Racist people are angry because, deep down inside, they understand that they are a relic of a shameful past. The culture of racism and anti- black sentiment is on the decline because humans are evolving. Racists are dying out. The kids in this silly "town" of white "victims" will grow up and still crave sex with black bodies, after all that indoctrination. So funny! How stupid do they think their children are? Do they really think they've created a vacuum?Remember, after slavery was abolished a few former white "victim" slave owners did the same thing. Idiots. I used to live in Orania - very nice. Everyone welcome. In fact a black family came to live there and enjoyed it very much, but they left due to the culture, because at the end of the day its 2 different cultures. There no shame in admitting that. It's an Afrikaans town, with afrikaans culture and norms. It's no different than a white person choosing to go live in Soweto for example, if the white person can't adapt to that particular culture, then he/she will more than likely leave, that does not make Soweto a "Blacks only Town" - at the end you might like it, but you might want to live among people with the same culture. This notion that Orania is an apartheid town is complete hogwash. it's media hype. It's private property developed with it's own infrastructure for like minded people who embrace the Afrikaans culture. It's about culture, not skin colour. If you go live in a "green eco vegan housing estate" you are going to feel pretty excluded when you show up with your 5.7L V8 4x4 gas guzzling truck with bull horns on the radiator. Dont know why people and journalists in particular don't understand this very basic concept.	Black	Ethnicity - Black	1/206	0.485

This idiot says the boohers don't want to mix with africans. They mix with them constantly. They are mixed and connected by commerce and proximity. What this idiot means is: The white farmers want to hang onto their own culture and want their children to do the same and have children with other white people in order to preserve their race and culture. The presenter just presents this as "unwilling to mix", or get along. Fact is africans are more racist than anyone, and they hate the fact that white farmers are such an important part of their existence and they need them in their countries. If all white people left africa and gave up their vested interest, I wonder what would happen? Hahahaha!!! We all know what would happen.	Race, Racist	Ethnicity - General	2/130	1.538

