Hey there, what’s the best age difference between partners, in your opinion?	Age	Age - General	1/12	8.333
I have had several women that were 10 years older and a couple that were 20 years older, I found it easier to relate with those who were in the ten year range. With only ten years difference you still have more in common and can grow at the same time. With the 20 year difference one person is growing out of a stage in life while the younger is just coming into that stage.	Common	Social Class - Working class	1/75	1.333
I feel as a personal preference close age or 3 to 5 years older	Age	Age - General	1/14	7.143
Lol my dad is 10 yrs older than my mom. She complaints she is too old and tired to take care of my dad. She now says couples shld marry around their own age so that they grow old together, adjust to old age together, instead of one having to care for the older one. I think man shld be slightly older than his wife coz men generally mature later than women?	Age, Old	Age - General, Age - Over 65s	5/72	6.944

Avalon Mist that's a more reasonable age difference. I had a college friend who was 12 years older than me. I would have loved to mess around with her...she would be 64 now	Age	Age - General	1/33	3.03
Avalon Mist how old are you? I'll bet you're over 50	Old	Age - Over 65s	1/11	9.091

Avalon Mist yep, I turn 52 this summer. I would say I could go from my age up to 70. I dated a chick who was 35, but she was spoiled. Millennials want everything handed to them. They don't know the meaning of hard work and sacrifice.	Age, Chick	Age - General, Gender - General	2/47	4.255

Back Bay Man52 have you ever dated women your age or within 5 years? Im 55 years old and I noticed that women in our Age group are all married or dating 20 year's younger or older men. This is really a tough age .	Age, Old	Age - General, Age - Over 65s	4/44	9.091
jay rider yeah, nature is fu ked... The 50 something women want to date younger men and 50 something guys are messing around with younger girls. I'm 52 and I've had 19, 20 year old women flirt with me. I would mess with a younger woman , if she was willing, but I'd just as easily kick it with a woman 10 or 20 years older ...times have changed, enjoy it !!! I'm 19, and I have a heart defect called pulmonary stenosis, which has partly stunted my growth which has caused me to be super skinny , I feel like I look a lot younger than my actual age and find it difficult to talk to 21-23 year olds because they probably think I'm just some little kid. Younger men are brothers to me. The idea of being with even a mature wise handsome but younger guy is... just a huge turn off. I'll take an older mature wise handsome guy. Age may be a number but younger guys simply won't do it for me.	Age	Age - General	1/47	2.128

Okay, what makes a young guy interested in older woman and and young guy who isn't. I've found there're guys who have no interest in older women, only interested in women their own age or younger. So what is it that makes a guy interested in older women but another guy not, what is the difference in these two types of men?	Age, Woman	Age - General, Gender - General	2/63	3.175
I'm a 30 years old Italian man with six pack abs that has a major crush on a beautiful woman that is double my age she's in her early 60s and she's old school like I am. we have a lot of things in common .. I also don't need her to cook for me neither. I do most of the cooking. Reason why I go for older because they have more class and more maturity. I don't care much for size, money, nice car, home. All I care about is character, class and a good heart. She may look very attractive when she was younger but she may have some wrinkles now but that beauty is still in her when she was born. From my thirties on, younger men have been attracted to me. I look and think younger than my age . My ex of 21 yrs is 8 yrs younger. My boyfriend is 2 yrs younger. I kind of like being closer in age now. We reflect on our youth and can relate because of the same music ect from our generation.	Age	Age - General	2/60	3.333
8 years and 2 years is honestly nothing tbh... But from your experience what was it like?	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/17	5.882

I can microwave any meal from scratch. That includes microwaving eggs. There's an art to it.I always attract younger guys. Only twice I've had to say "can I look at your driver's licence, and passport?" I'm over 35yrs old .	Old	Age - Over 65s	1/40	2.5
12 years is nothing at both of your ages.	Nothing	Age - Youngsters	1/9	11.111

