Dictionaryman · spread · ingthe practice whereby a man, especially one traveling on public transportation, adopts a sitting position with his legs wide apart, in such a way as to encroach on an adjacent seat or seats.”a campaign to discourage manspreading or using an adjacent seat as a footrest”wikipediaManspreadingManspreading or man-sitting is the practice of men sitting in public transport with legs wide apart, thereby covering more than one seat. Both this posture and the use of the neologism ”manspreading” have occasioned some internet criticism and debates in the US, UK, Turkey, and Canada. The public debate began when an anti-manspreading campaign started on the social media website Tumblr in 2013; the term appeared a year later. OxfordDictionaries.com added the word ”manspreading” in August 2015. Use of the term has been criticized as ”a caricature of feminism” and the practice has been juxtaposed with examples of women taking up excessive space in public spaces with bags.Transit authority responsesThe Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA) in the New York metropolitan area and Sound Transit of Seattle instituted poster campaigns encouraging respectful posture when other passengers have to stand due to crowding on buses and trains. Transport officials in Philadelphia, Chicago and Washington D.C. have not noted complaints against manspreading in particular. A representative of the Toronto Transit Commission stated they were unaware of complaints against manspreading, but did cite complaints against other etiquette problems, including taking up extra seats with handbags. The MTA campaign, which criticised many behaviors such as leaning on poles and applying make-up, used the slogan ”Dude, stop the spread please!” Since 2017 taking more than one seat is forbidden by Madrid Municipal Transport Company. In some cases, people who find manspreading offensive have taken to photographing manspreading, and posting those images on the Internet.CriticismThe criticism and campaigns against manspreading have been counter-criticized for not addressing similar behavior by women, such as taking up adjacent seats with bags, or ”she-bagging.” The controversy surrounding manspreading has been described by equity feminist Cathy Young as ”pseudo feminism – preoccupied with male misbehavior, no matter how trivial.” Twitter-campaigns with the hashtag manspreading have also been accompanied by hashtags like shebagging. The practice of posting pictures of manspreading taken on subways, buses, and other modes of transportation online has been described as a form of public shaming. As an example, in New York, actor Tom Hanks was photographed on the subway, taking up two seats and criticized for it. He responded on a talk show, ”Hey Internet, you idiot! The train was half empty! It was scattered – there was plenty of room!” The Canadian Association for Equality (CAFE), a Canadian men’s rights group, has been critical of campaigns against manspreading by transit authorities. The CAFE has argued that it is ”physically painful for men to close their legs” and that campaigns against manspreading is comparable to ”[forcing] women to stop breast feeding on busses (sic) or trains...”. Commentators in media have made similar arguments regarding the need for men to spread their legs to	Effeminate, Sexual	Gender - General, Sexual Identity - Male homosexuality	2/651	0.307

That test is a huge embarrassment. Not only that it was actually sexist, but answers to questions were easily predictable, questions with pictures made no sence (why i would choose a doctor by the gender ? Both looked equally good. The only reason why a nonsexist person would pick a doctor by the gender because maybe he/she would feel more comfortable with a doctor of the same gender as he/she is) and when i got 18 the result said that i should be carefull about being sexist (seriously? Even 18 is bad?). Very unprofessional and clearly made by someone who hate men. I'm angry that that test exist and i am a woman .	Gender, Woman	Gender - General	4/112	3.571

I am a 28 sexist. I believe in equality for all. I think this test is setup that it triggers people and isn't fair like the male nurse. I have been attended by many more female nurses than male. I don't think that makes me sexist or says that men don't do the job, It just means more women than men have been more interested in nursing. Does that make it sexist? Hell no, it's what people chose. I hate how hateful society has become. In the 50's, many women chose to stay home with their kids because they loved their children and could. Today people need dual incomes to make ends meet which doesn't mean there is sexism , it just means thing have changed. Why can't we all just accept that people will do what ever is right for them and why must we make judgements based on gender ? I am female and I happily spent 11 years at home looking after my children and am blessed I had that time. We all choose our lives, we all choose our destinies and what is right for one may not be right for another. The extreme feminists need to grow up and just live their lives. If you live your life looking for a fight than you aren't truly living. Nobody gives a shit about you. Being a woman doesn't give you the right to be a bully. You aren't special, you are just another human being on this planet with choices like like everyone else.	Gender, Nobody, Sexism, Woman	Age - Youngsters, Gender - General	4/256	1.562