ok a few things is so wrong about this report. 1) this settlement is a legal settlement under the law of self determination act in the South African constitution. 2) People living here are not racist as the reporter claims, they are white Afrikaans people who are tired of the corruption under the current ANC lead Government of south Africa and the purposeful attempt of degrading and oppressing this White Afrikaner culture in South Africa. In the recent years escalation of Brutal murders on White people, the removal of Afrikaans as their language, the exclusion of white people for the JOB market through BEE Black Economic Empowerment legislations and motivated this Afrikaner Whites to remove themselves from the broader Spectrum of South African Society to be self determined, and Self reliant. 3) the majority of these people are Afrikaans spoken , Christians and White due to their Culture , Ethnicity and their views and shared ideals about, as well as their worldview in religion. No one is excluded of living or entering Orania, to live here you are drenched in AFRIKAANS CULTURE, thus living here you need to be at peace with the modus operhandi. 4) Their currency is on par with the SA currency and is not above the South African Reserve.5)Although Orania lies within the borders of the Thembelihle municipal area, it is not an administrative part of the Thembelihle Local Municipality. Orania maintains its own municipal administration, while Thembelihle provides no services (such as sewerage, roads, rubbish collection) to Orania, and collects no rates from the town (other taxes are paid normally).In 2011, town rates for residents were between R1,500 and 2,000 per month. The town's existence is permitted by the Constitution of South Africa under a clause that allows for the right to self-determination.Orania has a non-confrontational attitude towards South African authorities, which have likewise adopted a non-interference policy towards Orania. The ANC government mostly avoids the issue of Orania and its status, as it is seen as less important than many other political issues the party faces. What is happening in France today with all the muslims? Why don't the French assimilate with them? Why do people HAVE to Assimilate with others? why force people to get along with others? If they don't they do not have to! before reporting on Apartheid places like Orania. Fred Focus You bring up an excellent point, which confirms everything I think of white supremacist systems like this joke of a town. You will NEVER find an all black community by design anywhere in the world, because colonization, white supremacy, and global anti- black sentiment have convinced even black people that whites are superior. Therefore blacks always embrace integration, miscegenation, etc... Whites, on the other hand, will tolerate blacks as long as the blacks know their place as an inferior subservient race .Ask yourself honestly if you think you are better than Blacks. (Of course you do!) Then ask yourself how long the former system of apartheid and oppression could have possibly lasted in this evolving world. Finally, ask yourself why these whites don't just go back to their country of origin if they can't stand blacks so much. Classic white entitlement. Lol.The people of this town won't even teach their children about the love, compassion, and perseverance of Madiba and other leaders (white and black) who tried to heal the country. Times may be a bit rough for some whites now, but it is a drop in the ocean compared to suffering of the blacks, from whom this African land was stolen. I can't even imagine living in a country where I'm told that I'm a second class citizen just because I'm black . On the land of my forefathers... kamvajnr dj mhluzi The difference is in black only towns any race can live there. You can't live in Orania even if you are a rich, well known black person, with no criminal record. kamvajnr dj mhluzi It's not like here, not by design. Let's get that straight. There are two dynamics that were in place to create that set up:a. the racist Afrikaans created the perfect racist environment by having black Africans separating them and turn on each other by the tribe to ensure subjugation and controlb. blacks are the majority and were living in specific communities from white people. That remained the same EVEN AFTER apartheid. It wasn't like everyone became middle class was able to integrate w the white people.It seemed in SA after apartheid, white people didn't go down however not all black people went up. Therefore all- black communities in SA would be normal and aren't done intentionally, nor done b/c it's a form of attraction, it's b/c on one end it's population and racism . I am black and South African , living in Soweto actually. Crime in SA affects us all, just like it does in other countries. Some people of Afrikaans descent are known to want to be superior and not see or be in contact with a person who is not Afrikaner. Real South Africans still fear these people, and the fact that they get sympathy just shows me that racism here will still be around long after we are gone. Our crime to them is being black , and they will do everything in their power to make sure the stereotypes stay alive. I wish they knew how much the black community have forgiven them for the past, I wish they knew how much we wanted to coexist with them, how much we are interested in the future of both our generations. They belong here but they should not feel superior because of their skin colour. In my opinion they are just salty about not running the country. By the way I do not support the current government or condone what they do especially corruption but I'm happy for freedom, I'm happy that I can be black and free in my own country, I'm not rich nor poor, never been arrested, never did any crime, all I have is love for my country and hopes of a positive change, not for me but for the ones we leave behind. If France24 start truthfully reporting on the violent crime in South Africa of which nearly 100 is being comitted by blacks (Either black on black or black on white) , it will be so shocking that no one would want to visit the place. Instead they desperately try and find white racism , of which such miniscule evidence can be found today. It is truly disgusting how they ignore the real problems. South Africa was not nearly as dangerous to live in 30 years ago as it is now. Why do they think people emigrate out of the country AFTER Mandela came to power. Why don't they 'FOCUS' on what is actually the cause of misery in that country and how apartheid is like a little drop of water compared to the sea of violent crime, corruption and chaos that developed successfully into full bloom overthe past 25 years by the black regime calledthe ANC..... What? Too much truth?	Black, Racism	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	5/159	3.145
France24 should document the decline of the Pretoria and Johannesburg CBDs and suburbs with the exponential rise in violent crime after 1994, which white Afrikaners are leaving to move overseas or to this little place of Orania. Afrikaners dont miss apartheid, they miss Western Civilisation and moral values and a civil society with less corruption like that of western countries, which slowly dissapeared after Mandela came to power, and the black regime took over..... But what this journalist wants to desperately find is 'white racism'. South Africa is full of black on white racial hate today, but that is not interesting or politically correct in this news agents eyes to be news worthy. I think the best solution is reparations or simply taking the land that was stolen and offering either some form of compensation or to let them buy it back, there needs to be a better response by the government because it could turn right around to racism against white. Having said that this is a ridiculous response, wanting apartheid back because you're the one now suffering means that you're okay with hurting other groups which is what they're criticizing what the government's currently doing, it's hypocritical and ignores the injustices done to the Africans by invaders. but even when I said that we are all 100 same in dna in case of biology, I can admit that if an eskimo will see african , he will have some kind of view about him because still it's weird to see somebody else but these south africans have born in africa so I would assume that they would be friends by now, but I think that the problem here is not that simple, because the coin have two sides. South African blacks are also racists for white, but in Finland we have a saying "we are all different - we are all equal" so even someone finds other " race " different somehow from the looks, it doesn't mean that they are not equal. World is full of racist and it's a big myth that europeans are racist . I think Turkish and Japanese are the biggest racists out there. Only different is that in Japan some people actually like americans and there is black people in america so automaticly someone likes them and in Turkey they have the islamic religion where you cannot be racist , so basicly whery religious turkish would not be racist , but more down to Earth Turkish people are racist at least, what I've seen and I'm not even black , but when I see these Asians being racist about black , it amazes me, how stupid they can be sometimes. White people never were racist in culture but they were the biggest racist by politics, you can find a picture where Elvis Presley is on the bar sitting and a black dude cannot sit. This was their apartheid. Elvis always liked black music and black people but his mother teach him that he cannot get a black wife. People kinda were brainwashed to racism , still Elvis Presleys mother said that in Gods eye, we are all the same. She just lived the age what she lived, it was not her fault. Edit Fazekas,demanding?What on earth you on about?All immigrants,whether refugee or economical ones get houses they either got from local government or privately paid by their companies which employed them! They ARE paying for these houses,even a refugee is expected to find a job and pay the rent and pay back most of the things they received! You have no idea,how these people live,I on the other hand have closely dealt with immigrants. And NO,no African or Asian immigrant is DEMANDING a land in Europe or treating the native whites or anyone else with contempt! It is predominantly,misguided whites that go and attack others and steal their lands then have the audacity to the treat the local native populations with an insult and racism ! These are,indeed,the INTERLOPERS!Furthermore,people should move around the world and live wherever life takes them,we should be inclusive societies that care for everyone.Come on,man,admit it you as a racist person,are unhappy and unsatisfied with life,therefore I suggest to focus on life and improve on yourself,after all our time on earth is limited,why waste time on hating others? What is the reason behind this irrational hate and fear?Jealousy?Uncontrolled and absurd insanity?Don't worry there are fantastic psychologists who can help you with this madness. Africa economies will grow with the Chinese and now increasing American/western investments because they're scared of the Chinese influence. So by 2100, the African population will be 4.3 - 4.6 billion. West Africa, Ethiopia, Kenya, Rwanda and Egypt is laying down the foundation. Once more African countries get more stable it will develop open borders with its neighbor markets, open international markets, manufacturing sectors will have huge resources because Africa has a lot of resources, own currency, and finally a lingua franca. South Africa belong to the Black People, for more than 100 years the White man did use the Black man, so stop cry like a Baby, the Apartheid is over, and credit system the white man did come up with to get everything for themself, it can also not be true that 10 of the white people own 90 of the land, even a small child can see there is something really wrong, so give back the land you did steal from the Black , and stop cry like a Baby you did make money on the Black for more than 100 years now. if i was Black i will free the white people out of my country. Edit Fazekas Do your research. Whites for centuries have instituted barbaric means and attempted to dominate and control every region of the world. They have exercised control of most of the wealth and resources around the world and hoarded it for themselves, then want to blame every other race of people whom they've essentially subjugated and starved out for not building up the infrastructure in their own countries. It's like taking a mans arms, then criticizing him for not plowing his own crops. Ever heard of Mayer Amschel Rothschild? Do your research. He was a white man and he was extremely evil. He was the founder of a HUGE banking dynasty and his used his wealth to manipulate wars, and he forced other nations to make alliances with him using his power and influence, and he put the countries that he considered to be his enemies in debt. If he puts a country in debt, do you think it's citizens can build there? Do you think they can create infrastructure, stabilize their economy and thrive as a society? But you ignorant white people who think you're so smart never research and educate yourselves about much of anything. You just thought you were more superior, and that was the reason why other nations were never able to build lol. You whites weren't more intelligent. Your people were just selfish, vile, wicked, and evil. And to this day you believe lies of superiority rather than facts, which keeps you willfully ignorant and delusional to the truth of our history which has NEVER been hidden. jon tyler the white genocide myth is a tired lie being pushed out by white supremacists deflecting from their own races history of genocide against non white people. Tell me the statistics of black on white killings since the end of apartheid. There is a huge security issue in SA totally mishandled by the ANC but using the word genocide in this way is disingenuous and makes a mockery of the term. imnotblackimoj In all honesty, if this is your god's honest truth of your perception then you are massively detached from reality.White genocide is not based on the /fact that blacks are headhunting whites in South Africa.It is based on the statistics that due to massive immigrant immigration in to Europe (Which we have allowed), combined with declining birthrates of native europeans, they are dwindling in numbers.Genocide is, not by definition something that is done through force.By 2050 most native europeans will be a minority in their own country, and if the rates continue like this our race will go extinct. The Dutch were in the Western Cape South Africa decades before anyone else. How is anyone entitled to that other than the Boers? Hell the Dutch has more right to the Western Cape than the Zulu for that matter.South African minorities (whites coloreds asians) are being discriminated against and assaulted. Farmers are being murdered and now they are having their land stolen from them with NO compensation. Sure some was stolen to begin with BUT does two wrongs make a right? And in some cases the land was unoccupied to begin with.There is a push for independence for the Western Cape. This I believe is the best answer. The Western Cape was founded by the Dutch before anyone else was there. And the Western Cape is mostly minorities and speak Afrikaners. Not to mention they are more capitalist. The Western Cape isn't hardly 10 South Africas total land size. Let the Western Cape free. It's not a lot of land and it gives the minorities a place to go to live the way they want. To avoid taking shots in the dark, we must identify the main clash of ideas which drive much of this political turmoil in South Africa. The clash is between the ideals of Communism & the ideals of Capitalism. It's frustrating that this is never discussed but it's probably because it'll direct unwanted attention toward the legitimacy and honesty of the African National Congress (ANC), the party which began the policy of white land expropriation without compensation. Personally, I fully support the Afrikaner people, as well as their right to self-determination! Can't bear reading through the comments or even listening to the intro. Why is it so wrong for a people born on this land, part of it for generations, to want a place to call their own where they can determine and build their destiny and live in their own culture. I can see how well multi culturism is working out for you France. Paris is a mess and the French are fleeing to Hungary thanks to rediculous immigration policies.Oranja is NOT nostalgic about apartheid. There is no cheap labour or exploitation and everyone builds their lives themselves. History is always written by the victors but if you actually look at the facts Mandela was a terrorist who did what he did because it was the only way the USA would let his party take control of SA. They were ofcourse protecting their mining interests here. So don't come and talk BS about things you know nothing of.Oranja was a desert when it was bought, worthless by every account. This works the same way.	Common, Red	Ideological and Political Identity - General, Ethnicity - Native- American, Social Class - Working class	3/69	4.348

