I bet that it's a joke and those guys filming are in on it, she looks directly at them at 19 seconds in. Maybe someone instructed her to put gas into the car (company car, etc). Lots of commenters are assuming it's her sugar dad's. But I imagine if she's dating a Tesla driver that she's seen him charge that car before (I have an EV and I charge often). It could be staged. Her eyebrows are black . Maybe she's wearing a platinum wig and put double-buns in it to look especially silly. I love Teslas (I wish I could afford one) so this video made me cringe mostly, especially when she had the gas pump right next to the car!!	Black	Ethnicity - Black	1/121	0.826
She is not blonde, though she might bleach her hair or be wearing a wig to perpetuate a stereotype which has no basis in reality as she plays along with this staged video. Her eyebrows are black .	Black	Ethnicity - Black	1/37	2.703

I know! I dislike that very much. The poster HAD to post that in the title to perpetuate a stereotype with no basis in reality. The only explanation for this that makes sense to me is that she's borrowing a friend's car, and she never really paid any attention to any news articles about Tesla, and so knows nothing about it whatsoever, being a person aggressively uninterested in technology and automobiles. If it's her car, I'd be more worried about her having early onset alzheimers than just being incredibly stupid, so she forgot what the car was or something. There's no way someone can be so dumb that they buy a car and don't know at some point whether it's petrol, diesel, hybrid, or electric. There's just no way. Omg...as a woman , I can tell that is a man. First, the actor is very tall. Most women that height are either naturally slim, or very curvy (with wide hips). They are also rare.The actor has slender hips relative to the rest of his body.The calves are thick and muscular.The actor's gait and posture are very masculine. Woman have different anatomy and skeletal structure than men, so the way the " woman " was walking and standing would be very unnatural for a woman .The physique of the actor is stocky and thick, but not in a curvy way. This is partly hidden with the loose bulky jacket. That's probably the reason the guy selected the jacket.Even if you don't believe me with any of that...the hair!!I do not know a single woman beyond the age of 2 who would even contemplate styling her hair like that.And I don't know a single woman who would ever dare leave the house with her hair a tangled mess like that. Not even on a bad hair day. Not even if running late.Edit : on second glance, I think this might be one of those mtf trans (still, not a woman), and not someone in on the video. Oh, I don't like it but that's because I'm naturally blonde. Unrelated to my hair color, I am also intelligent. It similarly crass that they label her has blonde as it would be to label someone as brown or black in a title of a film depicting someone poorly. Her hair appears bleached and her eyebrows are black , so I don't consider her to be blonde. Her hair is as fake as this video. ;-)	Black	Ethnicity - Black	2/75	2.667

CAUTION Knowing the reputation of YT these days ask yourself is this real or fake? Look at the womans dress code, clumsy wig, mirrored thick glasses, and POSING for camera while pretending to call someone. How did she position the cars left side nearest to pump? And more important HOW did she know that it needs filling?? without any petrol gauge???? And why is there no footage before/AFTER? Also before getting in car to drive off WHY did she unlock the central locking??. Its all staged. These days of saturation in every fields YouTubers are desperate to stage & pull off anything as genuine just to get on the viral ladder and YT money. Do you remember the woman cyclist easily snapping off vans mirror by bare fragile hands that eventually turned out as fake? She never typed her ZIP	Zip	Ethnicity - Asian (East-China, Japan, Korea, Philippines, Vietnam)	1/5	20.0

