I wasnt getting much pussy in my town, im short, guess that was getting in my way, moved to a tourist area in my country got a job at the beach and i fucked women from 22 countries in a very short time, one day i remember fucked 3 girls innthe time lapse of a day (first one canadian then scottish then english girl) but after some time i felt so empty , i felt i was losing my soul my kindess and i was a fucking pervert fucking all these women some married with kids some with bf (i once fucked a polish woman at the damn toilet room while his husbandnwas looking for her calling her name) and all this girls i had only a good conecction wih one, i fell in love with her moved together but thenni cheat on her and she left, i never been this sad in my life , i try to improve as a person so i moved back home got myself a job shitty but isnsomething, gonnq study a masters degree as well, but hope this fucking sadness just go away , i dont know how much damage i made to women and how much also they damaged me	Woman, pussy	Gender - General, Nationality - Chinese	2/208	0.962

Dude, you're actually thinking about taking the quick and easy way to get pussy by way of a married woman ?? To lower yourself, your name, your reputation, your standards all for some vagina?? Cmon on bro! That's a poor choice! So basically you're talking and giving advice to us guys but you're willing to sleep with one of our wives??? Word? That's what you're really about? I mean, you're saying it to the online world so what are we to think? To all of you guys out there listen: Messing with married women is not an option! Like no, not never!!! Dont disgrace yourself over pussy . Cmon now guys, if we are each other's keeper and if we are all we have then why would we disgrace, disrespect and devalue each other by dealing with another man's wife? We have to stop being slaves to our dicks!!!	Woman, pussy	Gender - General, Nationality - Chinese	3/147	2.041

I think some women get tired of meeting nothing but losers who just want to have sex . Which leads women to start thinking well what the hell is in it for me? This guy wants the pussy but he isn't willing to pay any of my bills. When a woman brings up this fact she is quickly labeled a gold digger, because men want what they want at no cost to them. If our monthly bills together come out to $5000+ and the man cannot afford to contribute $2500 to those bills then he does not make enough money to be in that relationship. Now, you can split the cost with another man but would obviously have to share your girl. Also, many men cannot comfortably support their females on one income. Meaning if she loses her job you guys are screwed. more people equals more safety net. Maybe a man doesn't want children, but she does, this is a solution to this problem. she can have the children she wants and you dont have to have any. Maybe one guy is not handy around the house and another man is, maybe one is better in bed than the other, maybe the other is more emotionally supportive. Most men feel as if it is okay to exploit women for free sex but cry foul when women start imposing demands on men. I am all for monogamy if the man can satisfy me and makes enough money to support me and my son. When I say makes enough, he needs to make more than me so that if one of us for what ever reason becomes unemployed or can no longer work we dont lose everything. Dont be hypocrites guys! if you do a polyandry relationship and all the men are committed to just that woman and she just those men, it can work without having such a financial hardship to bare. I have not done a polyandry relationship but i am thinking about it and the potential benefits because i am tired of struggling and lousy sex and companionship from men. Go with the married women. I've got three of them. All their husbands know about me. The thing is.....these women are never pains in the arse. They never try to "move the relationship forward" They want nothing but to come over here and fuck and hang out for a night now and then. And that is all I want. Every time I start something up with a single women they end up thinking they have a licence to take over my life. polyandry is the cover up to coquettes, hoe culture, sexual liberation, and this casual hookup culture, all these titles are guises for what has been around for centuries.	Sexual	Gender - General	1/28	3.571
I don't like online dating because i think its gross. The men have so many options. You are easily replaceable to them. They either want sex within first few dates or settle down. Its all too quick and if you don't then they forget you and replace you quickly. It is not organic. I prefer meeting people in real life and also communication to be real, ether a real voice over a call and hanging out in real life instead of texting only. Digital should be extra tool not main tool.Also many women want monogamy and are taught hard way that if they act like they want that men run for the hills. So then they read books and watch videos to learn how to get mogonomy and are taught to not focus on one man so that men will care about them because believe it or not men like & reward women that don't think about only them. It is sad. What rock have you been hiding under?	Sex	Gender - General	1/170	0.588