Having their own currency is the biggest stupid own goal of them all. First of all they separated themselves and isolated themselves which is supposed to make themselves feel safe but in fact it makes them a complete target. They then raise their own flag which is tantamount to treason. Then they use their own currency. All the South African government has to do is refuse to recognise that currency thereby making the use of the currency a crime and valueless. Over night those fools could become broke. Harvey Davis Martinez well I can give you two recent examples examples of white people playing victim ones on this chat he says in a majority white country called Canada they have a Somali born immigration minister & that minister doesn't want white south African refugees in Canada thats funny because Africans are rarely given visas to enter Europe and again whites haven't asked the indigenous population of Canada if they can settle there.And this week a European minister said to our African union counterparts that they don't want them to continue with the release of the African single currency but we knew this would happen and the reason is that as a collective result we will be many more times more powerful economically and European/America will not be able to controle Africa and it's resources and that means Europe being far poorer in the next seven yrs and that can also lead to war which I think is inevitable. Orania is not a "whites only" town, it is an AFRIKANER ONLY town because much of South Africa speaks English and Afrikaners are a minority. And to make out that these people are uniformly pro-Apartheid is Fake News. It's also hypocritical, considering how many black -only townships and villages exist in the country. The difference between Orania and Apartheid-era South Africa is that the people of Orania are mostly working-class Afrikaners who don't employ black servants and labourers. This is where Apartheid failed; bringing in blacks from the tribal homelands into the major cities and farms as migrant labour, when all it did was compromise the original intent of the Apartheid policy of maintaining ethnic homogeneity and development. White Oranians doing their own menial labour is as far from the old Apartheid system as you can get, and the scummy MSM tries to depict these people as bigots because they choose to live apart from other South Africans. As if they didn't TRY to co-exist for years, when blacks were assaulting them, killing their families and stealing their stuff. This is it is necessary for them to live separately. I'm white and I live in South Africa. State sponsored persecution is real. Malema is gaining alot of political pull on the voting bloc. Malema literally said that he doesnt want to slaughter whites "yet". He is polarizing black people to hate whites and to be black supremacists. They will use their moral highground to justify the dispossession of whites without compensation in certain parts in South Africa. Saying that land owned by whites is " black land" and should be given to black people. This is only an indicator for what is to come to white countries in Europe and else where. Afika xundu I certainly wasn't confused. Identity and Culture are important. If they weren't There wouldn't have been protests over making Afrikaans the instruction language. You say that you have not seen someone lose their culture. Let's take the dismantling of institutions. Today there is a movement to remove Afrikaans from Stellenbosch. Further we have seen the removal of the Rhodes statue from Cape Town. These Institutions and Symbols are important parts to White South African cultures. Let's look to the United States where I currently live. Latinos move to the US from a number of countries in the Americas. Overtime these Latino communities lose their language. Second they lose their practices as they adapt to American culture. In successive generations, these communities dissolve. Most White Latinos do not identify as Latino within 2 generations.Culture is in constant flux and change, however in a society like South Africa, where the ANC desires to erase the symbols and institutions of the White Minority due to it's connection to colonialism, imperialism, and Apartheid, it is no wonder that some would desire to preserve their culture.	African	Ethnicity - Black	1/184	0.543

Silas Bishop I'm not saying that identity and culture aren't important to preserve...my point is the method through which you preserve your culture must be flexible for everyone but preserving your culture isn't a problem. Most of South Africa's best schools and universities are English/Afrikaans-this doesn't accomodate for reserving black culture in South Africa yet black people have managed to preserve their culture despite this-in such a way that it accomodate everyone else yet they make up approx.70 of South Africa's population. I think it's great that Afrikaans people want to preserve their culture because it forms a part of their identity but i just don't think that isolating yourself from the rest of the world in the way that Orania has in South Africa is the way things should be done. In my South African passport the front page says that we all should be able to move across our country freely-i don't think that everyone is welcome to go to Orania. I also feel like the ANC is trying to balance the power-distribution in South Africa hence inowadays it's more difficult for white people to find jobs but it's not that their trying to erase white culture or identity. I mean, if you calculate the percentage of wealth distribution in South Africa, white people who are the minority (like you said) dominate a significant amount of it. So my feel is that the ANC are trying to balance that and it feels as though they are erasing white culture but really their not. (I'm addressing the one gentleman who moved to Orania because of job-difficulties) Again, culture preservation isn't a problem-it's how you preserve it that matters because we live in a country full of people so we all do have to share. Nobody can be selfish...i feel like that's some idea of what democracy is	African, Black, Nobody	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Black	4/308	1.299
---	------------------------	--	-------	-------

Afika xundu 1) The English/Afrikaans universities are the best schools because of hundreds of years development. Within English and Afrikaner culture exists. This does not exist in Black African cultures to the same degree. The government should invest more in building this within black schools instead of trying to tear down the remaining schools. South Africans of all races send their children to these schools because they want them to have a solid education. ANC backed public schools are an absolute failure. Teachers can't even pass the tests they give. Orania represents a handful of people. Afrikaner culture exists and evolves in Jozi, Cape Town and in many rural areas of the country. You are correct, you would not be welcome in Orania to live. Neither would I. We aren't Afrikaners. The ANC is a corrupt institution looking to blame Whites for their failure to live up to their promises. The jobs policies are bad. Young White South Africans are leaving in droves. They take with them their education. The Country is suffering severe brain drain. Yes, White dominate the wealth and resources of the country. THis is in part due to colonialism, apartheid and in more current generations, education. Democracy must have safeguards from protecting minorities from majority tyranny. Orania is a financially self sustaining community that doesn't take from society. Why do you really care if their couple thousand people want to live in their own community? If Afrikaners wanted to settle in Soweto and turn it into a settlement of Condos, what would you say?	African, Black	Ethnicity - Black	3/258	1.163
Afika xundu South Africa isn't a wealthy country. It doesn't have the economic power of say the EU that protects cultures within countries. In South Africa, these people took the initiative. Why does it offend you that these people would want to live among their own people in an isolated environment? Most Afrikaners live outside of Orania. Most young don't want to live there. They do interact with other groups and South African society overall, but on their terms. There is nothing wrong with that. Why can't you accept them for who they are? Offense is inferred. If they so wish for their own little safe space, let them. Why is it your desire to destroy them?	African, Nothing	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Black	2/117	1.709