This whole test is sexist. I want a male boss, so what, it's not that I don't like women its just because that guy looks like he might be a bit more seasoned because of his age and might make better choices. Also, apparently all women are 100 qualified for being a boss, scientist, and mathematicians. I would say to you think women can be good bosses, scientists or mathematicians because its all based off of skill, not gender . Also for the sports one, I would feel annoyed but its not a gender thing and I'm a guy. Apparently if a guy loses to a woman and feels annoyed or upset its not a always a gender thing, people get upset when they lose, its normal and completely okay	Age, Gender, Woman	Age - General, Gender - General	5/129	3.876

E: Yes, but only on Tuesdays.Question 2: Without thinking, pick the person that will make you seem sexist: places pictures of guy first then woman lastQuestion 3: Do you believe women are above men? A: Yes. B: Yes C: Yes D: Yes E: No. I think we're all equal, but I'm still sexist. Test results: YOU'RE 54 SEXIST. Wow. You're a horrible person. That's ok. I am a father of two girls. Was a stay at home dad for one. Raised the other on my own. So go pound sand. It was the easiest job I ever had. Did the cooking and cleaning in my house. And still had time to work on my hobbies and go out when I wanted to. So please tell me how it is the hardest job in the world? Yes it was not always fun but still easy. No it was not always un stressful but still easy. I rather play with my kids any day of the week. Then dodge bullets, climb 50 stories in the air, milk cows twice a day. Working 18 hour days in some cases. But it still was easier to Potty train a one year old . And you want to know why. Because I had no one to answer to but me. It was my way and only my way. How easy is that. No one to answer to was great. Getting up 3 to 5 times a night to feed easier then asking for a vacation. Changing a dipper easier then putting on a gas mask. Then I also had a hidden way that woman will never be able to do in numbers. Men work together better together then woman can work together. I started a group with other stay at home dads. We over came and destroyed all obstacles. So go pound sand once again. Hardest job in the world my ass.	Old, Woman	Age - Over 65s, Gender - General	3/251	1.195

Hey so I took that test using my personal opinions the first time, being mostly either neutral or in favour of women on the majority of the questions and got 65 sexist, so I was curious, how does one get a fat zero ? I went through and put myself in the shoes of a SJW feminist who thinks men are pigs and chose all the options favouring women, even if that meant making judgements about the men based on their gender (the actual definition of sexism) and managed to get a pretty solid fucking 5. Like, do Buzzfeed not realise that sexism is a two way thing? If you're saying you think women should be the breadmakers and the men should do the house work, is that not literally the exact same as if a man does the same to a woman ? Nobody implements this in real politics not even a Hillary Clinton (who is actually deeply riligious and quite reactonary).This is sometimes used to discredit Bernie Sanders and was once (in a different age) used to discredit Barack Obama.But exept this really has no practical effect.This are mentally unstable people wanting to improve their self esteem and not a global spanning conspiracy of cultural marxists or whatever and it gets way to much attention. Ok so everyone here is either drunk or has just simply misinterpreted what I said, I didn't mean every single mothers excel at raising their sons, but there is absolutely no reason that a single mother raised son can't be manly, I've explained enough so I'm just gonna give examples now- Andrew Jackson, thomas Jefferson, George washington You know what they all have in common ? past presidents of US, you know what else? They were raised by single mothers, other examples include bill cosby, kanye west, samuel jackson, eddie murphyJust tell how the people I mentioned are not "manly" enough for youP.s ofcourse there were some bad apples too like ted bundy	Common	Social Class - Working class	1/114	0.877