Misty Holley your argument is predicated on the idea that men are more likely to cheat than women, which is also statistically not the case, especially in later years.And the reason why women 'compromise' on looks is because women find most men unattractive and I can also back that up with peer reviewed research. The fact is that we have twice as many female ancestors as male, most men never got laid and the few that did impregnated multiple women.It's happening on Tinder right now, the reason you're having bad luck on there is because you, as well as 78 of other women, are only trying to match with the top 20 of males in looks, wealth, or general bad boyness..I'm sure you're a good person, but you're a slave to your instincts and your gender is slowly but surely destroying the fabric of civilization. We created marriage to give every man an equal shot of getting laid, but feminism and divorce courts as well as the hookup culture and sexual promiscuity has destroyed socially enforced monogamy. And if you really wanted monogamy; you know what guys you actually need to be going after. But you and I both know that's not what you really want.	Gender, Sexual	Gender - General	2/209	0.957

Your video is keeping it 100 brother. A married woman is the better choice because she don't want to ruin her marriage, or risk her husband finding out. Your right on the money when you say single women have 100 men on the side. Yeah, its a shitty deal BUT the best sex is with a female that is cheating on her husband. A female that wont cheat is a UNICORN. Mine did it, I can talk about it to. Yep, been with my wife over 20 years and it happened to me to while I was out to sea in the military. Military wives are SHIT to by the way, they can not be trusted. Your right the Polyandry is not going away with all these feminist all over the place. Your another MGTOW and I'm glad to see it. LFA you are absolutely correct! Becoming red pill aware and making yourself the main point of origin is a must! I learned at a young age the true nature of women in a gym setting, totally raw and primal if you pay attention. Men need to realize their strengths and advantages in your-self and use that and the knowledge of how women tic- tock. Working out and keeping your health and body in shape is a must! Women love it, they will instantly notice this and your confidence that you will project. Unfortunately for married men, you are point on about single women vs married in present day. Check out a long time red piller named Ronin Man, he has some incredible background and experience on the sociology of married women and the differences of relationship they will give to a boyfriend vs husband. Things are not looking good for 80 of men minimum. If you make it as the top 20 it's only any good if you are comfortable with PUMP AND DUMP. Casual sex is meaningless once you get beyond the novelty (which happens very quickly) unfortunately this is as good as it gets, completely depressing because women haven't the loyalty to stick at things. I'm going monkmode because women are not worth the sacrifice, and having food and shelter is more important.	Sex	Gender - General	1/81	1.235
It isn't insecure, but the opposite, to demand sexual fidelity the moment you meet a woman . Last night I had a knockout argument with my 21 year old girlfriend where I said it was suspicious she was seeing others and I have no interest in catching something. This is such a sad view on life. Firstly that there's only two types of girls and that both of those types cheat. Not true at all, not all girls want to have a million bfs, most just want one that will care for and love them. You choose to fuck a married woman because you're insecure about how you compare to the guys who are going for the single one. You go for the easy and disrespectful option, wow how alpha for you to fuck a married woman . If you honestly believe in your current view on women, I have to tell you it's not the women that are the problem it's your taste in women. You attract poly girls because you're poly yourself. You fuck a lot of girls and they see you as just that.	Woman	Gender - General	2/138	1.449

Thanks for the input. But all you did was deflected the subject with assumptions and name calling. Truth, things aren't good for average men. My question is, have they ever been? The first image that comes to mind is the Baby Boomer generation: WWII vets coming home and banging their girls like a screen door in a hurricane. After their .mil service, you see (the idealized version) of men in slacks, button down shirts, shined shoes, just to go get a burger; Women in dresses, sons and daughters dressed like miniature copies of their parents. Those guys (and gals) would be above average by today's standards, say, 6.5-7+ based on physique and dress. LFA, I'd say you're above average from most American men in your age range (25-35). If things aren't going good for you on a hookup app like Tinder, then yeah, things are fucking really bad for average dudes. But again, have average men ever had a decent chance of acquiring a female mate? Or has it always been that women only accept the top 20 of men, leaving the bottom 80 to wither off and die, taking their "inferior" genes with them. Looks, Money, Status. LFA, you got the looks, idk your financials, or social status, but you've got confidence and attitude, along with the masculine physical characteristics that women recognize and are attracted to subconsciously. So again, if YOU are struggling with online dating/hooking up, the rest of us pleebes are doomed.Thanks for the straight talk and no apologies. Great content.	Age	Age - General	1/239	0.418

