tactics against the Ottomans as “psychological warfare.” In other words, these historians believe that the notorious Dracula may not have been exceptionally cruel, but rather doing what he had to do to fight a military force much greater than his own.	Spike	Religious Identity - Protestant	1/376	0.266

Mike Black if you support this idea that means you support todays terrorism because it is same but in our culture we hate terrorism, Turkish army have been gentlemen army most of times, today we are still fighting with terrorism and Sultan Mehmed II was the biggest leader at his time because he took Istanbul when he was 21 like a miracle, and you are right Vlad killed Turkish Diplomats but he took Ottoman revenge everbody knows this, i can give you sources like you but i am too lazy.Anyway today Turkey and Romania is friend, and for east europe there are 3 powerful country, they are Germany, Russia and Turkey, if wanna see that just look the trucks on the road, you will see it. I even didn't start to talk about armies, you can love your history but your country not in our league and it wasn't too bro, sorry.And one more thing, Germans raises engineers , Frenchs raises artists, britishs raises diplomats and Turk raises Soldiers. Mike Black do you know why you dont have this things, because the reasons under the Ottoman Empires Successes, Ottoman didnt push Turkish pushed Turkish Culture to anyone, somebody took it because they wanted, Do you know why Ottoman Empire survived 700 years? Because it didn't bring countries slavery or torture it bring freedom. The harder thing than conquer somewhere is controlling somewhere. Ottoman did that hundred years your country included. Your grand grand fathers lived in peace at Ottoman Empire, and now you are against of the Turks, your Grand Fathers are sad in their tombs i think.And Vlad was a terrorist like Hasan Sabbah or Abdullah Ocalan, he wasn't a liberator, he brings dead for your nation and our soldiers that's it and we punished him for this reason, for saving your people too. Thats why i said you are a terrorist supporter because you like sick ideas and your perspective is this is psychological war, but modern terrorists are use same ways, terrorism is terrorism bro.We had a lot crazy terrorist attacks this years and we bored from terrorists and sick terrorist supporters like you, every adult can understand what is terrorism and what is gentlemen fight. And Vlad was 100 percent terrorist and crazy sick from his brain.Your leader is Sick Vlad and just check our gentleman leaders; Ataturk, Fatih Sultan Mehmed, Kanuni Sultan Suleyman(he choosed throne of the Romania),Alparslan,Osman Bey, Orhan Bey, Yavuz Sultan Selim etc. if i try to count every gentlemen leaders of us, i need to spend a day. First of all, what kind of things Osmanli did some centuries ago doesn't have anything to do with today's strength of your army, but if you want to talk history, 200 000 - 250 000 Turk-Seljuqs were defeated by 55,600 Georgians :) but today our defense is shit... world came to the point where the bravery of the soldiers has nothing to do with who wins the war, it's all about money now. Dunny2k America has a stronger economy, more soldiers, more tanks and jets, aircraft carriers, more guns per capita (guns are illegal in the UK and your average police officer doesn't even have one), more nukes, an excess amount of land to hide in and allows for the use of guerrilla warfare whereas the uk is mostly developed and the parts that areas urban or suburban are green pastures and farmland that would make it rather difficult to hide, the US has a larger population and according to a poll mentioned in another video about 50 of Americans view themselves as patriots (thus the likelihood of joining the military in times of war for those 60 would be likely), the US has a plethora of raw and natural resources to put to use and the US production in times of war are almost unheard of. While I absolutely do agree that the UK should've been on the list (as well as China), and I will also say that the UK has an amazing Air Force and Navy it would ultimately be substantially easier to invade the UK than the US. Also out of all the countries to pick to compare the UK with military capabilities you choose the US? Thats like comparing a high school track runner to Usain Bolt and it just makes your argument worse. To summarize, the UK would be easier to invade for a multitude of reasons, don't overestimate your (assuming you're from the UK, but it applies to every one) nations military capability, and I do agree that I is weird that neither the UK or especially China wasn't on their list. Any of you actually studied WW2? The war was over before the US even decided that they were going to stop making billions from the suffering of the world. The thing about Germans is there crazy efficiency and general manufacturing/engineering. They were able to build everything better, their lightning strike was effective because they had their resources to back them up. Once the battle of Britain was over it was then impossible for the Nazis to invade. It's known that Hitler himself said the reason for him losing the war was the failure of the German air force. If they were able to have a ground assault against the UK they would've invaded and conquered. Instead the UK as you should probably know; is an island. Sarah s you speak like a complete patronising fool. Not only do you oust cursing for some reason? You also state that Eli is most likely young and confused. Young? You use that as a negative? Not only are you hopefully going to die and fuck off this planet soon, the young are going to lead it into a better future, how dare you criticise the young when they were the ones who fought in this war, those that died in this war. You question Eli with "do you feel superior?" as though you're turning it around and in fact trying to impose your non-existent superiority on him. You are a disgusting person. Sooner people like you die the sooner the young will take the reins of the world and hopefully we're not as utterly pathetic as you, and those with similar thought processes to yours, general narcissism, though I'm not even sure you recognise that you are a narcissist which only furthers your narcissism. A nation could "try" to invade America but it won't end well for them anyway. Almost every citizen with some of the children here are armed to the T and most people can use they're environment to they're advantage (knowing the land etc.) So umm...yeah to the other nation (North Korea) I say good luck with that. The fall of America is already happening. Look at history and the fall of all empires as we are trying to be. Fits the pattern precisely. The US empire is an organism that consumes and consumes, growing larger and larger. Problem is, the bigger it gets, the more it is forced to consume. Now that organism is sick and dying at the cellular (individual human) level. When you cannot provide for the citizens, growing larger is folly. Revolts are happening and will continue growing in scale. We are headed directly for civil war and it is coming soon.Before all the "patriots" chime in, consider the fact that being loyal to your country means being loyal to the people who make up that country. Not the government. Nobody believes our government is loyal to us, so why would you be loyal to the government? Even most "patriots" are armed to the teeth to protect themselves against the government. If you're not loyal to the government, not loyal to the people, then what the hell are you loyal to but yourself?	Nobody	Age - Youngsters	1/180	0.556

Now imagine what they could do in full scale war today. Germans are by far the greatest engineers and now with their control of Europe they have the most highly skilled army navy and airforce. The Americans are not known for their tactics or their ability as soldiers. The Europeans, and more specifically the Germans, have incredible tactics and their soldiers were more highly trained than anyone else's. In WW2 it took 10 allied soldiers to defeat 1 German. Also all of the arab population in israel are happier and actually getting support from the goverment at conflict times, because arab countrys encourage arabs to move back to their countrys, while israel is incouroging jews that live in terrorists zones to come here, do you have proof that israel raped woman ? In most cases these technologically advanced weapons need real man to stand behind them, in 1939 when Italy invaded Ethiopia with tanks and fighter aircraft the barely armed and organized Ethiopian Militias fought 5 straight years bare hand and defeated the technologically advanced Italian military! Here in the US we have everything it take to fight any war minus the human resource! In near-future I doubt if we can fulfill our recruitment requirements for every branch of our military. As a combat veteran myself I can come up with at least 3 top reasons why it will be hard to fill vacancies in the future military rank. 1- Comparing to most of other nations, Americans care a lot less about their country, and more about what their country can offer them.2-Health, nutrition, and education: These 3 are somewhat related to one another, quality of what we feed our society pays off at every stage, American food industry is NEVER about quality of life, never about keeping our society healthy; rather it's about profit , about getting richer and richer at cost of citizens health and very future. If one is not healthy enough their productivity is less likely comparing to those who are healthy, productivity includes ability to peruse education and career.3- Lack of nationalism at top political levels, Almost every politician we elect at every level can sell us to the highest bidder without due process, political offices are like a money cow for every politician, they seek power to serve their greed and that of very few rich, similarly with our food chain what comes out of our politicians mouth could be very dangerous or very useful to the society as it spreads faster than anything else. There are many other valid points to make but no time is enough.	Nationalism	Nationality - General	1/304	0.329

first of all i am sorry but please correct your grammar (i am not a grammar nazi , my grammar and accent aren't the best too) secondlly... "can you prossess thoughts? you can only prossess opinions" Here is some history for your buthurt muslim ass: in 1967 israel defeated israel in 3 days while fucking 4 other militarys, so in the other 3 days we gained some other territorry, in 1973 (when our borders were 200 miles from cairo) you and syria attacked us in a religious holiday... and no one actually won! or in other words, we both claimed victory... why? you came 10 miles into our borders and thought that god is protecting you.. cuz we havent attacked you (We were busy with syria to teach them a lesson...and we did forever) than we attacked and you retreated 5 miles, the usa stopped us and we came to a seasefire because they were worried that we whould reach cairo... than in 1978 we asked all of the arab nations for a peace deal: "make peace with us = regain all of your lost territorry in the 1967 6 day war. only egypt agreed, and we live in peace untill now, we gave you back sinai, with old reserves, and sinai itself is bigger than israel, we still did and there are wikipedia pages that you can read. please do some research	Nazi, Old	Ideological and Political Identity - General, Age - Over 65s	2/232	0.862

But saying an entire nationality is retarded is complete BS. There's plenty of important events France has contributed to civilization. And if France was so bad at everything, it's pretty simple, they wouldn't still be on the map of Europe, which they have been for 1000 + years, depending on how you define when France was created. Napoleon never lost from the russians. Normally when u take the capital the rest of the nation collapses, sooner or later, but Russia is so big, that, instead of taking Napoleon on (which wouldnt be a great idea, since Napoleon never lost a battle when he has a full army) Alexander just ordered his army back in the mainland, and the citizens out of moscow, and burned it ! Imagine Napoleons anger when he woke up and saw moscow in flames. He saw it as an act of lunacy, burning ur own capital and fleeing at the same time. So he went back to france, its during that march a lot of people died. And the russians kept hitting the rear of the marching army, with guerrilla attacks chipping off bit by bit pieces of his army. Sophy Ali What makes something Palestinian? What is unique about the Palestinian national idneity that makes a nation , and not the same as Jordan. The only thing that really sets Palestinians apart from other Arabs is that they live in Palestine. So the location there in what unites them, while most countries the people are already a united group through a unique culture and the land is named after them, England is named after the Angles (which went from Angland to England). The Palestinians are the opposite, they took their name from the land which was already there.Israel certainly has a unique identity, being the only democracy in the middle East, with a western, Judaic culture. They have strong ties to that land, wether or not it was promised to them by God. America is a country that wants to show how 'good' they are to the public, yet they only fight wars and 'defend' others to gain money for themselves. The money they gain will be put in the pockets of the country's 1 percent, while simultaneously getting a lot of backup from their poor poor citizens. People like 'Matt Watson' clearly have never needed to go to the hospital or have had family members who can't take care for themselves because of a mental illness for example. It's a smart thing they are doing for themselves, the presidents, bank owners and all of their families. Christianity is the biggest religion in the wold. Islam is second. And third, I'm not hateful at all. No one in their right mind could follow something as fucked up as Islam. It is the sickest religion there is. And here is some things from the Quran you ignorant fuck. Quran (2:191-193) - "And kill them wherever you find them, and turn them out from where they have turned you out. And Al-Fitnah [disbelief or unrest] is worse than killing..." Quran (4:11) - (Inheritance) "The male shall have the equal of the portion of two females" "The Prophet (peace be upon him) said: A man will not be asked as to why he beat his wife."	Quran	Religious Identity - Muslim	4/148	2.703

loolita Ali How about you look at these few laws before saying theres no violence in Islam and it's a religion of peace. • Theft is punishable by amputation of the hands (Quran 5:38 - includes graphic image). • Criticizing or denying any part of the Quran is punishable by death. • Criticizing Muhammad or denying that he is a prophet is punishable by death. • Criticizing or denying Allah is punishable by death (see Allah moon god). • A Muslim who becomes a non-Muslim is punishable by death (See Compulsion). • A non-Muslim who leads a Muslim away from Islam is punishable by death. • A non-Muslim man who marries a Muslim woman is punishable by death. • A woman or girl who has been raped cannot testify in court against her rapist(s). • Testimonies of 4 male witnesses are required to prove rape of a female (Quran 24:13). • A woman or girl who alleges rape without producing 4 male witnesses is guilty of adultery. • A woman or girl found guilty of adultery is punishable by death (see "Islamophobia"). • A male convicted of rape can have his conviction dismissed by marrying his victim. • Muslim men have sexual rights to any woman/girl not wearing the Hijab (see Taharrush). • A woman can have 1 husband, who can have up to 4 wives; Muhammad can have more. • A man can marry an infant girl and consummate the marriage when she is 9 years old. • Girls' clitoris should be cut (Muhammad's words, Book 41, Kitab Al-Adab, Hadith 5251). • A man can beat his wife for insubordination (see Quran 4:34 and Religion of Peace). • A man can unilaterally divorce his wife; a wife needs her husband's consent to divorce. • A divorced wife loses custody of all children over 6 years of age or when they exceed it. • A woman's testimony in court, allowed in property cases, carries ½ the weight of a man's. • A female heir inherits half of what a male heir inherits (see Mathematics in Quran). • A woman cannot drive a car, as it leads to fitnah (upheaval). • A woman cannot speak alone to a man who is not her husband or relative. • Meat to eat must come from animals that have been sacrificed to Allah - i.e., be "Halal." • Muslims are to subjugate the world under Islam (see Quran 9:29 and Palestine Issue). • Muslims should engage in Taqiyya and lie to non-Muslims to advance Islam.	Age, Old, Quran, Sexual, Woman	Age - General, Age - Over 65s, Gender - General, Religious Identity - Muslim	16/421	3.8

alex debag Israel took over the Palestinian Territories as they were on the enemy side when they attacked Israel on numerous occasions such as 1948 and 1967 just like Israel took territories from Syria and Egypt. Since you call "Palestine" a country, you obviously have no idea what you are talking about, as the Palestinian Authority was recognized as a state just recently, and not when it was in active war against Israel. So far there has been no match to the IDF in the middle east, and the difference in power becomes even larger as USA invests billions into Israel's R&D in the military sphere to have a share at the fruit of Israel's advantageous technology. Lol the only reason Israel has a crazy army is because of money obviously. They get founded by the states and most Nato countries because of the constant sectarian violence. Not to mention Germany is still paying them yearly reparations due from the holocaust. At the end of the day your army is the measure of your countries finances into said army, they still spend upwards of $15B annually. Eli Gamble thats inaccurate. Germany pays nothing to the state anymore, only to holocaust survivors. the money that USA invests in Israel is not out of good will. Robertski82 I am sure you believed you were standing up for what’s right. I wish more people, especially those from the west (because I don’t expect this from brainwashed Muslims) got a little bit more knowledge before they put down the only western democracy in the Middle East. Even Kasim Hafeez, who was a Pakistani radical Islamist, anti-Semite, anti-Zionist went on a trip to Israel just to find that the state of ”apartheid”, ”genocide” and ” ethnic cleansing” was a perfect example of democracy, where you can find synagogues, mosques, and churches in the same city. Where Jews and Arabs live together in peace. almost a quarter (roughly 2 million) of Israel’s population is Arab. That is equal to about half of Palestine’s population, including both West Bank and Gaza strip (and how many Jews are there in Palestine???). Those are the Arabs who chose to live a peaceful life in a country that has shown incredible growth in 70 years from a piece of desert to a leader in science, technology and health care. They are citizens with full rights (in fact, more rights than Jews, because they get to choose whether to serve in the military. Jews are forced to serve). The Arabs who live in so called ”Palestine” are the ones who chose to fight, and look at their growth in 70 years - the only ”achievements” of Gaza Strip are even stronger rockets and even deeper tunnels. Not a penny is invested in their citizens. Water and electricity comes from my city of Ashkelon. Trucks with free food and medication enter their gates every morning. Jobs are secured (yes they obviously need to go through screening, but Israel provides them with jobs). During the operations when they used to bomb my neighborhood, my mum was the head nurse of Tel Aviv hospital, taking care of Hamas militants!!!!!! I am not even joking, it is ridiculous what the world doesn’t know! Western people must disregard the anti-Semite media, open their eyes and see the real problem. Jews don’t explode, shoot, stab or drive over people in the streets of Berlin, London, Paris, Brussels.... For Israelis this is everyday life, and soon it will be in the rest of the West, so better known which side you’re on and take a lesson from Israel on how to defend yourself. If you don’t trust my word and you think I’m just another biased Israeli, just take the same trip to Israel that Kasim Hafeez went on. See for yourself. You will be mindblown how the demonized Israel that you see in the news is not any less fictional than Narnia. P.S. I no longer live in Israel. I recently moved to Canada after finishing my 3 years of service. I couldn’t stand the idea of building a family under a rain of rockets. Obviously, still a big supporter of Israel. They have committed numerous human rights violations in Palestine(and still are) Why is that they can tear down homes of people who have been living there for decades without repercussions, why are they able to militarily occupy a country with no standing military, why does the U.S give them billions of dollars in military aid? why do they support the Saudis, another terrorist state. What we are seeing in that region is an attempt to wipe out the indigenous population of Palestine They also annexed the Golan heights during the war with Syria in the 60’s, this is also ILLEGAL according to international law. Good morning , 1st of all i want u to know that i have no issue with Jewish people but issue is Israel state came in 1948 and took the land of palistine by the help of UK And the west so after the nazi fail Israel state took money from germany for about 50 years also all the air plains free gift from USA and europe. Israel had following wars 1948 against arab countries jordan took Jerusalem by force from irsaeli army but all arab leaders from other countries run away because USA SAID SO.. also in 1967 they won against arabs but in 1973 egypt won against Israel and got Sinai back. In 1968 israel attacked jordan in KARAMA battle and Jordanian army beated Israel so bad m check it on youtube KARAMA BATTLE. Let me tell u some thing if usa & west tell Israel bye bye then 24 hours Jordanian army can defeat Israeli army. You know why ? because Israeli army is mix Russian African arab polish etc so they don't care about the land of Palestine THEY WILL DROP ALL AND GO. First of all, Ukraine have not being in war with Russia. Since were discussing missile defenses, what you're saying is that the Russians had their military branch called Strategic Rocket Forces involved in direct actions in Donbass. Which is by the way the only region where you had and to some extend still have military actions. If that was the case, yes Ukraine most likely would have nothing to respond with. Never happened though. And since were on Russia, lets mention their anti missile systems, all the "S" series. 300, 400, 500. or the A-135. In a nutshell, a rocket system, designed to intercept enemy rockets. Same principle used in the Iron Dome with its primary Arrow missiles. US of A, Patriot, missile's intercepting missiles. Or the naval based RIM interceptor missiles. Last two words says it all again. Current Chinese DF-21, two stage, solid fuel rocket interceptor, aimed at intercepting enemy ballistics. Italy, France and the UK, all using system called Aster. Quote: "The Aster missile series, primarily comprising the Aster 15 and Aster 30 are a family of vertically launched surface-to-air missiles" Again, missiles intercepting enemy missiles. Or 'rockets, shooting enemy missiles out of the sky' as it is said in the video. So like I said, literally every country, that has developed own anti missile system and ballistic defenses, does exactly that. Shooting rockets, with their own rockets. And done it long before the Israeli Arrows, part of the Iron Dome was even developed and operational. There is no other way. Apart from all the experimental projects, from clusters, hives and nets, shot in front of the enemy missile, to the a-la Ronald Reagan "Star wars", along all other non American projects, of destroying enemy missiles with lasers, and other means, none of which is still used. Not yet. No one is discussing if the Iron Dome is a good or bad concept. Its how its presented, sensationalist and as something unheard of. While its the norm and has being for decades. Next thing you hear in such video, is how somebody has decided to put tracks on tank wheels.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/353	0.283