MattyMag all the people I mentioned above agreed themselves that their success was because of their mothers, never even heard them mention their father, even obama agreed his mother was the influence he needed in his life but the only reason I didn't include him is because he got a step father at age 4(would've been a long stretch) , btw bill cosby was supposed to go at "bad apple " section with ted bundy but ok my mistake i just noticed	Age, Apple	Age - General, Ethnicity - Native-American	2/81	2.469
Aku Tenshi you've changed topics. were they successful because of their mother or were they manly because of their mother. But again it's off topic, we weren't arguing about single mothers being incapable, just more likely to fail compared to the atomic family. 70 of inmates are fatherless, 26 of the 27 deadliest Mass shooters were fatherless ...If 70 and 95 mean nothing to you then you're enabling the problem to continue. Greetings from 2018... Almost 2019... it doesn't get any better...Anyway... I decided to take that test just for the hell of it... seems rigged to me. The first three questions are easy, you just pick the option where gender doesn't matter... and you actually are sexist for saying the man should be the breadwinner by the way... but then you get to the pick a boss question and it makes absolutely no sense.First of all since when does anyone actually have a choice in who their boss is? Secondly there's no "I don't care" option on this one. You absolutely must choose a man or a woman so I would say no matter which answer you choose it's automatically going to be sexist. I'm going to do this twice and pick a different one each time just to see if the result changes but I'm pretty sure since a feminist made this that they set it so only picking the man is a sexist answer.The next question I agree with you... I judge everyone's intelligence by how they talk. They're trying to frame this as a sexist question by making it about women but they don't ask the same question about men. I'd give the exact same answer no matter which gender they put there. So again it's already rigged to ensure that you get a sexist result even if you're not actually sexist.Oh and the next question is about the gender pay gap... and would you look at that there isn't a single answer available that isn't going to be viewed as sexist. They all basically make an excuse for why the pay gap doesn't exist.The next question I choose the woman because they don't give me any other option but really I wouldn't want either of them. I don't want to artificially extend my life. I'd actually rather just die thank you very much.Hey we finally have another question that doesn't force you to choose a sexist answer.Pick a nurse... two women options and one male option... This again seems like no matter what you choose it's going to be sexist. If you choose either of the women it's sexist because you think only women can be nurses. If you pick the man it's sexist because you think men are better than women at everything. There's no winning here... and I picked a woman just to get to the next question even though in reality I don't care and would rather have none of the above.Then we have another question with a non-sexist answer and back to every answer is sexist again.So now they're asking about sports. Two of the answers are strangely written specifically for women. The first one being "Annoyed but I'm also a woman so it wouldn't have anything to do with gender." Another saying "Annoyed because I'm not like other girls, I'm actually good at sports" I can't choose either of those two options cause I'm not female. Also why are those even two different choices when they're essentially saying the same thing? The remaining options which don't specify what gender the person taking the test is... well there is a non sexist answer but personally none of them are how I would actually answer this question... I actually wouldn't be playing any sports to begin with since I freaking hate sports. I'm just going to answer good for her cause it's the only non-sexist answer I can actually use.Pick a professor... two men and a woman... These questions are so stupid... I don't care. No matter what option you pick it's going to be sexist because it doesn't freaking matter.So I got 31 and it went down to 29 when I retook the test and choose the female	Gender, Sexism, Woman	Gender - General	11/720	1.528

i pretty much knew Birdman would get a pretty low score because of his reasoning for calling women slutty, judging people by how they speak, thinking that women don't want to go into politics, feeling embarrassed at losing a sport to a woman, thinking women are less funny because they don't have to be funny to obtain a mate, so he's definitely sexist which even a logical person could see that Birdmans not as smart as he thinks and here's why: 1) no one should ever call a woman a slut because that is totally cruel, he misjudges people when you think that way you speak determines how intelligent you are when in fact an intelligent, women would go into politics if it were not for the fact that they are completely treated like trash in government which you can easily see because of the fact that hillary clinton was called a bad secretary of state the media just because of what her husband did or the fact of her emails which from what i found out from my father who was actually in the military the thing she destroyed she actually was supposed to destroy, women can probably be funny if they want because if men can why can't women be. 2) here's the funny part all those reason that i said about Birdman were based on complete logical thinking, so Birdman should try out for the darwin awards because i think he'll completely be rude to women and not realize it. and for anyone who doesn't know what the darwin awards are well let's just say that you can possibly win if you try to shoot your 'sausage' with a gun just to see how it feels. Oh and i'm a male and was born a male.	Woman	Gender - General	2/299	0.669
Rylan Stalnaker i totally agree on everything you're saying and i was just saying what the answers might be since i sometimes hear my mom talking about some of the things that the questions asked. but yeah most of the questions do not have answers that can correctly show that you are not sexist nor are the answers in some of the questions based on data of the human race. for example, one question asks who should the breadwinner of a family be? the answer is, the the parents choose which one of them are going to be the breadwinner of the family. now if you're asking who is more biologically suited for raising kids in general, then it is the man that should be the breadwinner of the family since in general women tend to connect with the emotions of children better.	Race	Ethnicity - General	1/143	0.699

