In Minnesota we have a alot of reservations for native Americans and they own alot of casinos around my house. And if your not native American you can't step foot on the reservations or they will shoot you. They have therer own laws on the reservation to. And I know this video says they don't get paid for being Indian but I've talked to probably 100 Indian guys and most of them told me they were getting paid for being Indian , 90 of them are alcoholics and do wayyyy to many drugs at the one by my house. They are the most segregated people in america.	Indian	Ethnicity - Native-American	3/107	2.804

Bhav S It's not a victory. It's a reality. Unjust? Society is way too sensitive these days. Surveys have shown that a majority of Native Americans say they are unaffected by these team names. America is a great country but as with any and every country in existence there is a dark history. Let's not pretend a baseball or football team name represents that history. These symbols are symbols of strength and toughness. You have the Notre Dame fighting Irish, Boston Celtics, and there's even a small college team name of the "Saxons". These all represent caucasians. It's not a big deal. Have a good day!	Dame	Gender - General	1/106	0.943

Hummmmm! There wasn't a part mentioned that how some or majority of Native American population are actually Asian. And don't forget the reason why they are called Native American in the first place is because Columbus and other European settlers didn't know who they are so they guess that since these people are in America then they have to be 'Native American'. Plus they were also called Indian too because at that time Columbus thought he was in India.	Indian	Ethnicity - Native-American	1/79	1.266

I am a Native Brit, and proud of it, been born in England, the most important part of life is your nationality , your language and your way of life is your history, lose it, then you lose everything, many years ago I read about the American War of Independence against the British, Native Americans sided with British against the White Americans, White Americans never won that war nor did the White Americans win the war in 1812 again against the British, both wars were settled on Treaties and Agreements, indeed, if you read the Treaty of Paris you find-out America is still very closely connected to the British and not really independent as Americans believe or learned in their schools, America is owned by the Banks but who owns the Banks in the USA, the British, The True Legal Owners of America however are without doubt the Native Americans without them there is No America, after the second world war in 1948 Churchill handed down the Human Rights in Congress, these rights apply to every human being on earth, the Rights to Free Healthcare, Freedom of Movement, Freedom of Private Life, and another 100 plus Rights, the problem is the White Americans over the years have been the Biggest Violator of the Human Rights on Earth, even worse than China and Russia, The Native Americans will never die, as they are America, without the Native Americans there is No America. thank you.Warmest Regards. Ray Cornes, Staffordshire England. UK.	Nationality	Nationality - General	1/249	0.402
I get the importance of getting rid of misconceptions but I feel bad for theses kids cause those were some horribly racist questions and some were unnecessarily racist . (The only time some of those are brought up is by a racist with zero intent of having an open dialogue. Their only aim is to be hurtful). I understand these kids have probably heard worse before but it's cruel to put them into a position of being victimized for a video. They shouldn't have to deal with it especially one right after the other like that. There is a better way to get this information across without being harmful to these kids. Teen Vogue needs to do a better job protecting them.	Racist, Zero	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - General	4/121	3.306

Some tribes(mostly small ones) do give out monthly paychecks for each tribal member and good health insurance. Some tribes offer to pay for college because they can, and of course you have to meet requirements. Plus, they are a bit red due to classifications back in the day; however, today that's changing because of the differences between the south western and northern tribes color differences in majority. They don't live in teepees, usually they are used for prayer sessions or to have them up for special occasions. The Navajo have hogans instead of a teepee. Head dresses are used or may not be used in different ways in each tribe, or be very similar to one another. Another fun fact they should mention is the assumption of being Mexican or Hawaiian in public because of the similarities they share. Overall, this video is alright in pointing out the obvious, but it was a bit forced.	Red	Ideological and Political Identity - General, Ethnicity - Native-American	2/155	1.29

I wish the term "Native American" was used universally for the native peoples of North and South America. The Inuit people of Canada, the Mixtec of Mexico, the Quecha of the South American Andes, The Yaghan of the Southern tip of the Americas, The Amazonians of Brazil and the Taino/Arowak people of the Caribbean all should have the right to be called Native Americans. Most "Latinos" deny or don't know their native heritage, its what gives us color in our skin! Its sad and shouldn't be this way, with a common event of colonialism in our roots we should all be proud of who we are now and who we where as a people before now in the Americas and in the world. At my school (in the uk) we've been learning about the native Americans and I just wanted to say, that I feel so sorry for everything that their ancestors have gone through. Recently we just finished learning about the Wounded Knee Massacre and it actually sickens me to think what happend that day. How disgustingly the US army and settlers treated them. How they destroyed their buffalo, stole their sacred land and slaughtered their women children and elderly . I'm so sorry for what has happened,And the irreversible damage that was caused. Amberly Quakegesic Yes, like I said the prblem isnt that they have a native american mascot. Its the name "Redskins".For something to be racist , there needs to be direct correlation to racism and discrimination.The term " redskin " was an actual slur used for native americans.Having a NA mascot, or a white person wearing a NA headdress does not have direct correlation to NA discrimination.Another example is Blackface vs white people with dreadlocks. The latter of which was not used to discriminate against black people while the former was. The Real J P Morgan It is true we migrated here around 15000 years ago. You are correct in that statement. Have you forgotten about the ice age ? Prior to 15000 years ago North America continent was locked in ice age that started in the late pleistocene era. That means this continent was underneath a mile of ice. To the government hand outs, it is true BUT TO A CERTAIN EXTENT. We have to work just as hard as everyone else, but in Oklahoma, and I believe in just Oklahoma? We do get some things. As children in schools we get $10 each semester for book fairs. In the part of where I live in Oklahoma, we have a Indian hospital where they do look primarily for people of Indian heritage BUT they do hire people of other ethnicities too!! My dad (indian) works there, and so does my mom (not indian) so it is common for others to work there! In schools, growing up, we also got a free dentist care. I believe it was just a check up and enamel sealant, it wasn’t much and only happened once a year in the school. All you people in the comments acting like natives owned the land and it was all ruined by whites. First off genetically natives are very similar to ancient europeans and share approx 1/3 european blood before the europeans you speak of even made contact. Second off whites thought blacks were ugly and natives were sexy. When the spanish came to mexico half of them were about the same colour anyway. Acting like the natives werent just as brutal as whites. Mexicans may be a spanish native mixture but are even more rasict to blacks then whites. Natives think they are black when they are an ancient european asian mixture hence large noses. Negroids or mongoloids cannont genetically have large noses. Even my own culture I go to other countries and they think all white Americans are rich and that all Americans all they eat is McDonald's. they think none of them can speak the language of that country. People think that all Mexicans eat nothing but rice and beans... but just because they are stereotypes doesn't mean that we should stop traditions. Just because people of Georgia or Alabama have a southern twang does that mean that they all should go to Accent elimination. It's okay to have stereotypes I say. Because that's what makes us different from one another as long as we accept each other's differences and not be over sensitive and mean to each other. there was a race in Mexico called the aztecs who did a ritual that involved human sacrifice of people of all ages, children also. that these people were raised to be sacrificed (they were raised thinking it was the best death one could achieve) so that the aztecs could read the future of their country to see if their gods were happy with them and would allow them to have a good crop year if not, the sacrifices would last for months. I'm sure that many of the native Americans would offer up tributes of people who were raised to be sacrificed by the aztecs. there are rumors that the aztecs had huts made of skeleton and human tissue to live in, they had shaped heads and sharp teeth. the whole area of the aztec nation smelled of rotting corpses, all the way up to Oregon. Anastaciac18 right it’s the same for Africans. DNA is showing up that some of the ”light skinned” ones as they call it are more African then some African Americans. Skin color means nothing . Wasn't the whole 'red skin' thing because the natives in the area where the Europeans went had like a slightly reddish tint. It was something dumb like that. Hell the whole concept of race and skin color is dumb . Since like it's not just this person is black and this person is Asian. It's more like a scale. Like we consider Italians white but they weren't always. We consider Hispanic a race but it's just mixed indigenous and Spanish. And the indigenous people once came from Asia. I think the term " Red Skin" came from , 1-the blood that's on their faces (during the old times) and 2- some of them have sun-kissed or brown skin that turns a bit red , mostly coz of the rush blood in their veins when it's cold just like what eskimos have. The second is just my theory , haha. But, you got colors like black , white, brown, yellow , why not red right? And I don't think it's racist , racism is how you negatively perceive a certain ethnicity or make fun of how they look. most non native americans werent taught the truth in american history because text books were controlled by companies that are conservative and biased. also most non american indians do not understand tribal histories, laws, treaties. treaties are the one thing that are continually ignored by the us congress, especially with the current presidential adminstration and the department of the interior and the bureau of indian affairs. we need more american indians in top positions in government to oversee the laws governing tribes and prevent mismanagement, return treaty laws to current review and legislation, reopen the treaties and allow due process to the eventual returns of lands stolen by the us government from the treaty violations. paha sapa is a region in western south dakota that has been taken illegally and needs to be returned. the cash valuecis over one million dollars and is held in a trust fund. land is more important than the million dollars. the money is basically a cash settlement for the forfeiture of the paha sapa. after the 1876 battle of the little bighorn did the government truly took the paha sapa as a punishment and violation of the 1868 treaty. the us lost in 1876 and to show its punishment the us government allowed settlement and gold mining and passage by totally violating the fort laramie treaty. the united nations have sent messages to us congress that treaty violation is a violation of the native american indians right to sovereignty and their rightful ownership of that land which is sacred and spiritual territory. An even more common misconception is that they're NATIVE to these shores. They are genetically linked to Asians (certain physical attributes making that clear) therefore they are NOT any rightful heirs to anything. They were here before white Europeans, true. Ya'll are from Siberia. The oldest Americans the Paleoindian population looked like Africans Melanesians South Indians Negritos and Australians. [LINK] Comparative morphological studies of the earliest human skeletons of the New World have shown that, whereas late prehistoric, recent, and present Native Americans tend to exhibit a cranial morphology similar to late and modern Northern Asians (short and wide neurocrania; high, orthognatic and broad faces; and relatively high and narrow orbits and noses), the earliest South Americans tend to be more similar to present Australians, Melanesians, and Sub-Saharan Africans (narrow and long neurocrania; prognatic, low faces; and relatively low and broad orbits and noses). However, most of the previous studies of early American human remains were based on small cranial samples. Herein we compare the largest sample of early American skulls ever studied (81 skulls of the Lagoa Santa region) with worldwide data sets representing global morphological variation in humans, through three different multivariate analyses. The results obtained from all multivariate analyses confirm a close morphological affinity between SouthAmerican Paleoindians and extant Australo-Melanesians groups, supporting the hypothesis that two distinct biological populations could have colonized the New World in the Pleistocene/Holocene transition.	Transition	Sexual Identity - Transexuality	1/192	0.521