Iran was invaded by Iraq right after the Iranian revolution. Further, they have the exact same Russian anti-aircraft network that Syria had when Israel flew right past it with out of date American F-16s and destroyed the "materials" convoy from Iraq. The AA network was completely befuddled. I'll buy those hurdles for the Aussies. If they hadn't given up their private firearms like pansies, they would be much tougher.Russia is big and inclement, with plenty of old , decaying nukes and an old , decaying fleet, to go together with severely underpaid soldiery and rampant corruption. They do have excellent small arms however and a reasonable air force and armor corps. They really don't want to go to war.North Korea is not nearly so stout. The biggest advantage that they have is that Seoul is within conventional artillery range. Their military is not terribly impressive. Their doctrine is more political than martial, they have an inept navy, and the only thing that keeps a Kim on the throne is respect for the human lives of Seoul.Bhutan is a hidden iron gem, why would you EVER want to invade them!?! The list was fun for what its purpose is. I'd like to offer arguments to a few of them, but frankly it would take some pretty incredible efforts to muster.I honestly believe that a 10 year segment designing some new training and battle strategies, and we could make every fortress of Eurasia as easy to beat as Trumps precious wall which even he acknowledged would be beaten with just "A ladder and a rope" to almost use his own words exactly.Sure, the climate of the area the stronger nations are in is pretty fearsome, without a doubt any CURRENT army on Earth would suffer if they so much as thought about attacking Iran. But if we either made treaties with all bordering nations of any potential concern, and made a new-age variant of Israels Iron Dome, it would be impossible for them to retaliate to an attack. Now, that doesn't mean we'd win just for that reason, it's an actual nation and even if it's fairly lacking in some things, it wouldn't be too hard a leap for those people to more or less do a desert mountain version of North Korea, and just make anything they can't buy from a neighbor that's also one of the 3 largest super powers.The real issue, would be my mentioned training regimen.See, we have a lot of places that could be used for skill building. Yes, a number of them are protected and thus we aren't meant to muck them up, but frankly that shold be easy enough to fix even if we damaged bits. We're so in love with Ancient Rome, our money has Latin written on it, and any word that didn't exist in some manner before we decided we needed it, is derived from one or even a complex series of Latin words. Frankly, if ever in the future Earth reaches a point where the very memory of Latin as a language or cultural framing ceases to exist, any word America coined after say.... 1860 is going to sound fucking psychotic. People 800+ years from now (even if they're just looking at our ruins and remnant documents like we do Rome today) who see things like phobias and the names they're given, are going to be even more flabbergasted than Rhett and Link are by the word dufflebag.Anyways, the point was if we love them so goddamn much(Rome), we should fucking take a hint and work our army like ancient legionnaires, and equip them to scale any surface, build any structure, raze any city. We could mark a specific (preferably the least important/most treacherous) bit of land from the Grand Canyon leading into the Colorado Southwest, and simply workshop ways to get past the hardest bits. What to do when scaling massive rocky features at a perfect 90 degree angle. How to preserve, find, filter, and use water in any potentially needed way for in deserts that I'm told are the closest equivalent in the whole US of A to Afghanistan.A second training ground using a complex segment of the Southeast, from the marshes of Florida through Georgian and Louisianan swamps, through just the worst muddiest nastiest areas anywhere nearby we can come up with. Shit. We could even take it a step farther from just army training, and make it some sort of massive nationwide holiday celebrated once per year; a set path marked with some sort of sturdy long-lasting beacons. Things that could be left alone during the rest of the year, and wouldn't hard nature anymore than confusing the fuck our of a bear or two. I guess you would want to insult me with retarded English words and grammar and prove I am wrong, which I am not. So I am just gonna ignore you and continue on with my life. Unlike you, I believe in a creator. Because I don't simply believe that the Big Bang would happen in a realm that is filled with absolutely nothing , except nothing , no cells, no chemicals, no energies and with that, the Universe could not get expanded nor exploded, because there was nothing to support that fact. And with that, that should be enough to AT THE VERY LEAST! Consider God exists.And no, he is not racist . Do not believe in everything you hear, see nor read.Not everything is 100 accurate, but in the matter I've said above it is.Also Jews think that God chose them as their special human beings, which is false, God stated that everyone dies equally and in his sight, everyone is equal, in terms of rights, humanity and thinking, if you wanted to think, you would do it, if you are human, you would think correctly and look at the people Jews and America slaughtered and massacred including the so-called Islamic State ISIS, which they aren't Muslims nor do they follow Islam, because if they do, then they would be aware of the verse that says 'Do not kill a Non-Muslim' and 'Those who killed a person out of hatred, revenge or vengeance, it shall be as if he/she killed all humankind and if those who saved one person, it is as if he/she saved all humankind.'.The verse above, should be enough to prove that God does not favor anyone over anyone, because he only loves those who are clear-minded and intelligent believers who do not think out of sheer theories they find on the internet and news but out of seeing and believing for yourself, he only favors those who loves him and those who follow his teachings and those who he sent teachings.It is not in my capable hand, to change your mind about God, because if he wants to, he would do it, in an instant. Enjoy your life of what's left of it, in the end, we will see whom right and whom wrong.	Nothing, Racist	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - General	4/381	1.05

Al Sadeghi You think the USA, gave me my country?!YOU should wake up imbecil! Me and them are mere humans! You believed that the Big Bang happened, but you do not have nor proof nor visual proof of it! You do not have any right to say that to me brat, just because we are in 2017, doesn't grant you the right to talk back to me in such an unintelligentable and pathetic way.You should first talk about yourself before others kiddo, or you will fall in a pit you won't get out from ever. These countries are like any country, if you think they gave me my country, then think again, America and Britian was made AFTER the Arab World by centuries, that means, WE ensured their safety, have you forgotten who taught Europe's greatest Scientists in the ancient times? It's us, Arabs. Did you forget whom we put fear into their hearts? Jews, Romans and what more!You think your pity countries mean shit to me? These 2 countries will eventually stop existing in 100 years from now on and I guarantee you it.First you said I learned from a magic book, what about YOU? You instanteously believed that the Big Bang happened, even without clear evidence of it happening and visual proof, then YOU come talking to me about a magic book? Think about yourself first kiddo. You are just a brainwashed Atheist who does not have any proof of the Big Bang except listening to shitty scientists left and right like they're some kind of 100 perfect human beings, in this world there is no perfection, nor America nor Britian is perfect, if you think both of these countries meana single fuck to me, think again, like any other country, they will fall down, mercilessly and pathetically like the countries they slaughtered.Kiddo, you are brainwashed by your fake news and Internet media, you do nor have a single shred of knowledge in religions nor in life, you think from your ass and ignore your brain, you act with your hands and not brain and THAT, will make you look like a brainless cockroach with no point in his life. Al Sadeghi How can I proof a divine being? How can we as an advanced human civilization proof that a divine being who created the Universe exists? Spiritually, yes, but visually, no, we can't even get a hold of Alien sightings, let alone explore the rest of our 90 oceans and here you are asking for a photo of him, like he is gonna take a fucking selfie for humanity, grow the fuck up. There is no wrong in worshipping a creator, if that creator does not exist, then what hell or heaven would we go to? If that creator exists, at least WE would be able to explain somethings, unlike Atheists...Anyways, the end of this pointless pathetic argument is, give me visual proof of the Big Bang or humans evolving from apes or that shared common ancestor and we may be able to take a picture of God. Which is pointless really, because a divine being lies in his own dimension, realm or world, that sightings ours and from there that divine being can control it. But you arab countrys thought it was just european colonialism trying to steal your land again, so all of your new arab countrys attacked us, it looked like you chould win but we (with no help) won and gained 40 of the land you owned, than in 1967 you tryed again with saudi arabia but we with the little help of france got sinai in 3 days with a third of our army! cuz the other army were gaining territorry from jordan and syria in the 3 days left, you guys were fearless even though we were winning but america stepped in and told us to stop... So in 1973 we and america proposed a peace treaty, for you guys to get your "stolen" land back. Everyone exept egypt dissagreed, so we made the deal and the land was yours, but than after a month you threw a revolution and killed your president, and than you guys "conquered" your land back, which was already yours, the state media there told that your army was crushed and that you won, but there was no army to begin with... Also it was on a holiday and most people were home celebrating, we saw on radars that the egyptian and syrian army began to go to our territory, so we just defended oir territorry, in syria we fought with them and they got burned and retreated, we did nothing with the egyptians tho because of the treaty	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/318	0.314

did you read the bible? it doesn't matter the jewish one or the chistian one, we got kicked out of israel and spread across mostly europe (poland) and africa, because of that there are two group of people in the country, secondlly, you have a point but its not clear, by modern laws if your country has major history, is democratic (only one in the middle east) had independence and land before a conflict, formed after massive genoside (holocaust) to hide and establish a home, want international relations, want to share that, has technology , fight again the soviets and other stuff, its quite guaranteed you will get independence and allies, but you didn't like it! also this territorry was never called "palestine" after the collapce of the ottomans in the 1920's the bridish and the french got the territories and the oil there, it was devided, the bridish owned the place than called "bridish palestine" and they hugelly supported that jews AND arabs whould setteled in that territorry, so that it can leave that territorry with 2 new jewish and arab countrys, in 1947 when the UN plan for israel and palestine (search that map, you guys had 40 of whats now israel) and jerusalem whould be a place like washington DC. we agreed and soon be recognized as israel, you guys thought it was just european coloniallisim trying to "take over your land" so all of our nabors attacked us (they were poor and untrained by the way) and we absolutlly new were trained and had equipment, so 5 vs 1... we won, and i dont say we "stole your land" we won a war, we got that land, its not unfair! "better luck next time!" we said, and next time was in 1967 when you guys Suprise attacked us and pushed a little into our territorry, and in just 6 days we conquered gaza, sinai, the west bank, the golan hights and weakened your army's, by the way your technology was poor soviet ones so dont talk about that, our was our own and little Uk, France and USA As well. next time in 1973 you guys tried to jab us again and in one day we won (no deaths!) We pushed and weakened the syrian army to HELL, but didnt do that much to the egyptians, so when we WON, egypt claimed Victory (under propoganda, of course) and bla bla bla bla bla and so on, we went after hezbollah to lebanon (dont say they won that hezbollah is a terrorist group who took over lebaneese millitary) twice, we won we weakened them but after our retreat back, they claimed "victory" then some palestinians threw cuiside bombs ond so on... look i am no war expert but i am just telling it from my point of views, if you dissagree its ok for me, because you were raised to, you were raised when you see our flag to curse and block every opinion out there. goodbye

ahhha. NK think they are the best right? the same of isreal!. they think they are the best too. ok about what have Isreal done to me. in 2006 . i was a boy. i remember ho many times we had to go to another house durning 33 days. at the firsts day. we was playing with the others kids. (about 11 kid) than an F-16 strike a 7 flors building . a compleat civilian house with Thermobaric bomb. it was fare from us about 250m hot line. if there was no 4 flors building between us and bomb we was all dead. go ask about Beirut not here. aslo when i was on Roumin village there was a christain village alls Sarba. i was looking to stikes on that village. one . tow 3 4 5 strikes in 10 sec. see the explosion than see hear and feel the sound and the glass vibrate. ask me when i back to my house with the glass on the ground. i was a kid. i didnt feel the fear . but i still see it on my moms eyes. ask the UN about the 5.4 millions anti presonnel mines that isreal drop it. no resons of this but killing inocens people. ask about the 1k civilians whoo died or the houses or the bridges . roads (like hezbolla well use the international roads) .or the electrecity centers *. the most retarded people in humanity . isreal US saudi arabs and the gulf. just the same people you are. when isreal invaded lebanon in 1978 did any one ask it?. you are talking about country on his anthem says "your border Isreal if from the Forat to the Neil" .	Ho	Gender - Female sexuality	1/288	0.347
Ok about "isreal peoples". Man same us USA people. Whoo of them want iraq. Vietnam . Kampudia. Korea. Afganistan. South america wars?. But no. US lead wesh its wepons . Oil . Heavy metal. Bunks. Event fruit companys want thoos wars and they did it. And USA people cant talk. Wesh it show us ho is the democracy is fake. Its awesome on paperes. But there is no country apply it for its perpus. The people. And about isreal people. Most of them are like USA ones. But you cant hide that there is no unbelivable jews racists whoo hates arabs and muslims and ebent christians cus they ate. The god shosen people. They are event racist twords the colored jews or the slavic and russians ones. Also dont forgot. The curruption of isreals politics. And sometimes militarys. You live on in pelestine i think you know	Colored, Fruit, Ho, Racist	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General, Gender - Female sexuality, Sexual Identity - Male homosexuality	4/147	2.721

Ok i am with you. No one of thoos are innocent. Does that make innocent?. Again logic m8 logic. Ok about Lebanon. Take hizbollah outside. Call them iranian aliens invaderes on lebanons terretory. What did lebanon did?. Iran is guilty for making a new regim calls islamic democracy. Refuse US controll on it. Belive me if they did what saudi did. They well be the best USA allies. Syria is guilty for fighting isreal . Same as egypt. But isreal is not guilty for fighting them. Afganistans talban were jihadists and holly worriors when they were fighting the soviets. And they were Ronald Regans hem selfs guests. But they are terrorists when they fight BLUFOR forces. (Terrorists fighting gentel terrorists). . And at all isreal didnt didnt did any unhuman things. Like making massacres on villages. Ivent killing innocent refugees below the UN flags in Kana and Sabra and Shatila. Or bombing pelestians in gaza with Phosphore and lebanaise with millions of anti personnel mines and poisoned ballons. Did you saw trap toys?. Toys that explodes ehen childrens toch them. No thoos are for killing hezbollahs terrorists. Cus they are bored to play. What about the defeated uranium bombs used in 2006? And UN on the USA pressure didnt did the tests for it?. Oh yeah but arabs did that 700 years ago. And about nations. Did you event learn about the muslims wars in the time of the propheet Mohamed?. You gus dont event know that muslims them selfs have prob with latests war after the propheet. But can you compaire any of them wars with the Orthothoxs wars in EU. ? Or the protogaliens. Spanishs . Brits invations on the otheres nations?. And in a not fare time. The 100 millions red indians killed buy the most human people on the earth? Or the slaves in US or EU? That mohamed spend his life on liberating them from 1450 years?. You guys have 0 clue about history. US would be hardest to invade for several reasons...one is the location. Every nation on the continent is our ally. Plus the US has both the rocky and appalachian mountain ranges which could make moving a massive army through very difficult. In order to invade us by land u would have to punch through our positions in alaska and the terrain of canada and then we would just await at the border. Or u could try mexico but u would have to deap with both the mexican army as well as cartels. We also have the strongest navy and air force so a naval landing woukd be highly unlikely. And even if u manage to get through all that...the US has 1.4 million soldiers, 800000 reservists as well as a populace armed to the teeth and a massive pool of troops due to the draft. Strongly disagreeing with NK being on the list...Population is poor, poor health, and more. Sure they have nukes, but unless china saves them again, SK, with some, not a lot, of military aid, they could still be invaded. In fact, in the Korean war, they would have been invaded by the US and SK in a short few months if it werent for China. That was back in the 1950's, which is relatively recent compared to the others on the list. Britian, China, Monogolia, Madagascar would have been better alternatives. Now, here's the agruements for each.Last time Britian was invaded, was by the Ancient Roman empire. Its superior naval strength protects this island from invasion. Hittler's attempt at invasion lasted only a couple of months before giving in. Also, it is allies with France, Germany, and the US. (these are just some notables) Unless you want to be nuked, you probably will not invade the country anytime soon.China's mountanous terrien helps against land invasions from the western, and northern sides will help repel a pending invasion. Also, if an invasion does, happen, you can almost count Russia, and North Korea to be on their side. China also has a large army, and its influence spreads through most, if not all of Asia. The closest non-ally powerfull army is an island. (Japan). Unless said invasion has the US's full support (WWIII?), an invasion will not be complete. Let's not forget that they have 1/4 of the world's population in their country. India, which has the 2nd most populated country, is located near a war-happy location, and would not want to start any fight anytime soon, let alone risk spread its army in a possible 2 front war, or 2 different wars.Monogolia, a nation landlocked by China and Russia. This former USSR country will never be invaded due to this reason alone. Also, its mountanous, and climate does no favors to foreign armies. They probably won't need an army either.Madagascar, the only country in Africa that could make the list. While poor, there is little to no reason an invasion will be taking place here. Why? Well, there's virtually no resources to be found here to make it worthwhile. Its friendly relations with most of Africa would become helpful in widening a war against a pending invasion. With this being said, there is also no nearby nation that would invade Madagascar, let alone has the resources available to do such an invasion.	Nation	Nationality - General	2/414	0.483

Fred Anderson First of all, The "war israel started."actually sarterd with the terrorist organization 'Hizballah' Attacking near the border of israel and lebanon, kidnapping 3 Israeli soldiers. for that, israel responded.true, there was alot of losses for both sides. And I dont think anybody won that war...Besides, this video is about 10 countries that are impossible to invade, not the top 10 countries that lost in wars..So do yourself a favor and stop commenting lies.. what is the 30 day war..? the last major war (not operation like in 2012 or 2014 that started from terrorists kidnaping people) was in 2006, the second lebanon war... it was to chase down hezbollah (a terrorist group) who hided in lebanon, we conquered lebanon and immediatlly gave it back. Saudi Arabia and israel are Not Friends but israel kidnaps people and uses them to protect their borders?! (illegal as well and kinda dumb) 3. Israel And Saudi Arabia Are Terrorists (Israel Is the only Democracy in The Middle East, Saudi Arabia isn't Democratic But It Is An Open Autocracy which is kinda the same just a little less options, also we are both very good friends with the US But not quite with each other)If You Dont Know what i am talking about go watch vox... go watch this video: The Middle East's cold war, explained	Age, Dumb, Terrorist	Age - General, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments, Religious Identity - Muslim	3/194	1.546

So this was just another episode of the Cold War, which both sides decided to end in a stalemate instead of further attacks which we saw happen over and over again, not because Egypt is "strong". Let me ask you something, if Egypt really is this "big strong power house" who can apparent "destroy" Israel why did they lose so badly in 1967 and 1973 along with all the other Arab nations. Yes a direct military attack would be put down quicker than old yeller, but if someone (my boy Kimmy Jong Un) executed a successful attack on one of the united states power grids he wouldn't have to do anything more than wait for united states society to fall apart, since not only the civilian population relies heavily on technology but the government too. +Zar Trojaze Britain never "beat" India in the traditional sense. How could it? It's thousands of miles away and only had a few thousand soldiers in India at a time. But they had one advantage over Indians. Their brains. Through a combination of racism , intimidation, clever business tactics, gunpowder, industrial technology , cruelty and basically making Indians feel like shit, they managed to subdue the whole country. It was so potent that even today, Indians clearly have a strong inferiority complex, and constantly feel the need to brag about their country on the Internet. This method of invading India could easily occur in the future, as Indians are a highly emotional people and extremely prone to manipulation.	Racism	Ethnicity - General	1/117	0.855

Take South Africa, all the 'shit' they handed out to the blacks, the minority white population are experiencing some serious 'shit' right now. That's Karma. 1.The land of Israel belonged to the Jews 3000 years ago. In that time the Muslim were a bunch of idiots that prayed to stones and trees.2. The UN has divided the state of Israel to two religions - Jews and Muslims - in 1947. The Jews has accepted the offer while the Arabs started a war, which Israel won so technically we could have conquered the whole land but we didn't. The Muslims has started ALL the wars. While Israel is just protecting itself.3. Despite what Roger Walters and his anti-Semitic friends told you, Israeli military is not that aggressive. We offer Palestinians electricity, work places and water, and when the crazy Muslims from Gaza strip shoot missiles at us in hope to kill some Jews, we have to shoot back. But you know what we do? We FKING SEND THEM TEXT MESSAGE TO ABONDEN THE AREA so that we will not hurt any palestinian civilians4. The most important part. The Palestinian nation doesn't exist. It is a bunch of people from Jordan that decided to stay at the West bank in the 50's. Thirty years later they called themselves Palestinians. How the hell can a nation be created in such a short time? That's stupid.	Crazy, Nation	Nationality - General, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	3/210	1.429