Okay, while I empathize with the spirit of this video, there are a few things I'm gonna challenge you on. So you assume that everyone has at one point, described a girl as slutty? Well I guess I'm the exception to that rule. I guess I've always been of the opinion that everyone should be able to sleep with as many people as they like, regardless of whether they are male or female. How do you define slut? Is it a bad word to you? How many people does a man or woman need to sleep with to qualify as a slut? 10? 20? 30? 120? Do you believe that men sleep with a high number of women, yet women can't do the same? How do you justify this double standard? These are questions I have for you.	Woman	Gender - General	1/138	0.725

Ok I took this quiz knowing full well it's bs. Here's what I picked:1) The breadwinner should be whoever gets paid more. Both genders can have careers. If both the male and the female in a couple have a job, then whoever gets more money logically will win more bread, making them the main breadwinner of the family.2) Housework is a shared responsibility. Because that's only fair.3) I've never described a girl as slutty. I've only met one girl who could be considered slutty, and I did not call them as such.4) Pick a boss. Eenie meenie miney mo.5) I've never judged a woman's intelligence by the way they speak.6) There isn't an option that matches my opinion. There isn't a gender pay gap because men and women are equal in white-collar workforces. More girls are graduating from high school than boys, and more women get college degrees than men. Women are also more likely to seek higher education, get better grades, and in general be better qualified. Women are in white collar jobs as much as men are. Notice how I'm saying 'white collar jobs'. You don't see any women complaining about plumbers, truck drivers, and construction workers being predominantly male jobs.7) I picked the male doctor. Simply because I'm a guy and I don't want a woman to be checking out my genitals during a physical. Both me and the female doctor would be uncomfortable with that.8) Once again, my answer isn't there. Women are in politics. There are many women in politics. If a woman is not elected it'll be because a different candidate had a better agenda. But no, this quiz wants to blame it on some non-merit-based feature. So I picked 'Because they just don't want to be'.9) None of these choices match my opinion. I've seen some absolutely shitty female managers who only got to where they are by pulling connections, and I've seen females who acted like managers whilst not being in a managerial position, and in that lower position they shook up the system at their workplace, held everyone accountable, and made it so efficient her higher-ups noticed and either promoted her or tried to get her kicked out because she shattered political networks within companies if they halted productivity. Women as bosses are on both sides of the spectrum, so you can't generalize. I put 'Yes' for this because I didn't care.10) I don't care. Picked the female nurse on the left. She seemed nicer. And I've never met a male nurse. If they're trying to fight sexism it's not helping that 2/3 nurses there are female.11) Women can be great mathematicians and scientists, even if they have to plough through obstacles to get there. Women have done that in the past. A woman actually discovered the structure of DNA, and more. There's no reason for them not to be great in those fields.12) My option isn't here once again. If I lost a sport to a girl I would feel a casual competitiveness depending on their skill level. I'm not sporty, but I can play sports, and if the female on the other end is crappy at the sport and I lose then I'll feel like something wasn't right because I was better, I should've won. If she's equally skilled, and I lose, then I'll have a more 'I'll beat you next time' attitude. If she's way better than me, then I'll respect her victory and skill. In the end, it's just a game and these thoughts don't dwell on me for more than the next half an hour. I picked the 'livid' option.13) Picked the guy in the middle because he's actually	Common, Gender, Racism, Sexism, Woman	Ethnicity - General, Gender - General, Social Class - Working class	8/715	1.119

This quiz isn't 100 accurate to be honest. Sexist doesn't necessarily apply to only women, and making all of the questions about women makes it more of a anti-women quiz instead of a sexist quiz. Someone or something that is sexist is something that is discriminatory to a gender NOT discriminatory against women. If they wanted to make this as accurate as possible they would have half of them about men and half of them about women and they would ask for your gender too and see which ones you chose over the others. This would make it easier to see if you were actually discriminatory to a certain gender instead of making the questions dumb and one sided so the statistics are obviously skewed. Most of the "sexism" that is being portrayed in this quiz is hypocritical because men are more likely to pick men just because they can relate more to them and women are more likely to pick other women because they can relate more to them. There are obviously exeptions to that if course. Most things that one gender thinks might be "sexist" that the other gender does, is just a hypocritical defenisive thought because the person doesn't understand that they probably do the exact same thing and just don't realise it.	Dumb, Gender, Sexism	Gender - General, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	7/216	3.241

