Healthy strong men love to have sex with pretty young women. they may go old because it's easier and socially acceptable - susan is dishing bs in this video	Old, Sex	Age - Over 65s, Gender - General	2/29	6.897
I think that there is a lot of truth in what she says. 37 over here and frequently find myself drawn to women who are in the 47 - 50 age range.	Age	Age - General	1/32	3.125

When I was 28 I started dating a woman who was 50, we married two years later. We were married for 10 years before she felt psychologically to old for me and we went our ways however we remained close until her death. Easily the best relationship I have ever been in. The 3 major reasons... Mature, knew what she wanted and no bullshit head games.	Old, Woman	Age - Over 65s, Gender - General	2/66	3.03

Maturity is sexy but some younger women have it as well. But the thing is to me a woman physically peaks at and over 40, take an actress like Kate Mara, shes always had it, but look at her now compared to 2002 to me in her late 30s shes sexier now than ever, or Julie Benz now in her mid 40s compared to her Jawbreaker years, young women are still baking in a way. It's how you separate youth cuteness from true sexiness.	Woman	Gender - General	1/84	1.19

My guy and I are "unique' and today this is not recognised at all. We have both been through hell with people that were supposed to be our partners (me 25 hard years). We have put up with horrible people to simply not be alone. This is bad for the soul and your self esteem and will grind you down to the point where you loose your sense of self and identity and become the "wounded walking" literally. He was on antidepressants and in a job he hated and had just moved in with his friends family and I was living with too of my three older girls and very lonely. I met the worst guys on dating apps and just before I met him I knew a guy who had a partner and was using me and another guy who was very rough with me. I have been raped by different men even ex over the years and didnt think I deserved a good guy. He found me after going through many profiles. Is a bloody miracle. So in the end thanks to dating apps I met a guy as weird and messed up as me. But so nice and very misunderstood. We are both so alike I was always a late developer and still am not like my age and dont care and ex never understood me . He says im the nicest partner he has ever had. I look after him and he works hard and looks after me. He is like a old man even though he is 26 and had a hip operation and will need another one later on . He prefers to only hang out with me and my older kids and grandkids. His dad is the same nice. They are both the nicest men I have ever met. He lets me live my life and I let him live his. We don't have much but we have each other. Would like to see only positive comments on here as their is to much prejudice against older woman and to much lack of understanding about why this happens and why guys in particular seem so threatened by it. The french president has a much older wife says it all really . He looks happy to me and so does she. Why be with a older guy who cant keep up with your youthful outlook on life that's me really. Older guys don't get me and my guy does. SIMPLE	Age, Old, Weird, Woman	Age - General, Age - Over 65s, Gender - General, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	4/417	0.959

I haven't ever been attracted to younger men though lately, now 55 I'm finding I'm attracted to them not sexually but more their sense of fun, silliness adventure or just lack of seriousness and anal retentivity. I've been on the receiving end of a lot of attention from them. I'm a comedian with a positive,critically incorrect sense of anti feminist humor but I couldn't be more u interested in sex . I've never had a brother or much of an influence by a male relative so I'm wondering what's going on if I don't want sex . I'm still hot too by the way	Sex	Gender - General	2/102	1.961

If someone is REALLY interested in older women for something other than a meal ticket or a mommy, these are my tips:1) Be emotionally mature – there is nothing worse than dealing with someone that acts childish (young at heart and playful in a non-sexual way is good though)2) Be over 25 and have a college education – I wont waste my time on anyone younger than 25 that isnt educated. There are studies out there that say that the brain has not fully matured till 25, and someone with just the minimum education hasnt had enough life experience to make a carefully considered decision. 3) Dont expect special consideration because you are young and she is older – I wont treat you any differently, so if you assume I'm desperate you are so very incorrect. I see a lot of ESL scammers commenting here. Most older women aren't "easy scam" material. Most of us that are here have had this awakened by a younger man approaching us, not because we are desperately seeking a relationship.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/178	0.562

So many of these comments are about sex , which is bizarre. I'm not really even interested in sex . With the prospect of a possible long term lasing relationship I might be interested, but other than that I really could take it or leave it! Also, my attitude toward relationships hasnt changed. I'm not going to cater to and try to "win" a guy because he's young. This one guy that seems interested in me tends to be really B-O-R-I-N-G so unless that changes, I'm done before it even begins lol.	Sex	Gender - General	2/90	2.222

Once women hit a certain age (40+) IME they become largely invisible to men in their age bracket. Instead, once men hit that same age range, they begin focusing on much younger women in their 20s and 30s, because they can. Society allows men to age and still be considered fuckable, no matter what they look like (for reference look at the male actors cast in movies and TV shows, and observe how they are allowed to look "normal" while the female actors they are paired with, are always very good looking). If you are a woman over 40, you will only be looked at by younger men if you are considered hot. Sorry but I think this video only applies to very young men. When those same men reach their forties, they won't look twice at older women unless they look like Gisele Bundchen.	Age, Woman	Age - General, Gender - General	5/145	3.448
Heather Mamatey Not true. I'm a 51 year old woman . I'm Athletic workout 4-5 days a week and eat healthy. People think I'm a lot younger. People are shocked when I tell them my age . I get 20-60 years old men wanting to date me and sleep with me. I don't have a problem getting a man. It's quality, loyalty, genuine, hard working man that's important to me. Older women know themselves, what they want and just go for it. I advertised for an older attractive lady who wanted a younger, tall, very well endowed, clean, romantic guy. We got together that day and it was the best month I have ever experienced with a women in my life. I was 48 and she was 68. The sex was so spectacular, it was out of this galaxy!!!! We bonded, laughed, had much in common and enjoyed giving to each other. As a 40 year old , I like to date, spend time and converse with older women but I prefer sex and having children with a 25-27 year old . After 36-37 a women's reproductive system isn't what it used to be and her nurturing abilities decline. Young women are full of energy and havent been jaded by men [as much as a women in her late 30s or especially 50s], their skin is softer, breast are much more firm, and their vaginas haven't had countless men in there. So yeah, physically, young women are the best but for a serious relationship, I would probably chose the older woman .	Old, Sex, Woman	Age - Over 65s, Gender - General	4/107	3.738

Older women are fun at the beginning for younger men because older women are easy. Younger men should really be focusing on their career finances. Once those are in check men can date younger, who can give them children and marriage. Older women are single moms who have unrealistic expectations, and are never happy. After a woman hits 35 her smv plummeta then they are more focused on equal rights claiming all men are losers. At the end of the day woman drain men from their finances, dreams, and because of feminism...false accusations.	Woman	Gender - General	2/93	2.151
A friend of mine who was 20 started a relationship with a 47 yr old woman ...She got pregnant and gave my friend a wonderful girl...who is now in her middle 30's...And later my friend had another girl with the same lady when she was 51 years old ...The rarest thing is that both girls are normal healthy ladies and My friend lived with that lady until she passed away from a stroke about 3 years ago... I have a question for you Susan, I'm 47 and have been on a couple of dates with a 60 year old woman . We have great chemistry and connection. I usually don't reach out after our dates and wait for her to text me, usually 3-4 days. When she does I set up another date, her thing is she doesn't want to be tied down etc, so that's why I lay back on the texting or calling until she reaches out. My question is this, if you set up a date 10 days in advance, should you reach out, say around the 4-5 day just to see how her day went or just wait for her etc? I have heard of over pursuing and such, I just don't want to be rude either. What's your take?	Old, Woman	Age - Over 65s, Gender - General	2/136	1.471
Disregard of men or women both gets olders and die. Both go throug physical changes. Mental development does not depend on age . Definitely we learn as we experience but it does not mean we all learn good things in life. Financial stability also do not depend on age . Many old men and women lives on government pension. So it is really depend on individual personality not on gender . Few women are more gifted than other women in different areas of life. But it depends on others what they want to get out of her. Few men have very different mindset up as compared to majority of men. So it totally depends on ndividual we are all individuals with different mind, body and soul so comparing one woman to other or comparing one gender to other is not logical. Yes there are few similar gender differences from outside but that does not make all people of one gender same. You need to go in more depth to see individual. Don't agree.Those guys who go after older women are beta-males.Older women have a lot of issues. If they are single when they're 40 then they most likely have psychological problems. They are either bipolar, have ADD or suffer from other mental illness. Single women over 30 are damaged goods. They are not happy and they will make your life miserable. I never date women over 30. They are damaged goods.Over and out.	Mental	Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	1/75	1.333

the other thing is...society really sexualizes men to want only sex and thin young chicks...and like the myth of beauty of skinny young chicks is the other myth that men only are looking for mindless sexi like to think men have more depth to what they want and they need....and i think an older woman makes a lot of sense...once being a younger woman who was so messed up i had no idea what i wanted...my hormones were raging....men where like....ya right! now that i'm 42 i find younger men totally are into me. and i think it's funny cuz i'm neither skinny or young but i do look damn good. i find younger men really feel more mature, and hot when an older woman wants them. i adore my younger man openly....i am also confused by being older is seen as a flaw? being older is a miracle..how many people don't get to be older? and i like to think i'm a bit wiser. openly adoring a younger man makes him feel really hot. i almost feel sometimes it puts the younger man into a fantasy about themselves? i don't know if this burns them out. but i love the energy of younger men. they are full of life and are totally willing to learn anything	Woman	Gender - General	1/106	0.943

I forget to say that I look like I am in my 20 as well if I didn't share my age , so most the time people think his dating a younger girl as he looks older, but this isn't an easy relationship to have. I was worried he cheat on me as issues with the social media girls groups but his also very attached to me as I am his very first girlfriend and we have many great memories together. still, I am the one that wants to run from this right now, I am in the process to look for work and still need to buy a home etc and well I can't count on support from a younger man that still studying. WOMEN young or OLDER really seem to reject WOMEN that date younger why I was wondering why? why is it ok for an old grandad to date a girl that is 17, for years men did that but if you are a successful woman that doesn't even look old and dating a younger guy that's wrong. 40 here dating a young guy 20, it's not a bad relationship but It doesn't feel very supportive, fulfilling to me, funny enough his from a city where there are many young people everywhere, so you wonder why he did select them, What I don't like with this relationship is issue with trust will come up, him talking to many girls on social media, him going out with his friends and never give you any news, no talk of plan or future, I have my own money at the moment but if I get a problem with money he can't help as still living with his parents, I don't want to visit him at his parents ever. his experience with me is very rich, I take us dinning and so but I end up paying and giving more than he does, I can't discuss many topics I want to discuss with him, I want children he doesn't on top of this I get criticise [like rejected] fast by OLD WOMEN especially does that got kids closer to his age. Right now this relationship doesn't look ideal for me, the only thing that keeps it going is this boy doesn't want to break up but I am not very happy at the moment in it but I love him but I am also wondering if it will work and if I am not crazy to sacrifice my days left on someone that may leave me in future with actually nothing to gain for me.	Age, Crazy, Nothing, Old	Age - General, Age - Over 65s, Age - Youngsters, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	4/254	1.575
For the first time in my life, I'm very attracted to an older woman. She's financially stable, very mature, and she knows what she wants. We also have so much in common. In 37, and she's 45. She has never directly told me that she likes me, but she has told me in other ways. I think she's wonderful. We are just talking as friends right now, but I could see us getting serious in the future. I don't need her, and she doesn't need me, but I want to be with her all the time. They are usually not much older than me, the woman I'm talking to now is 7 years old and I met her on a dating site and she ticks all the boxes plus she is tall and I love tall women (I'm 6'4" and she is 6'0"). We talk almost everyday and compliments me on how romantic I am. She reached out to me at first and I was a bit skeptical but over time I just found myself falling in love with her, she just understands me compared to the other women and she is a joy to talk to. Older women are more emotionally stable, more reliable, they know what they want, they are generally less wishy washy, generally have a more stable job, not stuck in sexist ideology (like all men want to make the first move), are generally a bit more wise, are better to talk to, and are more confident in bed. The confidence here is important, as they need the confidence to talk openly about difficult issues, like a real adult would. They are more likely to know the difference between "assertive" and "bitchy". Heck I started dating my wife when she was 45.Now compare that to a 21yo " woman " who doesn't even know how to change a lightbulb or cook.	Woman	Gender - General	1/117	0.855