So BS, during WW2 the Russian Army spent months retreating and easily giving up lands? WTF?? After cruel violation of German-Soviet Non-aggression Pact (Molotov-Ribbentrop Pact), despite being stunned by the surprise attack, the Red Army did everything to stop them till the end, they fought for every single meter. Have you anything heard about the Brest Fortress ? 900 days of St. Petersburg occupation? They proceeded their intervention only till Stalingrad, and the victory of the Red Army in the battle for this city, burnt to Ashes, became the crucial moment in the whole WW2. Burktholumue - Your logic is a bit off. It's unfortunate that Our soldiers are all over the world fighting conflicts designed by groups that have their own self interests in mind. However, one fortunate effect of all of this skirmishing all over the globe as the so-called "world police", is Our soldiers are more experienced than any other military on Earth. I may be a bit biased as a combat veteran myself, but my logic is still sound.Combine this experience with technological and capability superiority, and I'd have to agree with this video. Any attempted invasion would be soundly thwarted. Albeit a combined effort of China and Russia would cause significant human losses and structural damage. War with either one of those nations individually would be unwelcome, very costly in every way, and should be avoided at all costs.Anyone who has seen, heard, and smelled war up close and personal would tell you it's nothing to glorify, cheer about, or fantasize over. War is the most disgusting thing humans engage in. War truly is pathetic, and represents failure of idiot politicians, or the fapping-wet-dreams of sick, globalist enslavers and tyrants. Territories that they never had any right on to begin with, with most local arabs being either displaced or exterminated. Israel may have occupied many territories but that is because most of the places they occupy are politically instable and disorderly. For example, Palestine has no real government controlling it and the PLO is extremely corrupt and would probably lose control of Palestine to insurgents and other more extreme terrorist organizations if given complete control of Palestine and the West Bank. Israel is just a situation where both parties are stuck for many reasons. The United States however does not simply invade and occupy other countries. They merely attempted in the past to preserve democratic states in foreign nations such as in Vietnam or invaded Iraq on the premise that there were WMD and that Saddam Hussein was funding terrorist organizations such as Al-Qaeda. Maybe it was not a good idea because of the non existent WMDs or little or fabricated evidence for such things. But America still did topple a dictatorship that had previously invaded Kuwait and used chemical weapons (WMDs) against their own citizens, Iraqi Shiites. Simply saying that Israel and the United States specialize in invading and occupying is too a certain extent, an incomplete, demeaning statement about the countries. The elite Israelis are an extension of elites in colonial European powers. They took the diamond minds in S. Africa while using Indians as cheep labors in S. Africa & Malaysia. Did Indians have a Rothschild family that controlled the European banking system & made their policies that much colonial & oppressive? NoDid the Israelis on other hand have a Ghandhi? No, they had terrorists who assassinated the 1st peace mediator in UN history. Those terrorists became leaders of Israel.	Common	Social Class - Working class	1/106	0.943

Japan has been invaded actually or at the very minimum occupied. Japan shouldnt even be on the list. Japan has American bases in the South and around Tokyo as well as having Russian military bases on the Kuril/Northern Territories to the North. Furthermore, Japan's population has been steadily declining. Japan's citizens would be slaughtered if they were invaded or terrorized by ISIS due to a lack of self-defense mechanisms by Japanese civilians. In fact, Japanese civilians can't even own a weapon of ANY kind and although Mr. Abe is attempting to revise the constitution of Japan, Japanese citizens have NO means of self defense if they were to face an invader. First of all, it's fun to talk to someone who is intelligent and not just another anti-Semitic mob that thinks Jews are the source of global evil. Second, the Jewish people have a right to property on Israeli land since the time of the First Temple (if you choose to believe it or not, it is your own choice, because the Jewish people lived in this Levantine region for thousands of years and one of the only peoples in the ancient world that has not wandered since it found its territorial seat) . There was a Jewish settlement in Israel: in Jerusalem, Zafet and other settlements that were hundreds of years old with a symbiosis with the population that lived in Israel - then it was called Palestina - the name of Palestine in the Greek-Roman name of the Land of Israel ... What I am trying to say is that the Palestinian "people" was invented at the very moment of the birth of the new State of Israel. The Arab citizens of Israel did not want to unite and create their own state. Only when the Zionist idea was initiated by European Jews. Suddenly the "people" Of the Palestinian "people" for its own independence. In conclusion, I wish for peace between the two "nations" that the fighting will end ... F that. USA already was invaded. It's the propaganda mind control and chemtrail spraying overhead let you know that, yes, it has already been invaded: by people willing to commit treason to assassinate its president (JFK); and overtake the voting system within; and subvert the truth in a massive counterintel operation of cyber warfare to keep the people in the dark. Its elections are hacked, by the makers of its voting machines and no one even bothers checking because if you try to have a recount, the supreme court blocks it at the last minute, just in time for some distraction to divert your attention from a real issue. If you know these things and tell others, they wont believe you anyway. Some teachers who know the truth will soon be dismissed. Most teachers are the most brainwashed and unable to put the pieces together because their pathology was incubated within a country whose television repeats huge lies over and over, telling us of a non existent enemy that demolished buildings filled with people so that we may enter into decades of war to clear Israel's enemies' armies from being a threat while US tax payers pay for this rage that Americans cannot even understand. So if your question is whether it is impossible for America to be invaded, well, you are wrong, it has already been invaded. That is why we have political figures and celebrities routinely assassinated.... And you thought it was a heart attack, drug overdose, or suicide. Fuck you all who turn your back on the constitution and sign non-disclosure agreements, or are too stupid to know what I just said. Do not invade other countries. The Egyptians launched their offensive in the early morning of October 14, the Egyptian assault came to a halt after suffering heavy losses, and Egyptian troops retreated back to their lines on the Suez Canal.[13]Egyptian losses in the battle were 200-250 tanks and up to 1,000 men killed and wounded in action. The 3rd Egyptian Armored Division was completely eliminated and 120 Egyptian prisoners were taken in the battle at Wadi Mab'uk.[14] The Egyptians also lost their Second Army Commander, Saad Mamoun, who suffered a heart attack at the beginning of the day. By contrast, Israeli losses were 50-150 tanks, 60 other armored vehicles and some aircraft. The following day, the Israelis launched Operation Abiray-Lev, crossing the Suez Canal and cutting off the Egyptian Third Army's supply lines.[2][5][9] SOOO FUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUCKKK YOU . holy shit! Now lets take about geography, from the northern and western side, Pakistan is surrounded by huge mountain ranges, like Himalayas, Karakoram. No army can attack from north and west. I am not saying that Israel is a worthless country for everyone. Of course it must have some value for the people who live there or for the people who think the land rightfully belongs to them and who would want to have it back. That is a familiy quarrel as far as I am concerned, even if most of the supposed Jews living in Israel have been found not to be even Semites, as the Palestinians but people from the Caucasus, the Khazarians, a ethnic group who converted to Jadaism because they saw it in their interest. What I meant is that for anyone who doesnt have a dog in this fight as it is my case, there is no reason why we should ever wanted to have Israel as a property. There is no minerals, no oil, no natural riches, no rich agricultural land. If were not for he works people have done there it would be a worthless piece of desert. Now, concerning the grass, If you saw the movie Jesus Christ SuperStar there is the Last Supper scene where they are in a patch of land with grass. The director explained in the DVD that as there is no grass in Israel they had to hire a local guy to grow that patch of grass in a year's period so they could finally have the scene they wanted. Online, get a grip. No one invades a nation because the people there are tolerant to religions, or nice, or beautiful. That would be like a robber stealing your wallet because you have beautiful pictures in it. Neither they do if for its touristic attractions. Even during the Darkest of times, the first thing that pops in our mind is to fight back (Revolutionary war, Pearl Harbor, and 9/11) Thats Why we have the "Defcon" System. Defcon 5 Is Neutral, Defcon 1 is Nuclear warfare. Think to your self about the Nato System. If Israel was ever attacked, other country's will have there back. So its NOT nothing . If something did happen, it wont just be a Living hell For America or Israel, it would also affect the Opposing country or Country's. would be nothing but a genocide.(Nuclear warfare). nikhil vinay, a MASSIVE thumbs up to you from London, England, here in the U.K. we are becoming well aware of "whinging muslims", muslims have a habit over "over estimating their numbers" too, like this one, 1,600 million muslims Worldwide, one problem with that900 million of those CANT even READ and WRITE.(in the U.K. there are "supposed" to be 3 million muslims, and 2 million of those, cant even be bothered to pray, BUT, they are too scared to say they are non muslims, as the islamic penalty for that is "supposed" to be death, ANYONE that openly says they are a muslim, is in fact a radical hard line islamic NUT JOB). In the U.K. we are starting to open up a NEW FRONT against islam, by educating females from muslim families in the U.K., in the important subject of, "knowing how to ESCAPE from islam, without having any fear of violence and or family retribution", (islam only sees women as "breeding pods" to assist spreading their VILE 3rd World CULT, from the Dark Ages, by making those women have lots of children). Another way of "turning EVERYONE in 1st World nations, AGAINST islam is simple", let EVERYONE know about mohammed the founder of islams, "DIRTY HABITS", like RAPING 9 year old Aisha, "ONLY a COMPLETE CUNT of a DIRTY OLD MAN would do that", NEXT ONE, mohammed ALSO had sex with his DEAD Aunt, Fatimah, when she was in her grave, what a SICK BASTARD mohammed was, so there is NO justification whatsoever, for following mohammeds PERVERTED DEATH CULT, mohammeds "flying donkey" is JUST A MYTH too, a product from a SICK imagination. On the military front, muslims have a BAD HABIT of looking like and mixing with civilians when fighting their deluded jihad, because, they havent got the balls to fight a real war, when they are losing, (as they always are), they just drop their AK47 and blend into the civilian population, like cowards, mulsims really are the VERMIN on this Planet. Mr The Challenge !!!!!, you seems like a nice Egyptian patriot (I really honor it), but still you have to learn some facts:At the end of the war (Day 15th of 17 in totale) Israel forces were on African ground (the west bank of Suez cannel) surrounding the remaining of the whole Egyptian army (3rd and 2ed armies) and aimed to capture Cairo. Then, Russia threatened to intervene (and start a WWIII). As a response, the US secretary of the state (DR. Henry A. Kissinger) achieved the '101th kilometer cease-fire agreement' – which I recommend you to read and see for yourself. At 1978, your great courageous President Auar Al Sadat Changed his strategy to PEACE!This is how you got The Sinai peninsula back, with so much honor and no blood. I really admire the Egyptian people that had such a courageous leader then days.	African	Ethnicity - Black	1/147	0.68

Okay, let's discuss this in a civilized manner.Israel did achieve some victory when you guys invaded sinai and managed to repel every single attempt by Egypt to regain our land. However, at the end we did recover every single inch of Sinai, which is considered a victory, because "victory" doesn't only mean who killed the most or who won the attack, it means that the party's goals have been achieved, and in this case, it was regaining Sinai, which we did. You also achieved a minor victory in the peace agreements because most of its terms were in favor of securing your country, which was your goal in the first place, but that also makes you barbaric because you tried (and succeeded) to achieve this with blood. That was the first point.Second point is, Palestine IS an Arabic country whether you like it or not, because it belongs to the Arabs of Canaan who have been living there for more than 4000 years. Jews did actually live there too, but only for a few years, no more than hundreds, and then they got expelled by the Arab natives. By your logic, Rome should invade France today because it belonged to them at some point in history, Egypt should invade Sudan, England should invade half of the planet, because at one point, the English empire did own almost half of the world. It makes no sense. And don't tell me that Jacob or Israel lived there and this makes this land yours by birthright because he's your grandfather, because by this logic i should write my will to my grandchildren telling them that my grandfather was a Turk, and so they need to invade Turkey because it's their land. Also makes no sense.You are right in one point though, that us Arabs are pretty weak compared to your nuclear arsenal (which your country continuously lies about owning one), and your advanced military and weaponry. But you were also wrong because without support from the world's bully, a.k.a. USA, you would be nothing , and that is a fact that most Israelis say themselves, including some of your own ministers, it's not my own saying.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/365	0.274

I know why are you protecting Israel, cause it's your country, but it's no problem that your country are invaders and stealers, PLUS, They are trying to invade Egypt...and want egypt would be no more and the land is "Israel" that's what they tried to do when they invaded Sinai. Bruh.... You zionists are getting really boring.. I know another Arab innocent country will be called Israel soon, and you are gonna protect Israel... Really, Palestine is for Palestinians, you should goo live in your ROOT country.. Israel isn't even a country, They took someone's country by British rights', and called it "Israel"....The world didn't want Jewish peeps to live in this earth anymore, or in any other country, so they sent you with an army to Palestine, A small country with a small army living in peace.I know you are gonna continue shit talk but, we are in 2017, GROW UP AND GET SOME FACTS,... And further more can u tel me what is the history of the land of Israel before arabs inherit it.??? Come on man tel me whats the full history of the land of Israel.???Search and know from History, THE LAND OF ISRAEL WAS THE LAND AND THE STATE OF JEWS.It was a Jewish state and inhabited by Jews untill Romans destroy Jerusalem and the Jewish temple of Jerusalem.Then Romans dispersed Jews through out the world and named "palestine" to Israel. Jews didn't take a land owns to somebody else. They took the land of their fore fathers. They took back their homeland, their fore fathers' land, their fatherland.Its Arabs who had taken a land belonged to Jews and were living on it. Japan didn't manage to get invaded by Mongolia because of that era, they are well-verse in land invasion and not sea battles. Mongolia at that age did not have the technology to within stand rough seas, and to make matter worst they were so unlucky to face weather disaster in both invasion. Japan also would have been easily conquered but choose to surrender because they know that Russia can easily rampage their way in as compared to America. In addition, Japan was scared to be run by a communist country as it will endanger the emperor life. Hence by theory, Japan can be invaded and they knew it hence they decided to choose the right person to surrender to.In addition, I feel that China, Vietnam, and India should be on the list. I will also like to add on to one of the comments where a lot of people think "China was invaded and defeated" if you read up on the history, China did the same tactic as Russia which is to exchange space for time. China at that time already had an internal conflict where battles with warlords which include communist , royalist and republican were at a high level, but as of now, China is one whole by itself. If China is able to defend itself even during internal conflict, what do you think when they are united as one and with much advance technology?I am saying this base on facts, anyone who wants to troll can feel free to do so... Israel has been supported by the US only to protect the american interests in the Middle East. And, Yes, Israel has lost a war in 1973 on the hands of the Egyptian Army when the Egyptian forces destroyed the Israeli barrier of the formidable Bar Liv Line and was about to taste the bitter defeat to the fullest when the US interfered and a cease fire was called for followed by peace negotiations between Egypt and Israel in the time of Sadat. From that point on Israel started a hectic race of arming, aided by America. They now possess the most lethal weapon in the territory (only Saddam was accused of obtaining the same weapon and his country was invaded for that), the Nuclear Weapon. But since the act of union Great Britain has only ever lost foreign wars involving colonial uprisings or foreign intervention which the USA I might add has a much worse record in. But I think you do the old Western European countries a great disservice as its to the credit of the military prowess of such countries like the UK and France that they even exist to this day. These two countries have fought together in two world wars after being enemies for nearly a millennium, conquered over half the world between each other etc and still after all that Iran and North Korea who would have been beaten in the Korean War if not for Chinese intervention, make it onto this list over these two countries. I mean India has military up on one of the highest peaks siachen, so to say India shouldn’t be on the list is pretty dumb , if they can put Iran on the bases of nuclear weapons (which India also has), and neighbors with infestations (which again India does have) then I believe India should be on that. India did nothing but get invaded throughout history, lmao.Also, considering the fact that it is a false ethnic identity that most people cannot relate to, their soldiers simply lack the drive to protect a ’nation’ that doesn’t exist.Even before the British, the Indian subcontinent was mostly run by the Mughals.The ’pacifist’ nature of Indians is what keeps them weak.	Ethnic, Indian, Nothing	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - General, Ethnicity - Native-American	3/62	4.839

Actually Tazy50, sorry to burst your bubble, but the North was run by the mughals, only for some time, by the time the brits arrived, the mughal empire almost declined, and it were the marathas (Indian /Hindu empire) that ended up taking over their territory, also the Rajputana empire in the west, was also pretty strong as well. The Mughals only had major control on the areas in the north, particularly near delhi. So.....India in it's entirety was not always controlled by the mughals, the last great mughal emperor to have most of India was Aurangzeb, and by that sense they only rules most of India for a little over 100 years. The reason why we hear about the Mughals more than any other India Kingdom was due to their ties with the Turkish were the Sultanate, their tombs, and the palaces they left behind, these were their legacies. Also if you truly learn Indian history, outside of the ones they teach you in non Indian areas, which is mostly falsified, and over glorified history of the Islamic empire, which sets the Christian tone for the Brits, because Abrahamic religions. Also for the ethnic group, I hope you know that none of us are purely ethnic , even the most isolated parts of Europe have their own ethnic mixtures, but let me tell you one thing, regardless of Ethnicity , Indians are the only ones today that still follow their ancient traditions, and are still in tact with their ancient root.I mean atleast Indians in India aren't in this false idea that all of their ancestors were of a certain religion, color, race , etc. And I truly believe it's the religious philosophies, rather than the nurture that kept Indians "weak," at least the dharmic religions are the only ones that didn't kill/invade for conversions and gain. Destroying your country...do you remember what Israel was like in the 1500+ years between the time that they left the place to 1948? I'm sure you can't. Do you know why? Because there was nothing there. You never had a country to stand for. You don't know it's capital, national anthem, your army nowadays consists of terrorists (so much for the peaceful nation) and, Israel did in only 69 years what the arabs couldn't in over 1500. They created a name for themselves, have an identity, an army, a national anthem, and one of the best missile defenses in the world. And how could it be destroying your country? Remember when they tried to give the arabs their own place? (Gaza) well look how that turned out. So now who is really destroying the country? A people who are trying to live in a safe place, or the people trying to return the land to what it once was, a desert. And how would that turn out? You missed a few points on Canada as well, thanks to such a distance between most major cities and the difference landscape it would make it incredibly difficult for an army to traverse from west to east as the wide open fields in the center would be a death zone and the mountains of BC are so winding and un kept in some places that you mine as well invade from the east to prevent any armor falling off a mountain. Now the east is worse for Soldiers as Wood tics can carry lime disease and you still have to invade through the mountains of Labrador which is not fun with all the black flies and shit. Invading through the north you will be most likely succeed in that regard but you would only have 6 months to push south and secure a supply line before winter hit because you will need ice breakers to get supplies in after that and that assumes you have some. And on top of that a lot of Canadians have guns and you still have the Canadian Northern rangers taking you on and polar bears and the occasional Canadian looking for a seal to club	Black	Ethnicity - Black	1/201	0.498