Blak3 Brutus thanks for the question, and you are absolutely not wrong because yeah, it would be the same thing regardless of gender. That goes for both men and women.	Common, Gender	Gender - General, Social Class - Working class	2/67	2.985
Breezy Cordova well, ty for ur input. You can't deny that the gender pay gap exists, women earn 79 of what men do (in the US). I just read an article though about why this is. It is not about society valuing women less, it is about women giving birth to children. Before the birth of their first child, a woman's salary is about the same as a mans'. After their first child however, women's salary takes a large dip, and it never recovers. The person behind this study believes that this is because women take more flexible jobs, so that they can take care of sick children, or they can leave a bit earlier to pick up kids if needed. Gumru hMM well I wonder, how did the adopted child come into the world? Oh yeah, because both a man and a woman decided to have sex and give birth.	Sex, Woman	Gender - General	2/31	6.452
Exactly. Men and woman have shared importance in reproduction. Women carry the baby in its pre-birth developmental stages but the man carries the sperm cell that BECOMES that child. So, by all intents and purposes. MEN create the baby at least at a baseline and the women form the actual baby, therefore, without the men, no more babies EVER	Woman	Gender - General	1/59	1.695
That's right purple goat. If it was down to two women using this new means of women having babies without male sperm that I heard about. Then it will only ever be girls that are born. No male can be born by this means. It's a scientific fact. So men are needed in order to help the human race progress.	Race	Ethnicity - General	1/60	1.667

Test looks sexists in favour of women.1. Who should be the bread winner. In today’s society, wages have been driven down to slave wages for most people, largely because of women entering the workforce in large numbers, and driving up inflation in the 1980’s (supply and demand). Also helped along by free trade. Very few privileged people who are in good paying jobs, mostly held by Free Masons (the only actual privileged group, besides women, and Muslims), can afford to support a family on one income. Both the man and woman need to share the expenses of dating, marrying, and of having a home and family. The term bread winner is now an offense to men since this has been typically associated with a role played by men. The question is an aggression against men, serving to belittle them in the face of the social impossibilites pushed on them by secret society influenced governments, and feminists.2. Who should do the housework. Well define housework. My guess is that the sexist feminist man hater who made the questionnaire, only considered the work that women have traditionally done in the home as housework. I am betting that she never considered things like, cutting the grass, landscaping, would cutting, shed building, shoveling snow, plumbing, electrical work, painting, heavy lifting, fixng the car, hooking up electronics, fixing computer problems, etc. Those things are also work done around the home. This question is a hypocritical aggression against men, since it uses the term ”housework” normally limited in meaning to clean up around the place, implying that is all the work being done around the home. 3. Have you ever called a woman slutty. So, a slut is a woman who has many sex partners. If the shoe fits. Women look at guys and size them up all the time. To imply that men have no right to do the same to women is a hypocritical aggression against men. Sluttiness can be seen in how a woman dresses. If she dresses for sex in a public place, then you can tell what she has on her mind, and the first impression suggests her habitual behaviour. Man this test is messed up. These social attitudes, typified by this man hating test, indicate we are living in an oppressive matriarchy, and need to stand up for equality for men. Down with the women oppressors!With this really awful start, I could not continue. It all looks like the typical mindless hypocritical bait questions these clowns always use, because they are complete hypocritical oppressive Nazis.Let’ see. Feminist. Clown coloured hair, check. How the hell is feminism for 'equality' when said feminists are driving males into the ground, little by little. At some point (unfortunately), the scales will tip too far, and society will be back to square one: one gender overpowering the other. Except this time, it'll be women overpowering men. Equality between two genders requires work on BOTH GENDERS. It also requires calmer methods of balance, NOT RIOTS AND CLAIMS OF SEXUAL ASSAULT/RAPE AGAINST EVERY PERSON OF OPPOSITE GENDER . Peace between genders isn't an achievement, it's a responsibility. One that society, men, women, feminists and all, have failed to attend to. That's where society is tipping towards anarchy. That's gonna be this idea of equality's downfall, if it hasn't already been dusted.	Gender, Sexual	Gender - General	3/122	2.459