h h Sinodonty modern Asians don't exist in the fossil record until after 11 thousand years ago. Japan has evidence of inhabitants going back 50 thousand years ago. The Andamanese Jawara males carry the basal haplogroup which that of the Ainu and many Tibetan ethnic groups are down stream mutations of. Meaning most of these haplogroup mutations arose long before the Bering straight could not be crossed yet they wanna claim Siberians were in the Americas before their phenotype was detected in Asia?Australia has been occupied for nearly 70 years by homo sapiens sapiens. This is no different than half of European males having the R1b1a1a2 which is the down stream mutation of R1b1a2 which non-admixed African males from Chad Niger Sudan Cameroon and Congo have. Artificial borders and imposition by Indo Europeans invading who became the North African pale skinned populations followed by the Greco-Roman and later Arab/Turk/Middle Eastern religious wars and slavery as far South as Mali in the West and as far south as Zanzibar in the East. The sequestered clusters of ethnic groups and their unique genetic characteristics are in no way representative of their geographic place of origin. I'm West East Central and East African DNA I also have Melanesian ,East Asian and so called" Native American " DNA as well as West and East European DNA. Well it is True, if your are a indigenous native American & can prove, u absolutely can get school grants & monthly financial govt assistance. The term Redskin , (my own personal hypothesis) during the time when British first landed & tried to claim the land as their own, the natives spent most their time outside. White ppl get sunburn. But we have melanin so we get red , but tan . And that's what I think. Upon UK 1st arrival, & seeing natives for the 1st time, they never saw anyone with soon different from theirs. So they called it Redskin . I could be totally 100 wrong, I probably am, about skin color, Not wrong about school grants & govt asst. But itsounds about right to me where the term Redskin came from. I've read all of these comments on here about how whites are all these things. You guys are hypocrites. Nobody supports racism . We have racists, who are punished by society and the law. But to discriminate against whites just because of a thing that has been practiced for millenia. Everyone around the world has practice slavery. It's still practiced. You know where? Africa and the Middle East. You know how long whites have practice slavery compared to other races? The other races are represented my whole body, while whites are a single hand. Guess who sold off the first slaves to the Europeans. Blacks. Everyone here is ignorant. Hey TeenVogue wanna be unbiased and stop brainwashing us teens? Do you know what else we haven't been taught. I'm so confused by this, my husband is native, my son is native, both status, & both absolutely get free health care through the band, in fact my husband just got his entire mouth done and fixed including two root canals....free. He also does absolutely have the option of going to post secondary paid by his band....yes, he has to have the same academic requirements as everyone else in order to go to post secondary but so long as you have the grades, his band will pay for post secondary. His band also offers band housing (often just $400 a month on average) for a brand new home built by the band for your family, all you have to do is put your name on the list and wait for your turn to come around and boom...the band will build you and your family a brand new home here on the reservation where we currently rent, sometimes you can be on that list for a couple of years so if we wanted a house faster, we just have to come up with 10 grand and the band will build us a home of our own brand new. There are LOTS of financial benefits, perhaps every band is just different. And I actually had a conversation about headdresses with one of my husbands uncles, I asked him is it true that only natives can put on a headdress, because it needs to be earned' and he just laughed and said 'point to a single native in this day in age , that has earned the right to put on a headdress according to old values and traditions, you won't find many' just thought that was an interesting response, Anyways, clearly every band is very different, but to say these benefits are just wildly fabricated rumors across the board just simply isn't true. Oh and we also DO get tax free, we get tax free on anything on ANY band land, even if it's not YOUR band land, so long as your status, & where I live that includes high end shops like Sephora even, the source, marks, name brand stores, tax free gas, tax free tobacco, tax free groceries, tax free makeup, tax free clothes. The tax never seems like much but it adds up. His band also sends out bonus $250 every Christmas to each band member, plus a voucher for a turkey lol. he also gets all of his work gear paid for, shoes, tools, anything he needs for work, I literally could go on forever..... HARUKO!!!We are under 18. Japanese Kid NEEDS!— Apparently there was a huge problem with security guards (which japan always warns against) at stores and various places in Maryland. It just looked to foolish, we respect police not security guards who behave like gangs supposedly protected the ultrarich beyond the extent of the law.When you have lots of security guards it’s always unfair and in this situation they were annoying and encouraging racial strife and they were charged for having pedophilia.Modern kids usually have no racial trauma in their early childhood unlike kids from the 60s, the attempt of guards to make everything about racism and transcending it wasn’t good because we had more creative ideas that are not based on black/white models, but the zen that is beyond that. Now that they are gone kids of all heritages feel more able to be ourselves whether it’s our traditional heritage image a mixmatch or something nonconformist. We are not being guiltd to chose one story or perspective or convinced everyone who looks like that does these ”insert behavior here” things. Wolfae Fox You know what's really hilarious? Over 800,000 Jews left Europe during the so-called "Holocaust" to Mexico. Look at any Mexican today they look little to nothing like the Native Americans you seen before they were "colonized by white people". They were literally orientals with dark skin. Almost all of Mexicans today look Middle Eastern. There was a Mexican educator who tested his genealogy and found he was Jewish. He did this for some 60 other people and found they were all Jewish even though they claimed "pure" Native American heritage. So yes, if Mexico was "conquered by the evil whites" as our "History texts" so claim wouldn't all Mexicans today be blonde haired with blue eyes like the Norwegians are? I just love how today's generation of "Mexicans with Native heritage" attack white people for the Native massacre yet have zero connection to these people. So to be honest, insisting on being called Native American is worse. At least with " Indian ", you're just rolling with a mistaken use of proper nouns. But with native "American", you choose to identify with the white man's name for the land he took. Just refer to yourself as your tribe name. And as to something you said to someone else, yes there were nations. Northeastern Peoples of the Land had nations and confederacies with permanent settlements. They did not roam. The People of the Plains roamed, but by the time Europeans arrived, there was no connection between the two. dxelson i can't speak for other natives but up here in Canada we still refer to ourselves as native Americans because we talk about the continent itself. but we ONLY say that when speaking in English, French etc. we do have a name for the North American continent and our tribe name. I'm not a fan of people using the term " Indian " as it's incorrect but I usually ask them to just refer to us by tribe and use Native American (or Anishinaabekaa in my case (Ojibwe for "there are (a lot of) people")) when talking about the whole population of pre-Columbian humans in the Americas. Now when it comes to the Portuguese language with Índios and Indianos I'm cool with that since they deliberately changed the name for both parties to differentiate the two. but when you just say Indian with no context then it makes no sense. Also there was at least one confederation of natives before the Europeans came who actually had a set of rules that were used by the US to make the Constitution! Sammy's adventure There is no obligation to follow such a culture or any for that reason. They're not disrespecting anything, they have a choice on how they want to individually lead their own lives, and if theirs is a conscious choice unclouded by outside pressure, so be it. You don't have to pay homage to anybody. Regardless, here people have a very poor understanding of history it seems anyway. There is a reason why things are different, one of which is the policies that the Anglos and the Latins tended to follow in their colonisation efforts. The British often employed segregation, a thing the Anglo-americans have carried on doing with the US. While the Spanish and Portuguese often used a policy of assimilation/integration, out of necessity usually. This is why race is such a huge issue in the US compared to the other Latin American nations.	Race	Ethnicity - General	1/146	0.685

