The woman in this video looks like a caucasian Arab with a black ancestor. She would be considered mix race in USA. I am a brown skin man with wavy , straight, curly hair combo. I can pass for southern Indian , and some think I'm also a black -latino, however I am afro-American. Both my parents are brown skin African American. However, I have proof, photographs, of my maternal White-caucasian Irish great grandfather and his Native indigenous Wife. My paternal great grandfather is English-caucasian. Race is still a big deal in America although we are a "melting pot". Race is polarized in USA and other places in the world. If you dont have an issue with your family member marrying and having kids with a blackman, especially brown or darker, you are unique. Why, because we carry the highest melanin and can genetically dominate all other ethnic , with some exceptions of dark indians. Despite the prejudices and distrust of others races, and some blacks that suffer from phyic Trauma ( see book phyisc truama: slavery and the African American, by Sultan Latif) I love, love my color, and black culture, although most rap artist and media portrays us as ignorant, lazy, criminals, and low intelligence. There is ONLY ONE kind of American: he (she) is Lakota or Cheyenne, Apache or Comanche..Kiowa and a hundred other people (Pueblo and Shoshone, etc)..the rest are just here to take over and trash the North American Continent (including the Mayans who sometimes come north when they are Central and south peoples)..Let this be a lesson to those who do not unite and fight off the "others" who, like Julius Caesar, will enslave you, kill you, wipe your culture off the Earth map. Earth does seem to be this way. I looked at the 3 Giza pyramids the other day and realized, "The old Egyptians-prior to Ptolemy Greeks had NOTHING TO DO WITH THOSE power plants. The bottom line is Yes, middle eastern people, and some North Africans are allowed to mark Caucasian on the census. However, let one of them commit a crime in the U.S such as a terrorist act, and I guarantee they won't be covered by the media as Caucasian or White. Yes, and you also have African Americans who look white or similar to whites but aren't white. Below is just one example. [LINK]	African	Ethnicity - Black	1/23	4.348

Arab manLet’s talk a historical fact which is this. White specifically refers to people who are of European descent and Arabs are not European. The historical fact is Middle Eastern people, North Africa people, and the Horn of African people were call classified as a sub-group of Caucasian. This classification as a sub-group of Caucasian had nothing to do with skin color. Take a look at this old one-minute documentary of Europeans classifying black looking sub-Saharan Africans in the Horn of Africa as Caucasian. [LINK] Jet black Africans from the Horn of Africans have the same options to mark the Caucasian box on the U.S census. However, the reality is they will still be perceived as BLACK and the same goes for Arabs they are perceived as Arabs not WHITE. If you disagree let an Arab commit a crime in the U.S and see how he or she is perceived/identified by the media. You have to check white, because the US is about black and white. It’s not about your real colour but about a dualism. So if your ethnicity is a bit ambiguous vies a vie the original social situation after 1776 then for convenience you would have to be put in one of the limited categories. The Japanese also got some kind of honorary white recognition in apartheid South Africa after they got rich, so it is not even necessarily about colour as much as it is about the colour of your money ;-). It does not make much difference to me as an observer, but I am sure it is better than being categorised as black , so enjoy it, if not lobby for a new colour status, like with sex , how many categories are there for sex that just seem to have popped up over night. I am not sure what other category you could be put in, but I am curious to hear some suggestions.	Black, Ethnicity, Sex	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General, Gender - General	5/166	3.012

" white without the privilage"?? what privilege do we " whites have???" she just .are a racist coment and .....she's allowed! And why the remark what's with these people? We are Europeans Caucasians our skin is not white it is a very very light shade of brown cream with a touch of pink for high light writing paper is white. we are a mixture of various shades of light browns with blue, green , grey, icy blue, some even of us with green eyes are red heads with gold flecking our eyes, some of us are darker with black hair and brown eyes we are all native to the different parts of Europe and the caucuses mountains. Calling us white is to dehumanize our beautiful people Just like calling Africans. " black " they are not black just lighter or darker varying shades of brown. these designations are demeaning and dehumanizing!! Never would you hear someone like her calling her muslim brethren " browns" she would be the first to cry racist if I as a Scandinavian woman called her a brown person!! so where are my privilages? my husband is of German desent he has yet to see his privilages! he works hard and brings home an oppressively small cheque.the only privilage my European brethren see is in the racist imaginations of people like her's and those racists who think like her! wiseguy 26 North Africans are white though. As for Arabs in general, they belong to the Semitic branch of the Caucasian race . The Arabic race is a term for a morphological subtype of the Caucasoid race , as used in physical anthropology. Arabs ARE white since race is determined by skull and bone structure as well as place of origi and not skin color. Arabs and Middle Eastern people, as well as Hispanic people and Northern African people all originate from the Caucasian mountains and share the same skull and bone structure as people from Western Europe that differs from people that are negroid and mongoloid .Just like there are various shades of negroid ( black ) and mongoloid (asian) people, there are various shades of caucasoid (white) people. Arab and Hispanic are ethnicities and not races. The woman in this video is white/Caucasian/caucasoid. She may not like it, but it's what she is. That makes absolutely no sense. Why would we want to claim those civilizations if we have our own to be proud of? North African natives are Caucasian, the Arabs that live in North Africa are also Caucasian, but they are not European White Caucasian. There is a difference. Either way, the ones that do claim "civilizations" are mostly the blacks.	African	Ethnicity - Black	1/60	1.667