For a very long time, the best institutions weren't accommodative towards black people which is why the most of them are English/Afrikaans in South Africa today. Now that South Africa is a democracy a lot of the students who go to these universities aren't Afrikaans like it probably was before and this means that universities need to accommodate for everybody-there is a compromise because English is the most universal option When you refer to black people, you say black African culture because there are so many black South African cultures-what does this tell you about the amount of cultures that have to comprise? I'm Xhosa and I personally wouldn't be okay with the syllabus being taught in Sotho and neither would the jillions of other cultures Secondly, for a very long time black people weren't allowed the resources and means of starting their own institutions which perhaps would've been competitive towards modern day institutions and if you say that the government should make one for them, what are they going to do in the meanwhile? I feel like inspiring the idea of separation will equate to hatred. Why should we isolate ourselves and hide our cultures instead of flaunt them and admire other people's cultures out in the open? We all have freedom of choice but the way you wish to run school-systems in South Africa actually depletes that.Afrikaans people are African , and so universities must accommodate for all African cultures. John Davis it's not fake news, you are essentially dismissing history, don't act like you don't know of the land act of apartheid that specified that blacks aren't allowed to own land or property. Many black people who owned land were forcefully removed from their land under this act. Shoving millions of displaced blacks in small areas, subsequently giving rise to townships like soweto, Sophia Town, Alexander etc. This happened to my grand father who was a wealthy black farmer, so this hits very close to home. Anthony I This is not true. The mostly Dutch Farmers bought land from the black Kings and had treaties with all of them. The Zulu King for example sold them land on condition that they settle between him and his enemy another black tribe, so it brought piece to his people. The Zulu King, Xhosa King, Venda etc all have their original land still to this day. The black Kings had full independence untill England invaded South Africa and stole the pieces of land the whites owned, you see the country called South Africa was made with borders and all by the Queen. This set the path and laws that were then put in place, breaking up all the treaties. Ask yourself why in all the years of Apartheid did the blacks not go and stay with their kings in their independent countries if it was so bad. The whites gave them running water, money, food and housing and a much better life than they had living in mude huts with their kings.	Black	Ethnicity - Black	3/173	1.734

RK the Zulus were slaughtered in battle so had to make concessions from an inferior position in which they were exploited, similar to the treaty of Versailles. And, ‘the whites’ didn’t give them anything, the black Africans in shanty towns were forced into indentured servitude for little money which they couldn’t even buy enough food with talk less of electricity or running water. And is this a joke? Black South Africans were forced to live in shanty towns where they’re housing for the most part consisted of tents made of corrugated iron sheets on wooden pillars.Besides what is up with the hate for mud huts? Anthony I it’s a culture difference bro black people were known since ancient times to war among another because of their different value structures, take the famous zulu and Ndwandwe war where casualties resulted up to a staggering 30000 slain soldiers, which amongst them were the most innocent among us. they plundered and raided villages of other african tribes as well throughtout their conquest and settlement. You see everything is traced back to ancestry, and the culture, which is embedded in the minds of the decendents since birth so this is not a racial issue but a more deeper one which needs to be addressed if you want to get anywhere. Cultures matter and having cultures with different sets of value structures living with one another most likely would result in conflict. Maybe you should read a book my friend	African, Black	Ethnicity - Black	2/140	1.429

Anthony I and by the way it was europeans who introduced farming in africa, not africans due to the fact that they were hunter gatherers. Do you even know how the economy is runned? Do you even know what the purpose of a farm is? Farms are used to supply a city with food. Cities are also a european design. Thats why we have farms, to supply the cities with food. I mean the white South africans have been farming the lands for wel over 350 years, where as the hunter gatherer african tribes have not farmed, they hunted and gathered and we all know you can't supply a city with enough food by using the method of hunting and gathering, the europeans laid the foundation of farming in africa therefore the expertise and technology of farming lies in their hands. And let the whites have their own community, we all have the right to associate ourselves with who we want so if a group of white people want to associate themselves with one another let them be, it's their right, don't come and take it away otherwise you're infringing on their human rights which in turn would lead to the result of you oppressing them, and you yourself becoming like those apparthied thugs which you despise so much. morton christie there are parts of this country that are generally unsafe for EVERYBODY. It's not black or white, it's about whether you have stuff to steal or not. There are "white" parts of this country where I as a black dont feel safe, where I could randomly be attacked by right wing afrikaner boys. I once had an attack near my own home in Montana Park, Pretoria. So please, that narrative that blacks are attacking whites is just bias nonsense.	Black	Ethnicity - Black	2/81	2.469

Christopher Beilings No white man ever went into the black tribal lands with the object of forcing blacks into towns and thereby take up employment.Remember too the black is the most recent arrival to Southern Africa. they aggressively fought their way down from their traditional homeland in the Congo. They murdered all the other indigenous tribes on their way down.This invasion was halted just over the borders of the modern South Africa by the white man. They should be damn lucky we did not drive them all the way back to the Congo! In stead we allocated them tribal lands. Lands where they could live out their lives as they have for thousands of years. Only difference is we installed law and order and development. Something no black despotic king had ever done for them. We built the modern state of South Africa. The black man had nothing on his person when he arrived in my country. And i mean nothing ! Not even clothes on his back or shoes on his feet! And this was in the 1800's!!!!They were stone age people. The best we could do for them was to leave them as we found them. In stead we gave them. Free of charge! Everything they have today. They arrived at our party not only uninvited, but empty handed. We fed and watered them....at our expence. Anthony I They actually sold it to Piet Retief and then decided to go back on the agreement and killed him and all his men. As for the 'battle of blood river' again it was the Zulus who attacked the small group of Afrikaners. As for the Slaughtering that was England who did that and they slaughtered both the Afrikaners and Zulus and put the Afrikaner wives and children in concentration camps and took their 2 countries the Free State and ZAR (now Gauteng province) away from them. Also the Zulus were chasing the other black tribes around and vice versa. The tribes were fighting each other and large tribes lived mostly in the areas where there kings now still live, although most were Nomadic having to flee from place to place so as to not get killed by a stronger black tribe. Those black kings who settled had in any event obtained that land by killing the Khoi and San people. Blacks lived with their kings and their wasn't so many of them. The country was scarcely populated, so their was more than enough space for everyone and each had their own country, but then the Afrikaners found gold and the English in Kimberley found diamonds, then the British army was promptly sent, just as the US is now sent whenever oil control is at stake. The Afrikaners never came to conquer like the British, they came mostly to flee from religious persecution, many being protestant and not catholic and mostly to just come and farm on land that was just bush and plenty of it. Anyway, one only hears of the Jewish concentration camps and not the Afrikaner ones. As for the bad deal of some treaties, yes that is true, but so did the Afrikaners lose their countries and after they regained it, lost it again in 1994 through 'democracy' that again only cares about black and white and black tribal violence and crime against whites can now fester without impediment or control. Without the self-defence that whites could only obtain through the Apartheid system there is now no hope for them. The argument now is don't worry about so many whites getting murdered, nearly just as many blacks are getting murdered, so it is just crime. The thing is whites could protect themselves with their own white police force and army like they did in Apartheid, but now they are not allowed to.....Soon they will be using the military weapons whites built to protect themselves with to shoot them, all in the name of international sanctions and America's calls for 'Democracy'. Democracy for each race separately in their own country is all that works. Look at Zimbabwe etc. No go zones in Sweden, knife stabbings in London. Muslims demanding Sharia law and once they become majority will turn whatever country into an Islamic state with no democracy anymore. Look at tensions rising. Multiculturalism is failing worldwide.Blacks back to Africa, whites back to Europe, only solution, else expect permanent riots, protests and civil wars and total destruction of white civilisation. That is the goal in any event and it is what ww2 was about, but the white race lost. Forced multiculturalism would follow and total annihilation of the white race as end goal. Who is behind it? Globalist Zionists? Was everything Adolf said true? Sure looks like it. As he said the only way they could ever rule over the European race is if they make it a bastardized race of mongrels and that is their goal! We know again, it is nearly too late. Adolf told