Great concepts but poor application. If this was so we would see more younger men dating older women. Or even older men dating women their actual age . Unfortunately statistically this is not true. Men are physical creatures that studies have found the kind of woman they find physically appealing are younger,more active and have physically fit bodies.. Youthfulness in a nutshell is what they desire. If they find an older woman attractive, more than likely it's to experience a physical interaction only not anything long term. Especially if they still desire children. Maybe 5 or less of men feel this way that you describe, whom are younger but the other 95 of men want a younger youthful women if given a choice... EVERYTIMEI say in my next life I better be born with a penis... being a woman is over rated especially when it comes to finding a partner after 40! Hi Ms. Winter. I have a question with regard to an older woman dating a younger man. Last year while I was working a seasonal position I would have conversations with a younger man I worked with; he is 20 years younger than me. We clearly got along very well and there was mutual interest then my seasonal position ended; he is a regular employee with the employer. I understand that his role at work is very demanding; he works Mon-Fri and many Saturdays and often takes work home. Also, he is currently taking a course that will help him advance in his position; the course ends March, 2019. What advice would you give so that we can reconnect? Over the holidays I did send him a holiday greeting since I have his contact information.Your feedback is greatly appreciated. Thank you.	Woman	Gender - General	1/141	0.709

The problem is, only very few of such relationships will last. Many (if not most) of such relationships are just relatively short sexual flings. If they are kept alive for a longer time, they usually have deadlines because of biological factors. Women in their 40s and even 50s can still be visually appealing if they take care of themselves. But they will inevitably reach an age when they can no longer arouse a man (unless he has a granny fetish). Furthermore, many men want an own family and obviously want a younger woman for this life stage.Best example is probably Ashton Kutcher and Demi Moore. They probably had 10 good and sex-filled years. But when she hit 50 and he 35, he switched to young Mila Kunis and started his own family. Also Demi's ex-husband Bruce Willis married young model Emma Heming and had further kids with her. In this regard, nature is unfortunately unfair and favors older men over older women.	Age, Sexual, Woman	Age - General, Gender - General	3/163	1.84

ok first things first. i like the way she talks shes very eloquent and she makes her points very well. but she is missing the elephant in the room, which is female hypergamy. young women in their prime are at their highest in terms of sexual amrket value and desireability. these atractive young females have dozens of men oozing over them. and since most females are not complete whorebags and sluts, they dont really want to sleep with as many men as possible, so they pick and chose. who gets picked? Only the Chads of this world. this makes it almost impossible for younger men to date, let alone sleep with the highly attractive younger females of this world, because they tend to be occupied by the Chads, atleast Chad- lite's of this world. So they turn to older women, who are past their prime, who quite often already haave children, who on top of being less picky when it comes to looks, also tend to play less games and r more seated in their lives, as the lady in the video explained... Once a woman turns 30, she has hit the wall. As she gets older, mother nature deals older women a nasty blow. The older womens tits start sagging, that's simply because the fibers in the tissue start to wear out. As an older woman ages, the weight she gains, goes directly to her ass, which in turn starts drooping. There's a saying that goes like this, "Men age like a fine wine, where as women age like milk and spoil" In reality, the younger women will always beat out an older woman in every single way. In marketing and sales, the stats don't lie. Men of all ages love eye candy, fact. When Sports Illustrated has their annual swimsuit edition, it's always a hot and sexy young girl. You will never find a 30-40 year old model, not ever, and for good reason. Sports Illustrated, Magnum, and other magazines know what sells, and it's always, and will always be, the younger woman like it or not. Same with Victoria's Secret, Once again, It's young women that model the lingerie, for the very same reason. No older woman past 30 will ever be featured walking down the runway for Victoria's Secret. In sporting events, what age group makes the cheerleader squad?? Most certainly not an older woman , never going to happen period!! So once again, the younger woman wins effortlessly!! An older woman will always lose to a younger more attractive model, and the stats, and numbers, don't lie. Restaurants such as hooters hire who for waitresses?? Lol, you guessed right, younger women!!! An older womans SMV (Sexual Market Value) goes straight down the toilet the older she gets, fact!! Even in the porn industry, guess what age group of women gets the most clicks?? (Hums the Jeopardy Game Show Tune) Once again, It's the young 18-20 something girls, that are the bread and butter of the industry. Older woman will always finish last, when it comes down to a young hottie. But don't take my word for it, research it for yourself, and have a nice day. Haha I'm hysterical over this straight-faced, serious dissertation on older woman having 'clarity' 'lack of game playing' and 'she knows herself' and that's why younger men like them. OMG funny! Since I'm an 'older woman ' in a relationship with a much younger man, I tell you, people, it's all about the chemistry. Period! Now just maybe some of those factors are part of the chemistry, however, I don't think it's my 'clarity' he's after! And I sure do love his 'boyish look' and hard body! Early 20s here and I always go for older women. They're sexy mentally and physically. No games, 0 drama. They can always host when it's time to get busy. They always wear sexy lingerie and heels for you in the bedroom. They are always glammed up for you. They enjoy raw sex with no worries about pregnancy since most are either post menopausal or have their tubes tied. They dont text or call bugging the shit out of you all damn day like girls my age will. They simply just wanna have fun and enjoy a nice young guy to ride here and there. Almost all are no strings attached type hook ups. They could care less about your looks unlike girls my age . As long as you dress well, great hygiene, have your shit together, educated and mature mentally andphysically. Almost any cougar will wrap their sexy legs around you. I hate to break it to you but men only want older women for a pump and dump. Most men do not date an older woman and actually take her seriously.	Woman	Gender - General	1/31	3.226

I am 27 years old and she is 57. We have been together for 5 years now. I was never into young women and always had preferences for older ones. Here is why:1) In my childhood I was told that sex is for grown ups, so I thought you have to be older to have sex. Therefore, I saw only older women as sexual objects and not younger. My target age has been 30-50 years old.2) I simply like the facial and body feature of older women. They have sharper facial features and softer bodies (ass, tits, and thighs), which I like. I am not into toned skinny bodies.3) Since I grew up in somewhat patriarchal environment, I have always seen women as home keepers. Thus, I look up to women who can take care of a house and clean, do laundry, and cook. Nowadays women don't take up on these things and they suck at cooking. I am yet to meet a girls my age that cooks better and more often than me. Just like women like to feel safe around a man, and know they can rely on him to fix the car and maintain the house, men like to be taken care of in terms of cooking and cleaning. 4) They are more aware of what they want. They can tell you whether they want casual or serious relationship, or whether they want to be housewives or working women. Younger girls are mentally unstable and this is exhausting to deal with. One day they want to be corporate managers, the next day they want to be sugar daddy's girl; one day they want to marry you, the next day they want to go study psychology in Denmark.5) I would expect they are less likely to cheat if in commitment since they realize the consequences better, and because they don't have that urge to explore as younger people (not just girls) have.6) I would assume they are significantly better at sex. I haven't been with anyone bellow 30, but based on what I have seen in porn, young girls are stiff in bed. I doubt that many of them can really enjoy sex that much. Older women are know how to enjoy sex because are more open with THEMSELVES. They would also let you know what they like and what they don't.7) You can talk to them about more than just about the argument she had with her girlfriend. Men like to talk sports, politics, science, etc. Younger girls' brain don't catch that frequency.8) Older women were much harder to get where I grew up and lived most of my life. The reason is they were raised conservative, so they didn't see well big age difference. So for me hooking up with an older women was an achievement because not many people could pull it off and an older woman would be a trophy.9) If you get together with an older woman that normally doesn't like young guys, then that means she finds you mature and reliable for your age. This means you feel more of a man than your peers.	Age, Old, Sex, Sexual, Skinny, Woman	Age - General, Age - Over 65s, Gender - General, Physical Identity - Physical Features	15/531	2.825

Most men want children one day, and for that they want a woman that is A) as beautiful as he can get her B) sane, kind, and nurturing and C) obviously, fertile and as young as possibleHowever, if children aren't a concern, men will gladly have sex and even relationships with older women. But don't think for a second that if children were to ever be a concern, that he wouldn't leave an older woman for a younger one who is still fertile. It's just basic biology and you can't change it. Hottschrott You are delusional, talking stupid nonsense and lying. Time to wake up. Let me man educate you about being a woman . Only women enter menopause and their beauty is related to that. Nature took care of it that women become undesirably ugly once they cannot bring forth healthy children, which is at the age of around 35. This is why you see men in their mid 40s look like they are in their early 30s still but their wives in same age look like ugly grandmothers.My tip to you, get your shiit together and marry and have children and family in your 20s because that is the only time you can do that. After that your future is that of a cat lady and of being an occasional sexdoll to guys who would just nail anybody just for the fun of it.Wake up, woman . There are many individual reasons for late age gap relationships. For women, I think it is important to focus on the younger man's maturity level because you don't want to be raising another child. Secondly, older women take the risk of the younger man changing you in for a newer model, which will take your entire investment you had in that relationship , then you have wasted your younger years on a man who was never vested in the relationship and you spend the rest of your days alone, you know what I mean? As women age , they have no time to waste and want to enjoy every waking moment. They have already went through the kids, childish B.S., and all the drama. She wants to keep it real and can detect immature males. We have worked very hard for every year we have so it's our time to really live. I'm not here to stay whether each depth relationship will work or not because it solely depends upon the people, but that's just my take on it	Age	Age - General	2/178	1.124