Emily Hamm You know what's really hilarious? Over 800,000 Jews left Europe during the so-called "Holocaust" to Mexico. Look at any Mexican today they look little to nothing like the Native Americans you seen before they were "colonized by white people". They were literally orientals with dark skin. Almost all of Mexicans today look Middle Eastern. There was a Mexican educator who tested his genealogy and found he was Jewish. He did this for some 60 other people and found they were all Jewish even though they claimed "pure" Native American heritage. So yes, if Mexico was "conquered by the evil whites" as our "History texts" so claim wouldn't all Mexicans today be blonde haired with blue eyes like the Norwegians are? I just love how today's generation of "Mexicans with Native heritage" attack white people for the Native massacre yet have zero connection to these people. Jichooi, your question is truly simple to answer. There are light-skin Black people in this world who have no Caucasoid genes in them. There are Black Albinos with no Caucasoid genes. These girls and her people are proclaiming to be Native Indians are not light skin. They are Caucasoids. We know the difference. We know our own people. The government made your Caucasoid ancestors Indians by paying $5.00. Your ancestors did just that. They paid $5.00 to be in a tribe they were never a part of in the beginning. These girls cannot teach on something they know nothing about. There are still Black Indians in America. They were told by their ancestors who they were.Unfortunately, these girls' ancestors fought to have the real Indians pushed out of their own tribes to live among the other Black people. The Native Americans will pay for their wickedness against God's people. I hope the $5.00 they paid was worth stealing the identity of other people. Yes, racial purity matters, a lot of native languages through the continent are dead now, the average latin american doesn't identify as native american despite being about half native, the mixed native americans normally have different interests and world views than the full-blooded ones, etc, all of this thanks to race mixing, so if you really care about native americans then let go of the taboo behind racial purity and admit that there's a correlation with it and the preservation of a culture. I assume you may be referring in part to blood quantum, or the system that was introduced by the American government to mathematically decrease and "wipe out" indigenous Americans, and i also assume that you are referring to the myth that there is one singular native look. To address blood quantum, well, let's just say that as long as you are an active member of your nation or tribe, its a bunch of bs and doesn't mean a thing. If you're a member of your nation or tribe and you're active in the tribe, then you're native, full stop. It doesn't matter if you have blonde hair and blue eyes, if you're a member of your tribe, then you're native. To address the myth of the one singular native look, let's just put it this way: you're lumping indigenous Americans into one group, when in reality, there are many many different nations and tribes in many many different locations around the US. Not only that, but you're also basing the "native look" on a stereotype. One's skin color is determined, yes, by genetics, but also in part by the environment the people live in. For example, a member of the Apache nation (SW United States) might have darker skin than a member of the Miami nation (Midwestern United States). Not only that, but basing race on phenotypes alone is wholly unreliable. My grandmother is 3/4 Native (not revealing tribe name) and she has the lightest blue eyes you've ever seen. But her mother and father both had dark brown hair and dark brown eyes. The group y'all label as "Native American" is such a diverse group that I feel as though it is a crime to just lump us all together as one group, because it creates this idea that all tribes are essentially the same and believe the same thing which is entirely false, but that's a different argument for a different day.This is a long post and a long read, but I just had to address this comment to talk about these issues. Natives never stood a chance. The west had mathematics, built and sailed ocean worthy vessels, created the telescope, the steam engine - list goes on and on. Natives never even learned to forge steel. They were happy to do their thing in the Americas living off the land. I'm not putting them down. If everyone did their thing the earth may be a cleaner place. Just pointing out the difference in cultures. Combine the two cultures and it's a recipe for disaster especially 600 years ago. martin martinez, I always cringe when people try to lump these huge disparate cultures together. The history and achievements of say the Tarascan and Mayans are different than say...the Iroquois, Cherokee and Sioux. Nothing against them, but these are different people. FYI, everyone... The population estimates are more like 50-112 million. No one knows for sure. (We're talking about the total Native population of all of the Americas here.) About 90-95 of Natives died from disease in the first years of contact (Smallpox, Hepatitis A, yellow fever, plague, influenza, etc.) but in the aftermath there was of course genocide of remaining tribes in both North and South America. European colonization wouldn't have been possible, however, if the Natives had had any immunity to all of these diseases. The rest of the world had already paid the price for these diseases centuries before with continuous waves of outbreaks and repeatedly massive death tolls throughout Europe, Asia and Africa that had earned all these people immunity, so in a sense the Native Americans were simply playing catch up and this high death toll was inevitable. I think that another misconception is that we are all one monolith group. Aside from cultural differences, such as the fact that our languages and dialects differ between tribes, not every Native agrees on every political issue. For example, it was great to see tribes in solidarity against DAPL, and even though my mother's family is from Standing Rock, some of my father's family in OK didn't understand why there were protests. It's ridiculous to me how a Native female can blindly support Trump and attack BLM and hate immigrants and be crazy over guns and not be affected by any mass shootings. One Native girl I got into an argument with didn't believe that she could be racist for spouting bullshit about black people or Muslims or Mexicans. I had friends from all three groups growing up. I didn't grow up on a reservation and that was my parents' choice. My father had to deal with outright racism from segregation back in the 60's, 70's, and 80's, and my mother was adopted out before ICWA by a white family. I'm glad to live in a generation where advocacy is much more accessible and normal than it was for my parents. That is why I speak out and share my history. Yay. Okay I like this. As an Ojibwe/Potawatomi person I have a few things to say. I like when people reach out to learn about other cultures although I wouldn't say I'm the best person to come to for information. I'm still young and learning. Obviously I don't speak for every Indigenous/Native/Aboriginal/ Indian (whatever you prefer). I speak for me and what I understand.Tiipiis - I haven't met anyone who genuinely thought I lived in a tiipii. My teacher, actually, in elementary school went to visit another school off reserve and the kids there thought we lived in longhouses and tiipiis and that we don't have candy which I found hilarious. But making a tiipii or wigwam is something that I have done with my family and elementary school. Fire pit, scone and everything.Government funding - Not so familiar with this topic, I admit. I do get funding. On my reserve, members get a significant amount of zhoonyaa for various things like schooling. As for healthcare, same as any Canadian.Taxes - I have a status card that I can use on purchases that takes taxes off. Completely? I don't think so?Casinos. A reserve near me does have a popular Casino. And gambling is also an issue.Headresses - Completely agree with the girls. It is sacred and something earned, not bought.Redskins - I don't know if it's just me but this doesn't bug me so much, only when it turns into something used in a negative way. The term " Indian " I've also used. I don't mind. I know many people that don't mind either. I also know many people DO mind. I mean, just stay frosty. I think the name "person of colour" annoys me more than anything because, well, everyone has colour in their skin.This is just what I know. It's unfortunate that a large amount of hostility comes with the interactions of natives and non-natives. Admittedly on both sides. Yes, there has been a LONG history of racism , cultural genocide and other things with the last residential school closing in just 1996. We won't forget it and we shouldn't but we should also not let it make us bitter moving forward. Correcting someone if they're incorrect is good and being open to learning about us is good too. "Reconciliation" is the goal.	Indian, Racism	Ethnicity - General, Ethnicity - Native-American	2/389	0.514

They are not beautiful really at all, that is quite subjective and it seems that many Native Americans who appear to mostly all have more Caucasian blood than native. Dark Shadow Storm don't really know where to start on this one. First of all you cited Wikipedia.. That's literally rule 1 of what not to do in any situation similar to this. Second you cited an opinionated article. This article even mentions the poll I mentioned previously. It says "forget the poll the term redskin offends". By that logic we need to take a poll on who is offended by each team mascot in America and if the results are 100 'not offended' then it must go. Is that what you're trying to tell me right now? That just because a very small percentage of natives find it offensive that it should go, and by doing this you completely shit on the overwhelming majority that aren't offended and/or like the name.	Redskin	Ethnicity - Native-American	1/132	0.758
Dark Shadow Storm the amount of people that were surveyed, 504 to be exact, is a high enough number to get an accurate representation of what it would be like if they did literally ask every native. The poll had a margin of error of 5.5, meaning that 95/100 more times they could do this poll the results wouldn't change more than 5.5. Now please stop trying to play the victim here and move on. Dark Shadow Storm Lol, obviously there are more than 504 natives. You don't know how these surveys and polling questions work I guess. 504 people were surveyed across each state and they came to the result that 9/10 aren't offended. As I said before, 504 is a big enough number to get an educated answer on how many natives are offended by redskin . And why not have native mascots? That's how you keep your culture alive! What racism have they experienced ? Can you give some examples please ? Actually according to statistics whites experience police brutality the most. What violence have the experienced ? Again, can you give examples ? Whites buy the land legally.	Racism	Ethnicity - General	1/40	2.5

Toxic-Pop I just gave examples of racism (police brutality, environmental racism, mascots, history classes rewriting history, etc), and in this video they speak about the racism and stereotypes and microaggressions they encounter. Another example are how Native American schools get low funding which leads to higher drop out rates. Not to mention how their schools are understaffed and some of them are infested with rodents (more things that can cause sickness). Natives already have a lower life expectancy than the average. Housing discrimination is another example of the racism they face. If you're just looking at percentages obviously it's gonna say white ppl experience police brutality the most (white ppl make up about 60-70 of the population, clearly) but if you break it down like many studies have Natives and blacks experience it the most. You really need a definition of violent crimes....? Are you being serious? How about rape, murder, assault, hate crimes, etc. Don't be dense. Oh and btw you can look up all of these things if you don't believe them, finding this information is easily accessible if you have internet or a library card.	Racism	Ethnicity - General	4/188	2.128
No, those are not examples at all. I mean real cases. Give me the names of American Indians who've suffered from police brutality. Low funding does not leads to higher drop out rates. If someone drops out it's because they choose to do so. Nobody forces them and it's not because of their race. Give me an example of housing discrimination. Give me a name of an American Indian who was discriminated against and give me evidence it was because of their race. How is a lower life expectancy cause by racism ? Oh, and there are way more white sports mascots than American Indian mascots. Like the fighting Irish, Dallas cowboys, Patriots, and so on.	Indian, Nobody, Race, Racism	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - General, Ethnicity - Native-American	6/116	5.172

Toxic-Pop ... are you being serious right now? Why do you need the names of specific Natives Americans who experience police brutality, do you think the statistics are just making up lies? How will a list of names prove that they experience it more when the stats will prove that? You aren't making sense. Do you know how this type of research even works? Have you even done research on police brutality? Cases about Native Americans experiencing police brutality are rarely reported about, so all there is the statistics. Which is what you should be looking for because it'll prove my point even more. Low funding is directly relate to the drop out rate going up, which is why it happens more in schools that don't get any funding. If schools aren't being funded and students don't even have books to learn from why would they keep going to school? You're obviously very privileged and haven't experienced going to a school in a low income neighborhood that doesn't get any government funding, that's good for you. But that's not the experience for a lot of other people. There's been articles about Natives experiencing housing discrimination, a study was done by the Department of Housing and Urban Development and it showed that 1 in 4 Natives experienced housing discrimination. Since you want names for some reason one of the articles was about a man named Ken Hebah. I mentioned the lower life expectancy because of environmental racism that contaminates poor neighborhoods including reservations where Natives live, a lot of them don't have health insurance because they're in poverty so if they get sick they won't be able to go to the hospital for care or medication. Read and comprehend what I'm saying before you reply or I'll just end up repeating myself. None of those team names you listed are slurs or offensive toward white people. So idk why you even tried with that lol, white ppl are hilarious	Racism	Ethnicity - General	1/328	0.305
--	--------	---------------------	-------	-------