haisai indians and pakistans are primarily caucasoid originally with m with indian and bangli having some oceanic. How can you link indians and pakistans to taiwanese or korean? They are closer to persians. They have skull shape of caucasoid the hair, the nose, the eyelid and dna and even linguistically there's little in common and india is known as the indo european region. There are only 4 race classification. Geographically and culturally they are asian in asia. anyone can be asian. You just have to be born in asia and reside in. There are tocherians and russians who have lived in china for hundreds and hundreds of years and are native to china now. They are caucasian dna but are asian because they call china their home now and live in asia. How do you group them? The mongols invasion was way later in human history so mongol genes are still a minority. It left alot of effects leading to ottoman and ww1 that's how not long ago it can be traced compared to persian empire which is way older. The tibetans have migrated since the emperor days and then immigrated once again recently to chinese take over. You can distinguish the link and origin many ethnic in india or pakistan and they usually dwell within their own group not correlated with eachother. The oldest group before and still dominant are the caucasoid group. American is a geographic term too like asian and has a deep root. Americans have many culture, race and language. The reason why Arabs or people of MENA decent are considered white is because when they first began immigrating here, which they have been immigrating here for only a little over 100 years (1870/90-now modern day) they were considered 'Syrians of Asiatic birth' because during this time 'Upper Syria' which consisted of modern day Syria, Jordan, Lebanon, and Palestine was apart of the Ottoman Empire. In the United States, the only way to be classified as 'white' was to be European. Now may I add, because for a long time, MENA people were considered 'Asian,' at this time white American people thought Asians were trying to steal their jobs. So the government created 'Anti-Asian Laws' which constricted immigration from East Asia (China and Japan) but it also affected people from the Middle East. Furthermore, immigration in the United States throughout history has only favored Northern and Western Europeans. While Southern and Eastern Europeans were discriminated against for not being considered white like Italians for example. So the immigrants of MENA decent community sued the government to be considered white and equal. They won; and ever since then we have been considered white. Now, the Middle East is a admixture of races and ethnicities. No ethnicity has one phenotype. They're are black Arabs, black Persians, black Turks. Just like there's olive complexed to brown Arabs, Persians, and Turks. There's also 'white' fair skinned people. This is all due to the fact, that the Middle East is the crossroads of the world. We sit in the middle of all of Asia, Africa, and Europe. So all those continents we will affect phenotypic features. The Middle East is unique in this aspect. Understand, 'white people' who are stereotypically 'racist' and white supremacists, are usually Anglo-Saxon and believe the Anglo-Saxon white race is the superior race. This is why Southern and Eastern European were discriminated against, because they're not Anglo-Saxon. However, after a certain amount of time coming from Europe, they were welcomed as 'white' but some were still discriminated against. MENA people in the United States, while on paper were called 'white' they're history in the United States is a long one of discrimination and not being welcomed by the average white American people. Being seen as too 'backwards, savage, and not quite white.' MENA people played a role in the Civil Rights Movement and were suffered from run-ins with the KKK. The sad truth is even though we were considered 'white,' like Italians and other Eastern and Southern Europeans, we were never quite welcomed like the other Europeans eventually became. Part of it is sure, on average MENA people may not look 'white' but even the fairer skinned MENA individuals were classified as inferior. Most people believe 9/11 was the upbringing of struggle for MENA people and Muslim community but our history in the United States hasn't necessarily been a welcoming, pleasant one. 9/11 was just the 'cherry on top' for our community to be further pushed and not welcomed.	Black, Ethnicity, Race	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	6/498	1.205