Darren Blake I am a Boer and I don't speak or understand Dutch. It's all "goo goo ga ga" to me and every one I know. Thanks for proving my point. I understand some words but like my Spanish can speak very little. I wouldn't want to learn Dutch because in the real world it carries no weight from an international business or educational point if view globally. It's useless outside of Holland hence why very few bother to learn it. Secondly Yes South Africa was a Dutch colony but Afrikaners are a combination of Dutch, French Huguenots, German, Scandinavian, Malay and Khoisan. These are the facts. Afrikaners, their language and culture were formed in South Africa.Simply put they were settlers or slaves when they arrived, mixed and became AFRIKANERS..... not Dutch etc... but AFRIKANERS. If I use your poor logic once again, according to you the Zulu are also not indigenous to SOUTH Africa because their language started as a Bantu language from the Great Lakes area of central Africa and only reached the east coast of South Africa in the 16th century. Thats when the modern day Zulu language were created. In other words an "off shoot" of the Bantu language. Another way to look at your argument from an African perspective is like saying North Africans are not African because they speak a dialect if Arabic and French. Also over 50 of Afrikaans speakers are black...does that mean they are also not indigenous?See my point sunshine. I'm not going to stoop to your level calling you all sorts of names. I'll just point a mirror to your idiotic argument and let it speak for itself.	African, Black	Ethnicity - Black	3/280	1.071
Darren Blake come Darren Kaaskop, I'm waiting for you to explain how according to you Afrikaners are not SOUTH African because part of their language came from Dutch almost 400 years ago. Or how, if we apply your logic, all North Africans are not really Africans because their language came from Arabic in the middle East. Or how the Zulu whose language came from a Bantu language in central Africa are not South African Or how over 50 of Afrikaans speakers are black and are not South African according to you because of their language.Please come explain your logic to my 4 year old brain....	African, Black, Old	Age - Over 65s, Ethnicity - Black	5/106	4.717
Drug of War 100 Khoisan was the first. Therefore the Nguni tribes that make up almost 70 of black SA today are not indigenous to South Africa. Also the Khoisan and Nguni(eventually) only settled on the lush East Coast and Western Cape. Close to water. South Africa is 60 semi desert with a low water table meaning almost impossible to support human life for long. This a scientific fact. These areas were only occupied when the Boers utilised Windpomp technology that uses wind to pump water from underground. Therefore the Boers are indigenous to almost 60 of the land as they were the first to settle there. Understand.	Black	Ethnicity - Black	1/108	0.926

Tyrone Mawela Well considering that this town is a refuge for Afrikaans that feel they've been targeted by the current system as payback for apartheid. I would say let them be. They're not promoting hate against blacks. So you're saying every black township is a legacy of apartheid. That would make sense since the black population boomed during Apartheid. However, Orania was founded after apartheid. While blacks moved into white townships, whites aren't allowed to do the same. That would be gentrification. Why haven't blacks used their political and economic power to create new towns? Why is it always about consumption and taken over what has already being built? They wouldn't seize vacant land without expropriation. It always has to be a farmland with structures already on it. Orania has zero local crime by the way and the locals like to keep it that way. NoOne NoOneAtAll if Orania was meant as a refuge for paranoid whites after the abolishment of apartheid because they feared the majority black population would seek revenge, that would make sense and they were right to think that, but that's not how it happened is it? The true purpose of Orania (if that's what it was) had run its course.If they choose isolate themselves so be it, but don't say it's not fueled by a hatred for blacks, I've seen documentary of them saying out of their own mouths that they view blacks as the enemy and they even indoctrinate their young into believing that. All the boys are trained as soldiers, snipers for a common enemy. Don't sit there and tell me they're peaceful people with no hate, that community is the embodiment of white supremacy. NoOne NoOneAtAll and another thing I don't get how the demographic growth of black people under apartheid has anything to do with why black townships are a legacy of apartheid. That's not it, and know you it. You know apartheid was aimed at dividing and conquering all racial groups so that they can be kept under control if they chose to revolt, because the white population (although they were in power) was and still is the minority not only that white population was on the decline due to fertility issues (I looked this up) Black's being the majority bore the brunt of this, and were the most marginalized, and even had their property and land taken away (as per the land act) and were relocated to the townships (sort of like a concentration camp) that we know today. I'm white and I live in South Africa. State sponsored persecution is real. Malema is gaining alot of political pull on the voting bloc. Malema literally said that he doesnt want to slaughter white people "yet". He is polarizing black people to hate whites and to be black supremacists. They will use their "moral highground" to justify the dispossession of whites without compensation in certain parts in South Africa. Saying that land owned by whites is " black land" and should be given to black people. This is only an indicator for what is to come to white countries in Europe and else where. Apartheid was self defence of whites to separate the whites into seperate areas to protect themselves. That was the only way the whites could protect themselves from the violent black mob. When the blacks would riot and throw petrol bombs the police prevented them from entering the white neighbourhood. Blacks similarly had their own areas which they did however not develop. If you go to the blacks original homelands you will see it is just mud huts still, they develop nothing and just beg the government to give them houses for free. The Apartheid government spent a fortune on education for blacks, universities for them in their homelands where they had full independence, but they chose to rather stay in the areas close to the white man to work for him instead of staying with their kings in their homelands. Jarius Isaac Actually there was about 12 countries, 9 were ruled by black kings and the whites settled in no man's land. Land was also bought and treaties entered into by the Afrikaners, they were farmers so had to bargain for everything they got - paying with cattle for additional land etc. Then Britain invaded and conquered the black Kingdoms and Boer Republics and took away all the borders and called it South Africa. The white government after independence gave the blacks all their Kingdoms back with full right to rule unrestricted. The black kings and presidents did not develop those countries causing all their subjects to leave and come and work in the white man's factories etc. When the white man leaves it becomes totally tribal again and everything falls apart. Like in Zimbabwe and the rest of Africa. Cannibalism of themselves is their future, as is already happening in some african countries. They are hunter - gatherers, but as they now increased in number more than 10 fold in a hundred years and there is now no animals left to hunt, that has now become murdering and stealing.	African, Black	Ethnicity - Black	4/190	2.105