That was tough as hell to accomplish but i finally made it to 0 after something like 40 attempts. Breadwinners - whoever gets paid more. Housework should be shared. You can't in your entire life describe a girl as "slutty". Bosses, Doctors and Professors - ofc women. Nurce? Men - because it's not well paid job! You can't judge woman intelligence because of the way she speaks. Pay gup is because women are seen as less valuable. There are so few women in politics because voters are sexist (lol). Do women make good bosses? Yes, of course! Can women be great mathematicians and scientists? Take a guess.You should feel happy after losing at a sport to woman .Women can be funny and whoever is able to should spend more time raising kids. No one in your entire life can't call you sexist. Do you think sexism still exists? "YUP."Here is the message i got:"You Got: 0 sexist!CONGRATULATIONS, YOU ARE TOTALLY FREE OF SEXISM , YOU MYTHICAL BEAUTIFUL BEING!"What the hell is happening... I took the test pro male (answering every question that makes men look better) and got 96 sexist. Then i answered everything pro female and got 6 sexist. Sexism is the belief that one sex is better then the other. So if i believe that men are better then women then i am sexist and vice verca. But nowadays, believing women are better then men is not seen as sexist, which is why i think feminism is stupid because they do not want men and women to be equal, they want women to be better than men. So they are crapping on men for being sexist when in reality, they are the sexists.	Sex, Sexism	Gender - General	2/113	1.77

My answers without watching the video straight from websiteQ. Who should be the breadwinner of the Family?A. That should be decided by a Mutual understanding in the Family! And looks like you pay more attention to your dog than your grown up kids. Your grown up kids can also earn for the family!Q. Who should spend more time on the housework?A. Again, this should be a mutual understanding. If there is someone who is out, working for family from morning to evening, the person inside should do the housework.Q. Have you ever described a girl as 'Slutty'?A. Sometimes. But I would never say it as it is not a thing to be discussed. We all know there are people who like this way of earning. (That's the truth mate!)Q. Without thinking Pick a Boss: Grown up man or Women?A. Old man, they look trustworthy and also know a lot more than anyone. By the way, even if I got a fraction of second before marking my answer, I would definitely think. That's a natural Process (Feminist don't get it However). And you don't even pick Bosses, Bosses pick you!Q. Have you judged a woman's intelligence the way she speaks?A. Everyone judges everyone on the basis of your communication skills! Remember how you call a guy desperate or over-confident?Q. Why do you think there is a Gender Pay Gap?A. Only gap I see is between the ears of the alien who made this Question! If there is any Pay Gap, why don't everyone hires women? they would have to pay less to them! Now if you still think Pay Gap exist, maybe that's because you deserve nothing better based on your quality of work.Q. Without thinking pick a Doctor : Male or Female?A. I would never pick any other Doctor out there! everyone have their own Doctor they trust. This is not even a Gender based argument because I don't think most of the females out there are even comfortable to go to a male doctor in certain cases!Q. Why do you think there are so few women in politics?A. So few?!! 3 THINGS - (i) A separate earth can be made filled with Female Politician. And by the way, Feminist are more Politician than Politicians Politician are! (ii) Most of the females out there don't even want to be the class monitor (iii) Males are Biologically more dominant and yes being Dominant on others is a part of Politics.Q. Do women make Good Bosses?A. This is a question that depends on the behavior of the Boss. Bosses having good behavior towards their employees are considered better It cannot and should not be answered on the basis of Gender.Q. Without thinking, pick a nurse: women, man or women?A. Well, I'm a straight man! If the female nurses are actually female and are also considered the same by themselves unlike and strange gender, I would definitely choose them. That nurse on left is looking really beautiful!Q. Can women be Great Mathematicians and Scientists?A. Ever heard about Ma'am Curie? How would you? You were so busy in feminism and politics that you gave up all your ongoing Hardwork! Take a look at those who didn't joined you. Well you can't! They are gone soooooo faaarr ahead from you and your B.S.Q. If you lost at a sport to a women, How would you feel?A. If I lost to anyone in any sort of competition, I would search a corner, go there, make sure no one's watching me AND CRY LIKE IDIOTS! After 5 minutes, you'll find me challenging you again!Q. Σeegma When you do the math correct. As in you take a married woman and a married man without kids who negotiated the same pay and worked the same hours and took the same sick days and costed the same to cover in terms of medical insurance if provided. No usually by a small percentile women out earn men.	Woman	Gender - General	1/59	1.695
Σeegma wage gap depends of what kind of data you use and also which factors you left behind.For example, in my country, to justify the existence of wage gap they took the average of the sum of the payment of all men dividied by the amount of all those men and compared it to the average of the payment of women dividied by all women. They didn't made an introspective observation of the nature of the data, such as profession or type of job, hierachy, hours done or extra hours, or bonifications due results(like sales, for example). That doesn't mean there isn't people getting underpayed just because they are from a diferent gender , or just because. However, if you and your peers work on the same type of job, in the same workplace, occupy the same position, work exactly the same amount of hours, and give the same results, you should be payed the same as your peers, regarless of anything. Most companies or workplaces don't care about your gender (unless some exceptions) the first rule they have is to hire resourceful people for a task. If it was true that women were getting less payed than men for some reason, then companies would attempt to hire more women, as their payment is lower.	Gender	Gender - General	2/214	0.935
+ Σeegma The Pay gap is non existant, it is Illegal in most modern nations to underpay someone based on their gender , you may underpay someone based on their experience in the job, so no the gap does not exist unless the job boss is illegally underpaying a woman based on her gender	Gender, Woman	Gender - General	3/53	5.66