Because if you can't give names you don't have evidence. Without names you have nothing . There is no statistic that proves that there is any injustice because of race . For example, You claim that American Indians have a higher dropout rate. But, you can't prove that this is a result of racism . All you have proven is American Indians choose (that's the key word there, choose nobody forced them) to drop out more than others. There is no link to racism that you have provided. Articles is not scientific evidence. There are articles claiming that the earth if flat, it doesn't make it true. What is the evidence of this so called "housing discrimination" ? Did the landlord say that they denied them specifically because of their race ? Did they say, we don't rent to Indians ? What is environmental racism ? The environment is not racist . Rain clouds do not target specific races to rain on. They are poor because of racism ? So white people are stopping American Indians from getting a job, becoming rich, and moving away ? Sorry, no, that is not how life works in America. Nobody is preventing them from getting a job. Nobody is forcing them to live there. They can move off the reservation. They can live wherever they want. Nobody is stopping them from getting health insurance. Again, what makes you think I'm white ? Assuming my race is racist . Toxic-Pop White people are so privileged they really can't even imagine that someone could get discriminated against based on their race because y'all have never experienced anything like that. Natives Americans make up such a small percentage in North America and you really think that them being killed and experiencing police brutality and housing discrimination at a higher rate than white people is just a coincidence and it has nothing to do with race ? We still benefit disproportionately from the system our ancestors created. Every time governments talk about 'cutting waste', social programs are the first on the list regardless of effectiveness. People bleat and blather about individual initiative while refusing to approve and fund programs that will work. Native Americans had an alien culture foisted upon them. Their own religions, cultures, customs, and languages were derided as primitive. When they shed those ways, they were still abused because of their ancestry. They are trying to cope and adapt while too many whites refuse to listen to what they want and need – or get angry because they're still around or not conforming to the 'noble red man' stereotype. Olivia - lol that's classic liberal expediency! Every culture is ' racist ' to a degree. Indian (ie. in India...before some of you misunderstand the reference & take offence at the term ' Indian ') society is even based on ethnic prejudice. It's just that as white people, we are not allowed to 'punch down' (in a 'traditional power' sense...before some of you take offence at that too :D) due to PC culture; it's okay to be racist upwardly though! Did you just agree with a racist douchebag who called Native Americans substance abusers? Native Americans try to cope with being shit on by our society. Caucasians call themselves white, so don't think you're clever. And for whites, theirs is the color of morality, intelligence, civilization, and divine favor. 'White' refers exclusively to people of European ancestry (preferably Germanic and Celtic populations). Jews, Arabs, Turks, Afghanis, and so forth are not 'white enough' for the people who think the KKK is a heroic organization.The names that white people imposed on those they conquered carry weight. Those names deny the differences among the non-EuroWhite population of the planet. They carry meanings of cowardice, stupidity, laziness, passivity, latent violence, immorality, barbarism, and inferiority.You haven't seen many Asians if you think they all have light skin. We whites stole people from Africa to work our mines and fields. They lost their ethnic and religious identities along with their names. 'Black' is the least-freighted imposed identity. By contrast, the various Asian peoples brought to Europe and the Americas kept their ethnic identities fairly well, along with their languages and religions. They identify as of Chinese, Japanese, Vietnamese, etc. in ancestry while also primarily as citizens of their countries of birth.	Ethnic	Ethnicity - General	2/182	1.099

supahotfan You know what's really hilarious? Over 800,000 Jews left Europe during the so-called "Holocaust" to Mexico. Look at any Mexican today they look little to nothing like the Native Americans you seen before they were "colonized by white people". They were literally orientals with dark skin. Almost all of Mexicans today look Middle Eastern. There was a Mexican educator who tested his genealogy and found he was Jewish. He did this for some 60 other people and found they were all Jewish even though they claimed "pure" Native American heritage. So yes, if Mexico was "conquered by the evil whites" as our "History texts" so claim wouldn't all Mexicans today be blonde haired with blue eyes like the Norwegians are? I just love how today's generation of "Mexicans with Native heritage" attack white people for the Native massacre yet have zero connection to these people. Juliet Fischer I still speak Navajo and Apache I spend alot of time trying to explain to people that all my years living on and ofd the rez I NEVER ONCE heard a reel injun say the white man stole our land or demand they give land back.Thats so weak and embarrassing to my own spiritual beliefs Smh They seem to be speaking against all that I know my people to be.No one owns the wind or the sky How can you own the Earth or the Sea We do not believe anyone OWNS the Earth beneath our feet.We are to share and respect in harmony all that has been loaned to us while we journey here for a season. I cant speak for other tribes but the Navajo is the most numerous in the southwestern U.S the Navajo Nation Reservation is on the same land our ancestors walked upon we never got exiled off of it .We still make the same arts rugs basket weavings,sandpaintings, hogans,drawings of certain charachters as those that archeologists found in the ancienr ruins at Chaco Canyon,Mesa Verde Cliff dwellings,Shiprock,Windowrock,Pueblo Pintado,Four Corners Monument Navajo Nation Southern Utah,Colorado,northern New Mexico,Arizona the Navajo Nation all the way through Apache Country Pine Top Arizona the beautiful White Mountain Apache Reservation We are still on all the very same lands that our ancestors walked upon .I dont know why people use us for thier political bullcrap liberal leftist race baiting lies.The Navajo Code talkers were honored when presidenr Trumo went out to honor them with awards and he told the Elizabeth Warren pocahontus joke which we thought was funny I got a funnier one I say she is from the Wannabeewee tribe of wannabees .They told Trump they did not get offended when people yelled Geronimo while jumping out of planes. I never even heard the term Native American until the 90s sometime. We older school natives do not start tripping or get all butthurt at the word indian . Nakai Yaz - Whites think of many things in terms of ownership and money. Even when we aren't intending to be cruel, we measure things that way. Which is why our attempts at aid go awry: we don't know how to work with the people.Our ancestors looked at the land that indigenous people lived on and saw property going to waste because it wasn't bounded by fences, threaded by roads, dotted with factory-towns, mines, farms, and estates. They felt no guilt because they saw it as God's gift to them, and every 'How can you own the land and the sky' question or protest was evidence that they were right.They took the land by drawing lines on maps and building walls and fences along those lines. Anybody who 'didn't belong' was murdered or driven off. You have all been fighting, in various ways, to keep what remains to you. Elizabeth Warren never traded on her ancestry. It was a family story, nothing more. It was her political opponents who belittled her with their lies. Seems to me that the real wannabe Indians are the white people who decide that a Native ancestor from 1700 means they can cosplay their fantasy, or write those New Age books misrepresenting Native beliefs (or plain making stuff up). The ones led by a man who has joked about dating his daughter – what father does that? You can't understand why people still being screwed by whites would be angry at them? The Standing Rock protests were to keep an oil pipeline away from an aquifer that provided drinking water to thousands of people, in addition to protecting local grave sites. Native women are murdered at rates far higher than women of other ethnicities in the same area. What I've read about the various First Nations has never included silence and inaction in the face of evil or injustice. Juliet Fischer Did you think I was defending Soros? Do you realize that Natives are a hell of alot stronger then the liberal left democraps keeo making us out to be. We fought with Mexico in 1870 and on Geronimo and his band of warriors were very small in number compared to the huge amount of mexicans that were mercenaries working hard to out all the Apaches on the extinction list.Mexico was heavily involved in the exact same thing they accusw whites of. I dont think you understand my position. I will NEVER surrender my right to defend myself. I know in the big picture of reality the Left wing and tge right wing are all part of the same muddypuppin bird !!! Im not fooled into believed any political propaganda for either side. If you think Trump is racist and hurts peoples feelings like so many brainwashed fools thats fine. I could care less about feelings Im not the little weakling with emotions so delicate that I need the democraps to be word nazis and police people not to offend my wittle feewings .Thats how the democraps try to make people think all minorities are. I go by facts and Trump did alot of tangible real life things that I can see and feel in the lives of many minorities like opening up factories obama closed down ,the amount of jobs have blown up for minorities that were so relieved to finally have jobs again. I know some black ,hispanic,apache and navajo people who believe the way I do but most importantly Its a matter of life or death and being able to defend myself and my family if the mexicans or anyone else tries to come for us again and I chose Trump because that evil murdering hypicrite KILLARY actually thought everyone forgot how evil she treated women who were rape victims a child they recorded her laughing about getting a child molestor out of trouble I heard it with my own ears these are facts that Hilkary never denied I remember when her and bill called blacks super predators and she stole and exploited from the entire country just fact check haiti. My main concern is thatTRUMP DEFENDS OUR RIGHT TO BEAR ARMS AND KILLARY THOUGHT SHE WAS GOING TO IMPOSE GUN CONTROL AND ILL BE DAMED IF I WILL GIVE UP MY RIGHT TO PROTECT MYSELF !!! TRUMP must not be that racist he wants us to live and hillary wanted us disarmed look how she laughed about the dead soldiers at Bengazi and look how she never cared abiut women at all.whatever Trump did or said is not enough for me to bow to surrender my right to bear arms. Im not against mexico either Im just tired of alo the ones that talk trash and blame whites and have the nerve to say mexico fukn belongs to them then they try to hide their attempts at genocide How convenient that they never mention all the Apaches they massacred You shouldnt buy into all the left and right crap based on feelings you should decde on what will help your life personally .If they try to take our guns away I would rather die fighting and remember the Warriors who said It is a good day to die .Hillary was the most evil and people who examine facts didnt fall for her bullshit anymore. Trump treated all of us natives so nice when he presented the code talkers in person with honorary its on Youtube Thats not why I am for Trump though its more important to me that hes not trying to take our guns like Killary anyway i cant find my reading glasses sorry for	Black, Racist	Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - General	3/630	0.476

I have never once in my entire 52 years of life hear any native yell at or blame white man for anything.There are way too many people speaking for us and explaining shit that I have never even seen or experienced. The Navajo and Apache tribes still live on the exact same land as our ancestors .We never claim to own the land or demand land back because that is not the way we believe We dont believe anyone owns the earth we walk upon. The Navajo Nation all the way to pine top arizona is very beautiful land .I hate to bust your bubble but white man has never oppressed me or caused me grief They have no power over my personal life to make me or mine miserable. I spend alot of time defending whites who get picked on when I lived in Los Angeles .I have lived on the reservation and in the city.I think you give yourself to much credit you are not responsible for what the powers that be or the government did way back when. We had more problems from Mexico than any white man 1870s Mexican government tried to wipe us all out Fact check me on all I say Apache Vs Mexico wars .Mexico is always railing accusations at white man demanding land back when they fought us here in the southwest and were worse then any whites thats for sure. Despite that all we dont go around rehashing old wounds .I see more happy peaceful natives about there business.The past was handled the way it was and people who go around demanding land back are a dishonor to thier ancestors who were warriors. People who dont enjoy the good that they do have in the here and now are the most miserable of all. To speak or natives in a way that groups us all together is a huge error ,we are all different .Those who have been brainwashed to believe all that politicak propaganda have sadly strayed away from the true native spirit. Actually, If you do some REAL research you will find that the original Natives of North America were dark skinned and many Europeans like Christopher Columbus and numerous other's referred to them as dark skinned people with copper to reddish skin which is where the " redskin " definition actually came from. Because of the $5 Indian period where Europeans could "buy" into the native culture, they dropped the " red skin" description and called it negative or derogatory because they weren't red skinned people that fit the true definition of an authentic native. These are not real natives historically. Why didn't they have any of them say what tribe they're from? If they go by the Europeanized 5 so called civilized tribes names they are decedents of $5 Indians who have mixed in and are descendants of traitors that don't know the tribes original name. ask yourself, who built all of the hundreds of pyramids across North America that predates any tribe? Natives never built pyramids, they built mounds which was a different structure all together. The Africans that came over on land bridges etc built those pyramids thus the reason why original natives were dark colored ranging from copper tone to reddish. White supremacy is always busy lying! even got these people on here confused about who they are like everyone else! PLUS!!! No, all tribes don't get govt assistance, but the 5 so called civilized ones do have access to funds' schooling, casino money etc. They have documentary's out about that! do some research...sheeesh...smh	Colored, Indian, Red, Redskin	Ideological and Political Identity - General, Ethnicity - Black, Ethnicity - Native-American	7/254	2.756