A lot of the division is religion based which is bizarre, but not unlike the balkans where the croatians, serbians, and bosnians say the others are " racist ". Personally, without the hijab id see this woman as just another tanned white women, it actually looks like she got a tan for this video too IMO. I have greek friends who look more ethnic and olive than any syrian, lebanese, israeli, or even iranian ive met. I practice Farsi with Iranis, some who look whiter than me, some who look easily less so, while i am of west euro descent; id like to have darker skin though, i guess like other americans lol. Honestly though, it doesnt matter what people identify as to me, as long as they treat me and others the same and arent identitarian or "proud" of their " ethnicity ". I find theres a minority of activists in the US, a lot from the levant, rather than the brownish khaleej, who seem to despise being seen as white when they look it, same with a lot of jews, I dont know why. I guess there are surely trump supporters who wouldnt want to be grouped with "those muslims" on the census as well. It would be best if the census stopped asking about " race " altogether though, if you go back not too far, the africans, caucasians, east asians, australians and others were all the same tribe, and we all have almost the same DNA. In fact just because you look a certain way, thats only like a handful of alleles that decide looks, a german could be more genetically-close to some kenyans than to some brits. Spit-Shine Philly Hell no we're not. The racism and hatred we experience here in the States 95 of the time come from white people, why on earth would we want to be associated with people who absolutely hate and despise us? No, thank you. I, like a significant number of Arabs, most certainly do not, nor will I ever, identify or even associate myself with the white race. I'm pretty white (skin color) and call myself brown because I want to associate myself with what Arabs are stereotypically thought to be (even if I personally don't fit that image) and don't want to associate myself with whiteness (I got laughed at once for doing that btw). Even not taking into account the reason I gave above, at the end of the day, you can't separate Arabs into 'a part of the white race' and 'not a part of the white race' based on skin color alone. Me and my sister are white (in skin color) and my two younger brothers are very dark (Arabs tan really well), so what, are me and my sister a part of one race and my two brothers a part of a different race? Because that's very, very common with Arabs. We tan so well that those of us who stay in the sun end up several shades darker than what our skin color actually is. So, what? We're classifying people based on the skin color we see when for Arabs it literally changes every time we're in the sun? Come on now. What kind of a race changes depending on what season you're in, in the winter you're white, in the summer, you're not. That's the stupidest thing I've ever heard.	Common, Race, Racism, Tan	Ethnicity - General, Nationality - British, Social Class - Working class	8/287	2.787
aseel h Are you fucking dumb? Im albanian and I literally get brown in the summers, that doesnt mean its my original skin color. So are south europeans not white according to you? Because they tan so easily? And it doesnt matter what you associate yourself with and that you "stereotypically" want to associate yourself with arabs, if you wanna use that logic, albanians arent white either since we're not stereotypically like western white people. But that logic is stupid. Anybody who has caucasian features and has skin that is light enough in color, is a white person. Period. If you committed a crime and the cops would ask witnesses "what did he look like" people would literally describe your skin color, your haircolor and clothes, and what do you think they would say? "Oh he looked white but he might have been from Saudi Arabia"? NO, they would just say he was white. Yeah you got laughed at because people thought it was silly, youre not brown if you dont look brown. Also how the fuck can you be racist to arabs? You aint no separate race, arabs are a group of people, not a race, arabs belong to the caucasian group and so do europeans, yall just look different because of the extreme heat, your color is designed to handle the sun over there. Thats it.	Dumb, Race, Racist, Tan	Ethnicity - General, Nationality - British, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	5/228	2.193

A history lesson to all the fake neandertal caucasian Arabs you are not Arabs you will never be Arabs All this modern fake Arabs are Caucasian. They certainly don't resemble the Arabs of Muhammed's (pbuh)time besides having many significant cultural differences. Real Arabs in Yemen, Eritrea, Somalia, Sudan, tribes are still black or near black in colour, the other fake Arabs are Syrians Turks or Iranians Caucasians. The modern fake Arabians are not ancient black Arabians so what is the purpose lying about your identity when you put white on forms you are correct because you are Caucasians who hijacked the black Arabs identity. You have much more Slavic, Syrian, Turkish and Iranian ancestry then you do Arabian ancestry. The Quraysh and Kenani are still living in Hadromt in Yemen, Ethiopia Eritrea, Somalia, Sudan Israel. Do you even know what the Kenaani of the Hijaz still look like?Why the heck do you think so many Syrians Turkic called the Canaanites and Nabataeans and other Arabs black and cursed throughout history. Or perhaps you are not aware of this! Is it because they looked like Syrians, Persians or Turks ?!IF you are an uneducated historically and have no knowledge of self, then you would do better to read real history and keep your Aryanist worshipping, white-washed attitude to your stupid self. Better yet purge yourself of it and fear of blackness because I don't want any real Arab darker than you to face your kind of negative energy and ignorance. One of the reasons I focus on this black stuff is because people like you around the world have been going around for centuries pretending to be more worthy of living than black skinned people who brought you your religion(s).If you don't know what the Arabs looked like and you are not aware of the many descriptions of the Azd and Quraysh and Canaani and in fact the Arabian tribes in general as being black and jet black in color and holding a fair skin in contempt -then it is your job to read about them and disprove it.You should at least attempt to disprove that the words 'shadeed al udma' and 'adam' and 'akhdar' meant people the color of a sub-Saharan Africans for Arab writers!. Disprove the 9th century