I'm 55 and spent most of my life being a fulltime carer to my parents, so I don't want to find another 'old' person to have to take care of. I am attracted to men in their mid to late 40s, up to 55 is fine. I don't think I could live with a huge age gap, but five or seven, up to 10 years is fine. More than that, it's starts looking weird ...starts looking like the guy is going out with his mum or aunt or something. I guess there's also the children issue to consider too. When the guy is 30 to 40 , he might not be thinking about kids, but with every year, the urge to have kids might kick in, not easy for a woman in her 40s and 50s to have babies, then what. Still, if I met a guy who was happy in himself and his life, didn't want kids and was over 45, definitely jump at the chance. I'm 30 years old . You guys go for the older women and I go for 18-26 year old women to hook up with. Sounds like a good plan to me.	Old	Age - Over 65s	2/30	6.667
Younger men ditch older women to make babies w a younger one , when they could have had a baby with a woman in her 40s or had a surrogate.	Woman	Gender - General	1/30	3.333
Because a woman's options for stupidly lessens with age and time gives her no choice but to grow up.That's why.	Age	Age - General	1/21	4.762
Older doesn't always mean wiser. I know plenty of older women still very immature and struggle financially because they don't save or spend wisely. Age is really just a number.	Age	Age - General	1/30	3.333
It sounds great for the younger guy, but how does he benefit the woman ? Interesting to see a video for women.	Woman	Gender - General	1/21	4.762
yes! my boyfriend is 13 years younger than me. Also my dad is 8 years younger than my mom and they have been married for 40 years so clearly worked for them! age is a number if there is a connection between two adults	Age	Age - General	1/44	2.273

My first marriage was a man 7 years older, we were together only 6 years, he liked to sleep around. Second marriage he was 2 years younger, we had 2 kids and were married 18 years, but drugs became his mistress. I'm in a ten year relationship now with a man who is 23 years younger. But he's very mature thinking. He claims women his age are too daft and vapid and not very interesting. I tried talking him out of wanting to be with me in the beginning because I didn't think it was fair to him in the long run. He didn't listen! Lol. But he's very intelligent, works hard, gives his time not only to me but to the rest of my family helping whenever he can with projects and whatnot. He's more mature than both exes were, smarter in many ways, and I don't feel as though I'm the teacher/mommy in this relationship, we're learning together. I always tell people "It's weird , but it works."	Age, Weird	Age - General, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	2/169	1.183

Damian Thorne I'm 59 this year and my guy is 36 this year. Like I've said, it's weird (to some) but it works! And he's not in it for the money because I don't have any, he's actually put money into my house and did the labor, not to mention all the labor in fixing my father's house free of charge. I don't think I have much to offer tbh, but he never wanted children so that wasn't an issue. And like I've said, he's uber responsible, quite intelligent and doesn't need a "mommy" so it's really good.	Weird	Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	1/99	1.01
I'm 67 but I don't look nor feel my age and I enjoy chatting and going out with younger men. Several younger men tell me they prefer older women for some of the same reasons given here. I find men in their 30's and 40's quite interesting. I don't seek them out, they seek me!!!	Age	Age - General	1/55	1.818

Personally I didn't go looking for a younger man, nor he an older woman . Love just found us. I resisted but love won. No regrets. :-)	Woman	Gender - General	1/26	3.846
So let me see. Younger men need a woman who can look after them, teach them, discipline them and financially do for them. Uh ha! So they're looking for a mother! Yah no thanks sounds like too much work to me...unless the younger man is Hugh Jackman. Come to Mamma!	Woman	Gender - General	1/50	2.0

I've already raised an immature man that I gave birth to so I truly do not need to do it over again. I want a confident man my age or slightly older who is established and most importantly, his children are grown and out of the house!	Age	Age - General	1/47	2.128
And what makes you think a man your age or slightly older is any different? Because I can tell you right now you're living in a fantasy world because there are a lot of immature older men or men your age who ain't got squat.	Age	Age - General	2/45	4.444
J Crash I know many men my age and older and there are quite a few immature ones that are perpetually 16 years old . But I also, have a 32 year old son that I would still consider immature as he has not lived through the life experiences I have and therefore does not really have knowledge of those situations. You seem personally offended that I would want a mature, confident, well established man near my age with similar life experiences. Are you cougar hunting? Well god help you. Find a woman or man near your own age you can share your view of life with for a very long time instead of a toy that will soon be tossed aside for a new one.	Age, Old, Woman	Age - General, Age - Over 65s, Gender - General	6/125	4.8
Caustic Chameleon, you consider your 32 year old son immature because he hasn't lived the life you lived lol... No offence but your parenting skills must have been bad then if he's still like that at the age of 32 LOL. You only have yourself to blame.And nope no offended at all because I know that I've been with older women and I've never been used as a boy toy (I know you're gonna find that hard to believe but go ahead but I know what I experienced) and my relationships with them lasted long as well... AND most of them have approached me to... Also me and my previous exes who were older have shared plenty of similar views in life... This is how I know you must be pretty young for you generalise lol. Also just because someone is older that doesn't always mean you have more life experience because again I know plenty of older folks who have barely done anything in their life to even consider having life experience. You even admitted to know men who are older but still immature which proves my point lol. But please keep living in a fantasy world because again men of all ages and yes especially your age cheat because that's just life... Sorry to have burst your bubble ;)	Age, Old	Age - General, Age - Over 65s	3/222	1.351
J Crash LOL. You keep telling yourself that buddy. I'll give you one for having unbelievable cockiness and confidence. I guess some would consider 56 to be still young while others not so much. I would fully expect people my parents age to still consider me young and immature compared to them. Also, just as I thought, you took offense and were 'triggered' by my preference of men. Your response tells me all I 'need' to know about you.	Age	Age - General	1/79	1.266