Bloodline Older women appreciate men who are upfront, honest, and can be their true selves. To approach a woman for causal sex , ask her directly. Some women like that type of relationship and others don't. Just ask her and the worst thing that could happen is she says no. If your married, it will be a big fat NO! FINALLY, be ready to take an HIV and STD test. You will also have to tell her if you are having sex with anyone else. Older women have heard and seen it all so they are not as offended as their younger sisters. Just be you, get to know a little bit about her. In male and female relationships usually women know everything about the man, but the male knows very little about the female. Therefore, you can melt her heart by wanting to know everything about her, meaning more listening and leas talking. Please, I have had so many younger men who are attracted. They are insecure about themselves, and I can tell they feel special around me, even though I've had gorgeous wonderful men and never would be with these insecure little boys who might think that I see them as hot stuff. Yuck is what I say. They think they have a better chance with an older woman , and that they're so incredible to the older ones, but they're wrong. There are younger women who are ready for relationships. There always have been, but that's too real for them. They don't have to worry because it's not for real with an older woman . There's no chance of a true relationship, and they get that femininity and sex without risk. The thing is a lot of us pretty older woman , are never going to want a young guy because it doesn't feel right, no matter how old we get, and a lot of them are just not anything special; just young and to afraid of a woman their own age . Younger men, even if they are mature, are just a turn off to me. No matter when I try to let it come naturally or force myself to be popular and like younger men and its nothing that they've done but they aren't my type. To me, they are like my brothers and nothing more. Perhaps, that's why they like me because I treat them like their sister.... although when I think about that, that's really creepy. (Especially given my real life blood brothers) I'm learning, though, that preferring older men for me is okay and I don't have to deal with being shamed for it. Yes my partner just got tired of girls his own age putting him down as he is a nice guy. Even a few females his age have kept bothering him and asking him out sometimes. He works really hard all week he needs weekend to sleep and be with me . They seem to think one message and he is out the door at a moments notice and he is always available for them. What is it that makes woman so determined when they know he has a partner. They obviously cant handle the fact that im older and he wants to be with me as we are very alike and good friends and I look after him . He keeps telling them he is busy THEY DONT GET IT this is stupid and stupid thinking alone. Im confident in the fact he loves me and I dont see them as a threat at all. They in the end are just bothering themselves not me. One claims to have a boyfriend she seems to have to much time to message my boyfriend something is a little odd here. Wow nice. I married my ex teacher from school in 2015. We just had our 4th kid and she's 41 and I'm 30. She has a great career as well makes tons of money. I love her body she's a hot plus size. We got married due to sexual relationship and I miss those days now beause we have kids to look after plus our work clashes due to her working weekdays and I'm working 4 nights 4 off. If I'm working during weekdays I probably see her like and spend time with her for a two hour a day with her. 1 hour when I come back in the morning and 1 when she comes back in the afternoon but we start getting ready for work when we come back so one of us can watch the kids. Since then I always went for older women 25 - 45 but the older I got the more older I wanted. I hooked up with a woman who was turning 50 and she still looks hot for her age not great but it's worth it. It's hard when I go outside with my wife because I meet many of my ex older women and my wife gets annoyed. She calls them "my bimbos." I was with a woman like 5 years older but I wouldn't consider that as a cougar. I always prefered women at least 10 years or more older. I still like going with other older women. I have a problem that I'm easily addicted to older women and being married to a older woman still doesn't stop me. Who knows when I get like 50 maybe I like older but I've seen women in their 50s looking good. There's this woman who lives near me she's like 65 and she still looks sexy at her age . I agree. I hooked up with my ex girlfriend mums and many more. I hooked up with my mum's friends when I was a teen. I married a my teacher back in 2015 due to the sexual attraction and amazing sex we had. I just wanted to be with her all the time just after marriage things got way different once we had kids. Now we had our 4th kid I'm 30 and she's 41. The sex has kind of been dead for a few months. Looking after kids and our jobs clashing with her on weekdays 9am - 4/5pm and I'm on nights 630pm - 630am we hardly get a chance to have that sexual attraction. Now it's like quickies before we get ready for work. Older women don't play games because their ovaries are no longer in working order. Before this women at a younger age use their vagina as a bargaining tool, hence all the mind games and all the tom foolery. So a man may want kids, the woman in her 20s will waste his time and use him for all the resources he can give her i.e dinner dates, presents and holiday trips and so on. Ok ok this is cool and all and everything she says is true but let's be honest here. These reasons give way to the one thing even I as an older guy enjoy about an older woman . You can go to town, as many times as you want and you won't have a gaggle of children running around. She loves the attention and can handle the necessary roughness. Plus I'm sure a young strapping college boy is alot of fun for a woman and it helps her reconnect with her youth. Is simple really. Testosterone DEMANDS release. Older women relieve the tension and nervousness of younger, inexperienced guys. It's a win win situation. Same thing goes for younger women and older men. I hate it when society thinks that if you date outside your age + or - 5 years then you are a pedo. Give me a freakn break. Once you hit college it's game on. I have come across a lot of older woman who wont give younger guys the time of day. Obviously theres the trust factor, they dont think younger men will stick around. They dont have faith in their maturity. Then there is the social stigma. It can appear pathological for any gender to have a significantly younger spouse.	Gender, Woman	Gender - General	2/57	3.509

As a corollary to this. Younger women may want older men who will provide a sense of purpose they lack in themselves. This is bad as she may never mature and remain dependent on her lover forever. Some men like this role of senior advisor for the sense of power it gives them. That is being manipulative.	Senior	Age - Over 65s	1/57	1.754

This is all nonsense. Older women are crows. They're more jaded and more unstable than younger women. Worst is that they're very aware that their biological clock is at its last stretch, and will pressure you to commit to her and put a baby in her. Some will even lie about being on the pill, just so u can get them pregnant.Men, ask yourself this. Why is it that she's still single past 30? Because she's garbage. Men have pumped and dumped her because they realized that she's no good for the long term. Women do NOT have any shortage of men interested in them. So ask yourself how is it that a creature with such an abundant access to mates is still single past her prime? It's not the men who were garbage ad she didn't pick them. It's not that the men were blind and didn't pick her. Make no mistake! Whereas women are the gatekeepers of sex, men are the gatekeepers of commitment. A real valuable woman will get snatched up by a guy QUICK, way before she reaches 30.In an ocean of self absorbed, social media addicted, vapid, and feminist thots... There are some good ones. OMG, gimme a break, let's get real here. The only reason a man dates an older woman is because it's easy pickings. You get laid right away and chances are they have already divorced raped a beta so it's safer. Very easy to pump and dump with very little risk. If you are talking about a younger guy in his 20's then it could also be for practice. 20 year olds will have sex with anyone that will allow them and they are still developing their skills in bed and want to practice on you while waiting for the next best thing to come along. Live Poetic aww, I man thinking from the correct brain. A man's sexual peak is 19 years old and a woman's is 35. Men grow fastet out of that sexual peak and women usually carry it out until their 70's. It all is God's since of humor. Many men hook up with older women because they still need a mommy who takes care of them, not all by any means, but the women are just more stable, can offer more, are not fixated with children so it makes him first. I always get approached or hit on by very young men and less by the older men, which sucks because I am not attracted to younger men and would prefer someone older than myself. Trust me, as you younger men grow in maturity, emotionally, and mentally, your views about sex , relationships, children, and responsibility. I know this because I'm one of those older unattractive women that "whats his name" is ignorantly talking about. For all of these things. I prefer my own age group. Thx live poetic for your mature answer.	Age, Old, Sex, Sexual	Age - General, Age - Over 65s, Gender - General	5/181	2.762

33X 33X Why strange? People are implying that the younger guy wants the older woman "just" for sex , oh ok... so the older woman doesn't want sex ? The more I read the more I laugh as in one instance the guy I was dating wanted to be reassured that I wasn't using him for sex . And I would never do that. I'm almost 42 and gladly I grow up and learned how to respect people. All the words I hear about "us" like cougar, desperate or whatever.. they are usually from younger guys who are still a bit immature, nothing an older woman wants to have to do with, even if the guy is super hot. Rich The Nepabadger Oh, sorry I think I read your comment the wrong way then. In that case, I totally agree that obviously, we should do our best to not let ourselves go, but we should do it first for us, not for the other person, that's the first rule for a happy life in general. Obviously, I like to see my man taking good care of himself (and I guess he would expect the same from me). But think about it, this is not even an age issue. I had a very meaningful relationship with a person much younger than me and when we were together both of us took good care of ourselves, I recently talked to him and boy oh boy, if we were together now, he would be the one looking older. No illness involved of course. So, in that case, you are right, but there will be a point where beauty will fade no matter what, for both men and women. And what stays alive? The love we have for each other, the compatibility and all these things. So just talking about looks is reductive in the long run. But surely to start and maintain a relationship they are also a part of the mix.	Age	Age - General	1/210	0.476

She is 100 True .But i Think as person people do not change quickly .Many Females are very crooked or stupid in their Behaviour Pattern even at an older Age . FRUSTRATED.Remember Affection happens due to multiple Factors. It include Behaviour at the Top.Healthy & Balanced Personality.Ability to understand Problems.Ability to differentiate Between Personal Life,self Life Behaviour in Personal & Professional Life.People have normally no Financial or cheating Thoughts if they Get Attracted towards another PersonGenuinely.There is always a professional & Non-professional Behaviour Pattern Existence in every individual(both in male/female)It can be Easily Identified by any experienced Male/Female.Many times people react without any professional ERRORS on any individual due to HATRET of REJECTION or Non-Acceptance due to having LOVE RELATION with another person. Thinking everything is Fair in LOVE & WAR.But remember people do not Like anyone or Hate anyone manytimes.They just keep a safe distance to Avoid any Form of Controversy because many times FEMALES & even many REJECTED MALES have a HABIT to SPEAK FALSE STORIES to harm the image of any BOY/GIRL in the SOCIAL/PROFESSIONAL CIRCLES because they have been REJECTED by the FEMALES to treat them as a close FRIEND.Many thoughts work together in a Relation between a MALE/FEMALE.Many times 2 people both Male/Female remain Good Friends. And they even know this Factor.	Age	Age - General	1/231	0.433

There is another, rarely acknowledged twist to this question: Why Younger Men Love Older Women... It goes way back to the time when aboriginal people on all continents were living simple lives and were not messed up by the European - Roman Catholic Religion + all the restrictions that came with it. In other words: In every pre-european contact society there were older/mature women who were initiating young men to their first, sexual contact with the opposite sex . It was very simple but very effective way to make young man aware of the fact that they will have to face this thing called "premature ejaculation" (something that most modern day men are not prepared to deal with) and, whenever it was needed, those older and more experienced women (aka crones) were able to correct all the "malfunctions" associated with the instinctive/premature need to procreate. There is this ancient East Indian book called "Kamasutra" that talks about the art of love making. It was so unfortunate that at the advent of Roman-Catholic religion it was blacklisted as an invention of a Devil Lol... In short, I encourage all young people (men in particular) to learn from the wisdom of your elders, let all that Roman-Catholic BS be just part of the history (not your reality), and enjoy your sexuality, providing you give the same amount of joy to your partner (regardless of his/her gender) (_)	Gender, Indian, Sex, Sexual	Ethnicity - Native-American, Gender - General	4/234	1.709