Senzenia Mang Thousands have already been killed, search farm murders in South Africa. The government simply responds that it is just crime and Europe and the rest simply respond by saying South Africa is a crime ridden country as well, however the rate of killing of white farmers is about 8 to 1 to that of black citizens. The government is doing nothing to protect the farmers etc which they could easily do with special commando forces etc (which the old white government had etc), the black government had these forces disbanded. The government is actively calling for land to be taken from whites without compensation and have passed a motion to proceed with constitutional amendment to change the countries constitution to make provision for expropriation without compensation i.e theft. Of course more than 50 of these farms were bought and sold in the last 25 years, but according to the black government the land that was bought and mortgaged, most only a few years ago, was somehow stolen by whites. But yes, the European countries will only give refugee status if the government itself starts shooting the white citizens and by that time it will already be to late for most. Of course we saw the same story recently in Zimbabwe, but most of the whites their could get British passports, whereas the whites in South Africa cannot, as most of their forefathers have been in South Africa since the 1700's already. People who say the Boers stole the land need to educate themselves. The Piet Retief party offered to buy largely unoccupied land from the Zulus and Chief Dingane agreed. However, the Zulu chief double-crossed the Boer party and murdered their leader and many members AFTER the whites kept their part of the bargain by recapturing some cattle stolen by another BLACK tribe. The farm land belongs to the Dutch speaking Boers, not the Xhosa, Zulu or any black tribe.Meanwhile, the Bantu people are NOT native to SA but invaded that country from the north and stole much from the original Khoi and San inhabitants. The most abused words on this forum are low IQ. Based on an unfounded stereotype and hatred of people who have a different skin pigmentation. There are people who think their perception, added with their wishes are true facts no matter what. The version of South Africa's history that has been taught or that was taught in our schools has been polluted with fabricated material details that don't reconcile with anthropology and archaeology. This was purely design. Without questioning the Khoisan theory, some people are riding on the deception that these Khoisan owned the southern part of Africa which has now become South Africa. Truth is that there is a great variant of the khoi, san, basarwa, xhosa, batswana, bushmen etc. They did not identify as one homogenous group. They lived together but had deferential characteristics in how they lived and interacted. The funny part is that some people who have been identified as coloured by the previous regimes, are now thinking that they are the so called Khoisan whereas they are not. Some are even used by certain forces to falsely claim that they are kings of the indigenous community of the Khoi and the San. In truth, the Batswana and Xhosa have more Khoisan DNA than those imposed by the greedy section of the society. The southern part of Africa was occupied before the Portuguese and Europeans tried to colonise it. It's just the numbers were not as high as they are now.	coloured	Ethnicity - Black	1/245	0.408

did you even watch the whole video, those khoisan people don't live there, they happen to be some workers who stopped there for some shopping, i think what you need to do is to read the laws of apartheid then you will understand the whole point, apartheid was not only living apart but everything, everything was separated, it is just unacceptable, you have to appreciate the goodness south african people, because if it was white poeple they would have already burned it down, the tribes live separated but it is not prohibited for other people to live with, once you accept they way of living you can live with them, but not in orange land. Gasp Gasp which part of the 10 other black tribes in South Africa have exactly the same cultural communities as these white Africans, do you not understand? For example the Zulu prohibit people from different tribes to live in certain areas because they are not Zulu. Me as a white person can never own property in certain parts of Zululand. They have their own flag and use cattle as a currency. In 2015 the Zulu king incited the Zulu to rise up against foreigners who were encroaching. Lots of people died in xenophobic violence because of that. You are so racist towards white people that you cannot fathom that they in Orania are the same as other black tribal areas. I'm white and I live in South Africa. State sponsored persecution is real. Malema is gaining alot of political pull on the voting bloc. Malema literally said that he doesnt want to slaughter whites "yet". He is polarizing black people to hate whites and to be black supremacists. They will use their moral highground to justify the dispossession of whites without compensation in certain parts in South Africa. Saying that land owned by whites is " black land" and should be given to black people. This is only an indicator for what is to come to white countries in Europe and else where. Zavier 1...Speaking of racism...Firstly i'd like to understand what your definition of African is? Afrikaans people are African-they were born in Africa and that's what makes you African being born in Africa. I mean if they aren't African then how can they be entitled to isolate themselves on a place that isn't their home? Secondly black people don't isolate themselves in Africa for example in South African black people live in townships and in rural areas because that's where they were forcefully situated during apartheid and now they can't afford to move out of those poverty-stricken areas-that isn't a matter of preference. Please do list an adequate list of places in which "ethnic African groups" have isolated themselves the way members of Orania have. Thirdly, I suggest you watch what you say because if terms like 'Satanist ANC' get into the wrong hand you could be looking at defamation of character.	African, Black, Racism	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	8/151	5.298
Mothupi Lekgau no it is not according to race, the people who live there, share the same language, culture and religion, let's take a white American family as an example, they are white but they don't have anything else in common with white Afrikaner people, if the white american family moved to Orania, they would feel so out of place, and they would not understand the culture. So, again it is not about race!!!!	Common, Race	Ethnicity - General, Social Class - Working class	3/74	4.054

Afika xundu Defamation of character only applies when it affects a black person or a black organization right? Is it not defamation of character to call a person a colonist or invader when that person's family have been in a certain country for 300 years? I did not state anywhere that Afrikaners are African or not African,the Afrikaners are not African narrative started with black people. If a black person wants to start a Zulu only or a Sotho only community, I can guarantee no white person will call that community racist or even make a scene about it.	African, Black, Racist	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	8/99	8.081

Zavier 1 that's because Zulu and Black people are native to Africa!! It's literally the continent where their DNA and genetics originated from. White people can't say anything about it because it wouldn't make sense. You failed to mention the blatant racism and segregation African people experienced at the hands of Afrikaans people. If they showed up there playing Kumbaya, the situation would be completely different. If Zulu went to a white country/continent and tried to create a Zulu/Sotho only community white people would absolutely have a problem with it. All over the world Black people are marginalized in the spaces of others. It doesn't make logical sense for them to be marginalized on their own continent by foreigners too.	African, Black, Racism	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	4/120	3.333