Alltime 10sJust a few suggestions. First of all, Canada is different from Russia. To invade Canada to the point of capitulation, you only need to take the St. Lawrence Lowlands. Canada also is cold, but it's terrain is still possible to be used by armored vehicles. Canada could be defeated easily, especially if it wasn't on the same side as the US, which is why it usually is. Japan is also quite easy to invade these days. Unlike WWII Japan, modern day Japan no longer has the initiative and motivation to fight to the death. China has a plan on how to defeat them as long as the US doesn't get involved. Besides, every country in Asia hates Japan, and should there be an opportunity, Japan stands no chance against billions of revenge thirsty people and thousands of nuclear warheads. As for North Korea, you said most nations couldn't stomach the losses, that is, except for China, but I agree with you that the DPRK can't be invaded due to that very reason, as the only country capable of invading North Korea depends on North Korea to keep it safe from a invasion by the US from Korea. Speaking of warheads and nuclear weapons, Russia has more warheads than the US.That brings us to China. To defeat China via invasion would unimaginable. Aside from the obvious reason, which is that we have an army larger than North Korea, and the largest population on Earth, we are geographically protected. Also, if you can't accept the casualties of an invasion or war with North Kora, you won't even consider accepting the casualties that come from a war with China. Therefore, every single reason you mentioned for North Korea applies to China, along with countless more. In other words, you should really put China on the list. Did I mention the fact no nation has every taken control of all of China in modern times? Also, the biggest thing you should fear about invading China is the fact you can't destroy us without destroying the world. Aside from economic damage, you would also need to kill 1.4 billion people, and should we be forced to a last stand, we will not hesitate to use nuclear weapons. The PLA has less warheads than the US, but more than enough to create an explosion that would cause twice the damage caused by the meteor that helped wipe out the dinosaurs. In fact, every single nation with more than 50 nuclear warheads should be on this list for that very reason. Should a country with warheads be invaded, they would no longer have a reason to not use their arsenal, as why wouldn't they take down as many with them if they are doomed to die?Just things to take into account, no offense meant. The US army can be defeated, and using nukes will just kill everyone. The main reason why the US is impossible to invade, is because there are more guns than people in the country, and a whole lot of people know how to use them. Nobody pushed anybody back. Egypt decided to sacrifice their South battlefront in favor of supporting Syrian armies at Golan heights battle, even with Egypt withdrawing at the South battlefront the Israeli armies couldn't gain much. At the end of the day the Egyptians got their land back, that's called victory.	Nobody	Age - Youngsters	1/50	2.0

potebry FIFA I hear you brother, it's confusing but let's put it this way. Winning and losing any war is subject to achieving the political goal this war was established upon. If you go to war to gain control of a land and you get it, you're called victorious. If you go to war to free your land and you free it, then you can claim yourself victorious as well. At the end of the day "War" is nothing but a method to satisfy a political agenda. The Egyptian-Israeli War in 1973 was started by Egypt in order to regain control of the Egyptian Sinai, this happened at the end of the war. It took 6 more years to regain full control of Sinai through diplomatic channels but this would've never happened if Israel won that war. I would not say that Egypt exterminated the Israeli army but I would say the Egyptian army was tough and smart enough to force Israel to retreat and let go Sinai.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/168	0.595
Daniel Shevy1- First of all Egypt is not "Arab army" or "Arab country", Egypt is Egypt and that's how you should refer to it.2- Precisely, Israel won the Syrian Golan heights in that war and kept it till today, so why would Israel retreat from Sinai unless they lost the war to Egyptians and had to forfeit their lands.3- you can't go to war against a nation that you don't recognize. In 1973 Israel was recognized by many countries in the Middle East, the conflict was about sharing land with Palestinians. 4- The ultimate goal of any war is to bring peace, however you want peace with your own terms and that's what Egypt did. At the end of the war Israel shamefully agreed to withdraw from Sinai and to give Palestinians a piece of the land. Egyptians made peace based on their terms, actually Israel never had any benefits from this war. Israel lost men and land. That's why Egypt has been regarded victorious in this war. Much of the world is in a military deadlock. It's harder and harder to invade many well known nations simply because of politics, economics, alliances and modern transportation, communication, military hardware & tactics. Big wars of conquest have become too expensive (both in cost and in political consequences), and only sheer desperation could make it a viable option. So until our world economy takes a big kick in the nuts and we have mass starvation or similar, there's not enough incentive to warrant a good old fashioned invasion between the top 100 major powers. Only a dictatorship has the kind of leadership which would do something so stupid and expensive, and WW2 showed what happens as a consequence: Italy, Germany and Japan all had dictatorial leadership, all 3 tried to invade as a form of aggression, and all 3 got fucked up and lost. Keeping hold of them.....that's the challenge and thats where the Red Dawn situation ('Border' in India) comes in. Several things I would say about the list:1. People’s Republic of China and India should be in the list, after all these 2 Asian giants both sport amongst the largest armies in the world, both nations have massive mountainous terrain. While the British may have fully conquered India once, and China was once conquered by the Mongols, whose annexation of China was actually more Chinese than Mongol with the Mongols adopting into Chinese culture instead.(all besides, these very Mongols lead by Genghis Khan successfully invaded Russia and left Moscow in ruins, well back when it was still called Kievan Rus), 2nd best attempt so far was Japan in WWII who only reached as far as Shanghai area, and could not go through Guangxi area, so outside of Mongolia noone had succeed yet. In addition to this, China is now boasting an army that is going through massive modernization, most Chinese military hardware have already caught up to western standards.2. Nearest Naval invasion of Australia would be China, the Chinese have a fleet at least of at least 5 times larger than the Japanese fleet, along with that is their large marines force. The China today is no longer the backwater army like back in World War II which can hardly afford a rifle for every man in service, it sports not only the largest army, but also one that is well equipped.3. Cuba, if by achievements alone, not many are capable of withstanding the might of the USA, this little guy here did, and what’s even more impressive is that its right at USA’s doorstep! similar to the Japanese Cuba is an Island nation, whose geography itself lends it much defenses.4. Speaking of the Japanese, aside from the Mongols invading Japan, and the Western Powers bombardments(I suppose this don’t count as invasion as the goal was to open Japanese trade, on a very unequal terms, which resulted in Boshin war... which is a civil war.), I have yet heard of Japan being invaded, although I’ll give credit as Japanese geography and modern armed forces indeed makes it difficult.5. Japanese Airforce is hardly cutting edge now, in fact many parts of its military is not a cutting edge technology, F-15 while is also being used currently by the USA, the year now is 2017 not 1980, with US flying F-22 and F-35, China having their J-20 and J-31 almost ready, Russia with T-50, Su-35 and Berkut, the F-15 is a jet of the last generation. Type 10 while seemingly a good tank it merely sported a minor upgrade in Armor, no change in gun and most changes are in its electronics in comparison to the Type 90, which is based on the Leopard 2A4, which is outdated. Not to mention the majority of Japanese tanks are the outdated Type 74 which are obsolete even by the time it came into being. we’re not going through its other equipments such as artillery yet but Japanese ground forces aren’t its main thing anyways, the biggest thing it bring are its Kongo destroyers, which are based on the Arleigh Burke, a proven design, but even then said design is also starting to show age. So. . . if I were to make a top 10, I would say:1: USA - on top of being the only super power in the world as of the moment, it sits on a continent away from all other great powers separated by Oceans, and is the nation that sports the strongest navy in the world2. Russia - If the harsh climate isn’t enough deterrent, there’s the nuclear deterrent, on top of this is that Russia have a very well armed military3. They certainly do but not to the extent that they drain another country's resources to breaking point. Every country requests or recieves aid during conflicts, always has. And since every other country in the middle east wants to anihilate them, I'm not supried they need a helping hand.You also say that they are too chicken-shit to send in invading foot-soldiers and rather use air-strikes? Guess what? It's 2017, that's how war works these days and furthermore, if muslim soldiers really want to show their bravery and willingness to die on the battlefield then ditch the ied's and rpg's and do it the 7th century way with cutlasses and tin shields and go charging towards any israeli military outpost defended by machine gun nests.Let me know how that goes. My opinion about me as a American that being invaded would be a weird experience for Americans. Also in some states there are at least some navy bases, army Air Force etc. Another thing I believe the most hardest places to invade would be the east coast, mid-west , and west coast. Plus we ally with A lot of people. Also neighborhoods all around America will go lockdown and wait for military to come to defend us or take children to a safe place were they won't get hurt. Same thing with weapons. Most Americans at least have a weapon they can carry. So if this did happen let's remember America has a good army, special forces and Americans. In general I do believe that attacking America would indeed might cause a big war with who ever invades. (Also America is reliable just saying)	Weird	Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	1/144	0.694

For anyone saying the US wouldn't be number 1, think about this- There are more civilian owned guns than people in the US. And you are also able to purchase miniguns, LAW rockets, recoilless rifles, etc. Just need certain weapons permit, which costs a lot of money, but is possible. We have the world's most lethal navy. We have 10, soon to be 11 nuclear powered supercarriers, each capable of holding around 85 aircraft. We have the world's most destructive MBT. Sure, the M1 Abrams is completely outclassed by things like Korea's K2 Black Panther and Germany's Leopard 2a7, but slap on a battle package or two and then it can compete. Our tank crews are also excellent. We have the world's most lethal air force. The F-35 program, an aircraft that can detect and lock onto an aircraft 180 miles away, which is also almost impossible to track and even more impossible to lock onto. The F-22 program, basically a better F-35 that can actually hold its own in a dogfight thanks to the world's first computer assisted thrust vectoring system. Nukes, so many nukes, Trident missiles, Ohio-class submarines, etc etc. The US is one of the largest countries geographically. The diversity of our geography also leans to our advantage. We have deserts, swamps, mountains, you name it (no jungles though). The US's economy is also strongest when we're fighting a war. WW2 pulled us out of the Great Depression faster than high schoolers having underage sex . Our economy was very strong during the Operation Desert Storm, Operation Iraqi Freedom, the War on Terror, etc. Our colleges also are capable of breeding some of the most toxic people ever, capable of tearing down entire societies. Canada is also extremely good at this, possibly better than the US. Final reason? James Mattis. He threw a grenade killing 30 people, and then the grenade exploded. He also once shot down a Mig-31 by pointing his finger at it and saying "bang."	Black, Sex	Ethnicity - Black, Gender - General	2/330	0.606

The Arabs hate the nation of Israel, but it is very normal to have enemies, the views of your enemies does not determine your identity. Considering what the people have gone through in the hands of other peoples, i think that small parcel of Land they are occupying will make the world run into space crisis in the near future, also considering their contributions to humanity. The video topic is referring to the United States of America, not to Cherokee nation , not to the Iroquois, nor any other native tribe. No India or China?I mean, with over a billion people in each nation , you'll need a HUGE military to do it. And China, back in the 1950s, right after their civil war, pushed the US halfway down the Korean peninsula to defend North Korea.—As for Russia, sure... no European nation has beaten it. But the Mongols did. Russia is weak to invasion from the east. For hardly anyone lives east of the Ural mountains. And China has the tech, the money, and the manpower to (if they wanted to) do it. I mean, they could need the space for their 1.2+ billion people. And the resources found in Siberia.	Nation	Nationality - General	2/112	1.786

Oh and nukes to boot.Another thing you seem to forget...if anyone dared to threaten this island there would rise a 1 million plus volunteer army within days, just as in the first world war. There's a huge difference between "invade" and "conquer." The US was invaded twice by Britain, with the War of Independence and the War of 1812, but both times we were able to repel them. China and Russia are both almost impossible to invade due to their sizes, and in Russia's case due to its winters, which defeated both Napoleon and Nazi Germany. Afghanistan is an interesting case, because it's been invaded repeatedly, but no one has ever been able to hold it. I think the Afghan winters are why. Even with no military, the armed civilian population would be exceptionally hard to beat on their own land. It would take a generation of victories plus the the invading force would be spread so thin there would be no way to gain control. The only way that would remotely work over many decades would be to disarm the population beforehand, take and HOLD major cities, destroy the transportation system or supplies, food and water in a scorch-the-earth policy as the force moves across the land, but I don't even see this happening. There would be endless waves of militia in the millions constantly attacking the invaders like ants on a Popsicle.and this scenario doesn't even account for any of the US allies attacking. You are ignorant. Read history before you embarrass yourself any further. There was NEVER an autonomous Palestine. Tell me the first Palestinian political leader. The first Palestinian currency. Army. National anthem. Borders. You CAN'T. Israel is a bonafide country. Palestinians don't have a country. They were just inhabitants of the Ottoman and later British Empire. Nothing more, nothing less. The Arabs already got more than half of the original Palestinian geographical area (NOT COUNTRY): Jordan. To talk about top ten countries that are easy to invade, I would say one of them is China. It is because Chinese people are being too nice to foreigners and having a very high tendency of starting civil wars that make the country vulnerable for foreign invaders. In Chinese history, China was ruled by non-Han Chinese twice, they were the Mongols and the Manchurians. China also nearly-colonised by various European empires. And being pillaged by Japan once, it was just because the Japanese started the Pacific War, opened another front against the USA. It made their annexation progress of China had been delayed. Though today the Communist regime swore to make the country strong and breeding a formidable military force. I am sure they would wave the white flag to the enemy even the fight haven't begun! I think Japan was at the verge of being conquered. Most historians would agree, that the nuclear bombs were unnecessary. North Korea would also be another country, which probably is easier to invade, than they look. The morale of their soldier is pretty down, the population is starving and their weapons are ineffective and mostly old . Their missiles are no ICBM's (yet?) and can only maximum reach Japan - and their nuclear program is questionable. Probably it would be the easiest way to occupy North Korea, if you would bomb them with rice and beans...The only point, which works for them is the cooperation with China - but this is swindling.Iran is probably also easier to invade (if you don't solely use military opposing force)... U.S. is EASY to take over, and it's being done as we speak. Just not by a military!!! We are being taken over from WITHIN by many different enemies!!! after WW2, the communists created their communist manifesto in which they TOLD US In black and white EXACTLY HOW THEY WOULD INFILTRATE and take us over from within, by first taking over our educational institutions, and eventually our public schools, thereby being able to indoctrinate and BRAINWASH our youth, which in turn becomes the leaders and think tanks of the next generation, and then by infiltrating every level of our government. By disguising themselves and infiltrating ranks of opposing political party - becoming RINO's!!! They are the reason we are being overrun by political correctness GARBAGE, and having our country RIPPED APART by CREATING racial strife and HATRED. They are doing it SYSTEMATICALLY, and the weak minded masses of young people who have been indoctrinated and brainwashed have been DUMBED DOWN by an intentionally impotent educational system. This is not happening by CHANCE, or randomly, or because of stupidity of leaders - it was an AGENDA, a PLANNED strategical means of taking us over from within. If you want to understand HOW it happened, go and read the manifesto and WAKE UP to the reality that most of the country SLEPT THRU as it as happening!!! I've watched it and seen it happening STEP BY STEP BY STEP along the way, EXACTLY as it was predicted they would do, and using the EXACT people and groups of people they said they would, and in the precise ways. IDIOTS who are too stupid to see and understand what they have been ALLOWING to happen by voting for the idiots and treasonous enemies they have been voting for just because those politicians make promises which sound good to pathetic "give me what I'm owed" entitlement mentality SLAVES!!! There is more than one kind of slaves, and those who fall prey to the pathetic government strategy of creating hatred and bitterness in their minds for the PAST, are WILLINGLY allowing themselves to become SLAVES on GOVERNMENT PLANTATIONS. The problem with war today is it's too friendly. Not everybody plays by the rules and wears a proper uniform so it's hard to pick them out from the crowd. Everybody watching on TV gets upset over civilian casualties so mowing down the crowd to get to the "bad guys" is out. Don't want the war to get a bad rating. They build ever more powerful weapons but have to be extra careful using them. This makes invading even more difficult. In WW2 the Germans bombed England, the English bombed Germany, Americans bombed Germany, the Japanese bombed the Americans, etc. The countries were at war. When the US bombed a ball bearing factory...those weren't military people working the factories or living around them when the carpet bombing happened. Those weren't military people in London when it was bombed. The Japanese army wasn't stationed in Hiroshima or Nagasaki. This was a "global war" and it was basically over in 6 years. We have better guns now, better planes, helicopters, ships, bombs, missiles, bullets, tanks, lasers, satellites, mre's...all supposed to be "better" and there's more of them. Why is this ISIS thing still a problem?All these "wars" that have been going on for years and years are the result of smart bombs and precision aimed spectator friendly tactics. "in the old days"...there was no such thing as using "human shields". Everybody died, if you aren't one of us you're one of them. No safe spaces to hide in. We know the bad guys are hiding in that town...that town goes away. When they run out of towns to hide in...they give up...or they go away.	Old	Age - Over 65s	1/274	0.365

And for you who are ignorant, No-one wanted Sweden in the WWII since we made sure the Allies got all the Nazi -Germany intel. Yes we allowed the Nazi 's to get our iron ore however, as a twist, we also got the Nazi 's to use our phone lines so we could listen into all the traffic. Our "Bjurstedt" made a copy of the Nazi 's code machine "G-Writer" (similar to the ENIGMA machine that Turing cracked), so we could decode all messages that they transmitted over the phone lines and wireless, hence, forwarding this information to the British MI6. We also unofficially assisted SOE and the Norwegian freedom fighters with both weapons and shelters. As I said, no-one wanted us to enter the war. We even had a spy working in the Nazi -Germany embassy for the "Abwehr" (Nazi spy organization) in Stockholm as a secretary, forwarding all secrets and top-secret messages to and from Berlin to the Swedish Secret Service. NK shouldn't be on this list (or at least if it is, SK should also be there and be MUCH harder). The SK military could probably take them on without calling in anyone else (remember that the SK military budget is higher than NK's ENTIRE GDP). There are only three main reasons NK hasn't been invaded yet:1. NK has a lot of (aging) artillery within range of Seoul. SK would win the war, but the bombardment of their capitol would make their economy much weaker.2. Occupation. Nobody wants the unenviable task of convincing the NK populus that they have been lied to, especially since SK will probably be the ones which that burden falls upon (and will be even harder considering point 1).3. China. They have always said they would back NK, but that has been waining over the years. They have at one point said that if NK were the aggressor then they wouldn't support them, and considering how much of a drain on their resources NK has become, it isn't even 100 certain China would directly intervene even if SK or its allies attacked first	Nobody	Age - Youngsters	1/190	0.526

hi Dan, thank you for replying,i dont know where did u get that hezbollah was removed from southern border but its still there and it was on the media several times where hezbollah was showing that israely army building walls and hiding behind it and that was the result of losing 2006 war and went from being aggressive to defensive. and for the second part hezbollah didnt go into unconditional cease-fire , actually its nothing like that. the cease fire happened when the united nation voted on stopping war between lebanon and israel and at that point hezbollah received a call from german official offering to be the communication link between hezbollah and israel. and also thats on the media and u can search it here on youtube.	Nation, Nothing	Age - Youngsters, Nationality - General	2/129	1.55

hi Dan, nice to chat with you again.as for the first part we agree hezbollah didnt surrender.second part:we r talking about strategy and i agree with what you said but this cannot end without mention why israel didnt want to occupy , every politic in israel that lebanon is the end of his career and israel army cant stay in lebanon as previous occupation proved it, hezbollah constatly attacked and raid def fences til they kicked every soldier out including who sold their country and worked with you.third part:i dont know what happened after the war on Gaza but on lebanon as i said in the previous part israel didnt want to take any land cuz simply wont hold it.and as for fourthly :D i didnt know either but i am excused since im not that good in english:Ptheres nothing much for me to say, we r discussing here was israel failed and that was my point that israel failed, im sure ur being honest by saying that u had logistics problems but that wasnt the only reason , israel lost at AL Hjeir Valley more than 50 tanks as your media stated and we r talking here about merkava , israel didnt just lose some tanks , israel lost a huge image about their tanks and it was the rise of cornet missile.the part next without a number :Das i said before numbers in valley of al Hjeir the number exceed the number u just said, i really have to mention something since that ur addressing me by person and not by only an argue, i am not happy with every casualties has fallen specially the civilians and no one here in lebanon is happy with it on ur side or our side. but israel know how to hit civilians and u watch search israel massacre on lebanon 2006. and to get back to my point the numbers dosnt show who won the war im sure hitler killed more than the allies has killed and allies won the war. its all about objectives.Dan for the last part its terribly terribly wrong , i dont know what u have told about the southern lebanese army. but those killed and tortured civilians stole and raped by the name of israel , those are not army and i dont know how u can call them lebanese army , at this point ur taking me as a stupid , how its a lebanese army and it was protecting you, how an army can work for another country where did u read that definition of a nation army, those army killed me old grandfather (and i mean old by age at that time when he was killed) threatened my family so it had to escape to beirut im not talking about my self i wasnt born yet at the time when they was in our southern village , but my brothers and sisters and they was young, now thats one example of me theres so much sad storys there u can find.i would like to end with a personal msg Dan when Hitler started to kill the jews they were never touched in the arab countrys, we had jews here in lebanon but mostly r gone and live in israel now i guess , they still have a warchip building in beirut, and its never touched or destroyed , i have never learned to hate someone based on his religion and neither anyone else , i dont know what they told u , everyone here live a normal life like u do , we have jobs and we have to go to work and to raise our kids , those ppl dont kill each others just like that, its all god dam politics.stay in touch, maybe we can discuss during the next war if it happens and i lived after it :Dbye	Age, Nation, Nothing, Old	Age - General, Age - Over 65s, Age - Youngsters, Nationality - General	5/661	0.756