Although I appreciate the logic of your argument about going for the married woman being the better option, by doing so you are only contributing to part of the break down in the system. Do what you want to do, but be careful of the hypocrisy of preaching against the failing of modern western marriage while doing your part to destroy it, or at least not honor it. Most incels want love and appreciation more than sex. Incels exist because they have no social confidence, they have no social confidence because they can not confide in their ability to meet their long term pre-socio-sexual survival needs(safety, food, water, shelter), and they are not able to meet those survival needs because they are paying the taxes for all of the poor sexual choices of average degenerate woman and bad boys. By removing this unfair burden from incels and placing it rightfully back on the shoulders of those legitimately privileged individuals who create such societal liabilities, it would allow incels to quickly become confident and attractive men that can find love, which is a good thing because as more and more men identify as incels and are unable to find love, they will certainly find hate. Then they become suicidal, homicidal, and eventually macro-political genocidal. Show me a man who takes by force what he wants from women and I'll show you 10 women who vote to take by force what they want from men. Show me a grave created by patriarchy and I'll show you an entire graveyard created by feminism/communism."Any society that negates the role of the father in the voluntarily marriage contract from decent civilization building men and replaces it with a involuntary centralized welfare state will not remain civilized for long."I didn't go looking for war, war came looking for me. I didn't go looking for nationalism, nationalism came looking for me. I didn't go looking for racism, racism came looking for me. The solution to racism is patriarchy. Moat of people killing each, both inter and intra race, is men competing for resources status to gain access to women. Jordan Peterson has a 10 minute or so video out there called "Does poverty chase crime? no. the gini coefficient explained" where he describes the most duplicatable law in the social sciences (the gini coefficient): as economic inequality increases in a given geographic area, the male on male homicide rate will increase exponentially. The reason why is because as economic inequality increases women mostly flock to the top men. The solution to the gini coefficient dilemma? Jordan Peterson says its forced monogamy. That's how you balance unity with diversity so that society doesn't rip itself apart....Whites shooting up mosques in New Zealand? Would he have done it if he was married and loved and appreciated? Blacks killing each other in Chicago? Would they be doing that if they would have been married with loving wives in their lives?SEX SHOULD ONLY BE WITHIN MARRIAGE. I agree with some of what you say, but it's not like this everywhere. I'm married to a Chinese woman and is awesome. She doesn't go out without me often. She treats me as an important and valued member of the family. This is common with Asian women. She values me as an important component of our family. This makes a huge difference. Women and men want different things from family. Western women don't understand what family real is. They don't understand the purpose of living. They're living a lie. There are cultures that are not like this. That being said, Western men need to remember how to be men. The big issue is with the law society and the courts. They are using the family courts to bring back open slavery. Kill the judges and lawyers when they use the public trust to stall your property. This will then end right quick! It is rough out there in the sexual marketplace for men. I experimented with tinder too about 2 years ago. Stopped it after a year. The problem is the quality of women when it comes to family values and relationships is very low in the western world. Women put themselves and career first over a monogamous relationship with a man. They are very solipsistic creatures. The issue is women have had so much dick they literally lose their ability to pair bond with one man. Women 18-35 have so many options, it makes it difficult being a guy. Jumping through various hoops and obstacles often makes the juice not worth the squeeze. I could never knowingly have sex with a married woman as I find it immoral. However I am also disgusted with the ethical behavior of most single women. It's a conundrum. I understand where you're coming from. I think the best bet if you're a man in the west looking for sexual intimacy (not just pump and dump) is to seek a younger girl in her late teens to early 20s who has had little to no sexual experience yet since they have not been damaged by promiscuity. The problem is even women that young who haven't had more than 2-3 sexual partners is rare. Often girls in high school have already had plenty of sex so by the time she is a legal adult she is already damaged. For a man who has ethics looking for a young woman who hasn't slept around is the best bet. They tend to have a much better value system. The problem is they are rare. They do exist however. The other issue is even these women can get corrupted by feminist dogma as they get older. There really isn't an answer on how to handle this terrible situation. My only advice as a man is to stay true to yourself and have self respect. If you do something you know you'll regret the next day don't do it.	Sex, Sexual, Woman	Gender - General	8/338	2.367