king of grammarians al Mubarrad (otherwise known as Ibn Berry) of the Azd clan said the Arabs 'took pride in their blackness' and had a contempt for fair complexion because it was 'the color of slaves'. Disprove that 9th century al -Jahiz of Iraq claimed the Sulaym and all of the tribes of the volcanic region of el harra were 'black as the lava' and taking white concubines. Disprove that al Dhahabi the Syrian of the 14th century who travelled through the Hijaz claimed that most in Arabs the Hejaz were 'dark brown' in colour and that they considered fair skin synonymous with the colour of slaves of Persians and Syrians. Disprove that the European colonialists visiting the Kaa'b, Uqayl and Khaza'il other tribes of Beni Amer ibn Za'za'a from Hawazin bin Mansur claimed that they were 'near black' and the complexion of Oromo Ethiopians and wore greased plaits in their hair like SO MANY OTHER ARABIANS. Disprove that ibn Athir the Kurd didn't claim the Sulaym ibn Mansur was of extreme blackness because they were from ' pure Arabs'. Disprove that tribes like the modern Anayzah and Shammar originally from Yemen settled among the white Syrians and mixed with them and then

Now after Black Americans literally died for civil rights law, Arabs—who hate Blacks more than Whites do (I am aware that there are Black Arabs—they are discriminated against too)—want to get reclassified to use civil rights law and get Islam classified as a race and religion? To those who don't know. Arabs are classified as a nation . A nation usually has many mixed races and split up into many regions. Important tip; There is East and Middle and West as parts of the Arab World. Which is mainly the Middle East is the center point of the Arab World. The skin color varies from white to tan to black and these people are basically Arabs. You have to understand that the Middle East is the transition point in between the West and the East and the North Africans. Being in the center you have access to all the nations easier than the rest of the neighbors. So for many thousands of years the Arab World has been interacting with the rest of the region. You would be surprised, to see and hear a blonde with blue eyes who is an Arab and speaks Arabic fluently. You would also be surprised to see and hear a North African who looks completely brown skinned, who is an Arab and speaks Arabic fluently. Found in counties like (Sudan, Libya, Somalia, Morocco) In the continent of Africa. You would also see an Arab person who has the features of an east European who looks more likely, Turkish, Italian, Greek, Belgium ... and those Arabs are located right in the center of the Middle East like Lebanon, Syria, Palestine. In the continent of West Asia. You would also see the typical dark skinned Arabs but not too dark like an African , the features are not African more close to Indian . And they are found in countries like (Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, Qatar, Iraq) These countries are in the east continent of Asia. The reason they checked you as "white" is because they want to claim that "Jew" is a Caucasian " race " and never black just "darker whites". It all ties in to the lie of Israel being racial Jews who are "white" and backed by the US and England. That is the true reason they did it. Seriously, the world is SICKKK! They needed to be consistent in their racism because they are now using brown people at the bottom of the next super power (Israel) to fight, but if you look at the top rabbis and leaders of Israel they are white-white, not brownish white mix. You are part of a bigger agenda of the white supremacist who will eventually make ISREAL white-white and have already classified "Jew" as a race , which is stupid. But that is how racist colonialism works! Be thankful you are pretty because racist are hypocrites when it comes to women because they are carnal and subject to their own lust while discriminating. Arabs are considered "white " in the US census because the census interprets white as synonymous with "Caucasian". The term Caucasian , which is horribly inaccurate , was used since the 18th century to describe the populations of Europe , the Middle East , North Africa and even India ! So Caucasian was not synonymous with white , the criteria was skull shape mostly. It had nothing to do with skin colour. A blonde blue eyed Scandinavian and a brown skinned Arab were considered Caucasian.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/85	1.176

You idiots don't know how the US census works. Hispanic is NOT counted as a race , because it's not and has never been one. Hispanic is just an umbrella term for Spanish speaking populations, which can be of any race . Heck , Hispanic also includes people like the spaniards , who are white Europeans. People in Latin America can also be of any race . Most "hispanics " are nonwhite because they are a racial mixture of spaniards and native Americans (aztecs, mayas, etc), but that doesn't mean all of them are. Good girl. I noticed the official MENA category is stripped of Turks, Kurds, Europes Azeri, or Afghans. So with the peculiar exclusion of these neighbors, MENA is deceptively just an ARAB category, however, the term "Middle-East-North African , gives the impression it represents a greater racial-cultural sphere. So when they designed MENA based on self-response of different groups, t's easy to imagine how Israelis and Iranians felt coerced into selecting MENA over WHITE or OTHER, as they imagined it to be some generalization of the greater Middle East. Johnny Tehranian and Morad Ghorban, charlatans, who pretend to serve deep Iranian interests, did absolutely nothing to appeal this fact, at the 2015 Census Bureau meetings. And keep in mind, checking MENA will not make your life easier. First of all, Iranians are not exactly the type to milk public welfare anyway (with household incomes twice that of Americans), and nowadays Federal laws protect all citizens against racial/ethnic discrimination, so