Dating is cheaper as an older woman can pay for herself;Older women are better in bed. Seen that on a number of sitcoms (The Big Bang Theory for example) & the only woman in her 20's who could give good head was Paris Hilton (video evidence is readily available);Older women negotiate their position better. They don't get upset when they don't get their way on everything.The drawbacks are: late 30's women who haven't had children get over ambitious of their parenting skills; less willing to try anything new or take risks; and take a long term view of an arrangement rather than living in the moment. Fact. Of course there are exceptions but not many. I'm 41, so I don't know if that counts as "younger". But I'm one of the few men in the world who's never dated anyone, so I certainly feel young and innocent! And while I'm physically attracted to women of all ages, I find that it doesn't matter what age they are; I'll still have problems with them.If she's younger than me, then I'm too old . If she's my age , she's most likely married and has a family. And if she's older, then she'll have a lot of expectations and won't settle for anyone who can't or won't live up to her standards.So yeah, I don't date anyone. In fact, they remind me more of older relatives, who I may see a couple times a yr who talk about retirement and medicare (i.e. during the holidays, etc.)....I think its the older women who are attracted to the younger men because their afraid of getting old (because men that are their own age , can't perform physically, are always tired or cranky).... Older women are also more likely to carry a lot of emotional baggage; can be quite (or just as) manipulative as younger women. Besides, most older women who are still seeking to date, romance and have sex with younger men are also very likely to have been previously married, divorced and be single mums., all of which ought to be generally avoided like the plague by young men with a half a brain. Granted, older women are generally far less whimsical, flighty and more mature and assured selves, but hey , their bodies and their looks are the first things to rapidly sink south when they hit their 30s. Unless the younger man is a loser who is looking to be some older, possibly richer and more successful woman's gigolo, I think older women, as a rule, should be avoided at all costs. This is BULL. we men ONLY care about looks and fertility. Young guys who "find" older women attractive is because they don't have the confidence to get young women. Older women have TOO much baggage and emotional scars. Older women just aren't sexually attractive to men. Some men will only settle for them when they can't get better. Women have a very short sell by date. They hit the wall around 25 to 30 years old and they hit the wall hard. Older women are easy to pick up. ABSOLUTE BULLSHIT i am 50 my partner is 25 we have already being together for a year . Some of us older ladies like myself have come out of a dysfuctional degrading relationship of 25 yrs with a older cruel Iranian man. My partner tried his own age and all ages and found younger women and women in general mistreated him as he a very nice guy simple. He was on antidepressants when i met him and he found me on the worst dating app and i didnt take him seriously as i has been mistreated and raped by older men and my ex and didnt trust any guy at all. It took a week of messaging and convincing me he was serious about me . On our first date he took me out for dinner and paid for a very nice motel for one night. I loved him the moment i met him and after being mistreated by a very selfish contolling nasty man 5 yrs older it was so nice to feel loved again. Older men and much older men i found are pervy and weird and confused and dont want a serious relationship and use you and block you while younger men will adore you and want you and make you feel like a queen why settle for less. I settled for less to long and gave my ex four great kids who dont bother with their dad and even his family in Iran have disowned him. He is a user who used me and my mums money to get what he wanted and is a liar and a cheater. Who needs that in their life as i was always the better one i got put down and menatilly abused and made to HATE myself to the point i was going down a very bad path i have even tried sucide twice when i was with him as he made me feel that down about myself. I started seeing younger men by accident i though i would try a younger age and even my oldest girl was worried but i proved all my kids wrong it took awhile my second girl who live with me was dad against it and it was bad as she was unhappy at the time but i got him to live with me as we both felt it was right and we needed each other and i have been better off ever since. Maybe you have a few issues i think with the whole older women and younger men why is it ok for older men with younger women i would cringe if my girls were with a really older guy yuck. AGE IS JUST A NUMBER. I have a ex friend who married a much much older guy and guess what she is really unhappy. I am happy finally and no its not all perfect but everyday i get kissed and hugged and told i am perect and he loves me. THATS ALL I NEED. Maybe you dont have love in your life or have not found so dont judge something you know nothing about. This is the worst comment i have seen on here and most degrading to us hotter older ladies who get the younger guys as we can cook nuture love and are good in bed mate maybe you will never find out.	Age, Nothing, Weird	Age - General, Age - Youngsters, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	5/565	0.885

maverickM249 no such thing has love. A women WILL NEVER love you. That's why over 80 of divorces are initiated by the women. I have seen were a couple been married decades together but yet the women files for divorce. Women are programmed to be with a man for his resources and protection, not for love. Once a women thinks you can't provide or she thinks you are a weak man she WILL leave you and move on. Let make one fact clear however, and that is women NEED men. So an older women past her prime (who probably been married multiple times) will settle for a younger guy because that's all she can get. Also 38 is too old . Maybe 28 if the females is healthy and has no kids. Child birth destroys a women's body. Once a female has kids she is no longer "attractive" to men.	Old	Age - Over 65s	1/149	0.671

I think the older women younger man relationship where the age difference is so large, that is more than 15 years could present problems down the road. I think the older women/younger man or older man/younger woman relationship is just ego based – see my trophy attitude. That applies to women and men. The reason that the older/women younger man relationship exist today is because it is more socially acceptable but both relationships are ego based. Personally I don't see how anyone could relate on a mental level with someone who has such a large age difference. My girlfriend and I have been dating for over two years. She's 55 and I'm 26. She's a Catholic, beautiful, looks very similar to susan, white blonde that happens to be very physically fit and from Chicago. Her only child is 21. I'm a physically fit, tan Israeli-American from Florida with no kids. In the beginning, our sexual relationship was the essence of it, but then we really fell in love. At first I was embarrassed to hold her hand in public due to possible backlash and stares. After a while, I started to embrace it for what it was and would have no shame displaying any affection towards her outside of the house. It's funny because everybody assumes that she's a so to speak "sugar momma" to me. Except she's not because i pay for everything. Continuing our relationship promises no children for me but i'm willing to sacrifice that because I love her. She always defends our relationship by saying why is it okay for an older man to be with a young woman but not the other way around. Am I making a mistake? My family wants me to be with someone my age but that not what I want. Am i making a mistake here?	Age, Sexual, Tan, Woman	Age - General, Gender - General, Nationality - British	4/210	1.905
Young men who like older women have mental issues who love her money, the ego boost or because its easy sex . Nothing more. Either he cant get laid by women his own age or he is just after cash or gifts etc. Source- my ex and his friends all are married or have gfs and hunt cougars for sex /money. They see it as a side hussle no different than having a job. Some say they do it while they looking for a baby mama because its guaranteed sex and they dont have to work hard for it like they do with younger women. I feel sorry for the older women that believe these men actually love them or will not be embarrassed to introuduce you to his Mother and his family and friends. Younger men really don't "like" or need older women, you are living in deception if you believe that my dear. They may like the money they can get from them, or a quick "scratch for the itch", but as far as attraction goes, that's out the window my love! Unfortunately, women lose their "blossom" of youth very early in life. Then it's plastic surgery after plastic surgery to desperately try to get it back. Many spend their youth playing "hard to get", but suddenly here comes their thirties, and they quickly find themselves "hard to want". Then they rapidly become "cougars" who have to pay men for love and affection. Sad, but true. I saw a couple in their 30's the other day, and the woman already looked like the guy's mother. So yes, any way you look at it, a sinful lifestyle never pays. LOL! Satan promises the rainbow, but always brings the rain. Stop worrying about your old needy and lustful flesh. Start worrying about where you will spend eternity my dear one. Jesus loves you and died on an old rugged cross for your sins. And He knew you in your mother's womb. To mock this is only to mock yourself. Turn from your sin and pursue Righteousness. Hell is not a joke or a myth. It is a very Real place that Jesus warned us about over and over again. And remember, He's the one who never told a lie. The only way to escape the very real fires of Hell is to repent of your sins and accept Jesus as Lord and Savior of your life. He is the only one who can save. If you have some time to read some truth, I will explain about Hell to you. Pay attention:In Hell, the fire is never quenched, and the torment never ceases. The testimonies of those who have been shown Hell (through verifiable NDE's etc.) say that the suffering in Hell is beyond human comprehension and understanding. And it is the Hell described in the Bible, exactly how Jesus described it and warned us about it. The heat, the thirst, the hunger, the sadistic torture of the souls; there is no scale to measure it with on a human level, and it's nothing to laugh at. Skin flaking off your body as the flames engulf you. The demons delighting in mutilating you and throwing spears through you. The spirit body has the capacity to feel pain beyond what the physical body can. This is real people, I love you enough to share the truth about it with you. Some have been in Hell for a few days, some for a few years, some for 400 years, some for 4,000 years, and beyond. Their condition never improves, it only gets worse. And they are aware of how long they have been there. There is no break, or rest , or comfort, only misery and torture. Of the approximately 150,000 people that die every day on earth, most are going to Hell. You need to take that fact very seriously while you have breath in your body. The Bible says that broad is the road that leads to Hell, and many (most) are on that road. So the fact is, Hell is not a joke or myth, and your friends aren't there waiting for you to party with them. Although Satan would be thrilled if he can sucker you into believing that so he can get a good laugh out of you, as you are ripped to pieces, and his demons mutilate you. So please, the chills you are feeling are a confirmation to you that what I've said is real. Jesus Christ loves you and weeps for you and wants you to come to Him and accept Him as your personal Lord and Savior. He is the only one who can save. Please accept God's free gift as time is running out. God	Nothing, Old, Sex, Woman	Age - Over 65s, Age - Youngsters, Gender - General	7/1186	0.59

I am so happy that I found your channel Susan! We both have watched all your videos on this topic and bought your eBook. And in the 10 months together we realize that we both made so many mistakes that you discuss in your videos and warn against so now we are better and stronger and I'm not afraid anymore. I am 39 years and my amazing boyfriend is 26 (he already told me by day 2 that he is going to marry me). He had to be so persistent to get me to believe that his can work out even though I am ashamed to say I've been among the majority of people out there who did not like the idea of the reverse age gap. But now I embrace it and recommend it to everyone I know who is still looking for MR Right because I see all the beautiful benefits and experiences and YES I see myself through his eyes now.... The hormone levels in younger women make it very difficult to connect with, they are to erratic for most people not just men. They are very high maintenance needing everything especially a mans resources which most men like to provide but when the appreciation fades & the moods & needs get higher men want out! it usually cost men alot of money. Older women are easier to connect with. A mature woman that has looked after herself physically and doesn't play games is very very attractive for a younger man. They can usually give each other what they both need with less hard ache.	Woman	Gender - General	1/104	0.962
Alot of women don't like old guys too, it goes both ways. Guys in mid life crisis that leaves his wife is only looking for material things like youth. Too many creeps who think they are hotter than they are, they are like damaged narcissistic goods, and alot of young smart women walk away fast, only women that do that are desperate or want money	Old	Age - Over 65s	1/65	1.538