This is staged because:- How did she know how to open the charge port. There's no button, its in a submenu and you have to know where to look. It doesn't say "fuel door"- How did she know she needed gas? The car has no fuel gauge or a low fuel light, the only thing is a battery indicator that looks like the one on your phone. The car tells you to "charge" it when it gets low, not to "fuel" it and it will suggest directions to a supercharger, not a gas station.- She never completed all the steps to actually pump gas. She didn't put her zip or pin (required in California) and she never selected the fuel grade. Sure, you can select all that after you put the nozzle in but who swipes their card and then doesn't follow the prompts right away if you're serious about getting gas.- The car immediately locks itself after she shuts the driver's door, indicating that the key had to be far enough away (not with her and not in the car) for it to trigger auto-lock. Most likely the key is with the guys in the Prius (who are filming and giggling). This is also evident in the fact that the trunk opens again right after she closes it. The car wouldn't do that, they pushed the button for extra comedic effect.- Why would all this happened while she's conveniently dressed in the most stereotypical way of a "dumb rich blond ... woman" and someone is filming it perfectly in landscape format? Please...This video has been picked up by news outlets across the world. Just goes to show that 1. there is very little critical thinking going on and 2. we must not have better things to talk about. Though I agree, its refreshing to have these kinds of stories as opposed to all the real BS that's going on. At first I said it was not staged but look at when they started recording. Nothing going on why would you record her. If it was real you would have caught it in the middle. Also there would have been a security cam with this type of thing.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/48	2.083
Mike Killagreen because it’s a Tesla... it’s well known they are electric so pulling up at a gas station with a Tesla car parked near a gas pump is reason enough to automatically record the moment it’s common sense poeple	Common	Social Class - Working class	1/41	2.439

Idgaf what poeple do that don’t mean that she was suppose to know that the dam car didn’t use gas just has many reasons you made an excuse for poeple pulling up to the pump to not use gas can be flipped to many reasons she had no idea that the car was electric so stfu it’s clear you have zero common sense like most of the world don’t fuckboy	Common, Zero	Age - Youngsters, Social Class - Working class	2/93	2.151

Look at the womans dress code, clumsy wig, mirrored thick glasses, and POSING for camera while pretending to call someone. How did she position the cars left side nearest to pump? And WHY is there no footage before/AFTER? Also before getting in car to drive off WHY did she unlock the central locking??. Its all staged. Alexa B, from all the comments I have read so far, you are the only person who said something constructive and show that you are a human. It doesn't matter if the video is real or fake, but the reaction of people is disappointing. To those who believe in God, it says in Romans 12:2 "Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect" In another world, making fun of the lady is wrong. If she doesn't know, she doesn't know and it doesn't mean she is not intelligent. What is logical to someone can be confusing to someone else, and I personally believe that common sense does not exist.	Common	Social Class - Working class	1/136	0.735

Trasher Hunt Hot Wheels you're absolutely right, except that there are multiple designs of fuel cells, including those where hydrogen is delivered using a hydrogen-rich liquid, which is typically an organic solvent or alcohol like ethanol or methanol. Other designs of fuel cells can use liquid ammonia. You're welcome.	alcohol	Behavioural Addiction - Alcohol	1/49	2.041

atenrok Thank you, but they're only in theory. The main purpose of these fuel cells, using the hydrogen is decreasing the release of carbon (C) and making something cheaper. As you may know, the fluids that you mentioned includes C and they're expensive. It is mainly the water ((H2O) (there is no C as seen)) that people are trying to extract the hydrogen. And do you know what is petrol? And what are the derivatives of it? Alcohol or ammonium are not derivatives of petrol. So you are totally wrong, sadly. As a friendly advice, use articles not google. You can use google to find articles but use reliable sources. If you have any "other" misunderstanding, don't hesitate to ask. If I am wrong about something I wrote, I can accept it easily and joyfully with the happiness of learning something new or correcting one of my mistakes. Have a nice day and thank you for your interest and kindness.	alcohol	Behavioural Addiction - Alcohol	1/161	0.621

Dropit You can pretty clearly tell when she starts trying to shove the pump in random places and looks at it like its a foreign object. Also, have you seen the inside of a Tesla? There is no way anyone can mistake it for having gas in it. It says "charge" all over the place and the symbols look just like batteries. Just to drive it you need to know a little about it.