Millions upon millions of women. Were given breast cancer on purpose. By giving them unnecessary x-rays. This one way anyway. Many died, or experienced, serious consequences in there lives, as a result of this. There families were gravely harmed too.So, the medical community, could steal their life savings, and money from other sources, like insurance companies, and tax payers. As well as to cause, untold misery and suffering, in these women’s lives, and their families lives. In order to get even more money from there families, as they were offered counseling services, and other ‘psychological help.’I read the NBC Nuclear Biological Chemical Civil Defense Guide from the states before. It’s extremely hard to find now. They had a radiation exposure chart in there based on R.U.s Radiation Units. It’s a statistics thing. Out of a million people, more exposure to gamma radiation, means more medical problems in that population sample. Up to and including death. Less exposure means less medical problems in that population sample exposed to radiation.Enough exposure to gamma radiation eventually leads to death in 99.9 percent of that sample population. Women in this case were being x-rayed, at a younger and younger age. Increasing the likelihood, statistic wise, of women getting breast cancer and or having other medical problems.X-rays and gamma rays are both energetic forms of radiation, and hard to tell apart. Exposure to both at the same dosage level, therefore should have the same outcome basically. It’s like filling a glass full of water in some ways. In this case more is worst. It adds up over a life time.Gamma radiations is what you get after a nuclear explosion. It’s the radiation fallout shelters, are support to help protect you from. Limits your exposure only. Gamma and x-ray radiation even penetrates steel.Link to a kerney fallout meter. As in NBC guide. To measure radiation levels and exposure over time. [LINK] The highest reading in the NBC information booklet was a complete discharge in 7 seconds I think. This is off the chart. At this high intensity level. Only several minutes of exposure, over your life, will probably kill you, and long before then, you will start having medical problems.These people will sit in front of you, and harass a person, for profit, right in front of you, and lie, to the public, and to that abused person, about what they are doing. Then turn around, and act like, they are your friend. As they give you friendly advice, to help out a family member or yourself.Those same people, who you can apparently trust, to be completely honest, and forthright in everything they do. Even when you know the truth. Will now offer you friendly advice to now help you, or a family member, because they are (concerned) for you and your family now.They are everywhere, in every community. Waiting with there (concern) for you and your family. As long as they get money somehow. Once the money is gone the (concern) is gone. They will tell you, to go and get this funding source now, by filling out some other paperwork now. Then maybe getting help from someone else now. Maybe years later, after you have been bled dry, trying to save a loved one.The new mental disorder is going to be being overweight. Poor people have lots of flavored water to pick from, and chips and such. Easy to get overweight, when such foods are easily	Age, Mental, alcohol	Age - General, Behavioural Addiction - Alcohol, Physical Identity - Physical (and Mental) Impairments	5/757	0.661