I had fun watching this video. I'm the older women in my relationship with my boyfriend. And I would say that everything in this video was right to a tee. Never planned on being a cougar either, because I've always enjoyed the company of a older man. But I realized that I have to change my picking a man process to get what I want and needed. We both know our roles and plan on being together for LIFE. My love advice is to start a career focus on what you are most interesting in for fun. Then you trip over your soulmate. It will really blind side ya, be ready to not be ready and take a chance on what you want. Anyhoo, Happy Hunting. Good luck boys and girls	Blind	Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	1/132	0.758
Weird do you think this is just for American and western culture in general? I'm American but many of the men I've attempted relationship with a non-American (non-western) or they are American but their families are from Indian , Middle East, Africa, etc. it seems those men discriminate about age big time. Sometimes I've only be 5-6 years older and they tell me it won't work for that reason. I'm 53 and single after for the first time since my teens. I don't get a lot of interest from men my age , but I've been surprised at how many young men want to take me out! I'm happy to be single for now but would date a younger guy because in my mind I feel 20 years younger than my age . I've never dated a younger man so I can't say how it works out. Maybe one day! They are our there, just keep looking... Also if you are looking for a younger guy... Please stay away from dating sites. I mean I'll say one thing... The whole financial stability thing is BS IMO. Most older women I know (I'm from the UK) aren't secure at all... It's hard to be secure unless you have pension money (elderly people money).	Elderly	Age - Over 65s	1/40	2.5
Not looking to be a Mother, financial Institution, or Teacher for some narcissistic needy little boy... I prefer a Man my own age who is well established and on solid ground.What you described seemed so lopsided...I prefer the perfect balance.... Ladies you should never have to teach a Man to be a man.	Age	Age - General	1/53	1.887

It makes sense but the truth is in some cases some of these men are users and it's easier for them to do whatever behind an older woman 's back and get away with it. Also they like to take advantage of her for her money and ride on her success. Not all but some guys dating older women I've known and that's what they themselves have admitted to - When it's time to break up it's a lot easier then breaking up with a younger woman . And it does not necessarily have to be an older woman but could be a young one who is way mature for her age and well established.	Age, Woman	Age - General, Gender - General	3/113	2.655
I have no desire at all to be a role model for a younger man. Sounds like work to me and a tad like babysitting. Men my age tend to be beat up by life with crusty vital energy. Very good video about older woman and younger men. people are so down on women's, because a man is much younger than woman . but its lot older woman 's don't look their age , and keep their self looking good as the younger women, some even better. my opinion is there nothing wrong with that who they decide to be with but. I prefer not to raise a younger man to be who he's meant to be unless they're my own child...i cringe at the thought of dating younger than 10 yrs I'm 55 and even 45 makes me wonder if its possible...i don't feel younger men can truly relate to the needs of a woman older than him...maturity is def a valued trait in anyone. Love this video! So true! All my life younger men have been attracted to me. Several men in my family married and stayed with older women theit whole life. They were fun, financially stable, mature, well fed, well-dressed and respected in their communit, much of this due to the lovely women they chose! They were 7 to 10 + years older than the men. Same here. Im 19 yrs older than my boyfriend and next month will be our 10 year anniversary. His age never bothered me, in fact I thought we were closer in age when we first met. Age means nothing , its all about who the person is. I see plenty of same age couples who have horrible relationships. And it's just ridiculous that its considered taboo when the woman is the older one of the pair. Live and let live, as long as we're happy. Best wishes to you and yours! Boss Lady Tarot I only deal with family not liking me. Even 10 yrs later and they cant get past it. We have a double whammy though, we're also an interracial couple and his family is very against that. So color combined with age its a definite no-go for them. Monica Latvenas, Nothing but generalising from someone who clearly has never been involved in these kind of relationships lol. So in order for a man to bring something on the table for a women he has to be older lol? This isn't the 18th or EARLY 20th century anymore love, this is 2019 and why should they make a video about that when in fact this whole older women and younger men relationships happens all the time now lol and I see it all the time in the UK. I've been with older women since 25 and I was successful for my age at the age of 25 and when I was with older women who were 10-13 years older and they lasted for definitely more than 2 years and they didn't mother me and I definitely didn't use them for money or ask them to cook for me but I know how to cook and cooking is easy... Also women of all ages cook for their parents all the time so what is the point you're trying to make lol? Never judge a book by its cover kiddo. Jennivere Gospic I don't think you understand. Most older women that date younger men have no long term intentions with them. Usually these women have already been married and have had kids so their wants have changed. Usually they are just looking for intimacy, companionship and someone attractive and fun to be around and younger men completely fulfill that want. Although not all younger men have ulterior motives, their are some that do. But that's to be expected just as it is expected when young women date old men. Men realize that most young women are primarily into them because of their financial resources, but it does not in any way discourage men from dealing with them. Some men are so desperate for a younger woman that they'll endure her drama and all the cheating. So when you brought up JLO's situation, you failed to acknowledge that it happens to older men all the time. That example does not support your point. Reality is that we live in a time where people are sexually out of control and have a self absorbed kind of attitude. Whether your a man or woman looking to date younger, it will be gamble as this generation and ones to come will be filled with very low quality people. And 32 and 19 is not a big age difference in my opinion. When she is 30, he'll be 42. 42 and 22 is a whole different thing.	Age, Old, Woman	Age - General, Age - Over 65s, Gender - General	4/242	1.653