+Mac180s Despite the fact that they have no fifth generation fighter aircraft, bombers, and rely on their domestically produced F-2 which is based off of the F-16. The only advantage they ever had was in the mid 1990s when the J/APG-1 was introduced on it. The J/APG-2 doesn't appear to be as advanced as other AESA radars such as the AN/APG-83 SABR. The F-15Js are still using the mechanically steered AN/APG-63(v)1. Instead of a fully operational 5th generation fighter, they have only made a technology demonstrator, we had prototype stealth fighter aircraft in the 1990s with the YF-22 and YF-23. In addition, they lack strategic bomber aircraft such as the B-2, B-1B, or B-52H, nor do they have access to the stand-off weapons the USAF uses. In conclusion, their weaponry isn't as advanced, their aircraft roles aren't as diverse as the USAF's, and their aircraft aren't as advanced as those used in the USAF. India should be in the list. There are many reasons to justify Indias claim in list.1) as it said in video if anyone attcks on Bhutan has to deal with India, it itself proves Indias might.2) Large area nearly 3.28 sq. miles.3) third lagest army, fourth largest air force and fifth lagest navy with aircraft carrier. 4) has strong robust and indigenious missile sysytem, that could reach up to Europe.5) India is a nuclear power .6) Himalayan as natural barrier, as well as India navy is strong in Indian ocean.7) India is ready with multiple line of defence which means for ex. even if you break Indian naval defence, and entre into Indian waters, the Indian coast guards will be ready to welcome you.8) India has large and well train reserve personal which counts upto 2.2 millions in number.9)India has it's own defence satellite system.10) India is a one of the largest market of the world, 7th largest economy. So no one big country like US or China will dare to fight with India ,because we are the market of Microsoft, Apple , Toshiba, Suzuki, Samsung, mi, etc.11) even if you win us , you will not survive by the damage made by India in war.12) finally, we are second largest population in the world with more the 65 of people are below 35 years of age . that is nearly 750 million people are below 35 years of age . There are a number of errors and inaccuracies.N°10 - "Iran has never been invaded since World War II". Have you ever heard of the Iran-Iraq War (1980-1988)?You know, the one that started with the invasion of Iran by the Iraqis?Plus most of Iran's tanks and combat aircraft are obsolete- in an all-out conventional conflict the Iranians would quickly have to resort to asimmetrical warfare (which would undoubtly be made easier by the country's geography).N°8 - Russia has 7000 nuclear warheads, not nuclear-tipped missiles. Of those 7000, 1765 strategic warheads are operational, plus a number of tactical weapons. The US currently has 4000 warheads, counting those active and inactive- far fewer than Russia.N°6 - Two words: airborne troops. Nobody in their right mind would try to invade Bhutan on foot, or with significant armored forces.N°5 - The Iron Dome is an excellent weapon system, but it's meant to shoot down mainly rockets and mortar shells: it's not supposed to engage aircraft, cruise missiles or ballistic missiles. Actually, America is softest and most prone to "invasion" of them all. Not typical military invasion, but simple "peacefull" cultural and religious birth-rate race invasion. It does not matter, that your army can kill anyone ever born trice, when your civilian population is accepting (and therefore consisting of) nationalities and religions, who wont ever see US, democracy and free society, as nothing more than enemies, targets, and cash milking cows. Fun fact, it is quite known, that when peacefull migrants and refugees from islamic nations imigrate and have "dificulties to find a job" (or simply dont want to work), and get the state support cash, they do not hesitate to support (by portion of said cash) organisation, who openly want US to became fricking kchaliphat, or even directly to "interislamic humanitarian activities" - ie (at least partly) terrorist bastards. So here you go - westerners are by their taxes helping to save their money for "holy" purpose of their own and their childerns islamization, and our society does not have ANYTHING in hand to prevent it. Maybe past nazism, but that proved worse solution than the problem it should solve. Because EVERYONE have rights and nobody is thinking about obligations, those rights should come closely tied with. If you would learn history properly, you would know that Golda Meir chose to resign by herself. And the reason we got the new aircrafts from USA was that the israeli airforce managed to steal the most advanced UAV in the world (of those days) from Egypt an extremely complicated mission. It was given to the egyptians by the russians and USA was going crazy to have it. I am from Portugal. When I was in the military, we occasionally had training exercises with other countries. Many times US forces come to stay at our base. I remember talking with this US guy (I think he was a Sergeant or something) and asked him about the US invading Portugal. I kinda told him, it will be pretty easy for you, you guys park some carriers bomb the place out and so on. He started to look at me kinda serious, he then just told me this: "Are you crazy ? Another Vietnam?" I was like what? My country is does not have jungles! Most of the cost in Portugal is covered by the Atlantic Ocean. But then it hits me what he was trying to say. My Country topography is pretty diverse, while it was easy for them to bomb our cities and so on at a distance, to really invade you need soldiers in the field, we can have small deserts, hills, mountains, forests and so on. We have many places for which to setup ambushes and guerrilla warfare for years.Still, we have been invaded in 18century by Spain, still, we kicked their asses out. In any case, Google Portugal and came to a great Country with great beaches and sun, wonderful people, drink and food. We probably have best sea food in the world. 10. Iran - The Mongols conquered it hundreds of years ago.9. Australia - Australia's army couldn't survive in the Outback - not enough food, water, or supplies. Just conquer the coasts & prevent any resupply by ship. Eventually, the army would die off.8. Russia - The Mongols conquered it hundreds of years ago. And if the Nazis had properly prepared for the terrain & weather, they would have succeeded. But the Nazi military planning for it was just as blatantly incompetent as Napoleon's planning.7. North Korea - Their army is a paper tiger. They don't have the resources for a prolonged conflict or for an extended invasion of other lands, unless China helps them out. And while North Korea used to be an asset to China, it has become more of a debilitating liability recently. China doesn't want war, they want trade and to grow their nation , objectives which war would severely cripple . It would be in China's best interests to overthrow N. Korea and let it reunite with S. Korea, because1) It would eliminate the uncertainty of a nuclear disaster on their borders started by a raving madman.2) It would defuse military tensions in the region and increase trade.3) Once N. Korea is reunited with S. Korea, there wouldn't be any reason for the big U.S. military presence on the peninsula, which would make the Chinese feel safer.4) Once Korea is united, China has a chance of making it a close ally. China really doesn't like Japan, because of WW2 & before. Korea really doesn't like Japan, either, because of WW2. China allying with Korea looks much better to them than Korea allying with Japan out of necessity. Without N. Korea, S. Korea no longer has to ally with Japan or the U.S. China would love this! Let me put this into proper perspective for you...In the federalist papers the founding fathers basically say...let's not treat our people like they're not fit to defend their own rights. They also point out the limitations of funding a government sponsored military. That's why we have the second amendment in the US. And people have really taken advantage of their rights in this respect.To actually occupy (boots on the ground) the united states, it would take all the armies of the world and they would need to bring all the rest of the guns...because the other half of the guns are in the hands over 50 million americans (although spread out evenly there could be a gun in the hand of every man, woman , and child in the US and still have some left over). So basically if you aren't talking about rendering the nation uninhabitable through nuclear/chemical/biological attack...it cannot be successfully invaded. Yo, why isn't the U.S. on here. I mean honestly it, along with China would probably be the hardest to invade. Forget the incredible power of the U.S. military, I grew up in the Midwest and ill tell ya, aint no body letting any nation invade here. Our two great ranges, Appalachian and Rocky Mountains allow for great geographic defenses, alongside our vast woodlands. We also have a massive reserve army with countless large bases all over the nation ready to arm them for a defensive war. Also I feel like we got legions of guys ready and willing to fight to the end in order to preserve and defend our nation and our constitution. People might think that Americans have become soft and lazy, but I don't think that would be the case if faced with actual invasion. this nation would definitely come together in an amazing way to defend our lands, from shore to shore	Nation	Nationality - General	4/157	2.548

most of these make a good deal of sense, but I have no idea how Israel got onto the list. everything depends on foreign willingness to back and defend them. Eventually either a cultural, political, or more likely economic incentive or movement will lead to the west withdrawing its unconditional and massive support for the country. honestly that is what worries me the most. Israel really does need to make peace and play nice with its neighbors already. the crusader kingdom of Jerusalem survived for a little over a century there (alongside Antioch and numerous other Kingdoms people thought would last forever), but just like all the others they were eventually driven out once the surrounding nations united and the foreign support began running dry. they really need to reconsider their position in the Middle East. the region has just now passed one century since the end of Ottoman unity and about 70 years since the end of mandate and colonial authority. as has been seen countless times in the history of the region. it takes a good century or two of chaos, authoritarianism, and economic stagnation before things begin to move once again towards unification, economic boom, and civil/technological advancement. Once that happens Israel will really need to accept itself as a Middle Eastern nation and not a western one. It is already one of, if not the last true European Colonial entity outside of European soil. Its government and the vast vast majority of its population is Ashkenazi or Eastern European Jewry (recent genetic tests have revealed that they are basically 100 of European origin, a link going all the way back to prehistory even native European Neanderthals, making them as pure European if not more so than many European ethnic groups.) As ethnic and even cultural, heck even religious colonizers (it is where comparisons to pre Mandela South Africa come in, and if we are being honest those comparisons are not entirely unfounded, a group of ethnic Europeans carving out a plot of non European land, settling there, exclusively governing there as a minority, and antagonism with an indigenous majority.) Israel is there now, I don't think it should be removed, but the way things are going, once the cycle of history turns back in favor of native middle eastern, which is surely will after the period of chaos that follows the fall of any centuries long empire ends as has been the case so many times before. it must ingratiate itself with its neighbors and accept that it must become a middle eastern nation and not a western nation in the middle east for it to finally have security. it also needs to find a way to once and for all settle things with their indigenous majority. Also, Its past victories aren't as clear cut as many think, it fought against vastly inferior armies that were also fighting each other at the same time. but today just like back then every depends on the outside worlds willingness to defend them.

I agree, especially in the wiping out and genocide of the Tasmanian population in the early to mid 1800s (the black war). Also, the stolen generations and white man paid forced raping of the Aboriginal populations. I am a product of that from the past 6 generations. Even i myself was taken from my mother and relocated in 1990. Currently i am 30. The government has covered up so much. Especially the nuclear bombing done during the 1950s (Maralinga) and there are still many no return zones in the state of South Australia. The first Prime Minister ordered for all aboriginal people to be exterminated, tortured, mass hangings and forcement of land. Even on the south coast there was an agreement of 600,000 acres of land to be traded for a bag of flour and rent to be paid, but the agreement was never honoured. Also, the genocide, police brutality and martial law of Palm Island as well. I could go on and on.... yet it is all covered up and most of it kept secret from the population. Strange really, especially if you check out our our history. For example, in about 49 years time we will celebrate losing the Battle of Hastings in 1066, The significance of this is that it was the last time that an uninvited foreign army managed to successfully invade us. It happened over 1,000 (yes 1,000) years ago. Not a bad record of keeping numerous unwanted foreigners out. There is one common factor, and it's not us just being an island, but the fact that the would be invader's all had the same false notions that we were all washed out were not good enough at fighting to defend ourselves. Germany would be utterly impossible by an outside force, there are few countries in the world that would be able to withstand and stop an invasion by the rest of the world combined (it could be done but at a cost that would make the Great War and WW2 look like nothing , the cost would be nothing short of an asteroid impact event fallout), and USA, Germany, China, India are definitely on that list, along with Russia. I can't think of another country that could do what these could do, maybe Japan if you take nukes out of the equation, but Germany is not the leader of the EU for nothing , like they picked up the ash and made themselves an unrivaled superpower after being decimated in WW1 in a very few short years, they are far beyond that, their tech in weaponry is second to none, discipline of soldiers, and of course self-respect (which most countries have, granted). So there is my list of countries that could not be successfully invaded by the rest of the world military might combined (minus nukes as that would mean the end of civilization (not the world, the world doesn't care about a few thousand pin prick nukes that would screw up the biosphere for a speck in a microbe of time that the biosphere has been around, it has withstood much worse, millions of nukes going off at once would not harm it in the long run):USACHinaRussiaIndia (sorry Pakistan, if India wanted to, they would wipe you out in a month)Germany (not to mention that Europe would be very cross with anyone trying anything)Honorable mention: Japan, Britain, FranceShort but impressive list. Let me look at all the tall claims of yours here shall we?1) Even if Arabs starts to love israelis, they will NOT get any "rights, free media, or food" either way. In fact arabs will be called as defeated and that means this time israel will be looking for more lands through direct wars.2) Gulf states just signed $110 billion in defense procurement. Also, they have security cooperation with israel. Current US administration is willing to co-operate with Saudis and Gulf.3) All the so-called jewish nobel prize winners live in US or else where. None of them will live in israel, its a facist country which puts native Arabs and Ethiopian jews as second class citizens. Also, Nobel prize is mostly a politically motivated award anyways. Looks at the number of murderers and corrupt statesmen it gave prizes to rom Bush Jr to Obama, all crooked. Its more like a richman club reserves awards for certain ethnicity of people.4) Because most of the Muslims and their countries are poor, due to past colonization, corrupt government controlled by US and constant invasions. So no, also israel since 1967 got $300 billion dollar in direct aides in economic, political and military sphere. No nation gets these sort of aid ever. FYI, most israeli donors resides in US, lets just say israel is a US military outpost populated with poor jews. While the elites lives elsewhere! Even Nazi Germany didn't try to invade Switzerland.Capturing mountaineous terrain where a good part of the population is able to fight back (mandatory military service, after that being in the reserve) and knows this terrain very well and all passes and valleys riddled with hidden defense structures makes it much too expensive.But maybe it was just because the swiss banks were a nice hiding place for Nazi money, right in the middle of Nazi Europe, but safe from allied interference.Japan:The US considered invading Japan. The operation was thought to be so costly in soldier's lives, they had already produced a shitload of Purple Hearts for that (half a million, I once read). Every single Purple Heart issued since then (Korea, Vietnam, Irak, Afghanistan) is from this WWII production run and it still we be enough for quite some future wars.So the two nukes may actually have cost less lives than if they had not used them. DubTech Tv There is no such thing as a Palestinian people; no such thing as a Palestinian history; and no Palestinian language exists. There has never been any independent, sovereign Palestinian state in all of recorded history – let alone an Arab independent state of Palestine. You will search in vain for Palestinian Arab coinage or Palestinian Arab archaeological artifacts specifically related to any Palestinian Arab king or ancient leader. But what you will find are coins, pottery, ancient scrolls, all providing conclusive, empirical and millennial evidence of Jewish civilization dotting the land known correctly as Israel – not Palestine. The present-day so-called 'Palestinians' are an Arab people sharing an overwhelmingly Muslim Arab culture, ethnicity and language identical to their fellow Arabs in the Middle East and North Africa, with few if any distinctions. In 2100 BC various nomadic tribes we're living in the Sinai peninsula. These were Hitting, Girgashi, Emori, Hivvi, Yevusi, and Kenaani. Out of these seven tribes Kenaani were the first ones to settle in the land we now refer to as Israel. Even in the Bible they are the ones being mentioned the maximum number of times. Out of these seven tribes Girgashi went to the far East, not settling in the questioned land, only to never heard of again. There were also smaller tribes such as Zidon, Arki, Sinni, Arvadi, Zemari, and Hamati. In the Bible and the Torah, they are all mentioned. In 1700 BC, Abraham is sent by God on a mission and inherits the land of Israel on behalf of his great great grandchildren who would inherit the land later. Then comes his son Issac who was forbidden to leave the land,it was too holy a land to be abandoned. Then comes his son Jacob who spent sometime in Israel,moved to Egypt,died there, had his body moved to the Israel. In Egypt after 210 very tough years of slavery the Jews left Egypt and made their way to the Sinai peninsula where they received the Torah at Mount Sinai.A smaller area of former Canaaniteland and land east of the Jordan river was conquered and occupied by their descendants, the Israelites after Moses led the Exodus out of Egypt. The adoption of Christianity by the Roman Empire in the 4th century led to a Greco-Roman Christian majority which lasted until the 7th century when the area was conquered by the Arab Muslim Empires. It gradually became predominantly Muslim until the Crusades between 1096 and 1291, when it was the focal point of conflict between Christianity and Islam. From the 13th century it was mainly Muslim with Arabic as the dominant language and was first part of the Syrian province of the Mamluk Sultanate and then part of the Ottoman Empire until the British conquest in 1917.The truth is that the land has historically always belonged to the Jews. The region has come under the sway of various empires and been home to a variety of ethnicities, but was predominantly Jewish from roughly 1,000 years before the Common Era until the 3rd century of the Common Era.If you leave your house vacant for a few years and in your absence someone else occupies your house, does the house belong to the trespasser? DubTech Tv It has always existed,only its name got changed. Earlier it was called Canaan, originally inhabited by the Semitic speaking people,later it became a part of Israel. Changing the name doesn't mean that a particular country didn't exist. Iran and Iraq were called Persia and Mesopotamia respectively in the ancient times. There is no country called Persia or Mesopotamia today,does that mean they never existed? Then, why this double standard with Israel? Isn't it racism or Anti-Semitism? I don't know why Christians and Muslims have always detested them,but it really baffles me that after exterminating 6 million Jews in the Holocaust, reducing them to a mere 0.2 of the global population,they are still hated with that much intensity and ignorance.	Racism	Ethnicity - General	1/121	0.826
DubTech Tv You are writing your opinions,not facts. Palestine as a region existed,but Palestine as an independent nation never existed. There is vast difference between the two. When Jews began to immigrate to Palestine in large numbers in 1882, fewer than 250,000 Arabs lived there, and the majority of them had arrived in recent decades. Palestine was never an exclusively Arab country, although Arabic gradually became the language of most the population after the Muslim invasions of the seventh century. No independent Arab or Palestinian state ever existed in Palestine. The first time the name was used was in 70 CE when the Romans committed genocide against the Jews, smashed the Temple and declared the land of Israel would be no more. From then on, the Romans promised, it would be known as Palestine. The name was derived from the Philistines, a Goliathian people conquered by the Jews centuries earlier. It was a way for the Romans to add insult to injury. They also tried to change the name of Jerusalem to Aelia Capitolina, but that had even less staying power. Palestine has never existed – before or since – as an autonomous entity. It was ruled alternately by Rome, by Islamic and Christian crusaders, by the Ottoman Empire and, briefly, by the British after World War I. The British agreed to restore at least part of the land to the Jewish people as their homeland. Read a few unbiased history books on this subject,and it will help you. And there is no freedom for Arabs unless they subjugate and kiss the Zionist ass, which many dumb Arabs in israhell do. Lets see what will happen if Arabs wave Palestinian flag or organize a peaceful protest in israhell waving Palestinian flags. Within no time the Zionist regime will fire tear gas and arrest people. So much for your fucking "freedom". And don't even talk about the Palestinians living in West bank and Gaza who live in open air prison. The colonial Zionist Jews want the Arabs to leave. They never wanted Palestinians living in israhell, they never wanted Palestinians living in West bank or Gaza. They just want to force out everyone without the world's attention. Look at West Bank. The Zionist colonial fuckers have gradually taken over all of West bank. The Zionist ideology is about stealing and colonizing land. Raza Khan - As defined by Merriam-Webster, Cambridge, and Oxford dictionaries, Britannica, ADL, IHRA, and the U.S. State Department, the working definition of anti-Semitism is 'feeling or showing hostility toward or discrimination against Jews as a cultural, racial, or ethnic group.' As with most words, there are several definitions that are valid, depending upon context, but this is the standard definition today. This isn't the 18th century, and we are conversing in English, a language (like most) that obviously has evolved and changed considerably in the last 250 years. But maybe you'd like to adjust your comment according to your reasoning and translate the entire thing to old English, or an archaic version of a European language of your choice? (We'll wait . . .)Don't presume that I don't know what I'm talking about. I've given university lectures on the history of anti-Semitism. You are the one who needs to get your facts straight. BTW, you are also off on your definition of who is a Jew. That is also up for debate, depending on whom you might ask. However, many people whose ancestors were Jews, religious or not, strongly identify as Jewish, while not being religious at all themselves. I know many Jews who are atheists and agnostics. Within Judaism, the traditional definition of a Jew is anyone who is born of a Jewish mother - period - they need not be religious. Then there are those who convert to Judaism, and that's where most disagreement lies.	Ethnic, Old	Age - Over 65s, Ethnicity - General	2/249	0.803

Raza Khan First of all, Saudi Arabia may have connections to terrorists, but so does Iraq, Syria, and especially the fing Iranians. Secind of all, the West were the ones who destroyed dictatorship and even if they supported it, it would have been by mistake which they will later try to resolve. Third of all, zionism had nothing to do with apartheid, which was only Boer supremacy in government in the actual South African country. Zionism obly wants establish the jewish state of Israel, not become the ruling minority over the state of Palestine, which would have meant that Israel no longer exist. Fourth of all, it is because of Iran and all of the middle east that Israel has nukes. And fifth of all, the entire middle east can try over and over again and the west can sit back while Israel slowly claims all of the middle east. And finally, what evil regime? The west? If the west is evil, that would mean the regimes of the middle east is the gate of Hell. So yeah, I wouldn't try to challenge the West and its allies if I were you. andrew lee Thirdly, zionism has everything to do with supremacy and apartheid. Any jew (white, black , brown or asian) can migrate to occupied Palestine, but millions of native Palestinians cannot return to their lands and homes. On top of that, there are two different laws: one for zionist jews and the other for Palestinians. Different roads, schools, and other institutions only for the jews. Also, the zionists have clearly said many times that their goal is to kick out all Palestinians. Most jews don't like to see Arabs among them. And finally, I'm talking about the evil zionist regime that was created by the West, backed and funded by the West. israhell is nothing but a 51st state of America and a member of EU. Raza Khan And I guess all those news you are talking about must have been from Iran or some Conspiracy network. Sure, the SA has problems with terrorists or with Kashoggi, but to tell you the hard truth, SA is probably funding the pro democracy rebels in Syria since they know that supporting the Syrian government would go bad with their oil trade with the US. And what terrorist group in Iraq? Even if they did, Iran had funded more terrorist groups than Saudi Arabia in the hopes of destroying the West. Heck, almost the entire middle east, except Israel and some other arabic countries, are resposible for funding terrorists.	Terrorist	Religious Identity - Muslim	2/110	1.818
Raza Khan But the is with a lot of the middle eastern countries. Their borders were established by the West and the same happened to the countries of Africa. But giess what? In the middle east the kurds are misplaced by the middle eastern countries and they as well are getting killed, from the countries themselves and terrorist groups. If Israel is responsible for deaths on Palestinians, then the middle eastbis responsible for not only killing the Kurds, but other minority groups, whether by ethnicity or religion.	Ethnicity, Terrorist	Ethnicity - General, Religious Identity - Muslim	2/87	2.299
andrew lee There is no conspiracy network. This is well known that rich Saudi individuals fund terrorists. Have you been living under the rock? 15 out of 19 hijackers of 9/11 were Saudis. 9/11 Investigation and reports clearly showed rich and influential Saudis directly funded these terrorist . Regarding Syria, "pro democracy rebels"??? Really? So ISIS, Al Nusra, Tahrir al Sham and dozens of terrorist groups are "pro democracy"??? hahahahaha... These groups follow the same Saudi Wahhabi ideology. They are all funded by Saudis, Americans and others. Iran has fought against these terrorists groups. If it was not for the help of Iranian militias, then it would be very hard for Iraqi army to defeat ISIS. Saudis fund these extremists because they want to reduce the influence of Shia Muslims and Iran and they want to be the only ones dominating the region with the help of Americans. Actually most of these countries have triads. France is a powerful nuclear weapons armed nation having a stable carrier born strike group and nuclear powered submarines. Also, they make their own weapons and are very capable in that regard. That's a triad not just second strike. Similarly with Britain - they were a great power only 70 years ago. India is developing it's triad and it's been going well with tests happening even now. Pakistan has been armed by the US/NATO and China since the 50's and their military-ISI basically runs the country and they have nukes too - for which China has graciously provided delivery mechanisms. Recently, theres been news that they are trying to build up a second strike capability.	Nation	Nationality - General	1/122	0.82