It's not about age but about the level of maturity, mature younger people know exactly what they want in life but more often than not can't find the parallel that they're looking for within their ownage until they find someone with the same level of maturity in an older person (much older), I've seen multiple couples where one is much older than the other one and at least the ones I've seen are all extremely comfortable and happy with each-other. Davelle Johnson To be honest I never planned on having children as well. I just was a guy who loved having fun with older women. I was 17 when my first daughter was born and this was from another woman . She will be 12 soon. And by the end of the year I would have my 4th kid with my wife within 3 years of our marriage. I don't care what people say about us. People see us inmy area together they start to talk behind our backs because of our age difference and we have kids as well. I think they just sad people. Really!!!!???? Babe Get This. Younger men don't want older women. If that was the case you would see it all over the place. Younger men want older ladies because 1: they have no money 2: they cannot get women their age and they are horny 3: there is no commitment. Trust me even though you do see younger women with older men is because they have stability. Trust me younger women don't want older men, but they have to settle. It is really sad that younger men, millennials are cut off from opportunities that their parents especially grandparents have. Trust me Miss Winter you are truly delusional. Granted there are exceptions, but younger people find people old enough to be their parents" age sexually disgusting. Look at Hugh Hefner and you will see what I am talking about. Sally McMurray There is also the flip side of the coin Sally. Older men find younger women far more attractive than older women. But don't take my word for it, you can do the research. On porn sites for example, there are ("Mature Women sections") and "Young Girl" (legal of course sections) Guess which category gets the most hits?? Same for cam girl sites. It's the younger girls. The 20 something girls are so much more popular than older women, that the stats are staggering. Guys of all ages like eye candy!! I don't think you can refute that. Why is it that places like "Hooters" are so popular?? It's because of the younger girls of course. You will never, and I mean never, Find a 40 year old woman employed in an establishment like that for good reason. In the marketplace, older women have no value. Afterall, what guy wants to look at a saggy pair of tits, and turkey neck, none!! So for over all sexiness, I hate to be the one to break the news to you, but the younger girls beat out older women each and every time, and the stats don't lie!! Take supermodels as another example, there career starts at a young age . However, once they become to old , they pass the torch to the younger woman . Sports Illustrated will never feature an old broad in their swimsuit section, not ever lol ... Look at professional sports. What age group makes the cheerleader squad?? You guessed it, young women!! I just GET older people. When I'm around people my age , I'm always "weird" or "dumbfounded" or just plain misunderstood. Back home when I'm around older people, I can oddly relate to them on some levelsI'm very spiritual and it's very rare for me to meet piers who are attracted to a certain lifestyle. I've also been told by a few im an old soul, and so I never really feel like I belong with my piers. Let me explain it to you simply. The real reason is your 3 - "She doesn't play games". The other 2 reasons(which by the way are basically identical) are things we say to you to make you feel good about yourself and somewhat superior to younger women/girls. Yes, we notice the wrinkles and all, but since you are not playing games and you are pretty much straight forward, it is ok to bang you while working on that smoking hot young chick and playing games with her. My husband and I were married nearly 34 years when I lost him to a sudden heart attack. I was almost nine years his senior . Age was never a factor in our relationship. Any issues we had were the same as other couples. He said I had a calming effect on him and he treated me as an equal and valued my opinion. I was smitten by his handsome looks and it made me feel very desirable after having been in a marriage that made me feel insecure about myself. He helped me raise my two sons from the previous marriage and we had a daughter together. If you are in love, don't let age stop you from marrying. Why the young men love the older women do you wonder why the young men are attracted by the older women? It takes all sorts to make a world, and the old women have a particular charm for the men(people). Besides being independent, they know what they want, they have some experience(experiment), are more opened here is some of the reasons which make them so attractive. It could also interest you: why the women love the married men(people) Stages to be followed: 1 The young men love the mature women because they know much better how to check(control) their feelings. They are adults and their behavior is more reasonable.	Old	Age - Over 65s	1/109	0.917

neoasura Maybe you've been with women (older or not doesn't matter) who didn't have their life together. Someone who needs constant reassurance has self-esteem issues. I am almost 42 and I remember that when I was physically at the top I was so insecure for... nothing ? And now that I can see I'm not perfect I acknowledge it, I do my best to be healthy and happy, with or without a man is not important, and that's it :) I saw so many younger women being very insecure and when they asked me for advice I tried to help them if I could. I'm not saying I don't have any insecurity. Who says that is lying bug time, but it's how you deal with them that makes the difference. I found more mature women (without any underlying issue) being more at peace with themselves than the younger and fresher women. And why older women should feel alone? What I mean is why the OLDER? Everyone feels alone from time to time. If they are needy is because they are insecure and that has nothing to do with age . Cheers and have a great 2019! I had quite a few older women in the past the last one was 2yrs ago with a very eye pleasing 70y.r colombian cougar who stays in great shape aside from the obvious of age , she is still very sexy to me and the love making was incredible. I brought an end to her 10yr dryspell after being a widow for so long. The only problem was my time with her was limited since she lives in NJ and I'm in FL. We're currently on a open relationship but at some point we both want to be with each other.	Age	Age - General	1/100	1.0

Sorry, but you can't say that about all older women or men. I have met and served (military) with 22 year old's who were far more mature than some 35 year old's I've been around. If an older woman actually means what she says then yeah, OK.... But everyone plays "some" games..... I will say this. Older women don't play as many games as younger women do, especially in the realm of sex . The older woman has had lots of sex in her life (probably) so she isn't as guarded or insecure about telling someone what she wants. The older woman also knows that sex is pretty important to a lot of guys so there are far less games when it comes to that, than with younger women.	Sex, Woman	Gender - General	6/128	4.688

People assume 'children' are the definitive status symbol for relationships. Your relationship means nothing if you don't reproduce apparently. Also; Women can have children up to 45. Idky the 30 propaganda keeps getting pushed -every month one of my friends between 30-37 is pregnant. Also-Not everyone wants kids. Orphans also exist.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/51	1.961

If you want tons of kids (which many did back in the day, as a lot died), then you need to start banging women while they are younger so more are likely to survive. In return, women couldn't earn the same amount of money as men and therefore had to find someone with resources rather than someone they were attracted to physically. So older men and younger women were more likely to hook up (although if you actually look at old records, a lot of young people just married each other). However, in modern times most babies tend to survive and you can generally pop out a couple in your 30s/early 40s (later with IVF, but it's more of a hassle) and they will be healthy. And women can and do go into well paid careers, so no longer need to rely on men for resources. Which has massively levelled the playing field. Women can now date men because they actually like them, same as men do. If they don't find older men attractive, they can just date younger men. Young men in their 20s/30s can date a cougar and if she dies before him (likely) then he not only gets her resources/pension along with any kids they had (now grown and off his hands), but he can still have a second wife when he is older (and now wealthier) if he wants more kids. He can get the best of both worlds. In return, the women can focus on their careers when young and do the cougar thing later on. A lot of people don't really care about having kids anyway, so there is no 'ticking biological time bomb' for them to worry about.	Old	Age - Over 65s	1/285	0.351

There is that element of just wanting you for one thing. Yes they enjoy your company and find you attractive but for the majority of younger men it is temporary, short term and not a serious type of relationship. Also women are to marry up or marry their equal. You don't want someone who is a gold digger, has mummy issues or needs an entry visa to your country. Look out for red flags. If you have enough common interests and the man has children or not interested in reproducing it might work but this kids thing needs to be openly addressed. since you brought the mental answer, I'd like to contribute to this in terms of physical matters and sexual attraction and it's basically what I think is happening, an old woman does arouse a young man sexually and sometimes even more than a young lolly, especially good looking old women, and it's simple, a man's bio radar is looking for 2 things 1- reproduction 2- reproduction of healthy children, a mother-like non neotenous looking woman plays this mind trick that she fits being a mother, she is able to bear children but with the baby-face high school girl, that's mostly abscent , and if this mother-like woman who is say 40 50 is good looking and shows little to no signs of aging all over her body compared to women of her age , this means that she has healthy genes and she can bear healthy children unlike a young girl who looks fresh just because she's still young, thats how young people look like so her freshness is not a guarantee of healthy genes the way it is with an attactive old woman . Let's put this into plain and direct language....Older women let's say around 40 +/- are open direct and know what they want with no games are much easier to get into bed. Yes it's all about the easy availability of sex . As long as she is still reasonably physically attractive she can get almost any younger guy for sex . Both parties win in that the younger guy just wants easy sex and the older female wants to get validation that she still has sexual desire. Older women are more sexually experienced than younger guys like I do(I'm 18 & I'm about to turn 19 soon). Older Women are more serious than younger women (despite their cute attractiveness) that keeps checking their phones every single 5 minutes. Most women say I'm a very nice guy, but I'm too shy to get a girlfriend(All I do to get a girl is by singing them a love song, which is old school heavy metal) I feel like I'm just another needy person who ends up being in the friend-zone, & a girl goes for the bad boys to have sexual relations outside of marriage(some of them)(Hebrews 13:4)..... Trust me, your * average * younger guy isn't really thinking seriously about a relationship with women - nevermind an older one! That isn't a knock on the older woman at all, btw. The young guy generally sees; a together, hopefully attractive, likely easier -going, sexually -experienced woman [that he is lucky enough to find wants to sleep with him]. He then simply goes and fills his 'fun' boots... :)	Woman	Gender - General	2/71	2.817

I'm 24. I love a woman who's 41 years old . She's married & not happy with her husband. I love her to the moon but I just can't tell her that. I'm scared what will she think of me. When she cries I cry whenever I look at her I just want to squeeze her inmy arms and tell her that I'll never let anyone hurt her emotionally or physically anymore. But idk what should I do, I feel confessing my love to her would be wrong as she's married. What should I do?	Old, Woman	Age - Over 65s, Gender - General	2/95	2.105

What if ur n a relationship with an older woman but she had been emotionally damaged by other guys that got her pregnant & then left her but ur n love with her & still young to the point that u have to either choose to b with her or not? My career is very important to me but it requires me to build clientele & network with others. But she is not sure of what she wants to do. Doesn't want to better herself or anything. Jus kind of n limbo & basically looking for a man to save her. Am I jus thinking too much on it? Btw I'm 25 & she is 37. I feel like I made the wrong choice of trying to move on without her but since I broke up with her she recently found a rebound & now has feelings for that person. She has 3 kids & I don't have any children nor want any. Is it worth risking everything I want to work for to try to work it out with her & do both my career & b with her? I feel like her only intentions n life right now r jus to b loved by someone & make them happy but I love her & n love with so much that I want to c her do better for herself instead of jus being settled & relaying on someone to take care of her bc that's what all her past relationships been like. Should I save her or jus move on bc ikno that 80 of me wants to work it out but puts a lot of stress on me & the other 20 percent is like "hey man ur thinking too much it will work out" & jus carry on the stress of jus being with her & making her happy plus the children too bc when I was n a relationship with her i was thinking to myself that it's not jus abt her, It's abt her AND her kids. I feel like that's a lot for a person my age to handle the moment. Idk it's very very VERY complicated & I felt like it's my fault bc i ddnt communicate with her enough to want to work it out. My family background has always been the type of men to do it all & make sure there significant other is happy with them & safe. But now she has kinda sorta moved on with someone bc she is so used to having someone next to her, have sex with , & jus tlk. I want that with her but n the long run I want to make sure we r both financially str8 bc she has THREE teenagers to care of. Ikno it's not my responsibility but I feel like it is based off of how the way she views me. Ikno it's a long message but if I could tlk to u & get some advice I would definitely appreciate it. Another thing, I jus don't feel like for me personally I'm jus not rdy for children to b n my life right now. I swear I wish I had more time to figure it out. Bc she is gorgeous as hell. Very loyal & will do anything for her man. I don't want another man to have those qualities of that beautiful woman that I love. I want us to grow together but the same time I push her so much to try to get a better job or do something that she loves to do but her insecurities get n the way of all that. I miss her so much & wish this feeling would go away. We still txt & tlk hoping that one day she would realize that she had a good man but the same time I was the one to let her go. Idk I'm jus foolish & maybe I did the right decision to break up with her but the same time I'm feeling regret. I jus want us to grow together but the fact that I have to leave her a lot to pursue my career to make things better for us hinders us a lot. I feel like she wants a "stay home man" & I jus can't do that right now. I'm tryna make money for us to live comfortably & b happy. Another thing is that idk if I'm jus strung over her bc when I'm with her i do

Lilman Yellow Older women are just the definition of "cool" they are not cringy instagram girls that care for nothing more in life than to follow the trends and be popular on stupid pathetic social media, older women always seemed to me very promiscuous , seductive, dominant, interesting, caring, Independent, powerful, dangerous, loving, wild, non-conformist with a lot of character and personality! and as a 20 year old guy I'm always falling head over heels in love with these ladies, my kinda lovers! but sadly I never had any chance with them and fail to get their attention I think most likely because it's taboo here where I live	Nothing, Old, Promiscuous, Yellow	Age - Over 65s, Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Asian (East-China, Japan, Korea, Philippines, Vietnam), Gender - Female sexuality, Nationality - Chinese, Nationality - Japanese	6/108	5.556