I didn't get schooled. I already knew all this. Mostly because I live in an area where there are many natives. Growing up in an area where there was a lower population of natives, I was incredibly shocked and disappointed after I moved here. The majority of natives here are dirty and rude. They frequently steal and commit petty crimes. Many of them have this uneducated-sounding, mumbling accent they pick up on the reservation. Fucking ENUNCIATE. I work near a casino and the only people we ever see going in and out all day and night are Natives. Do they not work? Do they not have jobs? Many of them do get free money, and they will get a job for a short period and abruptly quit to work the system. They are given free money every year towards their reservations, yet the reservations still look like shit because they have no pride or cleanliness. My friend works in health care and she's told me countless stories about neglected and sexually/physically abused kids on the res. It's a SERIOUS problem. Alcohol is also a serious problem. Pine Ridge is about an hour from where I live, and it is literally the poorest shit stain in the US. Look it up. It sickens me when I see bumper stickers that say "Native Pride." What are you proud of? Your ancestors would be just as disgusted with you. These people don't need their land back. They will only trash it. They feel entitled because this is their "land." Yet, they don't do anything to better their situation or living conditions. Meanwhile they pop out multiple kids they can't afford. Their kids are running around with lice. They allow their children to be raped, sodomized and abused by their own uncles and cousins. I have NO respect for Natives. Not the ones like that, which is what I have to put up with day in and day out. Obviously not ALL Natives are like this, but in my experience (and where I live) MOST of them are. Cry if you want but these are FACTS. Just by doing a quick google search you can see that I'm not lying about the amount of abuse and criminal activities many Natives indulge themselves in. Alcohol abuse and sexual/physical abuse are rampant. Countless studies have proven it. Also, not all Native land was stolen. There were many treaties and agreements in reference to land. Even for the land that was stolen... they aren't the only fucking people. Every single country has been invaded or had land stolen. Every single country has invaded or stolen land. Native Americans just happen to be one of the more recent examples, so people whine about it. In most other countries, these people weren't given land back. They weren't given free money from the government either. I hope you guys just realize that some of your tax money going towards Natives are really going to Playstations and hot cheetos at Walmart at the first of the month instead of the cause you THINK you're paying for.	alcohol	Behavioural Addiction - Alcohol	2/515	0.388

Scalping was implimented first by non-natives for bounty hunters who roamed America in search of Indian scalps, it eventually even became part of the US Army's policy back in the day. Collecting Indian scalps was practiced first as a means to not only eradicate Native people, but destroy their image in the world. In Arizona, an Apache mans scalp was worth $100, a woman's $50, and a child's $25, so any Indian with long hair usually fell victim.. Allot of people saying we scalped first, we only did it in response because it was happening to us, but we did it back in such a way that you know we meant we weren't playing about letting you kill us all, we just tried scalping more than they did to us...	Indian	Ethnicity - Native-American	3/130	2.308

Android Miller,.. We never slaughtered each other to the point of extinction, like how the first European settlers tried to ethnically cleanse "America" of Native peoples. And sacrificing to the sun god was primarily accustomed to a handful of powerful tribes of the day, like Aztecs, Incas, so on so forth.. a lot to discuss culturally and why they did what they did, but it won't matter explaining shit to you since movies and the internet can "teach" you all you need to know... And child sacrifice was practiced all over the world, Abraham almost sacrificed his own son because it was testimony to the times and what was going on around him, child sacrifice... And on your American loved 300 movie, the early Spartans killed newborns they deemed unworthy based on a disability.. again, the world is to big to judge and point the finger. I'm simply saying, we didn't get what was coming to us, our wars or conflicts we had with each other before the white man came never included genocide or ethnic cleansing. We had our differences but existed in relative peace, or we wouldn't have had as many Native Nations as we had before we were killed off...	Ethnic	Ethnicity - General	1/203	0.493
Android Miller,.. Everyone was killing each other before the white man came, including us Natives, all men are capable of murder and for ages have always practiced it. BUT WE NEVER PRACTICED GENOCIDE,.. war or conflicts existed but not because of our differnces in skin color which there was none, but someone had to do something in order for us to react to kill... And we haven't met our last adversary, still have some to this day on our own reservations, where we have our sovereignty and fight for our exisistence in a country full of haters like you.. just shut up?? I actually haven't made a sound to shut up, you can say stop writing, which you should do because clearly you got something against me cuz I'm Native and I'm standing up to you and your false opinions, too many privileged white people today who let their mouths run, after their track record proves the whole non-white world hates them for their crazy way of thinking and actions, no matter what you just prove a point that millions like me are awakening to in these days, there are still racist ignorant people in 2018...	Crazy, Racist	Ethnicity - General, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	2/196	1.02

Android Miller,... Natives fought with one another over different reasons,.. theft from one another which could be seen as raiding, conflicts over hunting territory, or things were personal, where someone was wronged in some way, that's why we had strong warrior men.. when the white man came over, our fighting was different, it became a long standing war, white people wanted the land, minerals, and timber, whatever they wanted to create America... so the war was more complex and intense, at first we were somewhat peaceful with whites, until more and more kept coming.. in time shit was bound to happen, we weren't going to go down without a fight.. a lot of craziness was remembered on all sides back then, White and Native, but we still had a voice and our own reasons for what we did, if it don't make sense to you, I don't know how else to put it, I already told you a lot to try and get you to understand, that even though we did some things, we were human, acting only as humans would in those times.. We didn't have the technologies that the other side of the world had, and we didn't unify enough to repel the invasion... Native American history is a topic that keeps getting mutilated and cofused, all angles need to be understood to get a good picture of what it is you are looking at... And genocide, submission, trickery, and forced removal ended the Indian Wars... And to say that innocents die for the greater good like in Hiroshima is sickening, that's a more modern example of how evil has escalated even since the Indian wars.. And your so called "civilized" country today is godless, you all worship the doller, you all spend more time in front of the tv or phones that makes you stupid, your country is gay , you have Satan churches in capitals and major towns, science rules the country, and racism still exists... Android Miller,.. 90 killed off by disease? Naw more like 50 killed by disease, 40 by war, genocide, or conflict, whatever you want to call it, and 10 of us survived till this day... No matter what we did experience genocide, removal, and renewal. And it was genocide because the US government made it a key to attack and kill Indians specifically, or ethnic cleansing of some sort, we were the only targets.. rounded up and massacred like at Wounded Knee... idk, I'm done arguing with you, I said all I had to say, and it keeps going here and there,.. fuck that, I got better things to do, read back and all my opinions are stated. Android Miller,.. It went from slaughtering and scalping, to disease and death numbers.. But regardless of being seen as savages, we helped build that modern era, after the reservations were established, we helped the Army as scouts, we built roads, trails, and dams, we helped build the modern era. That goes unheard of, only we remember such things, or no one knows anything or thinks we sit on the rez and do nothing but drink.. a lot of Natives after the reservations were made, were busy people with a rich culture still dealing with opression.. Indian agents, and government control. Boarding schools and culture eradication. But in the 1970s we've been on a rebound, trying to regain all we've lost.. Android Miller,. You use "we" like you did something, you did nothing . And the "we" that did make reservations, made them as an attempt to try and control and segregate Native people. It wasn't like we enjoyed getting the reservation package when the whole continent was our stomping grounds. No one gave us what was already ours, the reservation is just an idea that really didn't work, we go back and forth as we please, we formed new communities beyond the concentration camp reservations, and we have our sovereignty because we did it on our own, they gave us our reservations because they knew they had too...	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/107	0.935
So you can say "we showed you guys how to survive in the new continent", as if you personally showed them how to survive. But when I say "we" its a problem? I'm going to have to call you out on that. Sorry but we didn't have to give you people anything. There's no rule in war that states you have to give the loser anything. WE also didn't have to give 238 tribes Indian casinos that earn tax free money. The government spends $20 Billion a year in benefits, programs, etc. for Native Americans.	Indian	Ethnicity - Native- American	1/95	1.053

