| Nationalism and patriotism both show the relationship of an individual towards his or her nation According to him, nationalism is a feeling that one's country is superior to another in all respects, while patriotism is merely a feeling of admiration for a way of life. | Nation, Nationalism | Nationality - General | 3/46 | 6.522 |

| Videos like this are causing the problem. Pure propaganda to the point where I don't believe the author even realizes they are doing it because so many have been brainwashed, they're sheep that have been targeted by bad wolves, using the sheep to unknowingly spread their message through fear mongering... The leftists new norm is if you're not actively fighting against the evil racist right, you must be unconsciously racist . So they fight, causing the divide. | I dont know where these people get their information. Nationalism is not being racist or has anything to do with antisemitism. Nationalism is an extreme love for ones country and thats all. This is just straight bullcrap because its being made to make others that love their country feel bad because you are calling them racist or worse. | Nationalism, Racist | Ethnicity - General, Nationality - General | 4/58 | 6.897 |

| What you are asking for is a nationalism with not energy. Team sports is not the endall to patriotism. If you nation has interests that are not in the interest of others you can still support your nation . The Poles have thier own nation and it is thier choice if they want any other people in thier state. You are wrong here. People do not come before the interests of a sovereign nation . You want a patriotism with out a bite. If a people threatens the stability and happiness of another then they will have to suffer not being a part of the body politic. This is final. If a foreigner brings thier children with them into another country then they are risking those children themselves. Every person is not sacred. If we were to only use your kind of patriotism then we would lay ourselves open to the interests of others to our own detriment. Racism is ugly, but nationalism does not equal racism unless some group of others threatens your state. Get it. Racism is a reaction. And the idea that the needs of the left are indelibly correct is not ture. There are Hitler's in the world and there are Stalin's as well. Both are equally dangerous. Everyone the best thing is to keep to the middle and love your country fist. The duty of a people is to thier nation and the duty of a nation is to it's people. That is primary. Those outside this contract are way down the list of priorities. | Nation, Nationalism, Racism | Ethnicity - General, Nationality - General | 11/258 | 4.264 |

| Patriotism in America cannot be racist , by definition, because America is the only country that is not founded on race but on a creed, which is essentially encapsulated in Thomas Jefferson's Declaration of Independence and expounded upon in James Madison's Constitution. These documents are literally the Earth's last hope to escape tyranny and authoritarian hell. | Race, Racist | Ethnicity - General | 2/55 | 3.636 |

| The very idea of nationalism (the right of nation-states to exist) is inherent to classical liberalism, though admittedly not exclusive to it. Still, this means when people bash the idea of nation-states, they also bash the things having nation-states have given us thanks to the broad number which have been classically liberal: individual (human) rights, economic prosperity unprecedented in world history, relative peace when compared to historical norms between non-(classically) liberal states. So when I hear people attack nationalism , I hear them telling me I don't deserve human rights, money in my pocket or a stable place to raise my kids. Especially when those same people are championing socialism, which blatantly calls for the destruction of all individual rights and absolute power by a centralized state. In other words, total oppression and tyranny. Slavery. | Nationalism | Nationality - General | 2/134 | 1.493 |
| The death of god has created in men an unholy trinity; race,sex and power. But the part where people get it wrong is that nationality is stronger in its weakness than ethnology is in its strength. Nationhood is a product of spirit, something your eye cannot see or make a race of. Scottish nationalism was born in independence, Ireland was born in subjugation. It was H.G. Wells' idea to rid of nations, because someone would war against the utopian state. Rome has conquered Gaul, but Ireland has conquered races. Spaniards, Scottish, Norman, even Cromwellian soldiers have become Irish. When Ireland wasn't even a political identity it was stronger than the foundations of "The Theory of Races." J.R.R. Tolkien wanted to be a founder of English legend or folklore, Ireland has had legends from the beginning because its human. | Nationalism, Nationality, Race, Sex | Ethnicity - General, Gender - General, Nationality - General | 5/138 | 3.623 |

| Patriotism is synonymous with Nationalist. And the definition of nationalist was co-opted and changed. According to britannica until 2008 it meant to support industrial modernization in a nation and promote the national interest, meaning better jobs, less crime, etc. The crime went up in 2016 before trump was elected and it barely dropped in 2015 when Obama inspired BLM and blacks were attacking whites. According to the FBI crime dropped among whites but black on black crime and suicides increased. Maxine waters called for violence in 2017 and most of all hate crimes were directed at whites, especially Jewish people. So Democrats have become more violent and are marginalizing the right, exactly as Hitler did to the Jews. | Black, Nation | Ethnicity - Black, Nationality - General | 3/119 | 2.521 |
| What passes as nationalism in our time is a reaction to leftist efforts to flood Europe and the Anglosphere with mass immigration and to eliminate their political opposition. Rather than recognizing their own failures and abuses, including censorship, political suppression and political violence, leftists choose to mischaracterize their opposition as extremists, when most of their opposition merely seeks to preserve the cohesiveness and classical liberal values of post-WW2 Western Civilization. When the left points with alarm at the marginalized fringe far right, they only lose more credibility. | Nationalism | Nationality - General | 1/87 | 1.149 |