an oppressive level of discrimination (ie; severe employment discrimination to the point of bankruptcy) is completely unrealistic; in other words, their will never be a Federal budget to provide a significant MENA welfare to Iranians and others in the MENA category anyways- it won't be necessary. The only thing checking MENA does is conform to backwoods ideology, that Iranians belong with Arabs. You are right with respect to Iranian genetic affiliation, as revealed by this high resolution, 1 Million SNP, PCA with global populations: [LINK] It's clear that Iranians true nearest relatives are people of Turkey, Azeris of Europe, and to a lesser extent Armenians. Iranians are just an extension of the Caucaus groups, and on a continuous cline from Europe - so Iranians are genetically white, though at the threshold of whiteness, where eyeballing 'whiteness' is doomed to fail. Perhaps, it's fairer to say the modal Iranian type is white, because Iran is diverse enough and introduced a lot of foreign elements among individuals, so that there are quite a few outliers (like the one circled in red on that PCA). There are several problems with this theory of his:1. color is a label(labels are for identifying things not living beings)2. there is no evidence before his idea of race he thought up that this term of race was ever used before hand, there is no ancient manuscript from no author , scientist,historian showing that people used the term race to identify different human beings. If it was used , it would be used to identify the entire species of living beings which we are, and the difference between us is by bloodline through ethnicity , nationality , also language, and culture. Herbert Dixon First and foremost the real arabs orginated from YEMEN. Arabs from the countries you listed are mixed with alot of european blood not african . Arabs come in different colors from super pale to brown to black . There are arabs that have african blood mixed but there africans with arab blood aswell like ethiopians and somalians just look at the features ..etc.Second there are 12 countries in Africa that are Arab. Not all of Africa is black or labeled as black ! Third we are not white. The only reason they make us check white and this is a fact is because first arab settlers in America were from Lebanese decent which from all the arabs they tend to look more white with smaller features so they didn't know what to label them so they decided white. Look at the ancient Egyptians they were not black they looked just arabs from the gulf. That's why to this day they can't determine what race they would have been. They features are distinctive with sharp noses and big eyes with slender jaw lines. So you can not say blackforparents when in reality the continent of Africa is not like I said all black . Im from yemen i will say that we have some afro blood and I don't deny it but I'm more arab then anything and im far from white. Hallei Ibin, no actually most recent population genetic studies show that Sub Saharan African genes are negligible and only entered North Africa 7 to 9 centuries ago, likely due to the trans saharan slave trade. Some European genetics are also negligible and came in waves for thousands of years. But the core population, which has been there for 40,000 to 50,000 years, came via a back migration from Eurasia (and carried Neanderthal DNA). Also, the most comprehensive study on 16 ancient Egyptian mummies revealed that all of them were most closely related to populations of modern day Jordan and Syria. Mike M The category of Caucasians,Mongoloids and Negroids was made by a white man (who's also a white supremacist) that want to push the agenda that only whites can have "beautiful" features but of course,Europeans "beats" the other "whites" in the Caucasian group. Notice how all the tall bridged nose,huge eyes, colored eyes and hair and sharp features are all placed under "Caucasian" even though Arabs look nothing like white Europeans. Arabs have aware and one of a kind,specific face features. The rest were placed under Mongoloid or Negroid. Bullshit. You wanna tell me Indians are "white" or "Caucasian" even though majority of them are brown skinned or lean on the darker skin spectrum? Bullshit,bullshit and more bullshit. Never trust a white devil's words. They've colonized everything to the point where everyone subconsciously believes only their words are "right" words. Colored hair and eyes aren't a white or European specific features. Arabs and Turks can have different colored hair and eyes. Doesn't mean they're white or caucasian. There are Arabs and Turks who lean on the lighter skin spectrum? Doesn't mean they're white or caucasian. See? White European isn't the default race so the whole need to stop relating every little thing back to them. I don't care. Arabs are asians and fall under the mongoloid category. Not all asians look alike. Arabs are their own kind of asians. Plus,asians are diverse and each race of asians have their own different,special,unique and specific look to them. Like East Asians and Indian for example. Very different looking but both are still asians. One of these asians are Arabs. I would include Turks too but they hate asians and want to join the European league. Ehh,their choice. Jon T I just find it amusing that white people like to claim us as "white" when it's about a hot journalist or our history. They then conveniently forget that we are "white" when it comes to Syrian refugees or immigration. I remember watching an interview with Richard Spencer, the leader of the alt right who claimed that ancient Egyptians were "white". Mohamed Mo White technically means of European decent so it's a pretty useless term because fair skin did not originate in Europe. In fact, Europeans can trace their roots all the way back to the Middle East thousands of years ago and this has been scientifically proven many times over. There are literally only 4 human races: Mongoloid , Negroid, Caucasoid & Australoid based on craniofacial anthropology (bone structure) not skin color, you Arabs are technically the same race as Europeans because you are part of the Caucasoid branch of the human family. Believe it or not we are more closely related than you think.	Mongoloid, Race	Ethnicity - General, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	2/104	1.923