I've always preferred older women. Not old women – but say 7 to even 20 years older if they were real good looking and had nice personalities.Recently though I started dating a woman who's 14 years younger than me – it just sort of happened. I'm kinda ticked off about it too because I've tried hard over the years to find a really great older woman to mixed results. Some success, a lotta bum outs and failures.Why the fuck do women love older men? My God had you told me when I was in high school all these high school girls want to screw men old enough to be their fathers I would have started chasing older tail back then, instead of waiting. Girls that age with a few exceptions fucking hate boys their own age – and that's when men need to get pussy the most. I'm older now – and I have half the fucking sex drive I did at age 20 and the women can't stop fucking falling over me now that I'm older and could give 2 fucks about half of them.....Seriously – they should set up a system where older women near their peaks sleep with teenaged dudes – it would seriously solve a lot of societal problems. And let the young bimbos go chase the old farts, it seems to be what 3/4 of them want anyway.... In my early 30s and I've been attracted to mature and older women my whole life, but my reasons are a bit different from most guys (though I agree with yours too), I'm genuinely interested in what your opinion would be on a few things. Sorry this is pretty long, lol:1. I act and feel way younger than my real age, and I'm behind my peers in terms of milestones, life development, and achieving things most people around my age did years ago, so because I'm still learning myself, I feel way more relaxed and comfortable with women in their 40s-50s I can look up to and get life advice from. While I'll do everything I can to help people and I can be serious and I really care about others, I have no idea how to BE the mature older one, which is why I wouldn't date a younger girl (like 18-25). I also don't want to be even remotely perceived as a pedo. Women in their 30s like me probably think I could never be boyfriend or stepdad material since I'm so far behind them.2. I'm very nostalgic about my past and I just love retro stuff in general. I easily bond with a 50 year old woman about the 80s (or a 65 year old about the Woodstock/hippie era), and I think it also simply reminds me of being a kid, because the same types of girls I liked when they were my 20 year old babysitters are now like 45.3. I have some gender identity issues, I have a strong feminine side and love to just hang out with them and kinda be "one of the girls". I'd just think older women would be more cool with that, and less cliquey and selective than younger women are. There ARE a lot of pervy older men, so it's understandable that young women are on the lookout for creeps trying to get in their pants, so I'm even more careful talking to younger female friends just to make sure they don't think that about me, which is one of my biggest fears. Older ladies invite me to socially hang out much more and it's awesome.4. Confidence. Which you brought up. I think it's so awesome when they just say what they feel and have that "don't give a fuck" attitude, and that can mean flirting with me or making jokes or just being extroverted and outgoing in general. When someone does that, i feel it makes me more comfortable and gives me the green light to do that too. 5. I don't have to worry about being cool like I do with girls younger than me. With a 20 year old (even mature ones), I'm always watching my references and also trying even harder to look young because there's always that fear of her thinking I'm lame and more like her dad than her if I talk about stuff I grew up with; or if I say something serious or mature sounding or give her advice. Again I'm just not comfortable with being viewed as "an older guy" because I still feel like a kid, just a VERY mature and old school kid if that makes any sense? It's like I'm perpetually 12 in 1996, lol.6. They're just sexier and more beautiful to me. The entertainment industry and so many men are brutally ageist and sexist towards them and it drives me crazy. I'm a feminist too, and I think women are absolutely amazing throughout their lives. I'm not just talking about looks (that itself would be sexist), but their minds.	Age, Ageist, Crazy, Gender, Lame, Old, Woman	Age - General, Age - Over 65s, Gender - General, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	12/608	1.974

Look ! Let's be very honest ..if it's a fling a guy wants .. that's fine my son of 32 has left his wife and daughter of 7 for a woman who is who is 20 years his senior . Basically the same age as his step mother . Now I do not know if it's "mommy " issues he has , but I as his father cannot condone the relationship. How can I condone my son's relationship with a woman who is almost the same age as me ? . There is no future in this relationship . He could be a widower at 50 if he marries her ...not that it will happen because she is getting a fat monthly maintenance from her ex husband , a lawyer , whom she divorced ..so I dont know if he is just her plaything for now she won't marry and lose the fat monthly paycheck from her ex ... and he will probably be booted out in time to come ...He can never support her in the lifestyle she is used to ... but sadly , he is wasting valuable years of his life . If it lasts at least she will have someone to push her wheelchair ... he is such a fool ... but as always .. you have to let them bang their heads to learn a lesson . On a serious note, it really depends on the person and the qualities they look for in another person, despite all else. Maturity has a lot to do with it as well, along with the type of relationship your looking for. Physically, we all age and get older. As we age , our priority level changes. I hear a lot of negative comments on here about older women, so just let me quash some misconceptions. No, they are not desperate, not easy, able to see right through BS and drama. Do you all think of your mother's the way you think of older women? What about a sister ? Or your auntt? At the end of the day, beauty, whether inside or out, beauty is in the eyes of beholder. Kevin Cook : It's true for gigolos but can pertain to female golddiggers with their sugar daddies too. It can also pertain to people of the same age . Marrying for money is not restricted to age -differential couples. There's a difference between a man's attraction to an older woman and:a man's preference for older womena man's propensity for mature womena man's proclivity for women in a particular higher age -groupa man's predilection for sexy women who are his senior .A twenty year old man being involved with a twenty five year old woman is less spectacular than a fifty year old man and a fifty five year old woman . The factors that drive the attraction/desire are sometimes physical and sometimes emotional.Excuse me while I go rub some ointment on my wife's toes,ankles,and heels,some balsam on her joints and backbone, and some liniment on her neck,chest,and arms.I have to do it now,as I have to hit the clubs later. What do u think of men who are very attracted to a woman . He thinks she is in her early forties. She looks, acts and thinks like she is 20 years younger than her 64 years. But, based on her maturity, experience and overall way, he is told her real age of 64. Do you think that is a reason for him pulling out, even if he is 55 but looks 65 and even if he is 67 and looks it? Even if he has a stomach that is larger than an 9 month pregnant woman . Older women if she reached psychological maturity she is more respectful, has no feminist programming, more spiritual, less nagging, less obsessive about materialistic things, knows what men want, and she knows what she wants, its a relief, to be fair theres younger women who possess such quality. In terms of look it doesn't matter what age she is as long as she is my type , and when someone possess the physical preference i like it doesn't matter what age or how young or old , i will still feel the attraction. another thing also is some females energy is attractive regardless of age once im around them i cant help but feel the love. I agree in part but not total. There is a direct correlation to younger men seeking older women who either don't play the game now, or never did. As for these younger men leaving the older women, there I must contest your findings. In my research the younger men that fall in love with an older woman tend to stay with her. Admittedly, it's a small segment of the population. But it does exist and these men tend to not change their mind nor change direction.	Woman	Gender - General	1/86	1.163

Susan Winter Its really nice to be able to listen to someone who understands how strong it can be. To ache for a real woman so bad, as a young man. That only an older womans touch can comfort you. Hi Susan! I am Mike from the UK. I haven't much of a life but I am still attracted in my mind to a lovely older woman who left the flats I live in last October. She came from London originally and I now cling onto the fact that you actually go through more main bulk of built up area by rail between Wolverhampton and Birmingham New Street than between Watford Junction and London Euston. I am envious of her and envious of London through her. I would like to cuddle her and cry to her.	Woman	Gender - General	1/96	1.042
Hi Mike. I'd suggest you identify the components that made you notice her, and identify why you are drawn to her. In those clues, you'll find the key to what you want. Then, begin to see if that exists in other women (independent of age).	Age	Age - General	1/45	2.222
Awww! Thanks Susan! You are a Very Nice, Wise, Kind and Mature Woman ! I have never had a relationship with an adolescent or women, and my mind functions like a child in some ways. I think, not meaning to go on about myself too much, she was simply, always nice to me! There has been an instance in which I have made her feel a bit vulnerable! I fancy women quite easily at times. I just hope she is happy and contented in life and is enjoying her life as much as possible! Cheers - Mike.	Woman	Gender - General	1/96	1.042
Damn Susan, I'd definitely smash you. After pursuing a 49-year-old woman who insists a relationship with me would never work (genuinely busy with work and school; listens to a song called "Back to Black ", sounds obvious?), I've adapted my aura to fully welcome older women in my life. My speed of growth as a person increased exponentially and I believe at some point I'll end up in an emotionally and spiritually fulfilling partnership with an older woman . Thank you for your wisdom!	Black, Woman	Ethnicity - Black, Gender - General	3/82	3.659
Hey Susan! I'm writing this because I've always liked older women since I was 21. I don't like girls my age . I met a girl I met at my church today and I saw her and I think she's very pretty. I enjoyed your video, Susan. Its nice to know there are other women out there like me. Ive been in a 1 year relationship w a hard-working, sweet,gentle & good-hearted Jamaican man who is just a few years older than my son, and I have gone thru the gamut of feelings you mentioned in your other video. This was a barrier I had to break thru for my own happiness. I am in no way a cougar, and frankly, I resent the title because I never went out seeking younger. My relationship is also not just about sexual fulfilment. People show their ignorance when they make comments Assuming its just about him being my boy toy, or that he is somehow using me for my money. It shows me how limited in their thinking they are, and it is sad they don't yet understand the reality of 'connection'. I'm with my guy because we CONNECT. Its that simple. And connection doesn't measure by race, age, looks, etc. To SW Sweetie, in my own case, my guy not only has more income than me, but he treats me more than I treat him(because I simply cant afford it). I'm sure there are some younger guys who use more mature females for shallow & materialistic reasons..in much the same way some younger females can use more mature men for their own financial & materialistic gains, but its very limited thinking to assume that older instantly means more $$$, and younger, less $. What gave me peace about my situation was this: None of us knows how long we have on this earth. Youth is no guarantee of long life. Younger choosing younger is also no guarantee of true happiness & long lasting love. Peace, love and happiness is a precious GIFT. And if you are lucky or blessed enough to find & have it, how foolish it would be to walk away from it. My guy and I make eachother happy. And that's all that matters. And, when/if it ends, I will still smile and be glad for the experience. -Melanie	Age, Race, Sexual	Age - General, Ethnicity - General, Gender - General	3/349	0.86
Susan Winter unseasoned open minded men I should say, it's not necessarily about money it is truly as you say about clarity, having a foundation for what you as a mature woman want out of a man. I came from a background where communication wasn't paramount...it was very disorganized (to put it charitably). Mature woman bring to the table a sense of foundation, boundaries, guild lines and unconditional love (for example what my bride brings to the table everyday). I am 42 and my husband is 29. I was coming out of a 20 year marriage, and he was overcoming a personal and transformative tragedy of his own. What began as a supportive friendship quickly evolved into love and the desire for a life together. I never knew love felt like this....I had only ever daydreamt of it. However, there were challenges; primarily my insecurities about the age gap. Will he still find me beautiful when I am 60 and he is still in his youthful 40s? Will he "wake up" and decide he wants someone younger? What about children? I have 2 grown kids, but he has none. My fertility will inevitably decline as the years progress, and I feared I was robbing him of opportunity and a family, etc. Funny as it sounds, he worried I may "wake up" when HE is no longer "young" looking visually, or because he is not as advanced in his career as an older man, or because he may not have all of the wisdom and experience he feels I deserve. When we both realized how much of the best we wanted for one another, we decided to let our faith be greater than our fears. We have been together 3 years, married for 2. We have traveled the country, explored each other, and provided each other the support and safety to explore OURSELVES.....the greatest gift....acceptance of exactly who we are. After 4 miscarriages (due to my age , most likely), we accepted that children may not be in our future. A month after this acceptance, we became pregnant again....only this time we are expecting a healthy baby. We had our 3rd ultrasound last week and the doctor says its all looking really really good. Faith. In him. In myself. In us. Its bigger than any of my fears or insecurities. I loved this video....despite my faith, I certainly DO need reassurance every now and again. Beautifully said....it was very touching and so appreciated. Cheers to everyone on this beautiful journey of love that transcends time. Thank you!...	Age	Age - General	2/347	0.576