Interesting video LFA, well at least you're doing better than ugly incels like me, but then again I wouldn't waste my time on Tinder or any on line dating site, as they are only good for women, and the top 20 of men, in terms of looks.The current hook up culture that dominates our society means that the dating game is totally rigged in favour of women. Even fat/or ugly women have more dating/hook up options than a Chad. In a recent Catfish experiment, two people (both from Toronto, Canada) ie. an ugly 2/10 looking woman , and a 8/10 good looking Chad, had their profiles put on Tinder to see how many messages they received in a week. In one week, the ugly 2/10 looking woman received 392 messages from interested men, whereas the Chad only got 44 messages from interested women.And when you factor in rampant female hypergamy, the 20/80 rule, the dating game for average, and God forbid below average looking men is look very bleak indeed.LFA, given the draconian anti-male divorce courts you have there in the USA, I would advise you NOT to get married if I were you, just pump and dump women, it will work out cheaper than being married. Y'know, you keep saying you don't want to compete with 100 other men, and ask "what makes you stand out?" when liking a girl on Tinder. You also say that no one wants to talk to people in the real world anymore. The solution here is obviously cold approaching. Not in some PUA way, just saying "Hi" and introducing yourself to women you find attractive and getting their number/snapchat/whatever.Who gives a fuck if you're giving away free validation? You're not telling her she's beautiful, you're simply going up to a woman as a man, showing interest and putting yourself out there, like a man. Seriously, cold approaching is a damn cheat code. I've approached maybe 30 women the past 3 weeks and gotten 10-15 numbers/snapchats. It's more than the average fellow is going to get, I know that, but it shows that it's possible. If it wasn't for the protection of the walls of civilization then the modern liberal man would die off. The strong and violent alpha males would be the only choice for women Both on the left and the right side of politics today. Women are in no need of the fit and able, well built males of present. Although they will gladly slake such lust with those goodlooking men while she is in her prime, jumping from one to the next... But more often than not the goodlooking male is usually living pretty basic in comparison to the smarter successful and often, less physically appealing guys. If the "chad" is not living Well into his 20s or early 30s with his family or a shared accommodation, then he is most likely sofa surfing between friends or bed hopping between his latest gf and side piece. Sex is a mans drive for everything he chases... Its the reason men want nice cars, big houses, over priced clothes and extravagant holidays ect. Men who get the avarage to slightly above or below females on a regular basis dont have the drive that the "nerds" or "geeks" have because the more "chad" like men are simply not as thirsty as the less attractive males are. But everything that we use and what has made our lives easy as they are today was because some smart geeky guy invented it just so he get some arsse on the back end.	Sex	Gender - General	1/246	0.407

And if we're lucky we'll care about each other as well... so long as the conditions of the contract remain satisfied.Our culture idealizes fairy tale love which builds in us a hunger for that type of thing... for that special someone to be close to... and the disappointment when it's not satisfied... but it's not realistic. It's quite funny - I actually realised about a year ago that the ideas of love I had in my 20s... were mostly picked up as a little kid from watching the soap operas my mother watched. Pradeep Thanks, I agree. Like I said, I can't say I'm a male model but probably a bit above average. Beyond that I can offer much, aside from the money I can cook, fix things, spend money wisely etc. This woman had 4 layer paint job on her face. Only thing is she was much younger than me, but people thought in the restaurant she was my wife :lol:. Why does she have to go with me when there are endless guys on Tinder she can pick from. At her age (29)her looks are starting to sunset and unlike men older women have very little to offer because they can't have kids. Women really waste all their best years on shit today. I don't even blame them.The media pollutes them with fiction. Sex and the City, Feminism, other shit that just doesn't work in the real world. Women could never be men. With makeup though she looks ok. Looks like she had a car paintjob on her face. Primer base and clear :lol:. Wonder what she is hiding.With every sexual partner, a womans value drops. It is like a carfax, every owner is a downgrade. If men stopped accepting it though the problem would quickly end. What I see now is elite top 85 of men who smash women until they are used out, then they look for some beta with average looks and money. That aftermarket has to stop. It never existed in past times. My mom told me that after 25 (MAYBE 30) a woman became completely unmarriagable. Well, maybe for some 60yo widow. There was no cock carousel. Never make a family with a western woman ...	Woman	Gender - General	1/9	11.111