Android Miller,.. ok, me using "we" was a contradiction on myself,.. you can say "we", just as much as I've been using it... But I'm going to call you out on thinking that your white people "did things" for us, none of you did shit for us, our self-determination kept us alive, we fought to exist,.. your people woke up to consciousness and thought it was better and easier to make reservations for control and assimilation. And casinos were ideas thought of by each Tribal Council that decided to use Indian Gaming as a means to economically sustain the Tribes... our own will is why we have all we have, from reservations to everything we have. Yeah, poor people live on welfare, but it's a fact that not all Indians get free money from the govenment, like everyone else, you have to meet certain standards to get "free" shit... And if we make money on the rez, or any rez, it's through our own enterprises, not the government, anything the rez has ever offered me was through the rez, not the government, we take care of ourselves, at least we do on my rez... the government spends money on fake white Indian rezes that actually do exist, where a small Tribe of like 200 white people claim Indian blood, have white skin and get sovereignty somehow,... those Tribes you need to be looking into when it comes to "free" shit, and real Natives know Native, I can tell by facial features and skin color that stick out like the mountains in the ground,.... Skin color has nothing to do with race , its a gene that can be turn off and off, which usually does in most of the population. Blond hair didn't even appear in Europe until 3,000-5,000 years ago. That trait was brought by the Steppe people. Southern Europeans were the first with color eyes but they were dark like Native Americans. Even today, Southern Europeans tend to have darker tones. I actually live in Spain now and I tend to be paler than most Europeans, the only things that differ are my features. Even features change through history due to diets and genetics changing. We will never be our ancestors and our future humans will not look like us. Even before the Europeans came to the Americas. There were light skin Native Americans. In the Aztec world, these children would be taken care as well as their families for the rest of their lives. The child would be sacrificed to the Gods after a certain age . Having a light skin baby was a huge deal in Native culture. In some USA tribes, these children were usually seen as gifted and could often tell you the future. It wasn't until the introduction of the horse that more raids too place. The horse was introduced by Europeans. And again, they never tricked any one that was their ally. They never fought allies. White people turned on even their native allies. Its funny again that you tell me to read a book yet you say the world was young when the Native's land was taken. +sorafanchick A week or too away on foot, often as not. There were of course those who ran for months to aid those on the other side of the Iroquois and south American nations, but that wasn't particularly common . My point mostly was that it was a lot like medieval Europe in terms of travel distances. Less so in many cases because they didn't travel in massive armies requiring slower speeds and massive supply chains. On them trusting Europeans, yeah they could have handled that better. For the first 50 years, they had the upper hand on regular occasion, but kept not following through by the anthropology books I've read. They always would have lost by resisting, Europe just had too high a birthrate at the time and too large a military base, they would never have stopped. But the indians could have tried to work from a position of strength and absorb the incomers and take on their strengths instead. Honestly though, they did alot better than their more developed south American cousins against the Spanish. +Michael Kearns Actually I agree with you here. The Europeans also had more experience with massive warfare. While the natives did go to battle, it was usually not as often that they had to defend themselves because most other natives around them were just as defended or defenseless as they were. Whereas in European countries that are so close to African and Asian nations, Europeans had to defend themselves on all sides and so it pushed them to develop more efficient weaponry. To add, they did have more advanced medicine because they had more experience with stronger diseases. The natives were weak in comparison to these advantages.	African	Ethnicity - Black	1/107	0.935
Boy, a lot of shitstained comments here. +Aniyunwiya Ageya, I'm assuming you're referring to Jesse Eugene Russel? Lots of sites credit him with the cell phone, but the patent office does not. Instead it credits him with 112 patents involving mostly broadband communication infrastructure. This would suggest he was instrumental in the proliferation and possibly development of cell phones, but not the phone itself. The thing you seem to fail to understand is that statistics are easily researched and while there are indeed exceptional black people, more exceptional people of native American descent and many exceptional inventors among the ranks of the Asian ethnicities, American whites are still solely responsible for a significant chunk of inventions over the last 200 years and a larger chunk of so called key inventions.If this were simply recognized by people at large there would be no problem. All races have their genius inventors, and their not so genius innovators. Hugo Jones, are you mentally incompetent, hilariously uneducated, or so generalized you're racist ?In the case of america, north was a 400 year back and forth slug-fest; south with the Spanish and Portuguese you have things more or less correct, but it was still largely mutual. The Spaniards were simply the more effective monsters. Read an anthropology text some time. Something with actual research and references. On the rest of it, genocide and pogroms were rampant across africa for the 7000 years of recorded history; sporadic across the 5000 years of white history and systematic across the 6000 years of Asian history.What we now call warcrimes? That was standard military doctrine until more or less the Napoleonic wars, the world over. Making them crimes didn't really stop them, but its still a white moral system trying to limit them. We more or less have to force it on other cultures. Even today. Especially africa and the middle east where they're still culturally acceptable. Mass rape? Every single culture across their entire history. Where war went, rape was left in it's wake. It's STILL rampant all over africa. Very sporadic and individual in white countries. And child rape? Legal in the middle east. Illegal in every white country, even though it still happens.	Racist	Ethnicity - General	1/213	0.469

My response to each statement: "Native Americans still live in tipis." First of all, not all tribes even used tipi's but a majority of plains tribes did like the ones I come from and no, that era of living has ended around the late 1800's, early 1900's I believe."Native Americans get lots of handouts." This is a widespread belief amongst a lot of non-natives. Even if they did, it might've been because the government made treaties where they promised direct help in exchange for land in the past but as we all know, most treaties are not even practiced or respected."Native Americans don't pay taxes. lol I'm Native and only 21 and I pay taxes. If you're Native and live and work on the reservation you are exempt from state tax I believe but you are still subject to federal tax but if you are native and work off the reservation then you are still subject to state and federal. It might have to be due to the fact that reservations are considered "sovereign." I'm not completely sure."Native Americans are rich off of casinos." Some native tribes have gained a lot of financial prosperity from casinos but that is a small number of tribes who have and those tribes usually have strict enrollment qualifications and sometimes low enrollment so even that is a low percentage of natives. I know damn well my tribes are not rich off of our casinos. lol"All native Americans wore headdresses." Not all tribes do wear headdresses and not every tribes headdress were alike. Also there were different kinds of headdresses as well. My tribe wore headdresses but like they stated, only certain people are allowed to wear them."Another word for Native Americans is redskin." There's no word like that in our language. I never have once heard someone within our own people call ourselves redskin. I personally don't like the term either. I personally would rather be called by my tribe.I have been asked these types of questions before and thankfully, the non-natives who ask are always willing to listen and try to understand. White people, please quit lumping us into one group and only interviewing a few from that demographic.If you're German and every video, article, or bit of media that ever covered europeans or european perspective featured French people would you get tired of being represented by the French? I'd say the biggest misconception about my people is who we are relative to. The media loves to group all of north america together and all of south america together and not even address the fact that quite a lot of those tribes have more to do with people from the other continent than people east or west of them.White man seems to think his influence on us is greater than the thousands of years of culture, but it's not true. Y'all also seem to think the American colonies, France, Spain, the Dutch, and Portuguese all explored and conquered in the same manner. I've more in common with an Arawak than a Cheyenne. Not just because of our shared pre-european history, but because our european-american history is more similar as well. I'm not Crow . What tribes do you represent? How much contact do you have with other tribes throughout the country? I loved your video but in somethings it is not good to speak for all Native Americans. I live in Oklahoma. I am not a Native American but I'm learning about some of the tribes. I have had a Choctaw tell me about benefits they receive. He was encouraging us to see if we where Choctaw so we could get the benefits too. In Oklahoma, there are special Clinics and hospitals for Native Americans. I don't know if they are free or reduced priced. There is some benefit to going to them or people would not drive over an hour to go to them. We have Indian WIC which I was told is better than normal WIC. Much of these benefits come from the revenue of the casinos owned by the various tribes.	Indian	Ethnicity - Native- American	1/150	0.667