Colette Sadeghi I do agree with sexual satisfaction and drive. The same happens to me. To deny that I am very much attracted to younger men would be a lie, I am. Beauty and youth are always attractive. The question was more oriented about how to deal with social pressure and how to do our best to stay young without becoming pathetic. Balance is the harder thing to achieve in life. By being with somebody younger, we feel and already act younger. But how to deal with the nasty reality of aging with a much younger partner? I always felt comfortable around older folks than those....my own age , the maturity and life experience is a luxurious trait. I compare to spending time with my mother, aunts, grandma, etc. There's certain characteristics you can find within certain age ranges, my personality is combination of childlike (active imaginative, curious, optimistic, fun, etc) and old-soul (equanimity, resilience, laid-back, meditation, etc). With younger women, I hear they're looking for a certain archetype perpetuated by the media and western culture; e.g. bad-boy, rough-neck, etc. Also, there's a lot of head-games but these games don't really stimulate the head, but confuses it. There's a lot of energy involved, but it's like...they're never really content and always look for a roller-coaster high, a fiend for the dopamine lol. But wait a minute, maybe this has to do with mentality and culture more than an age number we constructed? Older women tend to be more secured and spiritual, this perhaps attracts younger me, myself included.	Age	Age - General	3/160	1.875

Honesty, younger girls are still in training to become Batman and not all of them have a really good role model at home or within their family, and does the ones talking about. Also the younger kids right now are the Millennials and they are a different kind of breed. I know I'm going to get hammered for this but a lot of women today or young ladies are giving women a Bad Name by their immaturity there craving for men's that are set up and that could take care of them, and those that are totally sucked in by Hollywood. That's why I stand up and support women to become independent, well-adjusted, and down to earth. Their beauty should come from within, where their strength and whizdom lay. Women need to be encouraged and supported. Most women I probably say all women had faced some sort of trauma in their lifetime whether it be sexual harassment, sexual assault, rape, or molestation when they were little. Some women on the other hand try to do masculine men, meaning feminist, so which I am not. Men have Abused women throughout centuries so a lot of them have been socialized in certain ways. If you start respecting women they will start respecting men. Some of the comments on here regarding women and sexual actions are just despicable improve my point. Some women out there don't let these few ignorant jackasses affect you because they do not represent all the good men out there who are decent, respectful, kind and loving because they don't and give the male species a bad name	Sexual	Gender - General	3/269	1.115

+rudy melgar I'm my Boyfriend Is 25 actually don't know where you get your info from you idiot I am 50 I was with a Iranian man who is 5 yrs older than me for 25 yrs. I left him . I have dated a number of different ages . my partner that I am with now was 24 when he met me on a dating app a year ago. I have always loved younger men ok so please don't assume stuff ok don't know where this idea came from and personally I can't stand men my age or older ok. by the way it takes much more than just liking older special woman like me you have to treat us with respect and kindness . not all of us want a fling or one night stand either . he does not want kids either which I'd great . he was on antidepressants when he met me because of me he is off them . I have saved a nice guy plus he is like me and does not bother with friends . who needs them when you have the best partner in the world.	Age, Woman	Age - General, Gender - General	2/195	1.026

Havaseet2 your response isnt nice to say and me I found my soulmate we were together before he went to prison he gets out in 2 years were getting married after he gets out we talk every day by phone him and I have a great connection which is scary at times but I'm slowly learning how to accept it and open my heart to him and as far as what you said yes it may be true what you say the divorce rate is high but they been together for 12 years that's a long time in this day and age we live in if it wouldn't have lasted it would've been only a year or maybe two years or five years they would've already been broken up but they lasted 12 years so it's highly likely that it'll will work since they got this far and yes people do cheat out there but you have to be a really strong person not to let that moment of weakness get to you ,if you really love someone you wouldn't hurt them you would go up to them and talk to them explain to them that feeling like you're having a moment of weakness so before I act on that weakness let's do X Y Z to fix this so I won't have thoughts of ever cheating on you and sometimes two people can work that issue out or spice up their marriage an older couple once told me to never let it get boring always be the way you were when you first met always complement them always make each other feel beautiful and if it's your soulmate that your truly madly in love with so in love that you would jump off the titanic to rescue them, that kind of love is easier cause that fire is hard to burn out when you are so in love with that person that's why you work through the little problems because you know it's too important you know you want to lose them because you know it's hard to find that kind of connection they may never find in their lifetime	Age	Age - General	1/362	0.276

Young women date older men mostly because of money, live like a princess with no agency and responsibilities, to be the central desire object and to be appreciated for what they are. This is a generalization, but that's true for most of time. Men date older women for the same reasons. They want to avoid paying everything, they also want to be appreciated for what they are instead of what they can provide, be a desire object, don't take too much responsibilities, access to sex easier... etc. These are the basic mindsets. Individuals may experience different things of course. The weird thing about older women is, they want younger men but still want to live like a princess. This is way too much. If you want a younger man, than expect to have more responsibilities, expect to pay for him, appreciate him for what he is. In that case you will be the man and he will be the woman . Youth and beauty are not free. Nowadays women can have younger for almost free, but this is changing fast because men are raising their standards dramatically. I was dating a 38 years old women when I was 20 and she still expected me to lead, to pamper her, pay for dates and activities... etc. Of course I got bored in just 1 month and left her. Then I was with a 35 years old she was more mature, bear more responsibilities, paying almost everything including dates, activities, holidays etc, usually pick me up after work with her car... etc. For me, it only works if the woman is in charge much more than me. If not, I simply go for younger women or women near my age . As long as you've found a formula that works for you, then all is well. Some older women are treated to dinners and trips by their younger men. Some are given flowers, and picked up in his car. How each older woman needs to be treated will define the type of younger men that she attracts. And, like yourself, I know a number of older women who are happy to be the breadwinner and the financial supporter of the relationship. Their partner's are not gigolos or users. They're good guys that love them, and also happen to have little financial resources. In this case the woman takes on the traditional male role.	Woman	Gender - General	2/112	1.786
I think my attraction to older women comes from a different place. Let me explain... in my case, the hottest thing I can imagine is an older woman looking at me straight in the eyes as her eyes accept and admit that she finds me sexy, as I hold her in a sensual way, while being really close to each other... my attraction to them comes from seeing a beautiful woman who "shouldn't" be embracing the possibility of getting with a young guy like me but yet we vibe so well that we just want to have sex and connect. The other things mentioned in the video are a bonus. Though being too straight forward can be a turn off, we do want to play a tiny bit, we want to chase a little. This is one smart woman she said all but one reason I only see older women! I want to know if I go the extra mile to show a woman I think highly of her by just bring flowers or leave her a note to find later it was appreciated and they know how to make me feel like a good man for just cooking her dinner or hold my hand during a walk it's nice to know she views me a special and she does not have to hide how she feels. I was taught that very young by a older woman and am thankful because I want the honesty they give if they feel things for me they tell me and that helps me be better to her. Still say the 4th reason for me is all she missed	Woman	Gender - General	3/141	2.128

As long as the woman stays fit, has a good attitude and puts a lot of effort into her look with the use of hot clothes and well applied make up, she is desirable regardless of age . However I do think that cougars and feminist belong to the undesirable sort. Being a self proclaimed cougar is about having an ego boost, not finding love. Hi SusanI met this lady last year. The first time our eyes locked she winked at me and I smile and I said hi. I like her immediately. We've been chatting for some months now. She likes my presence and I like hers. I'm attracted to her and she's attracted to me. The thing is, she's super busy and she told me about it and I don't have a problem with that. We meet maybe twice a week for a very brief moment. There are times when we meet I can tell she missed me and there are times she treat me like a friend. I told her that I like her about maybe a month we've been talking. She said she likes me as well but she's busy and meeting her is on her schedule.My problem is, sometimes when we meet she'll treat me like friend and sometimes she'll treat me like a lover, sometimes we'll hug and kiss and sometimes she'll hug me with a distance between us and looking on the other side while we're hugging, like she's trying to avoid a kiss. At first she used to take time to return my texts like hours to days and now she's responding more frequently. I think there's improvement on that area. When we meet she always update me as to what's going on in her life. Ever since we started talking I never been her house but she showed me where it is and she never been to mine. I don't know what to do because is like we're not going anywhere. She wants a friend with benefits and I don't have a problem with it but it's not going anywhere. She enjoys compliments and flirting but other than nothing is happening.What can I do in such a situation?	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/305	0.328

I've realized that some older women DO play silly games just like the younger ones though but its strange, its like they always come running back but by that time I've lost interest. Ain't got time for that. This has happened a few times in fact. I've had older women come onto me and I've shown interest back hoping we can at least get some dinner and get to know each other, then after, they hit me with "Your a nice person but because of our age difference i don't think it would work out" (even though they originally shown the first interest) and i'm like ok, it was good meeting you. So I've moved on, them SAME older women who rejected me want to hook up again and i'm thinking WTF?? LOL	Age	Age - General	1/133	0.752
We hope that with age we mature. Some people don't. Not all older women are aware and self-empowered. I've seen that fact repeatedly. The woman you're speaking about is confused. You're clear, though. And that's the most important thing. Best wishes.	Age, Woman	Age - General, Gender - General	2/41	4.878

