Also, most parents won't get involved in technology if they were use to not using it. It is like doing math mentally for 50 years then expect them to use a calculator when it becomes available. Most just won't because they are use to doing it this way but others just like doing it the hard way because it can make you stronger. Personally, I think relying on technology too much might cripple the mind. They will need to think or act less to perform the same task. It creates a sort of dependency on said technology so if said technology becomes crippled then how will you adjust to ways that are forgotten. You would be surprised the simple things that people do not know how to do.	Cripple	Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	1/128	0.781
Actually to add in, GPS isnt always reliable since it always has to update and it doesn't always keep track of the changes that are made to roads. They also dont keep track of any restrictions for the road and it can take you down paths that arent actual paths. As a professional truck driver, I have had it take me to old back entrances simply because the manufacturer doesn't keep track of "all" changes only new information they obtain. Everything you said, same with African parents, but a few more things:1. Sending you to get something WITHIN THEIR REACH2. Refusing to admit they're wrong.3. Related to Number 2, if you try to rebel against their choice... I pity you o4. Well haha actually i come from a latino household but they way it worked is me and my dad both had to beg for my mom to cook for us since you know nobody is gonna go and get food, so most of the time it was me and my dad begging for food. But this does apply to my grandma since she is the EXACT same, she will smooth talk you in, like if your eating some rice for example, she'll be like "so you like that rice?" And you better be careful how you respond to avoid triggering her cuz if you say yeah she'll be like "oh so you want more?" And she'll make more then she will go and force you into eating it, it won't be right away but it will be the slow burn, she will keep persisting until you give and eat, and end up eating so much your stomach dosent feel too good. And she will offer you food literally ANY time of the day or night and i know from nights if staying at her house when i was little.	Nobody	Age - Youngsters	1/189	0.529

I love your videos. I was vaguely aware of you the way I am aware of Taylor Swift or hmm insert popular recording artist here. I know of their existence. I may know about 3 things about them but yah. Somehow I know everything about the Kardashians I've seen like 4 episodes. But there is no escaping them they mastered the attention grab they are impressive with their media savvy. But recent events have encouraged me to step out from under the rock and learn Youtube. Now I know more about you than Taylor, Katie, No shade to anyone I mentioned but there is so much content out there and for me you are on FLEEK! (P.S. Thank you for teaching me what BAE means. I thought it was a lazy form of babe, Beyoncé or "an area allocated or marked off for a specified purpose." I assumed it was new internet slag for a gathering place of similar ideas or content not just selling stuff but ideas, concepts, cults of personality....) I really enjoy your positive fun videos! You are very talented and make me what to be more productive and I think you are an excellent roll model for girls and women alike. You are fun and can be silly but there is a genuine authenticity and kindness that resonates from your videos. I think it is brilliant that way you incorporate psychology into your videos. I'm sitting here realising o I am being Neuro- linguistically programmed here! swell just swell ! I am entertained and practicing mood therapy. . No seriously impressed.And artistically, that would take a while, but I love when you talk to close up Lilly. But it took 4 minutes in line where Costco gave me free samples and 1 minute to have a ticket printed. This was the train though. So I might start listening to my Mum. But shhhh don't tell her. Keep up the good work! tbt I'm from the GTA (Aurora so changed...and when driving into town I can't help but sing little boxes from Weeds.) So thought I would remind you of the early internet the days of watching watch BBS Master Control with Jen and she always plugged www.baton.com. and I would type in https:/ o I remember the first time I saw someone type in no www and it working *mind blown :P. .