China in 1962 fought and captured siachen mountain tops. However, it would be difficult now to invade India as its defence budget has substantially increased and its development of ICBMs. But India can still be invaded by powers like China, which has already made clear of it's unfriendly notions. We have another law where if you car stays idle for more than 3 minutes you can get a fine. It's just becoming nonsense at this point. I really think the only 2 ways to settle this is another civil war to protect the constitution that they are destroying or someone getting rid of everyone in the government including Trump and putting new noncorrupt people in there. We put ALL government jobs with term limits of 2 year except presidency. You will not be able to get a net worth of millions of dollars like some senators rn. This will fix everything, but sadly they would have to be all republican as democrats are too far left to make major decisions. There reaction is to go against Trump even if they know it's the better decision, such as building the wall. They know it's better because it's been proven. The media has shown that there is peace and quiet where the walls are rn while they were trying to prove that we don't need a wall. These videos worked against them. Walls work, letting people in doesn't. I can't wait to see that great big wall honestly. its going to be a great representation of where the US stands on our policy and how to follow it. The main reason nobody has fucked with Australia is because the US military and the CIA, NSA and NSO run a strategically important Joint Defence Facility in Pine Gap. The location is strategically significant because it controls United States spy satellites as they pass over the one third of the globe which includes China, the Asian parts of Russia, North Korea and the Middle East. The base in Central Australia was chosen because it was too remote for spy ships passing in international waters to intercept the signal. Honour AboveAll First, world peace will never exist. War is a natural human condition and will never end. It will become less frequent and more robotic, but it will always exist. Second, the fact that you're supposedly concerned with world peace while glorifying the most war obsessed civilization to ever exist is kind of ironic. If Germany won, you'd either be a slave or you'd be KIA in eastern Russia, the U.S or Japanese Empire. In order to obtain citizenship in Nazi Germany you had to prove all your relatives back to 1800 were ethnic German or Nordic. In which case you'd be eligible for military conscription and sent to an endless war of attrition in one of the many places Germany had to conquer in order to obtain complete world dominance. I also don't know why westerners care what happens in Israel, it's not your friends and fellow soldiers getting killed in every war, it shouldn't matter to you whether Jews and Arabs kill each other until the end of time, because until all of Yesha is annexed that's what's going to happen. The land of Israel belongs to the people of Israel and I'd rather have war then see half of Jewish land conceded to Arab colonizers. You do realize that the creation of Israel is what has caused instability in the middle east as no one wants Jews around as they have exiled from so many different countries since ancient times because of the trouble that they cause. We have got nothing but war because of the creation of Israel and you act the victim because apparently Jews have gone through hell trying to find a home, Jews would never have had to keep moving if they never fucked everything up and created such a bad reputation for themselves that has only been restored because of the alleged extermination of Jews by the Nazis. Absolutely incorrect, peace treaty was NOT signed as a result of that war but years later, the war was stopped by American pressure on Israel as it planned to take over Cairo due to it possibly igniting a direct USSR vs US conflict in the event of USSR joining the fight to allow for Egypt's survival, the first days of the war were 100 dominated by Egypt, that's due to hubris and lack of preparation on the Israeli side, but when the tides turned they turned hard, Egypt lost almost all its gains and then some.Again unlike the common mistake - the war did not end in a peace treaty, that was signed years later after a couple of government shifts on the Israeli side.Egyptians see this war as won even though they lost a lot more than Israel in terms of vehicles, man power and land - mainly because of selective memory, they don't seem to acknowledge that they were on the verge of losing Cairo and that USSR and US's cold war saved them.Israel see this war as terrible victory due to it actually feeling like a war where the other side does in fact inflict damage unlike the 6 days war.To quote the Russians"Sadat woke me up in the middle of the night twice over the phone, "Save me!" He demanded to send Soviet troops, and immediately! No! We are not going to fight for them."Fun fact: this war almost ended in a nuclear winter, USSR and US pressured Israel not to resort to nuclear warfare after losing ground on the first few days. dizzel lastname If you were to live in lebanon you would understand that The lebanese military had nothing to do with it. The military formed a truce with Israel so America could supposedly "establish peace" in the middle east. It was hezzeb Allah, the militia, that was involved in the war. Again, I personally dont like the militia but they had the right to protect their border after Israel attempted and succeeded to invade some Towns on South border of lebanon. The military tried to protect the civilians but Israel thought of one thing and that is to win. What did they do? They bombed An entire town, killing civilizians, just to win a border war. it's irrelevant to say that the military doesn't give a shit about their people. Australia is extremely EASY to conquer. Two nuclear bombs on Sydney and Melbourne each, and the nation would capitulate. This would still leave the vast amount of agricultural and mining infrastructure. (Australia's manufacturing industry is bugger-all... and its economic reliance on services wouldn't be needed because 4 nuclear bombs on its two largest cities would remove most of those who rely on the service industry in the first place). northern africa was invaded by the arabs during the islamic conquest of the 600's all the way through the 1200's. (600 years of colonization) there has been irreversible damage to the native groups and previous cultures of northern africa due to islamic governance that has maintained it this very day. just to put that into perspective, 6 major countries in africa are majority muslim, and the main spoken language is modern arabic. slavery in mauritania was federally abolished in 2007. (their constitution enabled slavery under the pretext of the qor'an) once you've considered how destructive this was to africa's previous culture(s) alone, you may fast forward to the 1800's with the colonization by europe. an africa that experienced seldom independence with the exceptions of places like ethiopia, the only african country to successfully resist european colonization. at it's apex, europe was able to quickly seize upwards of 90 of the world's second-largest continent and second most populous country. it's for africa's despotic and loose history that would suggest, african countries are not to be immediately considered for lists like these. If I make a racist joke toward myself and people laugh I would be laughing too. But if the person I make a racist joke to was laughing at me why is he getting mad at me? I personally don't think my jokes are meant to be racist especially knowing that I know what I want from the joke. And like you brits say, your humor is way different from American humor. Instead of freeing the people and having peace, unity and prosperity like JFK was working for. America was all made into a slave after his accident. Most of them fell into the American game. Slaves that thought they were free. Slowly the country's societies, lifestyles, logic and actions were bent, weeded out and shaped. The fall of the twin towers, the aftermath and the truth of it all is a good example of mass slavery. Americas master has done a good job at making the people feel free but that is over now. USA is being dismantled and written off to make way for the fresh new slaves and system. If anyone is wondering why the youths are not the same as they were half a century ago it is because the parents and children have been slowly poisoned. They are now just dumping the poisons and toxins into society and the people. The best weapons were good old television and cocaine. Not sure what milineals really are but if you are referring to the youths that are degenerate with no focus, drive, training and little or no parenting you can look at all the garbage, toxins and struggles they grow up with and face. The plan at least for the last decade for sure was to create a society the way USA is in right now. It took a lot of planning and a lot of effort. It is all part of the new order or new system agenda. So, you're saying every country are better than the U.S. Ok, big shot, let see Russia, Germany, North Korea, China. Do you see people in the U.S getting executed for minor offenses? No. Wow really. So my main point is, yes political leaders will influence people in ways that make their bad actions seem necessary, or justified. So people from the U.S, while most aren't stupid, are not blind to what is happening in our country, but are just merely saying that other countries like Russia, and North Korea are way worse than the U.S. Say what you want, but that is factual and you can ask anyone else, including the people that may live in North Korea. Yup, partly what I was saying Brent Lankford. I live in Kentucky which is a Commonwealth state. I know the whole US is supposed to be Commonwealth but it is actually part of our state name for a reason "The Commonwealth of Kentucky". There is enough of us here that know survival skills (hunting, fishing, agriculture, not to mention one of our biggest professions here for the common joe is construction so shelter there) to keep our state going if it came to it. Most of us own guns (at least the people I know) for hunting and protection. Family owned restaurants here use local home grown produce, meats, and sometimes cheeses. We grow a lot of the produce that California does as well. Maybe not the greatest of quantity but to claim we would fall without Cali food wise is a joke. Would just make other states rich. throwing my hat into the ring. Russia has far more nuclear missiles, but America has more confirmed WARHEADS. But it really isn't a d*ck measuring contest here, Russia is as big, and as threatening as America, the only difference is that America spends a hundred thousand fold more on their own military than Russia. Dam, the world is stupid ... I mean, seriously stupid...”The land they Stolen got taken back”? Seriously? Stolen from who exactly? Both Christianity and Islam recognized the Jews’ right to this land, and Judaism was older than bot.The Palestinians? Those who danced and distributed sweets while the Twin Towers collapsed? Yes, they really are a true partner for peace...You can argue until tomorrow about the funding of Iron Dome, (by the way, funding, development is entirely Israeli, the fact is out there, but why let them confuse you?) But maybe instead ask yourself, why did they even develop it in the first place?The poor Palestinians (let’s forget for a while that they are Egyptians Jordanians Syrians who settled on the land) that don nothing in the past 50 years except to blow up buses and restaurants. They decided to start firing rockets into a civilian population. The United States does not need such a system? Dam right she doesn’t ... If anyone was shooting at American cities, the United States would have vaporized him from the face of the earth... this is the way to do it... The Israelis are too compassionate, and believe all the bullshit that the world talks about, but does not act on its own ... this is their real problem...	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/221	0.452

It is funny when people choose to tell only half of the story ... Yes, Israel came to the area after an absence of almost 2000 years, and there were local residents who suffered as a result and were forced to leave their homes, but we have to be fair and see the full picture ...The world was in chaos, empires exchanged territory as if they were bits of cake, the Jews were just slaughtered in Germany for no logical reason other than pure hatred (the same hatred that can always be seen in the reactions that deal with Israel ... some enlightenment ... it's beautiful ... Syria has a massacre Mass, but not ... Israel is the real threat ... if it was not sad, it was really funny ...).The Jews returned to their country and decided to build a state. Considering what happened in the world at that time, it made perfect sense ... They agreed to peace, agreed to give up large parts of the country, but that did not stop the Arabs from declaring war on this small country ... and then they lost ... funny ... it The whole Arab story ... hatred, hatred and a little bit of hatred, and then they lose and whine.They wanted to destroy Israel, even before the West Bank was in fact. There was no occupation, so what was their problem? You see, they want them dead, and that's it ...People talk about the "Palestinian refugee problem," it's funny, because that's exactly the proof of Israel's compassion. If the Arabs had won, there would not have been "Jewish refugees."But that's not my point at all ...Even if we say there is occupation, who the hell cares? The Jews built a beautiful, strong, rich country that contributes to the world without end. They have become a center of science, technology, medicine, the environment and more. Their intelligence, is the one that helps us prevent airplanes from exploding every two days in the United States and Europe (interesting who tries to blow them up ... hint, they always hate ...)Say we abolish the occupation, what exactly will we get? Another stinking terrorist state? There are already more than twenty of them! Why do they deserve another one? Read the comments here on this page! Death to Israel !, Israel does not exist! The Jews are pigs! Why the hell do I need another country full of this?Even if God does not exist, Israel deserves to continue to exist. They earned it honestly.All the Palestinians are doing is firing missiles at Israel so that it will have to react, and then they can take the pictures and whine around the world.We have to stop with this morbid left-wing perception ... Yes ... that's the world we're dealing with ... shallow, lazy, and yet thinks he knows everything ... why? Because he read the morning paper ...Israel is not stupid, if someone offers you financial aid, you take it, you do not ask questions ...If you bothered to read, you would understand that Israel has a lot to give to the world, past, present and future ...This country has been in much more difficult situations in the past, should read some history to know it ...A war against some huge countries, and at the same time a massive immigration absorption without knowing where the money will come from ... and yet, they did it successfully ...It is very arrogant for America to think that without it nothing will take place ... Of course it will be harder, but there is no doubt ... America will also lose big time ... Apart from its technological and scientific achievements, Israel is at the forefront of fighting terrorists who are dying to see America And Europe burning ...America has a lot of money wasted ... Aid to Israel is not one of them in my opinion ...	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/199	0.503
Yah, with the U.S., no military has any real chance of conquering us. Armed population, difficult and diverse geography, the world's most powerful military, and we also have two massive oceans to our East and West and Canada to our North and Mexico to our South. Going through Canada would be nice; have fun with the cold. Going through Mexico would be a bit more plausible, but we already have plenty of experience dealing with an invasion of illegal immigrants. I hope President Trump manages to build the wall, or something equivalent. But, even without that, you still have a largely armed populace, a large military force, and you have to brave the harsh desert climate. Have fun with that. Oh yah, and no matter how far you get, we'll just nuke your home country. Your troops will get here and fight there way through the U.S., only to have their homes and families obliterated back in their home country. The only somewhat plausible invaders would be some coalition of Russia, China, Iran, and North Korea. If they ever even tried to invade (never mind how far they actually get), you can say goodbye to Moscow, Beijing, Tehran, Pyongyang, and likely several other major cities in these countries. Along with that, you can expect massively devastated Russian, Chinese, Iranian, and North Korean militaries. The U.S. might get hit with a few nukes (depending on the capability of our missile defense structure), but that would be nothing compared to what we'd do to those invaders. Attempting an invasion of the United States would be suicide, or pretty close.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/267	0.375

North Korea is under invasion right now, by South Korea. Since North Korean government does not recognise South Korea and consider itself as the only legitimate government in the peninsula, the fact that they have no or little control on the other half of the peninsula indicates that they are under invasion, freeing South Koreans from the U.S. capitalist pigs and their "puppet", the South Korean government, has always been their goal. Keep in mind that the Military Demarcation Line that separates North and South Korea is not a border, and technically they are still at war as we speak.Same applies to South Korea, they are being invaded by North Korea because they claim they are the only legitimate government in the peninsula, they even have a ministry of unification, but since there are U.S. armies everywhere, depending on how you define "invasion", you could argue that South Korea is under invasion by the U.S., but if that's the case, Japan would be under an invasion as well. Karna M...nice joke...lol...dude look at 1947-48 war...Pakistani armed forces almost had nothing to fought with well-equipped and well-trained Indian army and yet still they did kick their butts...In 1965, Indian armed forces attacked Lahore, Sialkot and some other areas (of Pakistan). At first, Pakistan did lost many of its men, tanks and area. If we talk about the ratio, it was 5:1 (i.e. 1 Pakistani solder was facing at least 5 Indian Solders). But as the reinforcements arrived, Pakistani armed forces pushed back Indian army into its own territory (upto 80 km). Well, PAF also did it's part and almost destroyed 115-130 IAF's aircrafts (as described by the neutral resources) whereas PAF lost only 20-30 aircrafts. PNS went inside Indian territory and destroyed a town known as Dawarka and INS was not able to counter it at all...In 1971, Pakistan lost. If USA's army was there instead of Pakistani army, they also would have done the same. In spite of the fact that Pakistan not lost that war but also lost eastern Pakistan (now known as Bangladesh) too, this should be noted that Western Pakistan was never infiltrated by the Indians. Also, Pakistan was not only facing India in 1971, it was also facing Bangali Rebels, USA and Soviet Union (as both of these powers played their part indirectly by cutting off the arms supply of Pakistan and increased the arms supply of India.). So, if you ask me I'll say Pakistan had to lost that war...And now comes the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan. Pakistan not only provided refuge to Afghan refugees but also helped Afghanistan win the war against USSR and through a proxy war, Pakistan (along with the help of few other nations) broke the Soviet Union into 8 parts...And who can forget the Kargil war of 1998-99. Pakistan had India by throat in that war. Pakistan captured 24 posts of Indian territory. Talking about the ratio, it was again 4:1 (i.e. 1 Pakistani solder was fighting with 4 Indian Soldiers). India used 26 regiments plus airforce whereas Pakistan used only one regiment and some medium weapons. India launched an attack on all those 24 posts (captured by Pakistani forces.). But they successfully took back only 8 while others were handed over by Pakistan due to immense international pressure. Neural resources claim that about 1800 Indian Soldiers either died or were taken as POWs and IAF lost 2 aircrafts, 1 helicopter and 1 aircraft was damaged by Pakistani AA arsenal whereas Pakistani 300 soldiers died or taken as POWs...Again Pakistan and India came In front of each other in 2001-02. There was war alert. Pakistan's President of that time General Pervez Musharraf challenged the Indian forces to attack but Indian forces were not able to do so because they knew that they will lose 3 times more soldiers as compared to Pakistan....So now what do you guys think...Should Pakistan be on that list or not...	Indian, Nothing	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Native- American	11/493	2.231

Zaheem Khan In 1947 Kashmir became an Independent state under a Hindu king but muslim majority. Pakistani tribal raiders attacked Kashmir, and raped womrn their, and looted them. When the raidrs were getting hold the King decided to sign the agreement to join India and it is very clear to everyone. Indian Army launched operation when Pakistanis already reached Kashmir. In matter of few days they were pushed back and whole kashmir had to be captured by India but Nehru did a blunder by reaching out to UN for truce. Instead major powers in UNSC used this opportunity and told Indian army for ceasefire. If this mistake haven't had happened then there would have been no Kashmir problem in the first place.In 1965, Pak had clear support of Allied Nations.. viz. US. They had much better equipments and weapons than Indian counterpart. Believing India's New prime minister Lal Bahadur Shastri was weak just coz his height was verh small your General planned to invade Kasmir through Operation Gibraltar by sending in Soldiers disguised as Kashmiris. Kashmiris themselves reported it to Indian Army and soon the operation turned into a failure. On advice of Bhutto General launched Operation Grand Slam (Grand Flop) to invade Kashmir. India reacted by launching its own offensive on International Border and camped outside Lahore. Your army didn't hqve ammuniton for even few days. Realising Defeat is imminent Pakistan ran to UN for ceasefire. India again agreed to ceasefire and signed agreement in Tashkent wherein Lal Bahadur Shahstri was Assassinated. In 1971, East pakistan's Mujhibur rehman had won elections to become PM of whole Pakistan but your Army didn't wanted a Bengali to become PM. They committed genocide in Bengal, raped thousands of women, slaughtered people. India had millions of refugees to cater for. Indira Gandhi decided to not to be just a spectator and prepared military for full war and Helped Local Bengalis revolt. Again Pakistan firat attacked India. PAF did airstrikes at several airbases in India and War was declared. In mere 13 days a new Nation Bangladesh was formed which is History. A record more than 90000 Pakistani soldiers surrendered including Genearal Niazi. Your Navy was annihilated. Karachi burnt for days. Half Air force was annihilated and a third of your Army was finished.In 1984, India captured Saltoro Ridge, which Pak was trying to grasp. Again in 1999, your Army in disguise as Mujhaheeds (Cowards) captured Indian posts which were left vacant during winters coz of an agreement btw India and Pak. Again Our Army instead of being in a disadvantageous situation made a comeback and flushed you out feom major peaks.Your so called Army didn't even accept Dead bodies of your soldiers. You barbarians mutilated bodies of our Indian slodiers and brutally tortured captured ones. Russia is very much possible to invade, just ask the Mongols and the German Imperial Army during WW1. Russia is a prisoner of geography. The Russian core, the lands around Moscow, have been in danger of invasion many times throughout history and that's because Poland, Ukraine and Belarus are flat plains and your army can march across them quite quickly if there aren't armies to put up a fight and even if there are, it is a matter of time for them to break through. The Russian military has a strategy that no other country can have: fall back, scorched earth policy (leave nothing to the enemy), give up land until the enemy supply lines overstretch and let the winter help you and all these are because Russia is the largest country in the world. But if they fail to overstretch the supply lines of the enemy, it is game over for the Russian core, which would be quite difficult, because NATO's (the most likely adversary) starting point isn't the border between Germany and Poland or mid-Poland, it is the border between the Baltic States and Russia, Eastern Poland and maybe Eastern Ukraine, which starting points are all closer and let's not forget the technological advances since WW2. The thing is that if the Moscow is in danger of being taken over by an enemy, it is very likely that the Russians would use nukes.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/235	0.426