Michael A You could classify us as predominantly Caucasoid even though some Arabs especially in North Africa and the Arabian peninsula have a small amount of Negroid ancestry but that still doesn't make us white. We consider ourself as either Middle Eastern, North African , Semitic or Arab. White generally means European. If you ask most white people if they consider Arabs to be white they would answer no.	African	Ethnicity - Black	1/68	1.471
Mohamed Mo Unless you are talking about Arabs that are entirely ethnic to their region then no, they are not White. But there are many that can trace their lineage back to parts of Europe such as the Mediterranean, especially. Often that's why people think she "looks" White. In terms of her appearance she could fit somewhere in Southern Europe as well the Middle East. Plenty of White Mediterraneans look Arab even though they aren't.	Ethnic	Ethnicity - General	1/75	1.333
Michael A Yes there are Arabs in the Levant and North Africa who have Greek and Roman ancestry but they still wouldn't consider themselves white nor are they considered white by white supremacist groups. Like I told this guy above white nationalist groups love to claim Arabs as white when it's to their benefit. They love to claim Middle Eastern and and North African ancient history as "white history". They have no problem claiming this young lady as "white" because they think she's hot.	African	Ethnicity - Black	1/84	1.19
Mohamed Mo The point is just because someone is born in the Middle East and calls themselves Arab based merely on their cultural assimilation and upbringing doesn't mean they aren't "White" just because they hide under a cultural identity. It just doesn't make any sense lmao. The term Arab/Semitic is also a linguistic language group made of many different races just as much as they are purely an ethnic group on their own. So who really cares what White supremacists groups think? most smart people generally don't even think on those terms anymore including most White people.	Ethnic	Ethnicity - General	1/97	1.031

Mohamed Mo Again, I respect that is your opinion but I fundamentally disagree. I'm not sure where you're from or where you get your sources but almost anyone here would still consider someone White if they were born/raised in the Middle East even if they adopted the Arab culture then it really doesn't mean anything. Arab/semitic is simply not a race and can't be separated "racially" based on cultural and ethnic differences. In conclusion, it should be noted that if they can trace their lineage back to Europe they've always been White. Plain and simple. Without that Hijab on I'd say most people in Italy would most definitely think was White. So yes. But the further north you go you'll start to see girls like Lagertha Lothbrok. This is identity politics at its worst. Arabs are no more a race than Jews are. My cousin who is half Arab definitely sees himself as white. Anthropologically speaking, Iranians, many Arabs, Kurds, Armenians, and so forth would fall under the Mediterranean branch of the Caucasian AKA white race . This leads me to another point. Americans of Middle Eastern ancestry in fact fought in the courts decades ago partly on anthropological grounds to legally be classified as white. Arab Americans have suffered discrimination, but overall, Arab Americans do extremely well in this country. All you have to do is examine the lives of people like Ralph Nader, John Abizaid, and so forth. Creating a separate MENA classification would lead to more stereotyping and discrimination against this community. Some have suggested that Hispanics since the ethnic category of Hispanic was created back in the '70s that they have been stereotyped even worse. Ultimately on the next census, I'm checking the some other race box and putting American. The Census Bureau or the government as a whole shouldn't be trying to balkanize this nation by encouraging small nations in this country. I agree with you, and there are only three, maybe five "races"(Caucasoid, Negroid, Mongoloid , the other two are Capoid and Australoid, but those are very small populations). There are people who are a mixture of two or more races, for example, a person who is half black and half Caucasian, or a Hispanic person who is part Native American, etc. As for Arabs, they are not a genetic or ethnic group. They are a cultural group. The only real Arabs are from the Arabian Peninsula, the rest are called Arabs due to a common language and culture. But even Arabs from the Arabian Peninsula are Caucasian, as are Persians, Kurds, Turks, and North Indians. Race is about skull and bone structure far more than it is about skin color. Also, race is completely different from culture and religion. I guess that's why a lot of Arabs don't understand that they are Caucasian...due to them having a different culture. People change cultures and religions all the time...but you can't change your DNA. That reference does not suggest Iranians are "Arabs", nor "Indians". Iranians are just an extension of the Caucasus peoples ( [LINK] They are genetically most similar to Turks and Europe Azeris . But Iranian is heterogeneous so admixture can vary. For example while typical Indian admixture for Iranians, on average, is only 1.5 (typical of Turks and Azeri populations), about 25 of Iranians have significant Indian admixture of 6-8. So Iranians can't really be judged as a whole, as there nations is far too heterogeneous, at this point in history.	Indian	Ethnicity - Native-American	2/90	2.222