Chassity Oubre A. Tribes as a whole have already been given land and repayments back andB. Thats an awful idea. Making people dependent on something is setting them up for failure. One example is welfare for primarily black citizens. So many people screw with the system. C. America is trying to transition into equality. How is giving people handouts, effected or not, bringing equality to our country? D. Special programs and loan payment services dedicated to native minorities already exist. Chassity Oubre What do you mean? I never said anything racist or stereotypical. Welfare has become an epidemic issue in the U.S, not because its a bad idea, but because its an easy system to cheat and has been used to do so, especially in places like Detroit and Milwaukee. Imagine that the government gives you X-amount of money each month for simply applying to a job or having Y-amount of children, but not working a job or taking care of said children. The same applies to charities in foreign countries. The economy collapses because they aren't making money or learning the trade, they are simply piggy backing. Point being that waving a magical wand and giving people free stuff because they have certain DNA (which is how a monarchy works, which was the downfall of some major European nations) doesn't solve anything and only angers other groups, because it isn't fair. It isn't a bad thing to be on welfare, especially when you are trying to get out of it. Its another thing to sit their and expect things out of it without an applicable skills to a certain trade. Now, only 22 of Natives actually live in poverty where all assistance is needed. What about all the Natives that are financially stable and educated? They should get free benefits for being born that way? This is exactly the issue I was warning you about; A simple system like that is so easy to cheat. And its not a simple "I cheated, my bad" type of thing. Its something that effects other people, so why can't these Natives use simple goverment assistance like everyone else? Aren't we all trying to be equal? America has had many equality breakthroughs in the last two century's, has it not? No ones enslaved, no ones being killed, everyone can get an equal opportunity to education. So, why would you suddenly screw things up like that? And that doesn't include other things, such as tribal scholarships, which a white guy such as myself couldn't recieve anyway. Lets not forget that alot of land and money has been returned to Tribes, although some have refused to take it.	Racist	Ethnicity - General	1/363	0.275
So... they should be given free health care, and lands and goverment hands off just encause they are native american? You should know some more history, Irish have been highly discriminated, and some scottish people like the mcgregors were hounded like animals by the english, and yet you think that what happened to natives and africans is worth considering when you take care of people. I sincerely hope for the future of our country, that we STOP living by labels, creating victimhood, and categorizing people based on a social construct (RACE). ALL americans deserve free healthcare, not just a group of them. All Americans deserve the ability to get help when they sincerely need it, not just a select group. Paying for things that were once agreed to be paid for isn't a "handout" People love to overlook the fact that MANY treaties were made and by the American government and then broken. There are hundreds of signed documents between certain tribes and the American government that were later broken by the American government. I guess that's ok tho because YOU get to benefit from those things but when it affects your family THEN it's an issue. Do you know how many fucking men, women, children and elderly Natives died on the Trail of Tears? This has nothing to fucking do with the original White settlers, this has to do with the American government TO THIS FUCKING DAY taking and taking what little we have left. And with Trump as President it'll get even worse, he hates Natives more than he hates Mexicans because they compete with him in the casino business. He once called us "All drug dealers" that we were akin to the Italian Mafia. Probably why some of his first orders as President was to fuck over Native people trying to prevent an oil pipeline from going directly through their only water source where they get all their drinking, showering, fishing etc from on the small chunk of land they were forced onto. Because oil means more to Trump then Native children having clean water to drink. Also he VOWED to changed a Mountains name that was OWNED AND THEN TAKEN FROM THROUGH BROKEN TREATIES BY THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT back to "Mount McKinley" because Obama in a sign of respect and wanting to work with the Tribe couldn't give them back ownership of the Mountain that is very sacred to that tribe so as a peace offering he changed the name BACK to the Mountains ORIGINAL name that it had for THOUSANDS of years before it was stolen and renamed Mount McKinley by the American Government. YUP THAT'S the most important thing to Trump a fucking Mountain that doesn't mean shit to anyone but that tribe but he's so spiteful and hates Natives so much (again because of casino competition) that's some REAL important shit Trump, you better get right on that. Got N Korea practicing how to blow us up, got ISIS signing up to be Uber drivers everywhere, got Putin and Trump measuring each others dick, Americans are racist as ever but sure let's make sure we change a stolen mountain BACK to the name the thieves gave the Mountain that's a TOP PRIORITY. So sad to see all that my people had be destroyed and probably soon to be discarded after you raped it of it's resources just like you all discarded your original Countries. My tribe had 100 equality of the sexes, we respected the earth and it's animals (Go ask all the wild Bison.....oh that's right.... you can't because you fuckers killed 99.9 of them too) we didn't look down on gay or trans people in fact they were respected and called them "two spirits", women had an equal vote in the tribe and could hold council right alongside a man, own property (meanwhile white women didn't even have rights to their own children and a dead father could will his children away to strangers and the mother could do nothing) but suuuuuuure keep telling yourself that we were "behind the time savages" YOU DON'T EVEN HAVE THE MORALS NOW THAT WE HAD THOUSANDS OF YEARS AGO!!!! So what you brought technology and growth in different ways? You realize that could have been done along side the Natives right? White people like to pretend that we'd still be in the dark ages if they didn't come over and commit genocide, I don't think you have to rape 4 year olds and start a child sex ring like the whites immediately did (like immediately idk why child rape is their favorite and first priority) to invent fucking light bulbs. Fact is everything you have was built off the death of the Natives and the sweat and back of the Blacks. j escoto: While not every Mexican is Mestizo(racial mixture of White Spaniard or European in general and Indigenous) and very predominantly Amerindian/Indigenous, you can't deny that you "pure white" Mexicans still make up a small population of Mexico's demographics(even slightly smaller than the indigenous population), hence why the majority of people have these misconceptions that all Mexicans are either Mestizo or Amerindian or that all Mexicans or Latinos are predominantly an original homogeneous race like East Asians and Europeans. Also, the definition "white" in Mexico(like the vast majority of Latin America) has different meaning from the United States' version of their "white race " definition, with the US socially using the "One-Drop Rule" to determine someone's racial background or purity, while in Mexico or most of Latin America, Castizos(and Arabs too, I think) are sometimes lumped into the same group as "White" Mexicans/Latinos.I disagree with the way the US or Western Media portrays all Latinos as "brown" but telenovelas also do absolutely no justice for Latinos in their portrayals of them either(with nearly all the main characters always being white/criollo Latinos).	Race	Ethnicity - General	2/181	1.105
TheLatinoAssassin480 I agree. But I don't see a problem with Latin American countries lumping in Arabs or predominately European Latinos in their "white" category. If you look white, even if you're not 100 pure I'm pretty sure I myself am not, you should be put on the white category. Not even Spaniards or Italians, or Portuguese people are pure "white" they have Arab and North African blood in them because of the Moor Conquest. That "one drop rule" is lonnnggg gone now. A study was recently done by Sir Hillary Beckles on blacks in Anglophone Caribbean countries, for example he found that in Jamaica 60 of the people over 50 either had diabetes, CVD or hypertension. Interestingly these aren't diseases which are indicative of native born Africans. These diseases are due to the high level of stress and limited food sources slaves had to endure for hundreds of years so much so it changed their genetic make up.Furthermore the medication used to treat these disease only have a 70 efficacy rate on blacks who are descendants of slaves; whereas whites and native born Africans the meds are 90 effective.I think it's a safe bet that these diseases which are prevalent among Native and black Americans, are most likely attributed to the same historical set of events. Gamerglazer423 first and foremost, am a man. Second am a black man (African decent). Thirdly, I dont think black is beautiful. I think there are some blacks who are beautiful and others who are really really ugly. Also with every other race . In my eyes, most indian americans and australian aboriginals are fiercely ugly. I am yet to see one single fine one (both male or female). Not all whites or hispanics are beautiful either. Some are, but most are not.No race is "beautiful". There are simply beautiful amongst each race and ugly amongst them.I am an ugly looking man by my standards. But I know a good looking man when I see one. I don't decieve maself and would rather no one decieve me. I dont need anyones beauty approval. It is who I am, I didnt create maself that way. Lomp15 No clue as to why you felt the need to disrespect another group of human-beings. That is pure arrogance, mate. You seem like the casual European descendant. Let’s trace back your history, shall we?European history;Indo-European sub-species (White-man) found it’s way out of the Caucus Mountains (Hence the name ”Caucasian,”) and was taught by the indigenous tribes of Eurasia (Europe/Asia). After being taught and accepted by other humans, the Caucasian man betrayed and conquered with tactics and tools given to them. Nothing but disease and havoc came from this sub-species. All your ancestors have done, is wonder around the world in numbers (Because we all know these regressive fucks reproduced quickly, yet they call other sub-species by the term ”Roach,”) and spread sexually transmitted diseases that arose only from your blood-type and regressed DNA. Your ancestors were so filthy, African tribes had to teach them how to bathe because they were covered in fecal matter. Laughable, isn’t it? Your ancestors tried colonizing the Americas, which were already colonized by indigenous people who welcomed your ancestors. Your ancestors did nothing but steal food, hunting tactics which they failed at, and spread diseases that killed off large chunks of the indigenous population. Your ancestors had diseases that caused the skin of a man to fall off, head to toe, yet you ridicule the indigenous people for ”Scalping.” Guess who they scalped? Your ancestors.	African, Nothing	Age - Youngsters, Ethnicity - Black	3/233	1.288

+ElxiTheObserverI don't judge people based off of their ancestors. But hey, if you want to bash people who are thousands and hundreds of years dead go ahead. It's not like I'm related to every white person.But hey, if you're going to think of people as a collective then fine, white people are the best at war, adapting, and learning in general. You already said they didn't know how to do shit in the beginning but, they were taught and they perfected it. Tech in general would not be nearly this advanced without white people/civilizations. Look at Africa now, look at the Middle East now. These places are the most backwards and savage places on the planet.Also, I'm only 4th generation in this country so no, my "ancestors" did not spread any diseases. Also, nobody knew anything about diseases and how they actually spread back in that time. How were they supposed to know they were carrying diseases the natives weren't resistant to? It's not like they just threw diseased people at them.Also, I was making a joke. How the fuck can you find a joke that offensive? That shit happened hundreds of years ago. It's not like I look at an Indian person and say, "Yeah that Indian man scalped my ancestors let's get him!" (as if I'm related to every white person) Also, the white people that came to America didn't "steal" food. They hunted for it. (I bet there was one time that it happened and you're going to point it out. But guess what? Indians stole too.)Also, "regressed DNA" wow.... sounds like someone thinks their superior, which is actually racist . If you're talking about neanderthal DNA that's a tiny chunk of the white population but it actually helps with cold resistance and resistance to diseases.But I'll restate what I said in the beginning, who gives a shit about ancestors? Why would you judge someone for something that happened in their ancestry? That's backwards logic. Judge people based on merit today, it's not that hard. Want a definition of racism ?"rac · ism rā sizəm/nounprejudice, discrimination, or antagonism directed against someone of a different race based on the belief that one's own race is superior."If you believe that your race is superior to others, that makes you a racist . That's a fact. Your statement was blatantly racist . Do you like being part of the problem? Blaming white people for all the issues in your life? Well, that's the narrative that the Government wants you to feed into. It'd be nice if you could remove the blinders you have over your eyes and see who is really creating the division between race and color today, because it isn't white people like me.FYI, Christopher Columbus came from Spain. I have Irish and Italian in my heritage... guess which one of those in my heritage endured slavery, too... the Irish! Remember that next time you blame a white person for your issues. Every single race has endured slavery... if you're only denouncing the Mid-Atlantic Slave Trade, and not every incidence of slavery in this world, then maybe you should reconsider your views a little bit and denounce it all, like I do. It might make you a better person in the long run.	Race, Racism, Racist	Ethnicity - General	10/234	4.274
Billy Blunder is that the way you want to view it? We didn't conquer anything. Our ancestors did. Now because of weak minded people like you, our government owns every bit of land. You pay property tax on that too. Anyways, you, like Brae, feed into the racist narrative that the government wants you to... you know... divide and conquer. Zoo Wee Mama From 1999 to 2014, the number of white births fell 8.4 to 2.1 million overall in the U.S., declines accelerated by the 2008-09 recession that caused many women to delay having children due to economic concerns. The number of deaths in that same period rose 5.8 to more than 2 million. Previous studies have shown that more white Americans, particularly middle-aged men, are dying from opioid abuse, suicide and problems associated with obesity in recent years. The study mirrors projections by the U.S. Census Bureau that the country’s white population will start to decline in absolute numbers by 2025. Minority populations, particularly Latinos, continue to grow thanks to higher fertility rates, and the Census projects that the U.S. will be majority-minority around the mid-2040s.’The future of the growth in this country has to do with racial minorities,’ says William Frey, a demographer with the Brookings Institution. ’If we didn’t have minorities in this country, we would be like Japan, which is very old and has a declining labor force and declining population.’The move toward a majority-minority nation isn’t likely to reverse itself, Johnson says, adding that several more states, including Vermont, South Carolina, Oregon and Tennessee, could soon see natural decreases in white population in the next few years. Quentie Prent I am proud that my ancesters helped conquer this land. The United States has become the most powerful and prosperous nation , capable of providing the highest quality of life and greatest opportunity to people in pretty much all of history. You should be ashamed if your people are able to be conquered, you would be equal to a slave. There is no reason to be ashamed of being on the winning side of history. The natives had the opportunity to unite under Tecumseh and make a stand, but they were too under developed, constantly fighting themselves, and ultimately lost to a superior people. The data indicate that the individual was closely related to present North American Native American populations. But, the DNA was ancestral to present-day South American and Central American Native American populations. The implication is that there was an early divergence between North American indigenous peoples and those of Central and South America. Hypotheses which posit that invasions subsequent to the Clovis culture overwhelmed or assimilated previous migrants into the Americas were ruled out.[58] After study, the remains were returned to Montana for burial by Native Americans. Similarly, the skeleton of a teenage girl (named 'Naia' after a water nymph from Greek mythology) was found in 2007 in the underwater caves called sistema Sac Actun in Mexico's eastern Yucatán Peninsula. DNA was extracted and dated. The skeleton was found to be 13,000 years old, and it is considered the oldest genetically intact human skeleton ever found in the Americas. Dark,Say i want to make sprockets. Well sprockets have to be a thing first, someone had to invent them, but some things are invented long before they are utilized (steam engine is as old a ancient Greece) or utilized for long times without much innovation (the wheel). But more importantly someone has to build a way to make them if they ever will see wide usage or improve them if they want to claim some special rights. Maybe first it starts off cutting a single one out from a piece of metal, so you have dozens of people in different towns. Then a few of these people, somewhere down the line, figures hey i can press these out, later stamp these out, and so on. After much physical and mental effort you a get a modern sprocket factory from this. If i spent the capital, time, resources, and so on to build this factory that makes sprockets so improved and distinct from the originals, what claim does one of those first people or dozen towns have on my factory? Why do they, or their children, get to say i was one of the first peoples who ever made sprockets so your factory is mine (in part)? Why do they get to claim because they used the wheel, they own part of the profit for ultra light weight carbon wheels.TLDR- Europeans built America and the West. Sure they didn't make a new earth to build it on, nor did they reinvent the wheel for all the concepts that made the West. The improved old government and economic systems, in places others used to be (that they replaced). But the immigrants the come into the West didn't build the West. And they aren't helping continue it (You can look up the numbers most, as in over 50, are a net drain on the system).Sounds awful and its not their fault its the governments fault, but none of that changes reality.	Mental, Old	Age - Over 65s, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	3/331	0.906