I do not agree with these picks at all. Iran and Russia both could be invaded. and as the video stated Hitler would have invaded had it not been for the cold. had this war been in the Summer during the invasion Russians would have been speaking German. not sure the U.S. would have helped that situation had it not been for German's invading other nations as well. but truth be told who the fuck in their right mind wants Russia. the land is shite. 90 of its territory is worthless. Iran? yeah the future will see about Iran. I have a feeling Iran is next after North Korea. speaking of. yes many lives will be lost in a North Korea invasion however people seem to put NK way to high up on its scopes compared to what it actually is. Japan alone could defeat NK. speaking about being more then they actually are is Russia. the only thing Russia has going for it is their Nukes and Tanks. news flash. I don't think little putty is dumb enough to push a button but ya never know when you have short guy syndrome anything is possible. and for the tanks. tanks are worthless in a fight against say the U.S. but would be effective against small country forces. this day in age large wars are won by the air and sea. which the U.S. would dominate Russia without a doubt. half of Russia's military products are a failure. ships are sinking and so on. that's my two cents. personally I think every country needs to do away with their military and move to better all of humanity. I mean what age are we living in ffs. everyone needs to leave everyone alone and go about their business. except the middle East. that is where a wall should be built to keep them in. they have been killing each other since the begining of time. leave them to it as long as they harm nobody outside.	Age, Dumb, Nobody	Age - General, Age - Youngsters, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	4/335	1.194

Ash 360 Western world is brain-washing their kids. Pakistan was partitioned from India in 1947. The justification given for Pakistan was that Muslims can't live in minority with majority being Hindu. Actually, it was a cunning tactic called Divide and Rule where Britain flourished by dividing Indians. So before leaving India Britain broke it into several parts so that India can't reclaim itself. Pakistan is specifically made for Muslims while India is a secular nation . After partition millions of people died in Riots and bloodshed. Today India has more muslims than what Pakistan has. And Buddhists are rare. Pakistan's sole goal is 'Ghazwa-e-Hind' meaning Invasion of India. That's why Pakistan doesn't care about anything but it just wants to see India going down. We here in India are frustrated by recent terror attacks wherein our hundreds of soldiers martyred. India has to invade Pakistan one day to stop this insanity.. and terrorism perpetuated by Pakistan. We are secular nation and respect every religion.	Nation	Nationality - General	2/163	1.227
sly harley I am an Indian . U know my country better than me?? That's what u r trying to say?? Muslims do live peacefully and Happily in India today. I already mentioned India has more Muslims than Pakistan today. Then Pakistan's existence will be questioned. It was a ploy to divide India. Every Indian knows that.. even Pakistanis know that. India broke Pakistan into two in 1971. Pakistan is ruled by their military.. has worst human rights records. Don't defend the undefendable. Open your eyes. Trust me my friend history is not always as it's been shown in books. However in around late 1930's the idea that the interest of Hindus and Muslims were contradictory to each other and could not be accommodated under a single nation began to gather steam thus the Two Nation Theory proposed by M.A.Jinnah cause he also wanted to be prime minister. So yeah he was mean and selfish. And secondly, British did have a (big)role in the partition of India by using communal sentiments to weaken the National Movement lead by the Indian National Congress (which was wholly secular in its outlook), however the actual idea of Partition was not of British Origin. The demand for partition was only conceded so as to prevent the widespread communal riots that had taken place in 1946 and were spiraling into an outright Civil War. But see here is where u need to take a country’s internal politics into account. There are bible-headed lunatics who say the whole country is Israel and it all belongs to the Jews and we’ll build wherever we want, Palestinians be damned, let them go to Jordan or Egypt or Syria or any other Arab country . These people, and I can’t stress it enough, are the minority. Their main supported party in the parliament ”Israel is our home” barely scrapes 10 seats, but it’s enough for them to be able to hold the coalition by the balls and make them do whatever they want. Add to that the 10-seat or so bible-headed lunatic religious parties who have similar views on the territory of Israel, and you end up with a fact that it is pretty much impossible to form a coalition (61 minimum seats) without at least one of these parties, and both these parties will torpedo the shit out of any two-state peace solution (maybe you can strong arm the religious parties with financial incentives but the other one will never let a two state peace deal happen). Mind you during Olmert’s time as prime minister the Palestinians got the best peace offer they ever got before or since which they refused outright. But those times are long goneAdd to that the fact that Gaza and the west bank are practically two different countries now. Hamas currently refuses even to consider any possibility of settlement with Israel. Any deals Israel makes with the Palestinian authority in the West Bank would suffer heavy resistance, and by that I mean Hamas support cells in the West Bank and Hamas rockets and terror tunnels from Gaza because a peace with the Authority de-legitimizes Hamas and it’s leaders, who are spending their time in nice Qatari hotels and spending all the billions of international aid money on a lavish lifestyle and really don’t feel like losing it. There would be a civil war in the west bank the moment a deal is even close to being signed. Then you get the Iranians who bankroll Hamas and Hezbollah because destabilizing Israel is a useful chip in negotiations with the US and the west. People keep portraying this as a problem with simple solutions but it really isn’t.	Lunatic	Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	1/385	0.26

tanks cant travel anywhere they want to in mountainous terrain. that means they would be required to funnel through narrow passes to get to the interior, which means ambushes. mountainous terrain also provides not just concealment but cover in that the abundant folds in the land as well as rocks, cliff faces, caves can neutralize and protect people taking cover in this terrain from explosives. plus in order to take that ground infantry will be required who will have to ascend thousands of feet into thin mountain air to flush out an enemy who is well rested and well adjusted to the thin mountain air. which is important because even the slightest bit of a physical and mental edge can mean victory or defeat in battle. I don't believe that I am doing this but the video is so arrogant and skewed. You are saying that the USA has a large territory, but It makes it easier to invade but not to conquer. Enemy can invade on the North-East coast or in California, in Texas or in Florida. You are saying that USA has the biggest military budget. Yes alright, but budget is not everything. I am pretty sure that the Roman Empire had the largest budget in Ancient times, but still It was torn apart by barbarians. Also the Czech Republic had the best army in the Western Europe but lost to the Nazi Germay. Then, you have mentioned the second amendment. Okay, but a professional army with a bunch of tanks will buldoze them into the ground as no deal at all. The second amendment means that all armed fuckers would be killed with no warning.what else? you are most certainly forgetting about the war of 1812 when the British kicked your asses, the only thing that prevented them from restitution of their colonial rule was that they had a more important thing to do. They were in war with Napoleon. Don't forget that your capital was destroyed. Nobody forgets.And you did not mention that Russia also has capability to annihilate the USA, which actually prevented any nuclear war between the USA and the USSR.Let me also be a little bit snobbish, unlike European countries, Russia or Japan the USA seems to lack long military traditions, however, in the modern terms, American Army is the most experienced. Americans has never been faced with a strong enemy on their own turf, you have never been in a conflict with an equal or a better-equipped enemy, you have never won despite of unfavourable war conditions. Of course, Amricans had heroes but It seems that they have never had a heroic war.Yes, It is a little bit biased and skewed, just like your video. the Israelis used to mainly get armed and get their military weapons and everything from Germany and France up until the 1973 war which in they received a lot of new equipment from the US after they were starting to get defeated and were begging to arm nuclear missiles.its funny how the situation is today different in a way that nowadays the USAF is requiring the IDF assistance for almost every tactic or technological advancements that the israelis come up with and the Americans want.could Israel stand up on its own in this modern time and age ? well i personally believe so, back in the mid 60's france stopped selling the israelis their Mirage fighter jets due to an arab embargo, so the israelis just used the sketches and drawings of the Mrage jet that they had and manufactured it on their own.what many people don't realize is that Israel is a country that currently in time and age manufactures its own weapons, and its own defense and attack systems.in fact, many countries in the world today are actually dependent on israeli manufactured weaponry and/or defense systems and/or sophisticated training techniques.the amount of money that the US provides to israel for its defense budget is so miniscule, it makes around 5-10 of israel's defense budget. ICBMs have range limitations & are susceptible to defensive systems (orbital Iron dome etc) while mobile launchers (naval, aerial & land) can be intercepted before reaching effective range.PS.The game done changed to high altitude EMP (basically a small hydrogen payload above the atmosphere to cause an electric storm) & so before invading a nation that has offensive nuclear capability you knock out the entire grid in their continent. They won't be able to react & their army will be down to assault rifles & no communications. To be honest. The societal collapse resulted by total loss of grid will kill a lot more people than a direct nuclear strike.	Nation	Nationality - General	1/140	0.714
my3stooges Israel cannot bomb Lebanon, the same goes for Lebanon. The US backs Israel yes, but it doesn't let it use its powers against Lebanon, the only reason Israel bombs Lebanon is because of Hezbollah that always starts tensions, Hezbollah is a terrorist group that isn't part of the Lebanese army. Technically if we had to speak the truth, Lebanon is respecting the rules while Israel is breaking them (Qanaa bombings which killed hundreds of innocent women and children). The fact that Israel is there doesn't let us have a good army, or else we could be as strong as we were in the 60s. And for a fact Israel was forced by De Gaulle to pay back the damage it had done to the Beirut airport after the airstrikes in the 1960s. So please don't act though by saying Israel can bomb us anytime. Thanks.	Terrorist	Religious Identity - Muslim	1/146	0.685
Roll, the Jews were there in Israel since they were driven out by the Romans and they were there when the Ottoman Empire existed. They did not invade Israel. They just appealed to the UN to LEGALLY make Israel their Jewish country again, after many year and after many occupations. Muslims are taught to take lands away from non-Muslims, you moron. That is why you can't live in peace among them! Read the Quran . It is all there! Muslims can't stand to see non-Muslims be successful and be happy. All wars Israel fought in were barely 0,3 percent(35000 dead including Israelis) of all those deaths. All according to a research by the university of Bremen.Yes it is irrelevant, the legal owners of the land(British) offered two peace deals(Arabs rejected both). Israel/Palestine was last taken into Islamic control slightly more than 800 years ago with the Kurdish Saladin who actually WANTED the Jews to come in.This was before the Ottomans, who ALSO let the Jews practice their religion. Prior to that the crusaders had it. Muslims never had control over Palestine until the beginning of the Middle ages, through until about 1100. Nobody EVER tried to stop the Jews from practicing their religion there until the British took Palestine in 1917. Alfie Moon is a clown.First off most of the early wars (WWII and before) America was on the winning side quite clearly. As for your other dumb claims, Vietnam was not a "loss" the war lost support 'at home' and thus politicians used it as a way to get elected, and thus pulled us out. The US was winning to that point. Iraq - Iraqs army was crushed within weeks, easy victory, all remaining fighting has been against religious zealots and in fact even that had grinded to near nothing , til we pulled out. In Afghanistan, the US stomped out their targets, again within a few weeks/months, but again are now just fighting religious zealots. Fighting fanatics is not a conventional war, and the US is still there fighting, so even if you want to take your moronic stance on it, it's at worst a "draw". But hey, we did better than the USSR did.Not once has America had to withdraw due to 'losing', it's always been because public support declined and politicians used it as a running platform. Obama did it, and then pulled out of a Iraq that was under control, which led a power vacuum which spawned ISIS.I know people like you masturbate to the possibility of America being defeated, but sadly (for you) it's just another fantasy you won't see achieved in your life time. Now that we're essentially entering our teens we're slightly unpredictable but incredibly predictable at the same time. Don't believe me? Look at our nation's politics, doesn't this drama oddly remind you of highschool? No other nation's acting this way unless they're remotely close to our age (Venezuela, the only difference is they didn't punch the ancient japan in the dick While giving Russia a bro fist while Russia had Germany in a choke hold, naturally this led to the "well how strong are they phase" where they were tested in multiple fields by Russia, which those tests evolved into actual competition, resulting in this baby nation literally competing competently against the Great Bear, So we punched japan after breaking away from england (our birth) along with competing not just on a combat level but scientific capability (when we focus everything towards science) only slightly losing out on the getting to space thing, but then doing the typical American "one up" that we're known to do, even in conversation we took that mother fucker to the moon. Do you not see the danger of a prodigy child with no parent? Now we're teenagers, arrogant and cocky, people associate us with "that dick you knew in highschool". the older nations associate us as "dumb". The interesting thing is that we're realizing this, and Trump seems to be that last "hoorah" of an old dead age. Again high support from the US and that in the fact the surrounding Arab states were attacked by surprise, and forced the Arab states to attack but then get fatally pulled into a trap set by the Israel army. While the surrounding Arab countries aggressively attacked not being prepared for the Traps failed miserably. Not only were they not ready for such an attack the internal affairs of the surrounding countries were immensely split.The fail of the attack from the Arab countries was due to their ignorance of underestimating the Israel Army. They kept pushing the idea of war, and once they pushed Israel to a corner, they had nothing to do but attack. That is incorrect again. I have studied and currently am studying a degree in foreign historical standards of past civilizations and the Art of war. Israel alone would not stand a chance against the Muslim countries it is literally surrounded by. With the presence of the US it has diplomatic ties with multiple US allies and forces the surrounding countries to abide by the terms of peace to not attack Israel to abstain good relations with the US.The Israel Army has great tacticians, with great military soldiers trained for the art of combat, but that alone will not keep the surrounding nations from exterminating the country and its people.This is because there is so much entangled history that goes back decades of conflict between the Islamic religion and the Jewish religion and if it wasn't for foreign affairs the Jewish population in Israel would have been nothing but a period in history with the Arabic countries also suffering large casualties. Israel is what it is today because they forced their presence upon the British government, constantly harassing them for land in the past Palestinian land, which is current Israel.It wasn't I believe until World War 2 which the US got highly involved in with the Jewish people and its great relationship between Israel. How long will the relationship last between the US and Israel, nobody knows. It all depends on the events of the future, anything could happen.	Nobody	Age - Youngsters	1/79	1.266
Again another incorrect statement which people come up with on their own. Israel didn't have a choice, the Soviet Union support Israel on a few terms in the past but broke up its relationship after the 6-day war, creating animosity between the two countries. It was only until the 1990's which the diplomatic relationship started between them once again. The US took Israel under pity as the Jewish people have endured enough in WW2, but the US were planning on using Israel to create peace in the middle east between the Arabs and the Jews which were created by the British government, but turned out to be a horrible decision as the Israeli government is constantly fueling more internal disputes between the Palestinians. Which is forcing the US to put even more diplomatic pressure. The US is getting little to nothing from the Israel but Military reassurance in the Middle East. What high-tech industry are you talking about? The leading economic benefit from Israel is their advanced manufacturing medical research. but the relationship only goes so far, if the Israel keeps trying to increase its land. Matthew Aislabie There would not be any conflict if the Arabs would stop trying to annihilate Israel and everyone in it. Muslim Jew-hate has little to do with Israel. Some Arab leaders have admitted this. The problem is that in addition to being a totalitarian, supremacist, racist , misogynist , homophobic death cult, Islam teaches hate toward Jews. Muhammed hated Jews because they rejected his new religion. Enraged by this, he and his followers filled the central texts of Islam with messages of hatred and death toward Jews. All the peaceful Mecca verses in the Koran are "abrogated" i.e., cancelled out by the violent Medina verses whenever there is conflict between them. This is something Muslims won't tell you when they insist that Islam is "peaceful."Muhammed was basically a very successful terrorist who invaded, robbed, raped, murdered, and took slaves. Groups like ISIS are simply emulating his actions from the Koran in a fully Islamic manner. People who claim that ISIS and terrorism in general have nothing to do with Islam are either ignorant or deliberately lying. ISIS leader Abu-Bakr al-Bagdadi has a doctorate in Islamic Studies from the University of Baghdad. ISIS' actions are justified on the basis of the Koran by legitimate islamic scholars, and millions of Muslims around the world — including 94 of the male population of Saudi Arabia in a recent survey — believe that ISIS are true Muslims who are practicing true Islam. Anyone who tells you Islam has nothing to do with terrorism is claiming to know more about Islam than all the people I've just cited, which is a pretty tall order. xXPSYQOXx Listen carefully, the arab state's armys lost every war against Israel. And right now, if Lebanon will strike Israel, Lebanon will 100 lose. The army of Lebanon is nothing against Israel's army. since 2006 Israel has been developed so much, that honestly, i don't think Lebanon even have a chance to even do something to Israel. All the arab states know how strong Israel is and that's why no war has accured between them to Israel since 2006. They got nukes, tons of aircrafts, high tech tanks (aka Namer), helicopters and total of 1.65 million soldiers ready to wreck arab states like you. Israel is the ONLY democracy in the middle east. The only country that treats it's women, gays, transgenders, or any other oppressed people equally and with open arms. They allow ALL religions to practice freely as much as they want. None of that can be said for the Arab countries. By that notion alone Israel should be beloved by Americans and democracies alike. All we want is a right to exist. Historically the country belonged to the Jewish nation and we are being more than generous by allotting land for a Palestinian state, while treating our own Arabs fairly. They serve in the army and are in high positions such as doctors , lawyers, and politicians. Where are the Jews that recently used to reside in Iran, Syria, Lebanon, Jordan? That's right, there aren't any anymore because they were oppressed and forced to leave. Israel is this minuscule country surrounded by Arab lands and all we want is our little strip of the middle east and all the Arabs want is to see us wiped off the map and to own every single acre of the middle east. +Daniell) Israel can't be both Jewish & democratic, even John Kerry said it. If a majority are not Jewish then it ceases to be a democracy. That is why it's called a "Jewish & democratic state" in its basic laws. Do you think they'll appease the decision & go with it? Hell no. That is proof of it's lack of full democratic procedure. Sure, it is a relatively democratic state compared to the majority of nations on earth but i just refuted this notion.2) The "Middle East" is an anglocentric term which was invented by British colonialists during the mid 1800's to define their spheres of influence, so it's not a valid geographic designation. Hell, it's not even a valid term, let alone geographic, it's void from a historic, cultural & ethnic perspective..it's but a mere political conception.3) The irony is that you along with the majority of Jews are from all over the world. In 1933, 60 of Jews came from various European countries, even the Jewish virtual library cites this, it's a fact. Your last name is Zylberberg so i take it you're European, precisely a German Ashkenazi. If not then it must some other European country. One of the definitions of a Jew is if the mother is Jewish then so are the children. That's funny considering that >80 of Ashkenazi maternal DNA originates from women native to Europe. You're European & Jews belong in their respective countries, i am not like you nor your oppressors because both of you ironically agree on the same thing, that Jews do not belong in their respective countries...yet only when it suits you do you conveniently use the following hypocrisy to your advantage: "Jews were oppressed & forced to leave", implying you didn't want them to be forcefully exiled, and rightfully so but it shows your cherry-picking.4) Check your facts before talking, you assumed people can't practice their religions in all Arab countries. You do know Jordan treats it's Christians rather well, and so does Lebanon on a governmental level. There are churches in the UAE where Christians can worship, i know because I've been there. If there's discrimination & repercussions for practicing any religion then this is specifically a backward problem stemming from Islamist so don't pin it on all Arab countries.5) Stop playing victim & making fear-mongering blanket statements like "all the Arabs want to see us wiped off the map" <—you're the racist & real anti-semite. Notice i never said anything racist against Jews.6) Not all Jews were forcefully exiled, some left willingly so you need to take this into account before saying "all Jews were forced to leave". You do know that Bahrain had a Jewish woman as ambassador to the US by the name of Houda Nonoo. Jews are Polish, Moldovan, Moroccan, Ethiopian, Russian, German, Spanish, French, Iraqi, Kaifeng, Iranian and so on. Being Jewish shouldn't automatically entitle you to Israel, a piece of land most Jews have never continuously inhabited for most of their history. Only a minority of the 15 million Jews are native to the Levant, let alone Israel. Real Zionism should only apply to those of Levantine Semitic stock. 1) Basing an argument off of the fact that "John Kerry said it" was your first mistake. Your second mistake was arguing that since a majority of people are Jewish it cannot be democratic. Why should majority religion make any difference as to whether its democratic? There are so many sects of Judaism that always clash with each other, it's not like all Israeli Jews agree. In fact there are constant struggles between them. Not to mention America is around 80 Catholic/Christian, does that make America lose its title as a democracy? 2) Seriously man? Are you going to be that petty? Do you need me to make a list of the countries I'm talking about?3) I won't even go the Biblical route here because that surely won't appease you, but from your incoherent rant I take it you are saying that we had a choice of leaving our European homes? You are seriously belittling the holocaust and the effects it had. Would anyone in their right mind return to a country that either sold them down the river and given them to the Nazis, or were invaded and had their homes and possessions destroyed/seized? Either way there was no way they were going to return back to Europe, the place that ruined their life and killed millions of their people. So that's where Israel comes into a play. A place that was historically a Jewish land before we were kicked out, returned and then kicked out and dispersed for another 2000 years. In fact Jews began coming back to Israel in the late 19th century. Read what Mark Twain wrote about it, it was a desolate wasteland with arab tribes scattered throughout the country. Jews came in, civilized it, grew the land, and turned it into what it is today. And when we gave Palestine Gush Katif, a thriving community that was forced to be displaced a decade ago, the arabs burned it to the ground. Now it's a shithole. My point is the latest buildup of Israel was due to the Jews coming in. Palestine didn't even exist until 1988. They have absolutely no ancestral rights to the land.4) I was generalizing. As a majority, the "Middle Eastern" countries have far less freedom than what we know and love about Western countries like America. And we as Americans who are supportive of democracy should continue to support Israel, the only democracy in that region. 5) I'm not playing victim. The arabs are the one who play victim to the rest of the world in order to gain sympathy, and of course cash. We are the ones being stabbed, bombed, shot, ran over by cars. And when we retaliate we are considered the bad ones because we are more civilized and advanced than them. If Mexico started attacking America, the US would sure as shit blow the fuck out of them. And when I say "arabs" I have nothing wrong with individual people, my problem is with extremists, the ones who run the governments like Hamas, and other terrorists. 6) If you are a Jew in a country that starts to show anti-semitic tendencies you would get the fuck out whether or not you're forced to leave. It happened in Europe in the 1880s- 1930's. Many people saw the warning signs and thankfully left before it's too late. If I walked into an arab country with a kippah on I promise you I will likely not make it out alive. None of your arguments are valid. If you want to privately debate about this I will gladly enlighten you, my friend.