Racial classifications can be arbitrary, like to believe that if you cross the border from Greece to Turkey you pass from a race called "white" that goes all the way to Scandinavia to a race called "MENA" that goes all the way to Morocco and Yemen instead of having a continuum. And many other arbitrary and even ridiculous ideas like the utterly ridiculous belief in the US that Hispanic is a race . But you don't to be a scientist to note that:1) People look different.2) These differences in looks are hereditary. 3) People that look differently behave and are treated differently and have different average socio-economic performances, even if these differences can be explained entirely be reasons other than genetics.This is what is called " race ". tatatinaa no they do not. Race was invented to practice racism . That is the ONLY reason. People need to stop being so stupid and gullible. Color doesn't determine anything of value or substance. It can be used to withhold and discriminate but it doesn't determine the potential of a baby given the same opportunities. If you say it doesn't you are simply part of the racist system. racist "Whites" apparently knew race was insignificant to human potential because they kept blacks from learning until they destroyed and brainwashed many into believing they were incapable and that it was "not cool". Yet Nigerians prove otherwise. Plus much of USA history is full of lies anyway (propaganda) for national pride—we are all AMERICANS when they need you to die for the rich man's cause—but we are hyphenated-Americans when the resources are allocated because it's the divide and conquer strategy so that we fight amongst ourselves like idiots. Walter White- You're calling me a racist but yet you disagree with "Amanda Vadon" post. Nowhere in my post did I mock or insult ppl who practiced incest/inbreeding. All I said, was the ACT of incest/inbreeding altered the human DNA bringing forth countless of genetic defects/mutations, mental illness and infertility/sterility issues. Those are facts!!! Why do you believe the "powers that be" called themselves the "royal blood line"?!?! Furthermore, their own reputation, actions and deeds proves they carried on an ancient old tradition of inbreeding with close kin! It's not a secret! Speaking of "bone marrow transplant,"" perhaps, this is the reason why the masses are part of a counterfeit system/government/corporation being exploited and used for "scientific research" or as experimental guinea pigs/lab rats looking for cures for recessive genetic disorders and to disable the human will to further enslave/dominate . I have no reason to be mad about anything, it's not my fault that I know the truth. Anyway, there's no need to prolong this conversation. Walter White- So you're saying the act of incest and inbreeding is normal but when a person points it out, all of sudden they become a racist and a moron! You can call me whatever you want but the truth is going to always manifest itself, science or not. No matter how much you keep reposting the same stuff over and over again, I really don't care about how you personally feel about me. I don't even know you to feel some type of way. You're obviously getting your own self worked up over nothing . You're just assuming stuff and applying labels that has absolutely nothing to do with me. But if that's the way you feel.....okay.... Nobody is harassing or insulting ppl who practice incest/inbreeding, it's a personal choice. Whatever personal choices or decisions humans make, that's between them and God and the ppl they mentally damaged and brought physical harm to. But when humans start imposing on the natural birthright of innocent or good-willed ppl worldwide causing injustices, the oppressors or imposers need to be corrected for what they say, on how they feel, think and act!! It's clear that everybody on this earth is paying the price spiritually/physically and suffering from the sinful acts/fleshly desires and reckless behavior of mere imperfect human beings. All man made science/technology has done, is secretly and temporarily try to fix human mistakes/errors, to focus on discovering ways to disable the human will and keep the truth concealed from the masses. But obviously they couldn't escape from their own wicked deeds and eventually they all have to face the harsh reality of truth and endure the consequences of their own actions! Walter White- It's apparent that man made science/technology has a duality affect, it can be used for good or evil or both. I see it's being used for evil. Science/technology was a choice by man imposed upon humans whether they agreed with it or not. The facts are that science/technology is a man-made concept that was not even necessary or a requirement. With that said, nature/natural systems not designed by human hands is not partial towards anyone nor does it discriminate against anyone, it gives or has the ability to give to everyone without the need of human intervention. Now, it's a fact that the activities of humans, whether good or bad affects the earth, all living organisms and their quality of life. Moreover, nature/natural systems not designed by humans presents the truth as is, it doesn't hide, cover up or conceal the truth from anyone, it is what it is! That's the beauty of nature/natural systems created by the Supreme God, it's infinite and has the ability to defeat mere human philosophy and eventually will put an end to the acts of evil humans and their technology. Furthermore, all humans have free will or freedom of choice, it will be their own decisions of how the use their free will that will decide their fate and they will face the consequences of their actions. I brought up incest/inbreeding because it was relevant to the origin of the concept of " race ". I apologize if it offended you, it wasn't my intent.	Race	Ethnicity - General	1/251	0.398