"Your factory would not exist without them having built the sprocket in the first place." Okay, so who invented the sprocket? "You have a Thomas Edison situation on your hands. He didn't exactly invent the light bulb and he didn't even own the first patent for it yet he is known for inventing it how does that work."No, absolutely not. Because we aren't concerned with who built the sprocket, just who built and runs the factory. Whoever invented the sprocket is long dead. Now if were were talking about a new specific design for a sprocket (chain saw or bike chain) then that is different, because you could show that you invested the time and effort into producing and developing such a product. Its also different if i was talking about a factory that had been making a certain wheel for 200 years, at this point anyone can make that same sprocket, because no one can show THEY made it anymore (they are all dead) and its uniqueness is no longer a thing as its design is common practice. In this case, anyone can make a similar sprocket, however, they cannot demand to do so with your factory as that is something that is still owned, unique, and a current product of your effort. "Similar to how Columbus is credited with "discovering" America when no one could have since Natives were already there. " Say he hadn't, say that the Americans existed in another dimension. The West and America wouldn't be there now. It was Europeans that made the West (they built and continue to run the factory). " America existed long before the Europeans came they didn't make it because Natives already had a society and a way of doing things." The land, not the Technology, country, or structure. I didn't say the factory owners made their own land they built the factory on. " Immigrants go to school yes? " Its a bit more than that "A well educated society leads to progress. " Perhaps, so would sterilizing all low IQ individuals and forcing progeny of higher IQ individuals. So might banning frivolous entertainment and service industries? Sad reality here is 10 more collective IQ points is worth far more than tons of money in schools systems. And as progress is your virtue i have to ask, at what cost?"They also have to work for a living as well. This makes the labor force bigger and gets more done." In an increasingly automated society... we need more people who aren't worth minimum wage.. how do you figure? " So again, why are people against immigrants." Because they are harmful to them. Its right in front of your face. Humans are greedy. They act on what each feels is beneficial. You do also, you told us yourself. You want progress and getting more done is good. It is the people the West's fault in that they did not keep control of their governments, but don't twist that with the reality that the answer to your questions is that its the government that put people against immigrants.If racist redneck bob could ban everyone, but Germans, from his store, then he doesn't have to care (at least no where to the same degree) if there are a bunch of Irish running around.If the government didn't steal tons of money from Europeans (Asians too) for the benefit of other groups. Then increasing the numbers of people they have to forcibly provide for immigration is going to be taken hostilely. Saying i want more immigration in the West currently is no different than saying i want to take more money from you to give to	Common, Nation, Racist, Redneck	Ethnicity - General, Ethnicity - White, Nationality - General, Social Class - Working class	5/802	0.623

Zoo Wee Mama please tell me you are not saying some sacrifices had to be made as in the murdering of a race that tried to offer life saving help to poor sickly white strangers on ships to then be repayed by attempted genocide. You can't condone that, right? Then our children were taken to boarding schools forcibly hair cut names taken and given "Christian " names and the actual beating of our heritage, culture, language and all that makes us human beat out of the children so jesus could be literally beat into them. Jesus never struck a person or child in order to make them believe in him being the son of God. But in his name 5 to 17 yr old kids were beat until they could be possibly saved from thier Indian-ness. Many family and friends in many tribes I know harbour a hate for Jesus because of this. The son of the living God! Was that ok? When im called slurs or held down by white American college men and told im lucky they chose to fuck an Indian instead of killing one tonight, was that sacrifice I gave to this country? Did I give my tears and ripping of my genitalia from the rape making this place great, greatest in the world? Cuz my dad's a cop, u should try to report this, that was what was said and truly go back to your reservation the cops tell me as a hate crime sexual crime is not reported but addressed as a compliant by a woman with said rapist having 2 friends watch not witnessing but insuring it was consensual. Not accessory to rape, but proof no crime occurred, is my very common rape and dismissal not a product of your said sacrifice that had to be made? I am 1 of every 3 of 5 native women to be and who will be raped by a non native, higher than the nation's average for any other race. We must be the sacrifice? My family and their murders and their surviving through more than I will type, this is ok with you? I would fight for you and yours if I saw the same atrocities happen to you. I would do anything to help. I would never call a country who ordered all of it great, much less the greatest in the world. I would call it an abomination. Please, don't say things you don't mean and if you truly mean what you said, please next time you pray, tell God you feel this way, for it is written Acts 10-34 God is not partial but in every nation the man who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to Him.	Common, Indian, Nation, Old, Race, Sexual, Woman	Age - Over 65s, Ethnicity - General, Ethnicity - Native-American, Gender - General, Nationality - General, Social Class - Working class	8/459	1.743

Jay Y Native Americans are classified as part of the MONGOLOID race . Most indigenous Americans also LOOK Asian. They are NOT native to the U.S., they clearly crossed over. Even DNA tests prove this...You guys are originally from Siberia.You can claim you're "Native" all you want, but the rest of the world sees you as Asian. +Jay Y Either way, indigenous peoples of the Americas, from Alaska, TO the tip of South America, LOOK very Mongoloid . Their physical characteristics INDICATE that they came from Eastern Asia. FULL-BLOODED Amerindians can easily pass as Filipino or Vietnamese. The reason why some reservation Indians look a bit different from Asians is due to their White ancestry. The vast majority of so-called "Native Americans" have White ancestry due to colonization. And they don't OWN America since they came here from Asia...We all came from SOMEWHERE. And it doesn't make me upset lol. Those sources which you mentioned are all biased and left-wing. Their information is nonsensical as it has been proven time and time again that "Native Americans" are genetically Asian.	Mongoloid	Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	1/121	0.826

greenelephant1231 ha! You don't agree with my sources so they are biased! Good one, we do all come from somewhere, native tribes of north America come from the land of north America. Life started in Africa if you want to get technical so yes every one began there and from africa moved outward all over centuries inhabiting certain lands first. North America is where my and many other people's tribes first inhabited, there for we were the native ppl or 1st ppl to be here and establish a way of life. Why must we be certain asain ppl? You are stuck on something that is not true, for some reason it's super important for you that my ppl be from Siberia and parts of Asia. Why? Why you insist on these untrue "facts" much about a disproven theory that affects no one really in anyway, it just seems like the more and more common cry of non native ppl who don't want to be told to stop complaining about immigration when your English ancestors immigrated here illegally and then did bad things(to say the least) to the original ppl who already were here- type of cop out, resorting to saying but no... Native ppl are immigrated ppl from asia so that makes it of course not native ppls homeland that was stolen as well as the lessening of any guilt of what white ppls English ancestors did to us cuz 'we weren't from this country neither'. I've been hearing this allot latley when ever white ppl not being here first comes up latley in interviews and the news and the like when a white person is asked certain questions this whole "well natives aren't native they are Asian" thing comes up as a defence. I told you before reading your reply above I was done wasting time with replying to you since I have a life I need to live, but had to respond to this one of yours as it's ridiculous stuff you keep replying to me about. But seriously, you can't spend life on you tube waiting for reply after reply man, I don't have enough time in the day to be on the internet for anything other than work, replying back and forth to you is not on list of priorities so I say to you again, i must go and you should spend a lil less time trolling around and go out side, do something worth doing instead of trying to go round with me, less screen time man, go live your life and stop with this, stick a fork in me man. They think the same about black people. They are retarded. Black people get food stamps. Yes some of them but so do alot of white people. Just cuz u get food stamps or welfare does not mean u are better off. Food stamps and welfare are not handouts for soley black people. Anyone has a good chance at getting it but they are just too good for it and like to talk shit about other people even though white females lead in welfare and food stamps. And black people that do have it most likely still have to work their asses off and still live in the ghetto so what difference does it make. We have black scholarships made for us but white people think every black person gets a free scholarship. No, that's not how it works. First of all black scholarships are rare. And when u find one u still have to compete with other black people to get it. So 100 black people can apply for it but only 1 or 2 blacks will get it and the other 98 are stuck trying to find a scholarship. Even though minority scholarships exist white people are stastically way more likely to get more scholarships than minorties. Then affirmative action. That is barely exists. If it was a big part then most black people would not be poor. I got a 3.6-7 GPA and graduated with honors but affirmative action did not help me get in. Alot of whites are in charge of the schools and jobs. The only reason affirmative action exists in some places because whites in charge depending who they are can be biased. And if whites are biased then that holds people back from getting jobs because of their color which is why affirmative action exists. But like I said barely anyone gets affirmative action. I never seen anyone get affirmative action. And whites still lead in numbers at universitys so affirmative action is not stopping them from getting their education. This shit whites talk about literally barely any one effectively. Everyone for the most part food stamps or no food stamps has to work to be at the place they wanna be at. JOHN BARB I see none of my posts had the reply tag with it so it definitely makes my replies hard to track but overall my problem with this video is the fact they had kids talking about what goes on with the native community when they dont hold that knowledge. its kindve rude to do that to some clueless teens but many will probably know no better. one of the big problems with native communities these days is the handling of finances... some tribes dole out the money to the citizens.. some invest it into healthcare and infrastructure.. the natives north of me get about 5grand ever few months but they have to worry more about their healthcare themselves... while the tribe to the east of me actually distribute it more into housing and healthcare while the citizens get whats left... 500-1000? every few months... my ex friend gets free healthcare,land and a built home, and 600$ every few months. but than he also gets food stamps from the government(US gov not tribal) at about 200 a month... he tells them he still takes care of his kids(he walked out on them at 2years old) so he actually gets more stamps for himself. he hasnt worked in years. not because he cant but he doesnt want to. welfare is hurting people. all around. no matter the ethnicity . but if you want a rebuttal to this video in which disproves some of these myths in this "teen vogue" video... heres a link...