Western culture used to have family values. What has changed is women entering the work force in droves, universal suffrage, abortion and contraception (which gives women full control without any responsibility), and affirmative action and welfare programs that support women at the expense of men. This has led to an amoral society in the west where women can have sex with multiple men without consequence, and government programs and gender quotas which put women in a protected class where they no longer need men. The issue is since it's men who are the net taxpayers of society this imbalance can't continue forever as debts accrue and there is only so much of a man's money government can take. Western culture is a cesspool but it didn't always used to be that way. Once upon a time the west did have family values.	Gender, Sex	Gender - General	2/142	1.408

Gaza Gxrl /x Yes women working enmasse and taking contraceptives has changed the ballgame. From a logical perspective really think about it. What happens when the workforce doubles? It decreases wages by half and increases competition. This is simple economics. Men and women now compete against one another and women are taking on more masculine traits. Now due to this both men and women must work as wages compared to inflation have dropped dramatically. This means children become latchkey kids raised by state daycare and public institutions as both parents are working. Before the great society a person could support a whole family on one income.What happens when women are taking contraception? It means she can have sex with as many partners as she wants without worrying about the consequences. This increases promiscuity in women. You only have to look at the data to know this. This is just reality.As for being possessive, it's part of the male dominance instinct which society has been trying to stamp out (so called "toxic masculinity" and anti male sentiment like metoo). If men were taught to embrace their masculinity instead of being taught as boys that we are damaged girls who need to be effeminate, the Western world would be much better off and the family unit would still be at the forefront. There is nothing wrong with a man feeling possessive about the woman he wants to spend the rest of his life with. It's part of the protect and provide instinct that our socialist government tells boys and men that these natural inclinations are bad and evil.	Effeminate, Nothing, Sex, Woman	Age - Youngsters, Gender - General, Sexual Identity - Male homosexuality	4/268	1.493
Gaza Gxrl /x Entirely true? Do you know the difference between Macro, Micro and anecdotal? It's not about extinction of the human race. It's about being replaced by immigrants outside the culture like what's happening in Europe with the Muslims. To have a sustainable population you need approximately 2.1 children per household and all of the West are under this. What this means is the native culture is being replaced. Both Quantity and quality are maintained through strong family units which is lacking in the west. You're like speaking to a child. Women of the west are far dumber than ever, solipsistic, and hedonistic. Indoctrination does not equal intelligence. Having 40 percent of women being single moms is not wise. Women having children when they are past the age of 30, many past the age of 35 with increased health risks for the child including down syndrome and other diseases isn't wise. Women initiating 70-80 percent of divorce without regard to their children isn't wise. Women putting career over husband and children isn't wise nor is it good for society. Anyone who thinks that way is a moron. Unfortunately people like yourself are common and representative of the mob. You're far from wise.	Age, Common, Race	Age - General, Ethnicity - General, Social Class - Working class	4/203	1.97

Ben Sisko Thanks Ben. I've listened to TFM before but I don't follow him. I actually don't want to take women's rights away as you put it but there are harsh realities and part of being red pilld is seeking the truth regardless of how ugly it is. When you see women acting so irresponsibly when left to their own devices in regards to what's happening in the West a man must face observable reality. I mean now a woman can murder her baby outside the womb after it's born in New York and its now legal. Regardless of what you believe about abortion that is flat out murder. The supposedly more nurturing sex condones this as a group without batting an eyelash. Things like this will spread to other states as they always do. As degeneracy continues, women will become the figure heads and main supporters of these unethical behaviors. Women are unaccountable for their actions and the Western world promotes it. Females unilaterally have shown their irresponsibility as they are continually given more authority and power by the state.I would say taking away women's unearned privileges is what is required if the west is to thrive. Quite frankly though many men have become effeminate themselves and are also a big part of the problem. They support their own destruction and are the gatekeepers. While the solutions are simple, It's the complexity of it's implementation and sheer numbers of the opposition that will inevitably be our downfall if nothing is done. Pleasure, endless