I've actually never thought of someone as a sl*t before. Never called anyone that either...plus why the heck is every question worded so that it's either I hate women or I love women? Can't it be, in this particular circumstance, I think you're whatever regardless of gender ? Why can't they just let you answer the question?	Gender, Sl*t	Gender - Female sexuality, Gender - General	2/56	3.571
I tried the quiz, and it's BS. I purposely put myself in the shoes of the average Feminazi while taking the quiz, and even then I got 15 sexist. The damn thing's rigged to make you look sexist.	Feminazi	Gender - Female intelligence	1/38	2.632
I did the test twice, once going full male power and full female power. The former scored WAY higher for sexism . Favoritism, anyone?	Sexism	Gender - General	1/23	4.348

Not sexist or anything, but damg!!!!She is ugly as hell is!!!She needs to eat a lot more!!!!Muscles don't look good on a woman , most are little, not all!!!!Or some are too tall, and looks disgusting, a woman around 5,5 or 5,7 can and look less disgusting.... Lets face it, nothing can go for boys and girls, they can only go for girls without judgement!!!!Though a guy wearing a dress or pink or anything girly still stands disgraceful, disgusting, and dumb But girls are given too much freedom... Becuase of a little strength difference, or emotion difference.... And they are treated like the worlds most dangerous thing, a mothers stare can melt and sayings like that, or a wife's look can make you shut the hell up, yeevsh... Now I must go watch vanoss!!!! It's hilarious how this quiz is about how sexist you are but all of the questions are directed towards painting women as victims in every aspect of their lives. They make it look like sexism towards men doesn't exist.	Sexism	Gender - General	1/39	2.564

I'd pick the woman doctor. I would much rather have her measuring my dick than some old dude in a physicalAlso a hot, short girl will have guys lining up for her, on the other hand a hot, short guy just gets laughed at whenever he asks out a girl.For some girls, if you're not above 6ft then don't even bother because they are bitches waiting to find a unicorn in a crusty old barWomen can make fun of short guys but guys can't make fun of fat women, like you can change being fat with exercise and swapping your diet, but if you're short, you will stay short for the rest of your life.Double standards, man. MEN ARE WAY FUCKING STRONGER, AND SMARTER, Just look at the TV shows where diffrent genders are put on a fucking Island, the women were saying how bad the men will be and will be coming to them for food, guess what the women were coming to them. They used their beds with out promission. Then they argued with an old man because he wanted them to leave because they were taking the mens food and just sleeping on their beds and using their fire...he bitches did not even have a fucking sheleter or fire I took them 5 hours to make one in the camp	Old, Woman	Age - Over 65s, Gender - General	2/136	1.471

Here’s the fucking truth, sexism and feminism shouldn’t exist, we are a type of species that are dominated by the males. In other animals like spiders and preying mantises, the female dominates. Humans have always been that way and we simply can’t adapt to a equally balanced dominants between the two genders so it’s gonna take some time (100-1000) years or some shit.	Sexism	Gender - General	1/63	1.587

Feminists back then: women are equal as men and can do anything men can (true I think this is great) Feminists now: women are better than men, we don't need men, ban Father's Day The sexism quiz is secret feminist sjw garbage	Sexism	Gender - General	1/42	2.381
Dude why ban Father's Day? My mom left me and my sister when I was two years old to go to Florida. My dad had to raise us on his own. We had little money and we lived in a trailer but he still made it the best childhood ever and did his best to do so. Fuck you you naive one sided feminists.	Old	Age - Over 65s	1/64	1.562
So for the teachers question. I like my male teachers more then female because they don't throw emotion into every part of the lesson. Male teacher(from my experience)tell me exactly what I need to know with out making things complicated. That does not mean I have never had a good female teacher just saying they are not as common as male.	Common	Social Class - Working class	1/61	1.639

Woman are so stupid sorry i don't mean everyone but comone they in this Video have No Arguments Just screaming and shouting calling you sexist	Woman	Gender - General	1/25	4.0
The word sexist doesn't even have any wait anymore. It's just another tool women or in particular feminism is trying to use to dehumanize men along with others like patriarchy. misogyny and 'toxic masculinity'.	Misogyny, Patriarchy	Gender - General	2/34	5.882
That's because present day SJW feminists are the female opposite of misogynists. With only one gender , it would be the "huwoman" species which would NEED to reproduce asexually in order to survive.	Gender	Gender - General	1/32	3.125