+Daniel1) I am not basing my argument off of Kerry, i am simply adding it as a side. Also you idiot, like i said earlier, it's called a "Jewish & democratic state", therefore it has to be both in order for the nation to be. If Jews don't become a majority they won't let it happen peacefully. That proves the hypocrisy. Furthermore, you can't compare the US with Israel, Israel is a "Jewish state" while America is not a "Catholic/Christian state".2) Its not petty, it's a simple fact most people are oblivious of. If you were truly patriotic, cared about your region & were well-read about & history then you wouldn't acknowledge a term British colonialists invented. My point is you cannot make a statistic about "only democracy in the middle east" if the term "middle east" is invalid.3) I never said anything about the dreadful & horrific Holocaust, in no way did i belittle it. You're not getting my point, Jews are from their respective countries & shouldn't have been persecuted! Also, most of Europe today is totally fine so don't act like if you step foot there you'll get harassed as a Jew. Just because Jews were discriminated against, it doesn't justify Israel. Why take it out on Palestinians who were minding their own business? Its your European brethren who killed 6 million of you so direct your hostility elsewhere! Lol, you tell me not to quote Kerry yet you quote Twain? I am sick of Zionist idiots who keep saying "it was a desolate land with nothing".you say this lie on purpose in order to justify settlement. The land had pre-existing people, why do you blatantly lie about that? I've encountered plenty of Zionists who spew the same garbage.4) You're a European-American who has nothing to do with the land, just because your ancestors lived there 3000 years ago doesn't make it yours. What kind of retarded, backward & radical mentality is this? Zionists are no different than Islamists, you're both self-entitled little brats.5) Yes you are racist, why didn't you say Hamas instead of all Arabs? If i said anything about Jews my comment will be flagged & ill be labeled an anti-semite by you lot. Fucking hypocrites..you have the audacity..i've never met a moderate Zionist because it doesn't exist..much like a moderate Islamist.6) Jews have been in their respective countries for most of Jewish history, what gives that now you want to flock in to displace the Palestinians? Yes, my arguments are valid, you're just not acknowledging them because you have a predisposed extremist mentality. Please man, you're not addressing my points, why's it ok for Jews to "Return" to a place most have never been to after 3000 years, but Palestinians can't after 70 years?	Nation, Nothing, Racist	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - General, Nationality - General	4/467	0.857

Japan has US support, that's the only reason it won't or cant be invaded. Countries like the US, China, Russia and maybe Great Britain could easily invade Japan. Their Island is too small and bombs [Not Nuclear] are too big. Aircraft carriers could surround the island and devastate the population. NK does not have the resources to fight a war against any of the top 5 countries. Their soldiers are supplied with about 150 bullets each and their weapons are extremely old , they have wobbly missiles and missiles that blow up at launch. Each soldier is required to farm and feed them selfs. They would be crushed if a Superpower attacks them.They have Nuclear weapons but proper authorities said the bomb is weaker than the ww2 bomb dropped on Hiroshima. We can invade simply by using propaganda [Turning their people against the government or mass air strikes. Plus you say they have a large army? If the US ever seriously went to war with another country [like if they attacked the US homeland] The US would turn into a Manufacturing beast, the army would possibly be 20 million or more strong well trained, well-equipped soldiers. Also, they are well funded. In ww2 The US had a whopping 6,994,472 soldiers in the Army and 1,741,750 in the Navy. It's the population of these 2 countries. NK population is 25 Million. US population is 321 Million. The US could easily take 20 million angry Americans and fuck NK up. We can mass an army the size of their population, plus they don't have food, after the mass bombings, their already broken economy will completely collapse and it will be every Korean for himselfVlad does not want to invade America he wants Europe lol but America ain't having none of that. The problem with giving up anything, is that there are people who believe in 'Israel lost the Yom Kipur War, because Egypt got Sinai back' and 'Israel is weak because Egypt got Sinai back.'Egypt got Sinai back about six years after that war. You can say that it's connected, because the fact that Israel managed to win, made Egypt to agree to a peace. So Israel got a piece of paper in exchange for a big chunk of land (oil and air space) And many see it as a loss.Israel won that war, but lost the PR.Israel could have kept on fighting the war, it had surrounded the entire third army and there was nothing between idf and cairo but a long road. instead israel agreed to the ceasefire becuae of 2 things international presure and showing that it didn't want more people to die and just wanted to defend it's border	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/155	0.645

I think the biggest reason a large scale ww3 would be nearly impossible is because of the global market. It would cause depressions in countries and cripple the global economy which I think everyone but maybe the astronauts care about, and even they care. Like it or not but warfare has changed, and is unlikely to become full scale like ww2. What is more likely is proxy wars, because they have already occurred and are occurring now. And also factions vs countries aka terrorism. Things are always in scale. first you have a fight with a friend, then it might go to war between city states, then the world gets bigger and war between countries, then gets bigger and you have a global war, the next logical large scale fight would be war between species/worlds. So probably a war with Mars or aliens for the next "conventional war". This however does not include unconventional wars, which are sill very possible, but are not so much as country vs country. Rather religion/race/sex/ideology wars basically you just keep moving up to the next larger subset, until finally you reach the empty set. JK because new subsets are always being formed/removed.Edit: TL:DR basically warfare has changed and we now takes place in a larger subset. Countries have become too small and therefore it is unlikely we will have a "conventional war" or all out war between 2 major countries again.Also side note, would love to discuss this topic with others if you like debating about arbitrary/subjective/philosophical things. Just try to keep it about the topic and not ego/right/wrong. Also This is just a random thought I had have hardly given it sufficient time to actually think and go into specifics. Tanks and missiles are useless when you only have enough fuel to fight effectively for weeks. It annoys me that their army and nation are consistently cited as nearly unbeatable simply due to the size of their conscription force. +wild growlithe Bangladesh is an ally not an enemy of India. Moreover, India is better than Pakistan in all aspects of military and can easily beat them if a 1 on 1 war happens. This leaves out only China but an India VS China is extremely unlikely to happen as 1) India got nukes. So a battle with us will result in MAD which no country wants. 2) India has US support. US is vary of China's dominance in Asia and has thus allied with India, which is the only nation in Asia that can rival China. India and US share military bases in the Indian ocean and also support each other in other aspects. 3) China has invested a lot of money in India, Chinese conglomerates have invested huge sums of money in Indian companies and Chinese funding is increasing at a very fast rate 4) India is one of the largest market for China to sell its goods. if north korea went to war they wouldn't be impossible to invade, the problem they have is not in the form of soldiers or weapons but logistics, an army is useless without proper supplies and as we all know, the good old north korea barely has that. right now in peace time they can barely feed their malnourished army and can't feed their civilians at all, imagine the situation in war time. one would just need to wait a few weeks for them to be completely out of food and fuel. sure they look tough with their big armies but 3000 tanks are not that scary when there's no fuel for them and 2 million soldiers are not that dangerous when starved to death. First of all , i really smiled when i read the comments in the way of cursing to my personal self , where we are here discussing a historical event my religion doesn't allow me to speak to people in such manner and i respect all people and whatever they say, i thought the West People are more advanced in their attitude and speak in a respectful manner! , anyhow all of what mentioned are just speaking of mind without any historical proof , and when we are discussing a state of a historical city we need to provide proofs and not just speaking what we hear and repeat it without sourcing ... , i want to clear first point about the mentioning of Muslims being invaders and invading countries and etc , the only reason for a Muslim army to be engaged in war is either the other country are going under a big suppression and the people are getting offended and not treated fairly under that country's ruling , and the Muslim country was a powerful ruling back in time so they see a need in helping those in need and being treated unfair fully for example the Crusaders who ruled Jerusalem until 1099 they did so many massacres and killing for those Christians and Jews who lived there in the name of church , and they were living under hell fire they had simply no rights! , Muslims and Caliphate Umar ibn Al Khattab came for their Aid , and after Salah Al Din, as a Muslim we have a rule in our Wars and attitude we need to follow even if our enemy doesn't follow and it is told to us by our Prophet Muhammad and he said the following: O people! I charge you with ten rules; learn them well!Stop, O people, that I may give you ten rules for your guidance in the battlefield. Do not commit treachery or deviate from the right path. You must not mutilate dead bodies. Neither kill a child, nor a woman, nor an aged man. Bring no harm to the trees, nor burn them with fire, especially those which are fruitful. Slay not any of the enemy's flock, save for your food. You are likely to pass by people who have devoted their lives to monastic services; leave them alone.how can people with such ideas and orders do any kind of offense and be an offender , judge by yourself!other thing when Caliphate Umar Ibn Al Khattab came to free the city of Jerusalem from the Crusaders who didnt leave any thing without offense , they killed people , children , men, women in the name of church , after he freed the city he gave them this Treaty which says the following with Reference:"In the name of God, the Merciful, the Compassionate. This is the assurance of safety which the servant of God, Umar, the Commander of the Faithful, has given to the people of Jerusalem. He has given them an assurance of safety for themselves for their property, their churches, their crosses, the sick and healthy of the city and for all the rituals which belong to their religion. Their churches will not be inhabited by Muslims and will not be destroyed. Neither they, nor the land on which they stand, nor their cross, nor their property will be damaged. They will not be forcibly converted. No Jew will live with them in Jerusalem.The people of Jerusalem must pay the taxes like the people of other cities and must expel the Byzantines and the robbers. The Soviets did not give up land willingly to German forces with weather in mind haha. By October 41, the Germans had taken over 2.5 million red army soldiers, prisoner. At this point the German armies were at the gates of Moscow. That was a huge historical misconception, only proven to be false after the Soviet collapse, from there we saw Stalin was planning to invade Europe in July 41. The only reason the Soviets lost 50 miles of frontline a day was by sheer German speed, they had expected to go on a massive offensive, not defensive. "Fighting back" translates into death. Convince every person that has a family to take care of (kids being the 1 reason) to lose their lives relentlessly and convince every American citizen that has been abused by 'The Establishment' to fight for it... yeah, I'm having difficulties imagining someone giving up on life to "fight back" for the system that failed to protect them in the first place or care for them or simply refuse when their families or the local community is more important than the country itself.You would've been correct with your assessment IF the United States wasn't a melting pot and a self-divided nation in every aspect; the most notable being the federal system. Everybody is a fan of guns until they hear bullet whizzling in their ears against them.	Nation	Nationality - General	1/133	0.752
If the USA was invaded it would be assumed by most of their people that they are at risk for dying. Every time the US has been attacked we come together as one. There were reports that after 9/11 that opposing gangs in NYC were lined up together at recruiting offices. Yes, we are a divided nation but that is until we are attacked. Now, the USA could have a civil war again and that would change the narrative.	Nation	Nationality - General	1/79	1.266

Apple Apple I agree that geography is also very important. But still nazis did invade Russia and were able to kill many civilians in Stalingrad, Leningrad etc these cities. If every Soviet citizens had weapons nazis would thinks 10 times before invading ussr. Geography also plays very important part like muslims invaders weren't able to invade China throughout centuries cause difficult of high landscape. But if you are in wide open place then weaponzation of Commons is the best way. Today I dare anyone to invade switzerland and enslave them. It will be impossible to invade Switzerland either you will have to kill every citizen of Switzerland which may take 100 years or forget about invading it. Apple Apple what is tschad? And as for nazis invading ussr. Again I will say Soviet citizens not having weapons made it possible for nazis to invade ussr. If every Soviet citizen had weapons like switzerland combining that with Russia's geography it would be impossible for nazis to invade them. Only thing nazis could do in that situation is either bombard Soviet cities from the sky via bombers or get their soldiers into bloody war with Soviet citizens which would be disaster, it would also give Soviet army more time to prepare. ESD TUBE You are not taking into account that America surpassed Russia decades ago. Russians are still using Soviet equipment where as America loads billions of dollars into our defense and military. I would even say we put to much in, but that's another debate. Now I don't think Russia and America would ever go to war with each other because of the fear of nuclear warheads. But to say Russia would destroy America is inaccurate. Even if Russia was to fire missels at America and they somehow made it passed our anti missile defense, we have over 300 bases around the world, we have ally contries on top of that, along with our own army with 1 million active troops and another million reserves. Now I disagree we lost in the Vietnam and Iraq war because we shouldn't have even gone to war with them in the first place. America has already been to war with Russia and we won. Now if America and Russia were to join sides, nobody would ever be able to mess with us. You have to agree with that my friend.	Nobody	Age - Youngsters	1/187	0.535

I really wonder where do you get your news and facts from. I am a European and I can assure you that no European country likes what USA is doing, except for Russia (because it kind of doing the same thing USA does). So, saying America has 100 allies, that is not true. Like I said, USA has allies, but those allies are considered terrorists countries in our European eyes. However, we Europeans do not like what Russia and USA do, because USA and Russia try to dis-balance the global peace level. Saying USA has a better economy, that is kind of myth. USA has a lot of debt, USA leads the world in being at debt. I do not see any benefits of having all technology advanced equipment, because like I said, whoever was able to create a hydrogen bomb and to go to space, is definitely able to do what most countries are unable to do. Just like USA has advanced equipment as you just stated, Russia has the same thing and even more since the 1940s. Like I said, I do not like the Russian and the American strategy of invading other countries for their own benefit. But that does not make me blind to speak the truth that Russia surpassed USA in almost everything (such as, having a hydrogen bomb before USA, and having a nuclear bombs before USA, invading the space before USA did, having more oil reserve than USA, have more energy production than USA does, better infrastructure than USA, better education than USA, a better educated population than USA does, having a larger land mass/size than USA, having more nuclear weapons than USA does, having a stronger defense system than USA does, having an unbelievable destructive rockets system than USA does and etc.) All these give Russia the lead over USA. Like I said, having a better air force and bigger navy, army population, are not beneficial if you have a stronger defense system. Look at it like this, ((I have something that can completely protect me from your attack and that can destroy you if I attack you, HOWEVER, you have something that cannot completely protect you from my attack, and something that would not help you much if you try to attack me)). That is how it is between USA and Russia.	Blind	Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	1/391	0.256

How much pot did you smoke before you said that? There infrastructure is not better and the missile defense system is not better. They may have gotten to space first, but we got to the moon first. We had the first nuclear weapon, we tested it first, we used it first, our nuclear arsenal is more strategically valuable, our nukes are more up to date because of more spending, our nukes are placed all over the world meaning we have a larger advantage and space to attack, our nukes are being upgraded under Trump which will put us either further ahead of the Russians. We have a larger population, about 3x actually, a more well armed population, and a more free thinking population. Oil is irrelevant since we now have as much oil as we need with the Dakota pipeline and the Texas/Alaskan reserves along with others such as Ohio. Along with the Saudis giving us a almost unlimited amount of supplies. Some of our allies with you say are "terrorists" include Japan, South Korea, Australia, Canada, the Philippines, Israel, Saudi Arabia, Turkey, Pakistan, India, France, the UK, Poland, Romania, the Baltic states, and all other NATO members. You say Europe doesn't like us? Well the right will win France and your EU will collapse when Italy's economy fails in the next few years. Russia actually doesn't like the US since were fighting the Dictator in Syria which they back and we are trying to stop Iran's nuclear program which Putin backs. America has the largest and strongest army to date and if you want go on with this little "argument" then just ask and I will continue to provide you with reasons why America is stronger. Would Israel lose that war, it wouldn't exist today. Yom Kippur war was Israel's error thinking the Arabs would stop attacking it (I know, right?) but during Yom Kippur (thus it's name) Syria, Egypt, Iraq, Jordan, Saudia Arabia, Cuba, Algeria and Morocco attacked Israel.While losing greatly in the first phase of the war (due reasons above), Israel managed to regroup and stop the enemy from advancing. Not only that, Israel could keep pushing forward entering into Egypt and Syria.So, who won that war?The war goal was to conquer Israel and "kick the Jews into the sea" as Arabs frequently used to say.Considering that goal failed, and Israel managed to even grow larger after that war, we can come to the following conclusion: Israel has won once again.But what is it, winning a war? (Spoiler: Nobody wins wars)To start with that, we have to understand what's a war. I'll keep it short: War is hell. I assume from here on you can come in with your own conclusion.Considering Israel prevented another genocide, we can come to the conclusion that Israel won a war. Britain did survive without it's allies, between 10 July – 31 October 1940 in the Battle of Britain. The question you ask is nothing but a loaded one, because to win a war as vast as ww2 every country needed backup, Germany found that out the hard way. It's one thing to survive for a battle alone, another to survive a war. Britain would not survived without the USSR, because Germany would have directed everything at it. But that doesn't mean the Battle of Britain was won because of allies, there were no allies fighting that battle! The ingenious radar system and cracking of the enigma code (which was sped up through Polish codebreakers) are what won the battle and ultimately saved Britain.The USSR was large enough and had the benefit of the elements to be able to soak up anything Germany threw at them, even if they had the best military on the planet. Although if Germany had no one else but the USSR to worry about they could have taken their time about it (better equipped themselves for the elements) and probably would have won in the end. Britain didn't have those luxuries. So, thanks to the USSR, Britain survived and thanks to Britain d-day was able to launch to retake Europe before the communists did. Obviously there was the battles in north Africa and the push through Italy that also wouldn't have been possible without Britain's efforts in stopping Rommel's advance.The overarching point is thus, without allies nobody would have won, it was allies that halted the mightiest military the world had ever seen. To say that Britain were just an irrelevant bystander in all of this and you could take them out of the equation and still win against Germany is extremely naive. +Liron Amdour Many do but when you have a mostly Jewish nation bombing and being bombed by mostly Muslim Arab nations, what religion they are is front and centre of the argument.Many also see an imaginary scale. Judaism on the left, Christianity in the middle and Islam on the right of the scale. With Christians believing themselves to be the negotiator between the two. But we've all been at war for 1500 years. Conquest is a part of human history. Should we give Anatolia back to the Greeks, Australia to the Aborigines, America to the Native Americans, Great Britain to the Celts? No, we shouldn't. So what makes Israel so special that they get to be the exception? It's certainly not their history because there are religions and cultures that are pushed nearly to extinction and don't get special treatment.	Nation	Nationality - General	1/141	0.709