She says older women don't play games, however I would disagree. From what I have found, for most older women, a relationship with a younger man is mainly about sex .I've dated older women, and that's always the way it went. They were mainly just interested in sex , and nothing more.If you're a younger guy, and that's what you're looking for, that's perfectly fine. But in my experience, don't necessarily count on it being anything more than that, because if you do, you'll end up getting your heart broken. There are unaware, insecure older women. Certainly. However, I must argue the point that it's 'mainly about sex .' Though that may have been your experience to date, I've researched, met, and known over 200 couples where their love was real, as was their commitment.	Sex	Gender - General	1/44	2.273
Susan Winter - What are some signs then to look for to know that it's not just about sex for an older woman ? Sex, Woman	Gender - General	4/66	6.061
Some women never gain depth, regardless of their years on this earth. Just like some men never become self-aware, independent of all they've experienced. I'm sorry you've only met one type of mature woman who's still a little girl playing games. It's not indicative of the ladies I know.	Woman	Gender - General	1/49	2.041
The Cowboy. To answer your question: Does she ask you about your goals and dreams? Is she interested in knowing YOU? Does she take her time to get to know you and want to see you, spend times with you, values you as a person and a human being? Or does she suggest after a couple of drinks that you go home together? Look for the woman who 'likes you as a person' and is also attracted to you as a man.//About getting the family to accept her. If she does all of the above, her value to the family will be self-evident. Keep in mind, however, that some family members may choose to not accept her. That's their issue. But a loving woman who supports you in your dreams and goals will have a totally different vibe than a 'good time girl.'	Woman	Gender - General	2/143	1.399
The Cowboy I don't mean anything! What I mean to say you guys can offer something extra than that! It doesn't mean that we are strong independent woman we don't accept love, for god sake u guys no idea that exactly what we woman missing in our life! Even though I'm in love with an older woman but the reason for me that I fell in love with my GF was the first reason is that she's sexually attractive for a woman in her 60's and second because she has a good heart by being trustworthy,honest and willing to sacrifice for me for her mercy to me by truly being in love with me and I'm in my 30's by the way. I knew someone, named Jolie. 18 years ago last month, we did some interaction. We hugged a few times. She wanted to make a date with me. Then before my loin firing hug, she said "cause I looooooove...!" She was almost about to turn 45 that month, I was 20. She has a daughter. If we unusually dated, so many people would think we're mother & son. We're not. She's too old for me, but if I was born N the year 1953 like her, we'd b dating. Maybe she was looking for someone single to mingle with.She probably divorced many years ago. That same evening, we had a party, we danced. Also we slow danced to a pair of songs. One was The Manhattans' "Shining Star", then a moment later, LTD's "Share My Love".I held her tight! Then she tried to jump on my back. I missed my chance to c her because I was church :(Then N July 1999, we met again, we hugged, & she said " I love you". Haven't seen her ever since. I thought I heard that she dealt with a situation with her father. But wherever she may b, I might c her with lots of white hair, 63 years old , a few wrinkly skins. IF...we were N a relationship, we'd b exchanging 's, stopping by our house more often, we'd also b sitting close to each other all day. I would like to c her dressed up N a bikini top, some mini jean shorts, & some beach shoes. Or why wasn't she born N the same year as me, 1978?I can't believe I still remember that heartwarming evening. God bless her. That's my story, & I'm sticking to it.	Old	Age - Over 65s	2/292	0.685

Hi. Good morning. I am enjoying with your information. Please could you advise me what is the right way or what I have to do. I have been chatting with one woman older than me by more than 25 years and we are planning to meet soon what I have to do ???and what I have not to do??? We like each other so much	Woman	Gender - General	1/65	1.538
Treat her as you would any other woman you like. Be honest, respectful, and let yourself have fun.	Woman	Gender - General	1/18	5.556
Why I (20 years old) love older women: they are mature.I'd rather have a 40 year old woman than 18 year old girl, because my words they are so childish. Being childish is not the biggest issue, but that I have to be their 'babysitter' and carry them through life when they are lazy and just want to jump the bandwagon. I am just a more mature type of man who demands maturity from the lady aswell.And thanks... Never has a video summed something up like you did. Are you with a younger guy? How old is he? I'm happy to know you value those qualities in a woman . And yes, it's normally the terrain of an older woman . Thanks for your comment.	Woman	Gender - General	2/25	8.0

Susan Winter is it out of the question to be 19 and really being attracted to 35-45 year old women? i really like the mature look on some of them, and the fact there (usually) more comfortable in their own skin, and open (unless you know, they're being bitchy) is it useless to approach? too young on my end? not really looking for something serious, just being like her "boy toy" or something. Idk why, i just love some of the older women.	Old	Age - Over 65s	1/83	1.205

I know from experience that a 19 year-old can indeed love and partner with an older woman . Just out of curiosity: if you're interested, why do you remove the concept of something serious?	Woman	Gender - General	1/33	3.03
Susan Winter No problem. I'm soo proud of our relationship. Ever since I was 18 I tried and tried to ask out gorgeous women 50 plus. At 21 my beautiful lady gave me a chance, and now I strive to make her happy as so she does to me. You're also very beautiful woman . You're very much like her. I love your channel. Thank you Susan for clearing things out! I'm 28 but i'm incredibly attracted to women in their 50's. I've been with 2 for now and i would never date a girl my age if i had a chance to be with an older woman . But i have a question. For example how does a young guy approach a single woman celebrity in her 50's??? That's something i'd really like to know. Especially if she's still hot and is probably desired by a lot of men. How does a young man approach her and convince her that he is not like the others and stands out from the masses? I know my question is odd but i have something in mind and i would really appreciate It if you could answer.	Age, Woman	Age - General, Gender - General	3/130	2.308 sloppy toppe I think men need women and women need men and that really is not only about sexual interaction. Women have used men and men have used women and so now they are all super cautious over each other. For me I do not really need a man for say because the only man i need is upstairs in heaven. First Name How not to love a woman who can give you all that you desire. And even more? Forget about toy boys. For that, women have vibrators. Entering in a relationship with somebody younger is an excellent experience for both partners.	Woman	Gender - General	1/42	2.381

I agree with your 3 reasons. I will add another: older women are often better, more enjoyable conversationalists and for a man who likes to chat about different things, different topics, this can work in his favor. Your reasons will apply to men who already have their affairs in order. My recommendation for older women who are interested in dating younger men is they find one who has his house in order, has a good solid life, knows who and what he is, where he wants to go in his life. He may be further along in his career than most men his age , be more informed on current events, social, political issues than most men his age , have a stronger sense of responsibility, purpose, duty, greater interest in serving his community. Also, selecting a man who doesn't place a high priority on starting a family (at least not right now) can also be advantageous as he will be less likely to focus on a woman's reproductive potential, opening the door for him to date a significantly older woman . It takes a special kind of man who is willing to date women older than himself, he needs to have a strong healthy positive self-confidence, a healthy inner strength. This is the kind of man an older woman should look for in a younger man.	Age, Woman	Age - General, Gender - General	4/224	1.786
Scott, this is a wonderful series of observations. Thank you! I love all that you've written and agree wholeheartedly. The younger men that find themselves attracted to an older woman are quite special. They're advanced, as you've stated, for their age . They require dynamic content in their mate to match their won level of awareness. Truly a lovey commentary you've left here. I appreciate your watching the video and your wise words. You left out that young women (as well as men) are often after money, status. Whereby an older person is comfortable in who they are. My short story:My soulmate and absolute love of my life started out as my business partner and best friend (first). We had some 11 years of great times and wonderful memories. The worst part was that because she was older we worried about what would happen as time went by. It did as time will, and sadly she did get cancer and pass away after a long hard battle. Me by her side in 2013. I now am 46 and alone with those memories and thoughts of her. Not a day goes by I don't almost buckle into a ball for the pain of her loss.Her family, who I had a decent relationship found a way to get out of any legal wills etc., and paperwork she had in place because she had remained married on paper to her husband for reasons of convenience. Which she had planned to see her lawyer about prior to her falling ill.So the sentimental keepsakes and the security her and I built up over that period of time in our business the family pretty much pillaged. Accounts drained etc.Like I said however, I have the wonderful priceless loving memories with her and no one can take those from me. There is a massive emotional void left however. I would of course still go through all that again, because she was the absolute love of my life and best friend any man could ever want. Just know, the pain can be incredible, dealing with family members and older friends painful as well. Their friends who may have seemed so accommodating, understanding and friendly may not be so kind after all when they are no longer there. I found that out the hard way. People who for over a decade I thought were also friends of mine I found turned their backs on me (which I can still not understand). I had not changed, perhaps it was without her my age was more apparent or those creeping thoughts of age + money= gold digger ideas resurfaced. Although those fires we long thought had been extinguished. So, there is baggage. Be prepared for it. Expect & understand it and how & where it will originate. People may be cruel and you may find yourself on the outside looking back in at what you shared being stripped away piece by piece while going through the most painful point in your life. For me, yes it was of course still worth it. I still dance with her in my dreams and she still strokes my heart & soul.My apologies for my rambling.	Age	Age - General	2/463	0.432
Very well said and thank you for covering this topic :). Years ago i read your book and am thankful for it. Hello, Susan. Thank you for the advice. I told my grandmother last year that I was attracted to older women, and she understood and is very supportive of me. Now that I look at it, my celebrity crushes are older than me. Unfortunately, most of them are married and/or already dating someone, which I am happy for them. I wish them nothing but the best and I am hopeful that I'll find happiness myself one day.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/76	1.316
FANTASTIC OBSERVATION!! Thank you for this astute question. Your 'monkey wrench' is based on the visual, I believe. Certain generations of men aren't accustomed to feeling attraction to the qualities I mentioned. They're a nice perk, but the long-held supremacy of youth and beauty has a higher value ranking. The centuries old emphasis of these attributes was established when women had little power outside their family lives. Thanks for watching this video and sharing your great comment. haha. Staying in the southwest during the winter season, I get a kick out of this 'horse' reference, SavageInstitute. I do have to contest one point though: I've documented far too many long term relationships that have lasted fro decades despite their age gap difference. Granted, it's not for everyone. I get that. But having researched (and met) hundreds of these couples i must share what I know to be the facts.	Age	Age - General	1/72	1.389

Older women are like fine aged wine or a ripe juicy mango when it comes to sex . Truly beyond amazin, but only a plus. So mature, experienced, very understanding. Hot damn!! The meals...them home cooked meals :) Iv never met a women in her 20s that can cook on levels of one in her 40s, that alone is a turn on. So kind, caring and helpful, yet takes no shit. Dear Susan. Thank you for your video and for your reply to my comment. I will watch the others as soon as I can. When I was 26, a 39-year-old woman and I fell into deep love. Very sudden. Un coup de foudre, as the French say. It was wonderful. She was so mature and wise. It took her three months to cajole me into bed, and that side of our relationship lasted a couple of years. The love remains. There were misunderstandings and communication failures aplenty. I was young, and didn't know much about love. Now, I'm 66 and she's 79. We still love each other deeply. We are kindred spirits. It is still wonderful. Thank you. (You are magnificent, wise, very beautiful and brave.) (I have loved mature women all my life, never really cared for young ones. I was very shy, and found them scary. They returned the sentiment, and didn't have the time of day for me.) Keep up the good work. Love and admiration, jack	Woman	Gender - General	1/169	0.592
I didn't tell the whole story, I guess. The lady depicted (J) is not my Mrs.. I was in relationship with another woman , about my age (C), at the time of the lightning strike. We had been a couple for about five years at the time. She got very upset, of course, and took years to get over it. After we got married in '79, and my relationship with J. continued (non-sexually) C. came to know J and her family and quickly came to love them all. C. who is three years younger than I, met in college in 1970. We are now happily married 37 years. I am very lucky, having had two great loves in my life. May I ask, Ms. Sarissa, how old you and your partner are, now? All the best. Take care, and thank you, for your very nice comment. One thing that depresses me about this whole 'older women - younger men' subject is the variety of online dating sites on offer. . Plenty of Fish has an arbitrary policy requiring an age gap exceeding no more than 14 years. The other 'cougar' sites are geared towards men looking for sex only or men looking for a rich woman to look after them. There are a few other generic age gap dating sites, but they seem to mostly populated by scammers and older men looking for younger women. I don't know what the answer is... (Unless you know of free dating site that's good.)	Age, Sex, Woman	Age - General, Gender - General	4/105	3.81
+thefirst shallbelast I know that. But are you sure you are not just being SHALLOW and only judging women by outer appearance?