Definitely not true. It depends on the individual. There are some guys like that, and there are plenty who aren't. You're forgetting about the millions of younger guys who are mature and financially stable. When my wife and I met we were both already financially stable. That's not gross. Human beings are attracted to both younger and older mates. It's all about the persons preference. I don't date people on the basis of their age , but on the basis of their character. It's about who the person is as an individual. My wife is 14 years older than me, and we've never been happier. Human beings are attracted to people who are both older and younger. That's just biology. Some people prefer older looking individuals. Some people prefer younger looking individuals. Me personally, I don't care. So long as the person and I are comparable intellectually, and they are reasonably attractive.	Age	Age - General	1/105	0.952

I have to say something though. All these matured or older women were once a young woman . They too would have the "drama queen" episodes and every other situation young women face in life including insecurity. The reason for their maturity is because what life experience have taught them over the years. They grow stronger and more stable minded over the years. It isn't like they just become mature overnight. The same goes for younger men and older men. To some young women, older men are appealing coz they are much more manly and experienced. They are more responsible and wiser compared to younger men. Again, these older men were all once a young man trying to figure out life as well.	Woman	Gender - General	1/122	0.82
Younger men date older women/single mothers because they are far easier to get into bed than a younger, less experienced, and more demanding younger woman whose sexuality is still valuable and thus harder to come by.	Woman	Gender - General	1/36	2.778

I've always been fed up of younger female in how this video explains about still chasing approval of the world etc.. built back to front they are. My mom focused intelligent so that must be why. A more mature woman or my age now I'm ok with but still in some cases some woman who have had bad relationship give off maturity & more focus which is an attraction sometimes or they have not then you realise it's all them ..what I describe as too much up & down like a graph trying to be what they're not & in order to get their way use their own femininity to get what they want, but that's never worked for me so I switch off & lose interest. Only what we have done stays...from today on...try showing love to every people...you will start living and become mature regardless of your age ...wishing you all the happiness in this world.. This is true. I've been pretty mature, direct about what I want, and striving to be a better and more compassionate but decisive person since my 20's...but it didn't seem to be something attractive to men in their 20's until recently, but I realized that was selection bias. The two things that improved substantially with age are my looks and making better choices of partners. My hormones aren't driving me to invest emotion in men who aren't invested in me, and I understand that loss is not the end of my world. Understanding that I will survive from experience and not just saying that to make myself feel better has changed my dating style a lot. There is being mature and then there is showing maturity. Different things...	Age	Age - General	1/128	0.781
I'd say it also depends on the attitude, mental health and experiences. Also I tend to find "hot" girls or guys in their teens and early 20s really immature but the more "plain" looking ppl more mature as they had to work hard and they can see past the looks. Also the ones that peak early in their life might look way different than even 5 years later and they'll find it hard to just use their looks for popularity, jobs etc. But some people peak in their 30s for some reason (women and men). Sometimes youth is not as glorious as the older age for some people.	Age, Mental	Age - General, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	2/108	1.852