Gustavo- In other words, it's a competition that exist amongst groups of humans that are of the same species in a race going absolutely nowhere! Actually, North African do have options to check. They can check the African /Black part of the box. After all they are African . They are part of the African Union. The USA census might classify Middle Easterners as white but society sure doesn't treat them as white. Hell, there is a growing Nationalism in Europe and Middle Easterners aren't seen part of their race . I have actually never seen an Arab who classified themselves as white either. You are however mistaken when you said, you don't receive minority benefits. Oh, yes you do. There are plenty of scholarships for Muslims, my neighbor had a full on ride for her pre-med. There are hundreds of organizations that help Muslims not only from the USA but also from the Middle East. It's the Christian Arabs that don't receive benefist. Stop trying to associate yourself with them. Muslims have never lived with Christian Arabs in peace. P.S. I was wondering the same thing. Why do they cover their hair, yet wear tight jeans and put makeup on?? I am a Christian Middle Eastern and do not mind if we get our own race on the consensus, as long as the box says middle eastern, not ARAB. Being able to check white didn't make me feel privileged at all. In fact, I experienced a bit of racism in America from people who are close-minded. Although, I look white I do have an accent when speaking English. Arabic on my resume is not helping at all and many employers reject my resume because of this. They would think I am a Muslim just because my first language is Arabic. I am against any kind of discrimination. Our heritage does not go back to the arab tribes of arabia who happen to be a bit darker skinned. We consider ourselves to be Christians who descend from the people of Jesus Christ who used to make up the majority of the levantine region, until the muslim arabs took over and stole our land and abolished our language and culture. We are Cananites, phoenicians, semites...not arabs and had our own aramaic language. Aksum, are you eritrean?		Race, Racism	Ethnicity - General	2/204	0.98
I'm not Eritrean i'm Ethiopian. I also want to add if you want to go by the Biblical definition of heritages and decedents then ALL Middle Easterners are decedents of Ham just like Africans and East Asians. Genesis chapter 10 will show in details where all human decedents came from. Europeans are decedents of Japheth, and Jews are decedent of Shem (that's why they're called Semites). Prior to the 1800s, the Middle East used to be called, Greater Africa. There is a reason why the Middle East has more in common with Africa than it does with Europe, from the climate, to the language, cultures, plants, animals, etc. But, i understand why you want to be classified as "white." Since there is an immense amount of privilege that comes with being classified as white. However, you're getting your wake up call, more and more white people don't consider you one of their people. You guys are learning the hard way. Not my problem though since we Sub-Saharan Africans are proud to be Africans. We don't have low self-esteem issues like you Middle Easterners. Aksum Firas, there is no privilege in being identified as white. I am Lebanese too and when you apply to jobs in the United States, your name stands out first. They can tell from your name if you are Arab or white and you will be discriminated based on that. There is no privilege. I wish I was identified as middle eastern, I would have applied to scholarships at universities that only the blacks or asians have access to. The reason why we were identified as white is because prior to 1950s only white people were able to immigrate to America, so the Arabs protested and wanted to change that and be able to immigrate. Religion is faith and has nothing to do with race . Arab identity is not faith and resembles the part of the Middle East from Arabia. Saudi Arabia and the gulf countries only. North Africans are not considered Black or Africans by African Americans, so they can't check that box. Your claim about minority benefits is nonsensical. Scholarship to Muslims (if that's even a thing) doesn't come from the government it comes from private donors. And Islam is a religion, not a race . Your comment there is irrelevant. Christian Arabs may not receive such benefit but then again they don't have to worry about discrimination to the extent Muslims face in the US. > Stop trying to associate yourself with them.Oh, look who's trying to divide and conquer. the natives of North Africa are Amazigh Berber, they range from light skinned to tanned olive skin. It's insane how these African Americans and Africans in the west deny their Western African roots and try to claim they are Moroccans, Egyptian, Hebrews and Greek LOL, they can't be all cos each has a distinct traceable genetic marker. Morocco is 70-80 north African DNA, with a bit of middle eastern, Iberian and sub-Saharan. The DOMINANT DNA is north African Amazigh and their DNA is the oldest native genetic marker in North Africa. No continent has one color or ethnicity. Northern Africans are separated from Sub-Saharan Africans by the SAHARA desert, the harshest wide desert in the world, separate people with different climates. FYI color melanin is product of climate. North Africa is Mediterranean climate, so we don't need high melanin. People away from equator are lighter due to climate change and adaptation. Moreover, how could you deny DNA evidence of origin ?? Or are you another black ashamed of your sub-Saharan african origin? Maybe because sub-Saharan didn't produce any notable civilizations? Do DNA test and see for yourself, it doesn't cost much, be honest. All countries around the Mediterranean sea have the same color, this includes south France, south Italy, south Spain, Cyprus and Greece on the European side, then you have North Africans, Turkey and Levant on the southern side. Just open your map really, they are closer to us than we are close to sub-Saharan geographically. We are much closer to each other due to geography, climate and shared history. DNA doesn't lie.