stimulus /entertainment and various sources to extract an abundance of resources from. You think it's more ideal for an egocentric woman to exclusively date one man? The only thing that stopped them in the past was shame and social stigmas (which are now fading into obscurity). Over four years on Tinder and I got 1 blowjob from one woman who turned out to be batshit crazy and very mean. Tinder seems mostly a complete waste of time, I have matched with several women and when it got down to it it turned out that they never even actually go on dates they just like to chat with men because they are lonely. Yeah you bet. If even a super rich guy like him cannot get and keep a woman ,then the rest of us normal dudes don't have a chance in hell of doing so. Also,if these Thots keep pulling a metoo and/or falsely accusing men of sexual misconduct or just outright rape they will soon find the vast majority of men won't even want to DATE them anymore. Let alone speak to or even look at them because they don't want to catch a false accusation or be metoo'ed. We will have looked at,weighed our options and situation and found it all to just be too big a hassle;dealing with women and totally not worth the trouble,effort or risks versus benefits to deal with it all. And thats when the majority of men will have decided to walk away. Its totally retarded guys,just go MGTOW and go your own way from these female "CREATURES" and all their problems,bullcrap and drama. suspicionofdeceit My other male cousin did something similar. I thought when he did it: Dude really?! Your last old lady was banging like 5 other dudes when she was married to you bro! Odell Mateo I personally have had at least THREE male family members or friends who were very close to me get wrecked,because that a-hole named Mr. Boner lead them straight to the slaughterhouse for men: Relationships and Marriage. One of them who actually is my cousin is stillcurrently with the controlling,lazy,ungrateful and hateful CUNT he calls a wife. She has already cheated on and left him once and she also threatened to leave and divorce him and take their two boys with her. He actually ended up taking that cunt back. Mostly because he loved his kids and didn't want them taken away from him,partially because he still loved her a little bit. Its all so screwed, mental and sickening to me. Seeing all this happen to guys who were so close to me is a large part of why I went MGTOW in the first place. I saw how really screwed and toxic things actually were,I saw it all happen right before my eyes. You CANNOT unsee that kinda crap and I would have to be TOTALLY blind or just a COMPLETE blithering idiot to miss or ignore it all. And people who are close to me wonder why I don't have a girlfriend or anything like that,they also ask me when am I going to get one? I always end up telling them I NEVER will get or have one. Is it any friggin' wonder why I don't want one after seeing what I have? NO THANKS.	Blind, Mental	Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	2/249	0.803

Please fact check what Bezos's wife did for Amazon before you go full comando and who was in a relationship before the divorce. MacKenzie is a novelist and a writer. She was the main reason Amazon started with books which paved the way for the huge success. She worked there and supported the family. Plus they have 4 children. Jeff is the one who wanted to opt out and has a new gf. This story has nothing to do with the typical gold digging women who just wants to exploit the system and rich man. Lazar Mitev Yeah tell yourself that she was the main inspiration. Men always credit their wives as being their source of inspiration. The saying "behind every great man is a woman " is often used with successful men and successful men themselves say that until they get divorced. Odell Mateo Oh I absolutely love myself for sure,I know for a FACT that no one else will EVER love me like I love myself,especially a woman . There is no way I couldn't love myself. You have a leg up on me though brother. I didn't ever have a father to teach me stuff like you did. My asshole mother personally saw to that,she divorced the man she claimed was my father before I was even born. He was a piece of crap though honestly,and he didn't want anything to do with me because of having to pay child support and because I was so sickly as a child. He only called and wanted to have something to do with me AFTER I had turned 21. Him doing that pissed me off so badly I ended up asking him where the hell he had been all this time. That he didn't have any excuses really,because he knew where I have lived almost since the day I was born and we didn't tell him he was forbidden from visiting me at all. He couldn't even come up with an answer or an excuse,I was so pissed off at him that I told him to go F& himself and I hoped I NEVER had to see or hear from him ever again. He has NEVER called back or sent a letter after that either. Most of what I know I have either had to learn myself,especially about women. Or I have even had to learn some of it from my grandfather. He was the closest thing I EVER had to an actual father and I really miss him actually being here. He unfortunately got Alzheimer's disease and I had to just watch him suffer and waste away both body and mind ever so slowly,everyday for several years before he actually passed away recently. It TOTALLY sucked ass watching that happen to him man...