| Nationalism is allegiance to the Nation. Patriotism is allegiance to the State. Patriotism is sometimes called civic nationalism. So a Syrian can be a German patriot (yes, it happens) but he's not loyal to the German Nation, he's loyal to the German State and the Germans are his compatriots. In multinational empires, nationalists fight patriots to gain independence. Since the attitude of the State towards Europeans in the global super-market that used to be called Western Civilization is best described as hateful schizophrenia, no self-respecting European man can be a patriot. He can only be a nationalist. | Nation, Nationalism | Nationality - General | 8/97 | 8.247 |

| Everyone is patriotic and it is only when there are festivities and other acts where the country is represented = Fetishism. Nationalists have a permanent awareness of what represents a nation in itself = Love, honor, loyalty, fidelity, commitment, war) In short ... much to explain and enemies to win. Everyone says "look at the Nazis" but he is not offended when he observes communist , feminist or GLBTIQ groups that are the most common in these times thanks to the "politically correct phenomenon". We do not have freedom; debauchery dominates us. Let's support equality, for more inequality. Let us support the hegemony even if we do not have the slightest idea of what the world in general sells us. The differences maintain true diversity. Racism and " xenophobia " (which is not even a disease of pathological order, invention of empty minds) are negative things that do not go with nationalism , everyone is offended today ... the league of the offended . You can't make up new Definitions just cause you want to make someone look like a bad guy. Chauvinism-Chauvinism is a form of extreme patriotism and a belief in national superiority and glory. Trump uses the term 'nationalism' to differentiate from 'globalism' and the policies of his predecessors who have ceded our industrial base and our sovereign borders to the detriment of the American people. Some on the left think anything less than openly hating your country makes you a nationalist. They are literal globalists who want all national border dissolved, but their desire is actually racist because it would destroy the myriad distinct cultures which make the world so wonderful. Nation-states built those cultures, and they cannot survive without it. Nationalism becomes dangerous only when combined with socialism, a cancer that is always destructive. | I was with you until you used Poland as an example of the evils of nationalism. Wanting to protect your country and national identity from hostile invaders does NOT make you a far-right nationalist. Poles have the same right as Palestinians, Japanese, or Kenyans to protect themselves from external threats. Poland, like most of Eastern Europe, has endured imperialist aggression from various Islamic powers over the course of the last millennium, especially the Ottomans. The regressive, post-leftist worldview wrongly assumes that all Europeans are eternal oppressors, and all non-Europeans, especially Muslims, are eternal victims. In reality, Europe has more often been on the defence against the totalitarian, expansionist ambitions of Muslim nations. The Crusades only began after centuries of unchecked Islamic conquest that swallowed up the majority of Roman ('Byzantine', if you're historically illiterate) land, including the entirety of the Iberian Peninsula. While Western Europe has been free of serious Islamist threats since 1492, it has been a perpetual danger to the continent's Eastern region, with people alive today who were born when the Ottoman flag flew over Greek, Armenian, Magyar, and Slavic nations. | Imperialist, Nationalism | Ideological and Political Identity - General, Nationality - General | 2/184 | 1.087 |

| What a stupid propaganda.What maybe Obama was better than Trump ???He bombed 6 to 8 countries after which he was given a Nobel Peace Prize !!!Trump and Obama are the same pair of shoes, nothing more.....In Poland the nationalist grouping will not get even 1 in the national elections. They were also only 1 percent on the independence march ,the march was attended mostly by ordinary Poles, families with children, reconstruction groups. Of course the communist left media only showed what was most convenient for them.In the USA it is normal that someone wears a shirt with an American flag or hangs an American flag on the porch, in poland, the same means nationalism...Such a sick situation was created by the communist leftist media.The right side of Polish politics is a threat to the interests of international corporations (mainly from Germany and the US), especially young people who want to be cut off from all politicians who have a communist roots(CCCP).Do you want explanations what is going on in Poland :So, between 2015 and 2016, the Polish oil market grew by 20 percent, only for the fact that the newly elected Polish government has cut the possibility of oil scams (extinguishing taxes).Normally, the oil market grows by 1 percent when a country has an economic growth of 4-5 percent. With Polish growth at 4 per annum, a 20 increase in the oil market would take over 20 years!!!! In normal western countries, politicians who let this happen would be destroyed, in poland, a politician who allowed this was elected president of the European Union(with the support of the German Chancellor Angela Merkel-in Poland, everyone knows that he is a German puppet , his party was built for German money transferred by their secret services(under the sanction of court sentences, one of the founders of this party testified about these facts :)SHOW ME ONE WEST TELEVISION WHICH BY INFORMING ABOUT THIS !!!!???? WHERE IS THE WESTERN FREEDOM OF SPEECH ????However, the most important thing is Polish coal. Polish ground contains 80 of all European Union carbon .With coal gasification technique Poland can supply the EU for gas for the next 200 - 300 years!!!!AND THIS IS THE MAIN REASON FOR THE DESTRUCTION OF POLISH REPUTATION ON THE INTERNATIONAL POLITICS ARENA .motto : you want to explain, follow the money, not your feelings..... | Communist, Nationalism, Nothing | Ideological and Political Identity - General, Age - Youngsters, Nationality - General | 5/398 | 1.256 |