It's like saying all people who shares the fundamentals of the Latin language, regardless of timeline, can lay claim to Italy. Heck even Afrikaans have 10 Khoisan words in it lexicon, what does that say if I apply your logic?Now in regards to what links the Boere to Africa? Depends on what you mean. Well for starters we were in South Africa before the Nguni tribes that make up almost 70 of black SA. We invented technology like the windpomp to conquer the 60 semi desert. We brought the wheel, rule of law, modern medicine that ensured your forefathers life expectancy grew from 32 to 68. Afrikaans is the only African language that wrote internationally regarded scientific papers. Heck we even performed the first heart transplant raising the international perception that Africa is not a backward continent. We also, compared to the rest of AFRICA, YES THE WHOLE CONTINENT, paid black people 8x more.Our language and culture were formed in Africa and are unique in the world, so by definition we are indeginous. Some of our genetics are mixed with Khoisan for example FW de Klerk is an ancestor of Krotoa. So, tell me apart from falling out of your mothers in central Africa, moving to South Africa after the white man, then killing between 1.5 to 2 million black people during conquest in the Mfecane and having a different skin colour. What positive elements link your forefathers to South Africa?	African, Black	Ethnicity - Black	4/279	1.434
Ram Pokker no you the who should have paid attention to history from life expectancy, before modern medican black people always had genes in longevity lived a long life before and even after when settlers arrived in South africa for example the oldest people in south africa are black people some have lived to 134 years which is what in genetics called longevity. What are the 10 afrkaans words taken from the Khoi language ? .White people have not suffered what black people have suffered under the leadership of white government. Where did you get the number of people who were killed during imfecane. ? And since you seem to know about the Nguni peope within the nguni clan which got tribe separated first from the nguni people and when was it ? .after mapungubwe where did the cultures that settled there go to? And why do Sub sahara languages all linked .from Botswana to Lesotho, Zimbabwe to Tulamela.Swaziland to the EC and KZN..	Black	Ethnicity - Black	3/164	1.829

Ram Pokker all the things you mentioned non of them were invented by afrikaners. Including the heart transplant which was a result of collective reserch from diffrent people in the field of health sciences. And black people never asked tonbe civilized and even today they were still gonna be existing without you .Zimbabwe didnt perish when white people left .and as for south africa .the countrt is overflowing with young bloods waiting to be given a chance in the country so south africa will still progress with or without you .	Black	Ethnicity - Black	1/91	1.099
VIWE KENNETH "White people have not suffered like black people" What? The Boers lost almost 20 of their population in woman and children in concentration camps. Please point me to where black woman and children died in remotely similar conditions at the same rate that wasn't self inflicted like Nongqawuse. Also Currently the farm murder rate is 108 per 100 000 vs the average rate of 36 per 100 000. You are 3x more likely to be murdered and tortured if you are a farmer. Apartheid lasted from '48 to '92. According to the Human Rights Commission The apartheid government killed 580 people whilst The ANC killed over 20 000 in black on black violence. Remember the ANC's people war on their own people? The one where black people were necklaced for thinking differently?Regarding the Mfecane numbers, seriously? do your own research. This an easily verifiable fact. Oh dear... you should read the history first before commenting. It's been historically, anthropologically and scientifically proven that the black tribes only occupied 9 of SA land surface. One example is that South Africa is 60 semi desert with a low water table meaning the black Nguni tribes that make up almost 70 of black SA today could not survive here. Hence WHY there are zero Nguni anthropological and archaeological evidence apart from about 9 of the land on the East Coast. This was backed up by the British land survey of 1910. Facts Bro FACTS. Oh stop..your grandparents weren't even alive when the "bad white man" stole your land.....look at what blacks have done to SA in the 24 years of black rule - it is like the rest of Africa now...a toilet of lawlessness.....all blacks do is blame, complain and whine...no self responsibility.....just "give me, give me....free land, free houses, free food...." it's a pathetic race	Black, Race	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	2/62	3.226

Anthony Mcfarquhar: Of course you want it back.....but not in the way the land was found originally. You want to steal it as fully operational, turn key farms. Funny thing is, the European settlers did not find it like that.....Here is a thought, I am sure there is a lot of non farmed land in SA. Why doesn't the government give all its black citizens a parcel of undeveloped land to clear, to seed, to irrigate, to farm.....that does not sound too appealing does it...sounds like too much WORK.	Black	Ethnicity - Black	1/89	1.124
Lynden Sterling the Bike lock represent 9 of the land surface in South Africa. Historically the Nguni tribes which make up almost 70 of black SA today only settled on the lush East Coast as it was the only parts of South Africa that could sustain their life. South Africa is 60 semi desert with a low water table. It's been proven scientifically and anthropologically that these tribes couldn't and didn't settle in the whole of SA. This was also confirmed in a 1910 land survey which showed these tribes only occupied 9 of the land. The semi desert was conquered by the Boers that used windpomp technology to pump water from deep underground.	Black	Ethnicity - Black	1/114	0.877

It is normal that Mandela killed people, almost all the French heroes, American, white and certainly almost all of your heroes in time of war have killed people. The blacks were unjustly treated, and were mistreated and killed, it's called self-defense, it's called a war. All people have the right to defend themselves to protect themselves. But because you're racist , when it comes to black defending against whites, obviously you call them terrorists. If Mandela was a terrorist , then all the war heroes were terrorists, all the great explorers were terrorists, almost all White Western Heroes were terrorists. Shade YT It is a town based on culture. Their are quite a few black people who would qualify to live their based on cultural similarities and language. Everyone in the town has to either be self sufficient, or bring a new business or skill to the town to make a living with. Most who go there have a business they can bring with them, and the capital to build a home and provide jobs for the young generation there. They live Afrikaans language and culture, have Afrikaans schools and Church. If a person of another race wanted to live by that language and culture, which is a requirement, and can be self sufficient, then I don't see them having trouble living their. The towns leaders already stated as much. They have English origin people who live there, but live the Afrikaans culture. They have a right to live their own language and culture, provide their children with an education in their chosen language and an upbringing that is traditional, based on respect, discipline, strong family values and the Boer Christian faith. If it was such an issue, then Mormons and Gypsies would have been outlawed in other countries.	Black, Race	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	2/199	1.005

Andres de Villanueva i know history pretty well especially if its black history .Jan Van Riebek was the first 1652 .Apart from Bantu what are the other groups that migrated to south africa?. Bantu clans are made up of the last group that broke out from the rest of the people who migrated down south. And it was during the time people were adopting different life styles based on the region they settled at from being stockman, hunters, farmers and their preferences in terms of regions that would allow them to be hard to be conquered by other tribes such as settling in mountains .ndebele left the clan in 1500s and the Zulu nation was formed by shaka ka senzangakho ka zulu umalandela .To black for you to know about that even google wikipedia doesnt have it .need to go to the Zulu land for a detailed clan history. Which i can brief you about .because the zulu nation is 200 years old does that mean white people arrive first before the zulu? . I suggest you do some research into the development of the populace of South Africa. When the white man landed in the Cape in 1652, he brought civilisation and technology to the region. Prior to this, the wheel had not even been developed. 99% of the land surface was uninhabited. The few local inhabitants lived in small self-sustaining communities. These small communities were totally unaware of the existence outside of their stone wall kraal. This may come as a surprise to you but they did not have cell phones, roads or any form of transport. They were totally isolated without any concept of provincial or country borders. So...what country are you referring to? During the 19th century the white man trekked into Southern Africa establishing towns etc. The country consisting of mostly non-arable land, was uninhabited. The first non-whites were found along the east coast in small communities. They were unaware of the existence of other tribes, boundaries etc. They did not even have means to cross rivers. Isolated. Now you read the rest. If you can post crap on YouTube, you can read. Never in the history of human kind has a black man, organisation or country contributed to the improvement of human kind. Maybe you need some white sense pumped into you.	Black	Ethnicity - Black	1/217	0.461

Crazy Chick Shena No harm done. Irish and South African Bantu, dangerous compination I know blacks were supressed in apartheid and lands taken from them by the dutch. But some of the white people even in those days probaply didnt like the apartheid and some of them had bought the land they owned and maybe it was in sometime owned by some black people, who had it taken from them. And now when they are trying to clean up the mess, the black guy has the rightfull claim to the land but the current owner can be a legitimate, honest guy who didnt steal but paid for it. What do you do in a situation like that? Take the land from the guy who didnt steal it or dont give it back to the guy who had it stolen from him? Other one is going to be left feel bitter. My relatives were driven out by the Russians from their home and we fought against the ussr and nazis in wwii and drove them out of our lands, but we ended up losing some to the ussr. Now some russian family, probaply poorer than me, lives in a spot of land that i have rightfull claim. But they probaply were hardworking people who paid honest money for that land and own it rightfully. But still it was stolen from my family. But not by that family, by the Stalin and communist regime of ussr. They say its the Bantus who killed the Khoikhoi and the san people. And they act like they did nothing wrong. They say learn your history before you talk. well here is the history you speak of. The history of white colonial land dispossession dates back to the expansion of the Dutch colonial settlement in the Cape, which was established after the Dutch East India Company (DEIC) authorised Jan van Riebeeck to set up a refreshment station for their ships. Land was seized from the Khoikhoi and later the San to increase Dutch grazing pastures, expand their farming activities and to establish settlements. Over time, the increasing lack of access to grazing pastures by the Khoikhoi gave rise to conflict with the Dutch. While in some instances the Khoikhoi were successful, the Dutch defeated the latter and expropriated more of their land. As a result, the Khoikhoi and the San were systematically deprived of their livelihood forcing them to seek employment on the farmlands of white colonial settlers. Thus, the period between 1652 and 1799 is largely characterized by Dutch colonial expansion through occupation of land and resistance against this by the indigenous inhabitants. They say its the Bantus who killed the San and Khoikhoi people and they had nothing to do with it.1774 Tensions between the San, Khoikhoi on one hand, and the Dutch on the other reach a breaking point and the Dutch appoint a commandant and a force to capture or kill as many San people as possible. In the first operation 503 San were killed and 239 are captured. Colonists respond to attacks by the Khoikhoi by forming the ‘veldcommandant’ who launch a fierce attack on the Khoikhoi killing 503 during the year. This increased to 2 480 between 1786 and 1795	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/103	0.971
The blacks were grazing cattle and farming before the whites came. The whites started grazing like the blacks but instead of letting the blacks farm in peace they started stealing their livestock and their land. And now they say blacks don’t know how to farm. The Khoikhoi knew how to farm but the Dutch took away the only thing they knew how to do well and their land and turned them into servants. Now their descendants arrogantly and shamefully say we taught you how to farm, the land belonged to nobody , blacks can’t do anything without whites. Cheetah 6 The original Boer bloodlines are seen as a official white tribe of Africa, because their (Stam Moeders) were 3 Angolan woman who married the Dutch settlers, as well as the San who also intermarried with the Dutch settlers. When interracial marriages and slavery was disbanded by the British Empire, the Dutch refusing to give up their families, initiated the first Groot Trek, of which some settled in the Karoo, and the rest continued on and settled in groups as they moved up into the now Vrystaat and Transvaal. The Dutch have in-depth records of all Dutch families who came to the Cape, also records of Interracial marriages and some interesting history. Look into Dutch records and ships logs. Stephanie Burger that's great to hear of the selective few who married... But who invented apartheid in the first place... Dutch or white people would be respected in SA if you just kept your white supremacist attitudes to yourselves... But no... If blacks invented apartheid in Europe would the africans even be alive.... The interracial marriages were the select few who chose not to segregate themselves among a race who refused to assimilate(the same thing whites accuse Arabs of doing in Europe).. Cheetah 6 here is some history, in the first 40 years after the Cape was settled, 3/4 of all children born to slaves were white, and given freedom after the age of 22, those brothers and sisters born with darker skin remained slaves. Sad but true. The Boer population have their very basis in the bloodlines of those Angolan slaves, and those interracial marriages. Many Boers would like to deny this, but they cannot hide from history. Later migrants from Europe adhered to the interracial marriage ban which was implemented by the aristocrats of European countries, not the peasants who were the basis of the migrants. ayitian1 all whites should just leave to other countries who welcomes them.The blacks in South Africa, that supports these racist ideas, will destroy themselves really quickly. They are hateful and blame others for being unsuccessful.Wertern culture is the only peaceful culture. The best one.	Racist	Ethnicity - General	1/46	2.174

Ram Pokker uyinkwenkwe yebhulu you know nothing about black history apart from what wikipedia has .losing an argument about my history to a white person someone who only speaks European language and claim to be african	African, Black, Nothing	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Black	3/37	8.108
VIWE KENNETH Bwhahaha you are too funny, the majority Nguni only got taught how to write by the white man during apartheid, so where is your black history books from before then? No you rely on the majority white anthropologists and historians to research your own history because you didn't know for certain. Do we ever hear a thank you? No....lol. Ram Pokker history written by a white man to use against africans when they are being chased out of africa. And today the same white man who thought ngunis how to write is on the run begging for refuge visa in Australia, Canada,New Zealand ,USA .well let me tell you about what zulu people call IZITHAKAZELO. Xhosa people call it IZIBONGO.All African cultures have it .its clan history every child is thought when they are young and goes beyond 10 generations including you ancestors names, pedigree. Thats the same system used to identify our cousins from diffrent tribs and clans and tells us who not to marry since we share blood with them . something you have never heard about and never thought it existed that's how we know who we are something you dont have and yet claim to be african	African	Ethnicity - Black	2/142	1.408
Pedro I am a white male I have never once said that the black peoples in America or in the United Kingdom must come back to Africa and I am not a racist before you come back at me as that is the only thing you can ever say I love black people and Indians,Asians,whites I love everyone it doesn't matter about the pigment of Their skin but are the mistakes and decisions that have been made over time in particular race groups and people of all colors should learn from the history of South Africa so it does not repeat itself and an apartheid on white people is not going to solve anything that is just going to make you just as bad as you say white people are and I have questions how old are you because if you were not born during apartheid then you can't say how bad white people are you would just be going off evidence that you made up or that someone has told that could be false that is all I have to Best regards Hope	Black, Old, Race, Racist	Age - Over 65s, Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	5/184	2.717