| American Nationalism cloaks the issue: the preponderance of under-educated White men living in the Rust Belt who have a bleak economic outlook. And who can blame them? This is not going away. These White men end up cozying up to Nativism as a cure-all for their economic insecurities, blaming minorities and immigrants for the loss of manufacturing jobs. These White men do not recognize that the corporate playbook of outsourcing quality manufacturing jobs is the culprit. Corporate profits have conspired to eliminate these cushy jobs. And the government has had its hand in this as well, with trade agreements, such as NAFTA, that make outsourcing a boon for outsourced labor. What is also being ignored is that high paying careers that require a degree are also being outsourced. Now the question is, where will this lead? War, as we saw in WWII? Not likely. The only time we'll have war is if it more profitable to wage war than to maintain economic stability. Corporations run the western world. And only war that can occur while maintaining economic stability can occur. War with China? No, they are the cheap labor force of the West. War with NK? Yes, it could happen because this would not destabilize the West. War with China over Taiwan? No, because Taiwan is part of the economic system War in the Middle East? Yes, because as long as oil is still flowing (through whatever hands) the economies of the world's economic leaders will continue to prosper. Problems for Poland? Yes, because corporate and banking interests are no strangers to Jewish leaders. Anti-Muslim sentiment? This will not hurt the Nationalism because Muslims are marginalized people. The real harm to a society comes in the form of failing to recognize the true cause of economic insecurity. | Nationalism | Nationality - General | 2/297 | 0.673 |

| This is one of the most dishonest things I've ever watched. Nationalism is not inherently bad. It is the belief that a country is superior to others, and is this not sometimes true? You cannot look at Japan and Zimbabwe and say they are equally great, nor can you look at America and Russia and say they are equally free. Different nations have different qualities; there is no denying this. And while greatness is subjective, it's delusional to say America and Russia, America and North Korea, America and Germany, are equal in every aspect. America has an ever growing culture while Germany is still having an existential crisis. Germany is barely a state at this point, with the slush of different beliefs and people fighting for control. It's mayhem.Nationalism can be abused, like it was in Nazi Germany or Italy. This is not all nationalism, it is but a sect. We call it national socialism and fascism respectively. As for Poland, the protesters with fascist leanings were a massive minority, around a couple hundred, compared to the thousands of civic nationalists marching hatelessly. I'm sorry, but this video is bullshit.You ought to remake it with at least a SHRED of nuance. Maybe give the countless different types of nationalism instead of painting it all with one broad stroke. Nationalism is that patriotism, that love for your country politically applied in order to protect and preserve that which you love and respect about your country. | ' Nationalism , originally a progressive movement, replaced the bonds of feudalism and absolutism. The average man today obtains his sense of identity from his belonging to a nation , rather than from his being a "Son of Man." His objectivity, that is, his reason, is warped by this fixation. He judges the "stranger" with different criteria than the members of his own clan. His feelings toward the stranger are equally warped. Those who are not "familiar" by bonds of blood and soil (expressed a common language, customs, food, song, etc.) are looked upon with suspicion, and paranoid delusions about them can spring up at the slightest provocation. This incestuous fixation not only poisons the relationship of the individual to the stranger, but to the members of his own clan and to himself. The person who has not freed himself from the ties to blood and soil is not yet fully born as a human being; his capacity for love and reason are crippled; he does not experience himself nor his fellow man in their-and his own-human reality. Nationalism is our form of incest, is our idolatry, is our insanity. 'Patriotism' is its cult....Just as love for one individual which excludes the love for others is not love, love for one's country which is not part of one's love for humanity is not love, but idolatrous worship.' Patriotism is love and devotion for your country, nationalism is love and devotion for your country, even at the expense of other countries etc. They are the same thing, one just has a fuller definition. for instance a patriot could have love and devotion in spite of other countries or even their own compatriots feeling otherwise.... which would by definition turn a patriot into a nationalist. nationalism is simply patriotism, at a more extreme level. | Nationalism | Nationality - General | 4/104 | 3.846 |
